An Act for the Regulation of the Pilchard-Fiſhing in the Counties of Devon and Cornwal.

Fiſhery of great Concernment to this Nation. 13 Ed. 1. c. 47.

'WHEREAS the publick Honour, Wealth and Safety of this Realm, as well in the Maintenance of Trade and Support of Navigation, as in many other Reſpects, doth in an high Degree depend upon the Improvement and Encouragement of the Fiſhery;

'II. And foraſmuch as of late Years there have divers pernicious Diſorders and Abuſes, by the Licentiouſneſs of the Times crept in, and yet continue, evidently deſtructive to that Trade: For Prevention and Redreſs whereof there is no Law hitherto particularly provided, in the growing Evils occaſioned by Driving-Nets, and other fraudulent and injurious Practices to the extream Damage of the Fiſhery:' (2) Be it therefore enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in Parliament aſſembled, and it is enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the five and twentieth Day of May one thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and two, no Perſon or Perſons ſhall in any Year from the firſt Day of June till the laſt of November preſume to take Fiſh in the high Sea, or in any Bay, Port, Creek or Coaſt, of or belonging to Cornwal or Devon, with any Drift-Net, Trammel or Stream Net or Nets, or any other Nets of that Sort or Kind, unleſs it be at the Diſtance of one League and an Half at leaſt from the reſpective Shores; (3) upon the Penalty of Forfeiture of the ſaid Nets ſo imployed, or the full Value thereof, and one Month's Impriſonment without Bail or Mainprize.

Times prohibited to Fiſh in Cornwall and Devon.

Penalty.

Pilchards and Fumathoes to be bought of the Owners and Adventurers in Fiſhing.

III. And it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon or Perſons, being neither Owners, Partners or Adventurers in the Craft of Fiſhery, and in the Boats and Saynes thereunto belonging, ſhall preſume from and after the Day before limited, to make or cauſe to be made any Pilchards or Fumathoes in Caſk to be ſold or tranſported, except he or they ſhall openly buy the aforeſaid Fiſh of the reſpective Owners, Partners and Adventurers in the ſaid Pilchard-Craft, or with their expreſs Allowance, Leave and Conſent, that they ſhall in ſuch Caſe forfeit all and ſingular ſuch Pilchards and Fumathoes ſo made, and every Caſk thereof, or their full Value; the one Half to the King, and the other Half to him or them that ſhall ſo ſue for the ſame by Bill, Plaint or other Information, and upon legal Proof recover the ſame.

IV. And be it further enacted, That if any Owner, Partner or Company, or any other Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, ſhall fraudulently purloin, imbezil, hide, convey, carry away or diſpoſe by Sale or otherwiſe, or cauſe to be purloined, imbezilled, hidden, conveyed, carried away or diſpoſed, out of the Nets, Boats or Cellars, any Pilchard-Fiſh, without the expreſs Leave, Conſent and Allowance of the proper Owners, and major Part of the Company reſpectively; that then every ſuch Perſon and Perſons that ſhall offend therein, upon legal Evidence, ſhall pay treble the Value in Satisfaction to the Parties ſo wronged, and be ſent to the Houſe of Correction for three Months.

Idle and ſuſpicious Perſons flocking about Pilchards-Boats, to depart upon Warning.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any idle or ſuſpicious Perſon or Perſons ſhall in the Night aſſemble and flock together about the Boats, Nets or Cellars belonging to any Pilchard-Craft, upon any of the Coaſts of Cornwal or Devon, having no Buſineſs there to do, and being warned by the Company or Owner of ſuch Boats or Cellars to be gone; that then upon Complaint made unto any one Juſtice of the Peace, every ſuch Perſon or Perſons refuſing ſo to do ſhall pay five Shillings to the Poor of the Pariſh where ſuch Offence was committed, or ſhall be ſet in the Stocks for the Space of five Hours.

CAP. XXIX.

An Act for the Reverſing of the Earl of Strafford his Attainder.

The Reaſons and Grounds of repealing the Attainder.

'WHEREAS Thomas late Earl of Strafford was impeached of High Treaſon, upon Pretence of endeavouring to ſubvert the fundamental Laws, and called to a publick and ſolemn Arraignment and Trial before the Peers in Parliament, where he made a particular Defence to every Article objected againſt him; (2) inſomuch that the turbulent Party then ſeeing no Hopes to effect their unjuſt Deſigns by any ordinary Way and Method of Proceedings, did at laſt reſolve to attempt the Deſtruction and Attainder of the ſaid Earl by an Act of Parliament, to be therefore purpoſely made, to condemn him upon accumulative Treaſon, none of the pretended Crimes being Treaſon a-part, and ſo could not be in the Whole, if they had been proved, as they were not; (3) and alſo judged him guilty of conſtructive Treaſon (that is) of levying War againſt the King, though it was only the commanding an Order of the Council-Board in Ireland, to be executed by a Serjeant at Arms and three or four Soldiers, which was the conſtant Practice of the Deputies there for a long Time; (4) to which End they having firſt preſented a Bill for this Intent to the Houſe of Commons, and finding there more Oppoſition than they expected, they cauſed a Multitude of tumultuous Perſons to come down to Weſtminſter, armed with Swords and Staves, and to fill both the Palace-Yards, and all the Approaches to both Houſes of Parliament, with Fury and Clamour, and to require Juſtice, ſpeedy Juſtice, againſt the Earl of Strafford; (5) and having by theſe and other undue Practices obtained that Bill to paſs in the Houſe of Commons, they cauſed the Names of thoſe reſolute Gentlemen, who in a Caſe of innocent Blood had freely diſcharged their Conſciences, being nine and fifty, to be poſted up in ſeveral Places about the Cities of London and Weſtminſter, and ſtiled them Straffordians, and Enemies to their Country, hoping thereby to deliver them up to the Fury of the People, whom they had endeavoured to incenſe againſt them; (6) and then procured the ſaid Bill to be ſent up to the Houſe of Peers, where it having ſometime reſted under great Deliberation, at laſt in a Time when a great Part of the Peers were abſent by reaſon of the Tumults, and many of thoſe who were preſent proteſted againſt it, the ſaid Bill paſſed in the Houſe of Peers: (7) And at length his late Majeſty King Charles the Firſt of Glorious Memory granted a Commiſſion for giving his Royal Aſſent thereunto; which nevertheleſs was done by his ſaid Majeſty with exceeding great Sorrow then, and ever remembred by him with unexpreſſible Grief of Heart, and out of his Majeſty's great Piety he did publickly expreſs it when his own Sacred Life was taken away by the moſt deteſtable Traitors that ever were:'

II. For all which Cauſes, Be it declared and enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, That the Act intituled, An Act for the Attainder of Thomas Earl of Strafford of High Treaſon, and all and every Clauſe, Article and Thing therein contained, being obtained as aforeſaid, is now hereby repealed, revoked and reverſed.

III. And to the End that Right be done to the Memory of the deceaſed Earl of Strafford aforeſaid, be it further enacted, That all Records and Proceedings of Parliament relating to the ſaid Attainder, be wholly cancelled, and taken off the File, or otherwiſe defaced and obliterated, to the Intent the ſame may not be viſible in After-ages, or brought into Example to the Prejudice of any Perſon whatſoever.

IV. Provided, That this Act ſhall not extend to the future Queſtioning of any Perſon or Perſons however concerned in this Buſineſs, or who had any Hand in the Tumults, or diſorderly procuring the Act aforeſaid; any Thing herein contained to the contrary thereof notwithſtanding.

CAP. II.

An Act for the Punishment of unlawful cutting or stealing, or spoiling of Wood and Underwood, and Destroyers of young Timber-Trees.

43 Eliz. c. 7. 22 & 23 Car. 2. c. 7. 1 Geo. 1. c. 48. The Punishment for cutting and spoiling any Woods.

'WHEREAS in one Act of Parliament made in the three and fortieth Year of the Reign of the late Queen Elizabeth, intituled, An Act to avoid and prevent divers Misdemeanors in idle and lewd Persons, among other Things it is enacted, That all and every such lewd Person and Persons that shall cut or spoil any Woods or Underwoods, Poles or Trees standing, and their Procurer or Procurers, Receiver or Receivers, knowing the same, and being thereof lawfully convicted by his or their own Confession, or by the Testimony of one sufficient Witness upon Oath, before some one Justice of Peace, or other Head Officer of the County or Place where such Offence was committed, shall give the Party or

'or Parties Satisfaction for his or their Damages for the first Fault: (2) And if such Offender or Offenders shall by such Justice of Peace or Head Officer be thought not able or sufficient; or if such Offender or Offenders do not make such Satisfaction as aforesaid, that then the said Justice of Peace or Head Officer shall commit the said Offender or Offenders to the Constable, or other inferior Officer, to receive the Punishment of Whipping, as in the said Act more fully doth appear.

'II. And whereas it is found by daily Experience, especially in and about London and other great Towns, where a great Number of such idle and lewd Persons do shelter themselves, that this Act hath not sufficiently prevented the said Mischief of cutting and spoiling of Woods and Underwoods, as was intended, as well because the said Offences are committed in such a close and clandestine Manner, that there is none Witness to them, but such as are Partakers to the Offence; as also because the said Punishment is too small for so great a Fault, which is not only prejudicial and hurtful to the Owners of the said Woods, but very mischievous and damageable to the Commonwealth:' (2) Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the four and twentieth Day of June next ensuing, every Constable, Headborough, or any other Person, in every County, City, Town Corporate, or other Place where they shall be Officers or Inhabitants, shall and may by Virtue of this present Act have full Power and Authority to apprehend or cause to be apprehended all and every Person or Persons they shall suspect, having or carrying, or any Ways conveying, any Burthen or Bundles of any Kind of Wood, Underwood, Poles, or young Trees, or Bark or Bast of any Trees, or any Gates, Stiles, Posts, Pales, Rails or Hedge-wood, Broom or Furze; (3) and by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of any one Justice of the Peace directed to any Officer, such Officer shall have Power to enter into and search the Houses, Out-houses, Yards, Gardens, or other Places belonging to the Houses of all and every Person or Persons they shall suspect to have any Kind of Wood, Underwoods, Poles, or young Trees, or Bark or Bast of any Trees, or any Gates, Stiles, Posts, Pales, Rails or Hedge-wood, Broom or Furze; (4) and wheresoever they find any such, to apprehend and cause to be apprehended all and every Person and Persons suspected for the Cutting and Taking of the same, and them and every of them, as well those apprehended carrying or any Ways conveying any Kind of Wood, Underwood, Poles or young Trees, or Bark or Bast of any Trees, or any Gates, Stiles, Posts, Pales, Rails or Hedge-wood, Broom or Furze, as also those in whose Houses or other Places belonging to them, any such Wood, Underwood, Poles or young Trees, or Bark or Bast of any Trees, or any Gates, Stiles, Posts, Pales, Rails or Hedge-wood, Broom or Furze, shall be found, to carry before one Justice of the Peace of the same County, City or Town Corporate: (5) And if the said Person and Persons so suspected, apprehended and carried before the said Justices, do not then and there give a good Account how he and they came by such Wood or Underwood, Poles or young Trees, or Bark or Bast of any Trees, or Gates, Stiles, Posts, Pales, Rails or Hedge-wood, Broom or Furze, by the Consent of the Owner, such as shall satisfy the said Justice, or else shall not within some convenient Time, to be set them by the said Justice, produce the Party or Parties of whom they bought the same Wood, Underwood, Poles or young Trees, or Bark or Bast of Trees, Gates, Stiles, Posts, Pales, Rails or Hedge-wood, Broom or Furze, or some other credible Witness to depose upon Oath such Sale of the said Wood, Underwood, Poles or young Trees, or Bark or Bast of Trees, Gates, Stiles, Posts, Pales, Rails or Hedge-wood, Broom or Furze, (which Oath the said Justice hath hereby Power to administer) That then the said Person or Persons so suspected, and not giving such good Account, nor producing any such Witness upon Oath to testify the said Sale as aforesaid, shall be deemed and adjudged as convicted of the said Offence of cutting and spoiling of the same Woods, Underwoods, Poles or young Trees, or Bark or Bast of Trees, Gates, Stiles, Posts, Pales, Rails or Hedge-wood, Broom or Furze, within the Meaning of the said Statute of Queen Elizabeth, and shall be liable to the Punishment therein contained, and to such other Proceedings and Punishments as by this present Act shall be further constituted and appointed on that Behalf.

Who may apprehend Woodstealers.

Search in Houses of suspected Persons.

43 Eliz. c. 7.

III. And be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every Person or Persons convicted of the said Offence in Manner and Form before in this Act mentioned, shall for the first Offence give the Owner or Owners such Recompence or Satisfaction for his or their Damages, and within such Time, as the said Justice shall appoint, and over and above pay down presently unto the Overseers for the Use of the Poor of the Parish where the said Offence or Offences were committed, such Sum of Money (not exceeding ten Shillings) as the said Justices shall think meet; (2) and if such Offender or Offenders do not make Recompence or Satisfaction to the said Owner or Owners, and also pay the said Sum to the Poor in Manner and Form aforesaid, then the said Justice shall commit the said Offender or Offenders to the House of Correction, for such Time as the said Justice shall think fit not exceeding one Month, or to be whipped by the Constable or other Officer, as in his Judgment shall seem expedient: (3) And if such Person or Persons shall again commit the said Offence, and be thereof convicted as before, that then they and every of them so offending the second Time and thereof so convicted, shall be sent to the House of Correction for one Month, and be there kept to hard Labour: (4) And if such Person or Persons shall again commit the said Offence, and be thereof convicted as before; that then they and every of them so offending the third Time and thereof so convicted, shall be taken, adjudged and deemed as incorrigible Rogues.

The Punishment for the first Offence.

The second Offence.

IV. Provided always, and it is further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That whosoever shall buy any Burthens of Wood, or any Poles or Sticks of Wood, or any other the Premisses particularly mentioned in this Bill, which may be justly suspected to have been stoln or unlawfully come by, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Justices of the Peace, Mayors, Bailiffs and Head Officers or any one of them, within their respective Jurisdictions, upon Complaint to them thereof made, to examine the said Matter upon Oath, which they and every of them respectively are hereby authorized to administer: (2) And if they shall find that the same was bought of a Person who might justly be suspected to have stoln or unlawfully come by the same, and that the same was stoln or unlawfully come by; That in such Case the said Justices of Peace, Mayors, Bailiffs or other Head Officers, or any one of them respectively, ſpectively, ſhall and may award the Party who bought the ſame to pay treble the Value of the ſame to the Party from whom the ſame was ſtolen or unlawfully taken; and in Default of preſent Payment thereof, to iſſue forth their reſpective Warrants to levy the ſame by Diſtreſs and Sale of the Offenders Goods, rendring the Overplus to the Party; and in Default of ſuch Diſtreſs, to commit the Party to the Gaol at his own Charge, there to remain one Month without Bail.

Buyers of stoln Wood, how to be dealt withal.

Within what Time Offenders muſt be queſtioned within this Act.

V. Provided always, That no Perſon or Perſons ſhall be queſtioned for any Offence upon this Law that hath been puniſhed for the ſame Offence by any former Law; (2) nor ſhall be puniſhed by this Law, unleſs he be queſtioned within ſix Weeks after the Offence committed.

V. And in Order thereunto, if any Perſon or Perſons of or belonging to any ſuch Pariſh or Place, ſhall upon Demand refuſe or neglect to provide a Foot-Soldier or Foot-Soldiers, according to the Proportion aforeſaid, or to pay any Sum of Money whereat he or they ſhall be taxed or aſſeſſed by a Pound-Rate, according to a Liſt ſigned by the reſpective Lieutenants and Deputy-Lieutenants, or any three or more of them, for and towards the Defraying and Satisfying the neceſſary Charge and Expence diſburſt in providing and furniſhing ſuch ſufficient Arms as aforeſaid; that then it ſhall and may be lawful to and for ſuch Conſtable or Conſtables, by Warrant for that Purpoſe to levy ſuch Sum ſo rated or aſſeſſed, by Diſtreſs and Sale of the Goods of ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſo refuſing or neglecting to pay, and ſhall reſtore the Overplus, (if any) the Charge of Diſtraining being firſt deducted: (2) And the Tenant of any Houſe, Land or Revenue, rated or aſſeſſed as aforeſaid, is hereby authorized and required to make Payment of ſuch Sum of Money ſo rated or aſſeſſed, and to deduct ſo much as ſhall be charged upon the Landlord's Rent, out of the next Rent payable to the Landlord; and in Default hereof the Goods of every ſuch Tenant is alſo liable to be diſtrained and ſold in Manner aforeſaid.

What ſhall be paid to the Muſter-Maſters.

VI. And be it further enacted, That once in every Year hereafter, each Soldier liſted or raiſed by Virtue of the ſaid Acts, or either of them, ſhall pay to his reſpective Muſter-Maſter ſuch Sum, not exceeding one Shilling for a Horſeman, and ſix Pence for a Footman, as the reſpective Lieutenants and Deputy-Lieutenants, Lieutenants, or any three or more of them, ſhall under their Hands and Seals direct; who have Power hereby to levy the ſame by Diſtreſs and Sale in caſe of Default of Payment, upon the Goods and Chattels of ſuch Perſon or Perſons as are charged with the Finding of the reſpective Horſeman or Foot-Soldier ſo making Default, unleſs the Default be by the Neglect of ſuch Horſeman or Foot-Soldier, who in that Caſe are hereby to be accountable for the ſame, and every ſuch Muſter-Maſter ſhall be an Inhabitant of the reſpective County.

What Ammunition every Muſqueteer ſhall bring with him.

VII. And it is hereby further provided and enacted, That at every Muſter, Training and Exerciſe, every Muſqueteer ſhall bring with him Half a Pound of Powder, and Half a Pound of Bullets; and every Muſqueteer that ſerves with a Match-lock ſhall bring with him three Yards of Match, both which are to be found accordingly at the Charge of ſuch Perſon or Perſons as provide the ſaid Foot-Soldier and Arms; (2) and every Horſeman is to bring with him a Quarter of a Pound of Powder, and a Quarter of a Pound of Bullets, at the Charge of ſuch Perſon or Perſons as provide the ſaid Horſeman and Arms, who are hereby required to find and bear the ſame, upon Pain of forfeiting five Shillings for every Omiſſion thereof. (3) And for the better Diſciplining and Inſtructing of the ſaid Militia in their Duties, as alſo for eaſing them of often and frequent Meetings at ſeveral Times, and for the better Security of the Peace of the Kingdom; (4) be it further enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful for the ſaid ſeveral Lieutenants, and in their Abſence, or by their Directions, for any two or more of their Deputies, within their reſpective Counties and Precincts for which they are commiſſioned, at any Time or Times during the Space of three Years, from the twenty-fourth Day of July in the Year of our Lord one thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and three, to ſummon and continue together ſo many of the ſaid trained Forces within their reſpective Counties and Precincts, and ſo long as they ſhall judge convenient, in Lieu of certain Days appointed for Exerciſe and Muſters by the ſaid Act, intituled, An Act for Ordering the Forces in the ſeveral Counties of this Kingdom.

13 & 14 Car. 2. c. 3.

No Troop to be kept upon Duty above fourteen Days.

VIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That any Troop, Company or Soldiers, may be ſo kept upon ſuch Duty by Virtue hereof fourteen Days, and no longer, in any one Year.

Commiſſioned Foot-Officers diſcharged from finding Arms.

IX. Provided always, and be it enacted, That every commiſſioned Foot-Officer in the Train-Bands or Militia of this Kingdom (ſettled according to Act of Parliament) ſhall be and is hereby exempted and excuſed from finding and contributing towards the Finding any Horſe, Horſeman or Arms, or Foot-Soldier and Arms, for his whole Eſtate, if at any Time it is charged but with one Horſe, or a leſs Charge, or for ſuch Part of his Eſtate as is or ſhall be charged with one Horſe, if his whole Eſtate be charged with a greater Charge than one Horſe in the County or Lieutenancy where he ſo ſerves as a Foot-Officer, in Reſpect of the Expence which the ſaid Imployment doth neceſſarily engage him in; any Thing in the ſaid Acts to the contrary notwithſtanding.

The Duty of Conſtables in executing Warrants of the Lieutenants or Deputies.

X. Be it alſo enacted and ordained, That each Conſtable, Tithingman, or other Officer of any Pariſh or Place, under the Penalty for every neglect of forfeiting forty Shillings, ſhall and do by Virtue of a Warrant directed to him from the reſpective Lieutenants and Deputy Lieutenants, or any three or more of them, levy all Arrears and Proportions of Money unpaid, that were ſet or charged for the Raiſing, Training and Arraying the Trained-Bands and Forces actually raiſed and in Being before the Paſſing of the ſaid mentioned Act, by the Diſtreſs and Sale of the Goods of any Perſon or Perſons refuſing to pay the ſame, rendring back the Overplus (if any) the Charge of Diſtreſs and Sale being firſt deducted.

Troopers and Soldiers ſhall be ſubject to Exerciſe and Duty.

XI. Be it alſo enacted, That every Trooper or Foot-Soldier at any Time raiſed by Virtue or according to the Directions of this preſent Act, ſhall be ſubject to ſuch Exerciſe and Duty, as others charged or raiſed by the ſaid mentioned Act, and ſhall accordingly upon like Pains and Penalties obſerve and keep all the reſpective Orders and Directions of the ſaid Act, and of this preſent Act, and ſhall ſuffer the ſame Penalties for committing any of the reſpective Crimes and Offences expreſſed in the ſaid Act; which ſaid Pains and Penalties are in the like Caſes to be impoſed and levied in the ſame Manner, and by the ſame Ways and Means, as are ſet down in the ſaid Act.

A fourth Part of a Month's Aſſeſſment, how to be diſpoſed.

'XII. And whereas the fourth Part of one Month's Aſſeſſment in each County, after the Rate of ſeventy thouſand Pounds by the Month, is by the ſaid Act yearly appointed for furniſhing Ammunition and other Neceſſaries;' (2) Be it enacted and declared by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid reſpective Lieutenants and Deputies, or any three or more of them, ſhall from Time to Time have Power to diſpoſe of ſo much of the ſaid fourth Part to the inferior Officers imployed in or about the ſaid reſpective Forces, for their Pains and Incouragement, as to them the ſaid Lieutenants and Deputies, or any three or more of them, ſhall ſeem expedient.

Perſons ſued for Matters done by this Act may plead the General Iſſue. Double Coſts to the Defendant.

XIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That it ſhall be lawful to every Perſon and Perſons that ſhall have any Action or Suit brought againſt him or them for any Thing done in Execution of this or the ſaid Act, to plead the General Iſſue, and to give the ſpecial Matter in Evidence; and if Judgment ſhall be given for the Defendant, or if the Plaintiff ſhall become nonſuit, or diſcontinue his Suit, then he ſhall recover double Coſts.

XIV. Provided alſo, and be it enacted, That no Action or Suit ſhall be brought againſt any Perſon for any Thing done in Execution, or by Pretence of the Execution of this or the ſaid Act, unleſs the ſaid Action or Suit be laid in the proper County, and commenced within ſix Months next after ſuch Cauſe of Action.

13 Car. 2. Stat. 1. c. 6.

Fanatick Sectaries.

XV. Provided, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That one Clauſe contained in a certain Act, intituled, An Act declaring the ſole Right of the Militia to be in the King, and for the preſent Ordering and Diſpoſing of the ſame; and made for the Indemnifying of all Perſons acting in the Militia, from the four and twentieth of June one thouſand ſix hundred and ſixty, to the twentieth of July one thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and one, as touching the Aſſaulting, Detaining or Impriſoning any Perſon ſuſpected to be a Fanatick, Sectary or Diſturber of the Peace, or Seizing of Arms, or Searching of Houſes for Arms, or for ſuſpected Perſons, ſhall be conſtrued to commence and take Effect, and ſhall be good and effectual in Law, for the Indemnifying of all Perſons whatſoever acting in the Militia of this Kingdom for any the Matters aforeſaid, betwixt the ſecond Day of February one thouſand ſix hundred fifty-nine, and the four and twentieth of June one thouſand ſix hundred and ſixty inclusive, by Virtue or Colour of any Authority rity or Command whatſoever; any Thing in the ſaid Act, or in any other Act to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

How the Forfeitures and Penalties upon this Act may be levied.

XVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſeveral Forfeitures, Penalties and Payments by this preſent Act impoſed, ſet or directed, (not otherwiſe by this preſent Act provided to be levied, ſued for or recovered) ſhall or may, in Caſe of Default, be levied or recovered by Warrant under the Hands and Seals of the reſpective Lieutenants and Deputy-Lieutenants, or any three or more of them, upon the Goods and Chattels of the Offender, and by Sale of the ſame, rendring the Party the Overplus, if any be: (2) And if ſufficient of the Goods and Chattels of ſuch Offender cannot be found or had, whereof to levy ſuch Forfeiture, Payment or Penalty, then the ſaid reſpective Lieutenants and Deputy-Lieutenants, or any three or more of them, ſhall have Power, and are hereby authorized, by like Warrant under their Hands and Seals to commit ſuch Offender to Priſon until he ſhall make Satisfaction, according to the ſaid Forfeiture, Payment or Penalty.

XVII. And it is further declared and enacted, That all and every Perſon and Perſons, which ſince the five and twentieth Day of March one thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and two have acted or done any Thing in the diſmantling of any Cities or Towns, or demoliſhing of Walls and Fortifications thereof, or relating thereunto, ſhall be and are hereby indemnified and ſaved harmleſs. And whereas ſome Doubt hath ariſen upon the ſaid Act, what Eſtates ſhall be charged with or towards Foot;

How Perſons may be charged with Arms, and for what Eſtates.

XVIII. Be it therefore enacted and declared by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Perſon who hath an Eſtate of the yearly Value of two hundred Pounds, or perſonal Eſtate of the Value of two thouſand four hundred Pounds, chargeable by the ſaid Act, ſhall be charged with or toward the Finding any Foot; (2) and it ſhall be lawful for the reſpective Lieutenants and Deputies, or any three or more of them, to charge according to the Proportions in the ſaid Act, any Perſon who hath an Eſtate of the yearly Value of one hundred Pounds, and under the yearly Value of two hundred Pounds, or who hath a perſonal Eſtate of twelve hundred Pounds, and under the Value of two thouſand four hundred Pounds, chargeable by the ſaid Act, with or towards the Finding of Foot, or toward the Finding of Horſe, as to their Judgment ſhall ſeem moſt expedient for his Majeſty's Service; (3) yet nevertheleſs this ſhall not be conſtrued to extend to make any Alteration in the Proviſions in the ſaid or this Act, concerning the Forces to be charged or raiſed in Cities, Corporations and Port-Towns.

The Cinque Ports.

XIX. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, two antient Towns, and their Members, and in his Abſence his Lieutenant or Lieutenants, ſhall and may put in Execution within the ſaid Ports, Towns and Members, all the Powers and Authorities given and granted by this and the ſaid former Act, and to execute and perform all and every the Things therein contained, in the like Manner as the reſpective Lieutenants of the Counties and their Deputies may do, and may keep up and continue the uſual Numbers of Soldiers in the ſaid Ports, Towns and Members, unleſs they find Cauſe to leſſen the ſame: (2) And that the Inhabitants of the ſaid Ports, Towns and Members, being in regard of their Situation on the Sea-Coaſts charged with a greater Proportion of Arms and armed Men, than other Parts of the Kingdom, ſhall not be charged with Arms or armed Men in the Counties adjacent, for their Eſtates there lying, ſave only for ſuch Proportion as they are liable unto, and either are not or ſhall not be charged with within the ſaid Ports, Towns and Members; any Thing in this Act contained to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

St. Martin's Pariſh in Stamford-Baron in Lincolnſhire.

XX. CAP. V.

EXP. An Act for the regulating Select Veſtries.

CAP. VI.

An Act for Relief of ſuch Perſons as by Sickneſs or other Impediment were diſabled from ſubſcribing the Declaration in the Act of Uniformity, and Explanation of Part of the ſaid Act.

13 & 14 Car. 2. c. 4. §. 8.

'WHEREAS by an Act of this preſent Parliament, intituled, An Act for Uniformity of Publick Prayer and Adminiſtration of the Sacraments, and other Rites and Ceremonies, and for the Eſtabliſhing the Form of Making, Ordaining and Conſecrating Biſhops, Prieſts and Deacons, in the Church of England, 'It was enacted, That every Dean, Canon and Prebend of every Cathedral or Collegiate Church, and 'all Maſters and Fellows of any College, Hall, Houſe of Learning or Hoſpital, and every Parſon, Vicar, 'Curate, and every other Perſon in Holy Orders, who upon the firſt Day of May, which ſhould be in 'the Year of our Lord God one thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and two, or at any Time thereafter ſhould 'be Incumbent or have Poſſeſſion of any Deanry, Canonry, Prebend, Maſterſhip, Fellowſhip, Parſonage, Vicarage, or any other Eccleſiaſtical Dignity or Promotion, ſhould before the Feaſt-Day of Saint 'Bartholomew, which ſhould be in the Year of our Lord one thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and two, ſubſcribe the Declaration or Acknowledgment in the ſaid Act mentioned and expreſſed, before the reſpective Archbiſhops, Biſhops, Ordinaries or Vice-Chancellors of the reſpective Univerſities; upon Pain 'that all and every of the Perſons aforeſaid, failing in ſuch Subſcription, ſhould loſe and forfeit ſuch reſpective Deanry, Canonry, Prebend, Maſterſhip, Fellowſhip, Parſonage, Vicarage, Eccleſiaſtical Dignity 'or Promotion, and ſhould be utterly diſabled, and ipſo facto deprived of the ſame; and that every ſuch

'reſpective

'respective Deanry, Canonry, Prebend, Masterſhip, Fellowſhip, Parſonage, Vicarage, Eccleſiaſtical Dignity or Promotion, ſhould be void, as if ſuch Perſon ſo failing were naturally dead: (2) And that after 'ſuch Subſcription made, every ſuch Parſon, Vicar, Curate and Lecturer, ſhould procure a Certificate 'under the Hand and Seal of the reſpective Archbiſhop, Biſhop, or Ordinary of the Dioceſe, and ſhould 'publickly and openly read the ſame, together with the Declaration or Acknowledgment aforeſaid, upon 'ſome Lord's Day within three Months then next following, in his Pariſh Church where he was to officiate, 'in the Preſence of the Congregation there aſſembled, in the Time of Divine Service; upon Pain that 'every Perſon failing therein ſhould loſe ſuch Parſonage, Vicarage or Benefice reſpectively, and ſhould be 'utterly diſabled, and ipſo facto deprived of the ſame, and that the ſaid Parſonage, Vicarage or Benefice 'ſhould be void, as if he were naturally dead.

'II. And whereas divers Perſons of eminent Loyalty to his Majeſty, and of known Affection to the Liturgy of the Church of England, who by the ſaid Act were required to ſubſcribe the ſaid Declaration or 'Acknowledgment, at the Time of the paſſing of the ſaid Act were out of this Realm, in Ireland, or other 'Parts beyond the Seas, upon lawful and juſtifiable Occaſions, and had no Knowledge or Notice thereof 'until their Return into England, being after the ſaid Feaſt of Saint Bartholomew; and divers other of the 'ſaid loyal and well-affected Perſons, by Reaſon of Sickneſs, Impriſonment, Diſability of Body, or otherwiſe, could not or did not reſort unto their reſpective Archbiſhops, Biſhops or Ordinaries, or Vice-Chancellors of the reſpective Univerſities, before whom ſuch Subſcription was appointed by the ſaid Act to be 'made: All which ſaid Perſons are by Force of the ſaid Act utterly diſabled, and ipſo facto deprived of 'their reſpective Deanries, Canonries, Prebendaries, Maſterſhips, Fellowſhips, Parſonages, Vicarages, or 'other Eccleſiaſtical Benefices or Promotions, by Reaſon of ſuch their Omiſſion.'

III. For Remedy whereof, and for the Relief of ſuch Perſons, be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by Authority of the ſame, That all Deans, Canons, Prebendaries, Maſters and Fellows of any Colleges, Halls or other Houſes of Learning, and all Parſons, Vicars and other Eccleſiaſtical Perſons aforeſaid, who at the Time of the paſſing of the ſaid Act being in Ireland, or any the Parts beyond the Seas, did not return into this Kingdom before the ſaid Feaſt of Saint Bartholomew one thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and two, or who being in England, by Impriſonment, Sickneſs, Diſability of Body, or otherwiſe, did not reſort unto their reſpective Archbiſhop, Biſhop, Ordinary or Vice-Chancellor of the ſaid reſpective Univerſities, to ſubſcribe the ſaid Declaration and Acknowledgment, before the ſaid Feaſt in the Year of our Lord aforeſaid, ſhall be and are hereby declared to be reſtored unto and preſerved in their reſpective Deanries, Canonries, Prebendaries, Maſterſhips, Fellowſhips, Parſonages, Vicarages, and other Eccleſiaſtical Benefices and Promotions, whereunto no other Perſon or Perſons before the firſt Day of Auguſt in the Year of our Lord one thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and three were or ſhall be lawfully inſtituted, inducted, collated or placed; and ſhall and may hold and enjoy the ſame according to his and their former Right; the aforeſaid Act, or any Thing therein contained, to the contrary notwithſtanding.

IV. Provided, That every ſuch Dean, Canon, Prebendary, Maſter and Fellow of any College, Hall or Houſe of Learning, and all Parſons, Vicars and Curates, and other Eccleſiaſtical Perſons, who are or ſhall by Virtue of this Act be reſtored to or preſerved in their ſaid ſeveral and reſpective Promotions, ſhall before the Feaſt of the Nativity of our Lord next enſuing, if he be in England, or if beyond the Seas, within forty Days after his Return into England, ſubſcribe the ſaid Declaration or Acknowledgment before the reſpective Archbiſhop, Biſhop or Ordinary of the Dioceſe, or Vice-Chancellor aforeſaid reſpectively; (2) and that every ſuch Parſon, Vicar, Curate or Lecturer ſhall procure a Certificate under the Hand and Seal of the reſpective Archbiſhop, Biſhop or Ordinary of the Dioceſe (who are hereby required and enjoined upon Demand to make and deliver ſuch Certificate) and ſhall publickly and openly read the ſame, together with the Declaration or Acknowledgment aforeſaid, upon ſome Lord's Day within three Months then next following ſuch Subſcription, in his Pariſh Church where he is to officiate, in the Preſence of the Congregation then aſſembled, in the Time of Divine Service.

V. And be it further enacted and declared by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Subſcription already made, or hereafter to be made, before any Vicar General or Chancellor to any Archbiſhop or Biſhop, or Commiſſary to the Archbiſhop of Canterbury or any other Biſhop, is and ſhall be as effectual and beneficial in Law to all Intents and Purpoſes to every Perſon and Perſons which have or ſhall make ſuch Subſcription as aforeſaid, as if the ſame had been made before the Archbiſhop or Biſhop of the Province or Dioceſe reſpectively; any Thing in the aforeſaid Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

VI. Provided alſo, That every Perſon who ſhall have Benefit by this Act, ſhall make ſuch Allowance for ſerving the Cure ſince the twenty-fourth of Auguſt one thouſand ſix hundred ſixty-two, as ſhall be judged fit by the Ordinary of the Place, and ſhall pay and diſcharge all Tenths, Penſions and other Charges, wherewith the Benefice to which he is by this Act reſtored, hath been or might be legally charged ſince the Day aforeſaid.

'VII. And whereas ſome Doubt hath ariſen, whether Perſons prohibited to preach by the ſaid Act are 'in the ſame Plight as to Puniſhment, with Perſons diſabled by the ſaid Act to preach;' (2) Be it declared and enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Penalties by the ſaid Act to be inflicted upon any Perſon diſabled by the ſaid Act to preach, for any Offence againſt the ſaid Act, ſhall in like Manner be inflicted upon every Perſon ſo offending, that is prohibited by the ſaid Act to preach; any Thing, Doubt or Ambiguity in the ſaid Act to the contrary notwithſtanding. Perſons prohibited to preach. 13 & 14 Car. 2. c. 4.

CAP. VII.

An Act for the Encouragement of Trade.

FOraſmuch as the encouraging of Tillage ought to be in an eſpecial Manner regarded and endeavoured; and the ſureſt and effectualleſt Means of promoting and advancing any Trade, Occupation or Myſtery, being by rendring it profitable to the Uſers thereof; (2) and great Quantities of Land within Tillage,

'this Kingdom for the preſent lying in a Manner waſte, and yielding little, which might thereby be improved to conſiderable Profit and Advantage (if ſufficient Encouragement were given for the laying out of Coſt and Labour on the ſame) and thereby much more Corn produced, greater Numbers of People, Horſes and Cattle imployed, and other Lands alſo rendred more valuable:'

Corn not exceeding certain Rates may be tranſported. Farther Proviſions relating hereto, 1 *W. & M. II. Be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority thereof; and it is hereby enacted, That from and after the firſt Day of September in the Year of our Lord one thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and three, and from thenceforward, when the Prices of Corn and Grain Winchester Meaſure do not exceed the Rates hereafter following, at the Havens or Places where the ſame ſhall be ſhipped or loaden, (viz.) The Quarter of Wheat, eight and forty Shillings; the Quarter of Barley or Malt, eight and twenty Shillings; the Quarter of Buck-wheat, eight and twenty Shillings; the Quarter of Oats, thirteen Shillings and four Pence; the Quarter of Rye, two and thirty Shillings; the Quarter of Peaſe or Beans, two and thirty Shillings current Engliſh Money; that then it ſhall be lawful for all and every Perſon and Perſons to ſhip, load, carry and tranſport any of the ſaid Corns or Grains from the Havens or Places where they ſhall be of ſuch Prices, unto any Parts beyond the Seas as Merchandize; any Law, Statute or Uſage to the contrary notwithſtanding; paying ſuch Rates for the ſame, and none other, as are to be paid when the ſame might have been tranſported by one Act paſſed this preſent Parliament, intituled, A Subſidy granted to the King of Tonnage and Poundage.

When Corn may be imported, and what Cuſtom to be paid.

III. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That when the Prices of the aforeſaid Corns and Grains do not exceed the Rates above-mentioned reſpectively Winchester Meaſure, at the Haven or Place into which any of them ſhall be imported from any Parts beyond the Seas, there ſhall be paid for the Cuſtom and Poundage of every Quarter of Wheat, five Shillings and four Pence; and for every Quarter of Rye, four Shillings; and for every Quarter of Barley or Malt, two Shillings and eight Pence; and for every Quarter of Buck-wheat, two Shillings; and for every Quarter of Oats, one Shilling four Pence; and for every Quarter of Peaſe or Beans, four Shillings.

IV. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That when the Prices of Corn or Grain Winchester Meaſure do not exceed the Rates following at the Markets, Havens or Places where the ſame ſhall be bought, (viz.) the Quarter of Wheat, eight and forty Shillings; the Quarter of Rye, two and thirty Shillings; the Quarter of Barley or Malt, eight and twenty Shillings; the Quarter of Buck-wheat, eight and twenty Shillings; the Quarter of Oats, thirteen Shillings and four Pence; the Quarter of Peaſe or Beans, two and thirty Shillings; that then it ſhall be lawful for all and every Perſon and Perſons (not foreſtalling nor ſelling the ſame in the ſame Market within three Months after the Buying thereof) to buy in open Market, and to lay up and keep in his or their Granaries or Houſes, and to ſell again, ſuch Corn or Grain of the Kinds aforeſaid, as without Fraud or Covin ſhall have been bought at or under the Prices before expreſſed, without incurring any Penalty; any Law, Statute or Uſage to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Plantations beyond the Sea.

'V. And in regard his Majeſty's Plantations beyond the Seas are inhabited and peopled by his Subjects 'of this his Kingdom of England; for the Maintaining a greater Correſpondence and Kindneſs between 'them, and keeping them in a firmer Dependance upon it, and rendring them yet more beneficial and advantagious unto it in the further Imployment and Increaſe of Engliſh Shipping and Seamen, Vent of Engliſh Woollen and other Manufactures and Commodities, rendring the Navigation to and from the ſame 'more ſafe and cheap, and making this Kingdom a Staple, not only of the Commodities of thoſe Plantations, but alſo of the Commodities of other Countries and Places, for the Supplying of them; and it 'being the Uſage of other Nations to keep their Plantations Trade to themſelves:'

Commodities of the Growth and Manufacture of Europe, how to be imported in Engliſh built Shipping. Repealed as to Iriſh Linen by 3 & 4 Annæ, c. 8. §. 1. 13 & 14 Car. 2. c. 11.

VI. Be it enacted, and it is hereby enacted, That from and after the five and twentieth Day of March one thouſand ſix hundred ſixty-four, no Commodity of the Growth, Production or Manufacture of Europe, ſhall be imported into any Land, Iſland, Plantation, Colony, Territory or Place to his Majeſty belonging, or which ſhall hereafter belong unto or be in the Poſſeſſion of his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, in Aſia, Africa or America, (Tangier only excepted) but what ſhall be bona fide, and without Fraud, laden and ſhipped in England, Wales, or the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, and in Engliſh built Shipping, or which were bona fide bought before the firſt Day of October one thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and two, and had ſuch Certificate thereof as is directed in one Act paſſed the laſt Seſſions of this preſent Parliament, intituled, An Act for preventing Frauds, and regulating Abuſes in his Majeſty's Cuſtoms; and whereof the Maſter and three Fourths of the Mariners at leaſt are Engliſh, and which ſhall be carried directly thence to the ſaid Lands, Iſlands, Plantations, Colonies, Territories or Places, and from no other Place or Places whatſoever; any Law, Statute or Uſage to the contrary notwithſtanding; (2) under the Penalty of the Loſs of all ſuch Commodities of the Growth, Production or Manufacture of Europe, as ſhall be imported into any of them from any other Place whatſoever, by Land or Water; and if by Water, of the Ship or Veſſel alſo in which they were imported, with all her Guns, Tackle, Furniture, Ammunition and Apparel; one third Part to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors; one third Part to the Governor of ſuch Land, Iſland, Plantation, Colony, Territory or Place, into which ſuch Goods were imported, if the ſaid Ship, Veſſel or Goods be there ſeized or informed againſt and ſued for; or otherwiſe that third Part alſo to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors; and the other third Part to him or them who ſhall ſeize, inform or ſue for the ſame in any of his Majeſty's Courts in ſuch of the ſaid Lands, Iſlands, Colonies, Plantations, Territories or Places where the Offence was committed, or in any Court of Record in England, by Bill, Information, Plaint or other Action, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection or Wager of Law ſhall be allowed.

VIII. And

VIII. And for the better Prevention of Frauds, be it enacted, and it is hereby enacted, That from and after the five and twentieth Day of March one thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and four, every Perſon or Perſons importing by Land any Goods or Commodities whatſoever into any the ſaid Lands, Iſlands, Plantations, Colonies, Territories or Places, ſhall deliver to the Governor of ſuch Land, Iſland, Plantation, Colony, Territory or Place, or to ſuch Perſon or Officer as ſhall be by him thereunto authorized and appointed, within four and twenty Hours after ſuch Importation, his and their Names and Surnames, and a true Inventory and Particular of all ſuch Goods or Commodities: (2) And no Ship or Veſſel coming to any ſuch Land, Iſland, Plantation, Colony, Territory or Place, ſhall lade or unlade any Goods or Commodities whatſoever, until the Maſter or Commander of ſuch Ship or Veſſel ſhall firſt have made known to the Governor of ſuch Land, Iſland, Plantation, Colony, Territory or Place, or ſuch other Perſon or Officer as ſhall be by him thereunto authorized and appointed, the Arrival of the ſaid Ship or Veſſel, with her Name, and the Name and Surname of her Maſter or Commander, and have ſhewn to him that ſhe is an Engliſh-built Ship, or made good by producing ſuch Certificate, as aboveſaid, that ſhe is a Ship or Veſſel bona fide belonging to England, Wales, or the Town of Berwick, and navigated with an Engliſh Maſter, and three fourth Parts of the Mariners at leaſt Engliſhmen, and have delivered to ſuch Governor or other Perſon or Officer a true and perfect Inventory or Invoice of her Lading, together with the Place or Places in which the ſaid Goods were laden or taken into the ſaid Ship or Veſſel; (3) under the Pain of the Loſs of the Ship or Veſſel, with all her Guns, Ammunition, Tackle, Furniture and Apparel, and of all ſuch Goods of the Growth, Production or Manufacture of Europe, as were not bona fide laden and taken in in England, Wales, or the Town of Berwick, to be recovered and divided in Manner aforeſaid; (4) and all ſuch as are Governors or Commanders of any the ſaid Lands, Iſlands, Plantations, Colonies, Territories or Places (Tangier only excepted) ſhall before the five and twentieth Day of March one thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and four, and all ſuch as ſhall hereafter be made Governors or Commanders of any of them, ſhall before their Entrance upon the Execution of ſuch Truſt or Charge, take a ſolemn Oath before ſuch Perſon or Perſons as ſhall be authorized by his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, to adminiſter the ſame; to do their utmoſt within their reſpective Governments or Commands, to cauſe to be well and truly obſerved what is in this Act enacted, in Relation to the Trade of ſuch Lands, Iſlands, Plantations, Colonies, Territories and Places, under the Penalty of being removed out of their reſpective Governments and Commands: (5) And if any of them ſhall be found, after the taking of ſuch Oath, to have wittingly and willingly offended contrary to what is by this Act required of them, that they ſhall for ſuch Offence be turned out of their Governments, and be uncapable of the Government of any other Land, Iſland, Plantation or Colony; and moreover, forfeit the Sum of one thouſand Pounds of lawful Money of England; the one Moiety to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors; and the other Moiety to him or them that ſhall inform or ſue for the ſame in any of his Majeſty's Courts in any of the ſaid Plantations, or in any Court of Record in England, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection or Wager of Law ſhall be allowed.

Prevention of Frauds.

Farther provided for by 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 22. §. 5.

IX. And it is hereby further enacted, That if any Officer of the Cuſtoms in England, Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, ſhall give any Warrant for, or ſuffer any Sugar, Tobacco, Ginger, Cotton-wool, Indico, Speckle-wood or Jamaica-wood, Fuſtick or other Dying-wood of the Growth of any of the ſaid Lands, Iſlands, Colonies, Plantations, Territories or Places, to be carried into any other Country or Place whatſoever, until they have been firſt unladen bona fide and put on Shore in ſome Port or Haven in England or Wales, or in the Town of Berwick; That every ſuch Officer for ſuch Offence ſhall forfeit his Place, and the Value of ſuch of the ſaid Goods as he ſhall give Warrant for, or ſuffer to paſs into any other Country or Place; the one Moiety to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors; and the other Moiety to him or them that ſhall inform or ſue for the ſame in any Court of Record in England or Wales, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection or Wager in Law ſhall be allowed.

Penalty upon Officers of the Cuſtoms.

X. And for the better Encouragement of the ſaid Plantations, and the Increaſe of the Shipping and Navigation of this Kingdom, (2) Be it enacted, and it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the five and twentieth Day of March one thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and four, it ſhall and may be lawful out of any Port of England or Wales, or out of the Town of Berwick, to ſhip and lade Sea-coals for any Part of them, paying for the Chalder, Newcaſtle-meaſure, one Shilling eight Pence; and for the Chalder, London-meaſure, one Shilling and no more; in full of all Cuſtom and Poundage for the ſame; any Law, Statute or Prohibition to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Encouragement of Plantations, and Increaſe of Shipping. Altered by 9 Annæ, c. 6. §. 7.

XI. Provided, That ſuch Sea-coals be ſhipped in ſuch Shipping, and ſo navigated, as aboveſaid; and that good Security be given to the Officers of the Cuſtoms in ſuch Port in which they are ſhipped, for the Landing them in the ſaid Plantations, and not elſewhere.

'XII. And foraſmuch as ſeveral conſiderable and advantagious Trades cannot be conveniently driven 'and carried on without the Species of Money or Bullion, and that it is found by Experience, that they 'are carried in greateſt Abundance (as to a common Market) to ſuch Places as give free Liberty for ex-'porting the ſame; and the better to keep in and increaſe the current Coins of this Kingdom,' (2) Be it enacted, and it is hereby enacted, That from and after the firſt Day of Auguſt one thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and three, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, to export out of any Port of England or Wales, in which there is a Cuſtomer or Collector, or out of the Town of Berwick, all Sorts of Foreign Coin or Bullion of Gold or Silver, firſt making Entry thereof in ſuch Cuſtom-houſe reſpectively, without paying any Duty, Cuſtom, Poundage or Fee for the ſame; any Law, Statute or Uſage to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Foreign Coin or Bullion may be exported.

'XIII. And laſtly, Whereas a very great Part of the richeſt and beſt Land of this Kingdom is and 'cannot ſo well be otherwiſe imployed and made Uſe of as in the Feeding and Fattening of Cattle; and 'that by the coming in of late of vaſt Numbers of Cattle already fatted, ſuch Lands are in many Places 'much fallen, and like daily to fall more in their Rents and Values, and in Conſequence other Lands 'alſo, to the great Prejudice, Detriment and Impoveriſhment of this Kingdom;' (2) Be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, and it is hereby enacted, That for every Head of great Cattle (except ſuch as are of the Breed of Scotland) that ſhall be imported or brought into England, Wales, or the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, after the firſt Day of July, and before the twentieth Day of December in any Year;

Penalties upon Importation of foreign Cattle at certain Times.

Farther Provisions relating hereto, 18 Car. 2. c. 2.
For Scots Cattle, see 5 Annæ, c. 8. Article 6.

and for every Head of great Cattle of the Breed of Scotland that ſhall be imported or brought into England, Wales, or the Town of Berwick, after the four and twentieth Day of Auguſt, and before the twentieth Day of December in any Year, there ſhall be paid to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, the Sum of twenty Shillings; and the Sum of ten Shillings to him or them that ſhall inform or ſeize the ſame; and the Sum of ten Shillings to the Poor of the Pariſh where ſuch Seizure or Information ſhall be made, to be recovered and levied by Bill, Plaint or other Action, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection or Wager in Law ſhall be allowed. EXP.

XIV. And moreover, That there ſhall be paid to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, for every Sheep which ſhall be imported into England, Wales, or the Town of Berwick aforeſaid, after the firſt Day of Auguſt, and before the twentieth Day of December, in any Year, the Sum of ten Shillings of lawful Money of England, to be recovered and levied in Manner aforeſaid.

The Continuance of this Act as to Importation of Cattle.

XV. Provided always, That this Act, in ſo far as it relates to great Cattle or Sheep, ſhall not take Place till the firſt Day of July one thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and four, nor continue longer than the End of the firſt Seſſion of the next Parliament.

Encouragement of Herring Fiſheries. Altered by 1 Geo. 1. Stat. 2. c. 18. §. 1.

XVI. And for the Encouragement of the Herring and North-Sea Iſland, and Weſtmony Fiſheries, (2) be it enacted, and it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the firſt Day of Auguſt which ſhall be in the Year of our Lord one thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and four, no Freſh Herring, Freſh Cod or Haddock, Coal-fiſh or Gull-fiſh, ſhall be imported into England, Wales, or the Town of Berwick, but in Engliſh-built Ships or Veſſels, or in Ships or Veſſels bona fide belonging to England, Wales or the Town of Berwick, and having ſuch Certificate thereof as is aboveſaid, and whereof the Maſter and three Fourths at the leaſt of the Mariners are Engliſh, and which hath been fiſhed, caught and taken in ſuch Ships or Veſſels, and ſo navigated, and not being bought or had of any Strangers born, or out of any Strangers Bottoms, under the Pain of the Forfeiture of all ſuch Herring, Cod, Haddock, Coal-fiſh or Gull-fiſh imported contrary to the true Intent and Meaning hereof, and of the Ship or Veſſel in which it was imported; (3) one Moiety of which Forfeitures ſhall be to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors; and the other Moiety to him or them that ſhall inform, ſeize or ſue for the ſame, to be recovered by Bill, Plaint or other Action, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection or Wager in Law ſhall be allowed.

Duties to be paid upon Importation of ſalted or dried Fiſh.

'XVIII. And foraſmuch as planting and making Tobacco within this Kingdom of England doth continue and increaſe, to the apparent Loſs of his ſaid Majeſty in his Cuſtoms, the Diſcouragement of the Engliſh Plantations in the Parts beyond the Seas, and Prejudice of this Kingdom in general, notwithſtanding an Act of Parliament made in the twelfth Year of his ſaid Majeſty's Reign for Prevention thereof, intituled, An Act for prohibiting the Planting, Setting or Sowing of Tobacco in England and Ireland: (2) And foraſmuch as it is found by Experience, that the Reaſon why the ſaid Planting and Making of Tobacco doth continue, is, That the Penalties preſcribed and appointed by that Law are ſo little, as have neither Power or Effect over the Tranſgreſſors thereof;' (3) For Remedy therefore of ſo great an Evil, Be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every the Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, that do or ſhall at any Time hereafter ſet, plant or ſow any Tobacco in Seed, Plant or otherwiſe, in or upon any Ground, Field, Earth or Place, within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, Iſlands of Guernſey and Jerſey, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed or Kingdom of Ireland, ſhall, over and above the Penalty of the ſaid Act for that Purpoſe ordained, for every ſuch Offence forfeit and pay the Sum of ten Pounds for every Rod or Pole of Ground that he or they ſhall ſo plant, ſet or ſow with Tobacco, and ſo proportionably for a greater or leſſer Quantity of Ground; one third Part thereof to the King's Majeſty; one other third Part thereof to the Uſe of the Poor of ſuch reſpective Pariſh or Pariſhes wherein ſuch Tobacco ſhall be ſo planted, ſet or ſowed; and the other third Part thereof to him or them that ſhall ſue for the ſame, to be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, in any of his ſaid Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection or Wager of Law ſhall be allowed.

XIX. And it is hereby further enacted, That in caſe any Perſon or Perſons ſhall reſiſt or make forcible Oppoſition againſt any Perſon or Perſons in the due and through Execution of the ſaid Act of the twelfth of his ſaid Majeſty's Reign, that he, ſhe or they, ſo reſiſting and making forcible Oppoſition, ſhall over and above the Penalties therein mentioned for ſuch Offences, be committed to the Common Goal of the County where ſuch Offence ſhall be committed, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize, until he, ſhe or they, have entred into a Recognizance to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, with two ſufficient Sureties, of ten Pounds Penalty, not to do or commit the like Offence again.

Proviſo for Tobacco planted in Phyſick-Gardens.

XX. Provided always, That this Act, nor any Thing therein contained, ſhall extend to the Hindrance or Prejudice of planting Tobacco in any Phyſick-Garden of either of the Univerſities, or any other private Garden for Chirurgery, ſo as the Quantity ſo planted exceed not the Half of one Pole in any one Place or Garden.

Cattle imported from the Iſle of Man.

XXI. Provided alſo, and be it enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful to import Cattle of the Breed of the Iſle of Man, not exceeding ſix hundred in any one Year, and Corn of the Growth of that Iſland, out of that Iſland into England; ſo as the ſaid Cattle be landed at Cheſter, Liverpool or Wire-water; any Thing in this Act to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

CAP. VIII.

An Act to prevent the Selling of live fat Cattle by Butchers.

'WHEREAS by an Act made in the third and fourth Years of the Reign of King Edward the Sixth, it is enacted, That no Perſon uſing the Craft or Myſtery of a Butcher ſhould buy any fat Oxen, Steers, Runts, Kine, Heifers, Calves or Sheep, and ſell the ſame again alive, upon Pain of Forfeiture of the Cattle ſo ſold; (2) which Law hath not wrought ſuch effectual Reformation as was intended, by Reaſon of the Difficulty in the Proof of ſuch Buying and Selling, being for the moſt part at Places far diſtant, if not in ſeveral Counties, by Means whereof the Parties ſo offending have eſcaped unpuniſhed:' 3 & 4 Ed. 6. c. 19. §. 3. 22 & 23 Car. 2. c. 19. 25 Car. 2. c. 4. 1 Jac. 2. c. 17. 4 & 5 W. & M. c. 24. 11 & 12 W. 3. c. 13. 5 Annæ, c. 14. 7 Annæ, c. 6.

II. Be it therefore enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by Authority of the ſame, That no Perſon uſing the Trade of a Butcher ſhall at any Time from and after the Feaſt of St. Michael the Archangel next enſuing, ſell, offer or expoſe to Sale, in any Market or elſewhere, either by himſelf or any Servant or Agent whatſoever, any fat Oxen, Steers, Runts, Kine, Heifers, Calves, Sheep or Lambs alive; (2) upon Pain to forfeit the double Value of the Cattle ſo ſold or offered or expoſed to Sale as aforeſaid; the one Moiety of which Forfeiture ſhall be to the King's Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors; and the other Moiety to him or them that will ſue for the ſame in any of his Majeſty's Courts of Record, by Bill, Plaint, Action of Debt or Information, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection or Wager of Law ſhall be allowed. Penalty upon Butchers for ſelling live fat Cattle.

CAP. IX.

An Act for granting four entire Subſidies to his Majeſty by the Temporalty. EXP.

CAP. X.

An Act for confirming of four Subſidies granted by the Clergy. EXP.

CAP. XI.

An Additional Act for the better Ordering and Collecting the Duty of Exciſe, and preventing the Abuſes therein.

'FOR the Preventing of the Frauds and Deceits of Brewers and other Perſons who make Beer and Ale, and other Exciſeable Liquors, to ſell, and of the Abuſes committed by the Officers, Collectors and Managers of the Exciſe, to the great Decay of his Majeſty's Revenue of Exciſe, and Obſtruction of the due and orderly Collecting of the ſame, and for Supply and Amendment of certain Defects in the Laws and Statutes relating to the Duty of Exciſe, as well for the Support and Advance of the ſaid Revenue as for the Eaſe of the People;' (2) Be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and of the Commons, in this Parliament aſſembled, and by Authority of the ſame, That no Common Brewer, Inn-keeper, Victualler or other Retailer of Beer or Ale, ſhall at any Time after the firſt Day of September one thouſand ſix hundred ſixty-three, without firſt giving Notice thereof at the next Office of Exciſe, or to the Commiſſioners, Farmers or Sub-Commiſſioners of Exciſe, or one of them, within the Limits and Juriſdiction of whoſe Office he or they do or ſhall inhabit, erect, ſet up, alter or enlarge any Tun, Fat, Back, Cooler or Copper, and ſhall make Uſe of any of them for the Brewing or Making any Beer or Ale, or Worts, or ſhall make Uſe of or keep any private and concealed Store-houſe, Cellar or other Place for the Laying of any Beer or Ale, or Worts in Caſk, other than ſuch as are already openly ſet up, erected and made Uſe of in his common and uſual Brew-houſe, and now openly diſcovered and known; (3) upon Pain to forfeit the Sum of fifty Pounds for every Tun, Fat, Back, Copper and Cooler ſet up and made Uſe of without ſuch Notice given thereof as aforeſaid, and contrary to the true Intent and Meaning hereof: (4) And that all and every other Perſon or Perſons, in whoſe Occupation any Houſe, Meſſuage, Outhouſe or other Place whatſoever is or ſhall be, where any ſuch private and concealed Tun, Back, Cooler or Store-houſe ſhall be found and diſcovered, ſhall alſo forfeit and loſe the Sum of fifty Pounds, to be levied and recovered in Manner and Form as in and by this preſent Act is hereafter directed and ordained: (5) And moreover, every ſuch private and concealed Tun, Fat, Back, Copper or Cooler, ſo diſcovered and found as aforeſaid, or altered or enlarged, together with all Beer, Ale or Worts therein being, ſhall and may be taken up, ſeized, carried away and delivered to the Overſeers for the Poor, to be ſold for the Uſe of the Poor, or diſtributed amongſt them. 12 Car. 2. c. 24. This Act continued for 99 Years, by 4 & 5 W. & M. c. 3. and enforced by 5 & 6 W. & M. c. 20. §. 11. Notice to be given of all Brewing Veſſels. The Penalty. Explained by 1 W. & M. Seſſ. 1. c. 24. §. 11.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the eighth Day of November in the Year of our Lord one thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and five, no Perſon or Perſons whatſoever nominated by his Majeſty to be in Commiſſion for the Regulating of his Majeſty's Revenue of Exciſe, or for the Exerciſe of any the Powers or Authorities mentioned in an Act, intituled, A Grant of certain Impoſitions upon Beer, Ale and other Liquors, for the Increaſe of his Majeſty's Revenue during his Life: Or one other Act, intituled, An Act for taking away the Court of Wards and Liveries, and Tenures in Capite, by Knights-Service and Purveyance, and for ſettling a Revenue upon his Majeſty in lieu thereof, or in this preſent Act, ſhall preſume to farm the ſaid Revenue of his Majeſty, either directly or indirectly, by obtaining Letters Patents to him or themſelves thereof, or any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever intruſted for him or them, or to or for his or their Uſe, Benefit or Behoof: (2) Nor that any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, being a Farmer of the ſaid Revenue, ſhall be any way capable to be nominated a Commiſſioner for the Regulating his Majeſty's ſaid Revenue of Exciſe, or exerciſing any Powers or Authorities concerning the ſame: (3) But if any Perſon or Perſons who ſtands thus diſabled as aforeſaid to be nominated a Commiſſioner, ſhall become a Farmer, and ſhall in either of the ſaid Caſes nevertheleſs preſume directly or indirectly to act as a Commiſſioner, Farmer or Sub-Commiſſioner, to execute the Powers and Authorities aforeſaid, either alone or jointly with other Perſons that are Farmers, or elſe with any others who are not Farmers, Commiſſioners may not farm the Exciſe. 12 Car. 2. c. 23. 12 Car. 2. c. 24.

Farmers, ſhall from and after ſuch his Acting, loſe the Benefit of his ſaid Farm, and be thenceforth totally for ever diſabled to be either Farmer of the ſaid Revenue, or Commiſſioner for the Regulating thereof, and exerciſing the Powers aforeſaid: (4) And that all and every Act and Acts done by any Commiſſioner or Commiſſioners, or Sub-Commiſſioners, being Farmer or Farmers, by him or themſelves, or jointly with others who are not Farmers, ſhall be void in Law, and of none Effect; (5) and that all and every Perſon or Perſons any way moleſted or troubled by the Command and Authority of ſuch Commiſſioner or Commiſſioners acting by him or themſelves, or together with others who are not Farmers or Commiſſioners, may bring his Action at Law for the ſame in any of his Majeſty's Courts at Weſtminſter, and thereby recover his Damages againſt any ſuch Commiſſioner or Commiſſioners; any Law or Statute to the contrary notwithſtanding.

The Penalty.

III. And that all and every Letters Patents to be made from and after the tenth Day of April in the Year of our Lord one thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and three, enabling any Farmer or Farmers of the Exciſe to be Commiſſioner or Commiſſioners, or Sub-Commiſſioners, ſhall be utterly void and of none Effect; any Thing in any of the ſaid Acts to the contrary notwithſtanding.

The Penalty for giving any falſe and corrupt Judgment to the Brewers Damage.

IV. And that if any Commiſſioner or Sub-Commiſſioner, Commiſſioners or Sub-Commiſſioners, who by Colour or Virtue of any Letters Patents are now both Commiſſioners or Sub-Commiſſioners for regulating the ſaid Revenue, and likewiſe Farmers of the ſaid Revenue, ſhall give any falſe and corrupt Judgment in Advancement of the Benefit of his or their ſaid Farm, to the Brewers Damage, contrary to Law, he or they ſhall forfeit for every ſuch Judgment ſo falſly and corruptly given, double Coſts to the Party ſo injured by the ſaid corrupt and falſe Judgment: (2) And in Caſe any Perſon ſhall unjuſtly complain of any Judgment of the Commiſſioners or Sub-Commiſſioners as aforeſaid, and ſo ſhall be found upon his Appeal, the ſaid Party ſhall forfeit double Coſts to the ſaid Commiſſioners for ſuch unjuſt Vexations, to be recovered by Information, Bill or Plaint, in any Court of Record.

The Duty of Gagers in making Entries.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the firſt Day of September in the Year of our Lord one thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and three, all and every Gager or Gagers of the Exciſe, who ſhall take an Account of any Beer or Ale brewed or made by any common Brewer, ſhall weekly after ſuch common Brewer hath made, or ought to have made his Entry at the Office of Exciſe, and not otherwiſe, make and deliver to ſuch common Brewer at his Houſe, or to ſome of his Servants in his Behalf, a true Copy under his or their Hand of ſuch Return or Report as he or they have made thereof to the Commiſſioners or Sub-Commiſſioners of Exciſe reſpectively, upon Pain to forfeit for every Neglect or Refuſal the Sum of forty Shillings.

Farther provided for by 1 W. & M. Seſſ. 1. c. 24. §. 10.

VI. Provided nevertheleſs, that no ſuch common Brewer or Brewers ſhall be ſued or proſecuted for any Penalty or Forfeiture by him or them incurred, for or by reaſon of any Miſ-entry or ſhort Entry, if he or they ſhall within the Space of one Week after the Delivery of ſuch Copy as aforeſaid, rectify his or their Entry according to the ſaid Return, or otherwiſe diſcharge himſelf.

Two ſkilful Gagers to be appointed, and to take an Oath.

VII. Be it enacted, That from and after the ſaid firſt Day of September one thouſand ſix hundred ſixty-three, and as often as there ſhall be Occaſion, two able Artiſts ſhall be appointed, one of them by his Majeſty's Commiſſioners, Farmers or Sub-Commiſſioners, for Exciſe, and the other by the Brewers of any City or Place, which ſaid Artiſts ſhall take an Oath, which Oath any one Juſtice hath hereby Power to adminiſter, to take and compute the juſt Contents and Gage of all Coppers, Fats, Tuns, Backs and Coolers, and all other Brewing Veſſels of that Nature, belonging to all or any Brewer or Brewers of Beer or Ale to ſell, and to deliver and give under their Hands one Copy of the particular Contents of all ſuch Veſſels to the aforeſaid Commiſſioners, Farmers and Sub-Commiſſioners, and another true Copy thereof to each and every ſuch reſpective Brewer; which Computation by the Artiſts aforeſaid ſhall anſwer and be according to the Meaſures and Proportions expreſt in the ſaid former Acts for Exciſe.

Commiſſioners or Farmers not to act as Juſtices of the Peace in Matters touching the Exciſe.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That no Commiſſioner, Farmer or Sub-Commiſſioner for the Exciſe, or common Brewer of Ale or Beer to ſell, or Inn-keeper whatſoever, ſhall from and after the ſaid firſt Day of September have Power to act in or execute as a Juſtice of the Peace any of the Powers, Clauſes or Things contained in any of the Laws made for and concerning the Exciſe, or in this preſent Act; and if any of the ſaid Perſons ſhall preſume to act or execute any Thing contrary hereunto, it is hereby further declared, That all ſuch Things ſo acted or executed by any of them, are and ſhall be utterly void and null to all Intents and Purpoſes.

12 Car. 2. c. 23 & 24.

Market-Towns.

'IX. And whereas by the ſaid recited Acts it is enacted, That no Perſon ſhall be compelled by the 'Commiſſioners or Sub-Commiſſioners of Exciſe to travel for the making of his Entries, or Payment of 'the Duties of Exciſe, or other Cauſe whatſoever touching or concerning the ſame, if he live in a Market-'Town, out of the ſaid Town; and if he live out of a Market-Town, then to no other Place than to 'the next Market-Town to his Habitation in the ſame County on the Market-Day; and nevertheleſs the 'Commiſſioners and Sub-Commiſſioners, or their Officers, have not accordingly kept Officers in the 'Market-Towns in many Counties within England and Wales, whereby ſuch Entries and Payments for 'the Duties of Exciſe might be had and made, and yet do take and levy the Penalties and Forfeitures in 'the ſaid Acts mentioned for Non-entry and Payment of the Duty, and do otherwiſe thereupon grieve 'and vex his Majeſty's Subjects, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of the ſaid Acts:'

Officers to attend in Market-Towns touching Receipts and Duties of Exciſe.

X. Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid firſt Day of September in the Year of our Lord one thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and three, the Commiſſioners, Farmers or Sub-Commiſſioners in each County within England and Wales, ſhall conſtitute and appoint or depute under their Hands and Seals, ſuch Perſon or Perſons as they ſhall think needful in each reſpective Market-Town, to be there upon every Market-Day, in ſome known and publick Place, for the receiving of the ſaid Entries and Duties of Exciſe, and for performing all other Matters and Things touching the ſaid Duty, according to the ſaid Acts, and this preſent Act; (2) which ſaid Perſon and Perſons ſo conſtituted or deputed, and the Place where they intend to hold or keep ſuch Office, being on the next Market-Day after ſuch Conſtitution or Deputation publiſhed in full and open Market, ſhall attend at ſuch Office on every Market-Day, in ſuch Market-Town, and ſhall keep the ſaid Office open from nine of the Clock in the Morning until twelve of the Clock at Noon, and from two of the Clock in the Afternoon until five of the Clock in the Afternoon:

Anno Regni Caroli II. Regis Angliæ, Scotiæ, Franciæ & Hiberniæ, tricesimo secundo.

'AT the Parliament summoned to begin at Westminster on the seventeenth Day of October one thousand six hundred seventy-nine, in the one and thirtieth Year of our Sovereign Lord Charles the Second, by the Grace of God, of England, Scotland, France and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith, &c. and by several Prorogations continued to the one and twentieth Day of October one thousand six hundred and eighty, in the thirty-second Year of his said Majesty's Reign; and thence continued to the tenth of January next ensuing, on which Day the following Acts passed the Royal Assent.'

CAP. I.

An Additional Act for Burying in Woollen.

A Recital of former Acts. 30 Car. 2. Stat. 1. c. 3. §. 5.

'WHEREAS in one Act of Parliament passed in the thirtieth Year of his Majesty's Reign that now is, intituled, An Act for Burying in Woollen, it was amongst other Things enacted and ordained, That the Affidavits which were to be made of any Person's being interred in Woollen according to the Directions in the said Act, should be made or taken before some one Justice of the Peace or Master of Chancery, Ordinary or Extraordinary, Mayor, Bailiff, or other Chief Officer of the City, County, Borough, Corporation or Market-Town in the County where the said Party was buried, who are thereby authorized and required to administer the said Oath, and to attest the same under their Hands upon such Affidavit, gratis.

The Hindrance of Affidavits by Distance of Place.

'II. And whereas by reason of the Distance of the Habitations of the Persons before whom such Affidavit is to be made, and other Accidents, divers Persons who have had Occasion to make such Affidavits have been necessitated to travel many Miles for the making thereof, to their great Loss of Time, and Hindrance of their Affairs:'

Where no Justice resides or is found in the Parish of Burial, the Parson, Vicar, and Curate may take Affidavit of Burial in Woollen only.

III. Be it therefore enacted, and it is hereby enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the second Day of February in the Year of our Lord one thousand six hundred and eighty, (where no Justice of the Peace shall reside or be to be found, in any Parish where any Party shall be interred) the said Oaths or Affidavits may be administred not only by any Justice of the Peace or Master of Chancery, Ordinary or Extraordinary, Mayor, Bailiff or other Chief Officer of the City, County, Borough, Corporation or Market-Town in the County where any Party was buried; but also that the Parsons, Vicars and Curates in every Parish or Chapel of Ease within the County where any Party shall be interred, (except only the Parson, Vicar and Curate of the Parish or Chapel of Ease where the Party is interred, concerning whose Interment in Woollen such Affidavit is to be made) be and are hereby authorized and required to administer the said Oaths or Affidavits, and to attest the same under their Hands gratis; (2) and that every such Affidavit taken before them shall be of like Force and Effect, as if the same had been taken and administred by the Persons authorized to administer the same by the Act aforesaid.

Affidavit taken by Parson, &c. as effectual as by 30 Car. 2. Stat. 1. c. 3. §. 5.

CAP. II.

An Act prohibiting the Importation of Cattle from Ireland.

A Recital of 18 Car. 2. c. 2. & 3 & 4 Ed. 6. c. 19.

'WHEREAS an Act of Parliament was made in the eighteenth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord the King that now is, intituled, An Act against Importing Cattle from Ireland, and other Parts beyond the Seas, and Fish taken by Foreigners; which was to continue until the End of seven Years, and from thence to the End of the first Session of the next Parliament, which is now expired:

The Benefit of it. That 18 Car. 2. c. 2. be revived and continued for ever.

'II. And forasmuch as by long Experience the said Law hath been found to be very beneficial to this Kingdom,' (2) Be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said Act, and every Clause, Article and Thing therein contained, together with the Additions and Alterations herein after mentioned and expressed, shall from and after the second Day of February, which shall be in the Year of our Lord God one thousand six hundred and eighty, be revived, continue and remain, and is hereby revived and continued in Force, to all Intents, Constructions and Purposes for ever.

Not only Officers, but all Persons may seize Irish Cattle and Goods imported.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That not only the Constables, Officers and Inhabitants mentioned in the aforesaid recited Act, but any and every other Person and Persons whatsoever, shall and may take and seize in any Place or Places whatsoever the Cattle and Goods imported contrary to the said recited Act; (2) and that all and every such Person and Persons that shall seize as aforesaid, shall from Time to Time have the Benefit and Advantage hereafter given by this Act to any Seizor or Seizors whatsoever.

All Seizors to have Benefit.

To prevent fraudulent Sales and Compositions.

IV. And to prevent all fraudulent Seizures, Sales and Compositions, to be made by any Person or Persons whatsoever, in any Parish or Place whatsoever, where any great Cattle, Sheep or Swine shall be imported ported or found contrary to this or the Act aforesaid, and to make the Prohibitions therein more effectual;

This is out of place — See the regular series, after page 576.

Seizor shall cause the Cattle to be killed. Hides and Tallow to be the Seizor's, the Rest to be distributed to the Poor by the Churchwardens, &c.

V. Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every the respective Seizor or Seizors of such Cattle, Sheep or Swine, shall within six Days after Conviction and Forfeiture thereof, cause the said Cattle, Sheep and Swine to be killed; (2) and the Hides and Tallow of such Great Cattle, Sheep and Swine, shall be and remain to the Use of the said Seizor or Seizors, and the Remainder of the said Great Cattle, Sheep and Swine shall be forthwith distributed amongst the Poor of the said Parish, by the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor there, or some of them, upon Notice thereof to be given them or any of them, by such Seizor or Seizors as aforesaid; any Thing in the said former Law, or any other Law to the contrary notwithstanding.

Seizors, Churchwardens and Overseers on Neglect forfeit 40s. for each Great Cattle, and 10s. for each Sheep or Swine.

VI. And be it further enacted, That in case the said Seizor or Seizors, or the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor, shall fail in their respective Duties, in the Execution of this Act, They and every of them respectively, shall forfeit the Sum of forty Shillings for every one of the Great Cattle, and ten Shillings for every Sheep or Swine, which should have been killed and distributed as aforesaid; one Moiety thereof to the Poor of the said Parish, and the other Moiety to the Informer; (2) the same to be levied by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Person or Persons so offending, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of any Justice of the Peace of the said County or Place where the said Offence shall be committed, upon Confession of the Party, View of the said Justice, or Oath thereof made before such Justice by one or more credible Witness or Witnesses, other than the Informer, which Oath the said Justice hath hereby Power to administer, rendring the Overplus to the Owners thereof, necessary Charges of Distraining being first deducted. (3) And for Want of such Distress, the said Offender or Offenders to be committed to the Common Gaol of the said County or Place, there to remain for the Space of three Months without Bail or Mainprize.

To be levied by Distress and Sale of Chattels by Warrant of any Justice, &c.

For Want of Distress, the Party to be imprisoned without Bail three Months.

Nothing herein to hinder Importation of Stock-fish and Eels.

VII. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That neither this Act nor any other Act whatsoever heretofore made shall either hinder or be construed to extend to hinder the Importation of Stock-fish or live Eels into this Kingdom of England; (2) but that it shall and may be lawful to and for all and every Person and Persons whatsoever to import into this Kingdom of England any Stock-fish or live Eels as aforesaid; any Thing in this Act, or any other Law, Statute, Usage or Custom, to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

Any Person may import Stock-fish and live Eels.

Altered as to Foreigners, by 1 Geo. 1. Stat. 2. c. 18. §. 1.

'VIII. And whereas the present Laws do not sufficiently provide against the Importation of Mutton and 'Lamb out of Ireland and other Parts beyond the Seas into this Kingdom, but that great Quantities thereof 'are daily imported and sold, to the great Loss and Prejudice of this Kingdom;' (2) Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said second Day of February, no Mutton or Lamb shall be imported into this Kingdom from the Kingdom of Ireland or any Foreign Parts: (3) And all Mutton and Lamb imported from Ireland, or beyond the Seas, or that shall be exposed to Sale within this Kingdom, shall be subject to the like Seizures, and the Importers and Sellers thereof respectively to the like Penalties, as are provided and appointed in any former Law against any Importer or Seller, or Importation of any Beef, Pork or Bacon, from the Kingdom of Ireland, or any Foreign Parts; any Thing in this or any former Law or Statute to the contrary notwithstanding.

Want of sufficient Provision against Importation of Mutton and Lamb.

No Mutton or Lamb shall be imported.

Mutton or Lamb imported or exposed to Sale, subject to former Penalties.

Want of Provision against Importation of Cheese and Butter.

'IX. And whereas the present Laws do not sufficiently provide against the Importation of Butter and 'Cheese out of Ireland into this Kingdom, but that great Quantities thereof are daily imported and sold to 'the great Loss and Prejudice of this Kingdom;' (2) Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said second Day of February no Butter or Cheese shall be imported into this Kingdom from the Kingdom of Ireland: (3) And all Butter and Cheese imported from Ireland, or that shall be exposed to Sale within this Kingdom, shall be subject to the like Seizures, and the Importers or Sellers thereof respectively, to the like Penalties, as are provided or appointed in any former Law against any Importer or Seller, or Importation of any Beef, Bacon or Pork from the Kingdom of Ireland, or any Foreign Parts; any Thing in this or any former Law or Statute to the contrary notwithstanding.

No Butter or Cheese shall be imported.

Butter and Cheese imported and exposed to Sale, subject to former Penalties.

For Execution of 18 Car. 2. c. 2. Seizure to be in any Parish into which Cattle remove.

X. And for the more effectual Execution of this and the aforesaid Act, (2) be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Great Cattle, Sheep or Swine, shall be once or oftner seized in Pursuance of this or the aforesaid Act, and afterwards either by Permission, Connivance, Negligence or otherwise shall be removed into and found alive in any Parish or Place within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, other than such Parish or Place wherein they shall have been respectively seized, that then the said Cattle, Sheep and Swine shall be liable to like Seizure, and the Seizor and Poor of the Parish or Place have like Benefit and Advantage, and the Cattle, Sheep and Swine be forfeited, and the Proof be incumbent upon the Owner, as if such Cattle had never before been seized.

Fraud in intermixing Droves.

'XI. And whereas divers Persons, on purpose to discourage others from making Seizure of Irish Cattle, 'have intermixed some few English or other Cattle in Droves of Irish Cattle, and so created many vexatious 'and chargeable Suits against those that have seized Irish Cattle in pursuance of the aforesaid Act;' (2) Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any English or other Cattle driven or intermixed with Irish Cattle shall be seized together with them, such Cattle so intermixed and seized shall be deemed Irish Cattle, and shall be subject to like Forfeiture, and be ordered and disposed of in all Respects, as if they were Irish Cattle, and imported contrary to this and the aforesaid Act.

English Cattle driven or intermixed with Irish, to be seised as Irish.

Not to seise Cattle in England before Feb. 2, 1680.

XII. Provided that nothing in this Act shall be construed to extend to the Forfeiture or seising any Cattle that are or shall be in England before the said second Day of February.

STATUTES made in the Parliament begun at Weſtminſter the nineteenth Day of May in the firſt Year of the Reign of our moſt Gracious Sovereign Lord JAMES the Second, by the Grace of God, of England, Scotland, France, and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith, &c.

CAP. I.

An Act for ſettling the Revenue on his Majeſty for His Life, which was ſettled on His late Majeſty for His Life. Repealed by 2 W. & M. Seſſ. 1. Cap. 3. Sect. 11.

CAP. II.

An Act to Attaint James Duke of Monmouth of High-Treaſon.

CAP. III.

An Act for granting His Majeſty an Impoſition upon all Wines and Vinegar, imported between the four and twentieth Day of June one thouſand ſix hundred eighty-five, and the four and twentieth Day of June one thouſand ſix hundred ninety and three.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons aſſembled in Parliament, towards a Supply for Repairs of the Navy, and providing Stores for the Navy and Ordnance, and other Your Majeſty's weighty and important Occaſions; and with an humble and thankful Acknowledgment of Your Majeſty's favourable and tender Regard of us your Commons, have cheerfully and unanimouſly given and granted unto Your Majeſty an Aid and Aſſiſtance to be raiſed and levied upon all Wines and Vinegar to be imported into this Your Majeſty's Kingdom, according to ſuch Rates, and during ſuch Time, and in ſuch Manner and Form, as herein after followeth. And we do humbly beſeech Your Majeſty that it may be enacted: 6 Ed. 1. c. 15. Wine and Vinegar.

II. And be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That for all French Wines, Spaniſh Wines, or other Wines whatſoever, as alſo for all Vinegar, which at any Time after the Four and twentieth Day of June in the Year of our Lord one thouſand ſix hundred eighty-five, and before the Four and twentieth Day of June in the Year of our Lord one thouſand ſix hundred ninety-three, ſhall be imported into England or Wales, or the Town or Port of Berwick upon Tweed, there ſhall be duly anſwered and paid to His Majeſty the further Rates and Duties hereafter mentioned (that is to ſay) For every Ton of French Wine, and of Vinegar, which ſhall be imported within the Time aforeſaid, the Sum of eight Pounds by the Ton, and ſo after that Rate for any greater or leſſer Quantity: And alſo for every Ton of Spaniſh Wines, or of any other Wines which ſhall be imported within the Time aforeſaid, the Sum of twelve Pounds by the Ton, and ſo after that Rate for any greater or leſſer Quantity. Impoſition of 8l. per Ton on Wine and Vinegar. 12l. per Ton on Spaniſh Wine. For the Increaſe and Continuance of theſe Duties, ſee 4 W. & M. c. 15. & 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 20. 1 Annæ, Stat. 1. c. 13. §. 2.

III. And for the better and more ſure collecting and receiving of all and ſingular the Duties hereby impoſed; be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon or Perſons within the Time aforeſaid ſhall import, or cauſe to be imported by way of Merchandize, or otherwiſe, any of the Liquors, ſuch Importers ſhall, upon the Entry made of ſuch Liquors, and before the landing thereof, pay down the Duties hereby impoſed, in ready Money, deducting the Allowance hereafter mentioned, or otherwiſe become bound unto his Majeſty with two or more ſufficient Sureties, or procure three other Perſons to become bound to his Majeſty, to anſwer and pay unto his Majeſty the whole Rates and Duties hereby impoſed, by three ſeveral and equal Payments: The firſt Payment thereof to be made within three Months after the Date of the ſaid Obligation; the ſecond Payment to be made within ſix Months after the Date of the ſaid Obligation; and the third and laſt Payment to be made within nine Months after the Date of the ſaid Obligation. The taking which Bonds, and the Approbation of the Sureties therein to be named, is hereby left to the Diſcretion of ſuch Farmers, or other Commiſſioners for the Time being, as ſhall be intruſted with the Receipt of 5 Ann. c. 27. 8 Annæ, c. 13. 9 Annæ, c. 21. §. 1. 1 Geo. 1. Stat. 2. c. 12. §. 3. Importer to pay before landing, or to be bound with two, or procure three to be bound for Payment at three equal Payments within nine Months.

ceipt and Management of his Majesty's Customs and Subsidies of Tonnage and Poundage, or their Deputy-collectors in the several Ports, or such other Person or Persons, as his Majesty shall authorize and appoint to collect the Duties arising by this Act.

10 l. per Cent. allowed to those that pay ready Money.

IV. Provided always, and it is hereby declared and enacted, That all and every Person and Persons importing any of the Liquors aforesaid, within the Time aforesaid, by way of Merchandize or otherwise, who shall pay the Duties which by this Act are due and payable in ready Money, shall be allowed and abated out of the said Duties, after the Rate of Ten Pounds per Cent. for a Year, in Consideration of such ready Money so paid down and advanced.

Forfeiture of the Value.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any of the said Liquors shall be imported within the Time aforesaid, and landed without present Payment made of the Rates and Duties by this Act imposed, in Cases where this Act requires present Payment to be made; or without Security given for Payment thereof, in Cases where this Act admits of Security to be taken, that then and in every such Case all and every the Liquors so imported and landed, or the Value thereof, shall be forfeited, one Moiety thereof to his Majesty, and the other Moiety to him or them that shall or will sue for the same; and shall and may be recovered in any Court of Record by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, wherein no Essoin, Protection, or Wager of Law shall be allowed, nor any more than one Imparlance: And yet nevertheless the Persons so importing and landing any of the said Liquors shall, notwithstanding such Forfeitures so as aforesaid incurred, remain and continue liable unto, and shall answer and pay unto his Majesty the Rates and Duties for such Liquors, which by this Act are due and payable.

Allowances upon Importation of Wines, &c.

'VI. And whereas by the Act for Tonnage and Poundage, and the Instructions and Rules for collecting 'his Majesty's Duties arising thereby, it is directed that certain Allowances be made upon Importation of 'Wines and other Liquors; be it further enacted, That no Importer thereof shall be chargeable by virtue of 'this Act to pay the Duty thereby required, for any greater Proportion of Wines or other Liquors duly entered at the Custom-house, than what shall remain neat after all such Allowances and Abatements: And 'whereas this present Act gives no Abatement to any Person upon Exportation of any the Liquors aforesaid;'

Allowance to be made on Exportation upon Oath that the Liquors are imported with Intent to sell again.

Be it further enacted and declared, That all Importers, not being Vintners or Retailers (who, are hereby declared, shall pay ready Money for the whole Duty) who shall import any of the aforesaid Liquors within the Time aforesaid, and shall make Oath that the same are imported by way of Merchandize, and with Intent to sell again (which Oath the Farmers or Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs for the Time being, or in their Absence the Collector of his Majesty's Customs in each several and respective Port, or or such other Person or Persons as his Majesty shall authorize and appoint to collect the Duties arising by this Act, have hereby Power to administer) that then, and in every such Case, for and in Consideration of any Defect or Damage that may happen by any of the aforesaid Liquors lying longer on the said Importer's Hands than heretofore, or by reason of any other Accident, there shall be allowed and abated to every such Importer the further Allowance of eight Pounds per Cent. and no more. Provided, That no Merchant shall be charged with any Duty imposed by this Act for the Prizage-wine which he imports in any Ship or Vessel, nor shall any Security be by him given for the same, but that it be received and taken from the Person who hath or enjoyeth the Benefit of the said Prizage-wine, who is hereby appointed to pay the same.

Unless Oath be made as aforesaid, no Allowance to be made upon Exportation.

VII. Provided always, and it is hereby declared and enacted, That if any of the said imported Liquors, for which any of the Rates and Duties by this Act imposed shall be paid down and advanced, or otherwise secured, as aforesaid, shall at any Time after such Importation be again exported into Parts beyond the Seas: That then, and in every such Case, the Person or Persons so exporting the same shall be wholly barred and excluded from having or receiving back the Duties of this Act so paid down or advanced, or any Part thereof, nor shall the Security formerly given by such Person exporting for the true Payment of the Duties by this Act imposed, be any ways raised, lessened, or discharged by reason of such Exportation, but the same Securities shall remain and continue in full Force, until the Duties thereby secured be fully and wholly satisfied and paid; any such Exportation to the contrary notwithstanding.

Officers to have like Power as for Tonnage and Poundage.

VIII. And for the better Prevention of all such Frauds, which at any Time hereafter may be committed to the Prejudice of his Majesty in the due collecting and receiving of the Duties hereby imposed upon such Liquors to be imported as aforesaid; Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Officers of his Majesty's Customs, or such other Person or Persons as his Majesty shall authorize and appoint to collect the Duties arising by this Act, shall have like Power and Authority to enter on board Ships and Vessels, and make Searches, and to do all other Matters and Things which may tend to secure the true Payment of the Duties by this Act imposed, and the due and orderly Collection thereof, which any Customers, Collectors, or other Officers of any of his Majesty's Ports can or may do touching the securing his Majesty's Customs of Tonnage and Poundage, and all the said Liquors to be imported within the Time aforesaid, and landed without doing and performing what by this Act is required to be done and performed before the landing thereof: And all Officers of his Majesty's Customs, and all Persons importing any of the said Liquors, and all others imployed by his Majesty in the Collection of the Duties arising by this Act, who shall be found guilty of any Act or Neglect tending to defraud his Majesty of any the Duties hereby imposed, shall be subject and liable to the same Seizures, Penalties, and Forfeitures, which by Virtue of any former Act can or may be inflicted in such Cases, where his Majesty is defrauded, or endeavoured to be defrauded, of any of his Customs and Subsidies, as fully and amply, as if the same Clauses of Seizures, Penalties, and Forfeitures, and the same Distribution of such Forfeitures, and the same Remedy for Recovery thereof, had been again in this Act particularly repeated, applied, and enacted.

On Seizure, Proof of Duty

IX. And if any Liquors seized for any Offence committed against this Act, shall be claimed by any Person as the Importer thereof, the Proof whether the Duties thereof be duly paid or secured shall lie upon such such Claimer, and shall not be incumbent on his Majesty, or any Prosecutor or Informer on Behalf of his Majesty and himself. paid lies upon Claimer.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons assembled in Parliament, for a further Supply for the Repairs of the Navy, and providing Stores for the Navy and Ordnance, and Payment of the Debt due to his late Majesty's Servants and Family, and other your Majesty's weighty and important Occasions, have cheerfully and unanimously given and granted unto your Majesty an Aid and Assistance to be raised and levied upon all Tobacco and Sugar to be imported into your Majesty's Kingdom, according to such Rates, and during such Time, and in such Manner and Form, as herein after followeth: And we do humbly beseech your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and of the Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That for all Sorts of Tobacco, as also for all Sorts of Sugar, which at any Time after the four and twentieth Day of June in the Year of our Lord one thousand six hundred eighty and five, and before the four and twentieth Day of June, which shall be in the Year of our Lord God one thousand six hundred ninety and three, shall be imported into England, or Wales, or the Town and Port of Berwick upon Tweed, there shall be duly answered and paid to his Majesty the further Rates and Duties hereafter mentioned (that is to say) For all Sorts of Tobacco of the Growth and Production of any of his Majesty's Plantations, Islands, or Territories in America, Three Pence for every Pound Weight thereof, above what it now pays; and for every Pound Weight of Spanish or Foreign Tobacco, not of the English Plantations, Six Pence above what it now pays; and for all Muscovado Sugar of the aforesaid Plantations, Islands, Lands, or Territories, One Farthing the Pound Weight above what it now pays; and for every Pound Weight of Sugar of the English Plantations, made fit for common Use or Spending, Three Farthings above what it now pays; and for every Pound Weight of Muscovado Sugar of Brazile, or any other Foreign Part, not of English Plantations, One Half-penny above what it now pays; and for all Pance Sugar, One Half-penny the Pound Weight above what it now pays; and for every Pound Weight of Foreign white Powder Sugar, One Penny Farthing above what it now pays; and for all Foreign Sugar imported in the Loaf, Three Pence the Pound Weight above what it now pays: All which Duties to be paid for any the Commodities aforesaid, imported as aforesaid, shall, from Time to Time, and at all Times during the Continuance of this Act, be levied on the Consumptioner of the said Commodities in England, or Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, to be paid in Manner following (that is to say) The Importer, Merchant, Planter, or other that shall import the said Goods, if he be a Retailer, Consumptioner, or Shop-keeper dealing in those Commodities, the Duties aforesaid shall be paid and satisfied by such Importer, Shop-keeper, Retailer, or Consumptioner, upon the importing or landing of his or their Goods, and before he or they be permitted or suffered to carry away his or their Goods from the Custom-house or other Place in the Port, in which they may happen to be landed or brought on Shore.

This Act made perpetual by 9 Annæ, c. 21. §. 1.

12 Car. 2. c. 34.

Imposition of 3d. per Pound upon Tobacco from America, 6d. per Pound upon Spanish. Altered by 9 Geo. 1. c. 21. §. 3.

The Impositions to be levied upon the Consumptioner.

This Duty is to be collected according to the Laws of the Customs, 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 10.

Retailer to pay before he carry away the Goods from the Custom-house, &c.

II. And be it further enacted, That every Merchant or Importer, that is not a Retailer, Consumptioner, or Shop-keeper dealing in those Commodities, after Entry of his or their Goods, by Bill under his or their Hands, or the Hand of such Person for whom he or they shall engage to be answerable, presently, before he or they be admitted or permitted to have any Warrant to receive his or their Goods out of the Ship, or from the Water-side, shall become bound unto his Majesty with one or more sufficient Sureties, or procure two other Persons to become bound to his Majesty, in such Sums of Money as shall amount to the Value of the Duties hereby imposed upon his or their Goods, with Condition, that he or they shall not and will not deliver or cause or suffer any of the said Goods to be delivered unto any of the Buyers thereof, or put or delivered into the Custody or Possession of any Retailer, Consumptioner, or Shop-keeper dealing in the said Commodities, before such Time as the Duty imposed by this Act upon his or their said Goods be first duly paid and satisfied, or that in case he shall not sell or export the same before the Expiration of eighteen Months from the Importation thereof, that he will pay all and every the Duties imposed by this Act, and and that every Merchant or other Importer of any the Commodities liable to the Duties imposed by this Act, after he hath entered his Goods, and given Bond, as aforesaid, shall afterwards, upon Sale of all or any Part of the same, under his own Hand, or the Hand of such Person for whom he or they shall be responsible, certify in Writing the Quantity, and Quality, and Weight of his Goods sold, with the Name of the Buyer, who bringing and delivering of the same to the next Office appointed for the Collection of this Duty, Merchant is to give Security to pay the Duties before he deliver the Goods to any Buyer.

If he do not sell within 18 Months, to pay the Duties. of the Buyer to be certified. Buyer ſhall pay the Duties upon the Receipt of the Goods.

Duty, ſhall then and there pay the Duties aforeſaid, of the Goods ſo certified to be ſold, unto the Officer appointed to receive the ſame, who thereupon ſhall give him a Receipt for ſuch his Duties paid, and a Certificate to be left with the Merchant Importer of the Payment of the ſame; and no Merchant Importer, as aforeſaid, before his Receipt of ſuch Certificate of Payments of the Duties, as aforeſaid, ſhall deliver, or cauſe to be delivered, nor Buyer nor any other Perſon receive, all or any ſuch Goods, upon Pain of Forfeiture of double Duties impoſed by this Act, or the Value of the Goods ſo delivered and received; which Forfeiture the ſaid Importer and Receiver ſhall each of them be liable unto.

Penalty upon Buyer or Seller for Breach of this Act. Barter reputed a Sale.

III. And be it further enacted, That a Barter, Truck, or Exchange of one Goods for another, ſhall to all Intents and Purpoſes be deemed and reputed a Sale, and the Duties preſently paid for both Commodities, if they be both liable thereunto, or for ſuch of the Commodities as are liable, upon Pain of Forfeiture by the Parties battering, trucking, or exchanging, as in caſe of not paying the Duties for the like Goods upon the Sale of them.

Buyer with Deſign to export ſhall give Security to do it in four Months.

IV. Provided always, That where the firſt Buyer or Receiver of the ſaid Goods in Truck, Barter, or Exchange, does buy or receive the ſaid Goods with Intent to export the ſame, in ſuch Caſe the Importer ſhall certify in Writing, the Quantity, and Quality, and Weight of the Goods ſold or bartered, with the Name of the Buyer or Barterer, who bringing and delivering of the ſame unto the chief Officer or Officers, in the next Office appointed for the Collection of this Duty, ſhall then and there enter into Bond with Sureties and Penalty of double Duties, as aforeſaid, to export the ſame bona fide within the Space of four Months, who thereupon ſhall give him a Certificate of ſuch Bond entered into, the which Certificate he ſhall deliver to the Merchant Importer, and, by Virtue of the ſame, receive Poſſeſſion of the Goods; and ſuch Certificate being produced by the Importer ſhall diſcharge his Account for ſo much, as if the Duties had been paid, the which Bond for the Exportation of the Goods ſo entered into, ſhall again be diſcharged and vacated by the Certificate of his Majeſty's Searcher or Under-ſearcher in the Port of London, and of the Searcher of any other of the Out-ports, certifying the Shipping of the ſame, and the Merchant or Merchants Oath, that the ſame have not again been relanded in England, or Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed; for which Oath and Certificate no Fee is to be taken.

Certificate of ſuch Bond ſhall diſcharge the Importer.

The Manner how ſuch Bond ſhall be diſcharged, See 6 Geo. 1. §. 21. §. 50.

Commiſſioners have Power once in three Months to call the Merchant to bring in an Account.

Penalty upon Merchant not bringing in his Account.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Commiſſioners, or Chief Managers, and Collectors appointed for the collecting of this Duty reſpectively, and in their ſeveral and reſpective Offices, once every three Months without fail, or oftner if they ſhall ſee Cauſe, ſhall take Care for the balancing and adjuſting of the Merchants their Import Accounts, by calling them, and requiring them and every of them, to bring and deliver to them reſpectively a particular Account of all the Goods and Merchandize liable to this Duty, which ſhall be then remaining in his or their Hands at the Time he or they ſhall be ſo called upon, and required; and if any ſuch Merchant, Importer, or other Perſon ſhall upon Notice given him or them, or ſhall upon Notice or Summons left at his or their uſual Place of Abode or Habitation, warning him or them thereunto, refuſe or neglect to give in ſuch Account for the Space of fourteen Days after ſuch Notice, Warning, or Summons, as aforeſaid, every ſuch Merchant or Importer ſhall then be liable to the Payment of the full Duty of all the Goods he ſhall ſtand duly charged with in his or their Import Account, and ſhall pay the ſame within fourteen Days next after following, at the fartheſt; or in Default thereof every ſuch Merchant and Importer ſhall forfeit double the Value of all the Duties of ſuch Goods as ſhall be found reſting and remaining on his Import Account, and ſhall ever after be incapable of taking up any Goods liable to this Duty, in any Port of this Realm, for his own or any other Uſe, without Payment down of the Duty of ſuch Goods, as if he were a Retailer, Conſumptioner, or Shopkeeper dealing in ſuch Goods; but if ſuch Importer ſhall upon Demand, or within fourteen Days after, give in ſuch Account as aforeſaid, then the ſaid Commiſſioners, Collectors, or Chief Managers of this Duty may (if they ſee Cauſe ſo to do) appoint one or more Officer or Officers to enter into all the Cellars, Ware-houſes, Store-cellars, or other Places whatſoever belonging to ſuch Importer, to ſearch, ſee, and try, by taking an Account of the Quantity and Quality of the Goods and Merchandize therein remaining, whether ſuch Importer's Remainder do agree with his Account, or no, and to make Report thereof to the ſaid Commiſſioners or Collectors reſpectively; which Report of ſuch Officer or Officers, in caſe of Differences between the Remainder and Account of ſuch Merchant, ſhall be reputed, taken, and eſteemed for the true and juſt Remainder, according to which the ſaid Commiſſioners or Collectors ſhall proceed in making up his Account: And then ſuch Importer making Oath before the ſaid Commiſſioners, Collectors, or Chief Managers of this Duty reſpectively, that the Goods and Merchandize remaining, viewed by the Officer or Officers aforeſaid, and all other Goods ſhipt out by him or others by which his Account is to be diſcharged, were all and every Part and Parcel of them ſuch Goods and Merchandize as had been bona fide formerly imported by himſelf, and entered in the Office appointed for the ſame, and there charged on his proper Import Account, and that the ſaid Goods and Merchandizes found ſo remaining had not been ſold or altered, either directly, or indirectly, in their Property, ſince the firſt Importation and bringing in of the ſame into this Realm, the ſaid Commiſſioners, Collectors, or Chief Managers of this Duty, ſhall ſettle and adjuſt the aforeſaid Importer's Accounts accordingly: But if any Merchant Importer aforeſaid ſhall refuſe to permit any Officer or Officers authorized by Warrant from the Commiſſioner or Commiſſioners for the Collecting of this Duty, in the Day-time, to enter into or ſearch his or their Cellars, Ware-houſes, Store-houſes, Store-cellars, or other Places, and to take an Account of the Quality and Quantity of his and their Goods therein remaining; every ſuch Merchant ſhall, for every ſuch Refuſal, forfeit one hundred Pounds: And if permitting Entrance and Search, as aforeſaid, ſhall nevertheleſs refuſe to make Oath that the Goods and Merchandize viewed and ſeen, and ſhewn unto the Officer and Officers, as aforeſaid, or ſhipt out, as aforeſaid, were all of them imported by himſelf from beyond the Seas, and entred upon his Import Account Commiſſioners Power to appoint Searchers if the Merchant brings in his Account.

They are to be governed by the Report of the Searchers.

Oath to be taken by the Merchant before the paſſing his Account.

100 l. Penalty upon Merchant refuſing Officer to ſearch.

If he refuſe to ſwear, the Goods found ſhall not be repurſed his.

in the Office appointed for this Duty, and without any Alteration of Property; all and every such Goods shall be esteemed and reputed the Goods and Merchandize of some other than such Importer, and therefore not at all to be reckoned in Discharge of his Account: And if such Merchant shall make Oath, and yet shall neglect or refuse for the Space of fourteen Days following after the doing thereof, to pay and satisfy such Duties as by this Act shall be due and payable thereupon, every such Importer his Bond given upon Entry of those Goods which be found wanting, shall be returned into the Exchequer, there to be prosecuted according to the Course of Law, and shall not afterwards upon his or their Importation of Goods into any Port of this Realm, be permitted to take up, land, or lay on Shore his or their Goods, before Payment down of the full Duties by this Act imposed unto the Officer appointed to receive the same at the Port where his Goods shall arrive or be brought in.

Bond returned into the Exchequer upon Nonpayment.

VI. Provided always, and it is hereby declared, That the Importer's Accounts shall be discharged by Exportations by him made, for which he shall produce Certificate under the Hands of his Majesty's Searcher or Under-Searcher in the Port of London, and of the Searcher of any other of the Out-ports, certifying the shipping out of the same, and his or their Oath that the same have not been again re-landed in England, Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed.

Importer's Accounts to be discharged by Exportations.

VII. Provided also, That every Importer, who shall be Retailer, Consumptioner, or Shop-keeper, dealing in the Commodities aforesaid, who are to pay down the aforesaid Duty upon such his Importation, shall, upon his Exportation of the said Commodities, within the Space of eighteen Months next after such his Importation, be repaid the Duties so by him paid down upon his Importation of the same, by the Officer appointed to receive the said Duty.

Importer Retailer to be repaid his Duties upon Exportation.

These Eighteen Months enlarged to Three Years by 7 Geo. 1. stat. 1. c. 21. § 10.

'VIII. And forasmuch as the Commodities aforesaid are liable to Damage on the Seas; and whereas by 'the Act of Tonnage and Poundage, and the Rules and Instructions for collecting his Majesty's Duties 'arising thereby, it is directed that Allowance be made for Damage by Salt-water or otherwise;' Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Importer of the Commodities chargeable by this Act shall be charged for any greater Proportion of the Goods herein mentioned, duly entred at the Custom-house, than what shall remain neat after such Allowance or Abatement.

Importer charged only with the neat Effects.

'IX. And forasmuch as the Commodities aforesaid are liable to Waste and Decay, during the Time they 'may remain in the Hands of the Importer, before the Sale or Exportation of the same;' the aforesaid Commissioner or Commissioners, Collectors, or Chief Managers of this Duty, are hereby impowered and authorized to make such further Allowance for the same, as to their Judgements shall seem meet, considering the Circumstances of the Commodities, and the Time of their lying by, in Consideration of all Damages, Want of Weight, Diminution, or Prejudice whatsoever, that may happen to the said Commodities: Provided such Allowance exceed not eight Pounds per Cent. in the whole, for all Causes whatsoever.

Commissioners may allow for Decay.

'X. And whereas it is provided, That this Duty be collected on the Retailer, Consumptioner, or Shop-'keeper trading in the said Commodities, importing the same, or on the First Buyer, not exporting the same, 'as is before declared;' Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case the Merchant or others importing the same (who shall be admitted to receive Possession of his Goods on Security, as aforesaid) shall not clear his or their Import Account, either by Sales or Exportation as aforesaid, within the Term of eighteen Months, from the Time of the Importation of the said Goods; he or they the said Importer or Importers shall be charged with the Duty imposed by this Act on the Commodities aforesaid, and answer and pay the same as if the said Goods had then been sold by Retail, although the said Goods shall still remain without any Alteration of Property in his or their Hands; any Thing in this Act to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided always, That in such Case Allowance be made for Waste and Decay in the Manner already provided for.

If no Sale nor Exportation within Eighteen Months, Duties to be paid.

Allowance for Decay.

XI. And to the End that all Importers, Merchants and Persons concerned in the Payment of the Duties aforesaid, may know to whom and where to pay the same, and to make Entry of their Goods, in Manner as by this Act is intended; it is hereby enacted, That his Majesty may from time to time nominate, commissionate, and authorize such Commissioner or Commissioners, Collector or Collectors, or other Officer or Officers, as he shall think fit, to manage, collect, and levy the said Duties in every Port of the Kingdom; which said Commissioners, Collectors, or other Officer or Officers so appointed, shall duly attend at the Custom-house, or other Place publickly appointed in the Port or Place to which he or they shall be respectively appointed, at the usual Hours and Times in which the Officers of the Customs do or ought to attend, and there shall do and execute whatsoever ought to be done and executed on his or their Parts, pursuant to the Trust reposed in him or them, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act.

Commissioners to be in every Port.

XII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Merchant or Merchants, or any other Person or Persons whatsoever, entring any Goods, Wares, and Merchandizes from beyond the Seas, that are liable to the Duties imposed by this Act, shall enter his or their Commodities in any other than the Name of the true Importer of the said Commodities; nor shall make use of any Name of any Person whatsoever to colour his or their Goods, whether it be with or without the Consent of such Person; upon Pain of Forfeiture of Double Duties on such Goods so found or discovered to be entered or coloured contrary to the true Meaning hereof. And for the better levying and collecting all and every of the said Duties imposed by this Act, and preventing the many Frauds and Deceits which may be had and used by evil disposed Persons, and undue Practices to elude this Act, be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Goods, Wares, or Merchandizes, liable to the Duties by this Act imposed, shall from and after the said four and twentieth Day of June in the Year of our Lord one thousand six hundred eighty and five, during the Continuance of this Act, be discharged or laid on Land out of any Ship, Bottom, Hoy, Bark, Lighter, Boat, or Vessel whatsoever, or put off from any Wharf, Key, or Place, or Land, into any Ship, Bottom, Hoy, Bark, Lighter, Boat, or other Vessel whatsoever, but only in such Manner, and,

Double Duties upon Entry in another Man's Name.

Goods to be landed, &c. according to the Acts about Customs.

and at such Times and Places, and no otherwise, than the said Goods and Merchandizes may or ought to be unshipped, unladen, or put into any Ship or other Vessel to be laid on Shore or Laden, put off from Land into any Ship, or other Vessel, by Virtue of, and according to the true Intent and Meaning of the several Laws and Statutes made and enacted for the Payment of his Majesty's Customs and Subsidies of Tonnage and Poundage, and for collecting and levying the said Duties, and for preventing Frauds, and regulating Abuses in his Majesty's Customs; and all the Clauses, Penalties, and Forfeitures mentioned in the aforesaid Acts against Masters of Ships, Wharfingers, Seamen, and Boatmen, Carmen and Porters, shall be to all Intents and Purposes in full Force, touching and concerning any of the Goods and Merchandizes mentioned in this Act, and the Duties imposed thereupon (as well in relation to their Landing at their Importation, as at the Loading of the same at Exportation, as also for their carrying at any Time Coastwise from one Port to another) as if the same were herein particularly and at large recited; and the Commissioner or Commissioners, Collector or Collectors, Officer or Officers appointed as aforesaid, for the collecting of this Duty, are hereby impowered, for the better collecting the Duties hereby imposed, and therein avoiding all Frauds and undue Practices, with all the Powers and Authorities, the Commissioners, Collectors, or Officers of the Custom-house have or may have, by Virtue of the aforementioned Laws in relation to the Management of the Customs. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Penalties and Forfeitures incurred by Virtue of this Act, shall and may be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in his Majesty's Court of Exchequer, or in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster: And that one Moiety of all Penalties and Forfeitures herein mentioned shall be to the King's Majesty, his Heirs, and Successors, and the other Moiety to such Person or Persons as shall sue for the same; wherein no Essoin, Protection, or Wager of Law shall be allowed, or any more than one Imparlance: Provided always, That no Person or Persons shall sue for the aforesaid Penalties or Forfeitures, but such Officer or Officers as shall be appointed by his Majesty, or by any Authority derived from him, for the Management of his Customs, or the Duties imposed by this Act. And be it hereby also enacted, That all Officers, Deputies, Clerks, or Servants, which shall have any Office or Imployment in the managing, collecting, or attending upon the Collection of this Duty, shall, before their entering upon their respective Offices, Trusts, or Imployments, take their respective Corporal Oaths for the due and faithful Execution and Discharge, to the best of their Knowledge and Power, of the several Trusts and Imployments committed to their Charge, before the Commissioners or Chief Managers of the Customs of this Duty, or before the Customer or Comptroller in any Out-port of the Kingdom: And if any Commodity seized for any Offence committed against this Act, shall be claimed by any Person whatsoever, or any Personal Information shall be brought or commenced against any Person for the recovering of the Duties or Forfeitures granted by this Act, the Onus probandi, or the Proof whether the Duties thereof be paid or secured, shall lie upon the Claimer or Defendant, and shall not be incumbent on his Majesty, or any Prosecutor or Informer on Behalf of his Majesty or himself: Provided such Seizure or Information be made or brought by Officers or Persons imployed in his Majesty's Customs, or the Duties arising by virtue of this Act.

Penalties in those Acts in Force here.

Commissioners &c. have like Power as there.

Penalties how recoverable.

One Moiety to the King, the other to the Prosecutor.

Officer only shall prosecute.

Officers shall swear to execute.

CAP. VIII.

An Act against the Importation of Gunpowder, Arms, and other Ammunition, and Utensils of War.

'WHEREAS to the great Prejudice of this Kingdom, and the Discouragement and Impoverishment of the Gun-smiths and other Artificers, great Quantities of Arms and Ammunition have of late Years been imported, to the endangering the Peace and Quiet of this Kingdom:'

II. For Remedy whereof be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall not, at any Time from and after the tenth Day of July one thousand six hundred eighty and five, be lawful to or for any Person or Persons whatsoever, without Licence from his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, to import or bring into this Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, by way of Merchandize, any Gunpowder, Arms, Ammunition, or Utensils of War, upon Pain and Forfeiture of all and every such Goods so imported, as aforesaid, to his Majesty, his Heirs, and Successors, and the Person or Persons, who shall so import or bring in the same, or in whose Custody any such Gunpowder, Arms, Ammunition, or Utensils of War, shall be found, being thereof lawfully convicted, shall forfeit Treble the Value of the Goods so imported, one Moiety thereof unto his Majesty, his Heirs, and Successors, and the other Moiety thereof to such Person or Persons, who will sue for the same, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, wherein no Essoin, Protection, or Wager of Law, shall be allowed.

None shall import Gunpowder, &c. without Licence, 16 Car. 1. c. 21.

upon Forfeiture of Goods imported, and Treble the Value, one Moiety to the King, the other to the Prosecutor.

III. Provided always, That if any Person or Persons whatsoever, Bodies Politick or Corporate, shall by Colour of this Act, or otherwise, obtain from his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, any Letters Patent, Licence, or Grant, for the sole making or importing any Gunpowder, Arms, Ammunition, or other Utensils of War, and shall put the same in Execution, or by Colour thereof molest or hinder any Person or Persons, who lawfully make any the Things before mentioned in this Kingdom, or shall obtain any Letters Patents, Licence, or Grant, for the importing of Gunpowder, Arms, Ammunition, or other Utensils of War, by way of Merchandize, to make Profit thereof, other than for the immediate furnishing of the publick Stores of his Majesty, his Heirs, and Successors; that then the Person and Persons so offending, shall incur and sustain the Pains, Penalties, and Forfeitures contained and provided in the Statute of Provision and Præmunire made in the fixteenth Year of the Reign of King Richard the Second, and be disabled to hold any Office or Imployment under his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors; and all and every such Letters, Licence, Patent, and Grant, and every of them, for the sole making and importing the said Commodities, shall be void to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same had never been had or made; any Clause of Non obstante, or other Provision or Covenant to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

13 & 14 Car. 2. c. 22. 18 Car. 2. c. 3. 29 & 30 Car. 2. c. 2.

'WHEREAS an Act was made in the thirteenth and fourteenth Years of the Reign of our late Sovereign Lord King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act for preventing of Theft and Rapine upon the Northern Borders of England: And whereas also another Act was made in the eighteenth Year of the Reign of the said King, intituled, An Act to continue a former Act to prevent Theft and Rapine upon the Northern Borders of England; both which Acts were continued by another Act made in the twenty-ninth and thirtieth Years of the Reign of the said late King, intituled, An Act for Continuance of two former Acts for preventing of Theft and Rapine upon the Northern Borders of England, for and during the Space and Time of seven Years, and also from thence until the End of the first Session of this present Parliament; which Laws have been found very necessary for the Preservation of those Places from that great Number of lewd, disorderly, and lawless Persons that usually infested and frequented in those Parts:'

Revived for eleven Years. Continued by 17 Geo. 2. c. 40.

II. Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by Authority of the same, That the said three former Acts, and all and every of them, and every Matter, Clause and Clauses therein contained, and all and every the Powers and Authorities thereby given, shall be, continue, and remain in full Force from henceforth, for and during the Space and Term of eleven Years: And also from thence unto the End of the first Session of the next Parliament.

CAP. XV.

An Act for rebuilding, finishing, and adorning of the Cathedral Church of St. Paul's, London.

EXP. The Powers of this Act are revived, and continued to 15 May 1716. by 1 Annæ, stat. 2. c. 12.

'WHEREAS by a late Act of Parliament a small Part of the Imposition upon Coals imported in or near the City of London was given towards the rebuilding the Cathedral Church of Saint Paul's, wholly ruined by the dreadful Fire of London, which (and all other Supplies) carefully expended, have made some considerable Advance in the said Work, but so far short of finishing a Fabrick of so large Dimensions, that without further Encouragement by a Supply from the Publick, the said Work in a little Time must be left imperfect and useless, and consequently all the said former Expence totally lost, to the Dishonour of our establish'd Religion, and to the Reproach of the said City: And whereas by the said late Act the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, the Lord Bishop of London, and the Lord Mayor of London, for the Time being, or any Two of them, were impowered to imploy and dispose Part of the said Imposition upon Coals towards the building the said Cathedral of Saint Paul's, &c.'

Eighteen Pence per Chalder or Archbishop, &c.

Ton laid upon Coals. To be paid to the Archbishop of Canterbury, &c. before Bulk be broken, to be applied to build St. Paul's. 22 Car. 2. c. 11. may appropriate any Part under a Fifth to the finishing the other Churches. Coals delivered to Chelsea College exempted.

CAP. XVI.

An Act for clearing, preserving, maintaining, and repairing the Haven and Piers of Great Yarmouth. Explained by 1 W. & M. Sess. 1. cap. 11. Power given to the Mayor, &c. to lay 12*d*. a Chalder upon Coals and other Commodities for the Repair of the Harbour. Mayor, &c. to nominate Collectors. Collectors to pay the Money to the Chamberlain. To be Eight Commissioners. The Commissioners or any Five may take the Accounts and dispose of the Money. Collectors may search Ships, and upon Non-payment may by Warrant from the Mayor distrain Ships. Upon ten Days Neglect may sell the Ship. Overplus to be restored. Fish, Oils, and Maintenance for the Seamen excepted.

CAP. XVII.

An Act for Reviving and Continuance of several Acts of Parliament therein mentioned.

'WHEREAS many good and wholesome Laws were made in the Reign of Your Majesty's Royal Brother King Charles the Second, of blessed Memory, as probationary Laws, which by Experience have been found very useful and beneficial both for the Service of the Crown, and Good of the Subjects of this your Majesty's Realm; which said Acts being made temporary, are most of them expired, and others near expiring;' your Commons in this present Parliament assembled, taking the same into their serious Consideration, do most humbly beseech your Majesty, that it may be enacted:

13 & 14 Car. 2. c. 12. revived for seven Years, except as to the Corporation. Made perpetual 12 Annæ, stat. 1. c. 18.

II. And be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That one Act of Parliament made in the thirteenth and fourteenth Years of his said late Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the better Relief of the Poor of this Kingdom (except what relates unto the Corporation therein mentioned and constituted thereby) shall be in Force from the first Day of this present Session of Parliament, and so to continue for the Space of seven Years, and from thence to the End of the next Session of Parliament.

'III.

'III. And forasmuch as such poor Persons at their first Coming to a Parish do commonly conceal themselves;' be it therefore hereby provided and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the forty Days Continuance of such Person in a Parish, intended by the said Act to make a Settlement, shall be accounted from the Time of his or her Delivery of Notice in Writing (which they are hereby required to do) of the House of his or her Abode, and the Number of his or her Family, if he or she have any, to One of the Churchwardens or Overseers of the Poor of the said Parish, to which they shall so remove. Settlement to be accounted from Notice in Writing.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That one other Act made in the said thirteenth and fourteenth Years of his said late Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for preventing the unnecessary Charge of Sheriffs, and for Ease in passing their Accounts, shall be in Force, and is hereby made perpetual. 13 & 14 Car. 2. c. 21. of Sheriffs, made perpetual.

V. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That one other Act made in the seventeenth Year of his said late Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for avoiding unnecessary Suits and Delays: And also one other Act made in the two and twentieth and three and twentieth Years of his late Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the better settling Intestates Estates (which said latter Act is explained by a Clause in one other Act made in the nine and twentieth Year of his said late Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for Prevention of Frauds and Perjuries) both which said Acts, with the said Clause, are continued by one other Act made in the thirtieth Year of his said late Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for reviving both the said former Acts. All which said Acts and Clauses shall be in Force, and is hereby made perpetual. 17 Car. 2. c. 8. of avoiding Delays, and 22 & 23 Car. 2. c. 10. of Distribution made perpetual. Explanatory Clause in 29 Car. 2. c. 3. §. 25. of 22 & 23 Car. 2. c. 10. of Distributions, made perpetual. 30 Car. 2. stat. 1. c. 6.

VI. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted, That no Administrator shall, from the four and twentieth Day of July next, be cited to any the Courts in the said last Act mentioned, to render an Account of the Personal Estate of his Intestate (otherwise than by an Inventory or Inventories thereof) unless it be at the Instance or Prosecution of some Person or Persons in Behalf of a Minor, or having a Demand out of such Personal Estate as a Creditor or next of Kin, nor be compellable to account before any the Ordinaries or Judges by the said last Act impowered and appointed to take the same, otherwise than as is aforesaid; any Thing in the said last Acts contained to the contrary notwithstanding. The two former Acts revived and made perpetual. Administrator compellable to account only to Persons interested.

VII. Provided also, and it is further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if after the Death of a Father, any of his Children shall die intestate without Wife or Children, in the Life-time of the Mother, every Brother and Sister, and the Representatives of them, shall have an equal Share with her; any Thing in the last mentioned Acts to the contrary notwithstanding. Brother and Sister shall share equally with the Mother.

VIII. Provided, and it is hereby, for the determining some Doubts arising upon the Acts aforementioned, for the better settling Intestates Estates, enacted and declared, That the Clause therein, by which it is provided, That that Act, or any Thing therein contained, should not any ways prejudice or hinder the Customs observed within the City of London, and Province of York, was never intended, nor shall be taken or construed to extend, to such Part of any Intestate's Estate, as any Administrator, by virtue only of being Administrator, by Pretence or Reason of any Custom, may claim to have, to exempt the same from Distribution, but that such Part in the Hands of such Administrator shall be subject to Distribution as in other Cases within the said Act. Clause of saving Customs of London and Province of York in Acts of Distributions, not to extend to Intestates Estates claimed by an Administrator quatenus Administrator.

IX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That one other Act made in the nineteenth Year of King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act for assigning Orders in the Exchequer without Revocation, shall be in Force from the first Day of this present Session of Parliament, and so to continue for the Space of seven Years, and from thence to the End of the next Session of Parliament. 19 Car. 2. c. 12. of assigning Exchequer Orders, continued for seven Years.

X. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That one other Act made in the two and twentieth and three and twentieth Years of his said late Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act to prevent Frauds in the Buying and Selling of Cattle in Smithfield and elsewhere, shall be in Force from the four and twentieth Day of June one thousand six hundred eighty-five, and so to continue for seven Years, and from thence to the End of the next Session of Parliament: Provided, that the said Act, or any Thing therein contained, shall not extend to Salesmen or Factors imployed by Farmers or Feeders. 22 & 23 Car. 2. c. 19. of Sale of Cattle in Smithfield, continued for seven Years. See 4 & 5 W. & M. c. 24. 11 & 12 W. 3. c. 13. 5 Annæ, c. 34. 7 Annæ, c. 6. Factors excepted.

XI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That one other Act made in the two and twentieth and three and twentieth Years of his said late Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the better and more certain Recovery of Fines and Forfeitures due to his Majesty, shall be in Force from the first Day of this present Session of Parliament, and so to continue for the Space of seven Years, and from thence to the End of the next Session of Parliament. 22 & 23 Car. 2. c. 22. For better Recovery of Fines and Forfeitures, revived for seven Years.

XII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That one other Act of the two and twentieth and three and twentieth of King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act to revive an Act, intituled, An Act to prevent the Disturbance of Seamen and others, and to preserve the Stores belonging to his Majesty's Navy Royal, with some Alterations and Additions, shall be in Force from the first Day of this present Session of Parliament, and so to continue for seven Years, and from thence to the End of the first Session of the next Parliament. 22 & 23 Car. 2. c. 23. To prevent Disturbance of Seamen, revived for seven Years.

XIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That one other Act of the two and twentieth and three and twentieth of King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act to prevent the Planting of Tobacco in England, and for regulating the Plantation Trade, shall be in Force from the first Day of this present Session of Parliament, and so to continue for seven Years, and from thence to the End of the next Session of Parliament. 22 & 23 Car. 2. c. 26. Tobacco, revived for seven Years.

30 Car. 2. ſtat. 1. c. 7. Executor de ſon tort, for ſeven Years.

XIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That one other Act made in the thirtieth Year of King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act to enable Creditors to recover their Debts of the Executors and Adminiſtrators of the Executors in their own Wrong, ſhall be in Force from the firſt Day of this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, and ſo to continue for ſeven Years, and from thence to the End of the firſt Seſſion of the next Parliament.

13 & 14 Car. 2. c. 33. the Preſs, for ſeven Years.

XV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That one other Act made in the thirteenth and fourteenth Years of his ſaid late Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act for preventing the frequent Abuſes in printing Seditious, Treaſonable, and Unlicenced Books and Pamphlets, and for regulating of Printing and Printing Preſſes, and every Clauſe, Article, and Thing therein contained, be revived, and continue in Force from the four and twentieth Day of June in the Year of our Lord one thouſand ſix hundred eighty-five, for the Space of ſeven Years, and from thence to the End of the next Seſſion of Parliament.

CAP. XVIII.

An Act to encourage the Building of Ships in England.

'WHEREAS for ſome Years paſt, and more eſpecially ſince the laying a Duty upon Coals brought into the River of Thames, there hath been obſerved a more than ordinary Decay in building Ships in England, and particularly in Newcaſtle, Hull, Yarmouth, Ipſwich, Alborough, Dunwich, Walderſwick, Woodbridge, and Harwich, where many ſtout Ships were yearly built for the Coal and other Trade, which were of great Uſe to his Majeſty in Time of War, and a Nurſery for able Seamen; but by the Diſcouragement that Trade hath ever ſince lain under, occaſioned chiefly by the Freedom which foreign Ships and Veſſels, bought and brought into this Kingdom, have enjoyed in the Coal and other Inland Trade, equal to that of Engliſh built Ships, the Merchants, Owners, and others, have not been able to build as formerly, which hath cauſed many of our Engliſh Shipwrights, Calkers, and Seamen, to ſeek their Imployments abroad, whereby the Building Trade is not only wholly loſt in ſeveral of the aforementioned Places, and in others very much decayed, but alſo the Importation of Timber, Plank, Hemp, Pitch, Tar, Iron, Maſts, Canvas, and other Commodities uſed in building and fitting out Ships, are greatly leſſened, to the apparent Prejudice of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms, the Loſs of a conſiderable Imployment for Shipping, and conſequently of all other Trades depending thereupon, to the too great Advantage of foreign Nations:'

Foreign built Ship to pay 5s. per Ton.

II. Be it therefore enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That all foreign built Ships and Veſſels, which ſhall from henceforth be bought and brought into the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, and be imployed in carrying or tranſporting any Goods or Merchandize from Port to Port, as aforeſaid, for every Voyage ſhall pay to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, at the Port of Delivery of the reſpective Lading (before the Delivery thereof) over and above all Duties now paid, or that ſhall hereafter be payable by Engliſh built Ships, the Sum of five Shillings per Ton, to be collected and received by ſuch Perſon or Perſons as his Majeſty ſhall appoint in that Behalf; one Moiety whereof to be for the Uſe of the Cheſt at Chatham, the other Moiety to the Maſter, Wardens, and Aſſiſtants of the Trinity Houſe of Deptford-Strond, for and towards the Relief of wounded and decayed Seamen, their Widows and Children.

Diſpoſal of the Money.

'III. And whereas there are now in England, belonging, or pretending to belong to Engliſh Owners, many Foreign built Ships and Veſſels which do tranſport Coals and other Goods from Port to Port in England, as aforeſaid, paying no more Duty than Engliſh Ships pay;' Be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all ſuch foreign Ships (which are not free) for every Voyage ſhall pay, after the Feaſt of St. Michael, in the Year of our Lord one thouſand ſix hundred eighty and nine, at the Rate of twelve Pence per Ton over and above all Duties now paid, or that ſhall hereafter be payable by Engliſh built Ships, to be diſpoſed of unto the Cheſt of Chatham, and the Trinity Houſe of Deptford-Strond, by Moieties as aforeſaid, and for the Uſes before mentioned; which ſaid laſt mentioned Duty of twelve Pence per Ton alſo ſhall be collected and received in Manner aforeſaid, at their reſpective Ports of Delivery of their reſpective Lading, before the Delivery thereof.

Foreign Ships already in Engliſh Hands 1s. per Ton.

The Duties to be recovered, as provided by 12 Car. 2. c. 4.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That his Majeſty ſhall have the ſame Remedy for receiving and recovering of the Duties above-mentioned, as are provided in a certain Act of Parliament made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of our late Sovereign Lord King Charles the Second, intituled, A Subſidy granted to the King of Tonnage and Poundage, and other Sums of Money payable upon Merchandize exported and imported.

The Duties not to be farmed.

V. Provided always, That the ſaid Duties of five Shillings per Ton, and twelve Pence per Ton, or any Part thereof, hereby impoſed upon ſuch Foreign built Ships, which have been heretofore or ſhall hereafter be bought or brought into England, ſhall not be ſet to Farm to any Perſon or Perſons for any Term or Time, or for any Rent or certain Payment whatſoever, but that the ſeveral Perſons, who ſhall be appointed to receive the ſame, ſhall actually receive the ſaid whole Duty payable by every ſuch Ship, and account for the ſame as by this Act is directed.

CAP. XIX.

An additional Act for the Improvement of Tillage.

'FOrasmuch as by an Act made in the two and twentieth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty, of ever blessed Memory, intituled, An Act for Improvement of Tillage, and the Breed of Cattle, it is, amongst other Things, provided and enacted, That from and after the nine and twentieth Day of June one thousand six hundred and seventy, and from thence forward, certain Rates should be paid for the Custom and Poundage of Foreign Corn and Grain imported into this Kingdom, according to the Prices of English Corn, at the Times, Havens, and Places, when and where the same should be imported, as by the said Act particularly appeareth. 22 Car. 2. c. 13. Continued by 2 W. & M. c. 4. §. 3, 4. 1 Ann. stat. 1. c. 13. §. 2. 9 Ann. c. 6. §. 2. 3 Geo. 1. c. 7.

'II. And inasmuch as no Provision was made by the said Act for ascertaining and determining the said Prices, by reason whereof several great Quantities of Foreign Corn and Grain have been imported without paying the respective Duties by the said Act appointed, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of the said Act:' Shep. Abr.

III. Now for supplying the said Defect; be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Feast of St. Michael the Archangel next, and from thence forward, it shall and may be lawful to and for all and every the Justices of the Peace for the several and respective Counties within his Majesty's Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, and the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, wherein Foreign Corn or Grain shall or may be hereafter imported, and they and every of them are hereby injoined and required, at their next respective Quarter Sessions after Michaelmas and Easter Day yearly, by the Oaths of two or more honest and substantial Persons of the respective Counties, being neither Merchants nor Factors for the importing of Corn, nor any ways concerned nor interested in the Corn so imported, and each of them having a Freehold Estate of twenty Pounds per Annum, or a Leasehold Estate of fifty Pounds per Annum, above all Charges and Reprizes, and being skilful in the Prices of Corn (which Oaths all and every the said Justices are hereby impowered to administer) and by such other Ways and Means as to them shall seem fit, to examine and determine the common Market Prices of middling English Corn and Grain of the respective Sorts in the said Act mentioned, as the same shall be commonly bought and sold in the said respective Counties into which any Foreign Corn or Grain shall be imported, and to certify the same, with two such Oaths made as aforesaid in Writing annext, unto his Majesty's chief Officer and Collector of the Customs for the Time being, residing in the said respective Ports or Havens where the said Corn and Grain shall be imported, to be hung up in some publick Place in the Custom-house, to which all Persons may resort for their Information.

Justices upon the Coasts have Power by the Oath of two Men to determine the Prices of Corn.

Justices to certify the Price to the Head Collector; to be hung up in the Custom-house.

IV. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said Feast of St. Michael the Archangel next, the Custom and Duty of Foreign Corn and Grain imported into any of his Majesty's said Dominions of England, Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, appointed by the said Act to be paid, shall be collected and paid according to the Prices contained in such respective Certificates as aforesaid, and not otherwise; any Thing in this Act, or in any other Law or Statute contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Foreign Corn to pay Duty according to the Justices Certificate.

V. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all that by Virtue of this Act is to be done by the Justices of the Peace at their Quarter-Sessions in their several Counties, shall be done and performed in like Manner in the City of London, in the Months of October and April yearly, by the Mayor, Aldermen, and Justices of Peace there, and that the Persons making such Oaths shall be no Corn-chandler, Meal-man, Factor, Merchant, or other Person interested in such Corn so to be imported, but shall be some substantial House-keepers living in Middlesex or Surrey, qualified as aforesaid.

The same Power to the Lord Mayor, &c. of London.

See further Provisions relating hereto, 2 Geo. 2. c. 18. 5 Geo. 2. c. 12. 11 Geo. 2. c. 22. 24 Geo. 2. c. 56. and 26 Geo. 2. c. 15.

An Act to enable the Inhabitants of the Parish of St. Anne within the Liberty of Westminster, to raise Money to build a Church to be the Parish Church there. P. R.

CAP. XXI.

An Act for repealing a Clause for dividing of Commons, in an Act of Parliament made in the fifteenth Year of King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act for settling the Dreining of the Great Level of the Fens, called Bedford Level.

'WHEREAS in and by an Act of Parliament, made in the fifteenth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King Charles the Second, of ever blessed Memory, intituled, An Act for settling the Dreining the Great Level of the Fens, called Bedford Level, there is a Proviso, and it was enacted, That it should and might be lawful for any Person or Persons, Bodies Politick or Corporate, their Heirs and Suc- 15 Car. 2. c. 17.

'ceſſors, that were or ſhould be Lords of Manors, or have Right of Common in the Commons and Waſtes 'in the ſaid Level, or within any Town, Pariſh, or Place, into which the Works or Dreining of any of 'them did extend, to improve, ſet out, and incloſe, divide, and ſever ſuch Proportion or Proportions, as 'to them ſhould or might ſeverally and reſpectively belong, or be adjudged and allotted unto them in Se-'veralty by certain Commiſſioners appointed in the ſaid Act, and as they ſhould adjudge and determine, as 'by the ſaid Clauſe in the ſaid Act more fully appears:

'II. And whereas, ſince the paſſing of the ſaid Act, ſeveral Lords of Manors, and others who had Right 'of Common in the ſaid Commons and Waſtes, did divide and take their ſeveral Shares and Proportions 'thereof:

'III. And whereas ſuch taking and cutting of the ſaid Commons and Waſtes into ſmall Pieces, is ſince 'found to be very prejudicial to the Owners and Country, being a great Waſte of Ground in Diviſion, 'which are hard to be kept as Fences betweeen Party and Party, the Road-ways and Paſſages through ſuch 'Commons, as ſet forth, being very low, and generally in bad Ground, not paſſable, or well to be amend-'ed, whereby ſuch Diviſions are of little Value:

'IV. And whereas it occaſions great Diminution of Stock, and Decay of Houſes, many Perſons ſelling 'their Shares of Common from the Houſe it belongs unto, to a great Impoveriſhment, and Increaſe of the 'Poor;' to prevent any further Inconveniences thereby; be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Ma-jeſty, by and with the Advice and Aſſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this Par-liament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That the ſaid Clauſe in the ſaid Act for ſuch dividing and incloſing, ſhall be and is hereby repealed and made void to all Intents and Purpoſes: And that no more Diviſions or Incloſures ſhall be hereafter made of the ſaid Waſtes and Commons therein mentioned, pur-ſuant to the ſaid Act; any Thing therein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

V. Provided always, and it is further enacted, That all Incloſures already made and certified into the Petty-bag Office, purſuant to the ſaid Act, ſhall be held and enjoyed by the Owners thereof, as fully, to all Intents and Purpoſes, as if this Act had not been made.

'VI. And whereas ſeveral Perſons and Townſhips, finding the Inconveniencies of dividing and cutting 'aforeſaid, did come unto Agreements, and bound themſelves not to divide, but to feed and order the 'ſaid Commons and Waſtes by way of an equal Stint of Cattle in a like Proportion, to their great Advan-'tage and Improvement; and thoſe Agreements have been confirmed by the Decrees of his Majeſty's High 'Court of Chancery:'

VII. Be it therefore enacted, That all ſuch Agreements, ſo made and confirmed by the Decrees as afore-ſaid, ſhall be, and are hereby ratified, and binding to all ſuch Perſon or Perſons, who were Parties con-ſenting to the ſame, and all claiming by, from, or under them, or any of them, and according as in the ſaid Decrees are expreſſed and contained.

'VIII. And whereas divers Perſons, having had Decrees and Adjudications for Incloſures and Allotments 'within the ſaid Level already made by Commiſſioners in the ſaid Act appointed, purſuant to the ſame Act, 'have neglected to get the ſaid Decrees and Adjudications to be ſigned, ſealed, and certified into the Petty-'bag Office, as by the ſaid Act is directed:' It is now further provided and enacted, That ſo many of the ſaid Decrees and Adjudications already made and imperfect as aforeſaid, which ſhall be made perfect by being ſigned and ſealed by the ſaid Commiſſioners, and certified into the Petty-bag Office, in ſuch Manner as by the ſaid Act is appointed, before the four and twentieth Day of June, which ſhall be in the Year of our Lord one thouſand ſix hundred eighty-ſix, ſhall be good and valid in Law to all Intents and Purpoſes, as if the ſame had been ſo perfected at the Time of making this Act, and all Incloſures and Allotments by virtue thereof, ſhall be enjoyed by the reſpective Perſons intereſted, as if this Act had never been made. And all ſuch of the ſaid Decrees, which ſhall not be perfected by the ſaid Time in Manner and Form afore-ſaid, ſhall be utterly void and null to all Intents and Purpoſes whatſoever, and all Incloſures by virtue thereof ſhall be thrown open, as if ſuch Decrees or Adjudications had never been made; any thing in this Act, or in any Law, Statute, or Uſage contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

CAP. I.

An Act for removing and preventing all Queſtions and Diſputes concerning the aſſembling and ſitting of this preſent Parliament.

FOR preventing all Doubts and Scruples which may in any wiſe ariſe concerning the Meeting, Sitting, and Proceeding of this preſent Parliament; be it declared and enacted by the King's and Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſties, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, now aſſembled, and by Authority of the ſame:

The Convention declared a Parliament.

II. That the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, convened at Weſtminſter, the two and twentieth Day of January in the Year of our Lord one thouſand ſix hundred eighty-eight, and there ſitting on the thirteenth Day of February following, are the two Houſes of Parliament, and ſo ſhall be, and are hereby declared, enacted, and adjudged to be, to all Intents, Conſtructions, and Purpoſes whatſoever, notwithſtanding any Want of Writ or Writs of Summons, or any other Defect of Form or Default whatſoever, as if they had been ſummoned according to the uſual Form: And that this preſent Act, and all other Acts, to which the royal Aſſent ſhall at any Time be given before the next Prorogation after the ſaid thirteenth of February, ſhall be underſtood, taken, and adjudged in Law, to begin and commence upon the ſaid thirteenth of February, on which Day their ſaid Majeſties, at the Requeſt, and by the Advice of the Lords and Commons, did accept the Crown and Royal Dignity of King and Queen of England, France, and Ireland, and the Dominions and Territories thereunto belonging.

The old Oaths of Allegiance, &c. not to be taken by Members, 30 Car. 2. ſtat. 2. c. 1.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Act made in the thirtieth Year of King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act for the more effectual preſerving the King's Perſon and Government, by diſabling of Papiſts from ſitting in either Houſe of Parliament, and all other Acts of Parliament, as to ſo much of the ſaid Act or Acts only, as concerns the taking the Oaths of Supremacy and Allegiance, or either of them, in the ſaid Act or Acts reſpectively mentioned, by any Member or Members of either Houſe of Parliament, with relation to their ſitting and voting in Parliament, ſhall be, and are hereby repealed to all Intents and Purpoſes; any thing in the ſaid recited Act or Acts to the contrary notwithſtanding.

New Oaths ſubſtituted in the Place of the old.

IV. And be it further enacted, That the taking the Oaths herein after mentioned, and the making, ſubſcribing, and repeating the Declaration in the ſaid Act of the thirtieth Year of King Charles the Second mentioned, by every Member of either Houſe of this preſent Parliament, from and after the firſt Day of March next enſuing, in ſuch Manner as the taking the ſaid Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy, and the making, ſubſcribing, and repeating the ſaid Declaration in the ſaid laſt mentioned Act are required, ſhall be good and effectual to all Intents and Purpoſes, as if the ſaid Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy had been taken, and the ſaid Declaration had been made, ſubſcribed, and repeated in ſuch Manner, and at ſuch Time, as by the ſaid Act or Acts, or any of them, they are required. And that, in all future Parliaments, the Oaths herein after mentioned, and the Declaration in the ſaid Act, made in the thirtieth Year of King Charles the Second mentioned, ſhall be taken, made, ſubſcribed, and repeated by every Member of either Houſe of Parliament, within the Time, and in the ſame Manner and Form, and under the Penalties and Diſabilities, as the ſaid Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy, and the ſaid Declaration, by the ſaid Act of the thirtieth Year of King Charles the Second are limited, ordained, and appointed to be taken, made, ſubſcribed, and repeated, and not at any other Time, or in any other Manner, to enable them to ſit and vote in Parliament; any thing in the ſaid Act or Acts, or any of them, to the contrary notwithſtanding.

The Oaths.

V. And it is hereby further enacted and declared by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Oaths above appointed by this Act, to be taken in the Stead and Place of the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy, ſhall be in the Words following, and no other.

Allegiance.

'VI. I A. B. do ſincerely promiſe and ſwear, That I will be faithful, and bear true Allegiance to their Majeſties King William and Queen Mary:

So help me God.

Supremacy.

'VII. I A. B. do ſwear, That I do from my Heart abhor, deteſt, and abjure, as impious and heretical, that damnable Doctrine and Poſition, That Princes excommunicated or deprived by the Pope, or any Authority of the See of Rome, may be depoſed or murdered by their Subjects, or any other whatſoever. And I do declare, That no Foreign Prince, Perſon, Prelate, State, or Potentate hath, or ought to have, any Power, Juriſdiction, Superiority, Pre-eminence, or Authority, Eccleſiaſtical or Spiritual, within this Realm:

So help me God.'

Parliament diſſolved as formerly.

VIII. Provided always, and be it declared, That this preſent Parliament may be diſſolved after the uſual Manner, as if the ſame had been ſummoned and called by Writ.

CAP. VI.

An Act for eſtabliſhing the Coronation Oath.

"WHEREAS by the Law and ancient Uſage of this Realm, the Kings and Queens thereof have taken a ſolemn Oath upon the Evangeliſts at their reſpective Coronations, to maintain the Statutes, Laws, and Cuſtoms of the ſaid Realm, and all the People and Inhabitants thereof, in their Spiritual and Civil Rights and Properties: But foraſmuch as the Oath itſelf on ſuch Occaſion adminiſtred, hath heretofore been framed in doubtful Words and Expreſſions, with relation to ancient Laws and Conſtitutions at this Time unknown:' To the End therefore that one uniform Oath may be in all Times to come taken by the Kings and Queens of this Realm, and to them reſpectively adminiſtred at the Times of their and every of their Coronation: May it pleaſe your Majeſties that it may be enacted:

An Oath to be taken by the King and Queen.

II. And be it enacted by the King's and Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſties, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That the Oath herein mentioned, and hereafter expreſſed, ſhall and may be adminiſtred to their moſt Excellent Majeſties King William and Queen Mary (whom God long preſerve) at the Time of their Coronation, in the Preſence of all Perſons that ſhall be then and there preſent at the ſolemnizing thereof, by the Archbiſhop of Canterbury, or the Archbiſhop of York, or either of them, or any other Biſhop of this Realm, whom the King's Majeſty ſhall thereunto appoint, and who ſhall be hereby thereunto reſpectively authorized; which Oath followeth, and ſhall be adminiſtred in this manner; that is to ſay,

The Archbiſhop or Biſhop ſhall ſay,

Coronation Oath.

"III. Will you ſolemnly promiſe and ſwear to govern the People of this Kingdom of England, and the "Dominions thereto belonging, according to the Statutes in Parliament agreed on, and the Laws and "Cuſtoms of the ſame?"

The King and Queen ſhall ſay,

"I ſolemnly promiſe ſo to do."

CAP. VIII.

An Act for the abrogating of the Oaths of Supremacy and Allegiance, and appointing other Oaths.

' WHEREAS by a Statute made in the firſt Year of the Reign of our late Sovereign Lady Queen Elizabeth, intituled, An Act to reſtore to the Crown the ancient Juriſdiction over the Eſtate Eccleſiaſtical and Spiritual, and aboliſhing all Foreign Powers repugnant to the ſame,' the Perſons therein mentioned ' were obliged to take an Oath therein mentioned, commonly called the Oath of Supremacy: And whereas ' by another Statute made in the third Year of the Reign of our late Sovereign Lord King James the Firſt, ' intituled, An Act for the better diſcovering and repreſſing Popiſh Recuſants,' another Oath, commonly called ' the Oath of Allegiance or Obedience,' was required to be taken by the Perſons therein mentioned:' 1 Eliz. c. 1. 3 Jac. 1. c. 4.

II. Be it enacted by the King's and Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſties, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from henceforth no Perſon whatſoever ſhall be obliged to take the ſaid Oaths, or either of them, by force or virtue of the ſaid Statutes, or either of them, or any other Statute whatſoever, but that the ſaid Statutes, and every other Statute, for ſo much only as concerns the ſaid Oaths, and the ſaid Oaths themſelves, ſhall be and are hereby repealed, utterly abrogated, and made void. The old Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy abrogated. 1 Hale's P. C. 62.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Oaths appointed by this preſent Act to be taken, and the Declaration likewiſe appointed by this preſent Act to be made, repeated, and ſubſcribed, ſhall, from and after the firſt Day of May in the Year one thouſand ſix hundred eighty-nine, be taken, made, repeated, and ſubſcribed by every ſuch Perſon and Perſons as were appointed and required by any Act or Acts whatſoever, to take the ſaid abrogated Oaths of Supremacy and Allegiance, or either of them, before ſuch Perſon or Perſons, as hereafter in this Act is expreſſed; that is to ſay, all and every Archbiſhop and Biſhop that now is, and all and every Perſon, of or above the Degree of a Baron of Parliament, in their Majeſties High Court of Chancery, or in their Majeſties Court of King's Bench, in publick and open Court, between the Hours of nine of the Clock and twelve in the Forenoon, before the End of Trinity Term next, or at the General Quarter-Seſſions to be holden for that County or Place where he or they ſhall be, inhabit, or reſide, in open Court, between the ſaid Hours of nine and twelve of the Clock in the Forenoon, before the firſt Day of Auguſt next; all which ſhall be put on Record in the reſpective Courts. The new Oaths and Declaration by whom and how to be taken.

IV. And all and every other ſuch Perſon and Perſons ſhall take the ſaid Oaths, and make, repeat, and ſubſcribe the ſaid Declaration by this preſent Act required to be taken, made, and ſubſcribed, before ſuch Perſon or Perſons reſpectively, as by any Act or Acts were authorized or impowered to tender the ſaid Oath of Allegiance now abrogated and made void; which ſaid Perſon or Perſons ſo reſpectively authorized to miniſter or tender the ſaid Oaths and Declaration, are hereby required to miniſter and tender the ſame accordingly. Before whom the new Oaths are to be taken, and Declaration to be made and ſubſcribed.

All Persons which shall be in Office shall take the Oaths, &c.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Persons (other than such concerning whom other Provision shall be made in this Act, or in any other Act of this present Session of Parliament) that shall hereafter be admitted into any Office or Employment Ecclesiastical or Civil, or come into any Capacity, in respect or by reason whereof they should have been obliged by any Statute to take the said abrogated Oaths, or either of them, shall take the Oaths hereby appointed, in such Manner, at such Times, before such Persons, and in such Courts and Places, as they should or ought to have taken the said former Oaths, or either of them, in case the same had not been abrogated, as aforesaid. And that every such Person, who shall neglect or refuse to take the same, shall incur and be liable to the same Penalties, Forfeitures, Disabilities, and Incapacities, as by any such Statute was appointed, for or upon Neglect, or Refusal to take the said former Oaths hereby abrogated, or either of them.

The Penalty for Neglect.

Persons now in Office neglecting, the Office to be void.

VI. And be it further enacted, That if any Person now having any Office or Employment, civil or military, shall neglect or refuse to take the said Oaths hereby appointed to be taken, in such Manner as by this Act is directed, before the first Day of August in the Year one thousand six hundred eighty-nine, or sooner if required thereunto by any Order from his Majesty in Council, before such Persons as by the said Order shall be appointed to take and receive the same, that in every such Case the said Office and Employment of every Person so neglecting or refusing, shall be void, and is hereby adjudged void.

Ecclesiastical Persons now in Benefice, &c. neglecting, to be suspended, &c.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Archbishop or Bishop, or any other Person now having any Ecclesiastical Dignity, Benefice, or Promotion, shall neglect or refuse to take the Oaths by this Act appointed to be taken, in such Manner as by this Act is directed, before the first Day of August in the Year one thousand six hundred eighty-nine, every such Person and Persons so neglecting or refusing, shall be, and is, and are hereby declared and adjudged to be, suspended from the Execution of his or their Office by the Space of six Months, to be accounted from the said first Day of August: And if the said Person or Persons (so having neglected or refused) shall not within the said Space of six Months take the said Oaths in such Manner, Court, or Place, as they ought to have taken the same, before the said first Day of August; then he or they shall be ipso facto deprived, and is, and are hereby adjudged to be deprived of his and their Offices, Benefices, Dignities, and Promotions Ecclesiastical.

Persons who are now Masters of Colleges, &c. neglecting, how punished.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons now being Master, Governor, Head, or Fellow of any College or Hall, in either of the Two Universities, or of any other College, or Master of any Hospital or School, or Professor of Divinity, Law, Physick, or other Science in either of the said Universities, or in the City of London, shall neglect or refuse to take the Oaths by this Act appointed to be taken, in such Manner, and before such Persons as by this Act is directed, before the first Day of August in the Year one thousand six hundred eighty-nine; every such Person and Persons so neglecting or refusing, shall be, and is and are hereby declared and adjudged to be, suspended from the Execution of his or their Office and Employment, and from his or their Mastership, Government, Fellowship, and Professorship respectively, for the Space of six Months, to be accounted from the said first Day of August: And if the said Person or Persons (so having neglected or refused) shall not within the said Space of six Months take the said Oaths in such Court or Place, and before such Persons, and in such Manner, as they ought to have taken the same before the said first Day of August, that in every such Case the said Office and Employment, Mastership, Government, Fellowship, and Professorship of every Person so neglecting or refusing, shall be void, and is hereby adjudged void.

Persons refusing to take the Oaths upon Tender, to be committed.

IX. And be it further enacted, That if any such other Person or Persons (other than the Persons specially above-mentioned) shall refuse to take the said Oaths, or either of them, when tendred to him or them by any Persons lawfully authorized, as is aforesaid, to administer or tender the same; the Person or Persons so tendring the said Oaths, or either of them, shall commit the said Person and Persons so refusing to the Common Gaol or House of Correction, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize for the Space of three Months, unless such Offender shall pay down to the said Person or Persons so tendring the said Oaths, or either of them, such Sum of Money, not exceeding forty Shillings, as the said Person or Persons so tendring the said Oaths, or either of them, shall require such Offender to pay for his or her said Refusal; which Money shall be paid to the Churchwardens or Overseers of the Poor, for the Relief of the Poor of the Parish or Place where such Offender did last inhabit: And if at the End of three Months after such Refusal, the Person and Persons so refusing shall again refuse to take the said Oaths, or either of them, when lawfully tendered to him or them, as is aforesaid; the said Person or Persons so tendring the said Oaths, or either of them, shall commit the said Person and Persons so refusing to the Common Gaol or House of Correction, there to remain for the Space of six Months, unless every such Offender shall pay down to the Person or Persons so tendring the said Oaths, or either of them, such Sum of Money, not exceeding ten Pounds, nor under five Pounds, as the said Person or Persons so tendring the said Oaths, or either of them, shall require such Offender to pay for his or her said second Refusal; the said Money to be disposed in Manner aforesaid; and unless every such Offender shall become bound with two sufficient Sureties, with Condition to be of the good Behaviour, and also to appear at the next Assizes or General Gaol Delivery to be holden for the County, Liberty, or Place where such Offender shall then inhabit or reside; at which Assizes or Gaol Delivery the said Oaths shall be again tendred to every such Offender by the Justices of Assizes or Gaol Delivery, in their open Assizes or Gaol Delivery; and if the said Offender shall refuse to take the said Oaths, or either of them, when tendred to him or her by the said Justices of Assizes or Gaol Delivery, as is aforesaid, then every Person and Persons so refusing, shall be and is and are hereby adjudged incapable of any Office, civil or military, within this Kingdom, and shall likewise be and remain bound to the good Behaviour, until he or they do take the said Oaths. And in case such Person

CAP. IX.

An Act for the amoving Papists, and reputed Papists, from the Cities of London and Westminster, and ten Miles Distance from the same.

Ecc. Abr. 784 & 786. Burn, V. 2. 318.

'WHEREAS the great Numbers of Papists resorting to the Cities of London and Westminster are 'and for a long Time have been found dangerous to the Peace and Safety of this Kingdom:' For the better Preservation of the common Safety, and avoiding their mischievous Practices and Designs:'

Lord Mayor, &c. may tender Declaration of 30 Car. 2. to Papists or so reputed.

II. Be it enacted by the King's and Queen's most Excellent Majesties, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That for the better discovering and amoving all Papists and reputed Papists out of the said Cities, and ten Miles of the same, it shall and may be lawful, and it is hereby required, that the Lord Mayor of London for the Time being, and every Justice of the Peace of the City of London, and for the City and Liberties of Westminster, and Borough of Southwark, and of the Counties of Middlesex, Surrey, Kent, and Sussex, within their respective Counties, Cities, Boroughs, and Limits, do from Time to Time cause to be arrested and brought before him every Person or Persons, not being a Merchant Foreigner, within the said Cities, or within ten Miles of the same, as are or are reputed to be Papists, and tender unto him the Declaration mentioned in the Statute made in the thirtieth Year of King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act for the more effectual preserving the King's Person and Government, by disabling Papists from sitting in either House of Parliament: And in case such Person, upon such Tender, refuse audibly and solemnly to repeat, make, and subscribe the said Declaration, and shall after such Refusal remain, continue, or be within the said City or Cities, or ten Miles Distance from the same, that in every such Case he or she shall forfeit and suffer, as a Popish Recusant Convict by the Laws already established shall or may forfeit or suffer.

Sussex mistaken for Essex, infra, §. 1. c. 17.

30 Car. 2. stat. 2. c. 1.

Penalty for Refusal.

Justices of Peace shall certify Subscribers and Refusers into the King's Bench, &c.

III. And it is hereby further enacted, That every Justice of Peace shall and do certify all and every Subscription before him by virtue of this Act taken, and likewise the Names of all and every Person refusing to repeat, take, make, or subscribe, as aforesaid, upon Tender, under the Hand and Seal of the said Justice, into the Court of King's Bench, the next Term, or else at the next Quarter-Sessions that shall be of or for the County or Place where such Taking, Subscribing, or Refusal shall happen: And if the said Person, so refusing and certified, shall not, within the next Term or Sessions after such Refusal, appear in the Court of King's Bench or Sessions where such Certificate shall be returned, and in open Court audibly and solemnly repeat, take, make, and subscribe the Declaration aforesaid, and indorse or enter his so doing upon the Certificate so returned, shall be, from the Time of such his Neglect or Refusal, taken, esteemed, and adjudged a Popish Recusant Convict, and as such to forfeit and be proceeded against.

Penalty upon Person certified to have refused, if he take not the Oaths next Term, &c.

IV.

IV. Provided always, That this Act shall not extend to such Person or Persons as now use any Trade, Mystery, or manual Occupation within the said Liberties of London and Westminster, or within ten Miles of the same; nor to such as within six Months before the thirteenth Day of February one thousand six hundred eighty-eight, had their Dwellings or Places of Abode within the said Cities, or ten Miles Compass of the same, not having any Dwelling or Place of Abode elsewhere, so as he or they before the first Day of August one thousand six hundred eighty-nine, do certify his or their Names, Additions, and Places of Abode, at the Sessions of the Peace to be held for the said respective Cities, Counties, or Places: And the Clerk of the Peace shall not take or receive above two Pence for the Entry of the Name, Addition, and Place of Abode of any one Person. Tradesmen, &c. excepted, if they certify their Names, &c. at the Sessions.

V. Provided, That nothing in this Act shall relate to, or have any Effect upon, any Foreigner that is or shall be a menial Servant to any Ambassador, or publick Agent. Ambassadors Servants excepted.

VI. Provided, That nothing in this Act shall relate to, or have any Effect upon, any Person being a natural-born Subject of the King of Portugal, who now is, or hereafter shall be, a sworn Servant to the Queen Dowager, nor to any other Servants being natural-born Subjects of their Majesties, as her Majesty the Queen Dowager shall under her Hand and Seal from Time to Time for that Purpose be pleased to nominate, the said Servants so nominated not exceeding the Number of thirty at any one Time, so as none of the said Servants, being natural-born Subjects of their Majesties, be a Jesuit, Priest, Monk, or Fryar; any Law or Statute to the contrary notwithstanding. Queen Dowager's Servants excepted.

CAP. X.

An Act for the taking away the Revenue arising by Hearth-money.

'WHEREAS his Majesty, having been informed that the Revenue of Hearth-money was grievous to the People, was pleased by his gracious Message sent to the Commons assembled in Parliament, to signify his Pleasure, either to agree to a Regulation of it, or to the taking it wholly away, as should be thought most convenient by the said Commons: And whereas upon mature Deliberation, the said Commons do find, That the said Revenue cannot be so regulated, but that it will occasion many Difficulties and Questions, and that it is in itself, not only a great Oppression to the poorer Sort, but a Badge of Slavery upon the whole People, exposing every Man's House to be entred into and searched at Pleasure, by Persons unknown to him:

'II. We your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects the Commons, being filled with a most humble and grateful Sense of your Majesty's unparallelled Grace and Favour to your People, not only by restoring their Rights and Liberties, which have been invaded contrary to Law, but in desiring to make them happy and at Ease, by taking away such Burdens as by Law were fixed upon them, by which your Majesty will erect a lasting Monument of your Goodness in every House in the Kingdom; do most humbly beseech your Majesty, That the said Revenue of Hearth-money may be wholly taken away and abolished.

CAP. XI.

An Act for the explaining and making effectual a Statute made in the first Year of King James the Second, concerning the Haven and Piers of Great Yarmouth. The Mayor's Power given to the Bailiffs. All Officers may execute the Powers thereby given. Money to be paid to Persons appointed by the Bailiffs, &c. PR. 1 Jac. 2 c. 16.

CAP. XII.

An Act for the encouraging the Exportation of Corn.

'FOrasmuch as it hath been found by Experience, that the Exportation of Corn and Grain into foreign Parts, when the Price thereof is at a low Rate in this Kingdom, hath been a great Advantage, not only to the Owners of Land, but to the Trade of this Kingdom in general:' 15 Car. 2. c. 7.

II. Be it therefore enacted by the King's and Queen's most Excellent Majesties, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and of the Commons, now assembled in Parliament, and by the Authority of the same, That when Malt or Barley, Winchester Measure, is or shall be at four and twenty Shillings per Quarter, or under; Rye at two and thirty Shillings per Quarter, or under; and Wheat at eight and forty Shillings a Quarter, or under; in any Port or Ports of this Kingdom, or Dominion of Wales; every Merchant or other Person, who shall put on Ship-board in English Shipping, the Master and two thirds of his Mariners at least being their Majesties Subjects, any Sorts of the Corn aforesaid, from any such Ports where the Rates shall not then be higher than as aforesaid, with Intent to export the said Corn to Parts beyond the Seas: Every such Merchant or other Person shall bring a Certificate in Writing under his or their Hands, containing the Quantity and Quality of Corn so shipped, to the Farmers, Commissioners, Collectors, or other Persons appointed, or to be appointed, for the Time being, to collect the Duties and Rates arising by Customs within any such Port, and upon Proof made of any such Certificate by one or more credible Person or Persons upon their Oaths, which Oaths the said Persons exporting Corn at such a Rate shall have a Reward. Rates of Corn. Burn, V. 1. 249. Exporter gives Certificate of Quantity, and Bond to export. See farther Provisions relating hereto, 2 Geo. 2. c. 18.

ſaid Commiſſioners or other Perſons are hereby authorized and required to adminiſter, and upon Bond given by every ſuch Merchant, or other Perſon, in the Sum of two hundred Pounds at the leaſt for every hundred Tons of Corn ſo ſhipped, and ſo proportionably, that the ſaid Corn (Danger of the Seas excepted) ſhall be exported into Parts beyond the Seas, and not be again landed in the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, the Iſlands of Guernſey and Jerſey, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed: Every ſuch Merchant ſo ſhipping off any of the aforeſaid Corn, and giving Certificate and Bond, as aforeſaid, ſhall have and receive from ſuch Farmers, Commiſſioners, Collectors, or other Perſons in any Port reſpectively, where the ſame Corn ſhall be ſo ſhipped, for every Quarter of Barley or Malt, ground or unground, two Shillings and Six-pence; for every Quarter of Rye, ground or unground, three Shillings and Six Pence; for every Quarter of Wheat, ground or unground, five Shillings: Which Sum or Sums every ſuch Commiſſioner, Farmer, or other Perſon, are hereby authorized and required, upon Demand by ſuch Exporter, to make preſent Payment of accordingly, without taking or requiring any Thing for Cuſtom, or any Fee or Reward for Corn ſo laden to be exported, or for ſo much Grain as ſhall be exported in any Ship wherein any other Goods ſhall be ſhipped; any Law, Statute, or Uſage in any wiſe to the contrary notwithſtanding: And upon Certificate returned under the Common Seal of the Chief Magiſtrate in any Place or Places beyond the Seas, or under the Hands and Seals of two known Engliſh Merchants upon the Place, that ſuch Corn was there landed, or upon Proof by credible Perſons, that ſuch Corn was taken by Enemies, or periſhed in the Seas, the Examination and Proof thereof being left to the Judgement of ſuch Commiſſioners, Farmers, Collectors, or other Perſons; which Proof being made, or Certificate delivered to ſuch Perſon or Perſons reſpectively, as took Bond, as aforeſaid, the ſaid Bond ſhall be delivered up to ſuch Importer or his Order, to be cancelled, without any Fee for the ſame: And the Monies by any ſuch Commiſſioners, Farmers, Collectors, or other Perſon, ſo paid in Obedience to this Act, ſhall be accepted of in his or their Accounts, as ſo much paid to their Majeſties, and he and they is and ſhall be diſcharged therefore accordingly.

Be it enacted by the King's and Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſties, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by Authority of the ſame, That it ſhall and may be lawful for any two or more Juſtices of the Peace, who ſhall know or ſuſpect any Perſon to be a Papiſt, or ſhall be informed that any Perſon is, or is ſuſpected to be a Papiſt, to tender, and they are hereby authorized and required forthwith to tender to ſuch Perſon ſo known or ſuſpected to be a Papiſt, the Declaration ſet down and expreſſed in an Act of Parliament made in the thirtieth Year of the Reign of the late King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act for the more effectual preſerving the King's Perſon and Government, by diſabling Papiſts from ſitting in either Houſe of Parliament, to be by him made, repeated, and ſubſcribed: And if ſuch Perſon ſo required ſhall refuſe to make, repeat, and ſubſcribe the ſaid Declaration, or ſhall not make, repeat, and ſubſcribe the ſaid Declaration, or ſhall refuſe or forbear to appear before the ſaid Juſtices, for the making, repeating, and ſubſcribing the ſaid Declaration, upon Notice to him given or left at his uſual Place of Abode, by any Perſon authorized in that Behalf, by Warrant under the Hands and Seals of the ſaid two Juſtices, ſuch Perſon from thenceforth ſhall be taken to be, and is hereby declared to be, liable and ſubject to all and every the Penalties, Forfeitures, and Diſabilities hereafter in this Act mentioned.

Penalty upon Refuſers.

Juſtices of Peace ſhall certify the Subſcribers and Refuſers to the Seſſions.

III. And be it hereby further enacted, That the ſaid Juſtices of Peace ſhall certify the Name, Surname, and uſual Place of Abode of every Perſon, who being required, ſhall refuſe or neglect to make, repeat, and ſubſcribe the ſaid Declaration, or to appear before them for the making, repeating, and ſubſcribing the ſaid Declaration, as alſo of every Perſon who ſhall make, repeat, and ſubſcribe the ſaid Declaration, at the next General Quarter-Seſſions to be holden for the Shire, Riding, Diviſion, or Liberty, for which they ſhall be Juſtices of the Peace, to be there recorded by the Clerk of the Peace, or Town Clerk, and kept amongſt the Records of the ſaid Seſſions.

Refuſer ſhall keep no Arms. Bac. V. 3. 783. Burn. V. 2. 323

IV. And for the better ſecuring their Majeſties Perſons and Government; be it further enacted and declared, That no Papiſt or reputed Papiſt, ſo refuſing or making Default, as aforeſaid, ſhall or may have or keep in his Houſe, or elſewhere, or in the Poſſeſſion of any other Perſon to his Uſe, or at his Diſpoſition, any Arms, Weapons, Gunpowder, or Ammunition (other than ſuch neceſſary Weapons, as ſhall be allowed to him by Order of the Juſtices of the Peace, at their General Quarter-Seſſions, for the Defence of his Houſe or Perſon) and that any two or more Juſtices of the Peace, from time to time, by Warrant under their Hands and Seals, may authorize and impower any Perſon or Perſons in the Day-time, with the Aſſiſtance of the Conſtable or his Deputy, or the Tythingman, or Headborough, where the Search ſhall be (who are hereby required to be aiding and aſſiſting herein) to ſearch for all Arms, Weapons, Gunpowder, or Ammunition, which ſhall be in the Houſe, Cuſtody, or Poſſeſſion of any ſuch Papiſt or reputed Papiſt, and ſeize the ſame for the Uſe of their Majeſties, and their Succeſſors; which ſaid Juſtices of the Peace ſhall from time to time, at the next General Quarter-Seſſions to be held for the County, Riding, Diviſion, or Liberty, where ſuch Seizure ſhall be made, deliver the ſaid Arms, Weapons, Gunpowder, and Ammunition, in open Court, for the Uſe aforeſaid. Two Juſtices of Peace may ſeize Arms.

V. And be it further enacted, That every Papiſt, or reputed Papiſt, who ſhall not, within the Space of ten Days after ſuch Refuſal or making Default as aforeſaid, diſcover and deliver, or cauſe to be delivered, to ſome of their Majeſties Juſtices of the Peace, all Arms, Weapons, Gunpowder, or Ammunition whatſoever, which he ſhall have in his Houſe or elſewhere, or which ſhall be in the Poſſeſſion of any Perſon to his Uſe, or at his Diſpoſition, or ſhall hinder or diſturb any Perſon or Perſons, authorized by Warrant under the Hands and Seals of any two Juſtices of the Peace, to ſearch for and ſeize the ſame, that every ſuch Perſon ſo offending, contrary to the Statute in this Behalf made, ſhall be committed to the common Gaol of the County or Place where he ſhall commit ſuch Offence, by Warrant under the Hands and Seals of any two Juſtices of the Peace, there to remain, without Bail or Mainprize, for the Space of three Months, and ſhall alſo forfeit and loſe the ſaid Arms, and pay treble the Value of them to the Uſe of their Majeſties, and their Succeſſors, to be appraiſed by the Juſtices of the Peace, at the next General Quarter Seſſions to be held for the ſaid County, Riding, or Diviſion, to their Majeſties and their Succeſſors. Penalty upon Refuſer for not diſcovering or hindring the Search for his Arms.

VI. And be it further enacted, That every Perſon who ſhall conceal, or be privy, or aiding, or aſſiſting to the concealing, or who knowing thereof, ſhall not diſcover or declare to ſome of their Majeſties Juſtices of the Peace, the Arms, Weapons, Gunpowder, or Ammunition of any Perſon ſo refuſing, or making Default, as aforeſaid, or ſhall hinder or diſturb any Perſon or Perſons, authorized as aforeſaid, in ſearching for, taking, and ſeizing the ſame, ſhall be committed to the Common Gaol of the County or Place where he ſhall commit ſuch Offence, by Warrant under the Hands and Seals of any two Juſtices of the Peace, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize for the Space of three Months; and ſhall alſo forfeit and loſe treble the Value of the ſaid Arms to their Majeſties and their Succeſſors. Penalty upon Concealers of Arms.

VII. And be it further enacted, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall diſcover any concealed Arms, Weapons, Ammunition, or Gunpowder, belonging to any refuſing or making Default as aforeſaid, ſo as the ſame may be ſeized as aforeſaid, for the Uſe of their Majeſties and their Succeſſors, the Juſtices of the Peace, upon Delivery of the ſame at the General Quarter-Seſſions as aforeſaid, ſhall have Power, and they are hereby required, as a Reward for ſuch a Diſcovery, by Order of Seſſions, to allow to him or them a Sum of Money, amounting to the full Value of the Arms, Weapons, Ammunition, or Gunpowder ſo diſcovered; the ſaid Sum to be aſſeſſed by the Judgment of the ſaid Juſtices at their ſaid Seſſions, and to be levied by Diſtreſs and Sale of the Goods of the Perſon offending againſt this Act, rendring the Overplus which ſhall ariſe by ſuch Sale, above the ſaid Sum ſo allowed, and above the neceſſary Charges of taking ſuch Diſtreſs, to the Owner. Reward to Diſcoverer of Refuſers Arms.

VIII. Provided always, That if any Perſon, who ſhall have refuſed or made Default as aforeſaid, ſhall deſire to ſubmit and conform, and for that Purpoſe ſhall preſent himſelf before the Juſtices of Peace, at the General Quarter-Seſſions to be holden for the County, Riding, Diviſion, or Liberty, where his Refuſal, or making Default, as aforeſaid, ſhall be certified as aforeſaid, and ſhall there in open Court make, repeat, and ſubſcribe the ſaid Declaration contained in the ſaid Act, made in the ſaid thirtieth Year of the Reign of the ſaid late King Charles the Second, and take the ſeveral Oaths contained in an Act made in this preſent Parliament, intituled, An Act for removing and preventing all Queſtions and Diſputes concerning the aſſembling and ſitting of this preſent Parliament; he ſhall from thenceforth be diſcharged of and from all Diſabilities and Forfeitures, which he might or ſhould be liable to for the future, by reaſon of his Refuſal or Default as aforeſaid. Refuſers ſubſcribing the Declaration, Penalty diſcharged. Supra c. 1.

IX. And be it further enacted, That no Papiſt, or reputed Papiſt, ſo refuſing or making Default as aforeſaid, at any Time after the fifteenth Day of May in the Year of our Lord one thouſand ſix hundred eighty-nine, ſhall or may have or keep, in his own Poſſeſſion, or in the Poſſeſſion of any other Perſon to his Uſe, or at his Diſpoſition, any Horſe or Horſes, which ſhall be above the Value of five Pounds, to be ſold; and that any two or more Juſtices of the Peace, from time to time, by Warrant under their Hands and Seals, may and ſhall authorize any Perſon or Perſons, with the Aſſiſtance of the Conſtable or his Deputy, or the Tythingman, or Headborough, when the Search ſhall be (who are hereby required to be aiding and aſſiſting herein) to ſearch for and ſeize, for the Uſe of their Majeſties and their Succeſſors, all ſuch Horſes; which Horſes are hereby declared to be forfeited to their Majeſties and their Succeſſors. Papiſts Horſes above 5 l. Value forfeited.

X. And be it further enacted, that if any Perſon ſhall conceal, or be aiding or aſſiſting in the concealing any ſuch Horſe or Horſes belonging to any Papiſt, or reputed Papiſt, ſo refuſing or making Default as aforeſaid, after the ſaid fifteenth Day of May, ſuch Perſon ſhall be committed to Priſon by ſuch Warrant as aforeſaid, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize by the Space of three Months, and ſhall alſo forfeit and loſe to their Majeſties and their Succeſſors treble the Value of ſuch Horſe or Horſes; which Value is to be ſettled as aforeſaid. Penalty upon Concealer of Papiſts Horſes.

CAP. XVI.

An Act that the Simoniacal Promotion of one Person may not prejudice another.

31 El. c. 6. 'WHEREAS it hath often happened, that Persons Simoniack or Simoniacally promoted to Benefices or Ecclesiastical Livings, have enjoyed the Benefit of such Livings many Years, and sometimes all their Life-time, by reason of the secret Carriage of such Simoniacal Dealing; and after the Death of such Simoniack Person, another Person innocent of such Crime, and worthy of such Preferment, being presented or promoted by another Patron innocent also of that Simoniacal Contract, have been troubled and removed upon Pretence of Lapse (or otherwise) to the Prejudice of the innocent Patron in Reversion, and of his Clerk, whereby the Guilty go away with Profit of his Crime, and the innocent succeeding Patron and his Clerk are punished, contrary to all Reason and good Conscience:'

Simoniacal Contract where it shall not prejudice. Vin. V. 19. 455, &c. 2 Haw. P. C. 389 & 396.

II. For Prevention whereof, be it enacted by the King's and Queen's most Excellent Majesties, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That after the Death of the Person so simoniacally promoted, the Offence or Contract of Simony shall, neither by way of Title in Pleading, or in Evidence to a Jury, or otherwise, hereafter be alledged or pleaded, to the Prejudice of any other Patron innocent of Simony, or of his Clerk by him presented or promoted, upon Pretence of Lapse to the Crown, Metropolitan, or otherwise, unless the Person Simoniack or simoniacally presented, or his Patron, was convicted of such Offence at the Common Law, or some Ecclesiastical Court, in the Life-time of the Person Simoniack or simoniacally promoted or presented; any Law or Statute to the contrary notwithstanding.

Lease made bona fide by Simonist good.

III. And be it also provided, enacted, and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That no Lease or Leases, really and bona fide made, or hereafter to be made, by any such Person as aforesaid Simoniack or simoniacally promoted to any Deanery, Prebend, or Parsonage, or other Ecclesiastical Benefice or Dignity, for good and valuable Consideration, to any Tenant or Person not being privy unto, or having Notice of such Simony, shall be impeached or avoided for or by reason of such Simony, but shall be good and effectual in Law, the said Simony notwithstanding.

Quakers how exempted. Altered as to Quakers by 8 Geo. 1. c. 6.

XIII. And whereas there are certain other Perſons, Diſſenters from the Church of England, who ſcruple 'the taking of any Oath;' be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every ſuch Perſon ſhall make and ſubſcribe the aforeſaid Declaration, and alſo this Declaration of Fidelity following, viz.

Declaration of Fidelity.

'I A. B. do ſincerely promiſe and ſolemnly declare before God and the World, that I will be true and faithful to King William and Queen Mary; and I do ſolemnly profeſs and declare, that I do from my Heart abhor, deteſt, and renounce, as impious and heretical, that damnable Doctrine and Poſition, That Princes excommunicated or deprived by the Pope, or any Authority of the See of Rome, may be depoſed or murthered by their Subjects, or any other whatſoever. And I do declare, that no Foreign Prince, Perſon, Prelate, State, or Potentate, hath or ought to have, any Power, Juriſdiction, Superiority, Pre-eminence, or Authority Eccleſiaſtical or Spiritual within this Realm.'

And ſhall ſubſcribe a Profeſſion of their Chriſtian Belief in theſe Words:

Profeſſion.

'I A. B. profeſs Faith in God the Father, and in Jeſus Chriſt his Eternal Son, the true God, and in the Holy Spirit, one God bleſſed for evermore; and do acknowledge the Holy Scriptures of the Old and New Teſtament to be given by Divine Inſpiration.'

Which Declarations and Subſcription ſhall be made and entred of Record at the General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace for the County, City, or Place where every ſuch Perſon ſhall then reſide. And every ſuch Perſon that ſhall make and ſubſcribe the two Declarations and Profeſſion aforeſaid, being thereunto required, ſhall be exempted from all the Pains and Penalties of all and every the aforementioned Statutes made againſt Popiſh Recuſants, or Proteſtant Nonconformiſts, and alſo from the Penalties of an Act made in the fifth Year of the Reign of the late Queen Elizabeth, intituled, An Act for the Aſſurance of the Queen's Royal Power over all Eſtates and Subjects within her Dominions, for or by reaſon of ſuch Perſons not taking or refuſing to take the Oath mentioned in the ſaid Act; and alſo from the Penalties of an Act made in the thirteenth and fourteenth Years of the Reign of King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act for preventing Miſchiefs that may ariſe by certain Perſons called Quakers, refuſing to take lawful Oaths; and enjoy all other the Benefits, Privileges, and Advantages under the like Limitations, Proviſoes, and Conditions, which any other Diſſenters ſhall or ought to enjoy by virtue of this Act.

XIV. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any Person shall refuse to take the said Oaths, when tendered to them, which every Justice of the Peace is hereby impowered to do, such Person shall not be admitted to make and subscribe the two Declarations aforesaid, though required thereunto either before any Justice of the Peace, or at the General or Quarter Sessions, before or after any Conviction of Popish Recusancy, as aforesaid, unless such Person can, within thirty-one Days after such Tender of the Declarations to him, produce two sufficient Protestant Witnesses, to testify upon Oath, that they believe him to be a Protestant Dissenter, or a Certificate under the Hands of four Protestants, who are conformable to the Church of England, or have taken the Oaths and subscribed the Declaration above-mentioned, and shall also produce a Certificate under the Hands and Seals of six or more sufficient Men of the Congregation to which he belongs, owning him for one of them. How purged after Refusal of the Oaths.

XV. Provided also, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That until such Certificate, under the Hands of six of his Congregation, as aforesaid, be produced, and two Protestant Witnesses come to attest his being a Protestant Dissenter, or a Certificate under the Hands of four Protestants, as aforesaid, be produced, the Justice of the Peace shall and hereby is required to take a Recognizance with two Sureties in the penal Sum of fifty Pounds, to be levied of his Goods and Chattels, Lands and Tenements, to the Use of the King's and Queen's Majesties, their Heirs and Successors, for his producing the same; and if he cannot give such Security, to commit him to Prison, there to remain until he has produced such Certificates, or two Witnesses, as aforesaid.

XVI. Provided always, and it is the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, That all the Laws made and provided for the frequenting of divine Service on the Lord's Day, commonly called Sunday, shall be still in Force, and executed against all Persons that offend against the said Laws, except such Persons come to some Congregation or Assembly of Religious Worship, allowed or permitted by this Act. Laws for Divine Service in Force.

XVII. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That neither this Act, nor any Clause, Article, or Thing herein contained, shall extend or be construed to extend to give any Ease, Benefit, or Advantage to any Papist or Popish Recusant whatsoever, or any Person that shall deny in his preaching or writing the Doctrine of the Blessed Trinity, as it is declared in the aforesaid Articles of Religion. Papists, &c. excepted.

XVIII. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons, at any Time or Times after the tenth Day of June, do and shall willingly and of purpose, maliciously or contemptuously come into any Cathedral or Parish Church, Chapel, or other Congregation permitted by this Act, and disquiet or disturb the same, or misuse any Preacher or Teacher, such Person or Persons, upon Proof thereof before any Justice of Peace, by two or more sufficient Witnesses, shall find two Sureties to be bound by Recognizance in the penal Sum of fifty Pounds, and in Default of such Sureties shall be committed to Prison, there to remain till the next General or Quarter Sessions; and upon Conviction of the said Offence at the said General or Quarter Sessions, shall suffer the Pain and Penalty of twenty Pounds, to the Use of the King's and Queen's Majesties, their Heirs and Successors. Disturbers of Religious Worship how punished. See 1 Geo. 1. stat. 2. c. 5. §. 4.

XIX. An Act for enabling Lords Commissioners for the Great Seal to execute the Office of Lord Chancellor or Lord Keeper.

'WHEREAS their most Excellent Majesties King William and Queen Mary have thought fit that the Office of the Lord Chancellor or Lord Keeper of the Great Seal of England should be executed by Commissioners appointed for the same under the Great Seal of England: And whereas several Authorities, Jurisdictions, and Powers, are by several Acts of Parliament, and otherwise, vested, settled, and placed in the Lord Chancellor of England, or Lord Keeper of the Great Seal of England for the 'Time being:' Now for the preventing of all Doubts and Queſtions that may ariſe, whether all or any of thoſe Authorities, Juriſdictions, and Powers may be exerciſed by ſuch Commiſſioners:

Commiſſioners of the Great Seal may execute the Power of Chancellor.

II. Be it enacted and declared, and it is hereby enacted and declared by the King's and Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſties, and by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by Authority of the ſame, That ſuch Commiſſioners for the time being may uſe and exerciſe at all Times according to their Commiſſions, as of Right belonging to the Lords Commiſſioners of the Great Seal of England for the time being, all and every the ſame and like Offices, Authority, Juriſdiction, and Execution of Laws, and all other Cuſtoms, Privileges, Emoluments, and Advantages, which the Lord Chancellor of England, or Lord Keeper of the Great Seal of England for the time being, of Right ought to have, uſe, or execute, as belonging to their or either of their ſaid Offices, or otherwiſe howſoever, to all Intents and Purpoſes, as if the ſaid Lords Commiſſioners for the time being were Lord Chancellor, or Lord Keeper of the Great Seal of England, and ſhall have, and take Place next after the Peers of this Realm, and Speaker of the Houſe of Commons, unleſs any of them ſhall happen to be a Peer, and then to take Place according to his Peerage.

Their Place.

One Commiſſioner may hear Motions, &c.

III. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That any one Commiſſioner (in the Abſence of the others) may hear Motions, and give Orders and Directions touching the interlocutory Proceedings in any Cauſe, ſo as ſuch one Commiſſioner in the Abſence of the others ſhall not make any Decrees, or put the Great Seal to any thing whatſoever, whereunto the whole Broad Seal ought to be affixt, unleſs there be two Commiſſioners preſent.

Cuſtos Rotulorum how to be choſen. 37 Hen. 8. c. 1.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the nominating and appointing of the Cuſtos Rotulorum, throughout all the Shires and Counties of this Realm, is and ſhall be as is directed by a Statute made in the thirty-ſeventh Year of Henry the Eighth, intituled, A Bill for Cuſtos Rotulorum, and the Clerkſhip of the Peace; any Law, Uſage, or Statute to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Clerk of the Peace how to be appointed. Carthew 426.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Cuſtos Rotulorum, or other Perſon, to whom of Right it doth or ſhall belong to nominate or appoint the Clerk of the Peace for any County, Riding, Diviſion, or other Place, ſhall, from time to time, where the Office of the Clerk of the Peace now is, or hereafter ſhall be void, nominate and appoint one able and ſufficient Perſon reſiding in the ſaid County, Riding, Diviſion, or other Place, for which he is ſo appointed or to be appointed Clerk of the Peace, to execute the ſame by himſelf or his ſufficient Deputy, and to take and receive the Fees, Profits, and Perquiſites thereof, for ſo long Time only as ſuch Clerk of the Peace ſhall well demean himſelf in his ſaid Office.

Juſtices of Peace may diſcharge Clerk of the Peace.

VI. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Clerk of the Peace already nominated or to be nominated, as aforeſaid, ſhall miſdemean himſelf in the Execution of the ſaid Office, and thereupon a Complaint and Charge in Writing of ſuch Miſdemeanor ſhall be exhibited againſt him to the Juſtices of the Peace in their General Quarter-Seſſions, it ſhall be lawful for the ſaid Juſtices, or the major Part of them, from time to time, upon Examination and due Proof thereof, openly in their ſaid General Quarter-Seſſions, to ſuſpend or diſcharge him from the ſaid Office; and that in ſuch Caſe the Cuſtos Rotulorum, or other Perſon, to whom it ſhall of Right belong to nominate and appoint the Clerk of the Peace for ſuch County, Riding, Diviſion, or Place, ſhall nominate and appoint one other able and ſufficient Perſon reſiding in the ſaid County, Riding, Diviſion, or Place, as aforeſaid, to be Clerk of the Peace in the Place of ſuch Perſon ſo amoved, as aforeſaid; and in caſe of Refuſal or Neglect to make ſuch Nomination and Appointment, before the next General Quarter-Seſſions to be holden after the ſaid Refuſal, that it ſhall and may be lawful for the ſaid Juſtices of the Peace, at their General Quarter-Seſſions for the ſaid County, Riding, Diviſion, or Place, or the major Part of them, to nominate and appoint one able and ſufficient Perſon reſiding in the ſaid County, Riding, Diviſion, or Place, to be Clerk of the Peace in the Place of ſuch Perſon ſo amoved, as aforeſaid, to have, hold, and enjoy the ſaid Office of Clerk of the Peace, and to execute the ſame by himſelf, or his ſufficient Deputy, and to receive the Fees, Profits, and Perquiſites thereof.

Who ſhall nominate upon ſuch Vacancy.

New Clerk of the Peace liable to Penalties, &c.

VII. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That he ſhall be liable and ſubject to all the Penalties, Forfeitures, Conditions, Limitations, and Proviſions herein and hereby mentioned and expreſſed, and may be amoved or diſcharged by the ſaid Juſtices, or the major Part of them, in ſuch Manner and Way as is above ſpecified.

Cuſtos Rotulorum, &c. ſhall take no Fee.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall not be lawful for any Cuſtos Rotulorum, or other Perſon, to whom of Right it doth or ſhall belong to nominate, elect, or appoint any Clerk of the Peace, to ſell the ſaid Place of Clerk of the Peace, or to take any Bond or other Aſſurance to receive or have any Reward, Money, Fee, or Profit, directly or indirectly, to him or any other Perſon, for ſuch nominating, electing, or appointing, but that every ſuch Cuſtos Rotulorum, or other Perſon that ſhall ſo ſell the Clerkſhip of the Peace, and every Clerk of the Peace, who ſhall ſo buy his Place, are hereby diſabled to hold their Places of Cuſtos Rotulorum, or Clerkſhip of the Peace, and ſhall alſo each of them reſpectively forfeit double the Sum or Value of other Thing that ſhall be ſo given or taken, to be recovered by him or them to their own Uſe that ſhall ſue for the ſame, to be proſecuted by any Action of Debt, Suit, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of their Majeſties Courts at Weſtminſter, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection, or Wager of Law ſhall lie.

Penalty upon Buyer and Seller.

Clerk of the Peace to take the following Oath.

IX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Clerk of the Peace, before he enter upon the Execution of his ſaid Office, ſhall in open Seſſions take the Oath following, viz.

I A.B

'I A. B. do ſwear, That I have not, nor will pay any Sum or Sums of Money, or other Reward whatſoever, nor given any Bond or other Aſſurance to pay any Money, Fee, or Profit directly or indirectly to any Perſon or Perſons whomſoever, for ſuch Nomination or Appointment.

'So help me God.'

X. Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained ſhall any Ways affect or relate to the Clerk of the Peace for the Duchy and County Palatine of Lancaſter only; which ſaid Clerk of the Peace holds his ſaid Office for Lives, by Grants from his late Majeſty King Charles the Second, as his Predeceſſors in the ſaid Place have done, from former Kings and Queens of this Realm, in Right of their Duchy and County Palatine aforeſaid. This Act to commence from the firſt Day of May one thouſand ſix hundred eighty-nine. Not to extend to Lancaſter.

CAP. XXII.

An Act for the Exportation of Beer, Ale, Cyder, and Mum.

'FOR the Advancement of Trade and Encouragement of Tillage and Manufacture of this Realm,' Be it enacted by the King's and Queen's moſt excellent Majeſties, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and after the twenty-fourth of June in the Year of our Lord one thouſand ſix hundred eighty-nine, it ſhall and may be lawful for any Perſon in any Sea-port, or upon any navigable River, to export and ſhip off as Merchandize, within any of the uſual and allowed Ports by Law, and at the common Keys for Exportation and Lading on Board of Merchandize, or Keys to be appointed for that Purpoſe, and within the uſual Hours of Exciſe, for Account of himſelf or any other (to be exported into foreign Parts) in the Preſence of a ſworn Gager, or other ſworn Officer to be appointed by the Farmers, Commiſſioners, or Sub-commiſſioners of their Majeſties Exciſe, upon Notice thereof to them given at the Office of Exciſe, within the Limits whereof the ſaid Ale, Beer, Cyder, and Mum, was brewed or made, of the reſpective Port or Place whence the ſame ſhall be ſhipped, any Sort of Strong Ale, Strong Beer, Cyder, or Mum, to be ſpent beyond the Seas, paying Cuſtom for the ſame after the Rate of one Shilling for every Ton, which ſhall be exported in any Engliſh or foreign Veſſel, and no more or other Duty whatſoever; which ſaid Gager or Officer aforeſaid ſhall certify the Quantity of the ſaid Beer, Ale, Cyder, or Mum ſhipped off, to the Commiſſioners and Officers of Exciſe, where the Entry thereof ſhall be made, who are hereby required to make Allowance, or repay the Exciſe of the Beer, Ale, Cyder, or Mum ſo exported, unto the Brewer or Maker thereof, within one Month after ſuch Exportation, deducting three Pence per Ton for the Charges of their Officers, and no more. Ale, &c. may be exported. Burn, V. 1. 338. The Cuſtom. Exciſe repaid.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Merchant or Maſter of any Ship or Veſſel, or other Perſon, ſhall cauſe or ſuffer any of the ſaid Liquors ſo ſhipped in any Veſſel, as Merchandize, to be unſhipped, unladen, and laid on Land, or put into any other Ship or Veſſel, within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, he or they ſhall forfeit the ſame, and fifty Pounds of lawful Money of England more for every Caſk he or they ſhall ſo unduly land, or put on board any Veſſel, to be recovered in any of his Majeſty's Courts of Record, by Information, Bill, or Plaint; the one Moiety of which Forfeiture ſhall be to the Uſe of the King's and Queen's moſt excellent Majeſties, the other Moiety to the Informer or Proſecutor. And to the Intent their Majeſties Duties of Exciſe may not be prejudiced for ſuch Beer, Ale, Cyder, or Mum, as ſhall be ſpent on Shipboard, their Majeſties Commiſſioners and Officers of the Cuſtoms are hereby required and enjoined to charge every Maſter of any Ship or Veſſel in his Victualling Bill with ſo much Beer, Ale, Cyder, or Mum, and no more, as ſuch Number of Men uſe to ſpend in ſuch Voyages; the Exciſe whereof to be recovered according to the Laws and Rules already eſtabliſhed. Penalty upon Merchant unlading, &c. Ale, &c. ſpent on Shipboard.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the aforeſaid Rate of one Shilling the Ton for Beer, Ale, Cyder, and Mum to be exported, as aforeſaid, ſhall be levied and paid under ſuch Rules and Penalties, and for ſuch Time, and in ſuch Manner, as by the Laws of Tonnage and Poundage are ordained. Cuſtom how levied.

IV. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Mum imported from foreign Parts, during the Continuance of this Act, ſhall have any Part of the Duty of Cuſtom or Exciſe, which was paid at the Importation thereof, repaid upon Exportation; any Law, Statute, or Uſage to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding. Exciſe, &c. for Foreign Mum not repaid.

Farther Proviſions concerning Ale, &c. 11 and 12 W. 3. 15. 12 and 13 W. 3. c. 11. and 13 W. 3. c. 5.

CAP. XXIV.

An Act for an additional Duty of Excise upon Beer, Ale, and other Liquors.

WE your Majesties most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons assembled in Parliament, taking into serious Consideration the great and urgent Occasions, which do press your Majesties to an extraordinary Expence of Treasure for the Defence of your Kingdoms and Dominions against Invasion, and for preserving to your said Subjects the Intercourse of Trade, for which Purpose your Majesties have found yourselves obliged to equip and set out to Sea a royal Navy, and to make and maintain a War against the French King; and in most thankful Acknowledgement of your Majesties tender Care of the Welfare of your People, have cheerfully and unanimously given and granted, and do hereby give and grant to your Majesties, the several additional Rates and Duties of Excise herein after mentioned: And do most humbly beseech your Majesties that it may be enacted:

Burn, V. 1. 329. &c.

Additional Excise upon Ale, &c. given for Three Years.

The Duties appropriated by c. 28. of this Session to the Payment of 600,000l. to the States General, and the Residue by 2 W. & M. c. 10. §. 2. to other Uses.

Beer or Ale above 6s. the Barrel 9d. a Barrel.

Beer or Ale 6s. the Barrel, or under, 3d a Barrel.

Vinegar of English Materials 1s. 6d. a Barrel.

Vinegar of foreign Materials, 4s. a Barrel.

Beer, Ale, or Mum imported 3s. a Barrel.

Cyder or Perry import. 4l. a Tun.

Single Brandy imported 2s. the Gallon.

Double Brandy imported 4s. a Gallon.

Cyder and Perry retailed 1s. 3d. the Hogshead.

Metheglin or Mead 3d. the Gallon.

II. And be it enacted by the King's and Queen's most Excellent Majesties, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by Authority of the same, That from and after the four and twentieth Day of July, which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand six hundred eighty and nine, there shall be throughout your Majesties Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, raised, levied, collected, and paid unto your Majesties and your Successors, during the Space and Term of three Years, from the four and twentieth Day of July aforesaid, and no longer, for Beer, Ale, Cyder, and other Liquors herein after expressed, by Way of Excise, over and above all other Duties, Charges, and Impositions by any former Act or Acts set and imposed, and in Manner and Form following; that is to say, For every Barrel of Beer or Ale, above six Shillings the Barrel, exclusive of the Duty of Excise, brewed by the common Brewer, or any other Person or Persons who doth or shall sell or tap out Beer or Ale publickly or privately, to be paid by the common Brewer, or by such other Person or Persons respectively, and so proportionably for a greater or lesser Quantity, over and above the Duties already payable for the same, nine Pence; for every Barrel of Beer or Ale of six Shillings the Barrel or under, brewed by the common Brewer, or any other Person or Persons who doth or shall sell or tap out Beer or Ale publickly or privately, to be paid by the said common Brewer, or by such other Person or Persons respectively as aforesaid, and so proportionably for a greater or lesser Quantity, over and above the Duty already payable for the same, three Pence; for every Barrel of Vinegar or Vinegar-beer brewed, or made of any English Materials by any common Brewer, or any other Person for Sale, to be paid by the Maker thereof, and so proportionably for a greater or lesser Quantity, over and above the Duties of Excise already payable for the same, one Shilling six Pence; for every Barrel of Vinegar, or Liquor prepared for Vinegar, made here for Sale, of any foreign Materials or any Mixture with foreign Materials, to be paid by the Maker thereof, and so proportionably for a greater or lesser Quantity, four Shillings; for every Barrel of Beer, Ale, or Mum, imported from beyond the Seas, and so proportionably for a greater or lesser Quantity, to be paid by the Importers before landing, over and above the Duties already payable for the same, three Shillings; for every Ton of Cyder or Perry imported from beyond the Seas, and so proportionably for a greater or lesser Quantity, to be paid by the Importer, before landing, over and above the Duties already payable for the same, four Pounds; for every Gallon of single Brandy, Spirits, or Aqua vitæ imported from beyond the Seas, to be paid by the Importer before landing, over and above the Duties already payable for the same, two Shillings; for every Gallon of Brandy, Spirits, or Aqua vitæ, above Proof, commonly called Double Brandy, imported from beyond the Seas, to be paid by the Importer before landing, over and above the Duties already payable for the same, four Shillings; for all Cyder and Perry made and sold by Retail, upon every Hogshead, to be paid by the Retailer thereof, over and above the Duties already payable for the same, and so proportionably for a greater or lesser Measure, one Shilling three Pence; for all Metheglin or Mead made for Sale, whether by Retail or otherwise, to be paid by the Maker, for every Gallon three Pence.

Distiller.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Distiller or Maker of any Low Wines shall at any Time after the twentieth Day of July one thousand six hundred eighty nine, after an Account hath been taken by the Gager of the Quantity of his Low Wines, sell, dispose of, or remove the same, or any Part thereof, without distilling or drawing it off a second Time, every such Distiller or Maker of Low Wines, for every Gallon so sold, disposed of, or removed, shall forfeit the Sum of five Shillings, to be levied in Manner as any Penalties or Forfeitures are leviable by any Act relating to the Revenue of Excise.

Excise how collected.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, that the several Rates and Duties of Excise, hereby imposed on the Liquors aforesaid, shall be raised, levied, collected, recovered, and paid unto their Majesties, and their Successors, during the Time before mentioned, and in the same Manner and Form, and by such Rules, Ways, and Means, and under such Penalties and Forfeitures, as are mentioned, expressed, and directed in and by one Act of Parliament made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of the late King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act for taking away the Court of Wards and Liveries, and Tenures in Capite and by Knights Service, and Purveyance, and for settling a Revenue upon his Majesty in lieu thereof: And also in and by one other Act of Parliament made in the fifteenth Year of his said Majesty's ty's Reign, intituled, An additional Act for the better ordering and collecting the Duties of Excise, and preventing the Abuses therein, or in either of them, or by any other Law now in Force, relating to the Revenue of Excise, not otherwise herein and hereby altered and provided against. 15 Car. 2. c. 11.

'V. And for the avoiding all Uncertainty, and all Differences and Disputes, which of late have been be'tween the Gagers and the Brewers, Victuallers, Retailers, and other Persons chargeable with the Duties
'of Excise, touching Beer and Ale, and touching the Returns or Charges made or to be made of Beer or
'Ale, by the Gagers or Officers appointed to take Account and ascertain the same;' Be it enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That every four and thirty Gallons of Beer or Ale, whether strong or small, brewed or made in any Part of England, Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, by any the Person or Persons aforesaid, other than within the Cities of London and Westminster, and within the weekly Bills of Mortality, taken by the Gager according to the Standard of the Ale Quart, four whereof shall make the Gallon, remaining in the Custody of the Chamberlain of their Majesties Exchequer, shall be reckoned, accounted, and returned by the Gager or Gagers, or other Officers aforesaid, for a Barrel of Beer or Ale; and that the Allowances appointed to be made and allowed to the common Brewers, other than within the Cities of London and Westminster, and the weekly Bills of Mortality aforesaid, for Waste by filling and Leakage of their Beer and Ale, out of the said Returns or Charges made by the said Gagers or other Officers aforesaid, shall be two Barrels and an Half upon every three and twenty Barrels of Beer or Ale, whether strong or small, and no more; any Thing in the above mentioned Acts, or any other Act of Excise, or any Law or Usage to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding; and that every Barrel of Beer and Ale, made and brewed within the said Cities of London and Westminster, and within the weekly Bills of Mortality aforesaid, by any the Persons aforesaid, shall be reckoned, accounted, and returned as the same are respectively to be reckoned, accounted, and returned by the former Acts of Excise; and that the common Brewers within the Cities of London and Westminster, and within the weekly Bills of Mortality, shall have the like Allowances for Waste by filling and Leakage, out of the said Gagers Returns, as by the said former Acts are directed.

What shall be accounted a Barrel.

Allowance for Leakage.

VI. And whereas by the Laws relating to their Majesty's Revenue of Excise it is enacted, That Gagers have Power to gage all Coppers, Fats, and Vessels in any Brewhouse, and all other Places whatsoever, belonging to, or used by any Brewer, Innkeeper, Victualler, or other Retailer of Beer or Ale, and to take an Account of Beer, Ale, and Worts from Time to Time brewed or made, and thereof to make Return and Report in Writing to the Commissioners and Sub-commissioners of Excise, and such Returns to be a Charge upon such Brewers: Now for the preventing of Frauds and Disputes which may happen or arise by the Gagers making their Returns as aforesaid; be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That where it shall appear to the Gager or Gagers, that any Worts are missing, or not let fairly down into the Tun, and such Gager cannot find the same, in such Case it shall be lawful for such Gager to charge such Brewer, Victualler, or other Retailer, with so much Beer or Ale, as such Worts so missing would reasonably make.

Brewer chargeable with the Quantity of Worts missing.

VII. And for the avoiding as much as may be all Disputes, be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for all Gagers to take their Gages, and make their Returns and Charges, upon warm Worts in the Backs, Coolers, or other Vessels, and in such Case shall make Allowance to the Brewer, Innkeeper, Victualler, or other Retailer, of one tenth Part thereof for Wash and Waste for all Worts so returned and charged; which Worts, nor any Part of the same, are to be in any Sort afterwards charged with the Payment of any Duty of Excise when brewed or made into Beer or Ale.

Gagers may make Returns upon warm Worts.

VIII. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Innkeeper, Victualler, or other Retailer of Beer or Ale, shall at any Time hereafter, during the Continuance of this Act, or of the additional Duties hereby imposed, be sued, impleaded, or molested, by Indictment, Information, or popular Action, or otherwise, for selling or uttering any Beer or Ale, at any other or higher Prices than the Prices heretofore limited and appointed; any Thing in this Act, or any other Law or Statute, to the contrary notwithstanding.

Ale-seller not suable for selling at a higher Rate than formerly.

IX. And forasmuch as it is found by Experience, that the Payment of their Majesties Duties on Strong Waters, Aqua vitæ, and Spirits, is much avoided and defrauded by the Distillers or Makers of the Commodities aforesaid, by reason that the Gagers and Officers appointed to gage and charge those Liquors, are not duly admitted and permitted to enter and come into the Houses, Distilling-houses, or Store-houses, and other Places belonging to, or used by, such Distillers or Makers of such Strong Waters, Aqua vitæ, and Spirits, and the Penalties imposed by the former Acts are often avoided for such Denial or Refusal, because Proof cannot be made by the Informers or Officers of any Sale made of any their Commodities before the Duty thereof is paid; Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from henceforth in case any Distiller or Maker of the Commodities aforesaid shall, upon due Request or Demand made by the Gager or Officer in the Day-time, or in the Night-time in the Presence of a Constable, refuse to permit such Gagers to enter and come into his or their House, Distilling-house, Store-house, or other Places belonging to, or used by, such Distillers or Makers of Strong Waters, Aqua vitæ, or Spirits, the Party and Parties so offending shall forfeit and incur the Forfeitures and Penalties by the said former Acts imposed and inflicted, to be recovered in Manner as therein and thereby is directed; and the Informer or Prosecutor shall not be obliged to prove that such Offender sold, carried, or delivered out, Part of his Commodities aforesaid, before he had paid or cleared the Duties due for the same; any Thing in the said former Act, or any other Act or Statute to the contrary notwithstanding.

Punishment upon Distiller refusing Gager to come into his Storehouse, &c.

X. And

15 Car. 2. c. 11. § 6 & 7.

X. And whereas in and by the ſaid Act made in the fifteenth Year of the Reign of the late King Charles the Second, it is amongſt other Things therein provided or enacted in the Words, or to the Effect following (viz.) That no common Brewer or Brewers ſhall be ſued or proſecuted for any Penalty or Forfeiture by him or them incurred, for or by Reaſon of any Miſentry or Shortentry, if he or they ſhall within one Week after the Delivery of the Copy of the Gagers Return made upon him, certify his or their Entry made for the Week, for which ſuch Copy of Return is delivered, according to ſuch Return for each reſpective Charge of Brewing, or otherwiſe diſcharging himſelf; Be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Brewer or Brewers ſhall from henceforth have or claim any Benefit by the ſaid Proviſo, on any Information to be brought againſt him or them for Non-entry, wilful falſe Entry, or Non-payment, if it ſhall appear by the Evidence given, that ſuch Brewer ſo ſued for Non-entry, or ſhort, or falſe Entry, or Non-payment, did not bona fide ſhew to the Gager or Gagers appointed to take Account of the Beer or Ale by them brewed, all the Beer, Ale, and Worts of each reſpective Guile for ſuch Time for which ſuch Copy of the Return was made or given; or if any apparent Fraud was acted or made to defraud their Majeſties of their Duty for any Part of the Drink brewed in the Time for which ſuch Copy of the Return is made or given by the Gager, in ſuch Caſe ſuch Brewer ſhall incur all the Penalties and Forfeitures by the former Acts provided or inflicted; the ſaid Proviſo, or any Thing in any Acts or Statute relating to the Exciſe in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Brewer not diſcharged from Miſentry, except he ſhewed the Beer, &c. at the Time of the Return.

Puniſhment for concealing Worts. 15 Car. 2. c. 11.

XI. And for avoiding ſome Doubts that have ariſen, it is hereby declared and enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every common Brewer, Innkeeper, Victualler, or Retailer of Beer or Ale, who, contrary to the ſaid Act made in the ſaid fifteenth Year of the Reign of the late King Charles the Second, ſhall make uſe of any private or concealed Store-houſe, Cellar, or Place, for the laying of any Beer, or Ale, or Worts in Caſk, ſhall forfeit the Sum of fifty Pounds for every ſuch Offence; and every ſuch Brewer, Innkeeper, Victualler, or Retailer, who, contrary to the ſaid Act made as aforeſaid, ſhall mix, conceal, or convey away any Worts, ſhall forfeit twenty Shillings for every Barrel of Worts by him or them ſo mingled, concealed, or conveyed away contrary to the ſaid Act; and the Commiſſioners of Exciſe, and Juſtices of the Peace, and all others authorized to hear and determine Forfeitures and Offences againſt the Laws relating to the Exciſe reſpectively, on Complaints or Informations brought for theſe Offences, or either of them, and duly proved before them, are hereby authorized to give Judgment or Sentence for the reſpective forfeitures accordingly; any Omiſſion, or not repeating of the ſaid Offences, or either of them, in and by the ſaid Act notwithſtanding.

Gagers to leave Notes of their Gages.

XII. And to the End common Brewers and other Perſons paying the Duty of Exciſe, may not be overcharged, it is hereby declared and enacted, That true Notes in Writing, of the laſt Gages made or taken by the ſaid Gager, ſhall be left by them with all Brewers, Makers, or Retailers of Beer, Ale, or other exciſeable Liquors reſpectively, or ſome of their Servants, at the Times of their taking their ſaid Gages, containing the Quantity and Quality of the Liquors ſo gaged, upon Penalty of forty Shillings for every Offence or Neglect of the ſaid Gager or Gagers.

By whom and how Complaints of Overcharge may be determined.

XIII. And it is hereby enacted, That the Commiſſioners of Exciſe or Appeals, or Juſtices of Peace within whoſe Juriſdiction reſpectively any ſuch Brewer, Maker, or Retailer ſhall inhabit or dwell, upon Complaint to them made by or on the Behalf of ſuch Brewers, Makers, or Retailers, of any Overcharge returned upon them by any of the ſaid Gagers, ſhall, and are required to hear and determine all ſuch Complaints, and examine the Witneſſes upon Oath, which ſhall be produced as well on the Behalf of the Party making ſuch Complaint, as on the Behalf of all and every other Party and Parties (which Oath they have hereby Power to adminiſter) and thereupon, or by other due Proof, to diſcharge or acquit ſuch Brewer, Maker, or Retailer of ſo much of his and their reſpective Charges, as ſhall be ſo made out before them; any Thing in this or in any former Law or Statute to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Officers for Angleſey.

'XIV. And whereas there is but one Market Town in the County of Angleſey, by reaſon of which the 'Inhabitants of ſome Parts of the ſaid County are put to extraordinary Trouble and Expence to make 'their Entries and Payments, being four and twenty Miles diſtant from the ſaid Market Town;' be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That for the Eaſe of the ſaid Inhabitants living remote from the ſaid Market-town, there ſhall be Offices kept for the making Entries and Payments in the ſeveral Towns of Holyhead, Newborough, and Llanerchthmeth, as well as in the Town of Beaumaris, where only the ſaid Office has been accuſtomed to be kept.

Puniſhment of Commiſſioner of Exciſe for taking Money of any Perſon but the King.

'XV. CAP. XXV.

An Act to regulate the Administration of the Oaths required to be taken by Commission or Warrant Officers employed in their Majesties Service by Land, by Virtue of an Act made this present Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for the abrogating of the Oaths of Supremacy and Allegiance, and appointing other Oaths.

'WHEREAS by an Act made this present Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for the abrogating of the Oaths of Supremacy and Allegiance, and appointing other Oaths, all Persons that shall hereafter be put into any Military Employment, shall be obliged to take the Oaths, and make and subscribe the Declaration therein mentioned, before such Person as shall issue the Commission or Warrant for such Employment; and whereas their Majesties Service does require the Regiments and Troops of Soldiers to march, and be at great Distances from London, and upon any Vacancy of any such Military Employment, by Death or otherwise, it is necessary to fill up such Vacancies, by granting new Commissions for Persons that may be at a great Distance from London, so as their Majesties Service will not permit them to repair to London to take the said Oaths, and make the said Declaration as aforesaid: Ante, c. 8.

II. Be it enacted by the King's and Queen's most Excellent Majesties, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That if any Commission for such Military Employment shall hereafter be granted to any Person at any Distance from London exceeding twenty Miles, that such Person shall and may take the said Oaths, and make and subscribe the said Declaration, at the next Muster after the Receipt of the said Commission, before the Commissary of the Musters, or his Deputy, who is hereby authorized to tender, administer, and take the same, and are hereby required to send up a Certificate thereof, under his Hand and Seal, to the Person who issued such Commission; any Thing in the aforesaid Act to the contrary notwithstanding. Commission Officers twenty Miles from London how to take the Oaths.

III And in case such Person, who shall receive such Commission, shall refuse to take the said Oaths, and subscribe the said Declaration as aforesaid, such Person shall not be allowed upon the Musters, but his Commission shall be void to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever. Penalty.

Militia saved.

IV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend to the Militia or Trained Bands of England.

CAP. XXVI.

An Act to vest in the Two Universities the Presentations of Benefices belonging to Papists.

3 Jac. 1. c. 5.

'WHEREAS in and by a certain Clause mentioned in one Act of Parliament made in the third Year of the Reign of King James the First, intituled, An Act to prevent and avoid Dangers which may grow by Popish Recusants, it is enacted, That every Person or Persons that is or shall be a Popish Recusant Convict, during the Time that he shall be or remain a Recusant, shall, from and after the End of that present Session of Parliament, be utterly disabled to present to any Benefice with Cure, or without Cure, Prebend, or any other Ecclesiastical Living, or to collate or nominate to any Free-school, Hospital, or Donative whatsoever, and from the Beginning of the said Parliament shall likewise be disabled to grant any Avoidance to any Benefice, Prebend, or other Ecclesiastical Living:'

Persons refusing Declaration disabled to present, &c. Ante, c. 15.

II. Be it enacted by the King's and Queen's most Excellent Majesties, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by Authority of the same, That every Person who shall refuse or neglect to make, repeat, and subscribe the Declaration mentioned in one Act of this present Parliament, intituled, An Act for the better securing the Government by disarming Papists and reputed Papists, when the same shall be tendred to such Person by any two or more Justices of the Peace, as in the said Act is enacted, or who shall upon Notice given, as in the said Act is directed, refuse or forbear to appear before them for the making, repeating, and subscribing thereof, and shall thereupon have his Name, Surname, and usual Place of abode certified and recorded at the general Quarter-Sessions to be holden for the Shire, Riding, Division, or Liberty, for which such two Justices shall be Justices of the Peace, by the Clerk of the Peace, or Town Clerk, as in the said Act is appointed; every such Person so recorded shall be, from and after the Time of such Record made, adjudged, taken, and esteemed disabled to make such Presentation, Collation, Nomination, Donation, or Grant of any Avoidance of any Benefice, Prebend, or ecclesiastical Living, as fully and amply as if such Person were a Popish Recusant Convict by the Laws or Statutes of this Realm; any Law, Statute, or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding. And that the Chancellor and Scholars of the University of Oxford, and the Chancellor and Scholars of the University of Cambridge, by what Name or Names soever they, or either of them, are incorporated, shall respectively have the Presentation, Nomination, Collation, and Donation of and to every such Benefice, Prebend, or ecclesiastical Living, School, Hospital, and Donative, set, lying, and being in the respective Counties, Cities, and other the Places and Limits in the said Act of the third of King James mentioned, as in and by the said Act is directed and appointed, so often as any of them shall become void, according to the Limitations, Directions, and Provisions in that Behalf limited, enacted, and provided.

Universities shall present, &c.

Trustees disabled.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That where any Person or Persons are or shall be seized or possessed of any Advowson, Right of Presentation, Collation, or Nomination to any such ecclesiastical Living, Free-school, or Hospital as aforesaid, in Trust for any Papist or Popish Recusant, who shall be convicted or disabled, according to the true Intent and Meaning of the said Statute, made in the third Year of the Reign of the said King James the First, or by this present Act, every such Person and Persons so seized and possessed in Trust for any Papist or Popish Recusant convict or disabled, shall be and are hereby adjudged to be disabled to present, nominate, or collate to any such ecclesiastical Living, Free-school, or Hospital, or to grant any Avoidance thereof; and their and every of their Presentations, Nominations, Collations, and Grants, shall be null and void to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever; and the Chancellors and Scholars of the said respective Universities as aforesaid, upon every Avoidance, shall have the Presentations, Nominations and Collations, to such ecclesiastical Livings, Free-schools, and Hospitals, in such Manner as they should have the same, in case such Recusant convict or disabled were seized or possessed thereof.

3 Jac. 1. c. 5. Enlarged as to Papists not convict, by 12 Annæ, stat. 2. c. 14. §. 1.

Penalty upon Trustees presenting without Notice.

IV. And in case any Trustee or Trustees, or Mortgagee, or Grantee of any Avoidance, hereafter present, nominate, or collate, or cause to be presented, nominated, or collated any Person to any such ecclesiastical Living, Free-school, or Hospital, whereof the Trust shall be for any Recusant convict or disabled, without giving Notice of the Avoidance in Writing to the Vice Chancellor for the Time being of the University, to whom the Presentation, Nomination, or Collation shall belong, according to the true Intent of this Act, within three Months after the Avoidance shall happen, such Trustee or Trustees, Mortgagees, or Grantees, shall forfeit and pay the Sum of five hundred Pounds, to the said respective Chancellors and Scholars of either of the said Universities, to whom such Presentation, Nomination, or Collation shall belong, according to the true Intent of this present Act, to be recovered in any of their Majesties Courts of Record, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, wherein no Essoin, Protection, or Wager of Law shall be allowed.

Presentation of Person beneficed, void.

V. Provided always, That the said Chancellors and Scholars of either of the said Universities shall not present or nominate to any Benefice with Cure, Prebend, or other ecclesiastical Living, any Person as shall then have any other Benefice with Cure of Souls; and if any such Presentation shall be had or made of any such Person so beneficed, the said Presentation shall be utterly void; any Thing in this Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

What Absence makes Living void.

VI. Provided, That if any Person so presented or nominated to any Benefice with Cure, shall be absent from the same above the Space of sixty Days in any one Year, that in such Case the said Benefice shall become void.

Taking the Oaths purges the Disability.

VII. Provided nevertheless, That if any such Person shall present himself before the Justices of the Peace at the General Quarter-Sessions to be holden for the County, Riding, Division, or Liberty where his Name was recorded, and shall there in open Court make, repeat, and subscribe the said Declaration, and take the several Oaths contained in one Act of this present Parliament, intituled, An Act for the abrogating of the Oaths of Supremacy and Allegiance, and appointing other Oaths, he shall from thenceforth be discharged of and from the said Disability, and be enabled to make such Presentation, Collation, Nomination, and Donation, and Grant of any Avoidance to any Benefice, Prebend, or ecclesiastical Living, School, or Hospital, as if this Act had not been made.

CAP. XXVII.

An Act for taking away the Court holden before the President and Council of the Marches of Wales

34 & 35 H. 8. c. 26.

'WHEREAS by the Statute made in the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth Year of King Henry the Eighth, intituled, An Act for certain Ordinances in the King's Majesty's Dominion and Principality of Wales, it is enacted, That there shall be and remain a President and Council in the said Dominion and Principality of Wales, and the Marches of the same, with all Officers, Clerks, and Incidents to the same, in Manner and Form as hath been heretofore used and accustomed; which President and Council shall have Power and Authority to hear and determine, by their Wisdoms and Discretions, such Causes and Matters as be or hereafter shall be assigned to them by the King's Majesty, as heretofore hath been accustomed and used; and forasmuch as the Proceedings and Decrees of that Court have by Experience been found to be an intolerable Burthen to the Subject within the said Principality, contrary to the great Charter, the known Laws of the Land, and the Birthright of the Subject, and the Means to introduce an arbitrary Power and Government; and forasmuch as all Matters examinable or determinable, or pretended to be examinable or determinable before the said Court of President and Council, may have their proper Redress in the ordinary Course of Justice, provided and settled in the several Shires within the said Principality and Dominion:' For Remedy whereof,

The Court of Marches taken away.

II. Be it enacted by the King's and Queen's most excellent Majesties, and by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the before-recited Clause in the said Statute, made in the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth Year of King Henry the Eighth, shall be and is hereby repealed: And that the said Court, commonly called The Court before the President and Council in the Marches of Wales, and all Jurisdiction, Power, and Authority belonging unto, or exercised in the same Court, or by any the Judges, Officers, or Ministers thereof, be clearly and absolutely dissolved, taken away, and determined.

Sheriffs in Wales how chosen.

III. And be it hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Justices of the Great Sessions in Wales respectively, for the Time being, shall yearly nominate three substantial Persons for each Shire in their respective Circuits, to be Sheriffs of the same, and shall certify their Names to the Lords of the most honourable Privy Council Crastino Animarum, to the Intent the King's and Queen's Majesties, and the Survivor of them, and their Successors, being thereof advertised, may appoint one of the Persons so certified in every of the said Shires to be Sheriff for that Year.

Errors in Pleas Personal.

IV. And be it further enacted, That all Errors in Pleas personal within the said Principality or Dominion of Wales, shall be redressed by Writ of Error, in the same Manner as Errors in Pleas real and mixed are appointed to be redressed by the said Statute, made in the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth Year of King Henry the Eighth.

Commencement of the Act. The Courts at Westminster may award Execution on

V. Provided always, That no Judgments nor Decrees passed in the said Court before the first Day of June one thousand six hundred eighty-nine, shall be by this Act repealed or annulled, but all and every of them shall remain in the same Force, and all Executions upon them in the same State, in which they were before the making of this Act; any Thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

CAP. XXX.

An Act to repeal the Statute made in the fifth Year of King Henry the Fourth, againſt the multiplying Gold and Silver.

5 H. 4. c. 4. repealed.

'WHEREAS by a Statute made and enacted in the Parliament held in the fifth Year of the Reign of King Henry the Fourth, late King of England, it was amongſt other Things enacted in theſe Words, or to this Effect, namely, That none from thenceforth ſhould uſe to multiply Gold or Silver, or uſe the Craft of Multiplication; and if any the ſame do, they ſhould incur the Pain of Felony: And whereas ſince the making of the ſaid Statute, divers Perſons have by their Study, Induſtry, and Learning, arrived to great Skill and Perfection in the Art of melting and refining of Metals, and otherwiſe improving them and their Ores (which very much abound within this Realm) and extracting Gold and Silver out of the ſame; but dare not exerciſe their ſaid Skill within this Realm, for fear of falling under the Penalty of the ſaid Statute, but exerciſe the ſaid Art in foreign Parts, to the great Loſs and Detriment of this Realm:

II. Be it therefore enacted by the King's and Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſties, by and with the Advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, That from henceforth the aforeſaid Branch, Article, or Sentence contained in the ſaid Act, and every Word, Matter, and Thing contained in the ſaid Branch or Sentence, ſhall be repealed, annulled, revoked, and for ever made void; any Thing in the ſaid Act to the contrary in any wiſe whatſoever notwithſtanding.

Conditions of Repeal.

III. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all the Gold and Silver that ſhall be extracted by the aforeſaid Art of melting and refining of Metals, and otherwiſe improving of them and their Ores as before ſet forth, be from henceforth employed for no other Uſe or Uſes whatſoever, but for the Increaſe of Monies; and that the Place hereby appointed for the Diſpoſal thereof, ſhall be their Majeſties Mint within the Tower of London; at which Place they are to receive the full and true Value for their Gold and Silver ſo extracted from Time to Time, according to the Aſſay and Fineneſs thereof; and ſo for any greater or leſſer Weight: And that none of that Metal of Gold and Silver, ſo refined and extracted, be permitted to be uſed or diſpoſed of in any other Place or Places within their Majeſties Kingdoms and Dominions.

Royal Mine. Explained by 5 & 6 W. & M. c. 6.

IV. Provided alſo, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Mine of Copper, Tin, Iron, or Lead, ſhall hereafter be adjudged, reputed, or taken to be a Royal Mine, although Gold or Silver may be extracted out of the ſame.

CAP XXXI.

'WHEREAS through the Remiſneſs and Negligence of Officers and others, in not putting the Laws in Execution againſt the Exportation of Wooll, Wooll-fells, Mortlings, Shorlings, Yarn made of Wooll, Wooll-flocks, Fullers-earth, Fulling-clay, and Tobacco-pipe-clay, and alſo by reaſon of the Doubtfulneſs of ſome Expreſſions in the Statute made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, divers great Quantities of Wooll, and other the Things above mentioned, have been exported out of the Kingdoms of England and Ireland into France, and other Parts beyond the Seas, which, if not prevented for the future, will tend to the utter Ruin and Undoing of many Thouſands of their Majeſties Subjects, and the great Diminution of the Trade of this Kingdom;' For preventing whereof, and for the better Explanation and Execution of the Laws made againſt the ſaid Exportation; and for the preventing Frauds generally practiſed to avoid the Penalties therein mentioned:

Wooll carried to the Sea Coaſts to be entered. Enforced by 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 28. §. 3.

II. Be it enacted by the King's and Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſties, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That all and every Owner of Wooll, or their Agent or Agents, that ſhall at any Time carry, or cauſe to be carried any Wooll to any Port or Place on the Sea Coaſts, with an Intention to convey the ſame to any other Port or Place on the Sea Coaſts within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or from the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, from whence the ſame may be ſhipped off, ff, or otherwiſe tranſported, conveyed, or carried into foreign Parts, that the ſaid Owner or Owners ſhall in the firſt Place cauſe a due Entry to be made of the ſaid Wooll, at the Port from whence the ſame ſhall be ſo intended to be conveyed, containing the exact Weight, Marks, and Numbers of the ſame, before he or they preſume to load or carry away any of the ſaid Wooll, within five Miles of any ſuch Port or Place on the Sea Coaſts, from whence the ſame is ſo to be conveyed. And if any Wooll ſhall be carrying towards the Sea without being firſt entred in Manner aforeſaid, the Wooll ſo found, as alſo the Horſe or Horſes, Cart, Waggon, or other Beaſts, or Carriages conveying the ſame, ſhall be forfeited and loſt: And the Perſon or Perſons carrying, driving, aiding, or abetting the ſame, ſhall ſuffer and forfeit in ſuch Manner as by the Laws and Statutes now in Force againſt the Exportation of Wooll is provided. 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 40. Extended to Wooll fells and Mortlings, &c. by 5 Geo. 1. c. 11. §. 14. Penalty.

III. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted and declared, That the foregoing Clauſe is not intended, nor ſhall be conſtrued to extend to the hindring any Perſon or Perſons from carrying his or their Wooll from the Place of ſhearing the ſame, on Horſes, or by Carts and Waggons, to his or their own Dwelling-houſe or Houſes, or Out-houſes thereunto belonging, though the ſame be within five Miles or leſs of the Sea, ſo as ſuch Perſon or Perſons within ten Days after the ſhearing of the ſaid Wooll, and before he or they remove or otherwiſe diſpoſe of the ſame, or any Part thereof, from the Place where it was firſt carried after ſhearing, do under his or their Hands certify to the Officers of the Cuſtoms in the next adjacent Port the true Quantity of the ſaid Wooll (that is to ſay) of the Number of Fleeces, and where the ſame is houſed, and that ſuch Perſon or Perſons do not remove or otherwiſe diſpoſe of the ſaid Wooll to any other Place, without firſt certifying the Officer of ſuch Port, under his or their Hands, of his Intention to remove the ſame three Days at leaſt before ſuch Removal. And the Officer and Officers in the reſpective Ports, and the Limits of ſuch Ports, are hereby required to receive and keep ſuch Certificates, and to make a Regiſter of them; but in Caſe any ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall neglect to make and ſend ſuch Certificate to the Officer or Officers of the next adjacent Port as aforeſaid, or ſhall remove or otherwiſe diſpoſe of any of the ſaid Wooll, before ſuch Certificate of his Intention ſo to do be made and delivered as aforeſaid, ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall have no Benefit by this Proviſo, but be liable to the Penalties expreſſed in the foregoing Clauſe. Perſons carrying Wooll from ſhearing, to certify it. Regiſter of the Certificates.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Cocquets for carrying Wooll from any Port within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or from the Port of Berwick upon Tweed, ſhall be written upon Paper, and not Parchment, and ſigned by three of the chief Officers of ſuch reſpective Port at leaſt; and all Certificates of landing the ſame again in any other of the ſaid Ports, or from the Kingdom of Ireland, ſhall be ſigned in like Manner; and that all ſuch Wooll, both at ſhipping and landing, ſhall be weighed in the Preſence of the ſaid Officers giving ſuch Cocquets and Certificates reſpectively; and that the exact Weight, Marks, and Numbers of ſuch Wooll, ſo ſhipped and landed, ſhall be likewiſe particularly expreſſed in both Cocquet and Certificate. Co Certificate how to be made.

V. And be it further enacted and declared by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every ſuch Officer and Officers, as ſhall not obſerve the Directions in this Act before mentioned on their Parts to be performed, ſhall be deemed and adjudged as Aiders and Abettors of the ſaid Tranſportation, and ſuffer the Penalties contained in the Statutes made in the twelfth and fourteenth Years of King Charles the Second, againſt Tranſportation of Wooll, and other the Things before mentioned. Officers Penalty. 12 Car. 2. c. 32. 13 & 14 Car. 2. c. 18.

VI. Be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, that no Wooll ſhall be ſhipped from the Kingdom of Ireland, but from theſe Ports following, (viz.) Dublin, Waterford, Youghall, Kingſale, Corke, and Drogheda; and that no Wool ſhall be imported from the Kingdom of Ireland into any Ports but theſe following (viz.) Liverpool, Cheſter, Briſtol, Minehead, Barnſtaple, Bidiford, and Exeter. Ports of Import and Export. Altered by 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 28. §. 5.

VII. And for the better and more effectual Execution of this and other Acts made againſt Exportation of Wooll, be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Right Honourable Sir Thomas Pilkington Lord Mayor of the City of London, Sir Henry Goodrick Baronet, Sir Patience Ward Knight, Sir Matthew Andrews Knight, Sir Benjamin Newland Knight, Sir John Matthews Knight, Sir Peter Rich Knight, Sir Robert Daſhwood, Sir William Portman Knight and Baronet, Sir Henry Aſhhurſt Baronet, Sir William Aſhhurſt Knight, Sir Richard Newdigate, Sir John Fleet, William Harbord, John Summers, John Sandford, Foot Onſlow, John Pollexfen, Richard Bret, William Cranmore, Edward Montague, Eſquires; Samuel Haſſel, William Haſſel ſenior, John Pariſh, John Voyer, John Gibbon, Barnard Carter, Gentlemen; Mr. Montague of Horton, Sir Thomas Samuel Baronet, William Dugdale Eſquire, John Aſtley of Woley, Eſquire, Sir William Langham, Sir John Poley Knight, Sir Benjamin Ayloffe Baronet, Sir Robert Jefferyes Knight, Sir John Lethuellier Knight, Sir Gabriel Roberts Knight, Sir Samuel Daſhwood Knight, Sir Thomas Vernon Knight, Nathaniel Tench, William Huſſey, Thomas Canham, William Gore, Hugh Strode, Samuel Meverel, John Smith, Thomas Firmin, Arthur Moore, William Crouch, Thomas Heatly, Thomas Sandys, William Folly, Eſquires; Paris Slaughter, Henry Corniſh, John Devinck, Richard Scott, David Prole, Thomas Crandal, Philip Bickly, John Paris, Richard Harriſon, John Buſtfield, John Haines, Edward Bickly, Nicholas Broking, William Sandford, Benjamin Ivie, Daniel Ivie, Andrew Jeffery, Thomas Turner, Peter Par, Henry Newcomb, Joſeph Pince, Matthew Ferris, William Spry, John Keeſe ſenior, John Monkly junior, William Wrayford, John Youat, Robert Forſter, John Lavington, Thomas Potter, Robert Burridge, John Upcot, John Smith, John Mudford, or any five of them, be authorized for putting this and other the ſaid Laws in Execution, who are hereby impowered from Time to Time, by their Agents or Subſtitutes to be deputed under the Hands and Seals of any five or more of them, to ſeize all Wooll, Wooll-fells, and other the Things above mentioned, which ſhall be endeavoured to be tranſported contrary to this Act; and alſo Commiſſioners to execute the Act.

Provided always, That if any Owner of any Ship or Vessel, or any Master or Mariner, knowing of the Exportation of any Sheeps-wooll, Wooll-fells, Mortlings, Shorlings, Yarn made of Wooll, Woollflocks, Fullers-earth, Fulling-clay, or Tobacco-pipe-clay, contrary to the true Meaning of this and the other Acts above-mentioned, shall within three Months next after the Knowledge thereof, or after his Return into the Kingdom of England, or Ireland, or to the said Town of Berwick, or into the Dominion of Wales aforesaid, give the first Information bona fide, before any of the Barons for the time being of the Court of Exchequer in England, or the Court of Exchequer in Ireland, or before any three of the Commissioners appointed by this Act for the more effectual putting in Execution this and other Laws made against the Exportation of Wooll, or before the Head Officer of any Port where he shall first arrive, upon his or their Oath, of the Number and Quantity of such Sheeps-wooll, Wooll-fells, Mortlings, Shorlings, Yarn made of Wooll, Wooll-flocks, Fullers-earth, Fulling-clay, or Tobacco-pipe-clay, so carried, conveyed, or exported as aforesaid, and by whom, where, and in what Ship or Vessel, and afterwards shall be ready, upon reasonable Warning, by Process to justify and prove the same, That then such Owner and Owners, Master, Mariner, and Mariners, shall not be liable or subject to any the Penalties or Forfeitures in this or any other Act contained or enacted, for the Offence aforesaid, but shall and is hereby enabled to recover and receive such Benefit and Advantages as is appointed to be allowed by the precedent Act or Acts.

Persons authorized may seize, &c.

IX. Provided nevertheless, That the Powers given to the said Commissioners shall not hinder any Person or Persons lawfully authorized from seizing Wooll, or prosecuting any Person offending against this or any former Act made against the Transportation of Wooll, and other the Things above mentioned.

X. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Action, Bill, Plaint, Suit, or Information shall be commenced or prosecuted against any Person for what he shall do in Pursuance of this Act, such Person so sued shall and may file a Common Bail, or enter into Common Appearance, and plead the General Issue, Not guilty; and upon Issue joined may give this Act in Evidence: And if the Plaintiff or Prosecutor shall become nonsuit, or suffer Discontinuance, or if a Verdict pass against him, or if upon a Demurrer Judgement pass against him, the Defendant shall recover treble Costs and Damages for his Molestation.

A Register of Wooll.

XI. And for the better Execution of the Powers granted by this Act, be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That a Register be kept at the Custom-house, London, of all the Wooll from time to time imported from Ireland; and also of what Wooll shall be sent from one Port to another in this Kingdom; the particular Weights and Numbers, the Ship, Master's Name, Owner's Name, and to whom consigned; to the end the said Commissioners appointed to put this Act in Execution may have an Inspection thereinto, or Copies thereof, from time to time. This Act to continue for three Years, and from thence to the End of the next Session of Parliament.

Continuance of the Act.

Woollen Manufacture may be exported.

XII. And for the better Encouragement of the Manufacture as well as the Growth of Wooll, be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from henceforward it shall and may be lawful to and for any Person or Persons whatsoever to buy any Cloth, Stuffs, Stockings, or other Manufacture of Wooll made in the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, and the same freely, without any Molestation or Trouble whatsoever, to export into any Parts beyond the Seas, paying the usual Customs.

Saving to the Companies Charters.

XIII. Provided, That nothing contained in this Act shall be construed to avoid the Charters and Grants made to the Levant Company, to the Eastland Company, to the Russia Company, to the African Company, or to the Privileges granted to them, or any of them.

Wooll from Southampton.

XIV. Provided also, and it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to transport from the Port of Southampton only, for the only Use or Behoof of the Inhabitants of the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, and Sarke, and of the Woollen Manufactures there made, one thousand Tods of unkembed Wooll for the Island of Guernsey, two thousand Tods of unkembed Wooll for the Island of Jersey, two hundred Tods of unkembed Wooll for the Island of Alderney, and one hundred Tods of unkembed Wooll for the Island of Sarke, more than by the said Act made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second is directed and provided for the same, to be done according to the same Rules, Orders, and Directions, and under the like Penalties and Forfeitures as in the said Act is directed, ordained, appointed and inflicted, and on the further Penalty of twenty Pounds for every Tod of Wooll, and Forfeiture of the Wooll itself (one half thereof to his Majesty, one quarter Part thereof to the Informer, and the other quarter Part to the Poor of the said Islands) in case any Person shall again transport or attempt to transport any of the said Wooll from the said Islands, for every Offence therein; and also that every Person so offending shall from and after the first Offence be incapable of having or enjoying any Grant of any Wooll from the said Port of Southampton, nor shall ever hereafter have any Warrant given or granted him for that Purpose; the said Penalties to be recovered by such Person as shall sue for the same by any Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, wherein no Essoin, Protection, Privilege, Wager of Law, Injunction, or Order of Restraint is to be allowed, or any more than one Imparlance.

CAP.

CAP. XXXIII.

An Act for explaining Part of an Act made in the first Year of King James the First, concerning tanned Leather.

'WHEREAS by a Statute made in the first Year of King James the First it was enacted, That the Master and Wardens of the several Mysteries of the Cordwainers, Curriers, Girdlers, and Sadlers of the City of London, for the time being, or the major Part of the said Master and Wardens of every the said several Mysteries, under the Penalty therein mentioned, should four Times in the Year at least (that is to say) once every Quarter of the Year, or oftner if Need should require, search, and view all Boots, Shoes, Buskins, and other Wares and Things whatsoever made of tanned Leather, in all and every House and Houses, Place and Places, privileged or not privileged, as well within the City of London and Suburbs thereof, as in every other Place within three Miles of the same City, where any Shoemaker, Sadler, Girdler, Currier, or other Artificer, using cutting, working, or dressing of Leather, whether the same Boots and Shoes, Wares, Stuff, or other Things, were made of tanned Leather, and were wrought according to the Purport, Effect, and true Meaning of the said Statute, or not: 1 Jac. 1. c. 22. § 29. Explained by 14 Geo. 2. c. 25.

II. And whereas some Doubts have been made, whether tanned Leather, when and after it hath been fully dressed and curried by the Currier, be a Ware within the said Statute, and several Suits of Law have been carried on against the Master and Wardens of the Company of Curriers, to their great Charge and Vexation, and tending to the utter avoiding the good Provision made in the said Statute for the due and lawful currying and dressing of Leather, and the Search and View thereof, to be made as by the said Statute is required:' For the removing therefore of all Doubts, and that Search and View may be duly made according to the said Statute:

III. Be it enacted by the King's and Queen's most Excellent Majesties, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all and every Hide, Skin, or Piece of tanned Leather, shaved or liquored, of what Colour soever, with any lawful liquoring or dressing, and being well and truly curried according to the Directions of the said Statute, shall be adjudged, reputed, and taken to be the made Ware and Manufacture of the said Currier, and subject to the View, Search, and Seizure of the said Master and Wardens, or the major Part, as in and by the said Statute is provided, and shall be liable to be seized, and subject to the same Penalties as other Wares insufficiently made of tanned Leather by the said Statute are liable and subject unto. What shall be adjudged Ware within 1 Jac. 1. c. 22. § 29. Burn, V. 3. 120.

IV. Provided always, That nothing in this or any other Act shall extend to give any Power to the Master and Wardens of the Company of Curriers, to visit, search, or seize any Leather, Hide, or Skin, but such only as shall be curried or dressed within the City of London, or three Miles thereof, by some Members of their own Company, nor in any other Place, but in the open Market, or in the Shops, Houses, or Warehouses of such Curriers. The Power of the Master, &c.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for all Leather-sellers, Curriers, Shoemakers, and all other Person and Persons whatsoever, that do deal or work in Leather, freely to buy all Sorts of red tanned Leather in any open Fair or Market, whether curried or uncurried, the same being first searched and sealed according to the Form of the Statutes in that Case made and provided, and having so bought the same, to sell it again to any Person or Persons whatsoever, in their publick and open Shops, or to cut and convert the same into other made Ware, according to their several and respective Trades. Red tanned Leather how bought and sold.

VI. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Person or Persons to buy or sell Leather, Hides, and Skins by Weight; any Law, Statute, or other Provision to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding. Leather may be bought and sold by Weight. Further provided for, by 9 Ann. c. 6. 12 Ann. stat. 2. c. 9. 3 Geo. 1. c. 4. 5 Geo. 1. c. 2. and 12 Geo. 2. c. 25.

CAP. XXXIV.

An Act for prohibiting all Trade and Commerce with France. Vide 2 W. & M. Sess. 2. Cap. 14. for more effectual executing this Act, and both revived by 4 & 5 W. & M. Cap. 25. for three Years, if War with France last so long.

'FORASMUCH as your Majesties, upon just and honourable Grounds, have been pleased to declare an actual War with France, and to enter into several Confederacies for carrying on the same; and that it hath been found by long Experience, that the importing of French Wines, Vinegar, Brandy, Linen, Silks, Salt, Paper, and other the Commodities of the Growth, Product, or Manufacture of France or of the Territories or Dominions of the French King, hath much exhausted the Treasure of this Nation, lessened the Value of the native Commodities and Manufactures thereof, and greatly impoverished the English Artificers and Handicrafts, and caused great Detriment to this Kingdom in general:' 2 W. & M. stat. 2. c. 9. § 12. 5 & 6 W. & M. c. 20. § 45.

XIX. And it is hereby enacted, That from and after the tenth Day of September one thousand six hundred eighty-nine, no Vintner or Retailer of Wines whatsoever shall sell or utter any Wines by Retail, Retailers to sell Wine in Pewter, other than by and in Measures made of Pewter, and sealed according to the Statute, under the Pain and Penalty of five Pounds for every such Offence, to the Informer, to be levied and recovered in any of such Courts, and in such Manner, as aforesaid.

7 & 8 W. 3. c. 19. §. 3. 11 & 12 W. 3. c. 15. 2 W. & M. Sess. 2. c. 14. 300*l.* Penalty for selling sophisticated Wine. 4 & 5 W. & M. c. 25.

XX. And for the preventing of the Mischiefs which may be occasioned by the sophisticating, corrupting, and adulterating of Wines during such Time as they are by this Act allowed to be sold, be it enacted, That if any Merchant, Vintner, Wine-cooper, or other Person selling Wine by Wholesale or Retail, shall corrupt, sophisticate, or adulterate any Wine, or shall utter or sell any Wine corrupted, sophisticated, or adulterated; such Person shall forfeit the Sum of three hundred Pounds for every such Offence, the one Moiety thereof to their Majesties and their Successors, and the other Moiety thereof to such Person as shall sue for the same by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, wherein no Essoin, Protection, or Wager of Law, or more than one Imparlance shall be allowed, and also shall suffer Imprisonment by the Space of three Months, without Bail or Mainprise.

CAP. I. (35.)

9 & 10 W. 3. c. 8. 12 & 13 W. 3. c. 11. §. 27. 9 Ann. c. 21.

An Act for a Grant to their Majesties of an Aid of two Shillings in the Pound for one Year. Exp.

CAP. II. (36.)

An Act declaring the Rights and Liberties of the Subject, and settling the Succession of the Crown.

'WHEREAS the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, assembled at Westminster, lawfully, fully, and freely representing all the Estates of the People of this Realm, did upon the thirteenth Day of February in the Year of our Lord one thousand six hundred eighty-eight, present unto their Majesties, then called and known by the Names and Stile of William and Mary, Prince and Princess of Orange, being present in their proper Persons, a certain Declaration in Writing, made by the said Lords and Commons, in the Words following; viz.

The Heads of Abdication.

'WHEREAS the late King James the Second, by the Assistance of divers evil Counsellors, Judges, and Ministers employed by him, did endeavour to subvert and extirpate the Protestant Religion, and the Laws and Liberties of this Kingdom.

Dispensing Power.

'1. By assuming and exercising a Power of dispensing with and suspending of Laws, and the Execution of Laws, without Consent of Parliament.

Committing Prelates.

'2. By committing and prosecuting divers worthy Prelates, for humbly petitioning to be excused from concurring to the said assumed Power.

Ecclesiastical Commission.

'3. By issuing and causing to be executed a Commission under the Great Seal for erecting a Court called, The Court of Commissioners for Ecclesiastical Causes.

Levying Money.

'4. By levying Money for and to the Use of the Crown, by Pretence of Prerogative, for other Time, and in other Manner, than the same was granted by Parliament.

Standing Army.

'5. By raising and keeping a Standing Army within this Kingdom in Time of Peace, without Consent of Parliament, and quartering Soldiers contrary to Law.

Disarming Protestants.

'6. By causing several good Subjects, being Protestants, to be disarmed, at the same Time when Papists were both armed and employed, contrary to Law.

Violating Elections.

'7. By violating the Freedom of Election of Members to serve in Parliament.

Wrong Prosecutions.

'8. By Prosecutions in the Court of King's Bench, for Matters and Causes cognizable only in Parliament; and by divers other arbitrary and illegal Courses.

Juries.

'9. And whereas of late Years, partial, corrupt, and unqualified Persons, have been returned and served on Juries in Trials, and particularly divers Jurors in Trials for High Treason, which were not Freeholders.

Excessive Bail.

'10. And excessive Bail hath been required of Persons committed in criminal Cases, to elude the Benefit of the Laws made for the Liberty of the Subjects.

Fines and Punishments. Grants of Fines, &c.

'11. And excessive Fines have been imposed; and illegal and cruel punishments inflicted.

'12. And several Grants and Promises made of Fines and Forfeitures, before any Conviction or Judgment against the Persons, upon whom the same were to be levied.

'All which are utterly and directly contrary to the known Laws and Statutes, and Freedom of this Realm.'

9 H. 3. stat. 1. c. 14. 3 Ed. 1. c. 6. 34 Ed. 3. c. 1.

'And

'And whereas the ſaid late King James the Second having abdicated the Government, and the Throne being thereby vacant, his Highneſs the Prince of Orange (whom it hath pleaſed Almighty God to make the glorious Inſtrument of delivering this Kingdom from Popery and arbitrary Power) did (by the Advice of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and divers principal Perſons of the Commons) cauſe Letters to be written to the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, being Proteſtants; and other Letters to the ſeveral Counties, Cities, Univerſities, Boroughs, and Cinque-ports, for the chooſing of ſuch Perſons to repreſent them, as were of right to be ſent to Parliament, to meet and ſit at Weſtminſter upon the two and twentieth Day of January in this Year one thouſand ſix hundred eighty and eight, in order to ſuch an Eſtabliſhment, as that their Religion, Laws, and Liberties might not again be in Danger of being ſubverted: Upon which Letters, Elections having been accordingly made,

'And thereupon the ſaid Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, purſuant to their reſpective Letters and Elections, being now aſſembled in a full and free Repreſentative of this Nation, taking into their moſt ſerious Conſideration the beſt Means for attaining the Ends aforeſaid; do in the firſt Place (as their Anceſtors in like Caſe have uſually done) for the vindicating and aſſerting their ancient Rights and Liberties, declare; The Subjects Rights.

'1. That the pretended Power of ſuſpending of Laws, or the Execution of Laws, by regal Authority, without Conſent of Parliament, is illegal. No diſpenſing Power.

'2. That the pretended Power of diſpenſing with Laws, or the Execution of Laws, by regal Authority, as it hath been aſſumed and exerciſed of late, is illegal. Late diſpenſing illegal.

'3. That the Commiſſion for erecting the late Court of Commiſſioners for Eccleſiaſtical Cauſes, and all other Commiſſions and Courts of like Nature, are illegal and pernicious. Eccleſiaſtical Courts illegal.

'4. That levying Money for or to the Uſe of the Crown, by Pretence of Prerogative, without Grant of Parliament, for longer Time, or in other Manner than the ſame is or ſhall be granted, is illegal. Levying Money.

'5. That it is the Right of the Subjects to petition the King, and all Commitments and Proſecutions for ſuch petitioning are illegal. Right to petition.

'6. That the raiſing or keeping a Standing Army within the Kingdom in Time of Peace, unleſs it be with Conſent of Parliament, is againſt Law. Standing Army.

'7. That the Subjects which are Proteſtants, may have Arms for their Defence ſuitable to their Conditions, and as allowed by Law. Subjects Arms.

'8. That Election of Members of Parliament ought to be free. Freedom of Election.

'9. That the Freedom of Speech, and Debates or Proceedings in Parliament, ought not to be impeached or queſtioned in any Court or Place out of Parliament. Freedom of Speech.

'10. That exceſſive Bail ought not to be required, nor exceſſive Fines impoſed; nor cruel and unuſual Puniſhments inflicted. Exceſſive Bail.

'11. That Jurors ought to be duly impanelled and returned, and Jurors which paſs upon Men in Trials for High Treaſon ought to be Freeholders. Juries.

'12. That all Grants and Promiſes of Fines and Forfeitures of particular Perſons before Conviction, are illegal and void. Grants of Forfeitures.

'13. And that for Redreſs of all Grievances, and for the amending, ſtrengthening, and preſerving of the Laws, Parliaments ought to be held frequently. Frequent Parliaments.

'And they do claim, demand, and inſiſt upon all and ſingular the Premiſſes, as their undoubted Rights and Liberties; and that no Declarations, Judgements, Doings, or Proceedings, to the Prejudice of the People in any of the ſaid Premiſſes, ought in any wiſe to be drawn hereafter into Conſequence or Example.

'To which Demand of their Rights they are particularly encouraged by the Declaration of his Highneſs the Prince of Orange, as being the only Means for obtaining a full Redreſs and Remedy therein.

'Having therefore an entire Confidence, That his ſaid Highneſs the Prince of Orange will perfect the Deliverance ſo far advanced by him, and will ſtill preſerve them from the Violation of their Rights, which they have here aſſerted, and from all other Attempts upon their Religion, Rights, and Liberties.

'II. The ſaid Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, aſſembled at Weſtminſter, do reſolve, That William and Mary Prince and Princeſs of Orange be, and be declared, King and Queen of England, France, and Ireland, and the Dominions thereunto belonging, to hold the Crown and Royal Dignity of the ſaid Kingdoms and Dominions to them the ſaid Prince and Princeſs during their Lives, and the Life of the Survivor of them; and that the ſole and full Exerciſe of the Regal Power be only in, and executed by the ſaid Prince of Orange, in the Names of the ſaid Prince and Princeſs, during their joint Lives; and after their Deceaſes, the ſaid Crown and Royal Dignity of the ſaid Kingdoms and Dominions to be to the Heirs of the Body of the ſaid Princeſs; and for Default of ſuch Iſſue to the Princeſs Anne of Denmark, and the Heirs of her Body; and for Default of ſuch Iſſue to the Heirs of the Body of the ſaid Prince of Orange. And the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, do pray the ſaid Prince and Princeſs to accept the ſame accordingly. Tender of the Crown.

'III. And that the Oaths hereafter mentioned be taken by all Perſons of whom the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy might be required by Law, inſtead of them; and that the ſaid Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy be abrogated. New Oaths of Allegiance, &c.

Allegiance. 'I A. B. do ſincerely promiſe and ſwear, That I will be faithful and bear true Allegiance, to their Ma-
'jeſties King William and Queen Mary:

So help me God.'

Supremacy. 'I A. B. do ſwear, That I do from my Heart abhor, deteſt, and abjure, as impious and heretical, that 'damnable Doctrine and Poſition, That Princes excommunicated or deprived by the Pope, or any Authority
'of the See of Rome, may be depoſed or murdered by their Subjects, or any other whatſoever. And I do declare 'That no Foreign Prince, Perſon, Prelate, State, or Potentate hath, or ought to have, any Juriſdiction,
'Power, Superiority, Pre-eminence, or Authority, Eccleſiaſtical or Spiritual, within this Realm:

So help me God.'

Acceptance of the Crown. 'IV. Upon which their ſaid Majeſties did accept the Crown and Royal Dignity of the Kingdoms o
'England, France, and Ireland, and the Dominions thereunto belonging, according to the Reſolution an
'Deſire of the ſaid Lords and Commons contained in the ſaid Declaration.

The two Houſes to ſit. 'V. And thereupon their Majeſties were pleaſed, That the ſaid Lords Spiritual and Temporal, an 'Commons, being the two Houſes of Parliament, ſhould continue to ſit, and with their Majeſties roya
'Concurrence make effectual Proviſion for the Settlement of the Religion, Laws and Liberties of thi
'Kingdom, ſo that the ſame for the future might not be in Danger again of being ſubverted; to whic
'the ſaid Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, did agree and proceed to act accordingly.'

Subjects Liberties to be allowed. VI. Now in purſuance of the Premiſſes, the ſaid Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, i Parliament aſſembled, for the ratifying, confirming and eſtabliſhing the ſaid Declaration, and the Articles Clauſes, Matters, and Things therein contained, by the Force of a Law made in due Form by Authorit of Parliament, do pray that it may be declared and enacted, That all and ſingular the Rights and Li berties aſſerted and claimed in the ſaid Declaration, are the true, ancient, and indubitable Rights an Liberties of the People of this Kingdom, and ſo ſhall be aſteemed, allowed, adjudged, deemed, and take to be, and that all and every the Particulars aforeſaid ſhall be firmly and ſtrictly holden and obſerved as they are expreſſed in the ſaid Declaration; and all Officers and Miniſters whatſoever ſhall ſerve the Majeſties and their Succeſſors according to the ſame in all Times to come.

William and Mary declared King and Queen. VII. And the ſaid Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, ſeriouſly conſidering how it hath pleaſ ed Almighty God, in his marvellous Providence, and merciful Goodneſs to this Nation, to provide and pre ſerve their ſaid Majeſties royal Perſons moſt happily to reign over us upon the Throne of their Anceſtors for which they render unto him from the Bottom of their Hearts their humbleſt Thanks and Praiſes do truly, firmly, aſſuredly, and in the Sincerity of their Hearts think, and do hereby recognize, acknow ledge and declare, That King James the Second having abdicated the Goverment, and their Majeſtie having accepted the Crown and royal Dignity as aforeſaid, their ſaid Majeſties did become, were, are, an of Right ought to be, by the Laws of this Realm, our Sovereign Liege Lord and Lady, King and Quee of England, France, and Ireland, and the Dominions thereunto belonging, in and to whoſe princely Perſon the royal State, Crown, and Dignity of the ſaid Realms, with all Honours, Stiles, Titles, Regalities Prerogatives, Powers, Juriſdictions and Authorities to the ſame belonging and appertaining, are moſt fully rightfully, and intirely inveſted and incorporated, united and annexed.

Limitation of the Crown. VIII. And for preventing all Queſtions and Diviſions in this Realm, by reaſon of any pretended Title to the Crown, and for preſerving a Certainty in the Succeſſion thereof, in and upon which the Unity Peace, Tranquillity, and Safety of this Nation doth, under God, wholly conſiſt and depend, The ſai Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, do beſeech their Majeſties that it may be enacted, eſta bliſhed and declared, That the Crown and regal Government of the ſaid Kingdoms and Dominions, wit all and ſingular the Premiſſes thereunto belonging and appertaining, ſhall be and continue to their ſaid Ma jeſties, and the Survivor of them, during their Lives, and the Life of the Survivor of them: And that th intire, perfect, and full Exerciſe of the regal Power and Government be only in, and executed by hi
Majeſty, in the Names of both their Majeſties during their joint Lives; and after their Deceaſes the ſai
Crown and Premiſſes ſhall be and remain to the Heirs of the Body of her Majeſty; and for Default of ſuc Iſſue, to her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Anne of Denmark, and the Heirs of her Body; and for Default o ſuch Iſſue, to the Heirs of the Body of his ſaid Majeſty: And thereunto the ſaid Lords Spiritual an Temporal, and Commons, do, in the Name of all the People aforeſaid, moſt humbly and faithfully ſub mit themſelves, their Heirs and Poſterities for ever; and do faithfully promiſe, That they will ſtand to maintain, and defend their ſaid Majeſties, and alſo the Limitation and Succeſſion of the Crown herein ſpe cified and contained, to the utmoſt of their Powers, with their Lives and Eſtates, againſt all Perſon whatſoever, that ſhall attempt any Thing to the contrary.

Papiſts debarred the Crown. 'IX. And whereas it hath been found by Experience, that it is inconſiſtent with the Safety and Welfar
'of this Proteſtant Kingdom, to be governed by a Popiſh Prince, or by any King or Queen marrying
'Papiſt;' the ſaid Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, do further pray that it may be enacted
That all and every Perſon and Perſons that is, are, or ſhall be reconciled to, or ſhall hold Communio with, the See or Church of Rome, or ſhall profeſs the Popiſh Religion, or ſhall marry a Papiſt, ſhall b excluded

excluded, and be for ever incapable to inherit, poſſeſs, or enjoy the Crown and Government of this Realm, and Ireland, and the Dominions thereunto belonging, or any Part of the ſame, or to have, uſe, or exerciſe any regal Power, Authority, or Juriſdiction within the ſame; and in all and every ſuch Caſe or Caſes the People of theſe Realms ſhall be, and are hereby abſolved of their Allegiance; and the ſaid Crown and Government ſhall from time to time deſcend to, and be enjoyed by ſuch Perſon or Perſons, being Proteſtants, as ſhould have inherited and enjoyed the ſame, in caſe the ſaid Perſon or Perſons ſo reconciled, holding Communion, or profeſſing, or marrying as aforeſaid, were naturally dead.

All Kings, &c. to take the Declaration of 30 Car. 2. ſtat. 2. c. 1.

X. And that every King and Queen of this Realm, who at any Time hereafter ſhall come to and ſucceed in the Imperial Crown of this Kingdom, ſhall on the firſt Day of the Meeting of the firſt Parliament, next after his or her coming to the Crown, ſitting in his or her Throne in the Houſe of Peers, in the Preſence of the Lords and Commons therein aſſembled, or at his or her Coronation, before ſuch Perſon or Perſons who ſhall adminiſter the Coronation Oath to him or her, at the Time of his or her taking the ſaid Oath (which ſhall firſt happen) make, ſubſcribe, and audibly repeat the Declaration mentioned in the Statute made in the thirtieth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act for the more effectual preſerving the King's Perſon and Government, by diſabling Papiſts from ſitting in either Houſe of Parliament. But if it ſhall happen, that ſuch King or Queen, upon his or her Succeſſion to the Crown of this Realm, ſhall be under the Age of twelve Years, then every ſuch King or Queen ſhall make, ſubſcribe, and audibly repeat the ſaid Declaration at his or her Coronation, or the firſt Day of the Meeting of the firſt Parliament as aforeſaid, which ſhall firſt happen after ſuch King or Queen ſhall have attained the ſaid Age of twelve Years.

If under twelve Years old to be done after Attainment thereof.

King's Aſſent.

XI. All which their Majeſties are contented and pleaſed ſhall be declared, enacted, and eſtabliſhed by Authority of this preſent Parliament, and ſhall ſtand, remain, and be the Law of this Realm for ever; and the ſame are by their ſaid Majeſties, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, declared, enacted, and eſtabliſhed accordingly.

Non obſtante's made void.

XII. And be it further declared and enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, no Diſpenſation by Non obſtante of or to any Statute, or any Part thereof, ſhall be allowed, but that the ſame ſhall be held void and of no Effect, except a Diſpenſation be allowed of in ſuch Statute, and except in ſuch Caſes as ſhall be ſpecially provided for by one or more Bill or Bills to be paſſed during this preſent Seſſion of Parliament.

Pardons exeepted before October.

XIII. Provided that no Charter, or Grant, or Pardon, granted before the three and twentieth Day of October in the Year of our Lord one thouſand ſix hundred eighty-nine, ſhall be any ways impeached or invalidated by this Act, but that the ſame ſhall be and remain of the ſame Force and Effect in Law, and no other than as if this Act had never been made.

CAP. VIII. (42.)

An Act for preventing vexatious Suits againſt ſuch as acted in order to the bringing in their Majeſties, or for their Service.

'WHEREAS about the Time of his Majeſty's glorious Enterprize, for delivering this Kingdom from Popery and Arbitrary Power, and in Aid and Purſuance of the ſame, divers Lords, Gentlemen, and other good People, well affected to their Country, did act as Lieutenants, Deputy-Lieutenants, Juſtices of the Peace, or other Officers, civil or military, though not ſufficiently authorized thereunto, and did apprehend and put into Cuſtody ſeveral criminous and ſuſpected Perſons, and did ſeize and uſe divers Horſes, Arms, and other Things, and did enter into the Houſes and Poſſeſſions of ſeveral Perſons, and did quarter, and cauſe to be quartered, Soldiers and others there; in which Proceedings ſome Force and Violence, and Defect of Form was unavoidable, which in a Time of Peace and common Safety would not have been warrantable: And alſo ſince their Majeſties happy Acceſſion to the Crown, by reaſon of the Wars and Troubles raiſed and occaſioned by the Enemies of their Majeſties and this Kingdom, divers like Matters and Things have been acted and done, all which were neceſſary and allowable in regard of the Exigence of publick Affairs, and ought to be juſtified, and the Parties concerned therein indemnified: Nevertheleſs, ſome Perſons ill affected to their Majeſties Government, and the Safety and Welfare of this Kingdom, have commenced and proſecuted, and threaten to commence and proſecute Actions and Suits againſt their Majeſties good Subjects, for and by reaſon of their Actings and Doings aforeſaid: Therefore for the preventing the Trouble and Charges which the ſaid good Subjects might
EXP. be put to by the Means of ſuch vexatious Suits, &c.'

CAP. IX. (43.)

An Act for the better Security and Relief of their Majeſties Proteſtant Subjects of Ireland.

'WHEREAS the Kingdom of Ireland is (as well by the Laws of this Kingdom, as thoſe of Ireland) annexed and united to the Imperial Crown of England, and all Acts, Judgements, Sentences, Orders, Decrees, or other Proceedings, of what Kind ſoever, there had, made, or done, without or againſt the Authority of the Kings or Queens of this Kingdom of England, are abſolutely null and void; and all Perſons in Ireland that oppoſe or ſubmit not to the Government of the Crown of this Realm, are Rebels, and guilty of High Treaſon; notwithſtanding which, ſeveral Perſons, ſince the happy Acceſſion of their Majeſties King William and Queen Mary to the Imperial Crown of this Realm, have been lately aſſembled at or near the City of Dublin in the Kingdom of Ireland, without any Authority from their ſaid Majeſties, pretending to be, or calling themſelves by the Name of a Parliament, and in ſuch rebellious Aſſembly have made and paſſed ſeveral pretended Acts or Statutes, in manifeſt Oppoſition to the Sovereignty, and to the inherent Rights and Dignities of the Crown of this Realm, and to the general Prejudice and Violation of the Rights and Properties of their Majeſties good Subjects of that Kingdom: And although all the ſaid Proceedings are abſolutely null and void in themſelves, yet nevertheleſs, for the more plain and expreſs declaring and aſſerting the Sovereignty, Rights, and Dignities of the Crown of England, and for the clearing all Doubts, and quieting the Minds of their Majeſties good Subjects of that Kingdom, as alſo for the remedying, preventing, and avoiding the ſeveral Miſchiefs and Inconveniencies intended by this Act to be provided againſt, &c.'

CAP. I.

An Act for Recognizing King William and Queen Mary, and for avoiding all Queſtions touching the Acts made in the Parliament aſſembled at Weſtminſter, the thirteenth Day of February one thouſand ſix hundred eighty-eight.

King and Queen recognized.

WE your Majeſty's moſt humble and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, do beſeech your moſt excellent Majeſties, that it may be publiſhed and declared in this High Court of Parliament, and enacted by Authority of the ſame, That we do recognize and acknowledge, your Majeſties were, are, and of Right ought to be, by the Laws of this Realm, our Sovereign Liege Lord and Lady King and Queen of England, France, and Ireland, and the Dominions thereunto belonging, in and to whoſe princely Perſons the Royal State, Crown and Dignity of the ſaid Realms, with all honours, Stiles, Titles, Regalities, Prerogatives, Powers, Juriſdictions, and Authorities to the ſame belonging and appertaining, are moſt fully, rightfully, and intirely inveſted and incorporated, united and annexed.

Laſt Parliament declared good.

II. And for the avoiding of all Diſputes and Queſtions concerning the Being and Authority of the late Parliament aſſembled at Weſtminſter the thirteenth Day of February one thouſand ſix hundred eighty-eight, we do moſt humbly beſeech your Majeſties that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the King's and Queen's moſt excellent Majeſties, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That all and ſingular the Acts made and enacted in the ſaid Parliament were and are Laws and Statutes of this Kingdom, and as ſuch ought to be reputed, taken, and obeyed by all the People of this Kingdom.

CAP. II.

An Act for raiſing Money by a Poll, and otherwiſe, towards the reducing of Ireland, and proſecuting the War againſt France. EXP.

CAP. III.

An Act for granting to their Majeſties for their Lives, and the Life of the Survivor of them, certain Impoſitions upon Beer, Ale, and other Liquors.

THE Commons aſſembled in Parliament, duly conſidering how much it conduceth to the Safety, Peace, and Proſperity of a Kingdom, that the publick Revenue thereof be in ſome meaſure proportionable to the publick Charges, and with Thankfulneſs and Admiration calling to Remembrance his Majeſty's glorious and ſucceſsful Undertaking for the Deliverance of the People of this Nation from Popery, and Arbitrary Power, have unanimouſly given and granted, and do hereby give and grant unto their Majeſties (whom God long preſerve) the ſeveral Rates, Impoſitions, Duties, and Charges upon Beer, Ale, Cyder, and other Liquors, mentioned in an Act of Parliament made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King Charles the Second, intituled, A Grant of certain Impoſitions upon Beer, Ale, and other Liquors, for the Increaſe of his Majeſty's Revenue during his Life, and thereby granted to the ſaid King for his Life (except ſuch, and ſo much of them, concerning which it is otherwiſe provided or ordained by any Act made in the laſt Parliament) and do moſt humbly beſeech their Majeſties that it may be enacted: 12 Car. 2. c. 23.

Rates upon Beer, &c. given by 15 Car. 2. c. 23. now given to the King and Queen for their Lives. 15 Car. 2. c. 11. Further continued by 1 Ann. ſtat. 1. c. 7. 1 Geo. 1. ſtat. 2. c. 1. and perpetuated by 1 Geo. 1. ſt. 2. c. 12. §. 8.

II. And be it enacted by the King's and Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſties, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That the ſeveral Rates, Duties, and Impoſitions upon Beer, Ale, Cyder, and other Liquors aforeſaid, be levied, collected, and paid unto their Majeſties, during their Lives, and the Life of the Survivor of them, in the ſame Manner and Form, and at ſuch Places, and by ſuch Rules, Ways, and Means, and under ſuch Penalties and Forfeitures, as are mentioned, expreſſed, and directed in and by the ſaid Act; and alſo in and by another Act of Parliament made in the fifteenth Year of the Reign of his ſaid late Majeſty, intituled, An Additional Act for the better ordering and collecting the Duty of Exciſe, and preventing the Abuſes therein, or by any other Law now in Force, relating to the ſaid Revenue of Exciſe; and that the aforeſaid Acts, and every Article, Rule, and Clauſe therein mentioned, ſhall be of full Force and Effect, to all Intents and Purpoſes, during their Majeſties Lives, and the Life of the Survivor of them, in like Manner as if the ſame were particularly and at large recited and ſet down in the Body of this Act.

Manner of Levying.

Burn, V. 1. 336.

' III. And whereas their Majesties are contented and pleased that it be enacted, That the Rates, Impositions, Duties, and Charges by this Act given and granted to them as aforesaid, should be made a Fund of Credit for the raising a Sum not exceeding two hundred and fifty thousand Pounds, towards the reducing of Ireland, and carrying on the present War against the French King, not doubting but that their good Subjects (in whose Love and dutiful Affections their Majesties are firmly persuaded the Strength and Glory of the Crown doth principally consist) will in due Time make Provision for the taking off and discharging the said Anticipations: Be it therefore enacted, &c. EXP.

If their Majesties die, given to their Successors till December 169 . Clause of Credit for 250,000 l. at 8 per Cent. Three Parts in four to be kept apart by the Commissioners of the Excise till December 1693, and the Money to be paid weekly into the Exchequer. Power given to the King to settle 20,000 l. per Annum upon Princess Anne. Their Majesties may settle 20,000 l. per Annum upon Prince George, &c. if Princess Anne die before their Majesties.

CAP. IV.

An Act for granting to their Majesties a Subsidy of Tonnage and Poundage, and other Sums of Money payable upon Merchandizes Exported and imported. Continued by 6 W. & M. cap. 1. for five Years. Tonnage and Poundage given to the King for four Years. Several Acts continued for four Years. Clause of Credit for 500,000*l.* at 8 per Cent. EXP.

CAP. V.

An Act for enabling the Sale of Goods distrained for Rent, in case the Rent be not paid in a reasonable Time.

' WHEREAS the most ordinary and ready Way for Recovery of Arrears of Rent is by Distress, yet ' such Distresses not being to be sold, but only detained as Pledges for enforcing the Payment of ' such Rent, the Persons distraining have little Benefit thereby:' For the Remedying whereof, Goods distrained for Rent may be appraised and sold.

Farther provided for by 8 Ann. c. 14. 11 Geo. 2. c. 19.

II. Be it enacted and ordained by the King's and Queen's most Excellent Majesties, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the first Day of June in the Year of our Lord one thousand six hundred and ninety, that where any Goods or Chattels shall be distrained for any Rent reserved and due upon any Demise, Lease, or Contract whatsoever, and the Tenant or Owner of the Goods so distrained shall not within five Days next after such Distress taken, and Notice thereof (with the Cause of such Taking) left at the chief Mansion-house, or other most notorious Place on the Premisses charged with the Rent distrained for, replevy the same, with sufficient Security to be given to the Sheriff according to Law, that then in such Case, after such Distress and Notice as aforesaid, and Expiration of the said five Days, the Person distraining shall and may, with the Sheriff or Under Sheriff of the County, or with the Constable of the Hundred, Parish, or Place where such Distress shall be taken (who are hereby required to be aiding and assisting therein) cause the Goods and Chattels so distrained to be appraised by two sworn Appraisers (whom such Sheriff, Under Sheriff, or Constable are hereby impowered to swear) to appraise the same truly, according to the best of their Understandings; and after such Appraisement shall and may lawfully sell the Goods and Chattels so distrained for the best Price can be gotten for the same, towards Satisfaction of the Rent for which the said Goods and Chattels shall be distrained, and of the Charges of such Distress, Appraisment, and Sale, leaving the Overplus (if any) in the Hands of the said Sheriff, Under Sheriff, or Constable, for the Owner's Use.

Corn loose, &c. may be detained and sold.

' III. And whereas no Sheaves or Cocks of Corn loose or in the Straw, or Hay in any Barn, or Granary, or on any Hovel, Stack, or Rick, can by the Law be destrained, or otherwise secured for Rent, ' whereby Landlords are often Times cousened and deceived by their Tenants, who sell their Corn, Grain, ' and Hay to Strangers, and remove the same from the Premisses chargeable with such Rent, and thereby ' avoid the Payment of the same;' Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That for remedying the said Practice and Deceit, it shall and may, from and after the said first Day of June, be lawful to and for any Person or Persons having Rent arrear, and due upon any such Demise, Lease, or Contract as aforesaid, to seize and secure any Sheaves or Cocks of Corn, or Corn loose or in the Straw, or Hay lying or being in any Barn or Granary, or upon any Hovel, Stack, or Rick, or otherwise upon any Part of the Land or Ground charged with such Rent, and to lock up or detain the same in the Place where the same shall be found, for or in the Nature of a Distress, until the same shall be replevied upon such Security to be given as aforesaid; and in Default of replevying the same as aforesaid, within the Time aforesaid, to sell the same after such Appraisment thereof to be made; so as nevertheless such Corn, Grain, or Hay so distrained as aforesaid, be not removed by the Person or Persons distraining, to the Damage of the Owner thereof, out of the Place where the same shall be found, and seized, but be kept there (as impounded) until the same shall be replevied, or sold in Default of replevying the same within the Time aforesaid.

Treble Damages for Pound-breach. 1 Lutw. 213. Carthew 321.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That upon any Pound-breach or Rescous of Goods or Chattels distrained for Rent, the Person or Persons grieved thereby shall, in a special Action upon the Case for the Wrong thereby sustained, recover his and their treble Damages and Costs of Suit against the Offender or Offenders in any such Rescous or Pound-breach, any or either of them, or against the Owners of the Goods diſtrained in caſe the ſame be afterwards found to have come to his Uſe or Poſſeſſion.

V. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in caſe any ſuch Diſtreſs and Sale, as aforeſaid, ſhall be made by Virtue or Colour of this preſent Act for Rent pretended to be arrear and due, where in Truth no Rent is arrear or due to the Perſon or Perſons diſtraining, or to him or them in whoſe Name or Names, or Right, ſuch Diſtreſs ſhall be taken as aforeſaid, that then the Owner of ſuch Goods or Chattels diſtrained and ſold as aforeſaid, his Executors or Adminiſtrators, ſhall and may, by Action of Treſpaſs, or upon the Caſe, to be brought againſt the Perſon or Perſons ſo diſtraining, any or either of them, his or their Executors or Adminiſtrators, recover double of the Value of the Goods or Chattles ſo diſtrained and ſold, together with full Coſts of Suit. Double Damages and Coſts againſt wrongful Diſtrainer. 52 H. 3. c. 1. 13 Ed. 1. ſtat. 1. c. 36.

CAP. VIII.

An Act for reverſing the Judgment in a Quo Warranto againſt the City of London, and for reſtoring the City of London to its ancient Rights and Privileges.

'WHEREAS a Judgement was given in the Court of King's Bench in or about Trinity Term, in the five and thirtieth Year of the Reign of the late King Charles the Second, upon an Information in the Nature of a Quo Warranto, exhibited in the ſaid Court againſt the Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the City of London, that the Liberty, Privilege, and Franchiſe of the ſaid Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens, being a Body Politick and Corporate, ſhould be ſeized into the King's Hands as forfeited: And foraſmuch as the ſaid Judgment, and the Proceedings thereupon, is and were illegal and arbitrary; and for that the reſtoring of the ſaid Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens, to their ancient Liberties, of which they had been deprived, tends very much to the Peace and good Settlement of this Kingdom:

II. Be it declared and enacted by the King's and Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſties, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by Authority of the ſame, That the ſaid Judgment given in the ſaid Court of King's Bench in the ſaid Trinity Term, in the five and thirtieth Year of the Reign of the ſaid King Charles the Second, or in any other Term, and all and every other Judgment given or recorded in the ſaid Court, for the ſeizing into the ſaid late King's Hand, the Liberty, Privilege, or Franchiſe of the Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the City of London, of being of themſelves a Body Corporate and Politick, by the Name of 'The Mayor and Commonalty, and Citizens of the City of London,' and by that Name to plead and be impleaded, and to be anſwered, or in what Manner or Words ſoever ſuch Judgment was entred, is, ſhall be, and are hereby reverſed, annulled, and made void, to all Intents and Purpoſes whatſoever; and that Vacates be entred upon the Rolls of the ſaid Judgment, for the Vacating and Reverſal of the ſame accordingly. Judgment againſt the City Charter void.

III. And be it further declared and enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the City of London, ſhall and may for ever hereafter remain, continue, and be, and preſcribe to be, a Body Corporate and Politick, in re facto & nomine, by the Name of 'Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the City of London,' and by that Name, and all and every other Name and Names London made a Corporation.

Names of Incorporation, by which they at any Time before the ſaid Judgment were incorporatrd, to ſue, plead, and be impleaded, and to anſwer and to be anſwered, without any Seizure or Forejudger of the ſaid Franchiſe, Liberty, and Privilege, or being thereof excluded or ouſted, for or upon any Pretence of any Forfeiture or Miſdemeanor at any Time heretofore, or hereafter to be done, committed, or ſuffered; and the ſaid Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the ſaid City, ſhall and may, as by Law they ought, peaceably have and enjoy all and every their Rights, Gifts, Charters, Grants, Liberties, Privileges, Franchiſes, Cuſtoms, Uſages, Conſtitutions, Preſcriptions, Immunities, Markets, Duties, Tolls, Lands, Tenements, Eſtates, and hereditaments whatſoever, which they lawfully had, or had lawful Right, Title, or Intereſt of, in, or to, at the Time of the recording or giving the ſaid Judgment, or at the Time or Times of the ſaid pretended Forfeitures.

Their Liberties regranted to them.

IV. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Charters, Letters Patents, and Grants, for incorporating the Citizens and Commonalty of the ſaid City, or any of them, and all Charters, Grants, Letters Patents and Commiſſions, touching or concerning any of their Liberties or Franchiſes, or the Liberties, Privileges, Franchiſes, Immunities, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, Rigths, Titles, or Eſtates of the Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the City of London, made or granted to any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, by the late King Charles the Second, ſince the ſaid Judgment given, or by the late King James the Second, be and are hereby declared and adjudged null and void to all Intents and Purpoſes whatſoever.

Grants ſince the Judgment void.

V. Provided nevertheleſs, That no Recoveries, Verdicts, Judgments, Statutes, Recognizances, Inquiſitions, Indictments, Preſentments, Informations, Decrees, Sentences, Executions, nor any Plaints, Proceſs, or Proceedings in Law or Equity, had, made, given, taken, or done, or depending in the Mayor's or either of the Sheriffs Courts, or any other Court within the ſaid City or Liberties thereof, ſince the ſaid Judgment given, ſhall be avoided for Want or Defect of any legal Power in thoſe that acted as Judges, Juſtices, Officers or Miniſters of, in, or as belonging to any of the ſaid Courts; but that all and every ſuch Recoveries, Verdicts, Judgments, and other Things above mentioned, and the Actings, Doings, and Proceedings thereupon, ſhall be of ſuch and no other Force, Effect, and Virtue, than as if ſuch Judges, Juſtices, Officers, and Miniſters had acted by Virtue of legal Authority; and that no Perſon or Perſons ſhall be in any wiſe proſecuted, ſued, impeached, or moleſted for any Cauſe or Thing by him or them lawfully acted or done, in Purſuance of any ſuch Charters, Letters Patents, Grants, or Commiſſions.

Proceſs in the Mayor's Court, &c. good.

VI. Provided, That this Act ſhall not extend to diſcharge any Perſon or Perſons from any Penalty or Penalties, or Forfeitures by him or them incurred, for not duly qualifying him or themſelves to act upon the ſaid Charters, Letters Patents, Grants, or Commiſſions.

Perſons not qualified liable.

VII. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Officers and Miniſters of the ſaid City, that rightfully held any Office or Place in the ſaid City or Liberties thereof, or in the Borough of Southwark, at the Time when the ſaid Judgment was given, are hereby confirmed, and ſhall have and enjoy the ſame as fully as they held them at the Time of the ſaid Judgment given; except ſuch as have voluntarily ſurrendered any ſuch Office or Place, or have been removed for any juſt Cauſe; and that every Perſon who, ſince the ſaid Judgment given, hath been choſen, admitted, and placed into any Office or Imployment within the ſaid City, upon the Death, Surrender, or Removal as aforeſaid, of the former Officer, ſhall be and is hereby confirmed in his ſaid Office or Imployment, and ſhall have and enjoy the ſame in as full and ample Manner, as if he had been admitted or placed therein according to the ancient Cuſtoms of the ſaid City.

Officers at the Time of the Judgment confirmed.

VIII. Provided alſo, and be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Leaſes and Grants of any of the Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, and other Things, before the Time of the ſaid Judgment given, belonging to the ſaid Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens, and uſually leaſed or granted by them, made ſince the Time of the ſaid Judgment given by the ſaid late King Charles the Second, or King James the Second, or by any Perſon or Perſons taking upon them to be Truſtees for the ſaid City, for the Preſervation or Maintenance of the Government or publick Offices of the ſaid City, by or upon Pretence of any Grant or Commiſſion by their ſaid late Majeſties, King Charles the Second, and King James the Second, or either of them, ſuch Grants and Leaſes being made for juſt, good, and valuable Conſiderations, and whereupon the old accuſtomed yearly Rent, or more hath been reſerved, payable into the Chamber or Bridge-houſe, or any of the Hoſpitals of the ſaid City, ſhall be as good and valid for the Terms, and under the Rents, Payments, Proviſoes, Conditions, Covenants, and Agreements therein reſpectively contained, againſt the Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the ſaid City, and their Succeſſors, as if the ſame had been made by the Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the ſaid City, under their Common Seal, and the ſaid Judgment had never been given, and not otherwiſe. And the ſaid Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens, and their Succeſſors, ſhall have the Benefit and Advantage of all Rents, Reſervations, Payments, Conditions, Covenants, Clauſes, and Agreements in every ſuch Grant or Leaſe contained, and the like Remedy for Non-payment, Breach, or Non-obſervance thereof, as if the ſaid Grants or Leaſes had been made by the ſaid Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens, and the ſaid Rents, Payments, Conditions, Covenants, Clauſes, and Agreements had been made payable, reſerved, covenanted, or agreed to and with the ſaid Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens.

Leaſes made ſince the Judgment, good.

IX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Judgments, Decrees, and Sentences had or obtained by any Perſon or Perſons taking upon them to be Truſtees as aforeſaid, for or concerning any Lands, Tenements, Duties, Tolls, and Intereſts whatſoever, of or belonging to the ſaid Mayor and Judgments for the City good.

Commonalty and Citizens of the ſaid City, ſhall ſtand and remain in Force, and ſhall be proſecuted and executed by, and to and for the Uſe of the ſaid Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens, as if the ſame had been obtained in the Name of the ſaid Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens; and that all Perſons being natural-born Subjects or Denizens, that have been admitted into the Freedom of the ſaid City, ſince the ſaid Judgment given, ſhall be free thereof, and have and enjoy the ſaid Freedom to all Intents and Purpoſes, as if they had been thereunto admitted before the ſaid Judgment given. Freedoms good.

X. Provided always, That the preſent Mayor, Sheriffs, Chamberlain, and Common Council of the ſaid City, ſhall continue until a new Election ſhall be made of ſuch Officers, and the Perſons elected ſworn into their reſpective Offices, and that ſuch new Election be made at the Times hereafter mentioned; that is to ſay, the Election of the Mayor, and Sheriffs, and Chamberlain, ſhall be made on the ſix and twentieth Day of May in the Year one thouſand ſix hundred and ninety; and the Election of the Common Council ſhall be made on the tenth Day of June in the Year one thouſand ſix hundred and ninety; and ſuch Perſons ſo elected ſhall continue till the uſual Times of Election of ſuch Officers, according to the ancient Uſage and Cuſtom of the ſaid City, and from thence ſhall continue for the Year enſuing. Mayor, &c. to continue till New Election.

XI. An Office for Receipt of theſe Duties to be in London, and Duties paid to Receiver General of Cuſtoms, and kept apart, and paid weekly into the Exchequer. 2 W. & M. ſ. 2. c. 10. Regiſter to be kept in the Exchequer; Tallies, Order, and Payment in Courſe.

LVIII. And to the End that all Monies, which ſhall be lent unto their Majeſties upon the Credit of this Act, may be well and ſufficiently ſecured out of the Monies ariſing and payable by this Act; Be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That there ſhall be provided and kept in their Majeſties Exchequer (that is to ſay) in the Office of the Auditor of the Receipts, one Book or Regiſter, in which all Monies that ſhall be paid into the Exchequer by Virtue of this Act, ſhall be entred and regiſtered apart and diſtinct from all other Monies paid or payable to their Majeſties upon any other Branch of their Majeſties Revenue, or upon any other Account whatſoever; and that all and every Perſon and Perſons, who ſhall lend any Money to their Majeſties upon the Credit of this Act, and pay the ſame into the Receipt of the Exchequer, ſhall immediately have a Talley of Loan ſtruck for the ſame, and an Order for his Repayment, bearing the ſame Date with his Talley; in which Order ſhall be alſo contained a Warrant for Payment of Intereſt for Forbearance after the Rate ſo to be allowed for the ſame, ſo as ſuch Intereſt do not exceed the Rate of eight Pounds per Centum per Annum, for his Conſideration, to be paid every three Months, until Repayment of his Principal; and that all Orders for Repayment of Money ſhall be regiſtred in Courſe, according to the Date of the Talley reſpectively, without Preference of one before another; and that all and every Perſon and Perſons ſhall be paid in Courſe, according as their Orders ſhall ſtand entred in the ſaid Regiſter Book, ſo as that the Perſon, Native or Foreigner, his Executors, Adminiſtrators, and Aſſigns, who ſhall have his Order or Orders firſt entred in the ſaid Book of Regiſter, ſhall be taken and accounted as the firſt Perſon to be paid upon the Monies to come in by Virtue of this Act; and he or they who ſhall have his or their Order or Orders next entred, ſhall be taken and accounted to be the ſecond Perſon to be paid, and ſo ſucceſſively, and in Courſe; and that the Monies to come in by this Act ſhall be in the ſame Order liable to the Satisfaction of the ſaid reſpective Parties, their Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns ſucceſſively, without Preference of one before another, and not otherwiſe, and not to be divertible to any other Uſe, Intent, or Purpoſe whatſoever; and that no Fee, Reward, or Gratuity, directly or indirectly be demanded or taken of any of their Majeſties Subjects for providing or making of any ſuch Books, Regiſters, Entries, View or Search in or for Payment of Money lent, or the Intereſt, as aforeſaid, by any of their Majeſties Officer or Officers, their Clerks, or Deputies, on pain of Payment of treble Damages to the Party grieved by the Party offending, with Coſts of Suit; or if the Officer himſelf take or demand any ſuch Fee or Reward, then to loſe his Place alſo. And if any undue Preference of one before another ſhall be made, either in point of Regiſtry or Payment, contrary to the true Meaning of this Act, by any ſuch Officer or Officers, then the Party offending ſhall be liable by Action of Debt, or on the Caſe, to pay the Value of the Debt, Damages, and Coſts, to the Party grieved, and ſhall be forejudged from his Place

Place or Office; and if ſuch Preference be unduly made by any his Deputy or Clerk, without Direction or Privity of his Maſter, then ſuch Deputy or Clerk only ſhall be liable to ſuch Action, Debt, Damages, and Coſts, and ſhall be for ever after uncapable of his Place or Office; and in caſe the Auditor ſhall not direct the Order, or the Clerk of the Pells record, or the Teller make Payment, according to each Perſon's due Place and Order, as afore directed, then he or they ſhall be judged to forfeit, and their reſpective Deputies and Clerks herein offending, to be liable to ſuch Action, Debt, Damages, and Coſts, in ſuch Manner as aforeſaid. All which ſaid Penalties, Forfeitures, Damages, and Coſts, to be incurred by any of the Officers of the Exchequer, or any their Deputies or Clerks, ſhall and may be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of their Majeſties Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection, Privilege, Wager of Law, Injunction, or Order of Reſtraint, ſhall be in any wiſe granted or allowed.

LIX. Provided always, and be it hereby declared, That if it happen that ſeveral Tallies of Loan, or Orders for Payment as aforeſaid, bear Date, or be brought the ſame Day to the Auditor of the Receipt to be regiſtered, then it ſhall be interpreted no undue Preference which of thoſe he enters firſt, ſo he enters them all the ſame Day.

LX. Provided alſo, That it ſhall not be interpreted any undue Preference to incur any Penalty in point of Payment, if the Auditor direct, and the Clerk of the Pells record, and the Teller do pay ſubſequent Orders of Perſons that come and demand their Money, and bring their Orders, before other Perſons that did not come to demand their Money, and bring their Orders in their Courſe, ſo as there be ſo much Money reſerved as will ſatisfy precedent Orders, which ſhall not be otherwiſe diſpoſed, but kept for them; Intereſt upon Loan being to ceaſe from the Time the Money is ſo reſerved and kept in Bank for them.

LXI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Perſon or Perſons to whom any Monies ſhall be due by Virtue of this Act, after Order entred in the Book of Regiſter aforeſaid for Payment thereof, his Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns, by Indorſement of his Order, may aſſign and transfer his Right, Title, Intereſt, and Benefit of ſuch Order, or any Part thereof, to any other; which being notified in the Office of the Auditor of Receipt aforeſaid, and an Entry or Memorial thereof alſo made in the Book of Regiſter aforeſaid for Orders (which the Officers ſhall, upon Requeſt, without Fee or Charge accordingly make) ſhall entitle ſuch Aſſignee, his Executors, Adminiſtrators, and Aſſigns, to the Benefit thereof, and Payment thereon; and ſuch Aſſignee may in like manner aſſign again, and ſo toties quoties; and afterwards it ſhall not be in the Power of ſuch Perſon or Perſons, who have or hath made ſuch Aſſignments, to make void, releaſe, or diſcharge the ſame, or any the Monies thereby due, or any Part thereof.

Orders for Money how transferable.

Made perpetual, 9 Ann. c. 21. 3 Geo. 1. c. 8. and Part of the South Sea Fund.

CAP. V. (15.)

An Act for the Continuance of ſeveral former Acts therein mentioned, for the laying ſeveral Duties upon Wines, Vinegar, and Tobacco.

Moſt Gracious Sovereigns,

WE your Majeſties moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons in Parliament aſſembled, taking into our ſerious Conſideration the great and neceſſary Expences in which your Majeſties are engaged for our Defence and Safety, have cheerfully and unanimouſly given and granted unto your Majeſties the Impoſitions and Duties hereafter mentioned, for and during the Term hereafter expreſſed; and we do moſt humbly beſeech your Majeſties that it may be enacted;

II. And be it enacted by the King's and Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſties, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That the ſeveral Impoſitions and Duties upon Wines and Vinegar, granted by an Act made in the firſt Year of the late King James, intituled, An Act for granting his Majeſty an Impoſition upon all Wines and Vinegar, imported between the four and twentieth Day of June one thouſand ſix hundred eighty-five, and the four and twentieth Day of June one thouſand ſix hundred ninety and three, ſhall be continued from the three and twentieth Day of June in the ſaid Year one thouſand ſix hundred ninety-three, and ſhall be raiſed, levied, collected, anſwered and paid unto their Majeſties and their Succeſſors, until the four and twentieth Day of June one thouſand ſix hundred and ninety-ſix, and no longer: And that the ſaid Act, and all Powers, Proviſions, Penalties, Articles, and Clauſes therein contained, ſhall continue and be of full Force and Effect, until the ſaid four and twentieth Day of June one thouſand ſix hundred and ninety-ſix, and ſhall be applied, practiſed, and executed, for the raiſing, levying, collecting, anſwering, and paying the ſaid Duties hereby continued, according to the Tenor and Intent of this preſent Act.

III. CAP. VIII. (18.)

An Act for paving and cleanſing the Streets in the Cities of London and Weſtminſter, and Suburbs and Liberties thereof, and Out Pariſhes in the County of Middleſex, and in the Borough of Southwark, and other Places within the Weekly Bills of Mortality, in the County of Surrey, and for regulating the Markets therein mentioned.

13 & 14 Car. 2. c. 2.

'WHEREAS an Act was made at a Parliament held at Weſtminſter, in the thirteenth and fourteenth Years of the Reign of his late Majeſty, King Charles the Second, for the repairing the Highways and Sewers, and for paving and keeping clean the Streets in and about the Cities of London and Weſtminſter, wherein (amongſt other Things) many neceſſary and wholeſome Proviſions were made for the cleanſing and paving the ſaid Streets, and other Pariſhes and Places comprized within the Weekly Bills of Mortality; which ſaid Act being ſince expired, many Perſons in the Out Pariſhes in Middleſex, and other Pariſhes in the Limits aforeſaid, which have been choſen to ſerve the Office of Scavenger, refuſe to take the Execution of the ſaid Office upon them; and others, who have been rated and aſſeſſed towards the cleanſing and carrying away the Dirt and Soil out of the Streets, have refuſed to pay the Rates aſſeſſed upon them, there being no Law in Force to compel them thereunto, ſo that no Perſon can be imployed to be Raker, to carry the Dirt out of the ſaid Streets, for Want of ſome Proviſion for Payment for doing that Service; and the poorer Sort of People daily throw into the ſaid Streets all the Dirt, Filth, and Coal Aſhes made in their Houſes; by reaſon whereof the ſaid Streets are become extremely dirty and filthy, ſo that their Majeſties Subjects cannot conveniently paſs through the ſame about their lawful Occaſions, and many other Inconveniencies daily ariſe for Want of the like Proviſions in other

' other Caſes relating to the Streets, Pavements, and Common Ways ;' may it therefore pleaſe your moſt excellent Majeſties that it may be enacted:

Inhabitants in Middleſex, &c. to ſweep the Streets twice a Week.

II. And be it enacted by the King's and Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſties, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, that from and after the fifteenth Day of December one thouſand ſix hundred and ninety, all and every Perſon and Perſons inhabiting in the ſaid Pariſhes of Middleſex and Weſtminſter, and the Liberties thereof, and in the Borough of Southwark, or in any of the ſaid Streets, Lanes, or Alleys, comprized within the weekly Bills of Mortality, and the Town of Kenſington, ſhall twice in every Week (that is to ſay, on every Wedneſday and Saturday at the leaſt) ſweep and cleanſe, or cauſe to be ſwept and cleanſed, all the Streets, Lanes, Alleys, and publick Places, before their reſpective Houſes, Buildings, and Walls, and the Buildings and Walls of Churches, and other publick Places, to the End the Dirt and Soil in the ſaid Streets may be ready for the Scavenger, Raker, or other Officer appointed for that Purpoſe, to carry away, upon Pain to forfeit three Shillings and four Pence for every Offence or Neglect reſpectively; and that no Perſon or Perſons whatſoever ſhall throw, caſt, or lay, or cauſe, permit, or ſuffer to be thrown, caſt, or laid, any Seacoal Aſhes, Duſt, Dirt, Rubbiſh, Dung, or other Filth or Annoyance in any open Street, Lane, or Alley, within the ſaid City or Places aforeſaid, before his, her, or their own Dwelling-houſes, Stables, Buildings, or Walls, or the Buildings and Walls of Churches, Church-yards, and other publick Places, on the Penalty of five Shillings; and no Perſon or Perſons ſhall lay any Aſhes, Dirt, or Soil, before the Houſes, Buildings, or Walls of any Perſon or Perſons, Inhabitants of the City, Pariſhes, or Places aforeſaid, or before or againſt any Church, Church-yard Wall, or any of their Majeſties Buildings, Palaces, or Places whatſoever; or ſhall caſt, lay, or throw, or cauſe to be caſt, laid, or thrown into any common or publick Sink, Vault, Water-courſe, or common Sewer, or Highway, within any of the Pariſhes or Places aforeſaid, or any other private Vault or Sink of any of the Inhabitants aforeſaid, any Aſhes, Dirt, Filth, Ordure, or any other noiſome Thing whatſoever; but ſhall keep, or cauſe the ſame to be kept in their reſpective Houſes, Yards, or Backſides, or the Yards or Backſides of Churches, and other publick Buildings, until ſuch Time as the Raker, Scavenger, or other Officer thereto appointed of the ſaid Ward, Pariſh, Street, or Place where they dwell, or ſuch Churches or Buildings, as do come by or near their Houſes, Doors, or Places, with his Cart, Barrow, or other Thing or Things uſed for the cleanſing the Streets, and carrying away thereof, and then ſhall carry, or cauſe to be carried, the ſaid Aſhes, Dirt, Dung, or other ſuch Filth or Annoyance aforeſaid, out of their Houſes, Yards, and Backſides, and deliver it unto the Raker, Scavenger, or other Officer, or otherwiſe to put the ſame into his Cart, Barrow, or other Thing as aforeſaid, upon Pain to forfeit the Sum of twenty Shillings for every ſuch Offence.

Penalty.

No Perſon to caſt any Aſhes, &c. into the Street.

Enlarged by 8 & 9 W. 3. c. 37. §. 1.

But ſhall deliver the Aſhes, &c. to the Scavenger.

Penalty.

Churchwardens, &c. liable.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid; That the reſpective Churchwardens, and the Houſe-keepers and other Keepers of Whitehall, Somerſet-Houſe, Saint James's Houſe, and Saint James's Park, and the Guard-houſes and Stables near it, and other their Majeſties Houſes; and the Uſhers, Porters, or Keepers of Courts of Juſtice, and all other publick or other Houſes and Places reſpectively, ſhall be liable to and ſuffer the like Penalties, Forfeitures, and Puniſhments for every the beforementioned Offences or Neglects done, committed, or ſuffered to be done before any Church or Church-yard, or before any of their Majeſties Houſes, Buildings, or Walls, or before any Houſes, Buildings, or Walls, or before any publick Buildings, Houſes, or Places whatſoever.

Hooping Barrels, &c.

Penalty.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid fifteenth Day of December, no Perſon or Perſons ſhall hoop, waſh, or cleanſe any Pipes, Barrels, or other Caſks or Veſſels in any of the Streets, Lanes, or open Paſſages aforeſaid; nor ſhall ſet out any Dung, Soil, Rubbiſh, or empty Coaches to make or mend, or rough Timber or Stones to be ſawn or wrought, in the Streets, on the Penalty of twenty Shillings for every Offence.

Scavengers to carry away all Dirt, &c.

Penalty.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Rakers, Scavengers, or other Officers thereunto appointed, every Day in the Week, except Sundays and other Holidays, ſhall bring or cauſe to be brought Carts, Dung-pots, and other fitting Carriages, into all their reſpective Pariſhes, Limits, Precincts, Streets, Charges, and Diviſions, where ſuch Carts and Carriages can paſs, and at or before their Approach, by a Bell, Horn, or Clapper, or otherwiſe, ſhall make diſtinct and loud Noiſe, and give Notice to the Inhabitants thereof of their coming, and make the like Noiſe, and give the like Notice in every Court, Alley, or Place, unto which the ſaid Carts cannot paſs, and abide and ſtay there a convenient Time, in ſuch ſort that all Perſons concerned may bring forth their reſpective Duſt, Dirt, Aſhes, Filth, and Soil, to the reſpective Carts and Carriages ſo ſtaying as aforeſaid; all which the ſaid Rakers, Scavengers, or other Officers aforeſaid, ſhall daily carry, or cauſe to be carried away upon Pain to forfeit forty Shillings for every ſuch Offence or Neglect reſpectively.

Paved Streets to be kept in Repair.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all open Streets, Lanes, and Alleys, which now are paved, within any of the Pariſhes or Places aforeſaid, ſhall be from time to time repaired, amended, and paved, at the Coſts and Charges of the Houſeholders Inhabitants in any ſuch Streets and Lanes, reſpectively; and where any Houſes ſhall be empty and unoccupied in any ſuch Streets and Lanes, then to be paved and repaired at the Charge of the Owners or Proprietors thereof in Manner following (that is to ſay) Every of the ſaid Houſholders, Owners, or Proprietors of Houſes, to repair, pave, and keep repaired, amended, and paved, the Streets, Lanes, or Alleys before his Houſe, Stables, or Out-houſes, ſo far as his Houſing, Walls, or Buildings extend, unto the Denter-ſtone, Chanel, or Middle of the ſame Street, Lane, or Alley; upon Pain to forfeit twenty Shillings for every Perch or Rod, and after after that Rate for a greater or lesser Quantity for every Default, and of twenty Shillings a Week for every Week after, until the same shall be sufficiently paved and amended.

Justice of Peace may order new Streets, &c. to be paved.

'VII. And whereas there are in the Parishes aforesaid many new Streets and Ways made, which are 'fit and convenient to be paved with Stones, but for Want of good Order therein, are almost un-'passable to Passengers;' Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for any one or more Justice or Justices of the Peace of the Place or Division where any new Streets or Ways are or shall be made, from time to time to view and inspect the same; and if upon such View they shall judge them fit to be paved or otherwise amended, to certify the same under their Hands to the Justices of the Peace, at the next respective General Quarter-Sessions of the Peace for the Place where such Streets or Ways are or shall be made, who are hereby respectively thereupon authorized and required to take such Order for the paving or otherwise amending the same, as they shall think fit. And all and every Person and Persons, Owners and Inhabitants of all and every the Houses new built, or hereafter to be built, or adjoining to any new Streets or Ways adjudged to be paved or amended, shall, and are hereby required, according to their several and respective Interests therein, by Order of such Justices at their Session, and by a Time in such Order limited, pave with Stone or Gravel, or otherwise amend, all the Ground that doth or shall lie in Front before every Dwelling-house or other Buildings in such Streets and Ways, extended to the Middle of the Way that doth or shall lie before the same: And every Person offending herein, or that shall not from time to time repair and amend his or her Proportion of the Pavements in such Streets and Ways where they shall be paved, shall forfeit forty Shillings for every such Offence or Default for every Perch, and after that Rate for a greater or lesser Quantity, and the like Sum for every Week, till the same be paved, or amended and repaired, and when paved or amended, the like Sum as those that shall not pave and repair open Streets, Lanes, and Alleys, now paved by virtue of this Act.

Penalty.

Streets paved as formerly.

VIII. Provided always, That such ancient Streets, Lanes, and Alleys within the said Places, or any of them, as by Custom and Usage have been repaired and paved by any other Order, or in any other Manner, shall be hereafter repaired, paved, and maintained in such Sort and Manner, and by such Person and Persons as have heretofore used to repair, pave, and maintain the same, under the Penalties aforesaid; any thing in this Act contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

Charges of cleansing how raised.

1 Salk. 356.

IX. And for the better raising and levying of Monies to defray the Charges, and pay the Wages of the said Scavengers, Rakers, and other Officers employed in cleansing of the Streets, and other Places aforesaid, and carrying away the said Ashes, Dirt, Filth, and Soil; Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That within the Parishes of Saint Anne and Saint James, within the Liberty of Westminster, the Scavengers, Rakers, and such like Officers, shall be chosen as by the said respective Acts is directed and appointed: And the Rates, Taxes, and Assessments for Scavengers, Rakers, and such like Officers Wages for cleansing the Streets, shall be rated, taxed, and assessed, raised, and paid by the Parishioners and Inhabitants of those respective Parishes, according to the Custom and Usage of the said City, where it is not otherwise in the said Acts provided and enacted: And the Receivers of all such Monies shall be accountable in such Manner as they now are by the said Acts, or otherwise by the Law in case there is no Provision for the same thereby appointed: And all new Messuages, Tenements, and Houses, now, or at any Time hereafter built and erected within the Limits and Parishes aforesaid, shall be likewise rated, taxed, and assessed, and shall pay proportionable with others. And in all other Places and Parishes aforesaid, upon every Monday or Tuesday in Easter Week, the Constables, Churchwardens, and Overseers of the Poor, and Surveyors of the Highways of every of the said Parishes and Places respectively, or the greater Number of them, giving Notice unto, or calling together, such other ancient Inhabitants of their respective Parishes, as according to the Custom of the said Parishes or Places are usually present at the Election of Parish Officers, they, or the greater Number of them present, shall make Choice of, and shall nominate and appoint, two or more able Persons, that are Tradesmen of their Parish, to be Scavengers for the Streets, Lanes, and Alleys, and other open Passages of each Ward and Division within their said Parish for the Year then next ensuing, and until others be chosen and settled in their Places; which Persons so chosen, and being approved and confirmed under the Hand of any two Justices of the Peace within their respective Limits and Jurisdictions, shall within seven Days after their Election and Confirmation, and Notice thereof, take that Office and Duty upon them, upon Pain to forfeit ten Pounds for every Refuser respectively; and in case of Refusal by any Person or Persons so chosen and confirmed, then other able Persons shall be chosen and confirmed in Manner aforesaid, within seven Days after such Refusal, in the Place of him or them which shall so refuse; and the Person or Persons so chosen and confirmed, and having Notice thereof, shall undergo the like Pain of ten Pounds in case of Refusal, or not taking upon him or them the said Office or Duty within seven Days after he or they shall be chosen and confirmed, and have Notice thereof, as aforesaid. The said Penalties to be paid to the Surveyors of the Highways of the Place, and disposed of and employed by them for and towards the mending and repairing of the Highways and Streets of the same Parish, Ward, or Division, and to be levied by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Offenders, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of any one Justice of Peace of any of the Places aforesaid, to be directed to the Constables or other Officers of the same Parish, or any two or more of them, rendring the Overplus to the Party (reasonable Charges for the Distress only to be deducted) and in Default of Distress or Non-payment within six Days after Demand thereof, or Notice left in Writing at the House or Dwelling-place of the Offender, by the said Constables or Officers respectively, the said Offender to be committed to the Common Gaol of the said County, City, or Place respectively, by the Warrant of any such Justice under his Hand and Seal, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize, until Payment be thereof made as aforesaid; and so in like manner for every Person or Persons neglecting or refusing the same.

Election of Scavengers, and Punishment of Refusers.

X. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That within twenty Days after the Election and Confirmation of the ſaid Scavengers as aforeſaid, the Conſtables, Churchwardens, and Overſeers of the Poor, and Surveyors of the Highways of the Pariſhes and Places aforeſaid reſpectively, or the greater Number of them, giving Notice unto, or calling together, ſuch Inhabitants of their reſpective Pariſhes as aforeſaid, they or the greater Number of them then preſent, ſhall make and ſettle a Tax, Rate, or Aſſeſſment, according to a Pound Rate, to be impoſed or ſet upon the Inhabitants of every reſpective Pariſh, Ward, or Diviſion, for the Year following, for the Purpoſes aforeſaid; which being allowed and confirmed by any two of the Juſtices of the Peace of the Places aforeſaid reſpectively (which they are hereby authorized and required, as far as the ſame ſhall be equal and reaſonable, to allow) ſhall be quarterly paid by every reſpective Inhabitant, upon Demand made thereof by the Scavengers or Officers appointed to gather and collect the ſame; and in caſe of a Refuſal or Neglect ſhall, by Warrant under the Hands and Seals of any two Juſtices of the Peace of the Diviſion, Pariſh, or Place, be levied by Diſtreſs and Sale of the Offender's Goods, and for want of Diſtreſs, by Impriſonment of the Offender (he not being a Peer of this Realm) until Payment as aforeſaid.

Inhabitants may make a Pound Rate.

Penalty for Non-payment.

XI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That ſuch Sums of Money as ſhall be yearly aſſeſſed and collected in the ſaid Pariſhes for cleanſing the Streets, ſhall be yearly accounted for by the Scavenger for the Time being, which collected the ſame, to two or more of the next Juſtices of the Peace for the Place, reſiding in or near to the reſpective Places for which ſuch Scavengers were appointed, within eight and twenty Days after the Election of new Scavengers for the enſuing Year; and ſuch Sum or Sums as ſhall be remaining in their Hands, ſhall be by them paid over to the next ſucceeding Scavengers elected for ſuch Pariſh; and any two ſuch Juſtices of the Peace, as aforeſaid, ſhall and may virtue hereof commit to Priſon every one of the ſaid Scavengers which ſhall refuſe to account, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize, until he have made a true Account, and ſatisfied and paid ſo much as upon the ſaid Account ſhall be remaining in his Hands.

Scavenger muſt account and pay the Overplus.

Penalty.

XII. Provided always, That the reſpective Scavengers and Rakers for any of the Pariſhes aforeſaid ſhall have Liberty, by the Approbation and Order of the Juſtices at their Petit Seſſions, or any two or more of them, to lodge their Dirt, Duſt, Aſhes, or other Filth, in ſuch vacant and publick Places in or near the Streets or Highways, as ſhall be thought convenient by the ſaid Juſtices, for the Accommodation of the Country Carts returning empty from the ſaid Pariſhes, they giving Satisfaction to the Owners and Occupiers of ſuch vacant Places; and in caſe of unreaſonable Demands, ſuch Juſtices in their Petit Seſſions ſhall hear, moderate, and determine the ſame according to Equity and good Conſcience. And in caſe any Perſon ſhall find him, her, or themſelves aggrieved with any Rate, Tax, or Aſſeſſment made by virtue of this Act, or any ways prejudiced by any Determination of the ſaid Juſtices in their Petit Seſſions, he or they ſo grieved or prejudiced ſhall and may have Recourſe, in all ſuch Caſes, to the Juſtices of the Peace aſſembled at the General Quarter-Seſſions of the Peace to be held for the Place wherein the Matter of Grievance doth ariſe, to ſet forth his, her, or their Caſe, by Petition or otherwiſe; and the ſaid Juſtices in ſuch their Quarter-Seſſions are hereby impowered to hear and determine all Matters to them complained of, concerning the ſame reſpectively, and their Determination and Order therein ſhall be final, without any Appeal to any other Court whatſoever.

Where the Scavenger muſt lay his Dirt, &c.

Appeal to Quarter-Seſſions.

'XIII. And whereas there are many common Highways within the ſaid Pariſhes, which cannot be ſufficiently amended, repaired, and ſupported, by means of the Laws now in Force, without the Help of this 'preſent Act;' Be it enacted, That for the better amending and repairing the ſame, one or more Aſſeſſment or Aſſeſſments upon all and every the Inhabitants, Owners, and Occupiers of Lands, Houſes, Tenements, and Hereditaments, or any perſonal Eſtate uſually ratable to the Poor within any of the ſaid Pariſhes, ſhall be from time to time made, levied, collected, and allowed by ſuch Perſon and Perſons as the ſaid Juſtices at ſuch their General Quarter-Seſſions ſhall direct and appoint in that Behalf, and the Money thereby raiſed ſhall be employed and accounted for according to the Order and Direction of the ſaid Juſtices for and towards the amending, repairing, and ſupporting ſuch Highways from time to time, as Need ſhall require; and the ſaid Aſſeſſment ſhall be levied by Diſtreſs and Sale of the Goods of every Perſon ſo aſſeſſed (not paying the ſame within fourteen Days after Demand) rendring the Overplus of the Value of the Goods ſo diſtrained, to the Owner and Owners thereof; the neceſſary Charges of making and felling ſuch Diſtreſs being firſt deducted. Provided always, That no ſuch Aſſeſſment or Aſſeſſments, to be made in any one Year, ſhall exceed the Rate of four Pence in the Pound of the yearly Value of any Lands, Houſes, Tenements, and Hereditaments ſo aſſeſſed, nor the Rate of eight Pence for every twenty Pounds in perſonal Eſtate.

Aſſeſſment how made for the Highways.

To be levied by Diſtreſs.

'XIV. And whereas many new Sewers, Sinks, and Vaults have been made in the Pariſhes within the 'City and Liberty of Weſtminſter, and other the Pariſhes aforeſaid, by the Commiſſioners appointed by the 'ſaid recited Act, which ſince the Expiration thereof are much neglected, and noiſome to the Inhabitants, 'becauſe of ſome Doubt whether ſuch new Sewers are within the Juriſdiction of the Laws of Sewers;' Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all new Sewers at any Time ſince the twelfth Year of the Reign of the ſaid late King Charles the Second, made in any of the ſaid Pariſhes, ſhall be henceforth ſubject to the Commiſſion of Sewers, and to the Laws and Statutes made for Sewers, as fully to all Intents and Purpoſes, as if ſuch Sewers, Sinks, and Vaults had been expreſly mentioned in the ſaid Statutes of Sewers, to be under the Survey of the ſaid Commiſſioners; and the Commiſſioners of Sewers for the time being, within the Limits of their reſpective Commiſſions ſhall have Power and Authority by Virtue of this Act to alter, amend, cleanſe, and ſcower any ſuch new Sewers, Sinks, and Vaults, and to order and direct the making of any other new Vaults and Sewers, and to cut into any Drain or Sewer already made, and to alter or take away any Nuſances in the ſame, and to alter or take away any Croſs Gutter or Channels, in all or any of the Streets and Lanes in the Pariſhes aforeſaid.

New Sewers ſubject to the Commiſſion of Sewers.

Houſholders to ſet up Lights.

XV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Houſholder within any of the Pariſhes, Places, or Precincts in the Counties of Middleſex and Surrey, and City and Liberty of Weſtminſter, compriſed within the weekly Bills of Mortality, whoſe Houſe adjoins unto or is near the Street, from Michaelmas unto our Lady-day yearly, ſhall every Night ſet or hang out Candles or Lights in Lanthorns on the Out-ſide of the Houſe next the Street, to enlighten the ſame for the Conveniency of Paſſengers, from time to time, as it ſhall grow dark, until twelve of the Clock in the Night, upon Pain to forfeit the Sum of two Shillings for every Default; excepting ſuch Perſon or Perſons as ſhall agree to make uſe of Lamps of any Sort, to be placed at ſuch Diſtances in the Street, as ſhall be approved of by two or more Juſtices of the Peace.

The Weight of a Truſs of Hay.

'XVI. And whereas great Abuſes and Deceits are committed by Carters and others, who bring and ſet Hay within the Cities of London and Weſtminſter, and the Hay-markets and Places compriſed within the Weekly Bills of Mortality, the Loads and Truſſes of ſuch Hay being of leſs Weight than they ought, and are pretended and declared to be between the Buyer and Seller thereof:' For Remedy herein be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Truſs of old Hay brought or offered to be ſold hereafter in any Place within the Cities of London and Weſtminſter, and all other Places compriſed within the Weekly Bills of Mortality, between the laſt Day of Auguſt and the firſt Day of June ſhall contain and be the full Weight of ſix and fifty Pounds at leaſt; and that every Truſs of Hay brought or offered to be ſold within the Cities or Places aforeſaid, between the firſt Day of June and the laſt Day of Auguſt in any Year, being new Hay of that Summer's Growth, ſhall be and contain the full Weight of ſixty Pounds, and old Hay of any former Year's Growth, the Weight of ſix and fifty Pounds as aforeſaid; and if any Hay after the ſaid fifteenth Day of December ſhall be brought or offered to be ſold within the Cities or Places aforeſaid, whereof any Truſs ſhall be of leſs Weight than aforeſaid the Perſon or Perſons aforeſaid, ſo bringing or offering ſuch Hay to be ſold, ſhall forfeit for every ſuch Truſs of Hay, not being the full Weight aforeſaid, the Sum of eighteen Pence.

Penalty.

Loaden Hay Carts when to ſtand.

'Notice to be given of the Time by ringing a Bell by 8 & 9 W. 3. c. 16. §. 5.'

XVII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid fifteenth Day of December, no Perſon or Perſons whatſoever ſhall permit or ſuffer his or their Waggon, Cart, or Car to ſtand or be in the Place now called the Hay-Market near Piccadilly, in the Pariſh of Saint Martin in the Fields, and Saint James, within the Liberty of Weſtminſter, or Borough of Southwark, or any other Place in the Pariſhes within the Weekly Bills of Mortality, loaden with Hay or Straw, to ſell the ſame, from Michaelmas to Lady-day, after two of the Clock in the Afternoon, and from Lady-day till Michaelmas after three of the Clock in the Afternoon, on Pain to forfeit for every Offence and Neglect five Shillings reſpectively.

Farther Proviſions relating hereto, 8 W. 3. c. 17.

Offenders how to be convicted.

XVIII. And for the more ſpeedy Reformation and Puniſhment of all and every the Offences aforeſaid be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Juſtice of the Peace within the Counties of Middleſex and Surrey, and City and Liberties of Weſtminſter and Places aforeſaid, within their ſeveral Limits reſpectively, ſhall have Power and Authority upon his own Knowledge or View, Confeſſion of the Party or Proof of one credible Witneſs upon Oath before him (which Oath the ſaid Juſtice is hereby impowered to adminiſter) to convict any Perſon or Perſons of any the Offences aforeſaid, whereby ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſo convict ſhall incur the Pains, Penalties, and Forfeitures aforeſaid; one Moiety whereof ſhall be diſpoſed and employed for and towards the Relief of the Poor of the Pariſh or Place where the Offence ſhall be committed or done, to be paid to the Overſeers of the Poor of the ſame for that Uſe, and the other Moiety thereof for him or them that ſhall diſcover and proſecute the ſame, in caſe the ſaid Conviction be by Diſcovery and Proſecution; and if the Conviction ſhall be by the View or Knowledge of any one or more Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace, then one half of the Penalty ſhall be diſpoſed of to the Relief of the Poor as aforeſaid, and the other Moiety if for a Default of Pavement, to go to and be employed for and toward the repairing, paving, and cleanſing of the ſaid Streets or Places, to be paid to the Scavengers of the Place and by them employed for that Uſe, or otherwiſe to the Relief of the Poor as aforeſaid; and all the ſaid Penalties ſhall be levied by Diſtreſs and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Offender by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of any Juſtice of the Peace of the Place, to be directed to the Conſtables and Headboroughs of the ſame Pariſh where the Offence was done, rendring the Surpluſage to the Party; and in Default of Diſtreſs, or Not-payment of the ſaid Penalties, within ſix Days after Demand thereof, where it is not hereby otherwiſe provided, or Notice in Writing left at the Houſe or Dwelling-place of the Offender by the ſaid Conſtable or Headborough, the ſaid Offender (not being a Peer of this Realm) ſhall be committed to the Common Gaol of the ſaid Counties or City reſpectively, by the Warrant of any ſuch Juſtice under his Hand and Seal, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize until Payment.

Penalty how diſpoſed.

Penalty how to be levied.

Cart Wheels how to be made.

This Clauſe diſpenſed with 3 & 4 W. & M. c. 12. §. 16.

'XIX. And whereas the Wheels of many Carts, Cars, and Brewers Drays, now commonly uſed for the Carriage of Goods, Beer, Ale, and other Things from Place to Place within the Cities of London and Weſtminſter, and Pariſhes aforeſaid, where the Streets are paved, are made thinner or narrower in the Felley than formerly, and many are ſhod with Iron Tires, by means whereof the Pavements in the Streets of the ſaid Cities and Places are daily impaired and broken up, and made dirty and rough:' For Prevention whereof for the time to come, be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid fifteenth Day of December, the Wheels of every Cart, Car, or Dray to be uſed for the Carriage of any Thin Thing whatſoever, from any Place within the ſaid Cities and Places, to any Place ſituate in the ſaid Cities and Places where the Streets are paved, ſhall be made to contain the full Breadth of ſix Inches in the Felley, and ſhall not be wrought about with any Iron Work whatſoever, nor be drawn with above the Number of two Horſes, after they are up the Hills from the Water Side; and the Owners and Proprietors of any Cart, Car, or Dray to be uſed as aforeſaid, the Wheels whereof ſhall not be made ſix Inches in the Breadth, or ſhall be ſhod with Iron, or be drawn with above two Horſes as aforeſaid, ſhall forfeit the Sum of forty Shillings for every Time ſuch Cart, Car, or Dray ſhall be uſed as aforeſaid, for the Uſes, and to be levied as aforeſaid. Provided nevertheleſs, That this ſhall not extend to any County Cart or Waggon that ſhall bring any Goods to the Cities or Places aforeſaid, or ſhall carry any Goods half a Mile beyond the paved Streets of the ſaid Cities and Places. 15 Geo. 2. c. 2. 18 Geo. 2. c. 33. Penalty. Country Carts excepted.

XX. And for the better keeping and preſerving the Streets and Sewers in and about the ſaid Cities of London and Weſtminſter, and the Liberties thereof, and the Borough of Southwark, and other the Pariſhes aforeſaid, be it further enacted, That no Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, from and after the ſaid fifteenth Day of December, ſhall breed, feed, or keep any Sort or Manner of Swine within any Part of the Houſes or Backſides of the paved Streets of the ſaid Cities, Borough, or Pariſhes, where the Houſes are contiguous, upon pain of forfeiting the ſame to the Churchwardens and Overſeers of the Poor of the Pariſh where ſuch Swine ſhall be kept, bred, or fed, to the Uſe of the Poor thereof; and that it ſhall and may be lawful for all or any of the Churchwardens, Chapelwardens, Overſeers of the Poor, Conſtables, Beadles, Headboroughs, or Tythingmen of any of the Pariſhes of the ſaid Cities and Places reſpectively, at all Times hereafter, in the Day-time, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of the ſaid Mayor of London, or any other of their Majeſties Juſtices of the Peace of the Place reſpectively, to ſearch in all ſuch Places in their reſpective Pariſhes for the finding all ſuch Swine, and all that ſhall be ſo found to ſeize, take, drive, and carry away, and the ſame to ſell for the beſt Price that can be had, and the Money thereby produced forthwith to deliver to the Churchwardens or Overſeers of the Poor of the Pariſh where ſuch Swine ſhall be ſeized, to be diſtributed to the Poor of the ſame, in ſuch Manner and Proportions as the ſaid Churchwardens and Overſeers reſpectively ſhall think fit. Swine kept within London, &c. forfeited. ‘ Explained and enforced by 8 & 9 W. 3. c. 37. §. 4. 2 Salk. 460.

XXI. And for the better cleanſing and keeping clean the Streets, Lanes, and Paſſages within the City of London and Liberties thereof, at all Times hereafter, be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſame ſhall be ordered and managed, and Rates and Impoſitions laid and levied, and all other Ways and Means therefore uſed and obſerved, according to the ancient Uſage and Cuſtom of the ſaid City. Cuſtom of London for cleanſing, &c. continued.

XXII. And for the better effecting the ſame, and preventing the throwing out or laying any Aſhes, Soil, Duſt, or Rubbiſh, or other Nuſance or Obſtruction in any the Streets, Lanes, or Paſſages of the ſaid City or Liberties thereof, it is further enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Lord Mayor of the ſaid City for the Time being, and to and for any Alderman of the ſaid City for the Time being, upon his own proper Knowledge or View, in the open General Seſſions, to make Preſentment for any ſuch Offence committed, done, or ſuffered within the ſaid City or Liberties thereof, which Preſentment ſhall be good and effectual; and the Lord Mayor and Juſtices of the ſame City ſhall immediately, at the ſame General Seſſions, have Authority to aſſeſs Fines for ſuch Offences, not exceeding twenty Shillings for any one Offence; which Fines, ſo to be aſſeſſed as aforeſaid, ſhall be levied and paid unto the Chamberlain of the City of London for the time being, for the Uſe of the ſame City, to be employed in the publick Payments of the ſame City; any Law or Statute to the contrary notwithſtanding. Lord Mayor, &c. may preſent upon View. Fine upon the Preſentment.

‘ XXIII. And whereas there are many good Proviſions made and ordained for the cleanſing the Sewers, ‘ and well paving the Streets in London, by one Act made in the two and twentieth and three and twen- ‘ tieth Years of King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act for the better paving and cleanſing the Streets and ‘ Sewers in and about the City of London, which have been much obſtructed by Occaſion of many frivolous ‘ and vexatious Actions commenced and proſecuted by evil diſpoſed Perſons againſt Officers and others em- ‘ ployed in the Execution of the ſaid Act;’ Wherefore to prevent the like vexatious Proſecutions for the future, be it further enacted, That if any Action, Suit, Plaint, or Information, ſhall at any Time after the ſaid fifteenth Day of December be commenced or proſecuted againſt any Perſon or Perſons, for what he or they ſhall do in Purſuance of or in Execution of the ſaid laſt recited Act, or this Act, ſuch Perſon or Perſons, ſo ſued in any Court whatſoever, ſhall or may plead the general Iſſue, and upon any Iſſue joined, may give the ſaid reſpective Acts, or either of them, as the Caſe may require, and the ſpecial Matter in Evidence; and if the Plaintiff or Proſecutor ſhall become nonſuit, or ſuffer Diſcontinuance, or if a Verdict paſs againſt him or her, the Defendant and Defendants ſhall recover their treble Coſts, for which they ſhall have the like Remedy as in any Caſe where Coſts by the Law are given to Defendants. 22 & 23 Car. 2. c. 17. General Iſſue. Treble Coſts.

XXIV. And it is hereby enacted and declared, for avoiding any Doubt touching the Highway leading from the Eaſt Side of Clerkenwell Green to Saint John's Street, That the ſaid Way ſhall be paved according to the Direction of this Act. St. John's. See 2 Geo. 2. c. 11.

CAP. IX. (19.)

An Act for the encouraging the Diſtilling of Brandy and Spirits from Corn, and for laying ſeveral Duties on Low Wines, or Spirits of the firſt Extraction.

1 W. & M. ſt. 1. c. 34. Vide 10 & 11 W. 3. c. 4.

WHEREAS by an Act made in the Parliament held in the firſt Year of their Majeſties Reign, intituled, An Act for prohibiting all Trade and Commerce with France, all Brandies, Aqua Vitæ, and Spirits are prohibited to be imported into this Kingdom: And whereas good and wholſome Brandies, Aqua Vitæ, and Spirits, may be drawn and made from malted Corn: For the Encouragement therefore of the making of Brandy, Strong Waters, and Spirits, from malted Corn, and for the greater Conſumption of Corn, and the Advantage of Tillage in this Kingdom:'

Exciſe upon Spirits till 1695. Continued to March 1696. by 7 W. 3. c. 2. §. 6.

II. Be it enacted by the King's and Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſties, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and after the four and twentieth Day of December in the Year of our Lord one thouſand ſix hundred and ninety, until the five and twentieth Day of December in the Year of our Lord one thouſand ſix hundred ninety-five, there ſhall be paid by way of Exciſe unto their Majeſties and their Succeſſors, for all low Wines or Spirits of the firſt Extraction, drawn by Diſtillers or other Makers of Spirits and ſtrong Waters for Sale within this Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, the Rates and Duties following (that is to ſay) For every Gallon of low Wines of the firſt Extraction, made or drawn from any foreign or imported Materials, or any Mixture with foreign Materials, eight Pence; for every Gallon of low Wines or Spirits of the firſt Extraction, made or drawn from Brewers Waſh or Tilts, or from any Sort of Engliſh Materials, other than from Drink brewed and prepared from any Sort of malted Corn, or from Perry or Cyder, twelve Pence; for every Gallon of low Wines of the firſt Extraction, drawn or made only from Drink brewed and made of any Sort of malted Corn, one Penny; and for every Gallon of low Wines of the firſt Extraction, drawn or made from Cyder or Perry, or any Mixture therewith, three Pence.

The ſeveral Rates.

Diſtillers ſhall draw their Spirits from Corn, without Moloſſes, &c.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Diſtillers and others, who ſhall draw or make any low Wines, Spirits, or Brandy, from Corn, ſhall brew, or cauſe their Corn to be brewed and made into clean and wholeſome Drink, and from ſuch Drink ſo made and prepared (without any Mixture with any Moloſſes, Waſh, or Tilts, or other Materials whatſoever) ſhall draw their low Wines or Spirits of the firſt Extraction; and that it ſhall and may be lawful for the Gager and Gagers of Exciſe, from time to time, to gage and keep an Account of the Liquors, Worts, and Drink made and drawn by ſuch Diſtillers or others, for the making ſuch low Wines, Spirits, or Brandies, and to ſee that the ſame be drawn and made from Drink made of malted Corn entirely, without any Mixture as aforeſaid; and in caſe any Diſtillers or others ſhall therewith mix any other Materials, either in the brewing, or after the ſame is made into Drink, and before the ſame be diſtilled into low Wines, the ſaid Gagers ſhall charge the low Wines, drawn from the Drink ſo mixed, with the Duty of twelve Pence for every Gallon, which ſaid Duty ſhall be anſwered and paid to their Majeſties and their Succeſſors.

Gagers ſhall ſee and keep Account of the Spirits.

Penalty upon mixing other Materials.

Penalty upon Diſtiller making or receiving other Materials.

IV. And be it further enacted, That no Diſtillers or others, drawing low Wines or Spirits from Corn, prepared as aforeſaid, ſhall prepare any Waſh from Moloſſes or other Materials, or receive any Waſh of Moloſſes or other Materials from any other Perſon whatſoever, until he has drawn off and diſtilled all the Liquors made or prepared from Corn as aforeſaid, on Pain of Forfeiture for every Barrel of ſuch Liquors made of Corn as aforeſaid, found undiſtilled or drawn into low Wines, the Sum of five Pounds.

Penalty upon Officer's falſe Return.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Gager or other Officer of Exciſe ſhall wittingly and willingly make a falſe Charge, by returning to the Commiſſioners any Quantity of low Wines or Spirits of the firſt Extraction, not made from malted Corn, as made and drawn from malted Corn, ſuch Gager or Officer ſhall forfeit his Office or Employment, and alſo ſhall forfeit for every Gallon of low Wines ſo falſly charged or returned, the Sum of ten Shillings.

Diſtiller may export malted Spirits.

VI. And for the further Encouragement of Diſtillers and others, to draw and make Spirits or Brandies from malted Corn brewed into Drink as aforeſaid, and to export the ſame as Merchandize into Parts beyond the Seas, be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful to or for any Diſtillers or others, upon Oath made before any two or more of the Commiſſioners of Exciſe, or Juſtices of the Peace for the County or Place from whence any Brandy or ſtrong Waters is or are intended to be exported, that the ſame were or was made and drawn from Drink brewed from malted Corn, without any Mixture with any other Materials, and that the ſame is not mixed with any low Wines, nor drawn a ſecond Time, nor with any other Spirits or Brandy made from any other Materials, either native or foreign, and that the Duties of the ſame are duly entred or paid, and that the ſame are exported for Merchandize, to be ſpent beyond the Seas, to export ſuch Spirits or Brandies made from Corn prepared as aforeſaid; and upon a Certificate under the Hands of the Officer of Exciſe for the Port or Place where ſuch Spirits or Brandies were ſhipt off, of the Quantity ſo ſhipt, and that the ſame was ſhipt in the Preſence of ſuch Officers, that ſuch Diſtiller, or others ſo exporting, ſhall be allowed or paid back by the Commiſſioners, or their Collector for the Port or Place where ſuch Spirits or Brandy ſhall be ſhipt off, the Sum of three Pence for every ſuch Gallon of Brandy or Spirits ſo ſhipt off.

Rebate of 3d. per Gallon upon Exportation.

Gager ſhall take Account of Waſh, &c.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Gager and Gagers of Exciſe ſhall, from Time to Time, gage and take Account of all Waſh and other Materials prepared or preparing for the making of Low Wines, and alſo of all Low Wines, Spirits, or Strong Waters found in the Houſes, Cellars, or Warehouſes, or in any Waſh, Back, Caſk, or other Veſſel or Veſſels uſed by any Diſtiller or Maker of Low Wines or Spirits; and in caſe he ſhall miſs any Quantity or Quantities of Liquor or Drink brewed or made from Corn, or any Waſh, or other Materials prepared for making of Low Wines, which he found or gaged the laſt time ſuch Gager was at ſuch Diſtiller's, not exceeding twenty-four Hours before, and ſhall not on Demand receive Satisfaction what is become of ſuch Drink or Waſh, or other ſuch like Materials, that in every ſuch Caſe it ſhall be lawful for ſuch Gager to charge ſuch Diſtiller with ſo much Low Wines as ſuch Liquor, Drink, Waſh, or other Materials ſo miſſing, in his Judgment would reaſonably have made.

Gager ſhall charge Diſtiller with Quantities miſſing.

Diſtiller ſhall give Notice to Gager of Time of diſtilling and removing Spirits, except at certain Times mentioned.

VIII. And to the Intent that the Duties payable to their Majeſties for all Low Wines, Spirits, Aqua Vitæ, and Strong Waters, may be the better aſcertained, collected and levied, be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid four and twentieth Day of December, no Diſtiller or Maker of Low Wines, Spirits, Aqua Vitæ, and Strong Waters, ſhall diſtil or ſet their Stills at work for the drawing or making any the Liquors above mentioned, or ſhall deliver or carry out any Low Wines, Spirits, or Aqua Vitæ, to any of their Cuſtomers, in Caſk or by the Gallon, without Notice thereof firſt given to the Officer of Exciſe for the Place or Diviſion where ſuch Diſtiller or Maker ſhall live, to the Intent that ſuch Officer may be preſent to ſee and gage the ſame, unleſs at ſuch Times as herein after are mentioned (that is to ſay) from the nine and twentieth Day of September to the twenty-fifth of March yearly, between the Hours of five of the Clock in the Morning, and eight of the Clock in the Evening; and from the twenty-fifth Day of March to the twenty-ninth of September yearly, between the Hours of three of the Clock in the Morning, and nine of the Clock in the Evening, upon Pain that every Diſtiller and Maker of the Liquors aforeſaid, doing contrary hereunto, ſhall for every ſuch Offence forfeit the Sum of ten Pounds.

10l. Penalty.

Manner of levying, collecting, &c.

IX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſeveral Rates and Duties of Exciſe, hereby impoſed on the Liquors aforeſaid, ſhall be raiſed, levied, collected, recovered, and paid unto their Majeſties and their Succeſſors during the Time before mentioned, and in the ſame Manner and Form, and by ſuch Rules, Ways, and Means, and under ſuch Penalties and Forfeitures, as are mentioned, expreſſed, and directed in and by one Act of Parliament, made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of the late King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act for taking away the Court of Wards and Liveries, and Tenures in Capite, and by Knights Service, and Purveyance, and for ſettling a Revenue upon his Majeſty in lieu thereof; and alſo in and by one other Act of Parliament made in the fifteenth Year of his ſaid Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An additional Act for the better ordering and collecting the Duties of Exciſe, and preventing the Abuſes therein, or in either of them, or by any other Law now in Force, relating to the Revenue of Exciſe.

12 Car. 2. c. 24.

15 Car. 2. c. 11.

Fines upon this Act how recoverable.

X. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Fines, Penalties, and Forfeitures by this Act impoſed, ſhall be ſued for, recovered, and levied by ſuch Ways, Means, and Methods, as any Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture is or may be recovered by any Law or Laws of Exciſe, or by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of their Majeſties Courts of Record at Weſtminſter; and that one Moiety of ſuch Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture ſhall be to their Majeſties and their Succeſſors, and the other Moiety to him or them that ſhall diſcover, inform, or ſue for the ſame.

Any Perſon may diſtil.

Enlarged by 8 & 9 W. 3. c. 19. §. 13.

XI. Provided always, and be it enacted and declared by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful to or for any Perſon or Perſons, during the Continuance of this Act, to make, draw, or diſtil for Sale, or to be retailed, any Low Wines or Spirits, from Drink brewed from malted Corn only, paying the Duties, and being ſubject to all Fines and Penalties as other Diſtillers are; any Law, Charter, or other Thing to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Exciſe upon Brandy and other Liquors from Guernſey, &c.

XII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Strong Waters, Brandy, Aqua Vitæ, or Spirits brought from the Iſlands of Guernſey, Jerſy, Sark, or Alderney, ſhall be charged with the Duty of eight Shillings for every Gallon, to be paid to the Collector or Officer of Exciſe, upon Entry thereof before landing; and that all other exciſeable Liquor brought from the ſaid Iſlands, or any of them, except Beer, Ale, and Mum, ſhall be charged and chargeable with ſuch and the like Duties as are charged or chargeable on the like Liquors made in this Kingdom, to be entred and paid as aboveſaid: And that before the Landing of any ſuch Liquors, Oath ſhall be made by the Importer or Owner of ſuch Brandy, Strong Waters, or Spirits, and other Liquors, before the Collector or principal Officer of the Cuſtoms of the Port where the ſame are to be landed, that the ſame are of the Growth and Manufacture of the ſaid Iſlands, or one of them, and are not made from or mixed with any foreign Liquors or Materials. And in caſe any ſuch Liquors ſhall be imported and landed before due Entry, ſuch Oath made, and the ſaid Duties paid; the ſaid Strong Waters, Brandy, and other Liquors, ſhall be taken and adjudged to be of the Growth and Manufacture of the Territories of the French King, and the ſaid Liquors ſhall be deſtroyed, and all Perſons concerned in the Importation or Sale thereof, ſhall forfeit and ſuffer all and every the Penalties mentioned in an Act made in the firſt Year of their Majeſties Reign, intituled, An Act for prohibiting all Trade and Commerce with France, in ſuch and the ſame Manner, as if the ſaid Liquors had been of the Growth and Manufacture of the Territories of the French King, and ſhall be proſecuted and recovered as in the ſaid Act is appointed.

Oath muſt be made that they are of the Manufacture of thoſe Iſlands, otherwiſe adjudged French Commodities. Continued by 12 & 13 W. 3. c. 11. §. 8. and 3 & 4 Annæ, c. 4. §. 3. &c. Charters for ing the Continuance of thoſe Acts. 1 W. & M. ſt. 1. c. 34. viz. the Forfeiture of the Value for the firſt Offence, and double for the ſecond, the ſole making of Brandy void. Part of the Aggregate Fund, 1 Geo. 1. c. 12.

XIII.

XIII. Provided alſo, and be it enacted, That all Charters and Letters Patents already made, or hereafter to be made or granted, for the ſole making of Brandy, Spirits, or Strong Waters from Corn of any Sort, or in any Manner whatſoever, as a new Invention, or whereby the Power and Liberty given by this Act to all Perſons for the diſtilling and making Brandy, Spirits, or Strong Waters from Corn, ſhall be in any Manner reſtrained, ſhall be, and are hereby declared and adjudged to be void to all Intents and Purpoſes whatſoever.

CAP. X. (20.)

Manner of levying. III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſeveral Rates and Duties of Exciſe hereby impoſed on the Liquors aforeſaid, ſhall be raiſed, levied, collected, recovered and paid unto their Majeſties and their Succeſſors, during the Time before mentioned, and in the ſame Manner and Form, and by ſuch Rules, Ways, and Means, and under ſuch Penalties and Forfeitures, as are mentioned, expreſſed, and directed in and by one Act of Parliament made in the firſt Year of their preſent Majeſties Reign, Reign, intituled, An Act for an additional Duty of Excise upon Beer, Ale, and other Liquors, or by any other Law now in Force relating to the Revenue of Excise. 1 W. & M. ss. 1. c. 24.

IV. Provided that nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to continue the Duties of Excise granted by an Act made in the first Year of their Majesties Reign, intituled, An Act for an additional Duty of Excise upon Beer, Ale, and other Liquors, or any other Duties of Excise upon Beer, Ale, or other Liquors, for any longer Time than the same are respectively granted by the said Act, or any other Act or Acts for that Purpose. Excise formerly given not prolonged by this Act. 1 W. & M. ss. 1. c. 24.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for any Victuallers or Retailers, or common Brewers, who for or within the Space of one Year before the Seventeenth of November last, have not brewed their own Beer and Ale, to brew and make the Strong Beer, small Beer, or Ale, drank, consumed, spent, or sold in their respective Houses, Out-houses, or other Places, paying the Duty of Excise for the same, in Manner as Brewers and Retailers of Beer and Ale brewing and making the same are liable by the Laws of Excise now in Force; and on their entring the Beer and Ale by them respectively made, at the Excise Office within the Limits wherein such Beer and Ale shall be made, and on the Payment of the Duty of Excise for the same, such Person and Persons shall not be liable to the Penalty of one hundred Pounds imposed in an Act made in this present Parliament, intituled, An Act for doubling the Duty of Excise upon Beer, Ale, and other Liquors, during the Space of one Year; any Thing in the same Act to the contrary notwithstanding. Victuallers, &c. may brew, paying the Excise. Ante c. 3.

'VI. And whereas by an Act made in the first Year of their Majesties Reign, intituled, An Act for appropriating certain Duties for paying the States General of the United Provinces their Charges for his Majesty's Expedition into this Kingdom, and for other Uses, the Money accruing and payable to their Majesties by Force of another Act made in the said first Year of their Majesties Reign, intituled, An Act for an additional Duty of Excise upon Beer, Ale, and other Liquors (together with other Money arising and payable by certain other Acts of Parliament) was appropriated for and towards the Payment of six hundred thousand Pounds to the States of the United Provinces: And after the said six hundred thousand Pounds so paid, the Residue of the Money which should accrue and be payable to their Majesties by virtue of the said Act, to be for and towards the subduing of the Rebellion of Ireland, and other Charges of the War against France: And whereas the Increase of the Naval Strength and Force of this Kingdom is one of the best and most effectual Means for carrying on the War against France, and for maintaining the Honour and Safety of the Realm;' Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Monies which shall accrue and become payable to their Majesties by virtue of the said Act, intituled, An Act for an additional Duty of Excise upon Beer, Ale, and other Liquors, from and after the said six hundred thousand Pounds shall be paid to the States General: And also all Monies to be collected, levied, and paid by virtue of this Act, shall be applied to the Uses following (that is to say) the Sum of five hundred and seventy thousand Pounds, Part thereof, shall be applied and appropriated, and is hereby appropriated for the Building, and for the Guns, Rigging, and other furnishing of seven and twenty Ships of War, whereof seventeen to be of the third Rate, and to contain and measure eleven hundred Tons, or thereabouts, and to carry eighty Guns apiece; and ten to be of the fourth Rate, and to contain and measure nine hundred Tons or thereabouts, and to carry sixty Guns apiece. 1 W. & M. ss. 1. c. 24. Appropriation of this and the Residue of the Excise before given to the building 27 Men of War.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said seven and twenty Ships of War hereby directed to be built, as aforesaid, shall be, and are hereby directed to be built and furnished with all convenient Expedition, the whole Number to be compleated with Guns, Rigging, and Furniture, within the Space of four Years, to be accounted from the five and twentieth Day of March one thousand six hundred ninety-one. The Residue of the former Excise and this to be kept apart, and paid weekly into the Exchequer. 1 W. & M. ss. 1. c. 24. One third Part to be paid the Treasurer of the Navy, &c. Treasurer of the Navy, &c. may assign over the third Part. Officers of the Navy to sign Bills only for Building. Clause of Credit for 1,000,000 l. upon the two Thirds, Annual Surplus of Duties arising by 5 & 6 W. & M. c. 7. to be applied for Payment of Principal and Interest due for two Thirds of the Excise hereby granted. Money transferrable. Punishment upon Officers neglecting or Misapplying.

'XX. And whereas by an Act made in this present Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for granting unto their Majesties certain Impositions upon all East-India Goods and Manufactures, and upon all wrought Silks, and several other Goods and Merchandize, to be imported after the five and twentieth Day of December one thousand six hundred and ninety, it is enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Person or Persons to advance and lend to their Majesties any Sum or Sums of Money upon the Security of the said Act; and whereas by another Act made in this present Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for the Continuance of several former Acts therein mentioned, for the laying several Duties upon Wines, Vinegar, and Tobacco, it is enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Person or Persons to advance and lend to their Majesties any Sum or Sums of Money, as well upon the Security of the same Act, as upon the Security of two former Acts therein mentioned, made in the Reign of the late King James, in such Manner as in the said last mentioned Act made in this present Session of Parliament is expressed:' Now to the End that it may appear what Monies shall arise or become payable to their Majesties by virtue of the said Acts, whereby the Monies advanced to their Majesties upon the Credit of the same may be the better secured, be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the five and twentieth Day of December one thousand six hundred and ninety, during the Continuance of the said Acts respectively, there shall be continued, and be within the City of London, an Office for the Receipt of all the Duties and Sums of Money granted or payable to their Majesties by virtue of the said last mentioned Acts, or either of them; in which Office all the Monies arising by the same with in the Port of London, or in the Out-ports, or elsewhere, shall Sess. 2. c. 4. Cap. 5. An Office of Receipt for Customs given formerly upon East India Goods and Tobacco, &c. to be in London.

shall be well and truly answered and paid to the Receiver or Receivers General of their Majesties Customs, to be appointed by their Majesties; which said Receiver or Receivers General is and are hereby directed and required from Time to Time, at the said Office, to separate and keep apart the whole Receipt of the
Cap. 4. said Monies due and payable by virtue of the said Act, intituled, An Act for granting to their Majesties certain Impositions upon all East India Goods and Manufactures, and upon all wrought Silks, and several other Goods and Merchandize, to be imported after the five and twentieth Day of December one thousand six hundred and ninety: As also to separate and keep apart the whole Receipt of all Monies granted to their Majesties
Cap. 5. by the said Act, intituled, An Act for the Continuance of several former Acts therein mentioned, for the laying several Duties upon Wine, Vinegar, and Tobacco; or thereby made a Fund of Credit as aforesaid, as the same shall respectively become due, and be paid into the said Office by the several Receivers, Collectors, or any others who are or shall be employed to pay the same, and shall remain from Time to Time, after the Payments which shall be made thereout by virtue of any Laws in Force, upon Debentures for Goods that shall be reshipt, or for Corn exported, or for Discounts upon Bonds, where Discounts are allowable by Law, and of such Allowances of damaged Goods, and of Bills of Portage, as have usually been made; and the Comptroller General of the Accounts of the Customs for the Time being is hereby also required and commanded to keep perfect and distinct Accounts, in Books fairly written, of the said several and respective Duties and Sums of Money, as the same shall respectively come in; to which Books all Persons concerned shall have free Access at all seasonable Times, without Fee or Charge. And the said Receiver or Receivers General is and are hereby required and strictly enjoined, from Time to Time, to pay weekly, to wit, on Wednesday in every Week, unless it be an Holiday, and then the next Day after which shall not be an Holiday, the said several and respective Sums as aforesaid, into the Receipt of their Majesties Exchequer, distinct and apart from all the other Monies which he or they shall receive for their Majesties Use: And if the Receiver or Receivers General for the Time being shall refuse or neglect to pay into the Receipt of the Exchequer, the said Sums of Money arising as aforesaid, in such Manner as he or they are before required or enjoined to do, or shall divert or misapply any Part of the same, then he or they for any such Offence shall forfeit his or their Office of Receiver or Receivers General, and be incapable of any Office, Employment, or Place of Trust whatsoever, and shall be liable to pay the full Value of any Sums or Sums so diverted or misapplied, to any Person or Persons who shall sue for the same, by any Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information in any of their Majesties Courts of Record at Westminster, wherein no Essoin, Protection, Wager of Law, or Privilege, or more than one Imparlance shall be granted or allowed.

Appropriation of the Residue of Money.

XXI. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That out of the Money which shall be levied and paid by virtue of this Act into the Receipt of the Exchequer, as well upon Loan as otherwise, the Sum of seven hundred thousand Pounds shall be applied and appropriated, and is hereby appropriated to and for the Payment of Seamen that shall serve in their Majesties Navy Royal, for the Year one thousand six hundred ninety-one; and to and for the Building of three Ships to be of the third Rate, to contain and Measure each of them one thousand and fifty Tons, and for providing Guns, Rigging, and other Furniture for the said Ships; and to and for the paying for Stores, Provisions, and Victuals to be supplied for the said Navy; and to and for the Expences of their Majesties Office of Ordnance in respect to Naval Affairs, and for other necessary Uses and Services to be performed for the said Navy in the Time aforesaid; and that out of all other the Money which shall be levied and paid into the Money Receipt of the Exchequer, as well upon Loan as otherwise, by virtue of this Act, or any other Act of this Session of Parliament, for granting Aids or Supplies to their Majesties for reducing Ireland, or prosecuting the War against France,
Cap. 1. other than what is as aforesaid appropriated by this Act, and the Act For granting an Aid to their Majesties of the Sum of sixteen hundred fifty-one thousand seven hundred and two Pounds eighteen Shillings, for the Payment of Seamen, and other Payments relating to their Majesties Navy, the Sum of fifteen hundred thousand Pounds shall be applied and appropriated, and is hereby appropriated to and for the Payment of their Majesties Land Forces and Armies that have served and shall serve in England or Ireland, or elsewhere, and the paying for Arms, Ammunition, Carriages, and all other incident Charges necessary to the same, and not otherwise; and that all other Sums of Money paid and payable into the Exchequer by virtue of any of the said Acts, over and above the Sums appropriated to and for the Uses therein expressed, during their respective Continuance, shall be applied and appropriated to and for the Prosecution of the said War against France, and the reducing Ireland, and the Payment of the Debts that shall be incurred by reason of the said War, and to no other Use or Purpose whatsoever.

Ships to be built in a Year.

XXII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That the said three Ships of War herein last mentioned to be built, shall be, and are hereby directed to be built and compleated with Guns, Rigging, and other Furniture, within the Space of one Year, to be accounted from the twentieth Day of March next ensuing.

The King may dispose of 500,000 l. not appropriated.

XXIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for their Majesties to make use of any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding five hundred thousand Pounds in the whole, granted in this present Session of Parliament, and not particularly appropriated, so as the same be repaid and applied to the carrying on of the present War, out of such Monies as shall arise from their Majesties Revenue before the four and twentieth Day of March in the Year of our Lord one thousand six hundred ninety and one; any Thing to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

'WHEREAS by an Act made in the firſt Year of their Majeſties Reign, intituled, An Act for prohibiting all Trade and Commerce with France, it was provided, That if any French Wines, Vinegar, Brandy, Linen, Silks, Salt, Paper, and other Commodities, of the Growth, Product, or Manufacture of France, or of the Territories or Dominions of the French King, or any Goods, Commodities, or Manufactures, mixed with any Goods or Commodities being of the Growth, Product, or Manufacture of any of the Dominions or Territories of the French King, ſhould be imported contrary to the ſaid Act, they ſhould be ſtaved, ſpilt, deſtroyed, or burnt, in ſuch Manner as is by the ſaid Act directed: Notwithſtanding which, divers of the ſaid Goods, Commodities, and Manufactures taken, or pretended to be taken, as Prizes, have been imported, but not ſtaved, ſpilt, burnt or deſtroyed, according to the Proviſion of the ſaid Act:' For Remedy whereof, and for the more effectual putting the ſaid Act in Execution: 1 W. & M. ſ. 1. c. 34.

II. Be it enacted by the King's and Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſties, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That if any Officer or Officers of the Cuſtoms or Prizes ſhall wilfully or knowingly ſuffer any of the ſaid Goods, Commodities, or Manufactures, imported as Prizes or otherwiſe, contrary to the ſaid Act, to be admitted to an Entry, or to be embezilled, and not ſtaved, ſpilt, burnt, or deſtroyed, in ſuch Manner as by the ſaid Act is directed; every ſuch Officer or Officers ſhall, being thereof lawfully convicted, forfeit the Sum of five hundred Pounds, whereof one Moiety to be to their Majeſties, their Heirs, and Succeſſors, and the other Moiety to ſuch Perſon or Perſons as ſhall diſcover and ſue for the ſame, and alſo ſhall for ever afterwards be incapable of having or executing any Office in their Majeſties Revenue. EXP. Penalty on Officer offending.

III. And it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon or Perſons, at any Time or Times from and after the firſt Day of February one thouſand ſix hundred and ninety, ſhall ſell, or utter by Retail, in or by any Glaſs Bottle or Bottles, or in or by any other retail Meaſure, not made of Pewter, and ſealed according to Law, any kind of Wine or Wines whatſoever, or any other Liquor expoſed to Sale for Wine, or ſhall ſell the ſame for a greater Price than by the aforementioned Act is appointed, and ſhall be convicted thereof by the Confeſſion of the Party, or by the Oath of two credible Witneſſes, before one or more Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace of the County, City, or Place where ſuch Offence ſhall be committed (who are hereby required and impowered to adminiſter an Oath to that Purpoſe) ſuch Perſon being proſecuted for ſuch Offence within thirty Days next after ſuch Offence committed; that then every Perſon ſo offending ſhall forfeit and pay for every ſuch Offence the Penalty and Sum of fifty Shillings, which, if not paid upon Demand, ſhall be levied by Diſtreſs and Sale of the Goods and Chattles of every ſuch Offender, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of the Juſtice or Juſtices before whom ſuch Conviction ſhall be made; which Warrant the ſaid Juſtice and Juſtices are hereby impowered and required to grant to the Conſtable, Headborough, or Tythingman of the Pariſh or Place where ſuch Offence ſhall be committed, who are hereby required and authorized immediately to levy the ſame accordingly, rendring the Overplus to the Owner thereof; the ſaid Penalty, Forfeiture, and Monies ſo levied, to be given to the Informer; and for want of ſufficient Diſtreſs, the Offender ſhall be committed to the common Gaol, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize, until he ſhall pay the ſaid Money and Penalty, and all neceſſary Coſts and Charges of ſuch Conviction and Proſecution; the ſaid Coſts to be taxed by the Juſtice or Juſtices before whom the ſaid Conviction was made. Penalty upon any ſelling Wine in Veſſels unſealed, &c.

IV. Provided, That where any Offender ſhall be puniſhed by Force of this Act, he ſhall not be proſecuted, nor incur the Penalty of any other Law or Statute for the ſame Offence; and that no Writ or Writs of Certiorari ſhall be granted or allowed to ſuperſede or remove any Conviction or Proceedings in purſuance of this Act, but that Execution and all other Proceedings, ſhall and may be had and made thereupon; any ſuch Writ or Writs, or Allowance thereof notwithſtanding. Perſon puniſhed exempt from other Laws. No Certiorari.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon that now is, or hereafter ſhall be, a Peer of Ireland, or Member of the Houſe of Peers, or Member of the Houſe of Commons there; or that ſhall become a Barriſter at Law, Attorney, Clerk, or Officer in Chancery, or any other Court, and all and every Deputy and Deputies in any Office whatſoever, ſhall preſume to offend, contrary to this Act; that then every ſuch Peer and Member, and ſuch other Perſon and Perſons ſo offending, ſhall be thenceforth diſabled to hold or execute any Office or Place of Profit, or Truſt, Eccleſiaſtical, Civil, or Military, in any of their Majeſties Realms of Ireland or England, or Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, or in any of their Majeſties Iſlands or Foreign Plantations, to the ſaid Realms belonging; and ſhall be diſabled from thenceforth to ſit or vote in either Houſe of Parliament of the ſaid Realm of Ireland, or make a Proxy in the Houſe of Peers there, or to ſue or uſe any Action, Bill, Plaint, or Information in Courſe of Law, or to proſecute any Suit in any Court of Equity, or to be Guardian of any Child, or Executor or Adminiſtrator of any Perſon, or capable of any Legacy or Deed of Gift, and ſhall forfeit, for every wilful Offence againſt this Act, the Sum of five hundred Pounds, to be recovered and received by him, her, or them that will ſue for the ſame, by any Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of their Majeſties Courts of Record at Dublin, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection, or Wager of Law ſhall lie or be allowed, nor any more than one Imparlance.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That the Oaths that are intended and required to be taken by this Act, are the Oaths in theſe expreſs Words hereafter following:

The new Oaths.

'I A. B. do ſincerely promiſe and ſwear, That I will be faithful and bear true Allegiance, to their Majeſties King William and Queen Mary:

So help me God,' &c.

'I A. B. do ſwear, That I do from my Heart abhor, deteſt, and abjure, as impious and heretical, that damnable Doctrine and Poſition, That Princes excommunicated or deprived by the Pope, or any Authority of the See of Rome, may be depoſed or murdered by their Subjects, or any other whatſoever. And I do declare, That no Foreign Prince, Perſon, Prelate, State, or Potentate hath, or ought to have, any Juriſdiction, Power, Superiority, Pre-eminence, or Authority, Eccleſiaſtical or Spiritual, within this Realm:

So help me God,' &c.

Perſons exempted.

IX. Provided always, and be it enacted, That this Act ſhall not extend to any Perſon now Chaplain, Secretary, or Attendant to any of their Majeſties Ambaſſadors, Envoys, Miniſters, or Reſident in any Foreign Courts, or Preacher to any Engliſh Factory, or to any Chaplains in their Majeſties Service by Sea or Land, out of the Kingdom of Ireland, ſo as they take the Oaths, and make and ſubſcribe the ſaid Declaration hereby required, within three Months after their Return; nor to any other Perſon of the Proteſtant Religion, now in Office or Place of Truſt or Profit out of the Kingdoms of Ireland or England, who ſhall return into the ſaid Realm of Ireland, and take the ſame at any Time before the five and twentieth Day of December one thouſand ſix hundred ninety-two, in the Court of King's Bench there, the next Term after their reſpective Arrival in that Kingdom. Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained ſhall extend to the taking away the Office or Place of Vice-Treaſurer of Ireland from William Harbord Eſquire, who is now employed by their Majeſties as their Embaſſador Extraordinary to mediate a Peace between the Chriſtians and the Turks, but that he the ſaid William Harbord ſhall have Liberty to take the ſaid Oaths, and ſubſcribe the ſaid Declaration, as are directed by this preſent Act, any Time within two Months after his Return into the ſaid Kingdom of Ireland; any Thing in this Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Iriſh Archbiſhop &c. being in England in Hilary Term 1691. ſhall take the Oaths here, and likewiſe in Ireland.

X. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every Archbiſhop and Biſhop in the ſaid Realm of Ireland, and every other Perſon and Perſons now having any Eccleſiaſtical Office, Dignity, or Promotion, or being a Lecturer or Curate in the ſaid Kingdom, that ſhall happen to be in this Realm of England the firſt Day of Hilary Term, which ſhall be in the Year of our Lord one thouſand ſix hundred ninety and one, ſhall take the ſaid Oaths, and make, ſubſcribe, and audibly repeat the ſaid Declaration, before the End of the ſaid Term, in their Majeſties Court of Chancery, or in the Court of King's Bench, in this Realm of England, and ſhall again take the ſaid Oaths, and make, ſubſcribe, and audibly repeat the ſaid Declaration before the five and twentieth Day of July, which ſhall be in the Year of our Lord one thouſand ſix hundred ninety and two, in the Court of Chancery, or Court of King's Bench, in the ſaid Kingdom of Ireland, in the Morning, and between the Hours of nine and twelve, where the ſame ſhall be put upon Record in the ſaid reſpective Courts, in Manner as aforeſaid. And if any ſuch Archbiſhop, or Biſhop, or other Perſon in any Eccleſiaſtical Office, Dignity or Promotion, or being a Lecturer or Curate in the ſaid Kingdom of Ireland, happening to be within this Realm at the Time aforeſaid, ſhall neglect or refuſe to take the ſaid Oaths, and to make, ſubſcribe, and repeat the ſaid Declaration, within either of the Times before mentioned; then he or they ſhall be ipſo facto deprived, and is and are hereby adjudged to be deprived, of his or their Archbiſhopricks, Biſhopricks, and Eccleſiaſtical Offices, Dignities, and Promotions, and incapable to be Lecturer or Curate in any Place or Cure whatſoever. And all and every other Perſon or Perſons having any Office, or receiving any Pay, Salary, Fee, or Wages, by reaſon of of any Patent or Grant from their Majesties, or any of their Predecessors, or being Master, Governor, Head of any College in the University of Dublin, or Master of any Hospital, or School, or Barrister at Law, Clerk in Chancery, Attorney, or Professor of Law or Physick, or other Science, that shall reside or inhabit in this Realm on the first Day of the said Hilary Term, shall before the End of the said Term take the said Oaths, and make, subscribe, and audibly repeat the said Declaration, in their Majesties Court of Chancery, or Court of King's Bench, in this Realm of England. And in case such other Person or Persons, so resident and inhabiting in this Realm of England, shall neglect or refuse to take the said Oaths, and make, subscribe, and repeat the said Declaration, before the End of the said Hilary Term, he or they shall be ipso facto thenceforth adjudged incapable, and disabled in Law, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, to have, occupy and enjoy such Office, Pay, Salary, Fee, Wages, Mastership, Governor's-place, Headship, Fellowship, and Employment or Employments, or any Part of them; and every such Office or Place shall be void, and is hereby adjudged to be void; and if such other Person or Persons so residing or inhabiting in the Realm of England, on the said first Day of Hilary Term, shall take the said Oaths, and make and subscribe the said Declaration as aforesaid, it shall be as effectual to all Intents and Purposes, as if he or they had been then resident in Ireland, and had in Manner, and in the Time before mentioned, taken the said Oaths, and made, subscribed, and repeated the said Declaration, in any of the said Courts of the said Realm of Ireland. Penalty.

XI. Provided always, That this Act, or any thing herein contained, shall not extend to hinder or disable any Person or Persons, who on the third of October one thousand six hundred ninety-one, were inhabiting or residing in Lymerick, or any other Garrison then in the Possession of the Irish, or any Officers or Soldiers then in Arms, by virtue of any Commission of the late King James, or those authorized by him to grant the same, in the several Counties of Lymerick, Clare, Kerry, Cork, and Mayno, or any of them, or any commissioned Officers then in their Majesties Quarters, that did belong to the Irish Regiments then in Being, or were then treated with, or who were not Prisoners of War, and who had not then taken Protection, and have since returned and submitted to their Majesties Obedience, from using, exercising, and practising his or their Profession or Calling of Barrister at Law, Clerk in Chancery, or Attorney or Practicer of Law or Physick; but they may freely use, exercise, and practice the same, as they did in the Reign of the late King Charles the Second; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding. Persons who were in Irish Garrisons, and have submitted to the King, saved.

XII. Provided nevertheless, That every such Barrister at Law, Clerk in Chancery, or Attorney or Practicer of Law or Physick, who shall claim any Benefit hereby, to be exempted from taking the Oaths, and making, subscribing, and repeating the Declaration in this Act mentioned, in the Court, and in the Manner hereby appointed, shall make out his Claim thereunto, according to the respective Qualifications herein before expressed, before the Court of King's Bench in Ireland, in open Court there in Term-time, between the Hours of nine and twelve in the Morning, on or before the last Day of Michaelmas Term next, to be there allowed and recorded; for the Entry whereof upon Record there shall be one Shilling paid, and no more; and in Default of such Claim made, to be excluded from the same. They must make their Claim, &c. in Michaelmas Term.

XIII. Provided nevertheless, and be it enacted, That if any such Person, before he hath taken the said Oath to be faithful, and bear true Allegiance to their Majesties, in the Court of King's Bench in Ireland, or at the general Quarter-Sessions of the Peace in the County, City, or Place, where such Person shall inhabit, and procured the same to be recorded, and obtained the Certificate thereof, shall use, exercise, or practise such his Calling or Profession, shall forfeit the Sum of five hundred Pounds to such Person as will sue for the same, in any of their Majesties Courts of Record in Ireland, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, wherein no Essoin, Protection, or Wager of Law shall be allowed; and further, such Person so using or exercising his Profession or Calling, shall be adjudged uncapable ever to use or exercise the said Profession or Calling. 500 l. Penalty and Disability, upon Barr. &c. for practising before he has sworn.

XIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for two or more Justices of the Peace, whereof one shall be of the Quorum, within any County, City, or Town Corporate in the said Kingdom of Ireland, and they are hereby required, to direct their Warrant or Warrants to any Constable, Tithyngman, Headborough, or other Officer, to summon any Person of the Age of eighteen Years or upwards, to appear before such Justices, at such Time and Place as shall be mentioned in such Warrant, to take the Oath before-mentioned, to be faithful and bear true Allegiance to their Majesties: And if such Person, being so summoned, shall not appear at the Time and Place, having no lawful Let or Impediment, or appearing shall refuse to take the said Oath, being tendred to him or her by the said Justices; the said Justices shall commit such Person making Default, or refusing to take the said Oath, to the common Gaol or House of Correction, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize for the Space of three Months, unless such Offender shall pay down to the Justices, or any of them, such Sum of Money, not exceeding forty Shillings, as the said Justices shall require such Offender to pay; which Money shall be paid to the Churchwardens or Overseers of the Poor of such Parish or Place where such Offender did last inhabit; and at some Time after the End of three Months after such Default or Refusal, two or more of such Justices, as aforesaid, shall have Power, and are hereby required, to direct their Warrant in Manner as aforesaid, to summon such Offender to appear before them to take the said Oath; and if such Offender shall be summoned, and make Default at the Time and Place appointed, not having any lawful Let or Impediment, or appearing, shall refuse to take the said Oath, being tendred to him or her; the said Justices shall commit such Offender to the common Gaol or House of Correction, there to remain for the Space of six Months without Bail or Mainprize, unless such Offender shall pay down to the said Justices, or any of them, such Sum of Money, not exceeding ten Pounds, nor under five Pounds, as the said Justices shall require, which said Money shall be disposed of to the Relief of the Poor of such Parish or Place, in Manner as aforesaid; and unless such Offender shall become bound with two sufficient Sureties, with Condition; Justices of Peace shall give the Oath of Allegiance to all Persons above eighteen. Penalty upon first Refusal. Penalty upon second Refusal.

dition to appear at the next Aſſizes or general Gaol Delivery, to be holden for ſuch County where ſuch Offender ſhall inhabit or reſide, and in the mean Time to be of the good Behaviour; at which Aſſizes or Gaol Delivery the ſaid Oath ſhall be tendred to ſuch Offender by the Juſtices of Aſſize or general Gaol Delivery, in their open Aſſizes or Seſſions; and if upon ſuch Tender ſuch Offender ſhall refuſe to take the ſaid Oath, he ſhall incur the Danger and Penalty of Præmunire, mentioned in the Statute of Præmunire in the ſixteenth Year of the Reign of King Richard the Second, except Women Covert, who upon Refuſal of the ſaid Oath ſhall be by the ſaid Juſtices of Aſſize, in their open Aſſize or general Gaol Delivery, committed only to the common Gaol, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize, till they will take the ſaid Oath.

Penalty upon third Refuſal. 16 R. 2. c. 5.

Declarations appointed for Quakers in Place of the Oaths, which exempt them from the Penalties.

XV. Provided nevertheleſs, That whereas there are certain Diſſenters in Ireland commonly called Quakers, who ſcruple the taking any Oath, it ſhall be ſufficient for every ſuch Diſſenter, he or ſhe producing a Certificate under the Hands and Seals of ſix or more ſufficient Men of the Congregation, to which he or ſhe belongs, owning him or her for one of them, to make and ſubſcribe the following Declaration:

'I A. B. do ſincerely promiſe and ſolemnly declare before God and the World, That I will be true and faithful to King William and Queen Mary; and I do ſolemnly profeſs and declare, that I do from my Heart abhor, deteſt, and renounce, as impious and heretical, that damnable Doctrine and Poſition, That Princes excommunicated or deprived by the Pope, or any Authority of the See of Rome, may be depoſed or murthered by their Subjects, or any other whatſoever. And I do declare, That no foreign Prince, Perſon, Prelate, State, or Potentate hath or ought to have any Power, Juriſdiction, Superiority, Preeminence, or Authority, Eccleſiaſtical or Spiritual, within this Realm:'

And every ſuch Diſſenter ſo ſubſcribing ſhall be and is hereby exempted from the Penalties mentioned in this Act.

Taking Declaration does not make them capable of Office.

XVI. Provided nevertheleſs, That no ſuch Perſon called Quaker, ſhall by ſuch Declaration and Subſcription be capable to take, have, or hold, any Office, Employment, Place, Pay, Salary, Fee, Grant, Wages, or any other Place of Profit or Truſt, whereunto any Perſon taking the ſaid Oaths, and making and ſubſcribing the Declaration in the Courts aforeſaid, ſhall or may be intitled; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

This Act not to be diſpenſed with.

XVII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That this Act ſhall not be diſpenſed with by any Warrant or Letters Patents under the Great Seal of England or Ireland; but that all ſuch Warrants, and Clauſes of Diſpenſation thereof in any ſuch Warrants or Letters Patents, are hereby declared to be null and void, and of no Effect; any Law, Statute, or Uſage to the contrary notwithſtanding.

CAP. IX.

An Act to take away Clergy from some Offenders, and to bring others to Punishment.

'FORASMUCH as divers wicked and ill-disposed Persons are encouraged to commit Robberies upon Mens Persons, and in their Houses, and other Offenders, by the Privilege, as the Law now is, of demanding the Benefit of their Clergy:' Be it therefore enacted by the King's and Queen's most Excellent Majesties, and by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all and every Person or Persons that shall at any Time from and after the first Day of March in the Year of our Lord one thousand six hundred ninety-one, rob any other Person, or shall feloniously take away any Goods or Chattels, being in any Dwelling-house, the Owner or any other Person being therein, and put in Fear, or shall rob any Dwelling-house in the Day-time, any Person being therein, or shall comfort, aid, abet, assist, counsel, hire, or command any Person or Persons to commit any of the said Offences, or to break any Dwelling-house, Shop, or Warehouse, thereunto belonging, or therewith used, in the Day-time, and feloniously take away any Money, Goods, or Chattel, of the Value of five Shillings or upwards, therein being, although no Person shall be within such Dwelling-house, Shop, or Warehouse, or shall counsel, hire, or command any Person to commit any Burglary, being thereof convicted or attainted, or being indicted thereof shall stand mute, or will not directly answer to the Indictment, or shall peremptorily challenge above the Number of twenty Persons returned to be of the Jury, shall not have the Benefit of his or their Clergy. 23 H. 8. c. 3. Any Person convict of robbing a Dwelling-House where in there is any one no Person, &c. or Standing mute, shall lose his Clergy. See 10 & 11 W. 3. c. 23. 5 Ann. c. 31. 12 Ann. stat. 1. c. 7.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons whatsoever be indicted of any Offence, for which, by virtue of any former Statute, he or they are excluded from having the Benefit of his or their Clergy, if he or they had been thereof convicted by Verdict or Confession; if he or they stand mute, or will not answer directly to the Felony, or shall challenge peremptorily above the Number of twenty Persons returned to be of the Jury, or shall be outlawed thereupon, shall not be admitted to the Benefit of his or their Clergy. Persons indicted for a Crime, of which being convict they would not have their Clergy, if they stand mute, &c. shall not have it.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons hereafter be indicted of Felony for stealing of any Goods or Chattel in any County within this Realm of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, and thereof be convicted or attainted, or upon his or their Arraignment shall stand mute, or will not directly answer to the Indictment, or shall challenge peremptorily above the Number of twenty Persons returned to be of the Jury, he or they shall be totally excluded from having the Benefit of his or their Clergy, if it appear upon Evidence or Examination before the Justices, that the said Goods or Chattel were taken by Robbery or Burglary, or in any other Manner, in any other County, whereof if such Person or Persons had been convicted by a Jury of the said other County, he or they are excluded, by virtue of this or any other Act, from having the Benefit of his or their Clergy. Persons indicted of a Crime as above, in a wrong County, if they stand mute, &c. shall not have it. 2 Hawk. P. C. ch. 33.

'IV. And forasmuch as Thieves and Robbers are much encouraged to commit such Offences, because 'a great Number of Persons make it their Trade and Business to deal in the buying of stolen Goods;' Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons shall buy or receive any Goods or Chattel that shall be feloniously taken or stolen from any other Person, knowing the same to be stolen, he or they shall be taken and deemed an Accessary or Accessaries to such Felony after the Fact, and shall incur the same Punishment, as an Accessary or Accessaries to the Felony after the Felony committed. Buyers of stolen Goods reputed Accessaries to Felony. See farther concerning Accessaries and Receivers of Stolen Goods, 1 Ann. stat. 2. c. 9. 5 Ann. c. 31. 4 Geo. 1. c. 11.

'V. And whereas it is a frequent Practice for idle and disorderly Persons to hire Lodgings with an Intent to have an Opportunity to take away, imbezil, or purloin the Goods and Furniture being in such 'Lodgings;' Be it therefore enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons shall take away, with an Intent to steal, imbezil, or purloin any Chattel, Bedding, or Furniture, which by Contract or Agreement he or they are to use, or shall be let to him or them to use, in or with such Lodging, such taking, imbezilling, or purloining, shall be to all Intents and Purposes taken, reputed, and adjudged to be Larceny and Felony, and the Offender shall suffer as in Case of Felony. Stealing Goods from Lodgings Felony.

'VI. And whereas by the Law of this Realm, Women convicted of Felony for stealing of Goods and 'Chattel of the Value of ten Shillings and upwards, and for other Felonies, where a Man is to have the 'Benefit of his Clergy, are to suffer Death;' Be it therefore enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That where a Man being convicted of any Felony for which he may demand the Benefit of his Clergy, if a Woman be convicted for the same or like Offence, upon her Prayer to have the Benefit of this Statute, Judgment of Death shall not be given against her upon such Conviction, or Execution awarded upon any Outlawry for such Offence, but shall suffer the same Punishment as a Man should suffer, that has the Benefit of his Clergy allowed him in the like Case; that is to say, shall be burnt in the Hand by the Gaoler in open Court, and further be kept in Prison for such Time as the Justices in their Discretion shall think fit, so as the same do not exceed one Year's Imprisonment. Women convict of Crimes for which Men have their Clergy, upon Prayer punished as Men. By 4 & 5 W. & M. c. 24. §. 13. Women to have Clergy but once.

'VII. And forasmuch as such Men who have once had their Clergy, and such Women who shall have 'once the Benefit of this Statute, may happen to be indicted for an Offence committed afterwards in some other County;' Be it therefore enacted, That the Clerk of the Crown, Clerk of the Peace, Clerk of the Assizes, where such Man or Woman shall be convicted, shall at the Request of the Prosecutor, or any other in their Majesties Behalf, certify a Transcript, briefly and in few Words containing the Effect and Tenor of every Indictment and Conviction of such Man or Woman, of his having the Benefit of the Clergy, or her Where a Person has had his Clergy in another County, Clerk of the Crown, &c. shall certify it.

her having the Benefit of this Statute, and Addition of every ſuch Perſon or Perſons, and the Certainty of the Felony and Conviction, to the Judges and Juſtices in ſuch other County where ſuch Man or Woman ſhall be indicted, which Certificate being produced in Court, ſhall be a ſufficient Proof that ſuch Man hath before had the Benefit of his Clergy, and that ſuch Woman hath had the Benefit of this Statute. WHEREAS notwithſtanding the many good Laws before this Time made, and ſtill in Force, which do prohibit unlawful Courſing, Hunting, or killing of Deer; yet in as much as the Penalties thereby provided, are found by daily Experience not to be ſufficient to deter divers lewd, ſturdy, and diſorderly Perſons, who confederate together in great Numbers, making amongſt themſelves as it were a Brotherhood and Fraternity, whereby if any of them ſhall be diſcovered and convicted, which ſeldom happens becauſe of their great Force and clandeſtine Manner of Combination, they by a common Contribution (for the moſt Part) advance and pay, for ſuch Perſons ſo apprehended, the pecuniary Penalties (which are but ſmall) inflicted on ſuch Offenders, by reaſon whereof the other Confederates eſcape Diſcovery and condign Puniſhment:' Therefore for the more effectual Diſcovery and Puniſhment of ſuch Perſons, Perſon convict before a Juſtice of Peace of Deer ſtealing, if he afterwards hunt Deer, forfeits 20l. Burn, V. 1. 475.

II. Be it enacted by the King's and Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſties, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall from and after the twenty-fifth Day of March in the Year of our Lord one thouſand ſix hundred ninety-two, unlawfully courſe, hunt, take in Toyls, kill, wound, or take away any red or fallow Deer in any Foreſt, Chaſe, Purlieu, Paddock, Wood, Park, or other Ground incloſed, where Deer are, have, or ſhall be uſually kept, within the Realm of England, or Dominion of Wales, without the Conſent of the Owner or Perſon chiefly intruſted with the Cuſtody thereof, or ſhall be aiding or aſſiſting therein, and ſhall be convicted thereof by the Confeſſion of the Party, or by the Oath of one or more credible Witneſs or Witneſſes, before one or more Juſtices of the Peace of the ſame County wherein the Offence ſhall be committed, or the Party offending apprehended (which Oath the ſaid Juſtice or Juſtices hereby are impowered to adminiſter) and ſuch Perſons being proſecuted for ſuch Offence within twelve Months after ſuch Offence done; that then every ſuch Perſon ſo offending by unlawful Courſing or Hunting only, when no Deer is taken, wounded or killed, ſhall forfeit for every ſuch Offence the Sum of twenty Pounds; and in caſe any Deer ſhall by ſuch Perſon or Perſons be wounded, taken in Toyls, or killed, that for each Deer ſo wounded, killed, or taken, ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall reſpectively forfeit and pay the Sum of thirty Pounds, to be levied by way of Diſtreſs upon the Goods and Chattels of every ſuch Offender, by Warrant under the Juſtice or Juſtices Hand before whom ſuch Conviction or Convictions ſhall be made; the one third Part of ſuch Forfeitures to be given to the Informer or Informers, the other Part to the Uſe of the Poor of the Pariſh where the Offence ſhall be committed, and the other third Part to the Owner of ſuch Deer; and for want of ſufficient Diſtreſs, that then ſuch Perſons ſhall ſuffer Impriſonment by the Space of one whole Year, without Bail or Mainprize, and ſhall be ſet in the Pillory by the Space of one Hour, on ſome Market-day in the next adjoining Town to the Place where ſuch Offence was committed, by the Chief Officer or Officers of ſuch Market-town, or by his or their Under-officer or Officers.

By 9 Geo. 1. c. 22. §. 13. Proſecution may be within 3 Years.

For each Deer wounded 30l. Penalty levied by Diſtreſs.

Perſon to be impriſoned and pilloried for Want of Diſtreſs.

Conſtables may ſearch ſuſpicious Houſes by Juſtice of Peace his Warrant. If Veniſon, &c. be found, and Perſon whoſe Houſe it is cannot give a good Account, it is a Conviction of Deer Stealing. 1 Salk. 383.

III. And be it further enacted, That every Conſtable, Headborough, or Tythingman (being thereto authorized by the Warrant of one or more Juſtices of Peace, under his or their Hands and Seals) ſhall and may have full Power and Authority (and hereby is required) to enter into and ſearch (in ſuch Manner, and with ſuch Power as in Caſe where Goods are ſtolen or ſuſpected to be ſtolen) the Houſe or Houſes, Out-houſes or other Places belonging to ſuch Houſes of ſuſpected Perſons; and in caſe any Veniſon, or Skin of any Deer, or Toyls, ſhall there be found, ſuch Officer ſhall apprehend ſuch Offender, and carry him before ſome Juſtice of the Peace of the ſame County; and if ſuch Perſon do not give a good Account how he came by ſuch Veniſon, Skins, or Toyls, ſuch as ſhall ſatisfy the ſaid Juſtice, or elſe ſhall not in ſome convenient Time, to be ſet him by the ſaid Juſtice, produce the Party of whom he bought ſuch Veniſon, Skins, or Toyls, or ſome other credible Witneſs to depoſe upon Oath ſuch Sale of the ſaid Veniſon or Skins; that then ſuch Perſon not giving ſuch good Account, nor producing any ſuch Witneſs as aforeſaid, ſhall be convicted by the ſaid Juſtice of ſuch Offence, who, on ſuch Conviction, ſhall be ſubject unto the Forfeitures and Penalties hereby inflicted for the killing of any one Deer, in the ſame Manner as if thereof convicted as aforeſaid.

Conſtable may detain the Perſon till Diſtreſs returned.

IV. And to the end that no Perſons convicted of any of the Offences as aforeſaid, may eſcape Puniſhment by their Flight or other Removal after ſuch Conviction, be it further enacted by and with the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful for, and hereby Power and Authority is given (after Conviction as aforeſaid) to the Conſtable or other Officer, or Perſon or Perſons proſecuting, to detain in Cuſtody ſuch Offender or Offenders (in caſe he or they ſhall not preſently pay the Monies due by the ſaid Conviction) during ſuch reaſonable Time as a Return may be conveniently had and made to the Warrant for the Diſtreſs upon ſuch Conviction, ſo as ſuch Detainer do not exceed two Days.

V.

V. And to the end all Owners of Deer in any inclosed Ground may be indemnified in the just Defence of such their Right, be it enacted, That any Owner of such Deer, or any Person or Persons acting by, from, and under him, shall and may oppose and resist such Offenders in the same Manner, and be equally indemnified for so doing, as if such Fact had been committed within any ancient Chase or Park whatsoever. Persons having Deer in inclosed Ground may oppose Offenders.

'VI. And whereas divers Offenders duly convicted, do commonly procure Writs of Certiorari to remove such Convictions into superior Courts at Westminster, in hopes thereby to discourage and weary out such Persons injured by great Delays, Expences, and Incertainties;' Be it therefore enacted, That no Certiorari shall be allowed to remove any Conviction made, or other Proceeding of, for, or concerning any Matter or Thing in this Act, unless the Party or Parties against whom such Conviction shall be made, shall before the Allowance of such Certiorari, become bounden to the Person or Persons prosecuting, in the Sum of fifty Pounds, with such sufficient Sureties as the Justice or Justices of the Peace, before whom such Offender was convicted, shall think fit, with Condition to pay unto the said Prosecutors, within one Month after such Conviction confirmed, or a Procedendo granted, their full Costs and Damages, to be ascertained upon their Oaths; and that in Default thereof it shall be lawful for the said Justice and Justices, and others, to proceed to the due Execution of such Conviction, in such Manner as if no Certiorari had been awarded. No Certiorari except the Offender give Security to pay the Prosecutor full Costs, &c. 1 Salk. 279. 2 Lo. Enforced and enlarged by 5 Geo. 1. c. 15. §. 1.

VII. Provided that where any Offender shall be punished by force of this Act, that he shall not be prosecuted, nor incur the Penalty of any other Law or Statute, for the same Offence. Persons punished by this Act, punishable no other Way.

VIII. Provided always, That if any Person or Persons whatsoever shall be sued or prosecuted for or by reason of any Matter or Thing which he or they shall do in pursuance of this Act, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Person or Persons so sued or prosecuted to plead the general Issue, and give the special Matter in Evidence. Persons sued for any Thing done by virtue of this Act, to plead general Issue.

IX. Provided also, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons shall in the Night-time pull down and destroy, or cause to be pulled down and destroyed, the Pales or Walls of any Park, Forest, Chase, Purlieu, Paddock, Wood, or other Ground inclosed, where any Red or Fallow Deer shall be then kept, that such Person or Persons so offending, being thereof convicted by the Oath of one or more credible Witness or Witnesses, before one or more Justice or Justices of the Peace of the same County wherein the Offence shall be committed, shall, by Warrant from such Justice or Justices as aforesaid, suffer Imprisonment for three Months, without Bail or Mainprize. Persons convict before a Justice for pulling down the Pales of any Park, imprisoned for three Months.

By 5 Geo. 1. c. 15. §. 6. such Offenders are subject to the Penalty inflicted by this Act for killing one Deer. By 5 Geo. 1. c. 28. Deer Stealers are to be transported. Farther Provisions relating hereto, 4 & 5 W. & M. c. 23. 5 Ann. c. 14. 9 Ann. c. 25. 3 Geo. 1. c. 11. 8 Geo. 1. c. 19. 10. Geo. 2. c. 32. and 28 Geo. 2. c. 12.

CAP. XI.

An Act for the better Explanation and supplying the Defects of the former Laws, for the Settlement of the Poor.

WHEREAS one Act of Parliament made in the thirteenth and fourteenth Years of his late Majesty, King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act for the better Relief of the Poor of this Kingdom (except what relates to the Corporation therein mentioned and constituted thereby) was revived and continued with some Alterations, by one other Act made in the first Year of the late King James the Second, and have been found by Experience to be good and wholesome Laws, but may shortly expire;' 13 & 14 Car. 2. c. 12.

II. Be it therefore enacted by the King's and Queen's most Excellent Majesties, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by Authority of the same, That the said Acts, as to what relates to the Settlements of the Poor, shall be in Force from the first Day of March one thousand six hundred ninety-one. 13 & 14 Car. 2. c. 12. & 1 Jac. 2. c. 17. revived.

'III. But forasmuch as the said Acts are somewhat defective and doubtful;' For supplying and explaining the same, be it further provided and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the forty Days Continuance of such Person in a Parish or Town, intended by the said Acts to make a Settlement, shall be accounted from the Publication of a Notice in Writing, which he or she shall deliver, of the House of his or her Abode, and the Number of his or her Family, if he or she have any, to the Churchwarden or Overseer of the Poor, which said Notice in Writing the said Churchwarden or Overseer of the Poor is or are hereby required to read, or cause to be read publickly, immediately after Divine Service, in the Church or Chapel of the said Parish or Town, on the next Lord's Day when there shall be divine Service in the same; and the said Churchwarden or Overseer of the Poor is or are hereby required to register, or cause to be registered, the said Notice in Writing in the Book kept for the Poors Accounts. The Note of Settlement must be read in the Church, and registred in the Poors Book. Vin. V. 16. 414. Burn, V. 2. 261.

IV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That no Soldier, Seaman, Shipwright, or other Artificer or Workman employed in their Majesties Service, shall have any Settlement in any Parish, Port Town, or other Town, by Delivery and Publication of a Notice in Writing as aforesaid, unless the same be after the Dismission of such Person out of their Majesties Service. No Soldier, &c. to have Settlement before Dismission.

V. And be it further enacted, That if any Churchwarden or Overseer of the Poor shall refuse or neglect to read or cause to be read, such Notice in Writing as aforesaid, in such Manner, Place, and Time as aforesaid, he or they for every such Offence (upon Proof thereof by two credible Witnesses upon Oath, before Penalty upon Churchwarden refusing to read or register, before any Juſtice of the Peace for the ſame County, Riding, or Diviſion, City, or Town-corporate where Complaint whereof ſhall be made) ſhall forfeit the Sum of forty Shillings to the Uſe of the Part grieved, to be levied by Diſtreſs and Sale of the Offender or Offenders Goods, by Warrant under the Han and Seal of any Juſtice of the Peace within the ſaid Juriſdictions reſpectively, to the Conſtable of the Pa riſh or Town where ſuch Offender or Offenders dwell, the Overplus, if any be, to be returned to th Owner or Owners; and for want of ſuch ſufficient Diſtreſs, the ſaid Juſtice ſhall commit him or them t the common Gaol of the ſaid County, City, or Town Corporate, there to remain without Bail or Main prize for the Space of one Month; and if any Churchwarden or Overſeer of the Poor ſhall refuſe or ne glect to regiſter, or cauſe to be regiſtered, ſuch Notice in Writing as aforeſaid, he or they ſo offending, up on the like Conviction, ſhall forfeit the Sum of forty Shillings to the Uſe of the Poor of the Pariſh o Town where ſuch Offender or Offenders dwell, to be levied as aforeſaid, the Overplus, if any be, to b returned to the Owner or Owners; and for Want of ſuch ſufficient Diſtreſs, then the ſaid Juſtice ſha commit ſuch Offender or Offenders as aforeſaid, for the Time aforeſaid.

Serving as Officer, or paying Pariſh Duties, a Settlement.

VI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That if any Perſon, who ſhall come to inhabit in any Town o Pariſh, ſhall for himſelf and on his own Account execute any publick annual Office or Charge in th ſaid Town or Pariſh, during one whole Year, or ſhall be charged with and pay his Share towards the pub lick Taxes or Levies of the ſaid Town or Pariſh, then he ſhall be adjudged and deemed to have a leg Settlement in the ſame, though no ſuch Notice in Writing be delivered and publiſhed, as is hereby befo required.

Service for a Year, of Perſon without Wife or Child, a Settlement.

VII. And it is hereby further enacted, That if any unmarried Perſon, not having Child or Children ſhall be lawfully hired into any Pariſh or Town for one Year, ſuch Service ſhall be adjudged and deeme a good Settlement therein, though no ſuch Notice in Writing be delivered and publiſhed, as is herein be fore required.

Apprenticeſhip a Settlement.

VIII. And it is hereby further enacted, That if any Perſon ſhall be bound an Apprentice by Indenture and inhabit in any Town or Pariſh, ſuch Binding and Inhabitation ſhall be adjudged a good Settlement though no ſuch Notice in Writing be delivered and publiſhed as aforeſaid.

Appeal from Juſtice of Peace to Quarter-Seſſions, whoſe Order ſhall be final.

IX. Provided always, and be it hereby enacted, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall find himſelves aggrieved by any Determination, which any Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace ſhall make in an of the Caſes aboveſaid, the ſaid Perſon or Perſons ſhall have Liberty to appeal to the next General Quar ter-Seſſions of the Peace, to be held for the ſaid County, Riding, or Diviſion, City, or Town Corporate who upon full Hearing of the ſaid Appeal ſhall have full Power finally to determine the ſame.

Churchwardens muſt receive a Perſon removed by Warrant of two Juſtices of Peace, upon 5l. Penalty.

X. And be it further enacted, That if any Perſon be removed by virtue of this Act from one County Riding, City, Town-corporate, or Liberty to another, by Warrant under the Hands and Seals of tw Juſtices of the Peace, the Churchwardens or Overſeers of the Poor of the ſaid Pariſh or Town, to whic the ſaid Perſon ſhall be ſo removed, are hereby required to receive the ſaid Perſon, and if he or they ſha refuſe ſo to do, he or they ſo refuſing or neglecting (upon Proof thereof by two credible Witneſſ upon Oath before any Juſtice of the Peace of the County, Riding, City, or Town-corporate, to whic the ſaid Perſon ſhall be ſo removed) ſhall forfeit for each Offence the Sum of five Pounds, to the Uſe o the Poor of the Pariſh or Town from which the ſaid Perſon was removed, to be levied by Diſtreſs and Sa of the Offender or Offenders Goods, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of any Juſtice of the Peac of the County, Riding, City, or Town-corporate, to which ſuch Perſon was removed, to the Conſta ble of the Pariſh or Town where ſuch Offender or Offenders dwell; which Warrant the ſaid Juſtice hereby impowered and required to make; the Overplus, if any be, to be returned to the Owner or Owr ers; and for want of ſuch ſufficient Diſtreſs, then the ſaid Juſtice ſhall commit the ſaid Offender or O fenders to the common Gaol of the ſaid County, Riding, City, or Town-corporate, or Liberty, the to remain without Bail or Mainprize for the Space of forty Days: Provided always, and be it her by enacted, That all ſuch Perſons who think themſelves aggrieved with any ſuch Judgment of the ſaid tw Juſtices may appeal to the next General Quarter-Seſſions of the Peace to be held for the County, Ridin City, Town-corporate, or Liberty, from which the ſaid Perſon was ſo removed.

Perſons aggrieved by ſuch Removal may appeal to Seſſions.

43 El. c. 2. A Regiſter to be kept of the Admittances of the Poor.

'XI. And whereas many Inconveniencies do daily ariſe in Cities, Townscorporate, and Pariſhes 'where the Inhabitants are very numerous, by reaſon of the unlimited Power of the Churchwardens an 'Overſeers of the Poor, who do frequently upon frivolous Pretences (but chiefly for their own privat 'Ends) give Relief to what Perſons and Number they think fit, and ſuch Perſons, being entered into th 'Collection Bill, do become after that a great Charge to the Pariſh, notwithſtanding the Occaſion or Pre 'tence of their receiving Collection oftentimes ceaſes, by which Means the Rates for the Poor are dail 'increaſed, contrary to the true Intent of a Statute made in the forty-third Year of the Reign of her Ma 'jeſty Queen Elizabeth, intituled, An Act for the Relief of the Poor:' For remedying of which, and pre venting the like Abuſes for the future, Be it further enacted, That from and after the firſt Day of Marc there ſhall be provided and kept in every Pariſh (at the Charge of the ſame Pariſh) a Book or Book wherein the Names of all ſuch Perſons who do or may receive Collection ſhall be regiſtered, with the Da and Year when they were firſt admitted to have Relief, and the Occaſion which brought them under th Neceſſity: And that yearly in Eaſter Week (or as often as it ſhall be thought convenient) the Pariſhione of every Pariſh ſhall meet in their Veſtry or other uſual Place of Meeting in the ſame Pariſh, befo whom the ſaid Book ſhall be produced, and all Perſons receiving Collection to be called over, and th Reaſons of their taking Relief examined, and a new Liſt made and entred, of ſuch Perſons as they ſha think fit and allow to receive Collection, and that no other Perſon be allowed to have or receive Collec tion at the Charge of the said Parish, but by Authority under the Hand of one Justice of Peace residing within such Parish, or (if none be there dwelling) in the Parts near or next adjoining, or by Order of the Justices in their respective Quarter-Sessions, except in Cases of pestilential Diseases, Plague, or Small-pox, for and in respect of such Families only as are or shall be therewith infected.

Pariſhioners yearly in Eaſter Week ſhall make a Liſt of their Poor.

None but those in the List to receive Alms except by Order of Justice of Peace, &c.

'XII. And whereas many Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor, and other Persons intrusted to 'receive Collections for the Poor, and other publick Monies relating to the Churches and Parishes where-'unto they do belong, do often mispend the said Monies, and take the same to their own Use, to the 'great Prejudice of such Parishes, and the Poor, and other Inhabitants thereof; and because that many 'Times the Judges, when Actions are brought against such Churchwardens and Overseers, to recover the 'Monies so mispent, taken, or misapplied by the Persons aforesaid, refuse to admit the Parishioners to be 'Witnesses in such Cases, who are the only Persons that can make Proof thereof:' Wherefore to prevent all such evil and deceitful Practices of Churchwardens, and Overseers, and other Persons, Be it enacted and declared, That in all Actions to be brought in their Majesties Courts of Record at Westminster, or at the Assizes, for the Recovery of any Sum or Sums of Money so mispent or taken by Churchwardens or Overseers of the Poor, the Evidence of the Parishioners, or any of them, other than of such as receive Alms or any Pension or Gift out of such Collections or publick Monies of such Parish or Parishes respectively whereof the Defendant or Defendants is or are Inhabitant or Inhabitants, shall be taken and admitted in all such Cases in the Courts aforesaid; any Custom, Rule, Order, or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

CAP. XII.

An Act for the better repairing and amending the Highways, and for settling the Rates of Carriage of Goods.

'WHEREAS the free and easy Intercourse and Means of conveying and carrying Goods and Mer-'chandizes from one Market-town to another, contributes very much to the Advancement of 'Trade, Increase of Wealth, and raising the Value of Lands, as well as to the Ease and Convenience of 'the Subject in general; for which Ends therefore divers good and necessary Laws have been heretofore 'made for the enlarging, repairing, and amending the Highways and common Roads of this Kingdom: 'Notwithstanding which Laws, the same are not in many Parts sufficiently amended and repaired, but 'remain almost impassible; all which is occasioned, not only by reason of some Ambiguities in the said 'Laws, but by want of a sufficient Provision to compel the Execution of the same;' For Remedy whereof:

II. Be it enacted by the King's and Queen's most Excellent Majesties, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all and every Law and Statute now in Force, for or touching the enlarging, repairing, or amending Highways and common Roads, and every Article and Thing in them contained, and not herein and hereby altered or repealed, shall be duly put in Execution, according to the Tenour of the said Laws, and under the Penalties therein contained, to be raised, levied, and disposed of, as in and by the said Laws is directed.

All Laws about Highways to be put in Execution.

1 Haw. P. C. c. 76. Bac. V. 3. 59. Burn, V. 1. 555.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from henceforth, upon the six and twentieth Day of December in every Year, unless that Day shall be Sunday, and then on the seven and twentieth, the Constables, Headboroughs, Tythingmen, Churchwardens, Surveyor, or Surveyors of the Highways, and Inhabitants in every Parish, shall assemble together, and the major Part of them as are so assembled shall make a List of the Names of a competent Number of the Inhabitants in their Parish, who have an Estate in Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, in their own Right or their Wives, of the Value of ten Pounds by the Year, or a personal Estate of the Value of one hundred Pounds, or are Occupiers or Tenants of Houses, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, of the Yearly Value of thirty Pounds, if any such there be, or if there be no such Persons in the Parish, then the said List to be of the most sufficient Inhabitants of such Parish; and shall return such List unto two or more of the Justices of the Peace in or near the Division of the County in which their Parish lies, at a special Sessions to be held for that Purpose within the said Division, on the third Day of January next following, unless it shall happen on a Sunday, and then to be the fourth of the same Month, or within fifteen Days after: For which Purpose the said Justices are hereby authorized and required to hold a special Sessions at some Place within that Division where the Parish lies, and to give Notice of the Time and Place where they intend to hold the same, to the Constables, Headboroughs, Tythingmen, Churchwardens, and Surveyors of the Highways of every Parish within the said Division, at least ten Days before the holding of the said Sessions; and the said Justices shall then and there, out of the said Lists, according to their Discretion, and the Largeness of the Parish, by Warrant under their Hands and Seals, nominate and appoint one, two, or more, as they shall think fit and approve of, being of like Sufficiency as aforesaid, to be Surveyor or Surveyors of the Highways of every Parish within the Division, or for any Hamlet, Precinct, Liberty, Tything, or Town, of and Parishioners annually to make a List of sufficient Persons upon 26 of December.

List to be returned to two Justices on the third of Jan. &c.

Justices shall hold a Sessions, where they shall nominate one or more to be Surveyors of the Highways.

Constable to serve the Nomination.

and in the same Division for the Year ensuing; which Nomination and Appointment shall, by the Constables, Headboroughs, Tythingmen, or Surveyors of the Highways for the Time being, or some of them, be notified to the Person or Persons so nominated, chosen, and appointed by the said Justices, within six Days after such Nomination, by serving him or them with the said Warrant or Warrants, or by leaving the same, or a true Copy thereof, at his or their Houses or usual Places of Abode; and from thenceforth the Person or Persons, so nominated and appointed, shall be Surveyor or Surveyors of the Highways for the Parish, Town, Village, Hamlet, Precinct, or Tything, for which he shall have been so nominated, chosen, and appointed, for the Year ensuing, and shall take upon him and them respectively, and duly execute, the said Office, according to the Laws and Statutes heretofore made for the enlarging, amending, or repairing of Highways, and also this present Act; and if the said Persons so nominated, and served with the said Warrant, shall refuse or neglect so to do, he or they so refusing and neglecting shall forfeit the Sum of five Pounds, to be levied on his or their Goods and Chattels, by Distress and Sale of the same, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of two or more Justices of the Peace of the same Division, or in Default thereof any neighbouring Justices of the Peace for the said County, which Warrant the said Justices are hereby impowered and required to make upon Information of any one credible Witness upon Oath, the one Moiety of which said Forfeiture shall go to him that shall inform, and the other Moiety for and towards the Repair of Highways of the same Parish, rendering the Overplus, if any be, to the Party or Parties whose Goods shall be distrained, the Charges of the Distress and Sale being first deducted; and in case of such Neglect or Refusal as aforesaid, the said Justices are hereby impowered to nominate and appoint some other fit Person or Persons to perform the said Office, who upon like Notice of such Nomination and Appointment, shall take upon him or them and duly execute the said Office, and if he or they neglect or refuse so to do, shall forfeit the like Sum of five Pounds, to be levied and disposed of as aforesaid; and if the Constables, Headboroughs, Tythingmen, Churchwardens, and Surveyor or Surveyors of the Highways of any Parish, Town, Liberty, or Precinct, or some of them, shall not return the said List of Names, in such Manner as in this Act is directed, every of them so neglecting shall forfeit the Sum of twenty Shillings, to be levied in the Manner, and employed to the Uses aforesaid.

5 l. Penalty upon Nominees refusing, &c. after Service.

Justices may appoint other Persons after Refusal.

20 s. Penalty upon Constables, &c. not returning a List.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Person or Persons whatsoever shall lay in any Highway, not being twenty Foot broad, any Stone, Timber, Straw, Dung, or other Matter, whereby the same shall be any Ways obstructed or annoyed, on pain to forfeit for every such Offence the Sum of five Shillings, to be levied and disposed of as is aforesaid.

5 s. Penalty upon Person laying Timber, &c. in the Highway.

Owner of Land adjoining shall take away Timber, &c. lying in the Highway. 13 Ed. 1. St. 2. C. 5.

Penalty for neglecting.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Timber, Stone, Hay, Straw, Stubble, or other Matter for the making of Dung, or on any other Pretence whatsoever, shall be laid in any such Highway as aforesaid, whereby the same shall be any Ways obstructed or annoyed, the Owners or Possessors of the Lands next adjoining to the same shall clear the said Way by removing the said Timber, Stone, Hay, Straw, Dung, or other Matter, and have, take and dispose of the same to his and their own Use; and if any such Owner or Occupier of Lands next adjoining to the said Highways, shall neglect to clear the said Ways of the said Nusances, or to cleanse or scower their Ditches, Gutters, and Drains, adjoining to the said Highways, or cause the Earth taken out thereof to be carried away and lay sufficient Trunks, Tunnels, or Bridges, where any Cartways are, into the said Grounds, for the Space of ten Days after Notice to him, her, or them given by the said Surveyors, or any of them, he, she, or they, so neglecting shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of five Shillings, to be levied and disposed of in Manner aforesaid.

5 s. Penalty upon Owner not stubbing up Trees, &c.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Tree, Bush, or Shrub, shall be permitted to stand or grow in any Highway not full twenty Foot broad, but the same shall be cut down, grubbed up, and carried away, by the Owner or Owners of the Land or Soil where the same doth or shall stand or grow, within ten Days after Notice to him or them given by the said Surveyors, or any of them, on pain to forfeit for every Neglect the Sum of five Shillings, to be levied and disposed as is aforesaid.

Possessors shall prune the Hedges.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, that the Possessors of the Land next adjoining to such Highways, where they are not twenty Foot broad, shall from Time to Time, and at all Times, keep their Hedges plasht, cut, or pruned, so as no Tree, Bush, or Shrub, shall stand or grow in such Highway, nor any Bough or Branch be suffered to hang over the same, or any Part thereof; but the said Hedges shall be kept cut and pared right up from the Roots, and not permitted in any Sort to spread into or hang over the Highway, or any Part thereof, to the End that there may be a free and clear Passage for Travellers, and all Sorts of Carriages loaden, without being any ways prejudiced or obstructed by any Hedges, Trees, Boughs, or Branches whatsoever, and that the Sun may freely shine into the said Ways, to dry and amend the same.

Surveyor shall present the State of the Highways to a Justice every four Months.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Surveyor of the Highways, appointed as in and by this Act is directed, shall within fourteen Days next after his first Acceptance of the said Office, and so from Time to Time every four Months, during his being Surveyor, take a View of all the Roads, common Highways, Watercourses, Bridges, Causeways, and Pavements within the Parish, Town, Village, Hamlet, Precinct, or Tything, for which he is appointed Surveyor, that are to be repaired by the said Parish, Town, Village, Hamlet, Precinct, or Tything, and shall make a Presentment upon Oath, in what State and Condition he finds the same respectively, to some Justice of the Peace of the same Division, if then resident there, otherwise to some neighbouring Justice of the Peace for the said County,

County, and in Default thereof shall incur the Penalty aforesaid, as if he or they had refused or neglected to accept and execute the said Office, unless he shall have some reasonable Excuse for omitting the same, to be allowed of by two Justices of the Peace of the same Division of the County, or in Default thereof by the two neighbouring Justices; and what Defaults or Annoiances they shall find in any of the said Highways, Causways, Bridges, Ditches, Hedges, Trees, Watercourses, Drains, or Gutters, next adjoining to the same, they shall from Time to Time, the next Sunday immediately after Sermon ended, give publick Notice of the same in the Parish Church, and if the same shall not be removed, repaired, and amended, within thirty Days after such Notice given, that then the said Surveyor or Surveyors of the said Highways shall within thirty Days remove, repair, and amend the same, and dispose of the same Annoiances to and for the Repair of the said Highways; and the said Surveyor and Surveyors shall be reimbursed what Charges and Expences they shall be at in so doing, by the Parties who should have done the same; and in case the said Parties shall upon Demand refuse or neglect to pay the said Surveyors their said Charges, then the said Surveyors shall apply him or themselves to any Justice of the Peace within the Division of the County wherein such Highway is, and in default thereof, to any neighbouring Justice for the said County, and upon his or their making Oath before such Justice of the Notice to the Defaulter in Manner aforesaid (which Oath the said Justice is impowered and required to administer) that then the said Surveyors shall be repaid all such their Charges as shall be allowed to be reasonable by the said Justice, to be levied in Manner aforesaid.

Neglect punished as Refusal. By 1 Geo. 1. stat. 2. c. 52. §. 2. Neglects of Labourers to be also presented. Defaults published in the Church, and if not amended within 30 Days, Surveyor shall repair them, and be repaid by the Person who ought to repair. How the Surveyor shall recover his Disbursements.

IX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Justices of the Peace of every County shall in their respective Divisions once in four Months hold a special Sessions, and shall thereunto summon all the Surveyors of Highways within that Division to come before them, and shall give them a Charge to do their Duty, and declare to them what they are obliged to do by virtue of this or any former Act; after which the said Surveyors of the Highways shall make a Presentment to them upon Oath (which Oath the said Justices are hereby impowered to give) of the State and Condition of the Highways within their respective Parishes, Towns, Villages, Hamlets, Precincts, or Tythings for which they are appointed Surveyors, and what Offences and Neglects any are guilty of, contrary to the Meaning of this or any other Statute made concerning the Highways, or any Thing relating thereunto; and before any Surveyor of the Highways shall go out of or be discharged from his Office, he shall at some such special Sessions of the said Justices, to be held as aforesaid, give an Account upon Oath of all Money that has come to his Hands, which ought to be employed in amending of the Highways, and how he hath disposed of the same; and in case any Monies shall remain in his Hands, he shall deliver the same to the Surveyors of the Highways that shall serve for the same Parish, Town, Village, Hamlet, Precinct, or Tything, for the Year ensuing, and in case of Failure, to forfeit the double Value of what shall be adjudged to be in his Hands by the said Justices, to be levied and disposed of as is aforesaid.

Justices of Peace once in 4 Months to hold a petty Session, where they are to receive Presentments, and take the Accounts of the Surveyors. Penalty upon Surveyor, not paying Surplus Money to his Successors.

X. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Surveyor of the Highways, after his Acceptance of his said Office, shall neglect his Duty in any Thing required of him by this Act, he shall forfeit for every such Offence the Sum of forty Shillings, to be levied and disposed of as is aforesaid.

40 s. Penalty upon Surveyors Neglect.

XI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Justice of the Peace shall neglect or refuse to do what is required of him by this Act, such Justice so neglecting or refusing shall forfeit the Sum of five Pounds; one Moiety whereof shall go to the Person that shall sue for the same, the other Moiety to be employed to and for the Repair and Amendment of the Highways of the Parish where the Person who shall sue for the same inhabits, to be recovered in any of their Majesties Courts of Record, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in which no Privilege, Protection, or Wager of Law shall be allowed, or more than one Imparlance.

5 l. Penalty upon the Neglect of Justice of Peace.

XII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Surveyors of the Highways aforesaid, where the Ditches and Drains already made are not sufficient to carry off the Water that lies upon the Highways, to make new Ditches and Drains in and through the Lands next adjoining to the said Highways, and keep them scoured, cleansed, and open, and come upon any of the said Lands with their Workmen for so doing.

Surveyors may make new Ditches in Lands adjoining.

' XIII. And whereas divers Parishes and Townships have not any Gravel, Stones, Quarries, nor any ' other Materials fitting or convenient for the amending or repairing of the Highways within the said Pa- ' rishes and Townships, by reason whereof the Surveyors of the Highways of such Parishes and Town- ' ships are forced to lay out their own Money for the buying of such Materials as are necessary for that ' Purpose; and there being no Provision made in or by any Law now in force, for the reimbursing the said ' Surveyors the Monies they have so laid out:' For Remedy whereof be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That upon Notice given by the Surveyor or Surveyors of the Highways to the Justices of the Peace at their special Sessions, and Oath made of what Sum or Sums of Money he or they have or hath so laid out and expended upon amending and repairing of the said Highways, the Justices of the Peace, or any two of them, at their special Sessions, are hereby impowered, by Warrant under their Hands and Seals, to cause an equal Rate to be made for the reimbursing the said Surveyor or Surveyors the Monies by him or them laid out as aforesaid, upon all the Inhabitants of such Parish or Townships, where such Monies are so expended, according to the Rules and Methods prescribed in an Act of Parliament made in the three and fortieth Year of the Reign of the late Queen Elizabeth, intituled, An Act for the better Relief of the Poor of this Kingdom, which Rate, being confirmed and allowed by the said Justices Surveyor laying out Money for Gravel Stones, &c. shall be repaid by an equal Rate, to be levied by Distress. 43 Eliz. c. 2.

in their ſpecial Seſſions, ſhall be collected and gathered by the ſaid Surveyor or Surveyors of the Highways; and if any Perſon or Perſons refuſe to pay the Monies ſo aſſeſſed on him or them, that then the ſame ſhall be levied by the ſaid Surveyors by Diſtreſs and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Perſons ſo refuſing, rendering to the Party the Overplus, reaſonable Charges for making the ſaid Diſtreſs firſt to be deducted.

5 Eliz. c. 13. Fines ſhall be paid to the Surveyor and not returned into the Exchequer.

'XIV. And whereas in purſuance of the Statute made in the fifth Year of the Reign of the late Queen Elizabeth, many Pariſhes and places are oftentimes preſented upon the Knowledge and View of a Juſtice 'of Peace, or otherwiſe, for not repairing and amending their Highways, and the Fines impoſed and ſet 'on ſuch Preſentments, and other Fines and Iſſues for not repairing and amending the Highways, are re- 'turned into the Court of Exchequer, or other Courts, and ſuch Fines and Iſſues againſt ſuch Pariſhes for 'not amending their Highways, are levied on ſome particular Inhabitants of ſuch Pariſhes or Places, and 'there being no Proviſion made for the making of a Rate to reimburſe ſuch particular Inhabitants;' Be it therefore further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Fine, Iſſue, Penalty, or Forfeiture, ſhall hereafter be returned into the Court of Exchequer, or other Court, but ſhall be levied and paid into the Hands of the Surveyors of ſuch Pariſh or Place, to be applied towards the Repair and Amendment of ſuch Highway; and that if any Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture, impoſed on any Pariſh or Place for not repairing the Highways, ſhall hereafter be levied on any one or more of the Inhabitants of ſuch Pariſh or Place, that then ſuch Inhabitant or Inhabitants ſhall make his or their Complaint to the Juſtices of the Peace at their ſpecial Seſſions, and the ſaid Juſtices, or any two of them, are hereby impowered and authorized, by Warrant under their Hands and Seals, to cauſe a Rate to be made, according to the Form and Manner aforeſaid, for the reimburſing ſuch Inhabitant or Inhabitants the Monies ſo levied on him or them as aforeſaid, which Rate ſo made and confirmed by two Juſtices, as aforeſaid, ſhall be collected and levied by the Surveyor or Surveyors of the Highways of ſuch Pariſh or Place ſo preſented or indicted as aforeſaid, and the ſaid Surveyor or Surveyors ſhall, within one Month next after the making and confirming the Rate aforeſaid, pay unto the Inhabitant or Inhabitants ſuch Money ſo levied on him or them as aforeſaid.

If Fine laid upon one Inhabitant, how he ſhall be repaid.

All Cart Ways to be 8 Foot wide.

XV. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Surveyors of the Highways ſhall and are hereby required to make every Cart-way leading to any Market-Town, eight Foot wide at the leaſt, and as near as may be, even and level.

Inhabitants within the Weekly Bills, what Carts they may uſe. See 2 W. & M. ſeſſ. 2. c. 8. §. 19. Rep. 18 Geo. 2. c. 33.

XVI. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, that it ſhall and may be lawful to and for any Inhabitant of any of the Pariſhes within the weekly Bills of Mortality, who dwells off from the Pavement, or uſes his Carts as well off as upon the Pavement, and to and for any Brewer, and to and for any Scavenger, or other Perſon employed in carrying away the Dirt and Soil of the Streets, Lanes, and Alleys, to make uſe of any Cart, Car, or Dray, with Wheels ſhod with Iron, and narrower than ſix Inches in the Felloes, and drawn with more than two Horſes; any Act of Parliament, Law, or Uſage to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Juſtices may in Seſſions order an Aſſeſſment to be made, to repair the Ways. Explained by 1 Geo. 1. ſtat. 2. c. 52. §. 6.

XVII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That where the Juſtices of the Peace of any County, City, Borough, or other Place, or the major Part of them, at their General or Quarter-ſeſſions, ſhall be fully ſatisfied, that the common Highways, Cauſeways, Bridges, Streets, or Pavements, within any Pariſh, Townſhip, Hamlet, or other Place within their reſpective Juriſdiction, cannot otherwiſe be ſufficiently amended, repaired, paved, cleanſed, and ſupported, by means of the Laws now in Force, without the Help of this preſent Act, in all ſuch Caſes, one or more Aſſeſſment or Aſſeſſments upon all and every the Inhabitants, Owners, and Occupiers of Lands, Houſes, Tenements, and Hereditaments, or any perſonal Eſtate uſually rateable to the Poor, within any ſuch Pariſh, Townſhip, Hamlet, or other Place, ſhall be made, levied, collected, and allowed by ſuch Perſon and Perſons, and in ſuch Manner, as the ſaid Juſtices by their Order at ſuch Seſſions ſhall direct and appoint in that Behalf; and the Money thereby raiſed ſhall be employed and accounted for according to the Orders and Directions of the ſaid Juſtices, for and towards the amending, repairing, paving, cleanſing, and ſupporting ſuch Highways, Cauſeways, Streets, Pavements, and Bridges, from Time to Time, as Need ſhall require; and the ſaid Aſſeſſments ſhall be levied by Diſtreſs and Sale of the Goods of every Perſon ſo aſſeſſed (not paying the ſame within ten Days after Demand) rendering the Overplus of the Value of the Goods ſo diſtrained, to the Owner and Owners thereof; the neceſſary Charges of making and ſelling ſuch Diſtreſs being firſt deducted.

Aſſeſſment not to exceed 6d. in the Pound.

XVIII. Provided nevertheleſs, and be it enacted, That no ſuch Aſſeſſment or Aſſeſſments, to be made in any one Year, ſhall exceed the Rate of ſix Pence in the Pound of the yearly Value of any Lands, Houſes, Tenements, and Hereditaments ſo aſſeſſed, nor the Rate of ſix Pence for twenty Pounds in perſonal Eſtate.

Perſons aggrieved may appeal to the Seſſions.

XIX. Provided always, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall find him or themſelves aggrieved with any Aſſeſſment or Rate, or other Act, by the ſaid Juſtices of Peace, that then it ſhall be lawful for the Juſtices of the Peace at their general Quarter-Seſſions, or the greater Number of them, to take ſuch Order therein as to them ſhall be thought convenient, and the ſame to conclude and bind all the ſaid Parties.

Perſon hereby puniſhed, to be proſecuted within ſix Months, and puniſhable no other Way.

XX. Provided alſo, That no Perſon ſhall be puniſhed for any Offence againſt this Act, unleſs ſuch Offender be proſecuted for the ſame within ſix Months after the Offence committed; and that no Perſon, who ſhall be puniſhed for any Offence by virtue of this Act, ſhall be puniſhed for the ſame Offence by virtue of any other Act or Law whatſoever.

XXI. And be it further enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That no Horse, Causway, or Causway for Horses travelling upon or in any publick Highway, be less or under three Foot in Breadth. Breadth of Horse Causways.

XXII. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Justices of the Peace of the County of Middlesex, at their General Quarter-sessions, to make Rates for the paving the Town of Kensington within the said County, in all such Places thereof as they shall think convenient, and to amend, repair, and cleanse the same, upon old Streets and Houses, as well as new, in such Manner as is directed by one Act made in the second Year of their Majesties Reign, for paving and cleansing the Streets in the Cities of London and Westminster. Magistrates of Middlesex may make Rates for paving the Town of Kensington.

XXIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Matters concerning Highways, Causways, Pavements, and Bridges, mentioned in this Act, shall be determined in the County where the same do lie, and not elsewhere: And that no Presentment, Indictment, or Order made by virtue of this Act, shall be removed by Certiorari out of the said County into any other Court. No Certiorari of any Order &c. upon this Act.

'XXIV. And whereas divers Waggoners and other Carriers, by Combination amongst themselves, 'have raised the Prices of Carriage of Goods in many Places to excessive Rates, to the great Injury of 'Trade;' Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Justices of the Peace of every County and other Place within the Realm of England, or Dominion of Wales, shall have Power and Authority, and are hereby injoined and required, at their next respective Quarter or General Sessions after Easter Day yearly, do assess and rate the Prices of all Land-carriage of Goods whatsoever, to be brought into any Place or Places within their respective Limits and Jurisdictions, by any common Waggoner or Carrier, and the Rates and Assessments so made, to certify to the several Mayors and other chief Officers of each respective Market-town within the Limits and Jurisdictions of such Justices of the Peace, to be hung up in some publick Place in every such Market-town, to which all Persons may resort for their Information; and that no such common Waggoner or Carrier shall take for Carriage of such Goods and Merchandizes above the Rates and Prices so set, upon Pain to forfeit for every such Offence the Sum of five Pounds to be levied by Distress and Sale of his and their Goods, by Warrant of any two Justices of the Peace where such Waggoner or Carrier shall reside, in Manner aforesaid, to the Use of the Party grieved. Justices once a Year to settle the Rates of Carriage. 5*l.* Penalty upon Carrier taking above the Rate.

XXV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Action or Suit shall be hereafter commenced or prosecuted against any Person or Persons by this Act authorized to put the same in Execution, every Person or Persons so sued may plead the general Issue, and give this Act and the special Matter in Evidence; and if the Plaintiff shall become nonsuit, or forbear further Prosecution, or suffer Discontinuance, or if a Verdict pass against him or her, the said Defendant and Defendants shall recover his and their double Costs, for which he and they shall have the like Remedy, as in Cases where Costs by Law are given to Defendants. Persons prosecuted for executing this Act, may plead General Issue, and have Double Costs.

CAP. XIII.

An Act against corresponding with their Majesties Enemies. EXP.

CAP. XIV.

An Act for the Relief of Creditors against fraudulent Devises.

'WHEREAS it is not reasonable or just, that by the Practice or Contrivance of any Debtors their Creditors should be defrauded of their just Debts; and nevertheless it hath often so happened, that where several Persons having by Bonds or other Specialties bound themselves and their Heirs, and have afterwards died seized in Fee-simple of and in Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, or had Power or Authority to dispose of or charge the same by their Wills or Testaments, have to the defrauding of such their Creditors, by their Last Wills or Testaments devised the same, or disposed thereof in such Manner as such Creditors have lost their said Debts:' For remedying of which, and for the Maintenance of just and upright Dealing,

II. Be it enacted and declared by the King's and Queen's most Excellent Majesties, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by Authority of the same, That all Wills and Testaments, Limitations, Dispositions, or Appointments, of or concerning any Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, or of any Rent, Profit, Term, or Charge out of the same, whereof any Person or Persons, at the Time of his, her, or their Decease, shall be seized in Fee-simple, in Possession, Reversion, or Remainder, or have Power to dispose of the same, by his, her, or their last Wills or Testaments, to be made after the five and twentieth Day of March in the Year of our Lord God one thousand six hundred ninety and two, shall be Wills fraudulent against Creditors.

deemed and taken (only as againſt ſuch Creditor or Creditors as aforeſaid, his, her, and their Heirs, Succeſſors, Executors, Adminiſtrators, and Aſſigns, and every of them) to be fraudulent, and clearly, abſo- Vin. V. 13. 521. lutely, and utterly void, fruſtrate, and of none Effect; any Pretence, Colour, feigned or preſumed Conſideration, or any other Matter or Thing to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Debt upon Bond jointly ſuable againſt the Heir and Deviſee of an Obligor. Deviſee chargeable for a falſe Plea, as an Heir.

III. And for the Means that ſuch Creditors may be enabled to recover their ſaid Debts, be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in the Caſes before mentioned, every ſuch Creditor ſhall and may have and maintain his, her, and their Action and Actions of Debt, upon his, her, and their ſaid Bonds and Specialties, againſt the Heir and Heirs at Law of ſuch Obligor or Obligors, and ſuch Deviſee and Deviſees, jointly by virtue of this Act; and ſuch Deviſee or Deviſees ſhall be liable and chargeable for a falſe Plea by him or them pleaded, in the ſame Manner as any Heir ſhould have been for any falſe Plea by him pleaded, or for not confeſſing the Lands or Tenements to him deſcended.

Deviſe for raiſing Portions, purſuant to a Marriage Contract, good.

IV. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, that where there hath been or ſhall be any Limitation or Appointment, Deviſe or Diſpoſition, of or concerning any Manors, Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditamens, for the raiſing or Payment of any real and juſt Debt or Debts, or any Portion or Portions, Sum or Sums of Money, for any Child or Children of any Perſon, other than the Heir at Law, according to, or in purſuance of any Marriage Contract or Agreement in Writing bona fide made before ſuch Marriage, the ſame and every of them ſhall be in full Force; and the ſame Manors, Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, ſhall and may be holden and enjoyed by every ſuch Perſon or Perſons, his, her, and their Heirs, Executors, Adminiſtrators, and Aſſigns, for whom the ſaid Limitation, Appointment, Deviſe, or Diſpoſition was made, and by his, her, and their Truſtee or Truſtees, his, her, and their Heirs, Executors, Adminiſtrators, and Aſſigns, for ſuch Eſtate or Intereſt as ſhall be ſo limited, or appointed, deviſed or diſpoſed, until ſuch Debt or Debts, Portion or Portions, ſhall be raiſed, paid, and ſatisfied; any Thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

If the Heir aliene before Action brought, he ſhall be liable to the Value of the Land.

'V. And whereas ſeveral Perſons being Heirs at Law, to avoid the Payment of ſuch juſt Debts, as in 'regard of the Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments deſcending to them they have by Law been li- 'able to pay, have ſold, aliened, or made over ſuch Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, before any Pro- 'ceſs was or could be iſſued out againſt them;' Be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in all Caſes where any Heir at Law ſhall be liable to pay the Debt of his Anceſtor in regard of any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments deſcending to him, and ſhall ſell, aliene, or make over the ſame, before any Action brought, or Proceſs ſued out againſt him, that ſuch Heir at Law ſhall be anſwerable for ſuch Debt or Debts, in an Action or Actions of Debt, to the Value of the ſaid Land ſo by him ſold, aliened, or made over; in which Caſes all Creditors ſhall be preferred, as in Actions againſt Executors and Adminiſtrators, and ſuch Execution ſhall be taken out upon any Judgment or Judgments ſo obtained againſt ſuch Heir, to the Value of the ſaid Land, as if the ſame were his own proper Debt or Debts; ſaving that the Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments bona fide aliened before the Action brought, ſhall not be liable to ſuch Execution.

Creditors preferred, as in Actions againſt Executors.

Upon Riens per Deſcent pleaded, Jury ſhall enquire of the Value of the Lands. Otherwiſe, if Judgment by Confeſſion, for Debt and Damages. Carthew 353, 354.

VI. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That where any Action of Debt upon any Specialty is brought againſt any Heir, he may plead Riens per Deſcent, at the Time of the original Writ brought, or the Bill filed againſt him; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding; and the Plaintiff in ſuch Action may reply, that he had Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, from his Anceſtor before the original Writ brought, or Bill filed; and if upon Iſſue joined thereupon, it be found for the Plaintiff, the Jury ſhall enquire of the Value of the Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments ſo deſcended, and thereupon Judgment ſhall be given, and Execution ſhall be awarded as aforeſaid; but if Judgment be given againſt ſuch Heir by Confeſſion of the Action, without confeſſing the Aſſets deſcended, or upon Demurrer, or Nihil dicit, it ſhall be for the Debt and Damages, without any Writ to enquire of the Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments ſo deſcended.

Deviſee chargeable as Heir.

VII. Provided alſo, and be it further enacted, That all and every Deviſee, and Deviſees, made liable by this Act, ſhall be liable and chargeable in the ſame Manner as the Heir at Law by Force of this Act, notwithſtanding the Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, to him or them deviſed, ſhall be aliened before the Action brought. Provided always, That this Act ſhall be in Force for three Years, and to the End of the next Seſſion of Parliament after the Expiration of the ſaid three Years and no longer. [Made perpetual by 6 & 7 W. 3. cap. 14.]

To continue for 3 Years.

An Act for granting to their Majeſties an Aid of four Shillings in the Pound for one Year for carrying on a vigorous War againſt France. EXP.

WE your Majeſties moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons aſſembled in Parliament, having ſeriouſly conſidered of the great Occaſions which engage your Majeſties to many extraordinary Ex-pences for the neceſſary Defence of your Realms, and the Proſecution of a vigorous War againſt France, have cheerfully and unanuſly given and granted unto your Majeſties the Rates and Aſſeſſments hereafter mentioned. And we moſt humbly beſeech your Majeſties, that it may be enacted,

II. And be it enacted by the King's and Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſties, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That their Majeſties ſhall have and receive the Rates and Aſſeſſments hereafter mentioned, of and from every Perſon Spiritual and Temporal, of what Eſtate or Degree ſoever he or they be; which ſaid Rates or Aſſeſſments ſhall be taxed, aſſeſſed, levied, and paid into their Majeſties Receipt of Exchequer according to the Tenor of this Act, and in manner and form following, (that is to ſay) That all and every Perſon and Perſons, Bodies Politick and Corporate, Guilds, and Fraternities within this Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, having any Eſtate in ready Monies, or in any Debts whatſoever owing to them, within this Realm or without, or having any Eſtate in Goods, Wares, Merchandiſes, or other Chattels or perſonal Eſtate whatſoever, within this Realm or without, belonging to or in Truſt for them (except and out of the Premiſſes deducted ſuch Sums of Money as he or they do bona fide owe, and ſuch Debts owing to them as ſhall be adjudged deſperate by the Commiſſioners appointed by this Act; And alſo the Stock upon Lands and ſuch Goods as are uſed for Houſhold-ſtuff; And alſo other than and except the joint Stocks or Shares of ſuch Bodies corporate, Companies or Fraternities as ſhall be otherwiſe charged by Name in any other Act to be made during this preſent Seſſion of Parliament) ſhall yield and pay unto their Majeſties four Shillings in the Pound, according to the true yearly Value thereof, for one Year; (that is to ſay) for every hundred Pounds of ſuch ready Money and Debts, and for every hundred Pounds worth of ſuch Goods, Wares, Merchandiſes, or other Chattels, or other perſonal Eſtate, the Sum of four and twenty Shillings; And ſo after that Rate for every greater or leſſer Sum or Quantity, to be aſſeſſed, levied and collected in manner hereafter mentioned.

All Perſons, Bodies Politick, &c. having any Eſtate in ready Monies or Debt, or having any Eſtate in Goods, Wares, or other perſonal Eſtate whatſoever, deducting Monies, bona fide owing, and deſperate Debts; and except Stock upon Land and Houſhold-ſtuff, and the joint Stocks of Companies, which ſhall be otherwiſe charged by Name in any Act of this Seſſion, ſhall pay 4s. for every 100l.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every Perſon and Perſons, Commiſſioner or Commiſſioners, having, uſing, or exerciſing any publick Office or Employment of profit (ſuch Military Officers, who are or ſhall be in Muſter by the Muſter-maſter-general of the Army, or in Pay in their Majeſties Army or Navy in reſpect of ſuch Offices only excepted) and all and every their Agents, Clerks, Secondaries, Subſtitutes, and other inferior Miniſters whatſoever, ſhall yield and pay unto their Majeſties the Sum of four Shillings for every twenty Shillings, which he or they do receive in one Year, by Virtue of any Salaries, Gratuities, Bounty-money, Reward, Fees or Profits to him or them accruing, for or by Reaſon or Occaſion of their ſeveral Offices or Employments, to be aſſeſſed, impoſed, levied, and collected, in ſuch Manner as hereafter is mentioned.

Perſons having any Office or Imployment of Profit (except Military Officers in Muſter and Pay in the Army or Navy) to pay 4s. in the Pound for Salaries or Profits.

IV. And to the End a further Aid and Supply for their Majeſties Occaſions may be raiſed, by a Charge upon all Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, with as much Equality and Indifferency as is poſſible, by a Pound-rate of four Shillings for every twenty Shillings, of the true yearly Value for one Year only and no longer: Be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every Manors, Meſſuages, Lands and Tenements; As alſo all Quarries, Mines of Coal, Tin or Lead, Copper, Mundick Iron, or other Mines, Iron Works, Salt Springs, and Salt Works; All Allom Mines or Works; All Parks, Chaces, Warrens, Woods, Underwoods, Coppices, and all Fiſhings, Tythes, Tolls, Annuities, and all other Yearly Profits; And all Hereditaments of what Nature or Kind ſoever they be, ſcituate, lying, and being, happening or ariſing, within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, or within any the Counties, Cities, Burroughs, Towns, Diviſions, Ridings, Hundreds, Lathes, Wapentakes, Pariſhes and Places thereof, as well within ancient Demeſne, and other Liberties and priviledged Places, as without, ſhall be, and are hereby charged for one Year only, and no longer, with the Sum of four Shillings for every twenty Shillings, of the full yearly Value, and ſo in proportion for any grater or leſſer Value; And all and every Perſon and Perſons, Bodies Politick and Corporate, Guilds, Myſteries, Fraternities and Brotherhoods, whether corporate or not corporate, having or holding any Manors, Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments or other the Premiſſes, ſhall yield and pay unto their Majeſties the Sum of four Shillings for every twenty Shillings by the Year, which the ſaid Manors, Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments and other the Premiſſes are now worth to be leaſed, if the ſame were truly and bona fide leaſed or demiſed at a Rack-rent, and according to the full true yearly Value thereof, without any reſpect had to the preſent Rents reſerved for the ſame, if ſuch Rents have been reſerved upon ſuch Leaſes or Eſtates made, for which any Fine or Income hath been paid or ſecured, or have been leſſened or abated upon Conſideration of Money laid out or to be laid out in Improvements, and without any reſpect had to any former Rates or Taxes thereupon impoſed, or making

All Manors, Lands, Tenements, yearly Profits and Hereditaments, charged with 4s. in the Pound of the true yearly Value.

All Perſons, Bodies Politick, &c. pay 4s. in the Pound, of what now worth to be leaſed bona fide at a Rack-rent, &c. without reſpect to Repairs, Taxes Pariſh Duties or other Charges.

any Abatement in respect to Reparations, Taxes, Parish Duties or any other Charges whatsoever, which said Sum of four and twenty Shillings for the yearly Profit of every hundred Pounds Value of all personal Estates, as aforesaid, and four Shillings for every twenty Shillings by the Year of the said true yearly Value of all other the Premisses shall be assessed, levied and collected in manner hereafter mentioned, and shall be paid into the Receipt of their Majesties Exchequer by four quarterly Payments; the first Payment thereof to be made upon the five and twentieth Day of March which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand six hundred ninety-three.

To be paid at four quarterly Payments. The first Payment the 25th of March 1693.

V. And whereas many of the Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, Tythes, Hereditaments and Premisses intended by this Act to be charged with the Pound-rate, as aforesaid, stand incumbred with or are subject and liable to the Payment of several Rent-charges or Annuities issuing out of the same, or to the Payment of divers fee-farm Rents, Rents-service or other Rents thereupon reserved or charged, by reason whereof the true Owners and Proprietors of such Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments and Premisses do not in Truth receive to their own Use the true yearly Value of the same, for which nevertheless they are by this Act charged to pay the full Pound-rate of four Shillings for every twenty Shillings of the true yearly Value:

Where Lands, &c. are subject to Rents, Charges, Annuities, or other Rents.

VI. It is therefore declared and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Landlords, Owners and Proprietors of such Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments and Premisses as are charged with the Pound-rate, as aforesaid, to abate and deduct and to retain and keep in his or their Hands four Shillings in the Pound for every fee-farm Rent or other annual Rent or Payment charged upon or issuing out of the Premisses, or any Part thereof or thereupon reserved; and all and every Person and Persons, who are or shall be any way intitled to such Rents and annual Payments, are hereby required to allow such Deductions and Payments, upon the Receipt of the Residue of such Monies as shall be due and payable to them for such Rents or annual Payments reserved or charged as aforesaid.

The Landlords and Owners deduct 4 s. in the Pound for such Rents, which shall be allowed by the Persons intitled to such Rents upon Payment of the Residue.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That for the better assessing, ordering, levying and collecting of the several Sums of Money so as aforesaid limited and appointed to be paid, and for the more effectual putting of this present Act in Execution, all and every the Persons hereafter named shall be Commissioners of and for the several and respective Counties, Cities, Boroughs, Towns and Places hereafter mentioned.

[Here follow the Names of the Commissioners.]

VIII. Which said Commissioners so, as aforesaid, nominated and appointed, shall in the respective Counties, Cities, Boroughs, Divisions, Towns and Places for which they are appointed Commissioners respectively, meet together at the most usual and common Place of Meeting within each of the said Counties, Cities, Boroughs, Towns, Divisions and Places respectively, upon the fifteenth Day of February, which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand six hundred ninety and two, and the said Commissioners, or so many of them as shall be present at the first General Meeting, or the major Part of them, may by their Consents and Agreements divide, as well themselves, as other the Commissions not then present, for the Execution of this Act, into Hundreds, Lathes, Wapentakes, Rapes, Wards, Towns, and other Places within their Limits, privileged or not privileged in such Manner and Form as to them shall seem expedient (nevertheless not thereby to restrain the said Commissioners from acting as Commissioners in any other Part of the County or Place for which they are nominated) and shall direct their several or joint Precept or Precepts to such Inhabitants, High-constables, Petty-constables, Bailiffs and other like Officers, and Ministers, and such Number of them as they in their Discretion shall think most convenient, requiring them to appear before the said Commissioners at such Place and Time (not exceeding ten Days) as they shall appoint. And at such their Appearances, the said Commissioners shall openly read or cause to be read unto them the Rates and Assessments in this Act mentioned, and also openly declare the Effect of their Charge to them, and how and in what Manner they ought and should make their Certificates, and how they ought to proceed in the Execution of this Act, according to the Rates aforesaid. And if any High-constables, Petty-constables, Bailiffs, Inhabitants, or other Officers or Ministers, to whom any Precept shall be directed, shall absent themselves without lawful Excuse to be made out by the Oaths of two credible Witnesses (which Oaths the Commissioners or any two of them are hereby impowered to administer) or if any Person appearing shall refuse to serve, then every such Person so making default, or refusing to serve, shall for every Time of such Default or Refusal, forfeit and lose unto their Majesties such Sums as the Commissioners, or so many as shall be present, or the major Part of them being present, shall think fit, not exceeding the Sum of five Pounds, nor less than forty Shillings. And at and after such General Meeting had, and Charge given, as aforesaid, the said Commissioners shall take Care that Warrants be issued forth and directed to two at the least of the most able and sufficient Inhabitants of each Parish, Town-ship or Place within the respective Divisions, thereby appointing and requiring them to be Assessors of Commissioners to meet upon the 15th of February, and then to divide themselves for the Execution of the Act;

Such Division not to restrain Commissioners from acting in any other Part of the County.

Direct Precepts to such Inhabitants, &c. as they shall think convenient, requiring them to appear at a Place and Time not exceeding ten Days.

Then to read the Rates, and charge them with the Execution of the Act.

Persons to whom Precepts directed, absenting without Excuse, to forfeit a Sum not exceeding 5 l. nor less then 40 s.

At or after such general Meeting, Commissioners to direct Warrants to two of the most sufficient Inhabitants of each Parish, &c. requiring them to be Assessors, and to prefix the Aſſeſſors a Day and Place to bring in Certificates in writing of the Names of Perſons in the Limits, and of their Subſtances in ready Money, Debts, Goods, Chattels, or other Perſonal Eſtate, or in Offices or Imployments of Profit.

of all and every the Rates and Duties by this Act impoſed, and ſhall therein alſo appoint and prefix a certain Day and Place for the ſaid Aſſeſſors to appear before them, and to bring in their Certificates in Writing of the Names and Sirnames of every Perſon dwelling and reſiding within the Limits of thoſe Places with which they ſhall be charged, and of the Subſtance and Values of every of them in ready Money, Debts, Goods, Chattels or other perſonal Eſtate whatſoever (except before excepted) or in publick Offices or Imployments of Profit. And the ſaid Aſſeſſors are therein alſo to be required, and are hereby injoined to aſcertain and inform themſelves, by all lawful Ways and Means they can, of the true and full yearly Value of all Manors, Meſſuages, Lands, and Tenements, as alſo of all Quarries, Mines of Coal, Tin or Lead, Copper, Mundick or other Mines, Iron Works, Salt Springs, and Salt Works, Allom Mines and Works, Parks, Chaſes, Warrens, Woods, Under-woods and Coppices, and all Fiſhings, Tythes, Tolls, Annuities and other yearly Profits, and of all Hereditaments of what Nature or Kind ſoever ſituate, lying and being, happening or ariſing within the Limits of thoſe Places with which they ſhall be charged: And being ſo thereof aſcertained, they are to aſſeſs all and every the ſaid Manors, Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements and Premiſſes before appointed to be charged after the Rate of four Shillings for every twenty Shillings of the full yearly Value, as the ſame are let for, or worth to be let at the Time of aſſeſſing thereof, as aforeſaid, and to bring with them, at the Time and Place ſo as aforeſaid prefixed for their Appearance, a Certificate in Writing of the ſaid Aſſeſſment, and ſhall then alſo return the Names of Two or more able and ſufficient Perſons living within the Limits and Bounds of thoſe Pariſhes, Town-ſhips, Conſtablewicks or Places where they ſhall be chargeable reſpectively, to be Collectors of the Monies, to be paid to their Majeſties by this Act; for whoſe paying in to the Head Collector in Manner hereafter mentioned, ſuch Monies as they ſhall be charged withal, the Pariſh or Place wherein they are ſo imployed ſhall be anſwerable. And if any Aſſeſſor ſo, as aforeſaid, appointed or to be appointed ſhall neglect or refuſe to ſerve, or ſhall make Default at the Time appointed for his Appearance (not having a lawful Excuſe to be witneſſed by the Oaths of two credible Witneſſes, which the ſaid Commiſſioners or any two of them have Power to adminiſter) or ſhall not perform his Duty, every ſuch Aſſeſſor ſhall for every ſuch Neglect, Refuſal or Default, forfeit and loſe unto their Majeſties ſuch Sum as the Commiſſioners, or ſo many of them as ſhall be preſent, or the major Part of them ſhall think fit, not exceeding the Sum of twenty Pounds, nor under the Sum of ten Pounds, to be levied by Diſtreſs and Sale of the Offenders Goods and Chattels, in like manner, as by this Act is appointed for levying the ſeveral Rates and Aſſeſſments herein mentioned, in caſe of Neglect or Refuſal of Payment, and to be charged upon the reſpective Receivers General, together with the ſaid Rates and Aſſeſſments. And every Aſſeſſor ſo as aforeſaid appointed, or to be appointed, ſhall before he take upon him the Execution of the ſaid Imployment take the Oaths mentioned and required to be taken, by an Act made in the Parliament held in the firſt Year of their Majeſties Reign, entituled, An Act for the abrogating the Oaths of Supremacy and Allegiance, and appointing other Oaths, (which Oaths any two Commiſſioners in the County where the ſaid Aſſeſſment is to be made, have hereby Power, and are required hereby to adminiſter.)

The Aſſeſſors to inform themſelves by all lawful Ways of the full yearly Value of all Manors and Hereditaments.

And then to Aſſeſs after the Rate 4 s. per Pound, of the full yearly Value, and to bring at the Time prefixed a Certificate of the Aſſeſſment, and to return two or more able Perſons to be Collectors; for whoſe Payment to the Head-collectors the Pariſh or Place to be anſwerable.

Aſſeſſors neglecting or refuſing to ſerve, or making default, forfeit a Sum not exceeding 20 l. or leſs than 10 l. to be levied by Diſtreſs and Sale of Goods, and to be charged upon the Receiver General, together with the Rates and Aſſeſſments.

Every Aſſeſſor before he acts to take the Oaths.

IX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Rates and Aſſeſſments upon all ready Monies, Debts, Goods, Chattels, perſonal Eſtates, and publick Offices and Imployments of Profit, charged by this Act, ſhall be aſcertained, and the Certificates thereof returned to the Commiſſioners upon or before the eight and twentieth Day of February one thouſand ſix hundred ninety-two, unleſs the Commiſſioners ſhall think fit to give further Time: And alſo the Taxations and Aſſeſſments of the Pound-rate of four Shillings in the Pound of the yearly Value of all Manors, Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments and Premiſſes charged by this Act, ſhall be made and aſcertained, and the ſeveral and reſpective Certificates thereof returned in to the Commiſſioners, upon or before the eight and twentieth Day of February aforeſaid, unleſs the Commiſſioners ſhall think fit to give further Time. And upon Return of any ſuch Certificate, the Commiſſioners, or any three or more of them, ſhall and may (if they ſee Cauſe) examine the Preſenters thereof. And if the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any three or more of them, within their ſeveral Limits, at the Time of the Return of the Certificates, as aforeſaid, or within twenty Days after, ſhall know, or have good cauſe to ſuſpect, That any Perſon or Perſons, or any the Manors, Meſſuages, Lands, or other the Premiſſes, which ought to be mentioned and charged in the ſaid Certificates, is or are omitted; or that any Perſon or Perſons in the ſaid Certificates mentioned, is or are of a greater Eſtate; or that any of the ſaid Manors, or other Premiſſes, are of a greater yearly Value than in the ſaid Certificate is mentioned, the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any three or more of them ſhall have Power to ſummon ſuch Perſon or Perſons, and the Owners or Poſſeſſors of ſuch Manors or other Premiſſes to appear before them at a Day and Place prefixed, to be examined touching the Matters aforeſaid. And if the Perſon or Perſons ſummoned, to be ſo examined, ſhall neglect to appear (not having a reaſonable

Certificates of the Aſſeſſments to be returned to the Courts before the 28th of February, unleſs Commiſſioners give further Time.

On return of the Certificates, the Commiſſioners or any three may examine the Preſenters.

If the Commiſſioners ſhall ſuſpect that any Perſons or Lands which ought to be charged are omitted, or any Perſon of a greater Eſtate or Lands of a greater yearly Value than mentioned in the Certificates, Commiſſioners or any three or more have Power to ſummon ſuch Perſon and Owners of Lands to appear at a Day and Place prefixed to be examined touching the ſaid Matters.

Perſons ſummoned not appearing reasonable Excuse for such his Default) every Person so making default, shall pay to their Majesties double the Sum he should or ought to have been Set at or rated. And moreover the Commissioners, or the major Part of so many of them as shall be present, shall have Power by all lawful Ways and Means to examine into the Estate of such Person, and the Value of such Premisses chargeable by this Act, and to set such Rate or Rates upon the same, as shall be according to the true Intent of this Act. And the said Assessors are hereby required to give one Copy of their Certificates or Assessments fairly written and subscribed by them unto the said Commissioners, by whom they were appointed. And the said Commissioners, or any two or more of them are hereby ordered and required to cause the said several and respective Assessments to them delivered (when by them approved of or altered, according to the true Intent of this Act) to be fairly written, and to sign and seal several Duplicates or Copies of the said Assessment; And one of them so signed and sealed forthwith to deliver, or cause to be delivered unto the Sub-collectors, and shall likewise deliver or cause to be delivered other Copies thereof so signed and sealed unto the Head-collectors and Receivers General, according to their several and respective Collections and Receipts. And moreover, the Commissioners shall cause a true Copy or Extract of the whole Sums assessed and charged within every hundred, Lathe, Wapentake, Parish, Ward, or Place, rated or assessed in pursuance of this Act, and of the whole Sums rated or assessed upon personal Estates, Offices, or Imployments, to be certified, and transmitted into their Majesties Court of Exchequer, under the Hands and Seals of any two or more of the Commissioners, but without naming the Persons in such their Certificates. And this the said Commissioners shall cause to be done upon or before the twentieth Day of March then next ensuing, or within thirty Days after (all Appeals to them made being first determined); and the King's Remembrancer in the Exchequer, for the Time being, shall, and is hereby required, within three Months after the Duplicates of the last Payment shall be transmitted to him to transcribe all the Schedules and Duplicates of the Sums returned to him from and for every respective County, Riding, City and Town, and every Hundred, Wapentake, Parish, Division, Town and Place therein, in a Book of Parchment in alphabetical Order, and in a fair legible Hand-writing; And within three Months after the same shall be so by him received, to transmit all and every the same Schedules and Duplicates to the Office of Writer of the Tallies, commonly called the Auditor of the Receipt of the Exchequer, who is hereby likewise authorized and required to enter the same in the like alphabetical Order in another Book of Parchment fairly written, to be provided for that Purpose.

(nor having a reasonable Excuse) to pay double the Sum he ought to be rated.

and within three Months after to transmit the same to the Officers of the Receipt.

X. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, that the Commissioners, or any two or more of them shall issue out their Warrants or Estreats to the Subcollectors, under their Hands and Seals, thereby requiring them to levy and collect one fourth Part of the Rates and Assessments in respect of their personal Estates, Offices and Imployments, and also one fourth Part of the Pound Rate charged upon all Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, and Premisses, as aforesaid. And the said Sub-collectors are hereby required and enjoined to levy and collect the same, according to the Duplicates thereof by them received, and according to the Intent and Directions of this Act; and to make Demand of the said Rates and Assessments upon personal Estates, Offices and Imployments, of the Parties themselves if they can be found, or otherwise at the Place of their last Abode; and to pay the same unto their respective Head-collectors, on or before the tenth Day of March one thousand six hundred ninety-two, or within twenty Days after. And the said Head-collectors are to hasten the said Sub-collectors, and in case the same shall not be collected by reason of Neglect or Failure of Duty of the said Sub-collectors, the said Head-collectors are to levy by Warrant under the Hands and Seals of any two or more of the said Commissioners, by Distress upon the Sub-collectors respectively, such Sum and Sums of Money, as by him and them ought to have been paid, and is or are not paid, by reason of his Failure in doing his Duty, according to the Directions of this Act. And every Head-collector is hereby required to make payment, of what shall be so levied or received, unto the Receiver General of the said County, City or Place, upon or before the twentieth Day of March aforesaid, or within twenty Days after. And the Receiver General is likewise required to call upon and hasten the said Head-collectors, and to pay what he shall receive from the said Head-collectors unto their Majesties Receipt of Exchequer, upon or before the five and twentieth Day of March aforesaid, or within twenty Days after, to the end that the first Payment of the said Rates and Assessments may by that Time be fully answered and paid in to their Majesties. And the Sub-collectors shall also levy the second quarterly Payment of the said Rates and Assessments, charged as aforesaid, upon or before the second Day of June then next ensuing, or within twenty Days after, and shall also pay the same in to the Head-collectors upon or before the ninth Day of June aforesaid, or within twenty Days after. And the said Head-collectors shall make Payment thereof to the Receiver General of the said County, City, or Place, upon or before Commissioners to issue Warrants to the Sub-collectors for levying, &c.

Sub-collectors to levy and collect according to their Duplicates; and make Demand of the Rates on personal Estates and Offices of the Parties themselves, if they can be found, to be paid to the Collectors before the 10th of March.

Head-collectors to hasten the Sub-collectors.

In case of Neglect of the Sub-collectors the Sums to be levied by Distress and Sale of Goods.

And the ſaid Head-collectors ſhall make Payment thereof to the Receiver General of the ſaid County, City, or Place, upon or before the ſixteenth Day of December aforeſaid, or within twenty Days after. And the ſaid Receiver General is alſo required to make Payment of all which he ſhall ſo receive into their Majeſties Receipt of Exchequer, upon or before the five and twentieth Day of December aforeſaid, or within twenty Days after; to the end that the fourth and laſt quarterly Payment of the ſaid Rates and Aſſeſſments ſo charged, as aforeſaid, may by that Time be fully anſwered and paid in to their Majeſties.

All Perſons concerned in the Execution of this Act to uſe Diligence, &c.

And all Commiſſioners, Collectors, and Receivers are hereby required and enjoined to apply themſelves with all Diligence to the moſt ſpeedy and effectual Execution of their ſeveral and reſpective Duties, and to uſe their utmoſt Endeavours that all Eſtates herein charged may equally pay the Rates and Aſſeſſments according to the Direction of this Act, that ſo their Majeſties Service herein may not be delayed or hindred through any of their wilful Neglect or Default.

Head-collector's Receipt a Diſcharge to the Sub-collector.

XI. And it is further enacted and declared by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Moneys received by the Sub-collectors, within their reſpective Diviſions or Hundreds, ſhall from Time to Time be duly paid to the Head-collectors, whoſe Receipt ſhall be a ſufficient Diſcharge unto every ſuch Sub-collector, which Sub-collector for gathering the ſaid particular Sums ſhall retain in his Hands for every twenty Shillings by him ſo paid three Pence, as a Reward for his Pains and Service.

Sub-collector to have three Pence in the Pound for what he receives.

And the Head-collectors ſhall accordingly pay over the ſaid Monies unto the Receiver General of each County, City, or Place reſpectively in Manner aforeſaid; (which Head-collector or Collectors ſhall be nominated and appointed by the Receiver General of the reſpective Counties, which ſaid Receiver General ſhall be anſwerable for all ſuch Sums of Money as ſhall be by him or them collected or received.

Head-collector to be appointed by Receiver.

And that no Sub-collector ſhall be inforced to travel above the Space of ten Miles for the Payment of the ſaid Monies that ſhall be by him collected or received; And the ſaid Receiver General's Acquittance ſhall be a ſufficient Diſcharge unto every ſuch Head-collector.

No Sub-collector to be forced to Travel above 10 Miles.

And the Receiver General ſhall pay the whole Sum by him received into the Receipt of their Majeſties Exchequer in ſuch Manner, and at or before ſuch Days and Times as are herein before limited; And ſhall have an Allowance of two Pence in the Pound for all Monies, which ſhall be by him paid into the Receipt of the Exchequer upon or before the Times prefixed in this Act.

XII. And for the careful writing and tranſcribing the ſaid Warrants, Certificates, Eſtreats and Duplicates in due Time, It is further enacted, That the Commiſſioners Clerks, who ſhall reſpectively perform the ſame, ſhall by Warrant under two or more of the Commiſſioners Hands, have and receive from the reſpective Receivers General, one Penny in the Pound of all ſuch Monies as he or they ſhall have received by Virtue of ſuch Warrants and Eſtreats, who are hereby appointed and allowed to pay the ſame accordingly.

Commiſſioners Clerks to have one Penny per Pound for writing the Warrants, &c.

And if any Perſon ſhall neglect or refuſe to pay the ſeveral Rates and Aſſeſſments, wherewith he is charged by this Act for or in reſpect of his perſonal Eſtate, Offices, or Imployments, and which he ought to pay; Or if the Pound-rate, or any Payment thereof ſo, as aforeſaid, charged upon any Manors, Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments and Premiſſes, ſhall

XLVI. And it is hereby further enacted, That the Commiſſioners of the Treaſury, or the Lord Treaſurer, under-Treaſurer, or Commiſſioners of the Treaſury for the Time being, or any of them, do not direct any Warrant to any of the ſaid Collectors, Head-collectors, lectors, or Receiver General, or their Deputies, for the Payment of any Part of the Monies h reby given to any Perſon or Perſons other than into the Receipt of the Exchequer, as aforeſaid; nor ſhall they, or any of them direct any Warrant to the Officers of the Exchequer for the ſtriking of any Tally of pro, or Tally of Anticipation, nor do any other Matter or Thing whereby to divert the actual Payment of the ſaid Monies into the Receipt of the Exchequer; nor ſhall the Officers of the Exchequer ſtrike, or direct, or record the ſtriking of any Tally of pro, or Tally of Anticipation upon any of the ſaid Monies upon any Account or Warrant whatſoever; nor ſhall any Teller throw down any Bill whereby to charge himſelf with any of the ſaid Monies, until he ſhall have actually received the ſame.

nies otherwiſe than into the Exchequer, or to the Officers of the Exchequer, for ſtriking any Tally of Pro or Tally of Anticipation, nor ſhall the Officers of the Exchequer ſtrike any ſuch Tally.

XLVII. Provided alſo, and be it enacted, That no Stay of Proſecution upon any Command, Warrant, Motion, or Order, or Direction by Non vult ulterius proſequi, ſhall be had, made, admitted, received, or allowed by any Court whatſoever in any Suit or Proceeding by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, or otherwiſe, for the Recovery of all or any the Pains, Penalties, or Forfeitures upon any Perſon or Perſons by this Act inflicted, or therein mentioned, or for, or in order to the Conviction or Diſability of any Perſon offending againſt this Act.

No noli proſequi or other Stay of Proſecution in any Suit againſt Offenders.

XLVIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every the Manors, Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments charged by this Act, ſhall be rated and aſſeſſed at leaſt at double the Sum at which the ſame was, or were aſſeſſed by virtue of an Act of Parliament made in the firſt Year of their Majeſties Reign, entituled, An Act for a Grant to their Majeſties of an Aid of two Shillings in the Pound for one Year.

Lands, &c. to be aſſeſſed at leaſt at double what they were aſſeſſed to by the 2s. Act.

XLIX. Provided always, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſo charged or aſſeſſed at leaſt at double the Sum, as aforeſaid, ſhall upon Complaint made to the Commiſſioners in ſuch Manner, and within ſuch Time as is herein before directed in Caſes of Appeals, make it appear to the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any five of them, by Proof upon Oath, that ſuch Aſſeſſment doth exceed four Shillings for every twenty Shillings of the full yearly Value, in ſuch Caſe, upon ſuch Proof, and due Examination thereof, the ſaid Commiſſioners are hereby impowered to abate and leſſen the ſaid Aſſeſſment ſo much as the ſame ſhall exceed four Shillings for every twenty Shillings of the true yearly Value, and no more.

Commiſſioners impowered to abate, on Proof that Lands are charged above 4s. in the Pound.

L. Provided always, and be it enacted, That if any Perſon hereby named a Commiſſioner ſhall preſume to act as a Commiſſioner in the Execution of this Act, before he ſhall have taken the Oaths which by this Act he is required to take, and in the Manner hereby preſcribed, he ſhall forfeit to their Majeſties the Sum of five hundred Pounds.

Commiſſioners acting before taking the Oaths forfeit 500l.

LI. Provided alſo, and be it enacted, That no Perſon ſhall be capable of acting as a Commiſſioner in the Execution of this Act for any County or Riding, or the Cities of London or Weſtminſter, unleſs he was aſſeſſed, and did pay to their Majeſties the Sum of twenty Shillings quarterly towards the Rates and Aſſeſſments granted by an Act made in the laſt Seſſion of this preſent Parliament, intituled, An Act for raiſing Money by a Poll payable Quarterly for one Year, for the carrying on a vigorous War againſt France. And alſo that no Perſon ſhall be capable of acting as a Commiſſioner in the Execution of this Act for any other City, or in any Borough, Town or Cinque-Port, or the Counties thereof reſpectively, unleſs he was aſſeſſed and did pay to their Majeſties the Sum of twenty Shillings quarterly, as aforeſaid, or was aſſeſſed, and did pay to their Majeſties the Sum of ten Shillings quarterly (as a Tradeſman worth three hundred Pounds) towards the ſaid quarterly Poll.

No Perſon capable of acting as a Commiſſioner in any County, or in London, or Weſtminſter, who did not pay 20s. a Quarter to the quarterly Poll.

No Perſon capable of acting as a Commiſſioner in any other Place, unleſs he was aſſeſſed and paid 20s. quarterly or 10s. quarterly.

LII. Provided nevertheleſs, That in caſe there ſhall not be a ſufficient Number of Commiſſioners for any City, Borough, Town or Cinque-Port (for which by this Act Commiſſioners are particularly appointed) capable of acting according to the Qualifications aforeſaid for putting this Act in Execution, that in every ſuch Caſe any of the Commiſſioners appointed for the County at large, within which ſuch Cities, Borough, Town, or Cinque-Port doth ſtand, or which is next adjoining thereto, may act as Commiſſioners in the Execution of this Act within ſuch City, Borough, Town, or Cinque-Port.

In caſe there be not Commiſſioners enough ſufficiently qualified for any City or Town, the Commiſſioners for the County at large may act.

LIII. Provided alſo, and be it further enacted, That in caſe there ſhall not be a ſufficient Number of the Perſons nominated to be Commiſſioners for any County, who ſhall be capable of acting as Commiſſioners according to the Qualifications in this Act before mentioned, that in every ſuch Caſe, it ſhall be lawful for their Majeſties to iſſue or cauſe to be iſſued one or more Commiſſion or Commiſſions under the Great Seal of England, and thereby to nominate, conſtitute, and appoint ſuch and ſo many Perſons being reſident, and having real Eſtates of the Value of one hundred Pound a Year in the ſaid reſpective Counties, for which they ſhall be reſpectively nominated to be Commiſſioners for putting this preſent Act in Execution in the ſaid Counties reſpectively; which ſaid Commiſſioners ſo to be nominated and appointed for the ſaid Counties reſpectively ſhall have ſuch and the ſame Powers for putting this Act in Execution in the ſaid reſpective Counties, and under the ſame

In caſe there be not a ſufficient Number of Commiſſioners capable of acting for any County, their Majeſties may conſtitute under the Great Seal, ſo many Perſons being reſident, as have real Eſtates of 100l. per annum in the Counties to be Commiſſioners.

same Rules and Directions as any other Commissioners nominated and appointed by this Act; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

If after the Assessment, any Person shall remove to a Place where he was not rated for personal Estate, the Commissioners are to summon such Person before them, and cause him to be rated, and unless he produce a Certificate, that he was assessed, and paid all the precedent quarterly Payments for his personal Estate.

LIV. And for the more effectual charging all personal Estates, Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if after the Assessments on personal Estates directed by this Act, shall be made, any Person shall come to inhabit or reside in any Division or Place where such Person was not rated or taxed for personal Estate, the Commissioners acting within such Division or Place, are hereby required and impowered to summon such Person before them; and unless he or she shall produce a Certificate made according to the Directions of this Act, whereby it shall appear that he or she was assessed, and had actually paid all the precedent quarterly Payments in some other Place for his or her personal Estate, the said Commissioners shall, and are hereby required to cause such Person to be assessed for his or her personal Estate, and cause the same, or such quarterly Payments thereof, as shall be then unassessed and unpaid, to be assessed, levied, and paid, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act.

The King's Bench Prison with the Lands, &c. Rents and Perquisites of the Office of Marshal, and the Prison-house Lands, &c. of the Marshal of the Marshalsea, and Offices and Perquisites of the Marshals Court, shall be charged and assessed in the Parish of St. George in Southwark.

LV. Provided always, that the Prison of the King's Bench, the Prison-house, Lands, Gardens and the Common-side, and all the Rents, Profits and Perquisites of the Office of Marshal of the said King's Bench Prison, lying, and being in the Parish of St. George the Martyr, in the Borough of Southwark, and County of Surrey; and also the Prison-house, Lands and Gardens of the Prison of the Marshal of the Marshalsea Prison, and all Offices, Perquisites and Profits of the Marshalsea Court and Prison, lying and being also in the said Parish of St. George in the Borough of Southwark, and County of Surrey, shall be charged and assessed to this Assessment in the said Parish of St. George and Borough of Southwark, and not elsewhere; any Thing to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

Where Owners of Lands are liable to be doubly charged, as Papists, or otherwise, for not taking the Oaths, the Owners shall be only charged with double Taxes, and the Tenants are discharged.

LVI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That where the Owners of any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, are liable to be doubly charged as Papists, reputed Papists, or otherwise, by reason of their not having taken the Oaths according to the Intent of this Act, in every such Case such Owners only shall be charged with, and shall pay the said double Rates: And the respective Tenants of such Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, are hereby discharged of and from the same; any Covenant for Payment of Taxes, or other Agreement to the contrary notwithstanding.

Borrowing Clause at Interest, not exceeding 7l. per Cent.

LVII. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any Person or Persons to advance and lend unto their Majesties upon the Security of this Act, any Sum or Sums of Money, and to have and receive for the Forbearance thereof any Sum not exceeding seven Pounds by the hundred for one whole Year, and no more directly or indirectly; and moreover, that no Money so lent upon the Secuity of this Act shall be rated or assessed by virtue of this Act.

LVIII. And to the End that all Monies which shall be lent to their Majesties upon the Credit of this Act, may be well and sufficiently secured out of the Monies arising and payable by this Act, Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That there shall be provided and kept in their Majesties Exchequer (that is to say) in the Office of the Auditor of the Receipts, one Book and Register, in which all Monies that shall be paid into the Exchequer by virtue of this Act, shall be entred and registred apart and distinct from all other Monies paid or payable to their Majesties upon any other Branch of their Majesties Revenue, or upon any other Account whatsoever: And that all and every Person and Persons who shall lend any Money to their Majesties upon the Credit of this Act, and pay the same into the Receipt of the Exchequer, shall immediately have a Tally of Loan struck for the same, and an Order for his Repayment, bearing the same Date with his Tally: In which Order shall be also contained a Warrant for Payment of Interest for Forbearance thereof, not exceeding seven Pounds per Centum per Annum, for his Consideration, to be paid every three Months, until Repayment of his Principal: And that all Orders for Repayment of Money, shall be registred in Course according to the Date of the Tally respectively, without Preference of one before another: And that all and every Person and Persons shall be paid in course, according as their Orders shall stand entred in the said Register-Book, so as the Person, Native or Foreigner, his Executors, Administrators and Assigns, who shall have his Order or Orders first entred in the said Book of the Register, shall be taken and accounted the first Person to be paid upon the Monies to come in by virtue of this Act: And he or they who shall have his or their Order or Orders next entred, shall be taken and accounted to be the second Person to be paid, and so successively, and in course. And that the Monies to come in by this Act shall be in the same Order liable to the Satisfaction of the said respective Parties, their Executors, Administrators or Assigns successively, without Preference of one before another, and not otherwise, and not to be divertible to any other Use, Intent, or Purpose whatsoever: And that no Fee, Reward or Gratuity, directly, or indirectly, be demanded or taken of any of their Majesties Subjects for providing or making of any such Books, Registers, Entries, Views or Search, in or for Payment of Money lent, or the Interest, as aforesaid, by any of their Majesties Officer or Officers, their Clerks or Deputies, on pain of Payment of treble Damages to the Party aggrieved aggrieved by the Party offending, with Coſts of Suit; or if the Officer himſelf take or demand any ſuch Fee or Reward, then to loſe his Place alſo. And if any undue Preference of one before another ſhall be made, either in point of Regiſtry or Payment, contrary to the true Meaning of this Act, by any ſuch Officer or Officers, then the Party offending ſhall be liable by Action of Debt, or on the Caſe, to pay the Value of the Debt, Damages and Coſts, to the Party aggrieved, and ſhall be forejudged from his Place or Office: And if ſuch Preference be unduly made by any his Deputy or Clerk, without Direction or Privity of his Maſter, then ſuch Deputy or Clerk only ſhall be liable to ſuch Action, Debt, Damages and Coſts, and ſhall be for ever after uncapable of his Place or Office. And in caſe the Auditor ſhall not direct the Order, or the Clerk of the Pells record, or the Teller make Payment according to each Perſon's due Place and Order, as afore directed, then he or they ſhall be judged to forfeit, and their reſpective Deputies and Clerks herein offending, to be liable to ſuch Action, Debt, Damages, and Coſts in ſuch Manner, as aforeſaid, all which ſaid Penalties, Forfeitures, Damages and Coſts, to be incurred by any of the Officers of the Exchequer, or any their Deputies or Clerks, ſhall and may be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of their Majeſties Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection, Privilege, Wager of Law, Injunction, or Order of Reſtraint ſhall be in any wiſe granted or allowed.

LIX. Provided always, and be it hereby declared, That if it happen that ſeveral Tallies of Loan or Orders for Payment, as aforeſaid, bear date, or be brought the ſame Day to the Auditor of the Receipt to be regiſtered, then it ſhall be interpreted no undue Preference which of thoſe be entred firſt, ſo he enters them all the ſame Day.

LX. Provided alſo, That it ſhall not be interpreted any undue Preference to incur any Penalty in point of Payment, if the Auditor direct, and the Clerk of the Pells record, and the Tellers do pay ſubſequent Orders of Perſons that come and demand their Monies, and bring their Order before other Perſons that did not come to demand their Money, and bring their Order in their Courſe, ſo as there be ſo much Money reſerved as will ſatisfy precedent Orders, which ſhall not be otherwiſe diſpoſed, but kept for them; Intereſt upon Loan, being to ceaſe from the Time the Money is ſo reſerved, and kept in Bank for them.

LXI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Perſon or Perſons to whom any Money ſhall be due by virtue of this Act, after Order entred in the Book of Regiſter aforeſaid, for Payment thereof, his Executors, Adminiſtrators or Aſſigns, by Indorſement of his Order, may aſſign and transfer his Right, Title, Intereſt and Benefit of ſuch Order, or any Part thereof, to any other; which being notified in the Office of the Auditor of Receipt aforeſaid, and an Entry or Memorial thereof alſo made in the Book of Regiſter aforeſaid for Orders, which the Officers ſhall upon Requeſt, without Fee or Charge accordingly make, ſhall intitle ſuch Aſſignee, his Executors, Adminiſtrators and Aſſigns to the Benefit thereof, and Payment thereon, and ſuch Aſſignee may in like manner aſſign again, and ſo toties quoties, and afterwards it ſhall not be in the Power of ſuch Perſon or Perſons who have or hath made ſuch Aſſignments, to make void, releaſe or diſcharge the ſame, or any the Monies thereby due, or any Part thereof.

Clauſe for transferring Monies borrowed upon the Receipt for the quarterly Poll to the Credit of this Act, not exceeding ſeven hundred thirty-five thouſand three hundred ninety-one Pounds eighteen Shillings five Pence Halfpenny.

LXII. Provided always and be it further enacted, That all and every the principal Sums of Money which in purſuance of an Act made in the laſt Seſſion of this preſent Parliament, intituled, An Act for raiſing Money by a Poll payable quarterly for one Year for carrying on a vigorous War againſt France, and of their Majeſties Letters of Privy Seal, bearing date the three and twentieth Day of September one thouſand ſix hundred ninety-two, made in purſuance of the ſaid Act, have been lent, or ſhall be lent to their Majeſties at the Receipt of their Exchequer, not exceeding in the whole the Sum of ſeven hundred thirty-five thouſand three hundred ninety-one Pounds eighteen Shillings five Pence Halfpenny, and all and every the Orders of Loan for the ſame, ſhall be in the firſt Place transferred to and placed upon the Regiſter appointed to be kept by this Act, and ſhall be regiſtered thereupon, in ſuch Courſe and Order as they now have by the Books kept in the ſaid Receipt; or where any ſpecial Agreements have been made with the Lenders for the Courſe or Order they were to have, in all ſuch Caſes, according to thoſe Agreements; which Tranſferences ſhall and may be, and are hereby required to be made by virtue of this Act, without making any Iſſues, or taking any Receipts from the Parties, in order to transfer the ſaid Loans: And that the principal Monies upon the ſaid Orders ſo transferred, ſhall be payable and paid to the Lender or Lenders of the ſame, his, her, or their Executors, Adminiſtrators or Aſſigns, out of the Monies ariſing by virtue of this Act, in the ſame Courſe and Order according to which they are hereby appointed to be transferred, and with Preference to the Loans which any Perſon or Perſons ſhall make hereafter upon the Credit of this preſent Act: And that the Intereſt after the Rate of ſeven Pounds per Centum per Annum, due, or to be due, for the ſaid Loans to be transferred, as aforeſaid, ſhall be paid and ſatisfied out of the Monies ariſing by this Act, until the reſpective Times of the Satisfaction of the Principal: And that the Auditor of the ſaid Receipt, upon the transferring of the ſaid Loans, or the Order for the ſame, as aforeſaid, ſhall make Memorandums in the Margin of his Books where the ſame do, or ſhall ſtand entred upon the ſaid Act for the quarterly Poll importing the Transference thereof, and that they are to be paid out of the Monies ariſing by virtue of this Act: And that any Perſon or Perſons who are or ſhall be intitled to any Monies to be paid by ſuch Orders, to be transferred, as aforeſaid, ſhall or may aſſign over the ſame to any other Perſon or Perſons; which Aſſignments ſhall be good and effectual in Law, and ſo toties quoties; any Thing in the ſaid former Act, or in this preſent Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Clauſe of Appropriation.

LXIII. And be it enacted, That out of the Monies which ſhall be levied and paid by virtue of this Act, into the Receipt of the Exchequer, as well by Loan or otherwiſe (over and beſides the Sum of ſeven hundred thirty-five thouſand three hundred ninety-one Pounds eighteen Shillings five Pence Halfpenny before mentioned to be transferred to, and placed upon the Regiſter appointed to be kept by this Act,) the Sum of ſeven hundred thouſand Pounds ſhall be, and is hereby applied and appropriated to and for the Payment of Officers and Seamen that have ſerved, and ſhall ſerve in their Majeſties Navy Royal, and for the paying for Stores, Proviſions and Victuals, ſupplied, and to be ſupplied for the ſaid Navy, and to and for the Expences of their Majeſties Office of Ordnance in reſpect to naval Affairs, and for other neceſſary Uſes and Services, performed and to be performed, in and for the ſaid Navy; And that all other the Monies which ſhall be levied and paid by virtue of this Act into the Receipt of the Exchequer, as well upon Loan, as otherwiſe, other than the ſaid Sum of ſeven hundred thirty-five thouſand three hundred ninety-one Pounds eighteen Shillings and two Pence Halfpenny, and the Intereſt thereof, and alſo the Sum of ſeven hundred thouſand Pounds appropriated for Payments relating to their Majeſties Navy, as aforeſaid, ſhall be applied, and appropriated, and is hereby appropriated to, and for the Payment of their Majeſties land Forces and Armies, and the paying for Arms, Ammunition, and other Charges incident to the War, and not otherwiſe.

700000l. to the Uſe of the Navy, &c.

The Reſidue to the Uſe of the Land Forces.

LXIV. And for the effectual doing thereof, and that the ſaid ſeveral Sums hereby appropriated to the Uſes aforeſaid, may not be diverted or applied to any other Purpoſe, Be it further enacted, That the Commiſſioners of the Treaſury, or the Lord Treaſurer, under Treaſurer, or the Commiſſioners of the Treaſury for the Time being, or any of them do not direct any Warrant to any of the ſaid Collectors, or Receivers General, or their Deputies for the Payment of any Part of the Monies hereby given to any Perſon or Perſons other than into the Receipt of the Exchequer, as aforeſaid; nor ſhall they, or any of them direct any Warrant to the Officers of the Exchequer for ſtriking of any Tally of pro, or Tally of Anticipation, or do any other Matter or Thing whereby to divert the actual Payments of the ſaid Monies into the Receipt of the Exchequer; nor ſhall the Officers of the Exchequer ſtrike or direct, or record the ſtriking of any Tally of pro, or Tally of Anticipation upon any of the ſaid Monies, upon any Account or Warrant whatſoever; nor ſhall any Teller throw down any Bill whereby to charge himſelf with any of the ſaid Monies, until he ſhall have actually received the ſame.

LXV. And it is hereby further enacted, That the Officers of the Receipt of the Exchequer reſpectively, ſhall and are hereby required to keep the ſaid Sum of ſeven hundred thouſand Pounds hereby appropriated for Payments relating to their Majeſties Navy, as aforeſaid, and the Account thereof diſtinct from all other Monies and Accounts whatſoever; and that the Lord High Treaſurer, under Treaſurer, or Commiſſioners of the Treaſury for the Time being, or any of them reſpectively, do not ſign any Warrant or Order, or do any Matter or Thing for the iſſuing or paying any Part of the ſaid Sum of ſeven hundred thouſand Pounds by this Act appropriated for Payments relating to their Majeſties Navy, as aforeſaid, to any Perſon or Perſons other than the Treaſurer of the Navy or his Deputy, and the Treaſurer of the Ordnance or his Deputy, for the Uſes aforeſaid; nor ſhall the Auditor of the Receipt draw any Order whatſoever for the iſſuing any Part of the ſaid Sum of ſeven hundred thouſand Pounds hereby appropriated, as aforeſaid, to any Perſon or Perſons, other than the ſaid Treaſurer of the Navy or his Deputy, and the Treaſurer of the Ordnance or his Deputy, as aforeſaid; nor ſhall he direct, nor the Clerk of the Pells record, or any Teller make Payment of any Part of the ſaid appropriated Sum of ſeven hundred thouſand Pounds by virtue of any Warrant, or upon any Order or other Way or Device whatſoever, other than to the Perſons and for the Uſes aforeſaid, and to be ſo mentioned and expreſſed in ſuch Warrant or Order.

LXVI. And it is hereby further enacted, That the Treaſurer of the Navy, and the Treaſurer of the Ordnance for the Time being, ſhall keep ſuch Part of the ſaid Sum of ſeven hundred thouſand Pounds appropriated for Payments relating to their Majeſties Navy, as aforeſaid, by virtue of this Act, as ſhall be paid to them reſpectively, diſtinct and apart from all other Monies; and the Treaſurer of the Navy ſhall iſſue and pay ſuch Part of the ſaid Sum as ſhall be paid in to him by Warrant of the principal Officers and Commiſſioners of the Navy, or any three or more of them; and the Treaſurer of the Ordnance ſhall iſſue and pay ſuch Part of the ſaid Sum as ſhall be paid in to him by Warrant of the principal Officers of the Ordnance, or any three of them, mentioning and expreſſing in the reſpective Warrant, the reſpective Uſes for which the ſame is reſpectively iſſued and paid, according to the reſpective Appropriations thereof, and applying the ſame; which ſaid principal Officers and Commiſſioners of the Navy, and principal Officers of the Ordnance, are to follow therein the Order and Direction of the Lord High Treaſurer, or Lords Commiſſioners of the Treaſury for the Time being, for apportioning the ſame for the Payment of the Officers and Seamen, Stores, Proviſions, Victuals and the Office of Ordnance, in reſpect to naval Affairs, as aforeſaid, in ſuch juſt and proportionable Diſtributions as may be moſt agreeable to the true Intent of this Act.

LXVII. And it is hereby further enacted, That the principal Officers and Commiſſioners of the Navy, or any of them, or principal Officers of the Ordnance, or any of them, ſhall not ſign any Navy Bill or Warrant, or do any other Act or Thing for the iſſuing and paying any Part of the ſaid Sum of ſeven hundred thouſand Pounds ſo appropriated by this Act, to any Uſe, Intent, or Purpoſe whatſoever, other than for the reſpective Uſes for which the ſame is appropriated, as aforeſaid, and to be ſo mentioned and expreſſed in ſuch Navy Bill or Warrant.

LXVIII.

LXVIII. And be it further enacted, That if any of the Officers which are appointed by this Act to receive the ſaid Sum of ſeven hundred thouſand Pounds, hereby appropriated for Payments relating to their Majeſties Navy, or any Part thereof, ſhall after the Receipt of the ſaid Money, divert or miſapply the ſame, or any Part thereof by virtue of any Warrant from the Commiſſioners of the Treaſury, or from the Lord Treaſurer, or other ſuperior Officers for the Time being, contrary to the true Intent of this Act, that then ſuch Officer or Officers ſo diverting or miſapplying the ſaid Monies, ſhall forfeit the like Sum ſo diverted or miſapplied; which ſaid Forfeiture ſhall be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information in any of their Majeſties Courts at Weſtminſter, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection, or Wager of Law ſhall be allowed; the one Moiety of which Forfeiture ſo to be recovered, ſhall be to the Informer, or him who ſhall ſue for the ſame, the other Moiety thereof to be diſtributed to the Poor of the Pariſh where ſuch Offence ſhall be committed.

LXIX. And be it further enacted, That if any Officer or Officers mentioned in this Act, or in any wiſe belonging to the Exchequer, Navy, or Ordnance, ſhall willingly and wilfully offend againſt this Law, or any Clauſe thereof, by diverting or miſapplying any Part of the ſaid Sum of ſeven hundred thouſand Pounds appropriated for Payments relating to their Majeſties Navy, as aforeſaid, contrary to the true Intent of this Act, that for any and every ſuch Offence, ſuch Officer and Officers ſo offending, ſhall forfeit his Office and Place, and is, and are hereby diſabled, and made uncapable to hold or execute the ſaid Office, or any other Office whatſoever for the future.

LXX. Provided alſo and be it enacted, That no ſtay of Proſecution upon any Command, Warrant, Motion, Order, or Direction, by Non vult ulterius proſequi, ſhall be had, made, admitted, received or allowed by any Court whatſoever, in any Suit or Proceeding by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, or otherwiſe, for the Recovery of all or any the Pains, Penalties, or Forfeitures, upon any Perſon or Perſons by this Act inflicted, or therein mentioned, or for or in order to the Conviction or Diſability of any Perſons offending againſt this Act.

All Monies iſſued for Naval Stores and Proviſions (except for Victuals) to be paid in Courſe.

LXXI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That out of the Monies hereby appropriated to and for the Payment of Officers and Seamen that have ſerved and ſhall ſerve in their Majeſties Navy Royal, and to and for the paying for naval Stores and Proviſions (other than for Victuals) and to and for the Expences of their Majeſties Office of the Ordnance, in reſpect of naval Affairs, and for other neceſſary Uſes and Services performed and to be performed for the ſaid Navy, all ſuch Part thereof as ſhall be iſſued and paid by the Treaſurer of the Navy by Warrant of the principal Officers and Commiſſioners of the Navy, or any three or more of them for naval Stores and Proviſions, ſhall be paid in Courſe to every Perſon or Perſons, or their Aſſigns to whom any ſuch Money is, or ſhall be due, according to the Dates of the Bills or Contracts regiſtred for the ſame, and not otherwiſe; And that out of all ſuch further Part of the ſaid Monies as ſhall be iſſued and paid to the Lieutenant and principal Officers of the Ordnance, or the Pay-maſter thereof, or his Deputy, for the Expence of his Majeſties Ordnance as to naval Affairs, and by them or the ſaid Pay-maſter reſpectively to any Perſon or Perſons for Ammunition or any other Uſe or Service relating to the Office of the Ordnance, ſhall be in like manner paid in Courſe to every ſuch Perſon or Perſons, or their Aſſigns reſpectively, according to the reſpective Dates of the Bills and Contracts for the ſame, and not otherwiſe: And the Comptroller of the Navy, and Store-keeper of the Ordnance are hereby reſpectively required to keep one or more Book or Books in their reſpective Offices, wherein all Bills and Contracts in reference to the Navy, and Office of the Ordnance for ſuch Bills and Contracts reſpectively, as aforeſaid, ſhall be duly regiſtred, that all and every Perſon or Perſons concerned therein may have recourſe thereunto without paying any Fee or Reward for ſo doing; And if any Preference of one before another ſhall be made, either in point of Regiſtry or Payment, contrary to the true Meaning of this Act, either by the ſaid Treaſurer of the Navy, or Pay-maſter of the Ordnance, or Comptroller of the Navy, or Store-keeper of the Ordnance, or any of them, or their reſpective Deputies or Clerks, then the Party offending ſhall be liable by Action of Debt, or on the Caſe, to pay double the Value of the Debt, Damages and Coſts to the Party grieved; all which ſaid Penalties, Damages and Coſts to be incurred by the Perſons aforeſaid, or any of them reſpectively, ſhall and may be recovered by the ſaid Party grieved, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information in any of their Majeſties Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection, Privilege, Wager of Law, Injunction, or Order of Reſtraint ſhall be in any wiſe granted or allowed.

Officers of Ordnance or Navy-Board, upon extraordinary Occaſions may pay Impreſt Money.

LXXII. Provided nevertheleſs, That it ſhall and may be lawful for the ſaid Lieutenant and principal Officers of the Ordnance, and the Officers of the Navy-board, upon any emergent or extraordinary Occaſion, to pay any of the ſaid Monies appropriated by this Act to any Perſon or Perſons upon Account, by way of Impreſt; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

LXXIII. Provided alſo, That it ſhall not be conſtrued any Preference to incur any Penalty in point of Payment in courſe, as aforeſaid, if the ſaid Treaſurer of the Navy, or Pay-maſter of the Ordnance, or their Deputies reſpectively do pay ſubſequent Bills of Perſons which come and demand their Money, and bring their Warrant or Order in their Courſe for the ſame, ſo as there be ſo much Money reſerved as will ſatisfy precedent Bills or Contracts regiſtred, as aforeſaid, which ſhall not be otherwiſe diſpoſed of, but kept for them in the ſaid reſpective Offices.

CAP. II.

An Act that the Inhabitants of the Province of York may diſpoſe of their perſonal Eſtates by their Wills, notwithſtanding the Cuſtom of that Province.

'WHEREAS by Cuſtom within the Province of York, or other Uſage, the Widows and younger Children of Perſons dying Inhabitants of that Province, are intitled to a Part of the Goods and Chattels of their late Huſbands and Fathers (called her and their reaſonable Part) notwithſtanding any Diſpoſition of the ſame by their Huſbands and Fathers laſt Wills and Teſtaments, and notwithſtanding any Jointures made for the Livelihood of the ſaid Widows by their Huſbands in their Life-time, which are competent, and according to Agreement, whereby many Perſons are diſabled from making ſufficient Proviſion for their younger Children:' For Remedy whereof; Perſons within the Province of York may diſpoſe by Will of all their perſonal Eſtate.

II. Be it enacted by the King's and Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſties, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and after the ſix and twentieth Day of March one thouſand ſix hundred ninety and three, it ſhall and may be lawful for any Perſon or Perſons, inhabiting or reſiding, or who ſhall have any Goods or Chattels within the Province of York, by their laſt Wills and Teſtaments, to give, bequeath and diſpoſe of all and ſingular their Goods, Chattels, Debts, and other perſonal Eſtate to their Executor or Executors, or to ſuch other Perſon or Perſons as the ſaid Teſtator or Teſtators ſhall think fit, in as large and ample Manner, as by the Laws and Statutes of this Realm any Perſon or Perſons may give and diſpoſe of the ſame within the Province of Canterbury, or elſewhere: And that from and after the ſaid ſix and twentieth Day of March one thouſand ſix hundred ninety and three, the Widows, Children, and other the Kindred of ſuch Teſtator or Teſtators ſhall be barred to claim or demand any Part of the Goods, Chattels, or other perſonal Eſtate of ſuch Teſtator or Teſtators, in any other Manner than as by the ſaid laſt Wills and Teſtaments is limited and appointed; any Law, Statute, or Uſage to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Freemen of York and Cheſter excepted. In Part repealed by 2 & 3 Ann. c. 5.

III. Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained ſhall extend, or be conſtrued to extend, to the Citizens of the Cities of York and Cheſter, who are or ſhall be Freemen of the ſaid reſpective Cities, inhabiting therein, or within the Suburbs thereof, at the Time of their Death, but that every ſuch Citizen's Widow and Children ſhall and may have and enjoy ſuch reaſonable Part and Proportion of the Teſtator's perſonal Eſtate, as ſhe or they might or ought to have had by the Cuſtom of the Province of York, before the making of this Act.

CAP. III.

An Act for granting to their Majeſties certain Rates and Duties of Exciſe upon Beer, Ale, and other Liquors, for ſecuring certain Recompences and Advantages in the ſaid Act mentioned, to ſuch Perſons as ſhall voluntarily advance the Sum of ten hundred thouſand Pounds towards carrying on the War againſt France. [The Money advanced upon this Act, being deficient is ſupplied by 5 W. & M. cap. 5.]

Moſt Gracious Sovereigns,

WE your Majeſties moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects the Commons, in Parliament aſſembled, being ſenſible of the great and neceſſary Expences in which your Majeſties are engaged, for carrying on the preſent War againſt the French King; and being deſirous to ſupply the ſame in ſuch manner as may be leaſt grievous to your Majeſties Subjects: Therefore for the Encouragement of ſuch Perſons as ſhall voluntarily contribute to the advancing and paying into your Majeſties Exchequer, towards carrying on the ſaid War, any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding the Sum of ten hundred thouſand Pounds, upon the reſpective Terms and Recompences hereafter mentioned, we your Majeſties ſaid dutiful Subjects the Commons, in Parliament aſſembled, have given and granted, and do hereby give and grant unto your Majeſties the ſeveral additional Rates and Duties of Exciſe herein after mentioned, for and during the Term hereafter expreſſed, and do beſeech your Majeſties that it may be enacted:

III. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſeveral Rates, Duties, and Impoſitions upon Beer, Ale, Cyder, and other Liquors aforeſaid, be levied, collected, and paid unto their Majeſties, their Heirs, and Succeſſors, during the ſaid Space and Term of ninety and nine Years, in the ſame Manner and Form, and by ſuch Rules, Ways, and Means, and under ſuch Penalties and Forfeitures, as are mentioned in the Act made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act for taking away the Court of Wards and Liveries, and Tenures in Capite, and by Knights Service, and Purveyance, and for ſettling a Revenue upon his Majeſty in lieu thereof; and alſo in and by another Act made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of the ſaid late King Charles the Second, intituled, A Grant of certain Impoſitions upon Beer, Ale, and other Liquors for the Increaſe of his Majeſty's Revenue during his Life; and alſo in and by another Act made in the fifteenth Year of the Reign of the ſaid late King Charles the Second, intituled, An additional Act, for the better ordering and collecting the Duty of Exciſe, and preventing the Abuſes therein; or by any other Law in force relating to the ſaid Revenue of Exciſe; and that the aforeſaid Acts, and every Article, Rule, and Clauſe therein mentioned, as for and concerning only the Rates, Duties, and Impoſitions by this Act granted, ſhall be of full Force and Effect, to all Intents and Purpoſes, during the ſaid Term of ninety and nine Years, in like manner as if the ſame were at large and particularly recited and ſet down in the Body of this Act; and that the ſaid Rates and Duties of Exciſe, by this Act granted, ſhall from Time to Time be within the Receipt and Government of the chief Commiſſioners and Governors of the Receipt of the Exciſe for the Time being.

The Manner how the Duties ſhall be collected. 12 Car. 2. c. 24. 12 Car. 2. c. 23. 15 Car. 2. c. 11.

Commiſſioners of Exciſe to receive the Duties.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Commiſſioners and Governors for Management and Receipt of the Exciſe, at the head Office in London for the Time being, ſhall ſeparate and keep apart all and every the Monies ariſing by the Rates and Duties of Exciſe hereby granted, as the ſame ſhall from Time to Time ariſe or be paid into the ſaid Office of Exciſe, by the Receivers or Collectors of the ſame, or by any other Perſon whatſoever. And the ſaid Commiſſioners and Governors of Exciſe for the Time being are hereby required and ſtrictly enjoined, from Time to Time to pay weekly (viz.) on Wedneſday in every Week, if it be not a Holiday, and if it be, then the next Day after that is not a Holiday, all and every the Monies ariſing by the Rates and Duties of Exciſe hereby granted, into the Receipt of their Majeſties Exchequer, diſtinct and apart from the other Monies which the ſaid Commiſſioners and Governors of Exciſe ſhall receive for the Uſe of their Majeſties, their Heirs and Succeſſors.

The Monies to be kept apart, and paid Weekly into the Exchequer.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That there ſhall be provided and kept in their Majeſties Exchequer (that is to ſay) in the Office of the Auditor of the Receipts, one Book in which all the ſaid weekly Monies, which ſhall be paid into the Exchequer as aforeſaid, ſhall be entred apart and diſtinct from all other Monies paid or payable to their Majeſties, their Heirs, and Succeſſors, upon any Account whatſoever.

Book in the Exchequer of the weekly Payments.

VI. And be it further enacted, That if the ſaid Commiſſioners and Governors of Exciſe, for the Time being, ſhall refuſe or neglect to pay into the Exchequer all or any the ſaid weekly Sums appointed to be paid as aforeſaid, in ſuch Manner as they are before by this Act required to do, or ſhall divert or miſapply any of the ſame, then they, for any ſuch Offence ſhall forfeit their Offices of Commiſſioners and Governors Penalty upon Commiſſioners of Exciſe neglecting to pay or miſapplying the Money.

nors for the Management and Receipt of the Excise, and be incapable of any Office or Place of Trust whatsoever, and shall be liable to pay the full Value of any Sum or Sums so diverted or misapplied, to any Person or Persons, who will sue for the same, by any Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of their Majesties Courts of Record at Westminster, wherein no Essoin, Protection, Wager of Law, Privilege of Parliament, or other Privilege, or more than one Imparlance, shall be granted or allowed.

These Duties to be a Fund.

VII. And be it further enacted, That all the said Sums so as aforesaid appointed to be paid weekly into the Receipt of the Exchequer, during the said Term of ninety and nine Years, shall be the yearly fund for the several and respective Purposes herein after mentioned and expressed.

Natives and Foreigners may contribute 1,000,000l. before May.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Persons, Natives or Foreigners, to contribute towards the advancing of the said Sum of ten hundred thousand Pounds, for the Purposes aforesaid, by paying into the Receipt of their Majesties Exchequer, at any Time before the first Day of May one thousand six hundred ninety and three, such Sum or Sums of Money, and upon such Terms respectively, as herein after mentioned and expressed (that is to say) that out of the Monies arising by virtue of this Act, the Sum of one hundred thousand Pounds yearly, until the four and twentieth Day of June one thousand seven hundred, be separated and kept apart, as the yearly Fund to be divided amongst the Persons contributing to the raising the said Sum of ten hundred thousand Pounds; and that from and after the said four and twentieth Day of June one thousand seven hundred, out of the Monies arising by virtue of this Act, the Sum of seventy thousand Pounds be yearly separated and kept apart, as the yearly Fund, to be divided as herein after is mentioned; that any Person who will become a Contributor, shall and may advance the Sum of one hundred Pounds at the least, for which Sum so advanced he is to name to the Auditor of the Receipt, or the Clerk of the Pells in the Exchequer for the Time being, his own, or some other Life, during which he shall be intitled to receive a Share or Dividend of the said yearly Fund, as hereafter is expressed; that every Contributor may advance as many Sums of one hundred Pounds as he shall think fit, for which Sums so advanced he is to name to the Auditor of the Receipt, or the Clerk of the Pells for the Time being, one or more Life or Lives (so as no more Lives be named, than there are distinct hundred Pounds advanced) during which Life or Lives he shall be intitled to receive so many Shares or Dividends of the said yearly Fund, as there are hundred Pounds by him advanced; that all the said Lives shall be named by the several Contributors, their Executors, or Administrators, or such as shall be employed by them to pay in the said Sums, within fourteen Days after the four and twentieth Day of June one thousand six hundred ninety and three: That in the said Office of Auditor of the Receipts, and in the Office of the Clerk of the Pells severally, there be provided and kept one or more Book or Books, in which shall be fairly entred the Names of all who shall be Contributors, and of all Persons by whose Hands the said Contributors shall pay in any of the said Sums, and also the several Sums so paid, and the Time when the same are respectively paid, the said Entry to be made upon Payment of the said Sums; and also in the said Books there shall be entred the several Nominees, for whose Lives respectively the several Dividends of the said yearly Fund shall be payable, at the Times when the same shall be nominated as aforesaid: To which Books it shall be lawful for the respective Contributors, their Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, from Time to Time, at all seasonable Times, to have Resort, and to inspect the same without Fee or Reward: And as well the said several Contributors, as the said Nominees, shall be described in the said Books by their Christian and Surnames, Additions, Places of abode, and other Descriptions, which shall best ascertain the Persons; and every Contributor, upon Payment of the Sum of one or more hundred Pounds as aforesaid, shall immediately have one or more Tally or Tallies levied, importing the Receipt of the Consideration Money, for which the Contributor is to receive one or more Shares or Dividends of the said yearly Fund, during the Life or Lives of the Nominee or Nominees, whether such Nominee be the Contributor himself, or herself, or any other Person, and an Order for Payment thereof accordingly, bearing the same Date with the Tally; which Orders shall be signed by the Commissioners of the Treasury, or any three or more of them, now being, or by the Treasurer of the Exchequer, or any three or more of the Commissioners of the Treasury for the Time being; and after the signing thereof, the same shall be firm, good, valid, and effectual in the Law, according to the Purport and true Meaning thereof, and of this Act, and shall not be determinable by or upon the Deaths or Removal of any Commissioners or Commissioner of the Treasury, or Lord High Treasurer, or Treasurer of the Exchequer, or by or upon the Determination of the Power or Office of any Commissioner or Commissioners of the Treasury, or Lord High Treasurer, or Treasurer of the Exchequer, nor shall any Commissioners of the Treasury, or Lord High Treasurer, or Treasurer of the Exchequer, now or for the Time being, have Power to revoke, countermand, or make void such Orders so signed as aforesaid, or any of them. And the said respective yearly Funds of one hundred thousand Pounds, and seventy thousand Pounds (in case the whole Sum of ten hundred thousand Pounds shall be advanced upon Credit of the said Funds) shall be equally divided amongst the Contributors, their Executors, Administrators or Assigns, during the Lives of their respective Nominees, in proportion to the Sums by them advanced, yearly and every Year, by two equal half yearly Payments, that is to say, the four and twentieth Day of December, and the four and twentieth Day of June; the first Payment to be made the four and twentieth Day of December one thousand six hundred ninety and three; and upon the Death of every Nominee, the Share or Shares of the said Funds, which was or were payable during his Life, shall be equally divided amongst the rest of the Contributors, whose Nominees shall be living; and so from Time to Time upon the Death of every Nominee, whatsoever Share or Dividend was payable during the Life of such Nominee, shall be equally divided amongst the rest of the Contributors, their Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, during the Lives of Contributor of 100l. to receive a Share during the Life which he names.

Any Person may contribute as many Hundreds as he pleases.

Lives when to be named.

Books to be kept of the Names of the Contributors and Nominees, and the Sums contributed.

Contributor upon Payment of his Money, shall have Tally and Order for his Share.

Order not made void by Removal or Revocation of any Officer.

The whole yearly Funds proportionably paid to the Contributors, if the whole Sum be advanced.

Payable half yearly.

Survivors to have Advantage of the Death of the Nominees till only seven be left, and then of their reſpective Nominees; ſo that from Time to Time the whole reſpective yearly Funds ſhall be divided and paid amongſt the Contributors, whoſe Nominees do ſurvive, until ſuch Time as there ſhall be but ſeven Nominees living; after which Time there ſhall be no more Advantage of Survivorſhip; but upon the Death of every of the ſaid ſeven Nominees, a ſeventh Share of the ſaid yearly Funds ſhall be anſwered to the Uſe of their Majeſties, their Heirs and Succeſſors. And in caſe the whole Sum of ten hundred thouſand Pounds ſhall not by the firſt Day of May one thouſand ſix hundred ninety and three, be advanced and paid by ſuch Contributors upon the Terms aforeſaid, that then there ſhall be divided to and amongſt ſuch Contributors as ſhall, before the ſaid firſt Day of May, have advanced and paid as aforeſaid, towards the ſame yearly and every Year, by two equal Payments as aforeſaid, ſo much only of the ſaid yearly Funds, as ſhall bear proportion to the ſaid Sum ſo advanced after the Rates aforeſaid, that is to ſay, So much only of the ſaid yearly Funds, as ſhall, during the firſt ſeven Years, to commence from the ſaid four and twentieth Day of June one thouſand ſix hundred ninety-three, anſwer yearly the Sum of ten Pounds for every hundred Pounds ſo advanced and paid; and from and after the Expiration of the ſaid ſeven Years, during the Lives of the ſaid Nominees, and the Survivor of them, yearly and every Year, by two equal Payments as aforeſaid, the Sum of ſeven Pounds for every hundred Pounds ſo advanced and paid, to be divided as aforeſaid, with the like Benefit and Advantage of Survivorſhip, as is herein directed, in caſe the whole Sum of ten hundred thouſand Pounds ſhall be advanced and paid upon the Terms aforeſaid; and from and after the ſaid firſt Day of May one thouſand ſix hundred ninety and three, no Contributors ſhall advance any further Sums upon the Terms and Advantages aforeſaid.

the King to have the dead Man's Share.

If the whole Sum be not advanced, the Contributors ſhall be paid ſuch Part of the annual Funds as is proportionable to the Advance.

IX. And for the Encouragement of the Contributors to advance and pay forthwith into the Receipt of the Exchequer the Sums by them intended to be advanced upon the Terms aforeſaid, it is enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every ſuch Contributor ſhall receive out of the ſaid yearly Funds, for all Monies by him ſo advanced and paid, from the reſpective Days of Payment, unto the ſaid four and twentieth Day of June one thouſand ſix hundred ninety-three, Intereſt for the ſame, at the Rate of ten Pounds per Centum per Annum; which Intereſt ſhall be mentioned and expreſſed in the Order hereby appointed to be given, upon Payment of any ſuch Sums.

Ten Pounds per Cent. allowed the Contributors from the Payment till the 24th of June.

X. And be it further enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful for any Contributor, his Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns, at any Time during the Life of his or their reſpective Nominee, by any Writing under Hand and Seal, or by his or their laſt Will in Writing, to aſſign or deviſe any one or more Share or Shares of the ſaid Fund, payable during the Life of any one or more Nominee or Nominees, to any Perſon or Perſons, and ſo toties quoties; and no ſuch Aſſignments to be revokable, ſo as an Entry or Memorandum of ſuch Aſſignment or Will be made in Books to be kept for that Purpoſe, in the ſaid Office of the Receipt, within the Space of two Months after ſuch Aſſignment or Death of the Deviſor; and that upon the producing ſuch Aſſignment, or Will, or Probat thereof, in the ſaid Office of Receipt, to be entred as aforeſaid, the Party ſo producing the ſame ſhall bring therewith an Affidavit, taken before ſome Perſon authorized to take Affidavits in Cauſes depending in any of the Courts at Weſtminſter, of the due Execution of the ſaid Aſſignment or Will, which Affidavits ſhall be ſeverally filed in the ſaid Office; which ſaid Entry or Memorandum the ſaid Officers in the ſaid Receipt of the Exchequer are hereby required to make accordingly, and to file the ſaid Affidavits; and in default of ſuch Aſſignment or Deviſe by Deed or Will, the Intereſt of ſuch Contributor ſhall go to his Executors and Adminiſtrators, for the Life of the Nominee, ſuch Nominee being ſome other Perſon as aforeſaid.

Contributor may aſſign or deviſe his Intereſt.

Entry of the Aſſignment, and Will, and Affidavit of the Execution, to be filed in the Receipt Office.

If no Aſſignment, Intereſt goes to Executors.

XI. And be it further enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful for any Guardian or Truſtee, having the Diſpoſal of the Money of any Infant under the Age of Twelve Years, for the Uſe and Benefit of ſuch Infant, to advance and pay for the Purpoſe aforeſaid, the Sum of one hundred Pounds of the Monies of ſuch Infant, and ſhall thereupon, within ſuch Time as is herein before appointed for the naming of Lives, name the ſaid Infant to be a Nominee; and ſuch Infant, upon the Payment of the Sum, ſhall become a Contributor within the Meaning of this Act, and be intitled to have and receive, during his or her Life, a Share of the ſaid Funds in ſuch Manner and Proportion as any other Contributor; and the ſaid Guardian and Truſtee, as to the ſaid Sum of one hundred Pounds ſo advanced, is hereby diſcharged.

Guardians may advance Money for Infants under twelve.

XII. And to the Intent and Purpoſe that all Deceits in receiving any Share of the ſaid yearly Fund may be prevented, and that the full Advantage of Survivorſhip may be had, Be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Contributor, his Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns, upon their demanding any half yearly Payment of his or their reſpective Shares (unleſs the Nominee appear in Perſon at the ſaid Receipt) ſhall produce a Certificate of the Life of his or their reſpective Nominee, ſigned by the Miniſter and Churchwardens of the Pariſh where ſuch Nominee ſhall be then living, upon the Day when the ſaid half yearly Payment ſhall become due (if ſuch Nominee ſhall be then reſiding in the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed) which Certificate the ſaid Miniſter and Churchwardens are hereby required to make without Fee or Reward; and the ſaid Certificates ſhall be filed in the ſaid Office of Receipt of the Exchequer.

Contributor upon demanding a Share muſt bring a Certificate from the Miniſter and Churchwarden of Nominee's Life.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That in caſe any Nominee ſhall, at the Time of ſuch Demand, be reſident in Scotland, or beyond the Seas, and any one or more of the Barons of the Exchequer for the Time being ſhall certify, that upon Proof to him or them made (which Proof he and they is and are hereby authorized and required to take in a ſummary Way) it doth ſeem probable to him or them, that the ſaid Nominee is living (which Certificate is to be given, and Examination made, without any Fee or Charge) the ſaid Certificate, being filed as aforeſaid, ſhall be a ſufficient Warrant for the Payment of the ſaid half yearly Share to the reſpective Contributors, their Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns.

If Nominee be out of the Land, Certificate muſt be from a Baron.

XIV.

Contributor neglecting to demand, his half yearly Payment goes to the reſt.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That in caſe any Perſon, who by the Intent of this Act, ſhall be intitled to receive any half yearly Payment of his Share of the ſaid Funds, ſhall at any Time neglect to demand the ſame in manner as aforeſaid, until within twenty Days before the next half yearly Payment ſhall become due, he ſhall loſe and forfeit ſuch half yearly Payment ſo neglected to be demanded, and the ſame ſhall be divided amongſt the Contributors, as if his reſpective Nominee had been dead, and ſo from Time to Time upon every Default. Provided nevertheleſs, That if ſuch Contributor ſhall afterwards make a Demand in due Time in manner aforeſaid, for any following half yearly Payment, ſuch Contributor ſhall for the future have his Share of the ſaid Funds, as if ſuch Default had not been made.

Account to be made within twenty Days of every Payment of the Deaths of Nominees.

XV. And to the Intent it may appear and be aſcertained upon every half yearly Payment, unto and amongſt what Perſons, and in what Proportions the ſaid Funds are to be diſtributed, be it enacted, That in the ſaid Office of Auditor of the Receipt, every half Year, within twenty Days before the reſpective Days of Payment, there ſhall be made up an Account of the ſeveral Nominees whoſe Deaths are come to Knowledge, and of the ſeveral Contributors who have made Default in making Demand as aforeſaid, that ſo the reſt of the Contributors may have the Advantage thereof.

repaid, or the Security vacated, as to what ſhall be ſo exported, except all Brandy, for which the aforeſaid Duty ſhall not be repaid.

Rebate to Exporter of Amber Beads, &c.

VII. Provided nevertheleſs, That the ſeveral Duties charged by this Act upon all Amber Beads, Amber rough, Coral Beads, and poliſhed Coral, and all Cowries, ſhall be repaid to the Merchant exporting the ſame within three Years after the Importation thereof; any thing in this Act contained to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Brandy imported in Veſſels not 60 Gallons, forfeited.

VIII. And for preventing the Frauds frequently uſed in importing of ſtrong Water, Spirits, Aqua Vitæ, or Brandy, in ſmall Quantities, whereby the ſame is more eaſily conveyed away without Payment of the Duties thereof; Be it enacted, that from and after the five and twentieth Day of March one thouſand ſix hundred ninety-three, no Brandy, ſingle or double, ſhall be imported from Parts beyond the Seas, in any Veſſel or Caſk which ſhall not contain ſixty Gallons at the leaſt; upon Pain of forfeiting the ſaid Brandy, or the Value thereof, ſo to be imported as aforeſaid, whereof one half ſhall be to their Majeſties, and the other half to ſuch Perſons as ſhall inform or ſue for the ſame; to be recovered of the Importer or Proprietor thereof by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of their Majeſties Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, wherein no Eſſoin, Wager of Law, or Protection ſhall be allowed, nor any more than one Imparlance.

Duties to be paid into the Exchequer weekly.

IX. And be it further enacted, That all and every the Officer and Officers, who ſhall be concerned in levying the Duties ariſing by this Act, do keep a ſeparate and diſtinct Account thereof, and pay the ſame in Specie into their Majeſties Exchequer weekly; and upon Neglect and Refuſal of the ſame, every Officer offending ſhall be forejudged from, and ſhall forfeit his Place or Office.

2 W. & M. ſ. 2. c. 4.

The Sum of 5 l. per 100 l. upon Raiſins, and 2 l. 10 s. upon Currans only.

'X. And whereas by the ſaid Act, intituled, An Act for granting to their Majeſties certain Impoſitions on all Eaſt India Goods and Merchandize, and upon all wrought Silks, and upon ſeveral other Goods and Merchandize, to be imported after the five and twentieth Day of December one thouſand ſix hundred and ninety, the Sum of ten Pounds is impoſed on every hundred Pounds Value of Grocery Ware and Drugs, wherein the ſeveral Sorts of Raiſins, mentioned in the ſaid Book of Rates, are included, and likewiſe the Sum of five Pounds for every hundred Pounds Value of Currans, which is found by Experience to leſſen the Importation thereof:' Wherefore for Remedy thereof, and the Encouragement of Merchants to import the ſaid Goods, Be it enacted, That from and after the five and twentieth Day of March one thouſand ſix hundred ninety and three, and thenceforth, during the Continuance of the ſaid Act, the Sum of five Pounds only ſhall be paid for every hundred Pounds Value of Raiſins of any Sort to be imported after the ſaid Time, over and above the Rates thereon charged in the ſaid Book of Rates: And fifty Shillings, and no more, for every hundred Pounds Value of Currans imported after the ſaid Time, and thenceforth during the Continuance of the laſt mentioned Act, over and above the Rates charged thereon in the ſaid Book of Rates (the ſaid Act, or any thing therein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding) the ſame to be collected as in and by the ſaid Act is directed and appointed.

New Duties laid by 8 Annæ, c. 7.

The Length and Breadth of Calico ſettled.

'XI. And whereas by the ſaid Book of Rates a Value is impoſed on every Piece of Calico, without Mention of the Length whereof ſuch Piece ſhould conſiſt;' Be it further enacted, That no Piece of Calico imported from and after the firſt Day of March one thouſand ſix hundred ninety-two, during the Continuance of the ſaid laſt recited Act, of the Breadth of one Yard and a Quarter, or under, ſhall exceed in Length ten Yards; and no Piece of Calico imported after the ſaid Time, during the Continuance of the ſaid Act, above that Breadth, ſhall exceed ſix Yards; and if any Piece of Calico ſhall exceed thoſe Lengths, the ſame ſhall be rated according to the reſpective Length of ten Yards, and ſix Yards, for each Piece, and pay for the ſame in that Proportion for a greater or leſſer Quantity, according to the Sum rated upon each Piece of Calico in the ſaid Book of Rates; and that the Subſidy, as well as the additional Duties upon Calicoes by the ſaid laſt recited Act appointed, ſhall be collected and paid according to that Admeaſurement of each Piece of Calico ſo imported from and after the ſaid Time, and not otherwiſe; any thing in the ſaid Book of Rates or in the ſaid Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Meaſure of Eaſt Country Linen ſettled.

XII. And for the better aſcertaining, explaining, and ſettling the Meaſures of Eaſt Country Linen, Be it enacted, That all Linen of Pruſſia, Polonia, or any Part of the Eaſt Country (except Ruſſia) above the Breadth of three Quarters and half Quarter of a Yard, ſhall pay as broad Germany Linen, during the Continuance of the ſaid laſt recited Act; and all whited Hinderlands from the ſame Countries, under that Breadth, ſhall pay during the ſaid Time, as narrow Eaſt Country Linen.

2 W. & M. ſ. 2. c. 6. Coffee reduced to 2 l. 16 s. per 100 lb. Cocoa Nuts to 6 d. per lb. Tea to 1 s. per lb. and Chocolate, 1 s. per lb. See the Note on 1 W. & M. ſ. 2. c. 6. 10 Geo. 1. c. 10. 18 Geo. 2. c. 26.

'XIII. And whereas by one Act made in the firſt Year of their Majeſties Reign, intituled, An Act for the charging and collecting the Duties upon Coffee, Tea, and Chocolate, at the Cuſtom Houſe, it is enacted, That from and after the five and twentieth Day of December one thouſand ſix hundred eighty-nine, five Pounds and twelve Shillings ſhall be paid for every hundred Weight of Coffee imported into any Parts within this Kingdom, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, accounting one hundred and twelve Pounds to the hundred Weight, over and beſides what was then paid or payable for the ſame, at the Cuſtom Houſe; and for every hundred Weight of Cocoa Nuts imported, and containing as aforeſaid, eight Pounds and eight Shillings, over and beſides what was then paid for the ſame, at the Cuſtom Houſe; and for every Pound Weight of Tea imported five Shillings; and for every Pound Weight of Chocolate ready made five Shillings, over and beſides what was then charged on Tea or Chocolate reſpectively, at the Cuſtom Houſe; which Duties are ſo exceſſive, that few of the ſaid Goods or Merchandizes have been entred at the Cuſtom Houſe ſince the making of the ſaid Act, or any Duty anſwered to their Majeſties for the ſame:' Wherefore for reducing the ſaid Duties to a more reaſonable Rate and Impoſition, for the Encouragement and Advancement of Trade, and the greater Importation of the ſaid reſpective Goods and Merchandizes, Be it enacted, That from and after the ſaid five and and twentieth Day of March one thouſand ſix hundred ninety and three, there ſhall be anſwered and paid unto their Majeſties for every hundred Weight of Coffee imported, containing as aforeſaid, during the Continuance of the ſaid laſt mentioned Act, the Sum of ſix and fifty Shillings, and no more: And for every Pound of Cocoa Nuts imported from any of the Dominions or Plantations belonging to the Crown of England, after the ſaid Time, during the Continuance of the ſaid Act, the Sum of ſix Pence, and no more; and from any other Countries or Places after the ſaid Time, during the Continuance of the ſaid Act, eight Pence: And for every Pound of Tea imported after the ſaid Time, from any Place from which it may be by Law imported, one Shilling, and no more: And for every Pound Weight of Chocolate ready made, imported after the Time aforeſaid, during the Continuance of the ſaid Act, one Shilling and no more; any Thing in the ſaid laſt recited Act, or any other Matter or Thing to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding. Provided always, That the Rates and Duties hereby appointed to be paid as aforeſaid, for the ſaid reſpective Merchandizes of Coffee, Cocoa Nuts, Tea, and Chocolate, ſhall be paid and anſwered to their Majeſties, during the Continuance of the ſaid Act, over and above the reſpective Duties charged or chargeable upon every of them in the ſaid Book of Rates before the making of the ſaid Act.

Alamodes how to be imported.

XIV. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, for the better Encouragment of the Manufacture of plain Silks, called Alamodes and Luſtrings, in this Kingdom none of the ſaid foreign Silks ſhall be imported into this Kingdom after the five and twentieth Day of March one thouſand ſix hundred ninety-three, but upon Notice firſt given to the Commiſſioners or Farmers of their Majeſties Cuſtoms for the Time being, of the Quality and Quantity, with Marks, Numbers, and Package, of ſuch Silks ſo intended to be imported, with the Name of the Ship and Maſter or Commander, on which they are to be laden, and the Place into which they intend to import the ſame, and taking a Licence under the Hands of the Commiſſioners or Farmers for the Time being, or any three of them, for the lading and importing thereof as aforeſaid, which Licence they are hereby authorized and required to grant without any Fee or Reward, or any other Charge, to the Perſons demanding the ſame; any Law, Cuſtom, or Uſage to the contrary notwithſtanding: And in caſe any of the ſaid Goods ſhall be imported without ſuch Notice being firſt given, and Licence taken out, as aforeſaid, the ſame ſhall be forfeited, one Moiety thereof to the Uſe of their Majeſties, their Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other Moiety to him or them that ſhall ſeize or ſue for the ſame in any of their Majeſties Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, wherein no Eſſoin, Privilege, Protection, or Wager of Law, nor more than one Imparlance ſhall be allowed.

XV. XVII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for any Perſon or Perſons, Natives or Foreigners, Bodies Politick or Corporate, to advance and lend to their Majeſties into the Receipt of their Exchequer, upon the Credit of this Act, any Sum or Sums of Money not exceeding the Sum of five hundred and ten thouſand Pounds in the whole; and to have and receive, for the Forbearance of all ſuch Monies as ſhall be lent, Intereſt not exceeding the Rate of eight Pounds per Centum per Annum.

Money to be paid into the Exchequer weekly.

XVIII. And be it further enacted and ordained by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every the Officer and Officers, who ſhall be concerned in the levying, collecting, and receiving the Duties ariſing by this Act, do keep a ſeparate and diſtinct Account thereof, and pay the ſame in Specie into the Receipt of their Majeſties Exchequer Weekly on Wedneſday in every Week, unleſs it be an Holiday, and then the next Day after which ſhall not be an Holiday; and upon Neglect or Refuſal of the ſame ſhall incur the Penalties, Forfeitures, Damages, and Coſts, as other the Officers of the Exchequer herein after mentioned ſhall be liable to; which Monies ſo paid in, ſhall be applied to the Uſes hereafter mentioned in this Act, and no otherwiſe.

A particular Book to be kept, Tallies how to be given, Register to be in Course without Preference.

XIX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That there shall be provided and kept in their Majesties Exchequer (that is to say) in the Office of the Auditor of the Receipts, one Book, in which all Monies, that shall be paid into the Exchequer by virtue of this Act, shall be entred and registred apart and distinct from all other Monies paid or payable to their Majesties upon any Account whatsoever; and that all and every Person and Persons, Natives or Foreigners, Bodies Politick or Corporate, who shall lend any Money to their Majesties upon the Credit of this Act, and pay the same into the Receipt of the Exchequer, shall immediately have a Talley of Loan struck for the same, and an Order for his or their Repayment, bearing the same Date with the Talley; in which Order shall be also contained a Warrant for Payment of Interest for Forbearance, not exceeding the Rates aforesaid, for his or their Consideration, to be paid every three Months, until Repayment of his or their Principal; and that all Orders for Repayment of Money shall be registred in Course, according to the Date of the Talley respectively, without Preference of one before another; and that all and every Person and Persons shall be paid in Course, according as their Orders shall stand registred in the said Book, so as that the Person, Native or Foreigner, his or their Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, who shall have his, her, or their Order or Orders first entred in the said Book, shall be taken and accounted as the first Person to be paid upon the Monies to come in by virtue of this Act; and he or they, who shall have his or their Order or Orders next entred, shall be taken and accounted to be the second Person to be paid, and so successively and in Course; and that the Monies to come in by this Act shall be in the same Order liable to the Satisfaction of the said respective Parties, their Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, successively, without Preference of one before another, and not otherwise, and not to be divertible to any other Use, Intent, or Purpose whatsoever; and that no Fee, Reward, or Gratuity, directly or indirectly, be demanded or taken of any of their Majesties Subjects for providing or making any such Books, Registers, Entries, View, or Search as aforesaid, or in or for the Payment of Money lent, or the Interest as aforesaid, by any of their Majesties Officer or Officers, their Clerks or Deputies, on pain of Payment of treble Damages to the Party grieved by the Party offending, with Costs of Suit; or if the Officer himself take or demand any such Fee or Reward, then to lose his Place also. And if any undue Preference of one before another shall be made, either in point of Registry or Payment, contrary to the true Meaning of this Act, by any such Officer or Officers, then the Party offending shall be liable by Action of Debt, or on the Case to pay the Value of the Debt, Damages, and Costs, to the Party grieved, and shall be forejudged from his Place or Office; and if such Preference be unduly made by any his Deputy or Clerk, without Direction or Privity of his Master, then such Deputy or Clerk only shall be liable to such Action, Debt, Damages, and Costs, and shall be for ever after incapable of his Place or Office. And in case the Auditor shall not direct the Order, or the Clerk of the Pells record, or the Teller make Payment, according to each Person's due Place and Order, as before directed, then he or they shall be judged to forfeit, and their respective Deputies and Clerks herein offending, to be liable to such Action, Debt, Damages, and Costs, in such Manner as aforesaid. All which said Penalties, Forfeitures, Damages, and Costs, to be incurred by any of the Officers aforesaid, or any their Deputies or Clerks, shall and may be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of their Majesties Courts of Record at Westminster, wherein no Essoin, Protection, Privilege, Wager of Law, Injunction, or Order of Restraint shall be in any wise granted or allowed.

What shall not be an undue Preference.

XX. Provided always, and be it hereby declared, That if it happen that several Tallies of Loan, or Orders for Payment as aforesaid, bear Date, or be brought the same Day to the Auditor of the Receipt to be registered, then it shall be interpreted no undue Preference which of those he enters first, so he enters them all the same Day.

XXI. Provided also, That it shall not be interpreted any undue Preference to incur any Penalty in point of Payment, if the Auditor direct, and the Clerk of the Pells record, and the Teller do pay subsequent Orders of Persons that come and demand their Money, and bring their Order, before other Persons that did not come to demand their Money, and bring their Order in their Course, so as there be so much Money reserved as will satisfy precedent Orders, which shall not be otherwise disposed, but kept for them; Interest upon Loan being to cease from the Time the Money is so reserved and kept in Bank for them.

Money in the Exchequer how assigned over.

XXII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Person or Persons, to whom any Monies shall be due by virtue of this Act, after Order entred in the Book of Register aforesaid for Payment thereof, his Executors, Administrators, or Assigns by Indorsement of his Order, may assign and transfer his Right, Title, Interest, and Benefit of such Order, or any Part thereof, to any other, which being notified in the Office of the Auditor of Receipt aforesaid, and an Entry or Memorial thereof also made in the Book of Register aforesaid for Orders (which the Officers shall, upon Request, without Fee or Charge accordingly make) shall intitle such Assignee, his Executors, Administrators, and Assigns to the Benefit thereof, and Payment thereon: And such Assignee may in like Manner assign again, and so toties quoties; and afterwards it shall not be in the Power of such Person or Persons, who have or hath made such Assignments, to make void, release, or discharge the same, or any the Monies thereby due, or any Part thereof.

1,226,516l. 10s. appropriated out of this Year's Tax to the Navy. Ante, c. 1.

XXIII. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, that out of the Money which shall be levied and paid into the Receipt of the Exchequer, as well upon Loan as otherwise, by virtue of this Act, or any other Act of this Session of Parliament for granting Aids or Supplies to their Majesties (other than an Act intituled, An Act for granting to their Majesties an Aid of four Shillings in the Pound for one Year, for carrying on a vigorous War against France) the Sum of twelve hundred twenty-six thousand five hundred and sixteen

And if any Officer any way belonging to their Majesties Revenue, or to the Exchequer, Navy, or Ordnance respectively, shall wittingly and wilfully divert or misapply any Part of the Money herein appropriated, to any other Purpose, than to the Uses hereby directed, contrary to the true Intent of this Act, such Officer and Officers so offending shall forfeit his and their Office and Place, and is and are hereby disabled and made incapable to hold or execute the said Office, or any other Office whatsoever.

Punishment upon Officer misapplying.

XXIV. Provided nevertheless, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the new or additional Duties imposed by this Act, shall not extend to affect such foreign Stores as have been sold to the Use of their Majesties Navy, by Contract with the Navy Board, before the first Day of January one thousand six hundred ninety-two, so as a Certificate be given from the Commissioners of the Navy, that such foreign Stores have been so contracted for by them for their Majesties Service as aforesaid, and so as the Importer of the same do make Oath before the Commissioners appointed to manage the Customs (which Oath they are hereby impowered to administer) of the Truth of the said Contract, and that he will deliver the said Goods into their Majesties Stores, pursuant to the Contract so certified by the Commissioners of the Navy.

Foreign Stores sold to the Navy, not charged by this Act.

XXV. And as well that the Revenue of the Customs may be more duly and regularly answered, as to render the several Imposts, granted by this present Act, a more effectual Supply to their Majesties; Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That as well the Commissioners as the Patent Officers, and any of their Deputies, Clerks, or Servants, who have or shall have any Employment in or about their Majesties Customs, shall before the nineteenth Day of April next, or at their respective Admissions hereafter to such Employment, take their corporal Oaths for the true and faithful Execution, to the best of their Knowledge and Power, of their several Trusts and Employments committed to their Charge and Inspection, and that they will not take or receive any Reward or Gratuity, directly or indirectly, other than their respective Salaries, and what is or shall be allowed them from the Crown, or the regular Fees established by Law, for any Service done or to be done in the Execution of their Employment in the Customs upon any Account whatsoever.

An Oath to be taken by the Commissioners of the Customs.

CAP. VI.

An Act for raising the Militia of this Kingdom for the Year one thousand six hundred ninety and three, although the Month's Pay formerly advanced be not repaid. EXP.

CAP. VII.

An Act to prevent Abuses committed by the Traders in Butter and Cheese.

'FORASMUCH as divers Countries of this Kingdom consist chiefly of Dairy-Farms, and are in great Measure supported by the Sale of Butter and Cheese, the Growth and Product of the same; and by an Act of Parliament made in the fourteenth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act for reforming Abuses in the Weighing and false packing of Butter, the Weight thereof is ascertained, and the Goodness of the Butter is secured, under the Pains and Penalties therein mentioned: And whereas the Cheesemongers of London, their Factors or Agents (without any Authority) have appointed in all or most of the Sea-port Towns in the said Counties a certain Officer, called a Weigher, who oftentimes, several Weeks after the Cheese and Butter hath been bought and approved by the Factors and Agents of the said Cheesemongers at the Seller's House, have taken upon them (without any Authority) to weigh and search the said Butter when the same comes to the Sea Ports to be shipped, and there pretend that the same is faulty, and set Rates of Deduction thereupon, and give Notes thereof to the Factors who bought such Butter; and when the Factor comes to pay the Seller for the same, they demand an Abatement accordingly, which if the Seller refuseth to allow, there are frequent Indictments or Informations exhibited against the Sellers, upon the said Act of the fourteenth of the said late King, and great Oppressions have been and are daily committed, to the great Loss and Damage of divers Land Owners and Farmers in the said Counties, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of the said Act: For Prevention whereof,

13 & 14 Car. 2. c. 26.

3 & 4 Ed. 6. c. 21.

II. Be it enacted by the King's and Queen's most Excellent Majesties, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That after the Factor or Buyer hath bought and contracted for the said Commodity, and approved the same at the Seller's House, or the Place where he exposes the same to Sale, by searching and weighing the same (if he think fit) the Seller shall not after be charged or chargeable with, or liable to any of the Penalties in the said recited Act of the fourteenth Year of the said late King Charles the Second mentioned or inflicted, upon any Pretence of Want of Weight, false Packing, or mouldy Butter, or the Tare or Weight not being set upon the Cask, or otherwise; but from thenceforth shall be and Seller of Butter, &c. discharged from the Penalty of 13 & 14 Car. 2. c. 26. after the Buyer hath bought and approved of the Commodity is hereby discharged of and from the said Act; any other Law, Statute, or Usage to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

Penalty upon Seller changing, &c. the Commodity after sold.

III. And for the preventing any Fraud in the Seller, after the Factor or Buyer hath bought and contracted for the said Butter, and approved of the same; Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Factor or Buyer shall set his Seal or Mark upon the said Butter, or the Cask in which it is, or his Name at length; and in case the same shall afterwards be exchanged or be opened, and the Cask wherein the same is put up changed, or any bad and decayed Butter shall be mixed and packed up with sound and good Butter, or any other Fraud be committed by the Seller, and the Offender be thereof convicted upon Oath made of the said Offence before one or more of their Majesties Justice or Justices of the Peace by One or more Witness or Witnesses (which Oath the said Justice or Justices are hereby impowered and required to administer) or upon Confession of the Offender or Offenders before such Justice or Justices, the said Party or Parties shall forfeit the Sum of twenty Shillings for every such Firkin and Offence, to be levied by Distress and Sale of the Offenders Goods and Chattels, the Overplus to be restored after all Charges of the said Distress defrayed: And every Constable of the Parish, or chief Constable of the Hundred, where such Offence shall be committed, are hereby authorized and required to levy the same accordingly by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of the said Justice or Justices so to do.

The Weighers of Butter and Cheese shall ship off all that belongs to the London Cheesemongers, &c.

IV. And to the End the Trade for Butter and Cheese may not be ingrossed by particular Persons, but may be free and open to all Persons, and especially to all the Cheesemongers who are free of the City of London; Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every Warehouse-keeper, Weigher, Searcher, or Shipper of Butter and Cheese, at any Port or Place in this Kingdom shall receive into his or their Possession or Warehouse, all Butter and Cheese that shall be brought to him or them for any of the Cheesemongers free of the City of London, or other Person making the said Commodities, and shall take due Care thereof until the same shall be shipped, and shall ship the said Butter and Cheese successively, as it shall come to his or their Hands respectively (without undue preferring one Man's Goods before another's) on the next Ship, or Hoy, or Vessel, that shall come to such Port or Place to lade Butter or Cheese for London (except the Owners of the said Goods shall give Orders to the contrary) and shall receive for his and their respective Care and Pains therein, of the Owners of the said Goods, the Sum of two Shillings and six Pence for every Load, and no more, and so proportionably: And if any such Person or Persons, or his or their Servant or Servants, shall refuse or neglect to receive such Goods, or to take due Care thereof, or shall not ship the said Goods as they come to his or their Hands successively as aforesaid, that every such Offender and Offenders, being thereof convict in Manner as aforesaid, shall forfeit for every Firkin of Butter ten Shillings, and for every Weigh of Cheese five Shillings, to be levied in Manner as aforesaid.

Fee to the Weigher.

Penalty upon Weighers offending.

Weigher, &c. shall keep a Book of the receiving and shipping the Butter, &c.

V. And for the Prevention of Frauds and undue Practices herein, be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every Warehouse-keeper, Weigher, Searcher, or Shipper of Butter and Cheese, in any such Port or Place, shall from and after the first Day of April one thousand six hundred ninety and three, keep a Book, wherein he and they shall duly and fairly enter all Butter and Cheese that shall be brought to him or them, as the same comes to his or their respective Hands; in which Entry shall be inserted the Time when such Goods were received, and the Quantity of such Goods, and the Name of the Owner of the same; and shall make the like Entries when the said Goods are shipped or put on board, of the Time when the same were shipped on board, and the Master's Name, and the Vessels Name in which the same are shipped or put on board, and to whom the same are consigned; which Book so kept shall be free and open for all Persons to see and search at all Times, without paying any thing for such Search; and if such Warehouse-keeper, Weigher, Searcher, or Shipper of Butter and Cheese, shall not keep such Book as aforesaid, or shall refuse, neglect, or omit to make such Entries therein as aforesaid, or shall make any undue Entries therein (by undue preferring one Man's Goods before another) or shall refuse in the Day-time to produce such Book to be searched as aforesaid; that every such Offender and Offenders, being thereof convict in Manner as aforesaid, shall forfeit for every Firkin of Butter two Shillings and six Pence, and for every Weigh of Cheese two Shillings and six Pence, and for every other the aforesaid Offence the Sum of two Shillings and six Pence, to be levied in Manner as aforesaid: And in case such Offender or Offenders shall not have Goods and Chattels sufficient for the levying the said Penalty, that then it shall and may be lawful for the Justice or Justices, before whom such Conviction shall be made, to commit such Offender and Offenders to the Gaol without Bail or Mainprize, there to remain until such Penalties shall be paid and satisfied.

Penalty upon Conviction before a Justice.

Penalty upon Master of Ship refusing to take in Butter, &c.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Master of any Ship, Hoy, or Vessel coming to such Port or Place to lade Butter and Cheese, or his or their Servant or Servants, shall refuse to take and receive on board his and their respective Vessels any such Butter and Cheese as shall be tendred to be shipped by such Warehouse-keeper, Weigher, Searcher, or Shipper of Butter and Cheese, before the same be sufficiently laden, that then every such Offender and Offenders, being thereof convict in Manner aforesaid, shall forfeit for every firkin of Butter so refused five Shillings, and for every Weigh of Cheese so refused two Shillings and six Pence, to be levied in Manner as aforesaid.

Penalties divided betwixt Informer and Poor.

VII. Provided, That one Half of all Penalties and Forfeitures within this Act shall be to the Use of the Poor inhabiting within the Parish where such Offence shall be from Time to Time committed, to be paid to the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of and in such Parish, and the other Half to the Informer, to be distributed by the said Justice or Justices before whom the Offender or Offenders shall be convicted.

VIII.

VIII. Provided always, That this Act, nor any Thing therein contained, shall extend to exclude any Cheesemonger or Cheesemongers, free of the City of London, from sending his and their own proper Vessels for his and their own proper and respective Goods; but that it shall and may be lawful to and for such Person and Persons to send his and their own proper Vessels, or such other Vessels as he or they shall hire and send from London to freight by Charter-party for his and their own respective proper Goods, and to and for the Warehouse-keeper at such Ports where such Vessels shall be sent, to ship the aforesaid Goods on board, and to and for such Masters of such Vessels, and their Servants, to receive the same, as he, they, or any of them, could or might have done before the making of this Act. Cheesemongers, &c. may make use of their own Vessels.

IX. Provided, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to any Warehouse which now is, or hereafter shall be, within the Counties of Chester or Lancaster, or within the County of the City of Chester, nor to any Vessel or Boat at any Time belonging to, or that shall come into, any of the Ports or Havens of any of the said Counties. Warehouses, &c. in Chester and Lancaster, saved.

X. Provided always, That if any Person or Persons shall think him or themselves aggrieved by the Determination of any Justice of the Peace, who shall at any Time act in pursuance of the Powers to him given by this Act, it shall and may be lawful to and for such Person or Persons to appeal to the next General Quarter-Sessions of the Peace to be held for the County, Riding, City, or Town-corporate, where the said Offence shall be committed, the Determination of which Justices shall be final and conclusive to all Parties; the Person so appealing first giving to the Party accused a Bond of the Penalty of twenty Pounds, with one or more sufficient Sureties to the Liking of the said Justice of Peace from whom the said Appeal shall be so made, to pay such Costs to the said Party accused, as the said Court of Quarter-Sessions shall allow, in case the Appellant be not relieved upon his said Appeal; the said Costs to be so paid within one Month after the hearing and determining the said Appeal. Appeal lies from Justice to Sessions, Security being given for Costs. See 8 Geo. 1. c. 27.

CAP. VIII.

An Act for encouraging the apprehending of Highwaymen.

'WHEREAS the Highways and Roads within the Kingdom of England, and Dominion of Wales, 'have been of late Time more infested with Thieves and Robbers than formerly, for want of due 'and sufficient Encouragement given, and Means used, for the Discovery and Apprehension of such Of-'fenders, whereby so many Murders and Robberies have been committed, that it is become dangerous in 'many Parts of the Nation for Travellers to pass on their lawful Occasions, to the great Dishonour of the 'Laws of this Realm, and the Government thereof:' For remedy whereof,

II. Be it enacted by the King's and Queen's most Excellent Majesties, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the five and twentieth Day of March one thousand six hundred ninety and three, all and every Person and Persons, who shall apprehend and take one or more such Thieves or Robbers, and prosecute him or them so apprehended and taken, until he or they be convicted of any Robbery committed in or upon any Highway, Passage, Field, or open Place, shall have and receive from the Sheriff or Sheriffs of the County where such Robbery and Conviction shall be made and done, without paying any Fee for the same, for every such Offender so convicted the Sum of forty Pounds, within one Month after such Conviction and Demand thereof made, by tendring a Certificate to the said Sheriff or Sheriffs under the Hand or Hands of the Judge or Justices before whom such Felon or Felons shall be convicted, certifying the Conviction of such Felon or Felons for a Robbery done within the County of the said Sheriff or Sheriffs, and also that such Felon or Felons was or were taken by the Person or Persons claiming the said Reward; and in case any Dispute shall happen to arise between the Persons so apprehending any of the said Thieves and Robbers touching their Right and Title to the said Reward, that then the said Judge or Justices, so respectively certifying as aforesaid, shall in and by their said Certificate direct appoint the said Reward to be paid unto and amongst the Parties claiming the same, in such Share and Proportions as to the said Judge or Justices shall seem just and reasonable. And if it shall happen any such Sheriff or Sheriffs shall die, or be removed before the Expiration of one Month after such Conviction and Demand made of the said Reward (not being paid as aforesaid) that then the next succeeding Sheriff or Sheriffs of the said County shall pay the same within one Month after Demand and Certificate brought as aforesaid: And if Default of Payment of the said Sum or Sums of Money shall happen to be made by any Sheriff or Sheriffs, such Sheriff or Sheriffs so making Default shall forfeit to the Person or Persons, to whom such Money is due as aforesaid, double the Sum or Sums of Money he ought to have paid, to be recovered by him or them, or his or their Executors or Administrators, in any of their Majesties Courts of Record at Westminster, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, wherein but one Imparlance, and no Essoin, Protection, or Wager of Law shall be allowed, with treble Costs of Suit by him or them expended in the Recovery of the same. Reward to him that shall take an Highwayman. Extended to Robberies in London, by 6 Geo. 1. c. 23. §. 8. How to be recovered.

III. And be it further enacted, That in case any Person or Persons shall happen to be killed by any such Robber or Robbers, endeavouring to apprehend or in making Pursuit after him or them, that then the Executors or Administrators, or such Person or Persons to whom the Right of Administration of the personal Estate of each Person so killed shall belong (upon Certificate delivered under the Hands and Seals of the Judge or Justices of Assize for the County where the Fact was done, or the two next Justices of the Executors, &c. of Persons killed shall have the Reward.

the Peace, of such Person or Persons being so killed, which Certificate the said Judge or Justices, upon sufficient Proof before them made, are immediately required to give without Fee or Reward) shall receive the Sum of forty Pounds from the Sheriff or Sheriffs of the County where the said Fact was done and committed, and upon Failure of Payment thereof by the said Sheriff or Sheriffs, double the said Sum of forty Pounds to be recovered against him or them with treble Costs of Suit, in Manner and Form as aforesaid.

Sheriffs shall be allowed it in their Accounts.

IV. And it is hereby further enacted, That all Sheriffs, Their Executors, or Administrators, upon producing such respective Certificates, and the Receipts for the Money by them paid in pursuance of this Act, shall be allowed, and are hereby impowered to deduct, upon their accounting with their Majesties, their Heirs, and Successors, all Monies (other than the double Sum and Sums of Money, and Costs of Suit) which they shall disburse as aforesaid, without any Fee or Reward whatsoever.

Sheriff not having sufficient, to be repaid by the Treasury. See also 3 Geo. 1. c. 15. §. 4.

V. Provided always, That if, upon the Account of any Sheriff or Sheriffs, there shall not be Monies sufficient in the Hands of such Sheriff or Sheriffs to reimburse him or them such Monies paid by him or them by virtue of this Act, that then the Sheriff or Sheriffs, having so paid the said Monies, shall have the same repaid by the Lord Treasurer or Commissioners of their Majesties Treasury for the Time being, out of the Revenue of the Crown, upon Certificate from the Clerk of the Pipe to that Effect.

Highwayman's Horse, &c. given to the Apprehender.

VI. And it is hereby further enacted, that all and every Person or Persons who shall so take, apprehend, prosecute, or convict such Robber or Robbers as aforesaid, as a further Reward, shall have and enjoy to his and their proper Use and Behoof the Horse, Furniture, and Arms, Money, or other Goods of the said Robber or Robbers that shall be taken with him or them; any their Majesties Right or Title, Bodies Politick or Corporate, or the Right or Title thereunto of the Lord of any Manor, Liberty, or Franchise, or of him or them lending or letting the same to hire to any such Robber or Robbers, in any wise notwithstanding. Provided always, That this Clause, or any Thing therein contained, shall not be construed to extend to take away the Right of any Person or Persons to such Horses, Furniture and Arms, Money, or other Goods, from whom the same were before feloniously taken.

Person concerned discovering two others pardoned.

VII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons, being out of Prison shall, from and after the said five and twentieth Day of March, commit any Robbery, and afterwards discover two or more Person or Persons, who already hath or hereafter shall commit any Robbery, so as two or more of the Person or Persons discovered shall be convicted of such Robbery, any such Discoverer shall himself have, and is hereby intitled to, the gracious Pardon of their Majesties, their Heirs and Successors, for all Robberies which he or they shall have committed at any Time or Times before such Discovery made; which Pardon shall be likewise a good Bar to any Appeal brought for any such Robbery.

CAP. IX.

An Act for reviving two former Acts of Parliament, for the repairing the Highways in the County of Hertford.

15 Car. 2. c. 1.

'WHEREAS there was an Act of Parliament made in the fifteenth Year of the Reign of our late Sovereign Lord King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act for repairing the Highways within the Counties of Hertford, Cambridge, and Huntingdon, to be in Force for the Space of eleven Years from the Commencement thereof: And whereas there was afterwards one other Act of Parliament made in the sixteenth and seventeenth Years of the Reign of the said late King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act for Continuance of a former Act, for repairing the Highways within the County of Hertford, both which said Acts are some Years past expired, and the Highways within the said County of Hertford, intended by the said Acts to be repaired, are since (by great Burthens and Carriages used to pass through the same) become dangerous and impassible:' To the End therefore that the said Highways within the County of Hertford (being the great Roads to the North Parts of this Kingdom) may be sufficiently repaired and amended by the Provisions mentioned in the said Acts, the same being not to be done by the ordinary Course of the Laws and Statutes of this Realm, may it please your Majesties that it may be enacted:

16 & 17 Car. 2. c. 10.

Further continued by 6 Geo. 1. c. 20.

Toll at Wades Mill revived for 15 Years.

II. And be it enacted by the King's and Queen's most excellent Majesties, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, That the Toll mentioned in the said Acts to be taken at Wades Mill for the County of Hertford be revived, set up, and taken again, in the manner by the said Acts mentioned, to continue for the Space of fifteen Years from the passing of this Act, and that the Monies thereby arising be employed for the Repair of the said Highways within the said County of Hertford, according to the Tenor of the said Acts.

Toll when to cease.

16 & 17 Car. 2. c. 10.

III. Provided always, That if the said Highways before the Expiration of the said Term of fifteen Years be in good and sufficient Repair, and an Adjudication thereof be made at the Assize or General Quarter-Sessions to be holden for the said County (as is provided by the said Statutes of the sixteenth and seventeenth Years of King Charles the Second) the Toll shall from thenceforth cease and determine, as in the said Act is directed and appointed.

Officers and collecting, as in former Acts.

IV. And it is hereby further enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, that the several Officers and Persons impowered in and by the said Acts to the Purposes therein mentioned, so far as may any ways concern or relate to the said County of Hertford, shall from henceforth have the like Powers and Authorities by virtue of this present Act, as they and every of them had by virtue of the said former Acts; and that all Clauses, Provisions, Penalties, Forfeitures, and Exceptions whatsoever therein mentioned concerning the he collecting, paying, ingaging, or accounting for the said Toll at Wades Mill, be from henceforth by virtue of this Act renewed and put in Execution again, during the Continuance of this present Act, as if they were herein particularly expressed and repeated. [Repealed as to the County of Hertford, 6 Geo. 2. c. 24.

CAP. X.

An Act for prohibiting the Importation of all Foreign Hair Buttons.

WHEREAS by an Act made in the fourteenth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act prohibiting the Importation of Foreign Bone-lace, Cut-work, Imbroidery, Fringe, Band-strings, Buttons, and Needle-work, amongst other Things in the said Act mentioned, all Foreign Buttons made of Thread or Silk are prohibited to be imported and sold in the Kingdom of England, or Dominion of Wales: And whereas since the making of the said Act, Hair Buttons are chiefly used and worn, and the Button-makers of England do make better Hair Buttons than any are imported from Foreign Parts, and are able to supply this Kingdom with greater Quantities of them than they can make use of; yet because Buttons made of Hair are not expressly mentioned in the said Act (although they were thereby intended to be prohibited) many Persons who are Enemies to the Manufactures of this Kingdom, taking Advantage of the said Omission, do daily import such great Quantities of Hair Buttons, that the Button Trade of England is very much decayed, and many Thousands of poor People, that were formerly kept at work in the said Trade, are like to perish for want of Employment, and all the other Mischiefs mentioned in the said Act, which relate to the Button Trade, and were thereby intended to be remedied, are become as great as they were at the Time of the making of the said Act; For Redress whereof, and the more effectual Prevention of the like Mischiefs for the future; 13 & 14 Car. 2. c. 13. 10 W. 3. c. 2. 8 Ann. c. 6. 4 Geo. 1. c. 7. 7 Geo. 1. c. 12.

II. Be it enacted by the King's and Queen's most Excellent Majesties, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the five and twentieth Day of March in the Year of our Lord one thousand six hundred ninety and three, no Foreign Buttons made or to be made of Hair, nor any other Foreign Buttons whatsoever, shall be imported, brought in, sent, or conveyed into the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Port or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, or bartered, sold, exchanged, or offered to be bartered, sold, or exchanged, upon pain of forfeiting all the said Buttons so imported, brought in, bartered, sold, or exchanged, or offered to be bartered, sold, or exchanged, and upon such further and other Pains, Penalties, and Forfeitures, as are mentioned, contained, and expressed in the said recited Act; one Moiety of all which Forfeitures to be to the Use of our Sovereign Lord and Lady the King and Queen, their Heirs, and Successors, and the other Moiety thereof to the Person or Persons that shall sue for the same in any of their Majesties Courts of Record, by Bill, Plaint, Action of Debt, Information, or otherwise, wherein no Essoin, Protection, or Wager of Law shall be allowed. Foreign Hair Buttons not to be imported, &c. Penalty.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That for the preventing the importing, bartering, selling, vending, or exposing to sale any Foreign Buttons whatsoever, the Justices of the Peace within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Port or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, within their several and respective Counties, Cities, and Towns Corporate, have the same Authority and Power, and the same Authority and Power is hereby given unto the said Justices, to issue forth their Warrants, to seize, or cause to be seized, all Foreign Buttons whatsoever, as by the said Act is given unto them for the seizing of Foreign Buttons made of Thread or Silk, and other the Manufactures in the said Act mentioned. Justices of Peace have Power to seize. Farther Provisions concerning Buttons, 10 W. 3. c. 2. 8 Ann. c. 6. 4 Geo. 1. c. 7. and 7 Geo. 1. c. 12.

CAP. XI.

An Act for examining, taking, and stating the publick Accounts of this Kingdom. Exp. [Revived by 5 & 6 W. & M. Cap. 23. till April 1695.]

CAP. XII.

An Act to make Parishioners of the Church United Contributors to the Repairs and Ornaments of the Church to whom the Union is made.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made in the seventeenth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second of blessed Memory, Provision was made for the Uniting Churches in Cities and Towns Corporate: And forasmuch as it is highly reasonable that Parishioners of Parishes whose Churches are demolished, and either before or afterwards united to other Churches, should be Contributors towards the Repairs and other Parochial Charges of such other Church, to which by Virtue of the said Act they are united; 17 Car. 2. c. 3. 37 H. 8. c. 21.

II.

If two Churches be united, and one of them down, the Parishioners of that Church shall pay toward the Repairs, &c. of the other. Vin. V. 21. 594.

II. Therefore be it enacted by the King's and Queen's most Excellent Majesties, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That where any Churches heretofore have been, or hereafter shall be, united by virtue of the said Act, and one of the said Churches so united was, at the Time of such Union, or shall afterwards be demolished, that in all such Cases, as often as the Church which was or shall be made the Church Presentative, and to which the Union was or shall be made, shall be out of Repair, or there shall be need of decent Ornaments for the Performance of Divine Service therein, that the Parishioners of the Parish, whose Church shall then be down or demolisht, shall bear and pay towards the Charges of such Repairs and decent Ornaments, such Share and Proportion as the Archbishop or Bishop that shall make such Union shall by the same Union direct and appoint; and for want of such Direction and Appointment, then one third Part of such Charges of the Repairs and decent Ornaments which shall be made or provided; and the same shall be rated, taxed, and levied, and in Default thereof such Process and Proceedings shall be had and made against him or them, as if it were for the Reparation and finding decent Ornaments for their own Parish Church, if no such Union had been made; any Law, Custom, Usage, or Opinion, to the contrary heretofore notwithstanding.

CAP. XIII.

EXP. An Act for punishing Officers and Soldiers, who shall mutiny or desert their Majesties Service, and for punishing False Musters, and for the Payment of Quarters. [Continued by 5 & 6 W. & M. Cap. 15 till 1 March 1693.]

CAP. XIV.

EXP. An Act for Review of the Quarterly Poll granted to their Majesties in the last Session of this present Parliament.

CAP. XV.

An Act for continuing certain Acts therein mentioned, and for charging several Joint Stocks.

Most Gracious Sovereigns,

WE your Majesties most dutiful and loyal Subjects the Commons, in Parliament assembled, for a further Supply to your Majesties for the more effectual prosecuting the present War against France, have cheerfully and unanimously given and granted unto your Majesties the Impositions and Duties hereafter mentioned, for and during the respective Terms hereafter expressed; and do beseech your Majesties to accept thereof, and that it may be enacted; Duties upon Wine and Vinegar.

II. And be it enacted by the King's and Queen's most Excellent Majesties, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by Authority of the same, That the several Impositions and Duties upon Wines and Vinegar, granted by an Act made in the first Year of the late King James, intituled, An Act for granting his Majesty an Imposition upon all Wines and Vinegar, imported between the four and twentieth Day of June one thousand six hundred eighty-five, and the four and twentieth Day of June one thousand six hundred ninety and three; which said Act, by an Act of this present Parliament, made in the second Year of their Majesties Reign, was continued from the three and twentieth Day of June one thousand six hundred and ninety-three, until the four and twentieth Day of June one thousand six hundred ninety-six, shall be continued from the three and twentieth Day of June one thousand six hundred and ninety-six, until the four and twentieth Day of June one thousand six hundred and ninety-eight, and no longer: And that the said first mentioned Act, and all Powers, Provisions, Penalties, Articles, and Clauses therein contained, shall continue and be of full Force and Effect, until the said four and twentieth Day of June one thousand six hundred and ninety-eight, and shall be applied, practised, and executed, for the raising, levying, collecting, answering, and paying the said Duties hereby continued, according to the Tenor and Intent of this present Act, as fully to all Intents and Purposes, as if all and every the Clauses, Matters, and Things in the said Act contained, had been again repeated in this Act, and particularly enacted.

Duties upon Tobacco and Sugar. 1 Jac. 2. c. 3.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Rates and Duties and Impositions for all Sorts of Tobacco granted by an Act made in the first Year of the late King James, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty an Imposition upon all Tobacco and Sugar, imported between the four and twentieth Day of June one thousand six hundred eighty-five, and the four and twentieth Day of June one thousand six hundred ninety-three, which said Act (as for and concerning the said Duties and Impositions upon Tobacco only) by an Act of this present Parliament, made in the second Year of their Majesties Reign, was continued from the said three and twentieth Day of June in the said Year one thousand six hundred ninety-three, until the four and twentieth Day of June one thousand six hundred ninety-six, shall be continued from the said three and twentieth Day of June one thousand six hundred and ninety-six, until the four four and twentieth Day of June one thousand six hundred and ninety-eight, and no longer; and that the said Act made in the first Year of the late King James, for granting the said Impositions upon Tobacco and Sugar, as for and concerning Tobacco only, and all Powers, Provisions, Penalties, Articles and Clauses therein contained, concerning the said Rates and Duties upon all Sorts of Tobacco, shall continue and be of full Force and Effect, until the said four and twentieth Day of June one thousand six hundred and ninety-eight; and shall be applied, practised, and executed for the raising, levying, executing, answering, and paying the said Duties upon Tobacco hereby continued, according to the Tenor and Intent of this present Act, as fully to all Intents and Purposes, as if the said Act, and all and every the Clauses, Matters, and Things therein particularly contained, had been again repeated in this Act, and particularly enacted for this Purpose.

Duties upon East-India Goods, &c. 2 W. & M. st. 2. c. 4. continued till 1697. 1 Jac. 2. c. 3.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the several additional and other Rates, Impositions, Duties, and Charges, upon the several Sorts of Goods and Merchandize granted by an Act of this present Parliament made in the second Year of their Majesties Reign, intituled, An Act for granting to their Majesties certain Impositions upon all East-India Goods and Manufactures, and upon all wrought Silks, and several other Goods and Merchandize, to be imported after the five and twentieth Day of December one thousand six hundred and ninety; and which were thereby to have Continuance until the tenth Day of November one thousand six hundred ninety-five, shall be continued from the ninth Day of November one thousand six hundred ninety-five, and shall be raised, levied, collected, answered, and paid unto their Majesties, their Heirs and Successors, until the tenth Day of November one thousand six hundred ninety-seven; and that the said Act, intituled, An Act for granting to their Majesties certain Impositions upon all East-India Goods and Manufactures, and upon all wrought Silks, and several other Goods and Merchandize, to be imported after the five and twentieth Day of December one thousand six hundred and ninety, and all Powers, Provisions, Penalties, Articles, and Clauses therein contained, shall continue and be of full Force and Effect, until the said tenth Day of November one thousand six hundred ninety-seven, and shall be applied, practised, and executed for the raising, levying, collecting, answering, and paying the said Duties hereby continued, according to the Tenor and Intent of this present Act, as fully to all Intents and Purposes, as if the said last mentioned Act, and all and every the Clauses, Matters, and Things therein contained, had been again repeated in this Act, and enacted particularly; except only as to such Part of the said Impositions, touching which other Provisions or Alterations are or shall be made by any other Act of this present Session of Parliament, which other Provisions or Alterations are to be observed, and to continue during the Continuance of this present Act.

Clause of Credit for 500,000*l.* at 3 per Cent. See 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 10. §. 7.

V. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any Person and Persons to advance and lend unto their Majesties, as well upon the Security of this Act, as of the several herein before mentioned Acts, from and after the several and respective Sums thereupon respectively charged shall be fully satisfied and paid, any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding in the whole the Sum of five hundred thousand Pounds, and to have and receive for the Forbearance thereof any Sum not exceeding eight Pounds by the hundred for one whole Year, and no more, directly or indirectly.

'The following 8 Sections are expired.'

Regiſter to be kept in the Exchequer; Tallies and Payment of the Money in Course. Five Pounds per Cent. upon East-India Stocks. Twenty Shillings upon African Shares. Five Pounds upon Hudson's-Bay Shares. Person interested only to swear to Debenture for Rebate.

Five hundred Pounds Penalty on Person insuring to import prohibited Goods, or Goods without Custom.

'XIV. And whereas it is found by Experience, That great Quantities of Goods are daily imported 'from foreign Parts in a fraudulent and clandestine Manner, without paying the Customs and Duties due 'and payable to their Majesties, and the same hath of late been much increased and promoted by ill Men, who, 'notwithstanding the Laws already made, do undertake as Insurers, or otherwise, to deliver such Goods 'so clandestinely imported, at their Charge and Hazard, into the Houses, Warehouses, or Possession of 'the Owners thereof:' For the preventing so great a Mischief, Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every Person or Persons whatsoever, who, by way of Insurance or otherwise, shall undertake or agree to deliver any Goods or Merchandizes whatsoever, to be imported from Parts beyond the Seas, at any Port or Place whatsoever within this Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, without paying the Customs and Duties that shall be due and payable for the same at such Importation, or any prohibited Goods whatsoever, or in pursuance of such Insurance, Undertaking, or Agreement, shall deliver, or cause or procure to be delivered, any prohibited Goods, or shall deliver, cause or procure to be delivered, any Goods or Merchandizes whatsoever, without paying such Duties and Customs as aforesaid, knowing thereof, and all and every their Aiders, Abettors, and Assistants, shall for every such Offence forfeit and lose the Sum of five hundred Pounds over and above all other Forfeitures and Penalties to which they are liable by any Act already in Force.

This and the following Section farther provided for by 8 & 9 W. 3. c. 36. §. 2.

Five hundred Pounds Penalty upon Person, who shall be so insured.

XV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every Person or Persons whatsoever, who shall agree to pay any Sum or Sums of Money for the insuring or conveying any Goods or Merchandizes that shall be so imported, without paying the Customs and Duties due and payable at the Importation thereof, or of any prohibited Goods whatsoever, or shall receive or take such prohibited Goods into his or their House, or Warehouse, or other Place on Land, or such other Goods, before such Customs and Duties are paid, knowing thereof, shall also for every such Offence forfeit and lose the like Sum of five hundred Pounds; the one Half of the said Forfeitures to be to their Majesties, and the other Half to the Informer, or such Person or Persons as shall sue for the same.

Reward to Insurer, discovering.

XVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if the Insurer, Conveyor, or Manager of such Fraud, be the Discoverer of the same, he shall not only keep and enjoy the Insurance Money or Reward given him, and be discharged of the Penalties to which he is liable by reason of such Offence, but shall also have to his own Use one Half of the Forfeitures hereby imposed upon the Party or Parties making such Insurance or Agreement, or receiving the Goods as aforesaid; and in case no Discovery shall be made by the Insurer, Conveyor, or Manager as aforesaid, and the Party or Parties insured or concerned in such Agreement shall make Discovery thereof, he shall recover and receive back such Insurance Money or Præmium, as he hath paid upon such Insurance or Agreement, and shall have to his own Use one Moiety of the Forfeitures imposed upon such Insurer, Conveyor, or Manager as aforesaid, and shall also be discharged of the Forfeitures hereby imposed upon him or them.

Manner of recovering the Penalty.

XVII. And be it enacted, That all the said Penalties and Forfeitures shall be recoverable according to the Course of the Court of Exchequer, in like Manner as other Penalties and Forfeitures in like Cases are recoverable.

Proviso.

XVIII. Provided, That no Penalty hereby inflicted shall be recoverable, unless the same be prosecuted within twelve Months after the Time such Fact was committed; any thing in this Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

Application of the Duties.

XIX. And for preventing Doubts touching the Application of Monies, which shall accrue to their Majesties for the Custom of Prize-goods, be it declared and directed by the Authority aforesaid, That all Duties, as well Customs as Imposts, and by what Act or Acts soever, that shall accrue and be payable to their Majesties at the Custom-house after the five and twentieth Day of March one thousand six hundred ninety-three, for any Goods or Merchandize taken, condemned, and sold as Prize, shall be applied intirely to the Credit of an Act of this present Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for granting to their Majesties certain additional Impositions upon several Goods and Merchandize, for the prosecuting the present War against France, any other Act to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

4 & 5 W. & M. c. 5.

CAP. XVI.

An Act to prevent Frauds by clandestine Mortgages.

'WHEREAS great Frauds and Deceits are too often practised by necessitous and evil-disposed Persons in borrowing of Money, and giving Judgments, Statutes, and Recognizances privately, for securing the Repayment of the said Money, and the same Persons do afterwards borrow Money upon Security of their Lands of other Persons, and do not acquaint the latter Lender thereof with the same, whereby such late Lender is very often in Danger to lose his whole Money, or forced to pay off the Debts secured by the said Judgments, Statutes, and Recognizances, before they can have any Benefit of the said Mortgages: And whereas divers Persons do many Times mortgage their Lands more than once, without giving Notice of their first Mortgage, whereby Lenders of Money upon Second or after Mortgages do often lose their Money, and are put to great Charges in Suits and otherwise:' For Remedy whereof, and preventing the same as much as may be for the future, Debtor upon Judgment, &c. taking up Money of another upon a Mortgage, without Notice of the Judgment to the Mortgagee, shall lose his Equity to redeem.

II. Be it enacted by the King's and Queen's most Excellent Majesties, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That if any Person or Persons, from and after the first Day of May which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand six hundred ninety and three, shall borrow any Money, or for any other valuable Consideration, for the Payment thereof, voluntarily give, acknowledge, permit, or suffer to be entred, against him or them, one or more Judgment or Judgments, Statute or Statutes, Recognizance or Recognizances, to any Person or Persons, Creditor or Creditors; and if the said Borrower or Borrowers, Debtor or Debtors, shall afterwards take up or borrow any other Sum or Sums of Money of any other Person or Persons, or for other valuable Consideration become indebted to such Person or Persons, and for securing the Repayment and Discharge thereof, shall mortgage his, her, or their Lands or Tenements, or any Part thereof, to the said second or other Lender or Lenders of the said Money, Creditor or Creditors, or to any other Person or Persons in Trust for, or to the Use of, such second or other Lender or Lenders, Creditor or Creditors, and shall not give Notice to the said Mortgagee or Mortgagees of the said Judgment or Judgments, Statute or Statutes, Recognizance or Recognizances, in Writing under his, her, or their Hand or Hands, before the Execution of the said Mortgage or Mortgages; unless such Mortgager or Mortgagers, his, her, or their Heirs, upon Notice to him, her, or them, given by the Mortgagee or Mortgagees of the said Lands and Tenements, his, her, or their Heirs, Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, in Writing under his, her, or their Hands and Seals, attested by two or more sufficient Witnesses, of any such former Judgment or Judgments, Statute or Statutes, Recognizance or Recognizances, shall within six Months pay off and discharge the said Judgment or Judgments, Statute or Statutes, Recognizance or Recognizances, and all Interest and Charges due thereupon, and cause or procure the same to be vacated or discharged by Record; that then the Mortgager or Mortgagers of the said Lands and Tenements, his, her, or their Heirs, Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, shall have no Benefit or Remedy against the said Mortgagee or Mortgagees, his, her, or their Heirs, Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, or any of them, in Equity or elsewhere, for Redemption of the said Lands and Tenements, or any Part thereof; but the said Mortgagee or Mortgagees, his, her, or their Heirs, Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, shall and may hold and enjoy the said Lands and Tenements for such Estate

Eſtate and Term therein, as were or was granted and ſettled to the ſaid Mortgagee or Mortgagees, againſt the ſaid Mortgager or Mortgagers, and all Perſon and Perſons lawfully claiming from, by, or under him, her, or them, freed from Equity of Redemption, and as fully to all Intents and Purpoſes whatſoever, as if the ſame had been purchaſed abſolutely and without any Power or Liberty of Redemption.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon or Perſons, who have or hath once mortgaged, or from and after the ſaid firſt Day of May ſhall mortgage, any Lands or Tenements to any Perſon or Perſons, for Security of Money lent, or otherwiſe accrued or become due, or for other valuable Conſiderations; and if the ſaid Mortgager or Mortgagers ſhall again mortgage the ſame Lands or Tenements, or any Part thereof, to any other Perſon or Perſons for valuable Conſiderations (the ſaid former Mortgage being in Force and not diſcharged) and ſhall not diſcover to the ſaid ſecond or other Mortgagee or Mortgagees, or ſome or one of them, the former Mortgage or Mortgages, in Writing under his or their Hands; that then and in thoſe Caſes alſo, the ſaid Mortgager or Mortgagers, his, her, or their Heirs, Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns, ſhall have no Relief or Equity of Redemption againſt the ſaid ſecond or after Mortgagee or Mortgagees, his, her, or their Heirs, Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns, upon the ſaid After Mortgage or Mortgages, but that ſuch Mortgagee or Morgagees, his, her, or their Heirs, Executors, Adminiſtrators, and Aſſigns, ſhall and may hold and enjoy ſuch more than once mortgaged Lands and Tenements, for ſuch Eſtate and Term therein, as were or was granted and conveyed by the ſaid Mortgager or Mortgagers, againſt him, her, or them, his, her, or their Heirs, Executors, or Adminiſtrators reſpectively, freed from Equity of Redemption, and as fully to all Intents and Purpoſes, as if the ſame had been an abſolute Purchaſe, and without any Power or Liberty of Redemption. Perſon mortgaging twice without Notice of the firſt Mortgage, loſes his Equity. 2 Vern. 589, 590.

IV. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That nevertheleſs if it ſo happen there be more than one Mortgage at the ſame Time made by any Perſon or Perſons, to any Perſon or Perſons, of the ſame Lands and Tenements, the ſeveral late or under Mortgagees, his, her, or their Heirs, Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns, ſhall have Power to redeem any former Mortgage or Mortgages, upon Payment of the Principal Debt, Intereſt, and Coſts of Suit, to the prior Mortgagee or Mortgagees, his, her, or their Heirs, Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns; any thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding. Under Mortgagees may redeem.

V. Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained ſhall be conſtrued, deemed, or extended, to bar any Widow of any Mortgager of Lands or Tenements from her Dower and Right in or to the ſaid Lands, who did not legally join with her Huſband in ſuch Mortgage, or otherwiſe lawfully bar or exclude herſelf from ſuch her Dower or Right. Dower ſaved. See farther 7 Geo. 2. c. 20.

CAP. XVII.

An Act for the regaining, encouraging, and ſettling the Greenland Trade.

WHEREAS the Trade to Greenland and the Greenland Seas, in the fiſhing for Whales there, hath been heretofore a very beneficial Trade to this Kingdom, not only in the employing great Numbers of Seamen and Ships, and conſuming great Quantities of Proviſions, but alſo in the bringing into this Nation great Quantities of Oil, Blubber, and Fins:

'II. And whereas neighbouting Nations do yearly make great Advantage thereby, not only ſupplying themſelves with that Sort of Oil and Fins, but by vending into other Parts great Quantities thereof, and particularly into this Kingdom, where the ſaid Trade is now quite decayed and loſt:

'III. And whereas ſeveral Merchants of this Kingdom did heretofore endeavour to ſettle and regain the ſaid Trade, and for their Encouragement therein, it was by an Act of Parliament made in the five and twentieth Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act for the Encouragement of the Greenland and Eaſtland Trades, and for the better ſecuring the Plantation Trade (amongſt other Things) enacted, That in regard there was then great Want of Harponiers and Seamen ſkilled and exerciſed in the Trade of Whale-fiſhing, it ſhould and might be lawful for any Ship or Veſſel truly belonging to England, Wales, or the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, and whereof the Maſter ſhould be an Engliſhman, and inhabiting within the Places aforeſaid, from and after the firſt Day of May which was in the Year of our Lord one thouſand ſix hundred ſeventy and three, and until the five and twentieth Day of March which was in the Year of our Lord one thouſand ſix hundred eighty and three, employed for the catching of Whales, during ſuch Voyage, to be navigated with one Moiety of the Harponiers and one Moiety of the reſt of the Mariners only Engliſh, and yet to pay no further or other Cuſtom for the Oil, Blubber, or Fins, caught or imported in ſuch Ship or Veſſel, than if ſuch Ship or Veſſel had been navigated with three Fourths of the Mariners Engliſh; which ſaid Act was by another Act of Parliament made in the ſecond Year of their preſent Majeſties Reign, intituled, An Act for granting to their Majeſties a Subſidy of Tonnage and Poundage, and other Sums of Money payable upon Merchandizes exported and imported, continued for four Years: 25 Car. 2. c. 7. 2 W. & M. ſ. 1. c. 4.

'IV. And whereas ſeveral Merchants and other Perſons of this Kingdom were by the firſt recited Act encouraged to fit out and ſend to the ſaid Greenland Seas ſome Ships or Veſſels for the catching of Whales, whereby ſome ſmall Quantities of Oil, Blubber, and Whale-fins were imported into this Kingdom, but they not being able to carry on the ſaid Trade upon their ſingle or ſeparate Intereſt, in regard that the neighbouring Nations did yearly ſend far greater Numbers of Ships into thoſe Seas, the ſaid Merchants and other Perſons of this Kingdom were forced to diſiſt from following the ſaid Trade, which is now

'wholly ingroſſed by Foreigners; and ſince the Expiration and Revival of the ſaid Act, there have not 'been any Ships ſent from England to the ſaid Greenland Seas, or any Oil, Blubber, or Whale-fins im- 'ported into England, but ſuch as have been bought of Foreigners, whereby great Sums of Money are 'yearly drawn out of England for thoſe Commodities, and the Rates and Prices which are now paid for 'the ſame, are now above ſix Times more than heretofore they were, and the ſaid Trade having been for 'above theſe twelve Years laſt paſt wholly loſt to this Kingdom, there are very few or no Engliſh Harpo- 'niers or Engliſh Seamen ſkilled and exerciſed in the ſaid Trade of Whale-catching, ſo that the ſaid Trade 'cannot now be regained to this Kingdom, nor can be carried on by or without the Aſſiſtance of Foreign 'Harpooniers and Seamen, or upon the ſingle Intereſts or Stocks of any particular Perſons, or by any other 'Way than by a Joint Stock:

'V. And whereas, for the regaining, enlarging, and encouraging the ſaid Trade, a Stock of forty thou- 'ſand Pounds at the leaſt is a neceſſary Fund to be raiſed, for the regaining and carrying on the ſaid Trade The following three Sections are expired. 'whereby it may become beneficial to this Kingdom: And whereas Sir William Scawen Knight, &c. have 'undertaken and agreed to raiſe by Subſcription amongſt themſelves the ſaid Stock or Fund of forty thou- 'ſand Pounds at leaſt, to be wholly employed in the regaining, managing, and carrying on the ſaid Trade:' May it pleaſe, &c.

The Company may trade to Greenland, &c. VIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Company of Merchants of London trading to Greenland, and their Succeſſors, ſhall, during the Continuance of this Joint Stock hereby appointed to be raiſed, have, uſe, and enjoy the free Trade and Traffick, and ſhall and may freely traffick and uſe the Trade and Art of Merchandize and catching of Whales by Sea or otherwiſe, to, into, and from Greenland, and the Greenland Seas, and to, into, and from the ſeveral Ports, Havens, and Places, which are ſituate, lying, and being in Greenland and the Greenland Seas, and in all other Seas and Places whatſoever (except in the Seas belonging to their Majeſties Colonies and Plantations in America) and to and from all and every of them, without any Hindrance, Interruption, Denial, or Diſturbance whatſoever; any Statute, Uſage, or other Cauſe or Matter whatſoever to the contrary notwithſtanding. [This clauſe is continued by 1 Annæ, ſtat. 1. c. 16.]

Power given to Sir William Scawen, &c. to raiſe a Joint-Stock of 40,000l. Sir William Scawen, &c. made a Corporation by the Name of The Greenland Company, and to buy Lands, not exceeding 100l. per Annum. The Company may trade to Greenland, &c. CAP. XVIII.

An Act to prevent malicious Informations in the Court of King's Bench, and for the more eaſy Reverſal of Outlawries in the ſame Court.

18 El. c. 5. 29 El. c. 5. 21 Jac. 1. c. 4.

WHEREAS divers malicious and contentious Perſons have more of late than in Times paſt procured to be exhibited and proſecuted, Informations in their Majeſties Court of King's Bench at Weſtminſter, againſt Perſons in all the Counties of England, for Treſpaſſes, Batteries, and other Miſdemeanors, and after the Parties ſo informed againſt have appeared to ſuch Informations, and pleaded to Iſſue, the Informers do very ſeldom proceed any further, whereby the Perſons ſo informed againſt are put to great Charges in their Defence; and although at the Trials of ſuch Informations Verdicts are given for them, or a Nolli proſequi be entred againſt them, they have no Remedy for obtaining Coſts againſt ſuch Informers: And whereas divers Perſons are proſecuted in the ſaid Court of King's Bench to Outlawries for Debts, Treſpaſſes, and other Miſdemeanors, and there is no reverſing ſuch Outlawries but by the perſonal Appearance of the Perſons outlawed, ſo that the Perſons arreſted upon ſuch Outlawries (if poor) lie in Priſon till their Deaths, but if able, it coſts them very dear to reverſe the ſame Outlawries:' For Remedy whereof, Clerk of the Crown to exhibit no Information for Crimes above mentioned, except by Order of Court, nor iſſue Proceſs, till Proſecutor has given 20 l. Recognizance to proſecute. 2 Haw. P. C. ch. 26.

II. Be it enacted by the King's and Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſties, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and after the firſt Day of Eaſter Term, which ſhall be in the Year of our Lord one thouſand ſix hundred ninety and three, the Clerk of the Crown in the ſaid Court of King's Bench for the Time being ſhall not, without expreſs Order to be given by the ſaid Court in open Court, exhibit, receive, or file any Information for any of the Cauſes aforeſaid, or iſſue out any Proceſs thereupon, before he ſhall have taken or ſhall have delivered to him a Recognizance from the Perſon or Perſons procuring ſuch Information to be exhibited, with the Place of his, her, or their Abode, Title, or Profeſſion, to be entred, to the Perſon or Perſons againſt whom ſuch Information or Informations is or are to be exhibited, in the Penalty of twenty Pounds, that he, ſhe, or they, will effectually proſecute ſuch Informations or Information, and abide by and obſerve ſuch Orders as the ſaid Court ſhall direct, which Recognizance the ſaid Clerk of the Crown, and alſo every Juſtice of the Peace of any County, City, Franchiſe, or Town Corporate (where the Cauſe of any ſuch Information ſhall ariſe) are hereby impowered to take; after the taking whereof by the ſaid Clerk of the Crown, or the Receipt thereof from any Juſtice of the Peace, the ſaid Clerk of the Crown ſhall make an Entry thereof upon Record, and ſhall file a Memorandum thereof in ſome publick Place in his Office, that all Perſons may reſort thereunto without Fee; and in caſe any Perſon or Perſons againſt whom any Information or Informations for the Cauſes aforeſaid, or any of them, ſhall be exhibited, ſhall appear thereunto, and plead to Iſſue, and that the Proſecutor or Proſecutors of ſuch Information or Informations ſhall not, at his and their own proper Coſts and Charges, within one whole Year next after Iſſue joined therein, procure the ſame to be tried; or if upon ſuch Trial a Verdict paſs for the Defendant or Defendants, or in caſe the ſaid Informer or Informers procure a Nolli proſequi to be entred; then in any of the ſaid Caſes the ſaid Court of King's Bench is hereby authorized to award to the ſaid Defendant and Defendants, his, her, or their Coſts, unleſs the Judge, before whom ſuch Information ſhall be tried, ſhall at the Trial of ſuch Information, in open Court, certify upon Record, that there was a reaſonable Cauſe for exhibiting ſuch Information; and in caſe the ſaid Informer or Informers ſhall not within three Months next after the ſaid Coſts taxed, and Demand made thereof, pay to the ſaid Defendant or Defendants the ſaid Coſts, then the ſaid Defendant and Defendants ſhall have the Benefit of the ſaid Recognizance, to compel them thereunto.

Memorandum to be filed. Defendant ſhall have Coſts, if Cauſe not tried within one Year, after Iſſue joined, &c.

Defendants Remedy for Coſts. 1 Salk. 194.

III. And for the more eaſy and ſpeedy Reverſing of Outlawries in the ſaid Court, Be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid firſt Day of Eaſter Term, no Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, who are or ſhall be outlawed in the ſaid Court for any Cauſe, Matter, or Thing whatſoever (Treaſon and Felony only excepted) ſhall be compelled to come in Perſon into, or appear in Perſon in, the ſaid Court to reverſe ſuch Outlawry, but ſhall or may appear by Attorney, and reverſe the ſame without Bail, in all Caſes, except where ſpecial Bail ſhall be ordered by the ſaid Court.

Outlawry may be reverſed by Attorney, except in Treaſon and Felony. 2 Salk. 496.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon or Perſons outlawed, or hereafter to be outlawed, in the ſaid Court (other than for Treaſon and Felony) ſhall from and after the ſaid firſt Day of Eaſter Term be taken and arreſted upon any Capias Utlagatum out of the ſaid Court, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Sheriff or Sheriffs who hath or ſhall have taken and arreſted ſuch Perſon and Perſons (in all Caſes where ſpecial Bail is not required by the ſaid Court) to take an Attorney's Engagement under his Hand to appear for the ſaid Defendant or Defendants, and to reverſe the ſaid Outlawries, and thereupon to diſcharge the ſaid Defendant and Defendants from ſuch Arreſts: And in thoſe Caſes where ſpecial Bail is required by the ſaid Court, the ſaid Sheriff or Sheriffs ſhall and may take Security of the ſaid Defendant or Defendants by Bond, with one or more ſufficient Surety or Sureties, in the Penalty of double the Sum for which ſpecial Bail is required, and no more, for his, her, or their Appearance by Attorney in the ſaid Court at the Return of the ſaid Writ, and to do and perform ſuch Things as ſhall be required by the ſaid Court, and after ſuch Bond taken, to diſcharge the ſaid Defendant and Defendants from the ſaid Arreſts.

Perſons taken upon Capias Utlagatum in Common Bail Caſes, diſcharged by an Attorney's Engagement to appear; in Special Bail Caſes, giving Bond with Sureties to appear.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon or Perſons, outlawed as aforeſaid, and taken and arreſted upon a Capias Utlagatum, ſhall not be able within the Return of the ſaid Writ to give Security as aforeſaid, in Caſes where ſpecial Bail is required, ſo as he or they are committed to Gaol for Default thereof, that whenſoever the ſaid Priſoner or Priſoners ſhall find ſufficient Security to the Sheriff or Sheriffs, in whoſe Cuſtody he or they ſhall be, for his or their Appearance by Attorney in the ſaid Court, at ſome Return in the Term then next following, to reverſe the ſaid Outlawry or Outlawries, and to do and perform ſuch other Thing and Things as ſhall be required by the ſaid Court, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid Sheriff and Sheriffs, after ſuch Security taken, to diſcharge and ſet at liberty the ſaid Priſoner and Priſoners for the ſame; any Law or Uſage to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Perſon taken as before ſhall be diſcharged, giving Security after Return of the Writ.

This Act only extends to Informations by Maſter of Crown Office.

VI. Provided, That nothing in this Act relating to Informations ſhall extend or be conſtrued to extend to any other Informations, than ſuch as are or ſhall be exhibited in the Name of their Majeſties Coroner or Attorney in the Court of King's Bench for the Time being (commonly called the Maſter of the Crown Office) any thing in the ſaid Act contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Defendants (except deſiring) not to plead again upon the King's Demiſe. See farther 9 An. c. 20.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That upon the Demiſe of any King or Queen of this Realm, all Pleas to Informations in the ſaid Court ſhall ſtand and be good in Law, without calling Defendants to plead again to the ſame, unleſs the Defendants deſire ſo to do, and make Requeſt to the ſaid Court for that Purpoſe within five Months next after ſuch Demiſe; any Law or Uſage to the contrary notwithſtanding.

CAP. XIX.

EXP. An Act for preventing Suits againſt ſuch as acted for their Majeſties Service in Defence of the Kingdom.

To indemnify Lords of the Council, &c. acting beyond their Power in Defence of the Kingdom.

'WHEREAS in this preſent Year of our Lord one thouſand ſix hundred ninety and two, it was notoriouſly known that there were great Preparations for an Invaſion intended from France, the Lords of the Council, and thoſe that have acted by their Authority, having apprehended and impriſoned ſeveral ſuſpected Perſons, and ſeized and uſed Horſes and Arms, and cauſed ſome Part of the Militia of this Kingdom to be raiſed, continued, and mantained, otherwiſe than is authorized by the Acts made in the Reign of King Charles the Second in that Behalf, and to march and be quartered in divers Places upon that Occaſion: That thoſe Proceedings in that extraordinary Juncture, and the Parties concerned therein, may be indemnified; therefore, and for the preventing the Trouble and Charges which the ſaid good Subjects might be put to by the Proſecution of their Majeſties, their Heirs and Succeſſors, or by the means of Suits of any Perſon whatſoever, for and by reaſon of their Actings and Doings aforeſaid, &c.'

CAP. XX.

An Act for the better Diſcovery of Judgments in the Courts of King's Bench, Common Pleas, and Exchequer at Weſtminſter.

'WHEREAS great Miſchiefs and Damages happen and come, as well to Perſons in their Lifetimes, but more often to their Heirs, Executors, and Adminiſtrators, and alſo to Purchaſers and Mortgagees, by Judgments entred upon Record in their Majeſties Courts at Weſtminſter, againſt the Perſons Defendants, by reaſon of the Difficulty there is in finding out ſuch Judgments:' For Remedy whereof,

II. Be it enacted by the King's and Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſties, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That the Clerk of the Eſſoins of the Court of Common Pleas, every Clerk of the Doggets of the Court of King's Bench, and the Maſter of the Office of Pleas in the Court of Exchequer for the Time being, ſhall, before the laſt Day of Eaſter Term next coming, and ſo in every Eaſter Term after, make or cauſe to be made and put into an alphabetical Dogget by the Defendant's Names, a Particular of all Judgments for Debt by Confeſſion, Non ſum informatus, or Nihil dicit, entred in the ſaid reſpective Courts, of the Term of Saint Hilary preceding, which ſhall contain the Name and Names of the Plaintiff and Plaintiffs, the Name and Names of the Defendant and Defendants, his, her, or their Place or Places of Abode, and Title, Trade, or Profeſſion (if any ſuch be in the Record of the ſaid Judgment) and the Debt, Damages, and Coſts recovered thereby; and in what County, City, or Town the reſpective Actions were laid, and the Number Roll of the Entry thereof; and alſo that every Clerk of the Judgments, and every other Clerk of the ſaid Court of Common Pleas and King's Bench reſpectively ſhall, within ten Days before the Time aforeſaid, bring to the reſpective Clerks of the Doggets of the ſaid reſpective Courts, Notes in Writing of all the Judgments by them and every of them reſpectively entred, of the ſaid Term of Saint Hilary, upon Verdicts, Writs of Inquiry, Demurrer, and every other Judgment for Debt or Damages, in all Things as aforeſaid; and alſo that the Clerk of the Judgments, and every other Clerk of the ſaid Court of Exchequer, ſhall, within the Times aforeſaid, bring to the ſaid Maſter of the ſaid Office of Pleas, the like Note in Writing of all the like Judgments by him or them reſpectively entred of the ſaid Term, in all Things as aforeſaid; to the end the ſame may be, (by the Clerk of the Eſſoins of the ſaid Court of Common Pleas, the Clerk of the Doggets of the ſaid Court of King's Bench, and Maſter of the Office of Pleas) reſpectively entred in the reſpective Doggets before mentioned, in Manner and Form aforeſaid; and alſo that the reſpective Officers and Clerks of the ſaid reſpective Courts ſhall likewiſe, before the laſt Day of the Term of Saint Michael alſo next coming, and in every Michaelmas Term after, make, or cauſe to be made, as aforeſaid, the like Dogget, containing all ſuch Judgments in the ſaid reſpective Courts, of the reſpective Terms of Eaſter and Trinity then laſt paſt, and the Names of the Plaintiffs and Defendants,

Titles

Titles and Additions, Debt and Damages, in all Things as aforesaid; and also that the said respective Officers and Clerks of the said respective Courts shall likewise, before the last Day of the Term of Saint Hilary, which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand six hundred ninety and three, and so in every Hilary Term after, make, or cause to be made, the like Dogget, containing all such Judgments in the said respective Courts, of the Term of Saint Michael then last past, with the Names of the Plaintiffs and Defendants, Titles and Additions, Debts and Damages, in all Things as aforesaid; and that the said respective Doggets shall be fairly put into and kept in Books in Parchment in the respective Offices of the respective Officers before named, to be searched and viewed by all Persons at all reasonable Times, paying to the respective Officers, in whose Keeping the said Books respectively shall be, for every Term's Search for Judgments against any one Person, four Pence, and no more; upon Pain that every Clerk of Essoins of the Court of Common Pleas, Clerk of the Doggets of the King's Bench, and Master of the Office of Pleas in the Court of Exchequer, Clerks of the Judgments, and every Clerk before mentioned respectively, shall, for every Term, in which he shall omit or neglect to do his Duty in the Premisses, forfeit the Sum of one hundred Pounds; the one Moiety to the Party or Parties aggrieved, and the other Moiety to him or them who shall sue for the same in any of their Majesties Courts of Record at Westminster, wherein no Privilege, or Essoin, or Protection of Law, shall be admitted, nor any more than one Imparlance.

Fee for Search.

Penalty.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Judgment, not doggetted and entred in the Books as aforesaid, shall affect any Lands or Tenements as to Purchasers or Mortgagees, or have any Preference against Heirs, Executors, or Administrators, in their Administration of their Ancestors, Testators, or Intestates Estates.

Judgments not doggetted shall not affect Purchasers, &c.

'IV. And whereas the Clerks of the Judgments of the said respective Courts are to be at great Charge and Trouble in the Execution of this Act;' For Recompence whereof be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That hereafter there shall be paid by the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs in every of the said Judgments upon Verdicts, Writs of Enquiry, Demurrer, and every other Judgment by them respectively to be entred, over and above the Fees now due for the same, the Sum of four Pence, and no more.

Fee to the Clerk of the Judgments.

V. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That this Act shall continue and be in Force for one Year, from the five and twentieth Day of March one thousand six hundred ninety and three, and from thence to the End of the next Session of Parliament, and no longer. [Continued a Year longer by 6 & 7 W. 3. cap. 14. and made perpetual by 7 & 8 W. 3. cap. 36. sect. 3.]

Act to continue one Year.

CAP. XXI.

An Act for delivering Declarations to Prisoners.

'WHEREAS by the Course of Practice in the respective Courts of Record at Westminster, after the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, in any Writ issued out of any of the said Courts, have been at great Charge 'to arrest the Defendant or Defendants upon such Writ, and the Defendant or Defendants, for want of 'sufficient Bail, are often committed to Gaol, and unless the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall, before the End of 'two Terms, next after such Arrest, cause such Defendant or Defendants, by Writ of Habeas Corpus, to 'be removed, to be charged in the said respective Courts with Declarations of the Cause of such Action or 'Actions, such Prisoner or Prisoners are upon a common Bail or Appearance by Attorney discharged from 'their Imprisonment, to the great Prejudice of the Plaintiffs;' For Remedy whereof,

II. Be it enacted by the King's and Queen's most Excellent Majesties, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That if now, or at any Time after the five and twentieth Day of March one thousand six hundred ninety and three, any Defendant or Defendants be taken or charged in Custody at the Suit of any Person or Persons, upon any Writ or Writs out of any of the said Courts at Westminster, and imprisoned or detained in Prison for Want of Sureties for their Appearance to the same, the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, in such Writ or Writs, shall and may, by virtue of this Act, before the End of the next Term after such Writ or Process shall be returnable, declare against such Prisoner or Prisoners in the respective Court or Courts out of which the Writ or Writs shall issue, whereupon the said Prisoner or Prisoners shall be taken and imprisoned or charged in Custody, and shall or may cause a true Copy thereof to be delivered to such Prisoner or Prisoners, or to the Gaoler or Keeper of the Prison, or Gaoler in whose Custody such Prisoner shall be or remain: To which Declaration or Declarations the said Prisoner or Prisoners shall appear and plead; and if such Prisoner or Prisoners shall not appear and plead to the same, the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs in such Cases shall have Judgment in such Manner as if the Prisoner or Prisoners had appeared in the said respective Courts, and refused to answer or plead to such Declaration.

CAP. XXII.

An Act for regulating Proceedings in the Crown Office in the Court of King's Bench at Westminster.

FOR rectifying the Proceedings in the Crown Office in their Majesties Court of King's Bench, and for the greater Ease of all their Majesty's Subjects who shall hereafter be prosecuted in the same; Be it enacted by the King's and Queen's most Excellent Majesties, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That no Corporation, Lord or Lords of Manors, or other Person or Persons, having Grants by Charter, or other good Conveyances, who have inrolled, and had the same allowed, in and by the said Court, shall hereafter be compelled to plead the same, to any Inquisition returned by any Coroner; any Custom or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding: And if there be any Corporations, Lord or Lords of Manors, or other Person or Persons, who now have, or hereafter shall have such Charters or Grants from the Crown, for Felons Goods, Deodands, and other Forfeitures, such Corporations, Lords of Manors, and other Persons, shall not be compelled to inroll their whole Charters and Grants, but bring in the same to the Clerk of the Crown of the said Court, he shall inroll and enter upon Record so much thereof, as may express and set forth the Grants of such Felons Goods, Deodands, and Forfeitures, and no more; for doing whereof he shall have and receive twenty Shillings for his Fee and Entry thereof, and no more; and from and after such Inrollment, no Corporation, Lord of Manor, or other Person or Persons, Grantees of such Goods or Forfeitures, shall be compelled to plead the same in the said Court, to any Inquisition thereafter filed therein, touching any Goods found thereby; any Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

Persons having Grants by Charters and inrolled, not bound to plead them to an Inquisition.

So much of Grants of Felons, &c. as may express the Grant, to be only entred, Fee 20 s. After such Entry, Grantee discharged from pleading to Inquisition.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Clerk of the Crown of the said Court shall hereafter issue out any Process against any Corporation, Lord of Manor, or other Person or Persons Grantees of such Felons Goods, Deodands, and other Forfeitures, after Inrollment or Entry as aforesaid, the said Clerk of the Crown shall for every Offence forfeit and pay to the Corporation or Party grieved thereby, the Sum of five Pounds, to be recovered by Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of their Majesties Courts of Record at Westminster, wherein no Essoin, Privilege, Protection, or Wager of Law shall be admitted, nor any more than one Imparlance.

Penalty upon Clerk of the Crown issuing Process after such Entry.

'III. And whereas divers Persons having Grants of Felons Goods and Deodands, and inrolled and 'pleaded as aforesaid, do many times aliene and convey their Interests therein to other Person or Per-'sons, or by their last Wills do devise the same, or by their Deaths such Estates do descend to their Heirs, 'whereby the Clerk of the Crown of the said Court is rendred uncapable to discern where such Interest 'lies, until the Person or Persons, to whom such Estates are conveyed, devised, or descended, shall come 'into the said Court, and make Entry of such their Claim as aforesaid;' Be it therefore hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Clerk of the Crown of the said Court for the Time being, nor any succeeding Clerk there, shall incur any Penalty mentioned in this Act, for issuing Process against any Person or Persons, who shall not, upon every Purchase of the Title of such Felons Goods and Deodands, inroll and plead the same Purchase in the said Court; nor against any Devisee of the like Estate, who shall not likewise inroll or plead such Devise; nor against any Heir, who shall not in like manner inroll his or her Right by Descent to the same, and until after such Pleas have been allowed of, and approved by the said Court; nor where by any Inquest of any Coroner or Coroners, the Goods of any Felon or Felons, or Deodands, shall be by such Inquest not found to be in the Hands of such Purchaser, Devisee, or Heir, or their respective Officer or Officers in Trust for them respectively.

Clerk of the Crown not punishable for issuing Process against Heirs, &c.

'IV. And whereas it is agreeable to Justice, that Proceedings to Outlawries in criminal Causes should 'be as publick and notorious as in civil Causes, because the Consequences to Persons outlawed in criminal 'Causes are more fatal and dangerous to them and their Posterities, than in any other Causes;' Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That upon the issuing of any Exigent out of any of their Majesties Courts, against any Person or Persons for any criminal Matter, before Judgment or Conviction, there shall issue out a Writ of Proclamation bearing the same Test and Return, to the Sheriff or Sheriffs of the County, City, or Town Corporate, where the Person or Persons in the Record of the said Proceedings is or are mentioned to be or inhabit, according to the Form of the Statute made in the one and thirtieth Year of the Reign of the late Queen Elizabeth, of blessed Memory, which Writ of Proclamation shall be delivered to the said Sheriff or Sheriffs three Months before the Return of the same.

A Proclamation at the Time of the Exigent in criminal Cases, to be delivered three Months before Return. 31 El. c. 3.

V. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That this Act shall continue and be in Force for three Years, from the five and twentieth Day of March one thousand six hundred ninety three, and from thence to the End of the next Session of Parliament, and no longer. [Made perpetual by 7 & 8 W. 3. cap. 36. §. 4.]

Act to continue three Years.

Fishermen, &c. lawfully authorized, excepted.

VI. Provided always, That this Act, or any thing therein contained, shall not extend, or be construed to extend, to abridge any Fisherman or his Apprentice or Apprentices, lawfully authorized to fish in navigable Rivers or Waters, with lawful Nets and Engines; but that every of them shall and may (according to the Laws and Orders made, and to be made and settled, for the good Order, Rule, and Government of such navigable Rivers and Waters) use the Trade of Fishing, as they lawfully might have done before the making of this Act; any thing in this Act contained to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

'VII. And whereas divers Offenders duly convicted, do commonly procure Writs of Certiorari to remove such Convictions into superior Courts at Westminster, in hopes thereby to discourage and weary out such Persons injured by great Delays, Expences, and Incertainties;' Be it therefore enacted, That no Certiorari shall be allowed to remove any Conviction made, or other Proceeding of, for or concerning any Matter or Thing in this Act, unless the Party or Parties, against whom such Conviction shall be made, shall before the Allowance of such Certiorari become bound to the Person or Persons prosecuting, in the Sum of fifty Pounds, with such sufficient Sureties, as the Justice or Justices of the Peace, before whom such Offender was convicted, shall think fit, with Condition to pay unto the said Prosecutors (within one Month after such Conviction confirmed, or Procedendo granted) their full Costs and Charges, to be ascertained upon their Oaths; and that in Default thereof it shall be lawful for the said Justice and Justices, and others, to proceed to the due Execution of such Conviction, in such manner as if no Certiorari had been awarded.

No Certiorari of Conviction, except Party convicted give fifty Pounds Security to pay Costs.

Person punished by this Act, not punishable by others for the same Offence.

VIII. Provided, That where any Offender shall be punished by Force of this Act, he shall not be prosecuted, nor incur the Penalty of any other Law or Statute for the same Offence.

Persons sued may plead General Issue, and recover treble Costs.

IX. Provided always, That if any Action, Bill, Plaint, or Suit, shall at any Time after the said five and twentieth Day of March, be commenced or brought against any Person or Persons whatsoever, for or by reason of any Matter or Thing which he or they shall do in pursuance of this Act, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Person or Persons so sued or prosecuted to plead the general Issue, and give this Act or any other special Matter in Evidence; and if the Verdict shall pass with the Defendant or Defendants in such Action, or the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs become nonsuit, or suffer any Discontinuance thereof, that in any such Case such Defendant or Defendants shall have his or their treble Costs, which he or they shall have sustained in Defence of such Action or Suit, for which the said Defendant or Defendants shall have the like Remedy, as in other Cases where Costs by the Laws of this Realm are given to the Defendants.

Tradesmen, &c. liable to Costs, for coming on another Man's Ground to hunt, &c.

'X. And whereas great Mischiefs do ensue by inferior Tradesmen, Apprentices, and other dissolute Persons neglecting their Trades and Employments, who follow Hunting, Fishing, and other Game, to the Ruin of themselves, and Damage of their Neighbours;' For Remedy whereof be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any such Person, as aforesaid, shall presume to hunt, hawk, fish, or fowl (unless in Company with the Master of such Apprentice, duly qualified by Law) such Person or Persons shall be subject to the Penalties of this Act, and shall or may be sued and prosecuted for their wilful Trespass in such their coming on any Person's Land, and if found guilty thereof, the Plaintiff shall not only recover his Damages thereby sustained, but his full Costs of Suit; any former Law to the contrary notwithstanding.

Penalty upon Persons burning Ling, &c. upon Heaths.

CAP. XXIV.

An Act for reviving, continuing, and explaining several Laws therein mentioned, which are expired and near expiring.

'WHEREAS divers temporary Laws, which by Experience have been found useful and beneficial, are near expiring, and some of them are already expired;' therefore for continuing and reviving the same, and explaining certain Doubts hereafter mentioned,

II. Be it enacted by the King's and Queen's most Excellent Majesties, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the the Authority of the ſame, That an Act made in the Seſſion of Parliament held in the thirteenth and fourteenth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act for providing Carriages by Land and by Water, for the Uſe of his Majeſty's Navy and Ordnance, which was thereby to have Continuance, and be in Force until the End of the firſt Seſſion of the next Parliament, and no longer; which ſaid Act being expired, was by one Act made in the firſt Year of the late King James revived, and was enacted to have Continuance during the Space of ſeven Years, from the four and twentieth Day of June in the Year of our Lord one thouſand ſix hundred eighty-five, and from thence to the End of the firſt Seſſion of Parliament then next enſuing, ſhall be, and is hereby continued, and ſhall be in Force during the Space of ſeven Years, from the thirteenth Day of February one thouſand ſix hundred ninety-two, and from thence to the End of the firſt Seſſion of Parliament then next enſuing, and no longer. EXP.

13 & 14 Car. 2. c. 20. for providing Carriages for the Navy, &c. continued by an Act of 1 Jac. 2. c. 11 *. further continued for 7 Years; 11 & 12 W. 3. c. 13.

* For c. 11. read c. 10.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That an Act made in the eighteenth Year of the Reign of the late King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act for encouraging of Coinage, and continued by another Act made in the five and twentieth Year of the Reign of the ſaid late King Charles, intituled, An Act for continuing a former Act concerning Coinage; both which ſaid Acts were revived by an Act made in the firſt Year of the Reign of the late King James, and were enacted to have Continuance for the Space of ſeven Years, to commence from the firſt Day of Auguſt one thouſand ſix hundred eighty-five, and until the End of the firſt Seſſion of Parliament then next following, ſhall be and are by Virtue of this Act continued, and ſhall be in Force for the Space of ſeven Years, from the thirteenth Day of February one thouſand ſix hundred ninety-two, and from thence unto the End of the firſt Seſſion of Parliament then next following, and no longer.

18 Car. 2. c. 5. about Coinage, continued by 25 Car. 2. c. 8. both which Acts are continued for 7 Years by 1 Jac. 2. c. 7. further continued for 7 Years. 19 Geo. 2. c. 14.

'IV. And whereas an Act of Parliament was made in the Seſſion holden in the two and twentieth and three and twentieth Years of the Reign of the late King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act for the better and more certain Recovery of Fines and Forfeitures due to his Majeſty; which ſaid Act, by an Act made in the firſt Year of the Reign of the late King James the Second, was revived and enacted to be in Force from the nineteenth Day of May in the Year of our Lord God one thouſand ſix hundred eighty-five, and to have Continuance for the Space of ſeven Years, and from thence to the End of the next Seſſion of Parliament: And whereas the ſame hath been found by Experience to be a good and uſeful Law, and much conducing to the Service of the Crown;' Be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Act, and every Article, Clauſe, and Thing, therein contained, ſhall be in Force, and is hereby made perpetual.

22 & 23 Car. 2. c. 22. for Recovery of Fines and Forfeitures, continued by 1 Jac. 2. c. 17. §. 11. and hereby made perpetual. See 3 Geo. 1. c. 15. §. 12.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from henceforth all Clerks of the Court of King's Bench, Clerks of the Court of Common Pleas, Clerks of Aſſize, Clerks of the Peace, Town Clerks, Clerks of Sewers, Clerks of the Markets, and others to whom it belongeth to make Returns of Eſtreats into the Court of Exchequer, ſhall, upon Delivery in of all and every ſuch Eſtreat and Eſtreats, take the Oath following, that is to ſay, Oath to be given upon Return of Eſtreats.

'YOU ſhall ſwear, That theſe Eſtreats, now by you delivered, are truly and carefully made up and examined, and that all Fines, Iſſues, Amerciaments, Recognizances, and Forfeitures, which were ſet, loſt, impoſed, or forfeited, and in Right and due Courſe of Law ought to be eſtreated in the Court of Exchequer, are, to the beſt of your Knowledge and Underſtanding, therein contained; and that in the ſame Eſtreats are alſo contained and expreſſed all ſuch Fines as have been paid into the Court, from which the ſaid Eſtreats are made, without any wilful or fraudulent Diſcharge, Omiſſion, Miſnomer, or Defect whatſoever.

So help you God.'

Which ſaid Oath the Barons of the Court of Exchequer, or any of them, are and is hereby required and impowered to adminiſter from Time to Time accordingly.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That an Act made at the Seſſion of Parliament holden in the ſaid two and twentieth and three and twentieth Years of the Reign of the late King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act to prevent the planting of Tobacco in England, and for regulating the Plantation Trade, which by an Act made in the firſt Year of the late King James was enacted to have Continuance from the firſt Day of the then preſent Seſſion of Parliament, for ſeven Years, and from thence to the End of the next Seſſion of Parliament, ſhall by Virtue of this Act, continue, and ſhall be in Force for the Space of ſeven Years from the ſaid thirteenth Day of February one thouſand ſix hundred ninety-two, and from thence to the End of the next Seſſion of Parliament.

22 & 23 Car. 2. c. 26. continued for 7 Years by 1 Jac. 2. c. 17. §. 13. and hereby farther continued for 7 Years. Made perpetual with 12 Car. 2. c. 4. by 5 Geo. 1. c. 11.

VII. And be it further enacted, That an Act made in the nineteenth Year of the Reign of the late King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act for aſſigning Orders in the Exchequer without Revocation; which Act in the firſt Year of the Reign of the late King James the Second was enacted to be in Force from the firſt Day of the then preſent Seſſion of Parliament, and to continue for ſeven Years, and from thence to the End of the next Seſſion of Parliament, is hereby continued, and ſhall be in Force for the Space of ſeven Years, from the thirteenth Day of February one thouſand ſix hundred ninety-two, and from thence to the End of the next Seſſion of Parliament. EXP.

19 Car. 2. c. 12. about aſſigning Exchequer Orders, continued by 1 Jac. 2. c. 17. §. 9. and farther continued for 7 Years.

'VIII. And whereas an Act made at the Seſſion of Parliament holden in the ſaid two and twentieth and three and twentieth Years of the Reign of the ſaid late King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act to revive an Act, intituled, An Act to prevent the Diſturbance of Seamen and others, and to preſerve the Stores belonging to his Majeſty's Navy Royal, with ſome Alterations and Additions, was by an Act made in the firſt Year of the late King James the Second enacted to be in Force from the firſt Day of the then preſent Seſſion of Parliament, for ſeven Years, and from thence to the End of the §. 12. farther continued for 7 Years.

'first Seſſion of the next Parliament;' Be it enacted, That the ſaid laſt mentioned Act be continued, and ſhall be in Force for the Space of ſeven Years, from the thirteenth Day of February one thouſand ſix hundred ninety-two, and from thence to the End of the next Seſſion of Parliament. EXP.

22 & 23 Car. 2. c. 19. about buying Cattle in Smithfield, continued by 1 Jac. 2. c. 17. §. 10. farther continued for 7 Years. Exp. See 11 & 12 W. 3. c. 13. 5 Annæ, c. 34. 7 Annæ, c. 6.

'IX. And whereas an Act was made at the ſaid Seſſion of Parliament held in the two and twentieth and three and twentieth Years of the Reign of the ſaid late King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act to prevent Frauds in the buying and ſelling of Cattle in Smithfield and elſewhere, which was thereby to continue in Force from the four and twentieth Day of June one thouſand ſix hundred ſeventy-one, and from thence to the End of the next Seſſion of Parliament: And whereas the ſaid Act, being expired, was afterwards, by an Act made in the firſt Year of the Reign of the late King James the Second, enacted to be in Force from the four and twentieth Day of June one thouſand ſix hundred eighty-five, for ſeven Years, and from thence to the End of the next Seſſion of Parliament: Nevertheleſs it was thereby provided, That neither the ſaid Act, nor any thing therein contained, ſhould extend to Saleſmen or Factors employed by Farmers or Feeders;' Be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Act, together with the ſaid Proviſo, ſhall continue and be in Force for the Space of ſeven Years from the thirteenth Day of February one thouſand ſix hundred ninety-two, and from thence unto the End of the next Seſſion of Parliament, and no longer. EXP.

X. And be it further enacted, That an Act made in the firſt Year of their Majeſties Reign, intituled, An Act for the better preventing the Exportation of Wooll, and encouraging the woollen Manufacture of this Kingdom, and every Clauſe, Article, and Thing therein contained (other than and except ſuch Part of the ſaid Act as relates to the free Exportation of the woollen Manufacture) ſhall be and is hereby continued, and ſhall be in Force for the Term of three Years, from the thirteenth Day of February one thouſand ſix hundred ninety-two, and from thence to the End of the next Seſſion of Parliament, and no longer. Provided always, That no Wool ſhall be imported from the Kingdom of Ireland into the Port of Exeter; any Thing in this Act, or in any former Act, Statute, or Proviſion to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

13 & 14 Car. 2. c. 12. for Relief of the Poor, continued by 1 Jac. 2. c. 17. and farther continued by 3 & 4 W. & M. c. 11. continued for 7 Years longer. Made perpetual by 12 Annæ, ſtat. 1. c. 18.

'XI. And whereas an Act made in the thirteenth and fourteenth Years of the Reign of King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act for the better Relief of the Poor of this Kingdom, was enacted to have Continuance (except what related to the Corporations therein mentioned, and thereby conſtituted) until the twenty-ninth Day of May one thouſand ſix hundred ſixty-five, and from thence to the End of the firſt Seſſion of the next Parliament; which ſaid Act, by an Act made in the firſt Year of the Reign of the late King James (except as to what related to the Corporations therein mentioned, and conſtituted thereby) was enacted to be in Force from the firſt Day of May one thouſand ſix hundred eighty-five, and ſo to continue for the Space of ſeven Years, and from thence to the End of the next Seſſion of Parliament: And whereas by an Act made in the laſt Seſſion of this preſent Parliament the ſaid laſt mentioned Act (as to what therein related to the Settlement of the Poor) was enacted to be in Force from the firſt Day of March one thouſand ſix hundred ninety-one, but no Proviſion was thereby made for continuing of divers other Parts of the ſaid Act, which by Experience are found to be uſeful and beneficial to the Publick:' Be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Act for the better Relief of the Poor of this Kingdom, as to all Parts thereof not mentioned and continued in and by the ſaid Act made in the laſt Seſſion of this preſent Parliament (other than and except what relates to the Corporations mentioned in the ſaid Act for the better Relief of the Poor of this Kingdom, and thereby conſtituted) ſhall be continued, and ſhall be in Force for the Space of ſeven Years from the thirteenth Day of February one thouſand ſix hundred ninety-two, and from thence to the End of the next Seſſion of Parliament, and no longer.

30 Car. 2. ſtat. 1. c. 7. about Recovery againſt Executors de ſon tort, continued by 1 Jac. 2. c. 17. §. 14. hereby made perpetual. Devaſtavit againſt Executors by Right.

XII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That an Act made in the thirtieth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act to enable Creditors to recover their Debts of the Executors and Adminiſtrators of Executors in their own Wrong; which ſaid Act, in the firſt Year of the Reign of the late King James the Second, was enacted to be in Force from the firſt Day of the then preſent Seſſion of Parliament, and to continue for ſeven Years, and from thence to the End of the firſt Seſſion of the then next Parliament, ſhall be and is hereby continued and made perpetual. And foraſmuch as it hath been a Doubt whether the ſaid Act did extend to any Executor or Executors, Adminiſtrator or Adminiſtrators of any Executor or Adminiſtrator of Right, who for want of Privity in Law were not before anſwerable, nor could be ſued for the Debts due from or by the firſt Teſtator or Inteſtate, notwithſtanding that ſuch Executors or Adminiſtrators had waſted the Goods and Eſtate of the firſt Teſtator or Inteſtate, or converted the ſame to his or their own Uſe: For Remedy whereof be it further enacted and declared by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every the Executor and Executors, Adminiſtrator or Adminiſtrators of ſuch Executor or Adminiſtrator of Right, who ſhall waſte or convert to his own Uſe, Goods, Chattels, or Eſtate of his Teſtator or Inteſtate, ſhall from henceforth be liable and chargeable in the ſame Manner as his or their Teſtator or Inteſtate ſhould or might have been; any Law or Uſage to the contrary notwithſtanding.

3 & 4 W. & M. c. 9. continued for 3 Years. Made perpetual by 6 & 7 W. 3. c. 14.

'XIII. And whereas by an Act made at the laſt Seſſion of this preſent Parliament, intituled, An Act to take away Clergy from ſome Offenders, and to bring others to Puniſhment, it was enacted, in caſes where a Man, being convicted of Felony, might demand the Benefit of his Clergy, a Woman convicted for ſuch like Offence, and praying the Benefit of that Statute, ſhould not have Judgment of Death given againſt her upon ſuch Conviction, or Execution awarded upon any Outlawry for ſuch Offence, but ſhould ſuffer the ſame Puniſhment as a Man who hath the Benefit of his Clergy in the like Caſe ſhould ſuffer: And whereas ſome Doubt hath ariſen upon the ſaid Statute, whether a Woman ſhould have the Benefit thereof more than once;' Be it therefore declared and enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Woman hath been, or at any Time hereafter ſhall be, convicted of any Felony, for which a Man might have the Women only to have Benefit of Clergy once.

Benefit of Clergy, and upon her Prayer hath once had, or hereafter shall once have, the Benefit of the said Statute, and shall be again convicted of any other Felony, for which a Man might have the Benefit of his Clergy, such Woman shall be, and is hereby totally excluded from having any Benefit or Advantage of the said Statute, but shall suffer Pains of Death in such and the same Manner as if the said Statute had not been made. And be it further enacted, That the said last mentioned Act shall continue and be in Force for the Space of three Years, from the thirteenth Day of February one thousand six hundred ninety-two, and from thence to the End of the next Session of Parliament and no longer. Made perpetual by 6 & 7 W. 3. c. 14. §. 1.

XIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That an Act made at the Session of Parliament holden in the thirteenth and fourteenth Years of the Reign of the late King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act for preventing Abuses in printing seditious, treasonable, and unlicensed Books and Pamphlets, and for regulating of Printing and Printing Presses, which was, by an Act made in the first Year of the Reign of the late King James, revived and enacted to have Continuance from the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand six hundred eighty-five, for the Space of seven Years, and from thence to the End of the next Session of Parliament; Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Act be continued and shall be in Force for the Space of one Year, from the thirteenth Day of February one thousand six hundred ninety-two, and from thence to the End of the next Session of Parliament, and no longer. 13 & 14 Car. 2. c. 33. about Printing, continued by 1 Jac. 2. c. 17. §. 15. continued for one Year longer.

LXP.

XV. And whereas a certain Act made at the Session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth Years of the Reign of the late King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act for returning of able and sufficient Jurors, is expired;' Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Jurors (other than Strangers upon Trials per Medietatem Linguæ) who are to be returned for Trials of Issues joined in any of the Courts of King's Bench, Common Pleas, or Exchequer, or before Justices of Assize, or Nisi prius, Oyer and Terminer, Gaol Delivery, or General Quarter-Sessions of the Peace, from and after the first Day of May one thousand six hundred ninety-three, in any County of this Realm of England, shall every of them have in their own Name, or in Trust for them, within the same County, ten Pounds by the Year at least above Reprizes, of Freehold or Copyhold Lands or Tenements, or of Lands and Tenements of ancient Demesn, or in Rents, or in all or any of the said Lands, Tenements or Rents, in Fee-simple, Fee-tail, or for the Life of themselves, or some other Person: And that in every County of the Dominion of Wales, every such Juror shall then have within the same County six Pounds by the Year at least, in Manner aforesaid above Reprizes. All which Persons, having such Estates as aforesaid, are hereby enabled and made liable to be returned and serve as Jurors for the Trial of Issues before the Courts and Justices aforesaid; any Law or Statute to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding. And if any of a lesser Estate and Value shall be respectively returned upon any such Jury, it shall be a good Cause of Challenge, and the Party returned shall be discharged upon the said Challenge, or upon his own Oath of the Truth of the said Matter. And that no Juryman's Issues, making Default, shall be saved, but by special Order of the Court or Judges before whom the Issue is to be tried, for some reasonable Cause proved upon Oath before the same Court or Judges; and all such Issues shall be duly estreated and levied; and the Writ of Venire Facias, which from and after the Time aforesaid shall be awarded and directed for the impanelling of Juries in Causes aforesaid, within any County of England shall be after this Form: 16 & 17 Car. 2. c. 3. All Jurors to have 10l. per Ann. 13 Ed. 1. c. 38. 21 Ed. 1. stat. 1. De iis qui ponendi sunt in Assisis. Welch Jurors 6l. per Ann. Issues shall be duly estreated. An Act for continuing the Acts for prohibiting all Trade and Commerce with France, and for the Encouragement of Privateers. [1 W. & M. Seſſ. 1. Cap. 34. continued by 2 W. & M. Seſſ. 2. Cap. 14. continued for three Years longer.]

De Annis Regni GULIELMI & MARIÆ quinto & ſexto.

'AT the Parliament begun at Weſtminſter the twentieth Day of March Anno Dom. 1689, in the ſecond Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord and Lady, WILLIAM and MARY, by the Grace of God, of England, Scotland, France, and Ireland, King and Queen, Defenders of the Faith, &c. And from thence continued by ſeveral Prorogations and Adjournments to the ſeventh Day of November 1693, being the fifth Seſſion of this preſent Parliament.'

CAP. I.

EXP. An Act for granting to their Majeſties an Aid of four Shillings in the Pound for one Year, for carrying on a vigorous War againſt France.

CAP. II.

An Act for repealing ſuch Parts of ſeveral former Acts, as prevent or prohibit the Importation of Foreign Brandy, Aqua Vitæ, and other Spirits, and Bacon, except from France.

4 & 5 W. & M. c. 5.

WHEREAS by one Act of Parliament made in the fourth and fifth Years of their Majeſties Reign, intituled, An Act for granting to their Majeſties certain additional Impoſitions upon ſeveral Goods and Merchandizes for the proſecuting the preſent War againſt France, the Commons aſſembled in Parliament, among other Duties and Charges by the ſaid Act granted to their Majeſties upon Goods and Merchandizes imported after the firſt Day of March one thouſand ſix hundred ninety-two, and before the firſt Day of March one thouſand ſix hundred ninety-ſix, did grant to their Majeſties for every Gallon of Strong Waters, Aqua Vitæ, or Brandy, commonly called, Single Brandy, or Strong Waters, imported within the ſaid Time, to be paid by the Importer before landing, two Shillings, over and above the Duties of Exciſe and Cuſtoms, at any Time before the ſecond Year of their Majeſties Reign payable for the ſame; and for every Gallon of Strong Waters, Spirits, or Brandy above Proof, called Double Brandy, imported within the ſaid Time, to be paid by the Importer before landing, four Shillings, over and above the Duties of Exciſe and Cuſtoms at any Time before the ſecond Year of their Majeſties Reign payable for the ſame; and by one other Act in the ſame Year made, intituled, An Act for granting to their Majeſties certain Rates and Duties of Exciſe upon Beer, Ale, and other Liquors, for ſecuring certain Recompences and Advantages in the ſaid Act mentioned to ſuch Perſons as ſhall voluntarily advance the Sum of Ten hundred thouſand Pounds towards carrying on the War againſt France, the ſaid Commons did grant to their

'Majesties for every Gallon of Single Brandy, Spirits, or Aqua Vitæ, imported from beyond the Seas, to 'be paid by the Importer before landing, over and above all other Duties payable for the same, six Pence; 'and for every Gallon of Brandy, Spirits, or Aqua Vitæ above Proof, commonly called Double Brandy, 'imported from beyond the Seas, to be paid by the Importer before landing, over and above all other Du- 'ties payable for the same, one Shilling: Which Grant, contrary to the Intention of the said Commons, 'became ineffectual to their Majesties; for that all Importation of Brandy was, by one Act of Parliament 'made in the first Year of their Majesties Reign, intituled, An Act for prohibiting all Trade and Commerce 1 W. & M. ff. 'with France, prohibited to be imported into England and Ireland, and the Dominions and Islands therein 1. c. 34. 'named from and after the four and twentieth Day of August in the Year of our Lord one thousand six 'hundred eighty-nine:' For Remedy whereof, and that the Revenue arising by the said Grants may be for the future answered to their Majesties, according to the Purport of the said first recited Acts,

II. Be it enacted by the King's and Queen's most Excellent Majesties, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That one Clause in the said Act for prohibiting of all Trade and Commerce with France, in these Words (that is to say) 'And be it further enacted, That no Sort of Brandy, Aqua Clause of 1 W. 'Vitæ, or other Spirits, or distilled Waters, of any Kingdom, Country, or Place whatsoever, shall, after & M. ff. 1. c. 'the said four and twentieth Day of August, be imported into the Kingdoms of England, or Ireland afore- 34. §. 8. prohi- 'said, Dominions or Islands aforesaid, under Pain of Forfeiture thereof, as also of the Ship or Vessel biting Brandy, 'wherein the same shall be imported,' is, and shall be by virtue of this Act, from the first Day of this present Session of Parliament, repealed; any Thing in the said Act for prohibiting all Trade and Commerce with France, or any other Law or Statute to the contrary notwithstanding.

III. Provided always, and be it enacted, That the Duties of two Shillings and four Shillings a Gallon Custom on upon Single Brandy and Double Brandy respectively imposed by the said first recited Act, above the Du- Brandy. ties of Excise and Customs at any Time before the second Year of their Majesties Reign payable for the same, was thereby intended, and shall be construed to extend to such Duties as were then payable for the same, by any Statute then in Force, and not otherwise; and that no Sort of Brandy, Aqua Vitæ, or other Spirits, shall be imported from France into this Kingdom, or any of the Dominions and Territories thereunto belonging, by virtue of this Act, other than as the same is provided and enacted to be imported by one Act of this present Parliament, made in the said fourth and fifth Year of their Majesties Reign, intituled, 4 & 5 W. & M. c. 25. An Act for continuing the Acts for prohibiting all Trade and Commerce with France, and for the Encouragement of Privateers.

'IV. And whereas there was further granted to their Majesties, by the said first recited Act, four Pence Custom upon 'for every Pound of Bacon imported within the Time limited by the said Act, which could not be an- Bacon imported 'swered to their Majesties, because the Importation of Bacon is prohibited by one Act of Parliament 4 & 5 W. & M. 'made in the eighteenth Year of the Reign of the late King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act against c. 5. 'importing Cattle from Ireland, and other Parts beyond the Seas, and Fish taken by Foreigners: And by one 18 Car. 2. c. 2. 'other Act made in the twentieth Year of his said late Majesty's Reign, intituled, An additional Act against 20 Car. 2. c. 7. 'the Importation of Foreign Cattle: Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Sum of four Pence for every Pound of Bacon imported, granted to their Majesties by the said Act, shall be paid and answered to their Majesties from the first Day of this present Session of Parliament, for and during the Continuance of the said Act; any Thing in the said recited Acts of the eighteenth and twentieth of the said King Charles the Second, or any other Law or Statute to the contrary notwithwithstanding.

CAP. III.

An Act for the Importation of fine Italian, Sicilian, and Naples Thrown Silk. EXP.

'WHEREAS by an Act made in the second Year of their Majesties Reign, intituled, An Act for 2 W. & M. ff. 1. 'the discouraging the Importation of Thrown Silk, amongst other Things in the said Act contained, c. 9. Exp. 'the bringing in of Thrown Silk of the Growth or Production of Italy, Sicily, or the Kingdom of Naples, 'is prohibited, unless imported in such Ships and Vessels, and navigated in such Manner, as in and by an 'Act made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act for the En- 12 Car. 2. c. 18. 'couragement and increasing of the Shipping and Navigation, is directed or allowed, and brought from some 'of the Ports of those Countries or Places whereof the same is of the Growth or Production, and which 'shall come directly by Sea, and not otherwise: And whereas by the Act of Navigation, Italian and Si- 'cilian Thrown Silk may be brought from any Port or Place of Europe, and that it hath been found by 'Experience, that the Importation of Italian, Sicilian, and Naples Silk, by the Ways prescribed by the 'said recited Act (in regard of the great Difficulties and Hazard occasioned by the present War with 'France) is greatly prejudicial, and if longer continued will endanger the Loss of the Silk Manufactory 'of this Nation, &c.

Italian Silk may be imported. Coarse Silk, &c. not to be imported. Penalty. All Italian Silk must be brought to the Custom-house, London.

CAP. IV.

An Act to repeal a Clause in the Statute made in the four and thirtieth and five and thirtieth Years of King Henry the Eighth, by which Justices of Peace in Wales are limited to eight in each County.

34 & 35 H. 8. c. 26. §. 55.

'WHEREAS in a Statute made in the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth Years of the Reign of King Henry the Eighth, intituled, An Act for certain Ordinances in the King's Majesty's Dominion and Principality of Wales, there is a Clause or Article contained in these Words, that is to say, "Item, "That there shall not exceed the Number of Eight Justices of the Peace in any of the said Shires, over "and besides the President, Council, and Justices aforesaid, and the King's Attorney and Solicitor; "which President, Council, Justices, and the King's Attorney and Solicitor, shall be put in every Com- "mission of Peace, in every of the said Twelve Shires:" 'And whereas the Law contained in this 'Clause or Article is by Experience found to be inconvenient:'

II. Be it therefore enacted by the King's and Queen's most Excellent Majesties, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in Parliament assembled, and by Authority of the same, That the said Clause or Article be from henceforth absolutely repealed and vacated to all Intents and Purposes; and that it shall and may be lawful to and for the King's and Queen's most Excellent Majesties, their Heirs and Successors, by Commission under the Great Seal of England, to constitute, nominate, and appoint, from Time to Time, any such Number of Persons to be Justices of Peace in any of the said Counties of Wales, as they shall think fitting and convenient, according to such Ways and Methods as are commonly used for the constituting, nominating, and appointing, of Justices of the Peace in and for any County of England; and that the Persons so constituted, nominated, and appointed, shall have Power and Authority to act and to do any Manner of Thing pertaining to the Office of a Justice of Peace, in as large and ample Manner as any Justice or Justices of Peace within the Dominion of Wales might or ought to have done before the making of this Act; any Law, Statute, Usage, or Ordinance, to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

King may nominate any Number of Justices in Wales.

Further Provisions respecting Wales, 7 & W. 3. c. 38. 11 & 12 W. 3. c. 9. 8 Geo. 1. c. 25. 6 Geo. 2. c. 14. and 20 Geo. 2. c. 42.

CAP. V.

An Act to supply the Deficiency of the Money raised by a former Act, intituled, An Act for granting to their Majesties certain Rates and Duties of Excise upon Beer, Ale, and other Liquors, for securing certain Recompences and Advantages in the said Act mentioned, to such Persons as shall voluntarily advance the Sum of ten hundred thousand Pounds towards carrying on the War against France.

4 & 5 W. & M. c. 3.

'WHEREAS by an Act of this present Parliament, intituled, An Act for granting to their Majesties certain Rates and Duties of Excise, for securing certain Recompences and Advantages in the said Act mentioned, to such Persons as shall voluntarily advance the Sum of ten hundred thousand Pounds towards carrying on the War against France, it was enacted, That it should be lawful for any Persons, Natives or 'Foreigners to contribute towards the advancing the Sum of ten hundred thousand Pounds for the Purposes therein mentioned, by paying into their Majesties Receipt of Exchequer such Sum or Sums of Money, at such Times, and upon such Terms respectively, as in the said Act are particularly mentioned and 'expressed: And whereas the several Sums paid in upon the said Act by the several Contributors did and 'do in the whole amount but to the Sum of eight hundred eighty-one thousand four hundred ninety-three 'Pounds fourteen Shillings and two Pence:' We your Majesties most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Commons in Parliament assembled, being sensible of the great and necessary Expences, in which your Majesties are engaged for carrying on the present War against the French King, and being desirous to supply the same in such Manner as may be least grievous to your Majesties Subjects, do beseech your Majesties that it may be enacted:

Burn, V. 1. 336.

14l. per Cent. for Life, for every 100l. advanced.

II. And be it enacted by the King's and Queen's most Excellent Majesties, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for any Persons, Natives or Foreigners, to contribute towards the advancing the Sum of one hundred and eighteen thousand five hundred and six Pounds five Shillings and ten Pence, to make up the whole Sum of ten hundred thousand Pounds by the said recited Act intended to be advanced, by paying into the Receipt of their Majesties Exchequer, at any Time before the first Day of May one thousand six hundred ninety-four, any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding in the whole the Sum of one hundred and eighteen thousand five hundred and six Pounds five Shillings and ten Pence, upon the Terms following; (that is to say,) That every such Person, out of the Rates and Duties of Excise granted by the said recited Act, shall have and receive, for every Sum of one hundred Pounds by them respectively advanced and paid, a yearly Annuity, Rent, or Payment of fourteen Pounds any Perſon or Perſons ſhall receive one or more quarterly Payments upon his, her or their Annuity or Annuities for any Time beyond the Death of his, her, or their Nominee, when the ſame ought to ceaſe, ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall forfeit treble the Value of the Monies ſo by him, her or them received; the one Half thereof to their Majeſties, their Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other Half to him or them that will ſue for the ſame, by Action, Suit, Bill, or Information, in which no Eſſoin, Protection, Privilege, or Wager of Law, or more than one Imparlance ſhall be allowed.

Proviſion for thoſe that have not named any Life.

'V. And whereas ſeveral Perſons, who did contribute, advance, or pay ſeveral of the Sums of Money 'which have been contributed, advanced, or paid upon the ſaid recited Act, for Shares, Dividends, An-'nuities, or other Benefits in the ſaid Act mentioned reſpectively, as well upon the Benefit of Survivor-'ſhip, as upon the yearly Annuities of fourteen Pounds per Centum, did not name to the Auditor of the 'Receipt, or Clerk of the Pells in the Receipt of the Exchequer, by or within the reſpective Times by the 'ſaid Act appointed, the reſpective Lives, during which ſuch Dividends, Shares, Annuities, or other Be-'nefits reſpectively were to continue;' It is hereby further enacted and provided by the Authority aforeſaid, That if ſuch Perſons or any of them, ſhall at any Time or Times before the firſt Day of March next, nominate to the Auditor of the Receipt, or the Clerk of the Pells in the ſaid Exchequer, the reſpective Lives (their own or others) during which ſuch Dividends, Shares, Annuities, or other Benefits, ſhould continue reſpectively, that then and in every ſuch Caſe his, her, or their Nominees ſhall be entred in the Books kept in the ſaid Receipt for the Nominees; and every ſuch Contributor or Contributors, his, her and their Executors, Adminiſtrators and Aſſigns reſpectively, ſhall have, receive and enjoy, and be entitled to have, receive and enjoy, ſuch and the like Dividends, Shares, Annuities and other Benefits, for and in reſpect of the Monies ſo contributed, advanced or paid, as he, ſhe, or they might, ſhould or ought to have had, received or enjoyed, in caſe the reſpective Lives for the ſame had been named within the reſpective Times by the ſaid Act preſcribed; any Thing in this or the ſaid former Act contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Surplus not to be charged with Penſions, &c.

VI. Provided alſo, and be it further enacted, That the Surplus or Remainder of the Monies ariſing by the ſaid Rates and Duties, appointed by the ſaid Act to be to the Uſe of their Majeſties, their Heirs and Succeſſors, ſhall not be charged or chargeable with any Gift, Grant, or Penſion whatſoever; and that all and every Grant and Grants of any ſuch Penſions ſhall be and is hereby declared to be utterly void; and all and every Perſon and Perſons to whom ſuch Grants are or ſhall be paſſed, ſhall be and are hereby made Accountants unto their Majeſties, their Heirs and Succeſſors, and ſhall pay back all Sums of Money received by Pretence of ſuch Grants, and the Court of Exchequer is hereby required to iſſue out Proceſs accordingly.

CAP. VI.

An Act to prevent Diſputes and Controverſies concerning Royal Mines.

1 W. & M. ſt. 1. c. 30.

'WHEREAS by a Clauſe in one Act of Parliament made in the firſt Year of their Majeſties Reign, 'intituled, An Act to repeal the Statute made in the fifth Year of King Henry the Fourth, againſt the 'multiplying of Gold and Silver, it is amongſt other Things enacted, That no Mine of Tin, Copper, Iron, 'or Lead, ſhall hereafter be adjudged, reputed or taken to be a Royal Mine, although Gold or Silver may 'be extracted out of the ſame: But notwithſtanding the good Proviſion by the ſaid Statute to prevent the 'diſcouraging their Majeſties good Subjects, who have Mines of Copper, Tin, Iron, or Lead in their 'Soils, from digging and opening the ſame, many Doubts and Queſtions have ariſen upon the ſaid Statute, 'whereby great Suits and Troubles have ariſen to many Owners and Proprietors of ſuch Mines;' wherefore for the better Explanation of the ſaid Statute, Owners of Mines ſhall enjoy them.

II. Be it enacted and declared by the King's and Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſties, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That all and every Perſon or Perſons, being Subjects of the Crown of England, Bodies Politick or Corporate, that now are or hereafter ſhall be the Owner or Owners, Proprietor or Proprietors of any Mine or Mines within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, wherein any Ore now is, or hereafter ſhall be diſcovered, opened, found or wrought, and in which there is Copper, Tin, Iron or Lead, ſhall and may hold and enjoy the ſame Mine or Mines and Ore, and continue in the Poſſeſſion thereof, and dig and work the ſaid Mine or Mines or Ore, notwithſtanding that ſuch Mine or Mines or Ore ſhall be pretended or claimed to be a Royal Mine or Royal Mines; any Law, Uſage or Cuſtom to the contrary notwithſtanding.

The King may have the Ore on the Rates following.

III. Provided always, and be it enacted and declared, That their Majeſties, their Heirs and Succeſſors, and all claiming any Royal Mines under them, ſhall and may have the Ore of any ſuch Mine or Mines in any Part of the ſaid Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed (other than Tin Ore in the Counties of Devon and Cornwall) paying to the Proprietors or Owners of the ſaid Mine or Mines wherein ſuch Ore is or ſhall be found, within thirty Days after the ſaid Ore is or ſhall be raiſed and laid upon the Banks of the ſaid Mine or Mines, and before the ſame be removed from thence, the Rates following (that is to ſay) For all Ore waſht, made clean, and merchantable, wherein is Copper, the Rate of ſixteen Pounds per Ton; and for all Ore waſht, made clean, and merchantable, wherein there is Tin, the Rate of forty Shillings per Ton; and for all Ore waſht, made clean, and merchantable, wherein there is Iron, the Rate of forty Shillings per Ton; and for all Ore waſht, made clean, and merchantable, chantable, where there is Lead, the Rate of nine Pounds per Ton. And in Default of Payment of such respective Sums as aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful for the Owners and Proprietors of the said Mine or Mines, wherein such Ore is, are, or shall be found, to sell and dispose of the said Ore to his and their own Uses; any Law, Statute or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

The Tinners Charters, &c. saved.

IV. Provided always, That nothing contained in this Act shall alter, determine, or make void the Charters granted to the Tinners of Devon and Cornwall, by any of the Kings and Queens of this Realm, or any of the Liberties, Privileges, or Franchises of the said Tinners, or to alter, determine or make void the Laws, Customs, or Constitutions of the Stannaries of Devon or Cornwall, or any of them.

CAP. VII.

An Act for granting to their Majesties certain Rates and Duties upon Salt, and upon Beer, Ale, and other Liquors, for securing certain Recompences and Advantages in the said Act mentioned, to such Persons as shall voluntarily advance the Sum of ten hundred thousand Pounds, towards carrying on the War against France.

Most Gracious Sovereigns,

WE your Majesties most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Commons in Parliament assembled, being sensible of the great and necessary Expence in which your Majesties are engaged for carrying on the present War against the French King; and being desirous to supply the same in such Manner as may be least grievous to your Majesties Subjects: Therefore for the Encouragement of such Persons, who shall voluntarily contribute to the advancing and paying into your Majesties Exchequer, towards carrying on the said War, any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding the Sum of ten hundred thousand Pounds, upon the respective Terms and Recompences hereafter mentioned, we your Majesties said loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Commons in Parliament assembled, have given and granted, and do hereby give and grant unto your Majesties, the several Rates and Duties herein after mentioned, for and during the several Terms herein after expressed; and do beseech your Majesties that it may be enacted:

Rates upon Salt for 3 Years. For Application of the Money granted by this Act see 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 34. made perpetual by 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 31. §. 2.

II. And be it enacted by the King's and Queen's most Excellent Majesties, by the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the five and twentieth Day of March one thousand six hundred ninety-four, there shall be throughout the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, raised, levied, collected and paid unto their Majesties, their Heirs and Successors, until the seventeenth Day of May which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand six hundred ninety-seven, and no longer, for Salt, the Rates and Duties following, (that is to say)

Foreign Salt 3d. per Gallon. Additional Duties by 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 44. §. 2, 3, & 4. Home Salt 1d. 2q.

III. For every Gallon of Salt, not being of the Product or Manufacture of the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, imported or to be imported from and after the said five and twentieth Day of March into the said Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, the Sum of three Pence of lawful Money of England, to be paid by the Importer thereof, over and above the present Duties now payable for Salt imported, and after that Rate for a greater or lesser Quantity. And for every Gallon of Salt and Rock-salt, made at the Salt-works, or taken out of any Pits, within the said Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, the Sum of one Penny Halfpenny, and after that Rate for a greater or lesser Quantity.

Duty upon Foreign Salt when to be paid. Explained by 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 31. §. 43. but repealed as to home-made Salt, and additional Duty on Foreign Salt, by 3 Geo. 2. c. 20. §. 1. Revived for 6 Years, by 13 Geo. 2. c. 5. These 6 Months enlarged to 9 by 5 Annæ, c. 29. §. 5.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Duty hereby set on all foreign and imported Salt shall be from Time to Time satisfied and paid by the Merchant or Merchants, Importer or Importers of the same, in ready Money, upon his or their Entry or Entries made, and before the landing thereof; and that in case any foreign or imported Salt shall be landed or put on Shore out of any Ship or Vessel from beyond the Seas, before due Entry be made thereof with the Collector or Officer appointed or to be appointed for the said Duty on Salt, in the Port or Place where the same shall be imported, or before the Duty hereby imposed be fully satisfied and paid, or without a Warrant for the landing or delivering of such imported Salt first signed by the Hand of the said Collector or Officer for the said Duty on Salt in the said Port and Place respectively, that all such imported Salt, as shall be landed, put on Shore, or delivered, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning hereof, or the Value thereof, shall be forfeited and lost, and shall be recovered of the Importer or Proprietor thereof, in Manner as is herein after provided: Nevertheless, that all and every Person importing any Salt into this Kingdom, for which the aforesaid Duty is payable by this Act, shall have six Months Time for the Payment thereof from the Time of the Importation, giving Security to the Person appointed to collect the same: And in case such Importer shall pay ready Money, he shall have after the Rate of ten per Centum per Annum out of the said Duty abated him.

Managers of this Duty.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Duties on Salt shall from Time to Time be within the Receipt, Management, and Government of the chief Commissioners and Governors of the Receipt of Excise for the Time being, and that all Collectors and other Officers necessary for the ascertaining, collecting, or receiving of the said Duty upon Salt, shall be constituted and appointed under the Hands and Seals of the ſaid Commiſſioners and Governors of the Receipt of Exciſe for the Time being, or the Major Part of them; and that all Penalties and Forfeitures by this Act impoſed ſhall be ſued for, recovered, levied, and received, or mitigated, by the ſame Means, Rules, Ways, and Methods, as any Penalty or Forfeiture is to be ſued for or recoverable, or is mentioned, expreſſed, or directed to be recovered, in and by one Act of Parliament made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of the late King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act for taking away the Court of Wards, and Liveries, and Tenures in Capite, and by Knights Service, and Purveyance, and ſettling a Revenue on his Majeſty in lieu thereof, or by any other Law or Statute now in Force relating to the Revenue of Exciſe; and that as fully and amply to all Intents as if the ſeveral Clauſes in the ſaid Acts, or any of them, contained, were herein re-enacted or repeated.

12 Car. 2. c. 24.

Entries of the Quantities.

VI. And be it enacted, That all Makers and Proprietors of Salt, and Rock-ſalt, within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, ſhall from Time to Time make true Entries with the ſaid Officers ſo to be appointed as aforeſaid, ſome or one of them, of the Quantities of Salt ſo by them made, or taken out of any Pit or Pits, and delivered or imported as aforeſaid, and ſhall likewiſe have a Warrant or Ticket, under the Hand and Seal of ſome one of the ſaid Officers, impowering ſuch Maker or Proprietor of Salt to carry away the ſame, before ſuch Time as the ſaid Salt made or taken out of any Pit or Pits, within any the Places aforeſaid, or any Part thereof, ſhall be removed or carried from the reſpective Salt-works or Pits, under the ſeveral Penalties and Forfeitures herein after mentioned, which ſaid Warrant the ſaid Officers are hereby required to give gratis unto the ſaid Makers or Proprietors of ſuch Salt, upon Payment, or giving Security for the Payment, of the Duties hereby granted, within ſix Months after ſuch Entry made; which Security the ſaid Commiſſioners and Officers are hereby authorized and required to accept upon ſuch Entry as aforeſaid. Provided always, That if any Perſon or Perſons, at the Time of the Entry and Delivery of his or their Salt, ſhall pay down the Duty hereby impoſed, ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall be allowed at the Rate of ten Pounds per Centum per Annum for the ſame.

Officers Warrant to remove Salt.

Rebate on prompt Payment.

Penalty for Salt conveying without Warrant.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful for the ſaid Officers, ſo appointed, to ſeize all ſuch Salt, which ſhall from and after the ſaid five and twentieth Day of March be conveying or conveyed, by Day or by Night, either by Land or by Water, before due Entry be made of ſuch Salt, without Warrant, Ticket, or Licence, obtained from the Commiſſioners of the Duties granted by this Act, their Collectors or Officers, or ſome or one of them as aforeſaid, for the conveying or carrying the ſaid Salt: And the Salt that ſhall be ſo ſeized ſhall be brought to the Office appointed for theſe Duties, next adjoining to the Place where ſuch Salt ſhall be ſo ſeized, there to be detained and kept; and in caſe the Salt ſo ſeized ſhall not be claimed by the true and lawful Owner thereof, or by one deputed under his or their Hand, within ten Days after Seizure, the ſaid Salt ſhall be abſolutely forfeited to their Majeſties, and ſhall be ſold the next general Day of Sale, to be appointed by the Comiſſioners, or their Officers reſpectively, after the ſaid Days are expired; the one Moiety or half Part of the Proceed thereof (all neceſſary Charges being firſt deducted out of the whole) to be paid to the Uſe of their Majeſties, and the other Moiety or half Part to be paid to the Party or Parties who ſeized the ſame: And in caſe ſuch Salt ſo ſeized ſhall be claimed within ten Days, by the true and lawful Owner thereof, or by one deputed thereunto under his Hand, and if the ſaid Owner or Claimer ſhall nevertheleſs neglect, or refuſe to make it appear before the next Juſtice of Peace of the County where ſuch Seizure ſhall be made, by the Oath of one or more credible Witneſſes (which Oath the ſaid Juſtice is hereby impowered to adminiſter) that the ſaid Salt ſo ſeized was or had been duly entred, and a Warrant, Ticket, or Licence obtained for the carrying and conveying the ſame as aforeſaid, that then the ſaid Salt ſhall likewiſe be forfeited to their Majeſties, to be ſold and diſpoſed of as aforeſaid; and every Perſon who ſhall carry or convey, or cauſe any Salt to be carried and conveyed, before due Entry be made, and Warrant or Licence obtained as aforeſaid, ſhall likewiſe forfeit to their Majeſties double the Value of ſuch Salt ſo carried or conveyed.

Further Penalty by 2 & 3 Annæ, c. 14. §. 8.

Retailer not to convey Salt by Water, before Oath.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That no Retailer or Shopkeeper ſhall be permitted to ſhip any Salt to be ſent to any Port within this Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, before he hath made it appear by Oath, or otherwiſe, before the Commiſſioners for collecting of the ſaid Duties granted by this Act, or their Officers, or ſome, or one of them, that the Duty of ſuch Salt is paid, or ſecured to be paid, or that it was bought of ſome other Retailer or Shopkeeper that hath paid the Duty.

Maſter of Veſſel how to act.

IX. And be it further enacted, That all and every Maſter and Commander of any Ship or Veſſel whatſoever, that from and after the ſaid five and twentieth Day of March ſhall tranſport or carry any Salt, or Rock-ſalt from one Port to another, within this Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, ſhall (before he or they have any Warrant for the landing or delivering of ſuch Salt, by him tranſported and carried on Shore in any Port) deliver to the Officers for collecting the ſaid Duties granted by this Act, in the ſaid Port appointed to receive the ſame, a true Particular of the Quantity ſo tranſported and carried as aforeſaid, ſigned by the Officers for collecting the ſaid Duties granted by this Act, and by the Officers of the Cuſtoms of the Port from whence the ſaid Ship or Veſſel came; and that then the Maſter or his Mate, or the Boatſwain of ſuch Ship or Veſſel ſhall make Oath before the Commiſſioners for collecting the ſaid Duties granted by this Act, or their Officers, ſome, or one of them, That to his Knowledge there hath not been laid on board, or taken into the ſaid Ship or Veſſel, any Salt, ſince he or they came from ſuch Port as aforeſaid; and in caſe ſuch Ship or Veſſel be to deliver one Part of her Salt at one Port, and another Part at another Port or Ports, that then the Officers for collecting the ſaid Duties,

Theſe Proviſions are enlarged by 5 Geo. 1. c. 18. §. 25. and extended to Boats

Duties and Officers of the Cuſtoms, when ſuch Part of the ſaid Salt ſhall be delivered, ſhall certify on the Backſide of the Coquet, Tranſire, or other Warrant, or elſe by Certificate alone, under the Hands and Seals of the Officers, how much, and what Quantity of the Salt mentioned in the Coquet, Tranſire, or other Warrant, from the Port from whence ſuch Ship or Veſſel came, hath been there landed and delivered, upon the Penalty of forfeiting double the Value of the Salt that ſhall be otherwiſe delivered. And be it further enacted, That no Fee or Reward be had or taken for making, iſſuing, or granting any of the Tickets, Warrants, or Licences herein before mentioned, but that the ſame be made, iſſued, and granted gratis.

and Barges carrying Salt from Rivers, &c.

Ticket to be given gratis.

X. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That for all ſuch Fiſh, hereafter mentioned, as ſhall be exported, during the Continuance of the Duty upon Salt, by this Act impoſed, from any Port or Place in this Kingdom, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, into Parts beyond the Seas, by any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, the Rates or Sums of Money hereafter expreſſed (that is to ſay) For every Caſk or Veſſel of Pilchards or Scads, containing fifty Gallons, twelve Shillings, and ſo proportionably for a greater or leſſer Quantity: For every Barrel of White-herrings two Shillings and ſix Pence: For every Barrel of Red-herrings two Shillings: For every Barrel of Salmon five Shillings: For every hundred of Cod-fiſh, Ling, Conger, or Hake, fifteen Shillings, and ſo proportionably for a greater or ſmaller Number or Quantity, ſhall be paid by the Officer appointed to collect the Duties upon Salt, payable by this Act, in the ſame Port from whence any ſuch Fiſh ſhall be exported, within thirty Days after Demand thereof, on a Debenture, to be prepared by the Collector of the Cuſtoms in the Port where ſuch Fiſh ſhall be entred out for Exportation, and verified by the Perſon executing the Office of Searcher in ſuch Port, as to the Quantity of Fiſh actually ſhipped; and that the Oath of the Exporter or Agent be firſt taken before the principal Officers of the ſaid Port, before the Debenture be allowed, who are hereby required and impowered to give the ſaid Oath, that the Fiſh in ſuch Debenture mentioned were Engliſh taken, and really exported to Parts beyond the Seas, and not intended to be relanded in England, Wales, or Berwick; for which Debenture no Fee or Reward ſhall be taken. And in caſe the Officer hereby directed to pay ſuch Debenture, ſhall not have ſufficient Money in his Hands to pay the ſame, then upon Certificate thereof by him made (which Certificate he is hereby required to give the Party gratis) the principal Commiſſioners for managing their Majeſties Revenue of Exciſe for the Time being ſhall be chargeable with the ſaid Payment, to be made in Courſe out of the firſt Money in their Hands ariſing out of the ſaid Duties upon Salt; and any Officer neglecting or refuſing to pay the ſaid Money, or to give ſuch Certificate as is here directed, ſhall forfeit double the Sum ſo to be paid to the Party grieved, to be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection, or Wager of Law ſhall be allowed.

Reward to Exporter of certain Fiſh.

how to be paid.

XI. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall export beyond the Seas any Salt, as well Foreign as Engliſh, or any Rock-Salt, the Officer of the Place where the ſaid Salt was made, taken out of Pits, or imported, and the Duty thereof paid or ſecured to be paid, ſhall upon Demand deliver gratis a Certificate under his Hand and Seal, that the Duty impoſed by this Act on ſuch Salt hath been duly paid or ſecured to be paid, and then the Officer of the Place where the Salt is exported, upon producing the ſaid Certificate, and Oath made of ſhipping off the ſaid Salt, and of its not being relanded in England or Wales, ſhall give a Debenture under his Hand for Repayment of the ſaid Duty, which being produced to the Officer of the Place where the Duty on the ſaid Salt ſhall have been paid, or ſecured to be paid, ſuch Security ſhall be diſcharged; and all and every Sum and Sums of Money paid for the Duty of the ſaid Salt ſhall be repaid upon Demand by the ſaid Officer, without Fee or Reward.

Duty repaid upon Exportation. The Benefit hereof extended to Scotland, the Iſle of Man, Jerſey, and Guernſey, by 2 & 3 Annæ, c. 14. § 9.

XII. And be it further enacted, That the Juſtices of the Peace not concerned in making or ſelling Salt, in every County, Riding, or Diviſion of England, ſhall, and are hereby authorized and impowered at every Eaſter and Michaelmas Quarter-ſeſſions, to ſet the Prices of all Salt and Rock-ſalt, to be ſold by the Maker or firſt Seller thereof in the ſaid County, for the half Year next enſuing, and that no Perſon or Perſons, that ſhall be the Maker or firſt Seller of any Salt, ſhall ſell the ſame for more than the Prices ſo ſet by the ſaid Juſtices as aforeſaid, over and above the Duty payable by virtue of this Act, upon pain of forfeiting for every ſuch Offence five Pounds, and double the Value of the Salt ſo ſold, to be levied by Diſtreſs and Sale of the Offender's Goods; the one Moiety thereof to be paid to their Majeſties, their Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other Moiety thereof to the Informer.

Juſtices ſhall ſet the Rate of Salt,

XIII. And be it enacted and declared, That all Salt imported or brought by Sea or Land into the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, and not of the Product of any of the ſaid Places, ſhall be adjudged and deemed to be foreign Salt imported, and ſhall be charged as ſuch with the Duty of three Pence per Gallon by this Act granted, and that all Scotch Salt brought into England by Land ſhall be entred at Carliſle or Berwick, with the Officer or Officers for that Purpoſe there to be appointed, under the Penalty of the Forfeiture of double the Value of ſuch Salt ſo brought in.

What ſhall be deemed foreign Salt imported.

XIV. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Perſon or Perſons ſhall be capable of acting as chief Commiſſioner for collecting the ſaid Duties granted by this Act, until he or they ſhall, before one of the Barons of the Exchequer, take the Oaths appointed by an Act of Parliament made in the firſt Year of their Majeſties Reign, intituled, An Act for the abrogating the Oaths of Supremacy and Allegiance, and appointing other Oaths, and the Oath following:

Oaths to be taken by Commiſſioners and under Officers. 1 W. & M. ſ. 1. c. 8.

'YOU

'YOU shall swear to execute your Office truly and faithfully without Favour or Affection, and shall from Time to Time true Account make and deliver to such Person and Persons as their Majesties shall appoint to receive the same, and shall take no Fee or Reward for the Execution of the said Office from any other Person than from their Majesties, or to those whom their Majesties shall appoint on that Behalf:

So help you God,' &c.

XV. And be it likewise enacted, That no Person or Persons shall be capable of intermeddling with any Office or Employment relating to the said Duties granted by this Act, other than that of chief Commissioner, until he or they shall (before two or more of the chief Commissioners for collecting the Duties granted by this Act, or before two or more of the Justices of the Peace of the County or Place where they shall be appointed Officers for Execution of this Act) take the aforesaid Oaths appointed by the said Act, and the said other last mentioned Oath, mutatis mutandis; and the said Barons of the Exchequer, and chief Commissioners for collecting the said Duties granted by this Act, and the said Justices are hereby impowered and required to administer the said Oaths.

Persons sued, for executing this Act may plead General Issue, and have double Costs.

XVI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall at any Time be sued or prosecuted for any Thing by him or them done or executed in pursuance of this Act, he or they shall or may plead the General Issue, and give this Act in Evidence for his Defence; and if upon Trial a Verdict shall pass for the Defendant or Defendants, or the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs be nonsuit, discontinue, or forbear prosecuting the said Actions, then such Defendant or Defendants shall have double Costs to him or them awarded against such Plaintiff or Plaintiffs; for which Costs he shall have such Remedy as in other Cases where Costs are by Law given to Defendants.

No Certiorari upon Orders.

XVII. Provided also, and be it enacted, That no Writ or Writs of Certiorari shall supersede Execution or other Proceedings upon any Order or Orders made by the said chief Commissioners or Justices of Peace in pursuance of this Act, but that Execution and other Proceedings shall and may be had and made thereupon, any such Writ or Writs, or Allowance thereof notwithstanding.

Measure settled. 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 31. §. 44.

XVIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, For the ascertaining of all Measures where the said Duties are to be paid, That all Salt be measured by a Bushel of eight Gallons Winchester Measure, and by sit Measurers living upon the Place where the Salt is made, to be sworn and admitted by some Justice of Peace near adjoining, without Charge or Fee, upon Forfeiture of double the Value of the Salt that shall not be so measured.

Penalty for removing without Notice.

XIX. And be it enacted, That no Salt shall be delivered from any Salt-works or Pits without Notice first given to the Officer appointed for that Purpose, upon pain of Forfeiture of the Salt so delivered, and upon Pain of twenty Pounds to be forfeited by the Owner or Owners of the Salt-works or Pits where such Salt shall be so delivered; the Moiety of which Forfeitures to be to the Use of the Prosecutors, and the other Moiety to the Use of ther Majesties.

Penalty for relanding.

XX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any of the Salt, for which the Duty shall have been repaid and discharged upon the Exportation thereof, as is herein before directed, shall (by Fraud or otherwise) be landed in England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, before the Duty be again paid, and such Entry and all other Things performed, as are herein before required in case where any foreign Salt is imported, every Person so offending shall forfeit double the Value of such Salt so landed, and such other Penalties and Forfeitures as are herein inflicted upon any Person who shall land any foreign Salt contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act.

Provision for Persons losing Salt at Sea.

XXI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Merchant or other Person, being a Subject of this Realm of England, shall during the Continuance of this Act, ship any Salt or Rock-salt, that hath paid the Duty to their Majesties by this Act imposed, to convey it by Sea to any Part of England, and the Vessel on which such Salt as aforesaid is shipt, shall either perish at Sea, or be taken by Enemies, with such Salt on board her, that in such Case any Merchant, or Person, Owner of the said Salt, shall, upon Proof made before the Justices of the Peace at the Quarter-Sessions held for the County, Riding, Division, or Town wherein he doth inhabit, of the Loss of such Salt so shipt, receive from the said Sessions a Certificate that such Proof was made before them, and upon producing the said Certificate to any of their Majesties Officers appointed to collect the Duty by this Act imposed, the said Officer or Officers are hereby required to let such Persons buy the like Quantity of Salt, as is expressed in the Certificate to be lost, without paying to their Majesties any Duty or Excise for the same; any Thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Owner not to pay Excise till Salt be sold.

XXII. Provided also, and be it enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Owners and Proprietors of any Salt-rock, or Rock-salt, to remove and carry out of and from the Pits or Warehouses adjoining to or belonging to such Pits, into his or their Warehouses, or other Places for storing thereof, for Conveniency of selling or shipping off the same, any of the said Salt-rock or Rock-salt, after due Entry made thereof, and a Warrant or Ticket taken for the same, from the Officer next to such Salt-pits, which Warrant or Ticket the said Officer is hereby required, upon Demand, to give without Fee or Reward as aforesaid; and that the said Owners or Proprietors shall not be obliged to pay or secure the Payment of the said Duty, until such Time as the said Salt-rock, or Rock-salt shall be sold and delivered as aforesaid.

Contracts heretofore, made.

XXIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Person or Persons whatsoever shall be obliged, by virtue of any Contract made at any Time before the first Day of December one thousand ſand ſix hundred ninety-three, to deliver any Salt or Rock-ſalt, unleſs the Perſon who is to receive the ſame, ſhall, before or at the Time for Delivery of the ſame by ſuch Contract, pay to the Seller thereof ſuch Sum or Sums as he ſhall have paid or ſecured to pay for the Duty for the ſame by virtue of this Act.

'XXIV. And whereas Salt made at the preſent Salt-works in the County Palatine of Cheſter, when taken from the Pans, is put into Walms, Baſkets, or Veſſels, and muſt be carried by the Maker ſome Miles diſtant from the Works before he can deliver the ſame to the Merchant or firſt Buyer, ſo that to bre k and meaſure the Salt at the ſaid Salt-works would be great Loſs to the Makers thereof;' Be it therefore enacted, That all Salt made at the ſaid Salt-works in the ſaid County ſhall be entred by Weight only, and that fifty-ſix Pounds Weight thereof ſhall be deemed and taken to be a Wincheſter Buſhel of eight Gallons Wincheſter Meaſure, and ſhall be entred, rated, and taxed accordingly. Cheſter Salts to be entred by Weight.

'XXV. And whereas Salt-rock or Rock-ſalt taken out of Pits is in ſuch great Lumps that it cannot be meaſured without breaking the ſame to Powder, which would be great Loſs to the Proprietors thereof;' Be it therefore enacted, That all Salt-rock or Rock-ſalt taken out of Pits ſhall be entred by Weight only, and that ſix ſcore Pounds Weight thereof ſhall be deemed and taken to be a Wincheſter Buſhel of eight Gallons Wincheſter Meaſure, and ſhall be entred, rated, and taxed accordingly. Salt Rock by Weight. 'Altered by 10 & 11 W. 3. c. 22. §. 2.'

XXVI. And to the Intent that Salt made by melting and refining of Rock-ſalt may not, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, be charged more than other Engliſh Salt, Be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That where any ſuch Rock-ſalt ſhall be melted and refined, which had before paid the Duty impoſed by this Act, according to the Direction of the ſame, the Perſon who ſhall make ſuch Salt by refining ſhall receive an Allowance and Abatement of Duty on the Salt by him ſo made, after the Rate and Proportion of twelve Pence for every Buſhel of ſuch Rock-ſalt ſo melted and refined, which had paid the Duty as aforeſaid; Oath being firſt made before ſome Juſtice of the Peace near adjoining to ſuch Salt-works of the particular Quantities of the ſaid Rock-ſalt ſo by him employed in making the ſaid Salt by refining, which Oath the ſaid Juſtice of the Peace is hereby impowered to adminiſter, and upon due Proof by Oath, or otherwiſe made of the Payment of the Duty impoſed by this Act. Allowance to Refiner. Farther Proviſions concerning Salt, 10 & 11 W. 3. c. 22. 1 Ann. ſt. 1. c. 21. 2 & 3 Ann. c. 14. 4 Ann. c. 12. 5 Ann. c. 29. 6 Ann. c. 12. 9 Ann. c. 23. 12 Ann. ſt. 2. c. 2. 5 Geo. 1. c. 18. 8 Geo. 1. c. 4 & 16. 11 Geo. 1. c. 30. 3 Geo. 2. c. 20. 5 Geo. 2. c. 6. 8 Geo. 2. c. 12. 14 Geo. 2. c. 22. 26 Geo. 2. c. 3 & 32.

'XXVII. And whereas by an Act of Parliament made in the ſecond Year of their Majeſties Reign, intituled, An Act for granting to their Majeſties ſeveral additional Duties upon Beer, Ale, and other Liquors, for four Years from the Time that an Act for doubling the Duty of Exciſe upon Beer, Ale, and other Liquors, during the Space of one Year, doth expire, it was enacted from and after the ſeventeenth Day of November in the Year of our Lord one thouſand ſix hundred ninety-one, there ſhould be throughout their Majeſties Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, raiſed, levied, collected, and paid unto their Majeſties, and their Succeſſors, during the Space and Term of four Years, and no longer, for Beer, Ale, Cyder, and other Liquors therein mentioned, by way of Exciſe, over and above all other Duties, Charges, and Impoſitions, by any former Act or Acts, which ſhould be then unexpired, ſet and impoſed, in ſuch Manner as therein is mentioned:' Be it further enacted, That for the further Encouragement of ſuch Perſons who ſhall voluntarily contribute as aforeſaid, towards the raiſing and paying into their Majeſties Exchequer, any Sum or Sums not exceeding in the whole the Sum of ten hundred thouſand Pounds, upon the ſeveral Terms and Recompences herein after mentioned, that from and after the ſeventeenth Day of May which ſhall be in the Year of our Lord one thouſand ſix hundred ninety-ſeven, there ſhall be throughout their Majeſties Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, raiſed, levied, collected, and paid unto their Majeſties, their Heirs and Succeſſors, during the Space and Term of ſixteen Years, and no longer, for Beer, Ale, Cyder, and other Liquors herein after expreſſed, by way of Exciſe, over and above all Duties, Charges, and Impoſitions, by any former Act or Acts then unexpired, ſet, and impoſed, one Moiety or half Part of the ſeveral Rates and Duties of Exciſe granted by the ſaid laſt mentioned Act, in Manner and Form following: (that is to ſay) (1) For every Barrel of Beer or Ale above ſix Shillings the Barrel, excluſive of the Duty of Exciſe, brewed by the common Brewer, or any other Perſon or Perſons who doth or ſhall ſell or tap out Beer or Ale publickly or privately to be paid by the common Brewer, or by ſuch other Perſon or Perſons reſpectively, and ſo proportionably for a greater or leſſer Quantity, over and above the Duties payable for the ſame, nine Pence. (2) For every Barrel of Beer, or Ale of ſix Shillings the Barrel or under, brewed by the common Brewer or any other Perſon or Perſons who ſhall ſell or tap out Beer or Ale publickly or privately, to be paid by the common Brewer, or by ſuch other Perſon or Perſons reſpectively as aforeſaid, and ſo proportionably for a greater or leſſer Quantity, over and above the Duties payable for the ſame, three Pence. (3) For every Barrel of Vinegar, or Vinegar Beer, brewed or made of any Engliſh Materials, by any common Brewer, or any other Perſon, for Sale, to be paid by the Maker thereof, and ſo proportionably for a greater or leſſer Quantity, over and above the Duties of Exciſe payable for the ſame, one Shilling ſix Pence. (4) For every Barrel of Vinegar, or Liquor prepared for Vinegar, made here, that hath run through Rape, or made with or paſſing through any foreign Materials, or any Mixture with foreign Materials, to be paid by the Maker thereof, and ſo proportionably for a greater or leſſer Quantity, four Shillings. (5) For every Barrel of Beer, Ale, or Mum, imported from beyond the Seas, or from the Iſlands of Guernſey or Jerſey, and ſo proportionably for a greater or leſſer Quantity, to be paid by the Importers before landing, over and above the Duties payable for the ſame, three Shillings. (6) For every Tun of Cyder or Perry imported

XXXII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Head-office of Exciſe, which is now eſtabliſhed within the City of London, ſhall be continued and be within the ſaid City, or ten Miles thereof, and a ſufficient Number of Commiſſioners therein, from Time to Time, ſhall be continued or appointed by their Majeſties, their Heirs and Succeſſors, to govern and manage the Receipt of Exciſe, and to perform and execute the ſeveral Matters and Things hereby enjoined to be done and executed by ſuch Commiſſioners, until the ſame ſhall be fully performed and complied with, according to the true Intent and

Meaning

Meaning of this Act; and that in like Manner there shall be continued and be within the said City, or ten Miles thereof, by the Appointment of their Majesties, their Heirs and Successors, a Comptroller of Excise, until such Time as all Matters and Things, which by this Act such Comptroller is enjoined to do and perform, shall be fully performed and accomplished; which said Comptroller for the Time being is hereby also required and commanded to keep a perfect and distinct Account in Books fairly written of all the Monies which shall arise by the said Duties upon Salt, and the said Duties of Excise by this Act granted, as the same respectively shall from Time to Time arise, come, or be brought into the said Office of Excise; to which Books all Persons concerned shall have free Access at all seasonable Times, without Fee or Charge; and that the said Commissioners and Comptroller shall execute their respective Offices, in the Performance of all Things enjoined by this Act, without any other Salary, Fee, or Reward, than what they now have or enjoy.

Accounts of Salt and Excise to be kept apart.

XXXIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That yearly and every Year, reckoning the first Year to begin from the said five and twentieth Day of March one thousand six hundred ninety-four, the full Sum of one hundred and forty thousand Pounds, by or out of the Monies to arise by the said Duties upon Salt, and by the said Rates and Duties of Excise hereby granted, or either of them, and to be brought into the Receipt of the Exchequer, by weekly Payments as aforesaid, in case the said weekly Payments shall extend thereunto, shall be the whole and intire yearly Fund: And in case the said weekly Payments shall not amount to one hundred and forty thousand Pounds per Annum, then the said weekly Monies or Payments, so far as the same will extend, shall be Part of the yearly Fund for and towards the answering or paying of the Annuities herein after mentioned, and for other the Purposes hereafter in this Act expressed. And in case the said Duties upon Salt, and the said Rates and Duties of Excise by this Act granted, or either of them, shall at any Time or Times appear to be so deficient or low in the Produce of the same, as that within any one Year to be reckoned as aforesaid, the weekly Payments upon the same Rates or Duties, or any of them, shall not amount to so much as one hundred and forty thousand Pounds, or to so much as shall be sufficient to discharge and satisfy the said Annuities, and other Benefits and Advantages by this Act appointed or intended to be paid within or for the same Year respectively; that then and so often, and in every such Case, the Commissioners of their Majesties Treasury, and the Under-treasurer of the Exchequer now being, and the Treasurer and Under-treasurer of the Exchequer, or Commissioners of the Treasury for the Time being, are hereby strictly enjoined and required by virtue of this Act, and without any further or other Warrant, to be sued for, had or obtained from their Majesties, their Heirs or Successors, in this Behalf, to cause every such Deficiency to be made good, by applying and issuing, or paying so much of any Treasure or Revenue, belonging or to belong to their Majesties, their Heirs or Successors (not being appropriated to any particular Use or Uses, by any Act or Acts of Parliament) towards the discharging or paying off the said Annuities, or other Benefits or Advantages appointed to be paid by this Act, as together with the Monies which shall have been brought into the said Receipt, of or for the said Rates or Duties upon Salt, and the said Rates and Duties of Excise as aforesaid, shall be sufficient to pay off and discharge, and shall completely pay off and discharge, all the Monies which within the same Year respectively shall be grown due, or ought to be paid upon the said Annuities, or other Benefits or Advantages, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this present Act.

140,000*l.* a yearly Fund.

The King's Revenue chargeable, if these Duties fall short.

XXXIV. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Person or Persons, Natives or Foreigners, to contribute towards advancing the Sum of ten hundred thousand Pounds for carrying on of the said War, by paying at or before the tenth Day of September one thousand six hundred ninety-four, to any Receiver or Receivers, to be appointed for that Purpose, as is herein after mentioned, the Sum of ten Pounds, or divers intire Sums of ten Pounds upon this Act; and that for the raising the said Sum of ten hundred thousand Pounds, any Person who will become an Adventurer, shall and may advance the Sum of ten Pounds, for which Sum so advanced, he, she, or they, for sixteen Years, shall be entitled to receive a Share or Dividend of the said yearly Fund, as hereafter is expressed; and that every Adventurer may advance as many intire Sums of ten Pounds, as he, she, or they shall think fit, and for every such Sum of ten Pounds so advanced, he, she, or they is or are to be interested in one Lot or Share in the said yearly Fund. [From Section 34 to 49 Exp.]

Natives or Aliens may advance 10*l.* &c.

XLIX. And be it further enacted, That any Money contributed or lent by or payable to any Person or Persons, upon or by virtue of this Act, shall not be charged or chargeable with any Rates, Duties or Impositions whatsoever.

Money lent on this Act, Tax free.

L. Provided always, and it is hereby further declared and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Grants or Dispositions of any of the Monies arising or which shall be collected by the Authority of this Act, hereafter to be made by their Majesties, their Heirs or Successors, to any other Person or Persons, or in any other Manner, or for any longer Term or Interest, than by this Act is appointed, shall be and are hereby declared null and void to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

Grants made by the King void.

' LI. And whereas by reason of the Multiplicity of Payments, which are to be made in pursuance to this ' Act, it will be difficult (if not impossible) that every particular Payment should be directed, recorded, ' paid and accounted for by the several Officers of the Receipt of the Exchequer, in the ordinary Course of ' Payments there used;' Therefore and to the End that the Exchequer may be regularly discharged of all the Monies of the several Rates and Duties before mentioned, which shall be brought into the same for the said Fund; Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That there shall be in the said Receipt of the Exchequer a distinct Office for paying the Annuities or Benefits by this Act appointed to be paid, and some convenient Room or Rooms, in or near the Receipt of the Exchequer at Westminster, shall be prepared, assigned and used for that Purpose; which Office shall continue until all the Payments to grow due by this Act,

A particular Officer appointed by the Treasury in the Exchequer for Payment of these Annuities, who shall be subject to the Rules of the Treasury.

during the said Term of sixteen Years, shall be satisfied; and an Officer or Officers shall be appointed thereunto from Time to Time by the Commissioners of their Majesties Treasury now being, or by the Treasurer of the Exchequer, or Commissioners of the Treasury for the Time being, who shall also take Security, according to the best of their Judgments and Discretions, from every or any such Officer or Officers, for his or their due paying, answering and accounting for all the Monies which he or they shall receive, and for the due and faithful Performance of his or their Office and Offices respectively; and that the Money of the Fund by this Act appointed, which shall from Time to Time come or be brought into the Receipt of the Exchequer as aforesaid, shall, by the Commissioners of their Majesties Treasury, and the Under-treasurer of the Exchequer now being, or by the Treasurer or Under-treasurer of the Exchequer, or Commissioners of the Treasury for the Time being, without any further or other Warrant to be sued for, had, or obtained from their Majesties, their Heirs, or Successors, and in such Proportions from Time to Time, as shall be necessary and sufficient to answer the respective Payments which shall grow due, and are to be made by the said particular Officer or Officers, be issued or paid over, from Time to Time, to the Hands of such Officer or Officers by way of Imprest, and upon Account, to and for the Payment of the said Annuities or Benefits by this Act appointed to be paid; and that such particular Officer and Officers shall apply the same thereunto in such Manner and Form as are above mentioned, and by this Act directed in that Behalf; and shall be subject and liable to such Inspection, Examination, Comptrol, and Audit, and to such Rules, in respect of his paying, accounting, and other Matters relating to the Execution of his Office, as the said Commissioners of the Treasury now being, or the Treasurer and Under-treasurer of the Exchequer, or the Commissioners of the Treasury for the Time being, shall think fit, or find necessary or reasonable to establish or appoint from Time to Time, for the better Execution of the Intent and End of this Act, and the Satisfaction of Contributors, Adventurers, or others concerned or to be concerned therein; any Thing in this present Act contained, or any Law, Custom, Usage, or Course of the Exchequer to the contrary notwithstanding.

Transfer Office to be subject to the Orders of the Treasury.

LII. And it is enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Transfer-office above mentioned shall be continued for the Purposes aforesaid, by their Majesties, their Heirs and Successors, and an Officer in the same, until all Matters and Things hereby required to be done by such an Officer shall be fully accomplished; and that as well the Managers and Directors above mentioned, as also the Commissioner and Officer of the Transfer-office, and the said Receivers, and the said particular Officer in the Exchequer, and all the Clerks, Ministers, and Servants, to be employed by or under them respectively, from Time to Time, shall, in and for the better Execution of their several Places and Trusts, and for pursuing the Directions, Ends, or Intents of this Act, observe and perform such Rules, Methods, and Orders, as they respectively shall from Time to Time receive from the said Commissioners of the Treasury now being, or from the Treasurer of the Exchequer, or Commissioners of the Treasury for the Time being, so as such Rules, Methods, and Orders, be conducible to the Ends and Purposes of this Act, and not otherwise.

Borrowing Clause, if 1,000,000l. be not advanced before 24 June.

LIII. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if the whole Sum of ten hundred thousand Pounds be not advanced and paid into the Exchequer upon this Act, before the four and twentieth Day of June one thousand six hundred ninety-four, that then it shall and may be lawful for their Majesties, or their Officers in the Receipt of their Majesties Exchequer, by their Command and Appointment, to borrow and take into the said Receipt, for their Majesties Use by way of Loan, any Sum or Sums of Money, which together with the whole Value or Amount of all the Sums of Money, which shall before the said four and twentieth Day of June be contributed or adventured as aforesaid, shall not exceed the Sum of ten hundred thousand Pounds, which Sum or Sums so taken up by way of Loan shall and may be charged upon the Credit of their Majesties Exchequer in general, and Tallies of Loan, and Orders of Repayment of the same, shall be levied and drawn accordingly, which said Orders shall be assignable and transferrable from one Person to another.

8l. per Cent. allowed for Interest, and this Fund, &c. chargeable for the Payment of Principal and Interest.

LIV. And it is hereby enacted, That all and every Sum and Sums of Money so to be borrowed, not exceeding as aforesaid, together with the Interest for the same, not exceeding the Rate of eight Pounds per Centum per Annum, to be paid every three Months, until Satisfaction of the Principal shall be payable and satisfied unto the respective Lender or Lenders of the same, his, her, or their Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, out of the Monies which shall afterwards arise and be brought into the Exchequer, by or for Contributions upon this Act, so far as the same will extend: And in case the Monies so arising by this Act shall not be sufficient for the paying thereof, then the said Loans which shall remain unsatisfied, and the Interest of the same, shall be paid and satisfied out of the next Aids or Supplies to be granted to their Majesties in Parliament, and shall be transferred and transferrable thereunto, as soon as any such Aid or Supply shall be granted to their Majesties; and if no such Aids or Supplies shall be granted to their Majesties before the second Day of February which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand six hundred ninety-four, then the said Sum and Sums of Money so to be borrowed, not exceeding as aforesaid, and the Interest thereof, shall be payable, and be paid and satisfied to the said Lender or Lenders, his, her, or their Executors, Administrators, or Assigns respectively, by and out of any their Majesties Treasure, which from thenceforth shall come into, be, or remain in the Receipt of their Majesties Exchequer, not being already appropriated to any particular Uses by any Act or Acts of Parliament before this Time made.

The annual Surplus Money how disposed.

LV. And be it further enacted, That in case there shall be any Surplus or Remainder of the Monies arising by the Rates and Duties granted by this Act, at the End of any one Year of the said Term of sixteen Years, after all the Annuities or Payments directed by this Act shall be fully satisfied, paid and discharged, such Surplus or Remainder shall go and be applied for or towards the Payment and Satisfaction of such

EXP. 2 W. & M. ff. 2. c. 15.

An Act for the explaining, and for the more effectual Execution of a former Act for the Relief of poor Prisoners.

CAP. IX.

An Act for Repeal of a Clause in the Statute of the fifth Year of Queen Elizabeth (containing divers Orders for Artificers and others) which relates to Weavers of Cloth.

5 Eliz. c. 4. §. 32.

'WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made in the fifth Year of the Reign of Queen Elizabeth, intituled, An Act containing divers Orders for Artificers, Labourers, Servants in Husbandry, and Apprentices; it is enacted in these Words following: "Provided always, and be it further enacted by the "Authority aforesaid, That no Person or Persons, using or exercising the Art or Mistery of a Woollen "Cloth Weaver, other than such as be inhabiting within the Counties of Cumberland, Westmorland, Lancaster, and Wales, weaving Frizes, Cottons, or Housewife's Cloth only, making and weaving Woollen "Cloth commonly sold, or to be sold by any Clothman or Clothier, shall take and have any Apprentice, "or shall teach, or in any wise instruct any Person or Persons in the Science, Art, or Occupation of "Weaving aforesaid, in any Village, Town, or Place, (Cities, Towns-corporate, and Market-towns "only excepted) unless such Person be his Son, or else that the Father or Mother of such Apprentice or "Servant shall, at the Time of the taking of such Person or Persons to be an Apprentice or Servant, or "to be instructed, have Lands or Tenements, or other Hereditaments, to the clear yearly Value of three "Pounds at least, of an Estate of Inheritance or Freehold, to be certified under the Hands and Seals of "three Justices of the Peace of the Shire or Shires, where the said Lands, Tenements, or other Hereditaments, do or shall lie; the Effect of the Indenture to be registred within three Months, in the Parish "where such Master shall dwell, and to pay for such registring four Pence, upon pain of Forfeiture of "twenty Shillings for every Month that any Person shall otherwise take any Apprentice, or set any such "Person on Work, contrary to the Meaning of this Article." 'Now forasmuch as such Part of the said 'Act before recited hath been found to be very inconvenient, and a great Prejudice to the Cloathing Trade;' may it please your most Excellent Majesties, that it may be enacted, Clause repealed.

II. And be it enacted by the King's and Queen's most Excellent Majesties, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That so much of the said Act, as is before recited, be, and is hereby declared to be repealed, null, and void to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same had never been made.

CAP. X.

An Act for the Relief of the Orphans and other Creditors of the City of London.

'WHEREAS the Mayor, Commonalty, and Citizens of the City of London, have been, and are 'answerable for, and chargeable with, all Monies of the Orphans of the said City from Time to 'Time paid into the Chamber of the said City; but by reason of sundry Accidents and publick Calamities, 'are now become indebted to the said Orphans and other Creditors, for principal Money and Interest 'thereof, in a much greater Sum of Money than they are able to satisfy and pay, unless some Assistance be 'given them for the same:

The City Lands charged with 8,000l. per Ann. for the Orphans.

II. Be it therefore enacted by the King's and Queen's most Excellent Majesties, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That for and towards the raising a perpetual Fund to pay the yearly Interest of four Pounds for every hundred Pounds principal Money, and of all the said Interest thereof, due to any Orphan of the said City, or the Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, of any such Orphan, unto the five and twentieth Day of December one thousand six hundred ninety-three, such Interest to be computed from the Time it was first payable unto the five and twentieth Day of December one thousand six hundred eighty-three, at five Pounds for the Interest of every hundred Pounds for one Year, and from the five and twentieth Day of December one thousand six hundred eighty-three, unto the five and twentieth Day of December one thousand six hundred ninety-three, at three Pounds for the Interest of every hundred Pounds for one Year, and proportionably for any greater or lesser Sum (the Interest already received for such principal Money to be deducted) and also to pay the like yearly Interest of four Pounds for every hundred Pounds of the principal Money and Interest thereof, to be computed as aforesaid, due upon Bond, Bill, or Note, liable to pay Interest, between the five and twentieth Day of December one thousand six hundred fifty and five, and the said five and twentieth Day of December one thousand six hundred ninety-three, or any other the Creditor or Creditors of the said Mayor, Commonalty, and Citizens, or the Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, of any such Creditor or Creditors, on the said five and twentieth Day of December one thousand six hundred ninety-three, from the Chamber of the said City or from the Mayor,

CAP. XI.

An Act to prevent Delays of Proceedings at the Quarter-Sessions of the Peace.

'WHEREAS it is experienced, that notwithstanding the Statutes made in the one and twentieth Year of the Reign of King James the First, and in the thirteenth and fourteenth and two and twentieth Years of King Charles the Second, concerning the granting of Writs of Certiorari, to remove Indictments of Riots, forcible Entry, Assault and Battery, and other Presentments and Indictments out of the Courts of the General or Quarter-Sessions of the Peace, in the Counties or Places wherein such Indictments have been found, and Proceedings thereupon recorded, into their Majesties Court of King's Bench, divers turbulent, contentious, lewd, and evil-disposed Persons, fearing to be deservedly punished where they and their Offences are well known, have not only obtained Writs of Certiorari for removing such Indictments found against them as aforesaid, but also Indictments for sundry other Trespasses, Frauds, Nusances, Contempts, and Misdemeanors, after Issue joined, and the Prosecutors attending with their Council and Witnesses to try the same before the said Justices of the Peace in their said Sessions, to the great Discouragement of the Prosecutors, and of such Constables and other Officers, as according to their Duty present Persons for those and such like Trespasses, Offences, and Misdemeanors:' For Remedy whereof, and that such Offenders may be brought to condign Punishment, 21 Jac. 1. c. 8. 13 & 14 Car. 2. c. 6. §. 16. 22 Car. 2. c. 12. §. 4.

II. Be it enacted by the King's and Queen's most Excellent Majesties, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That in Term Time no Writ of Certiorari whatsoever, at the Prosecution of any Party indicted, be hereafter granted, awarded, or directed out of the said Court of King's Bench, to remove any such Indictment or Presentment of Trespass or Misdemeanor, before Trial had, from before the said Justices in the said Courts of General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace, unless such Certiorari shall be granted or awarded upon Motion of Council, and by Rule of Court made for the granting thereof, before the Judge or Judges of the said Court of King's Bench sitting in open Court, and that all the Parties indicted, prosecuting such Certiorari, before the Allowance thereof, shall find two sufficient Manucaptors, who shall enter into a Recognizance before one or more Justices of the Peace of the County or Place, in the Sum of twenty Pounds, with Condition at the Return of such Writ to appear and plead to the said Indictment or Presentment in the said Court of King's Bench, and at his and their own Costs and Charges to cause and procure the Issue that shall be joined upon the said Indictment or Presentment, or any Plea relating thereunto, to be tried at the next Assizes to be held for the County wherein the said Indictment or Presentment was found, after such Certiorari shall be returnable, if not in the Cities of London, Westminster, or County of Middlesex; and if in the said Cities or County, then to cause or procure it to be tried the next Term after, wherein such Certiorari shall be granted, or at the Sitting after the said Term, if the Court of King's Bench shall not appoint any other Time for the Trial thereof; and if any other Time shall be appointed by the Court, then at such other Time, and to give due Notice of such Trial to the Prosecutor, or his Clerk in Court; and that the said Recognizance and Recognizances, taken as aforesaid, shall be certified into the said Court of King's Bench, with the said Certiorari and Indictment, to be there filed, and the Name of the Prosecutor (if he be the Party grieved or injured) or some publick Officer, to be indorsed on the Back of the said Indictment, and if the Person prosecuting such Certiorari, being the Defendant, shall not, before Allowance thereof, procure such Manucaptors to be bound in a Recognizance as aforesaid, the Justices of the Peace may and shall proceed to Trial of the said Indictment at the said Sessions, notwithstanding such Writ of Certiorari so delivered.

Certiorari in Term Time grantable only upon Motion.

Recognizance to be given for trying the Issue next Assizes, 2 Salk. 564.

except in London and Westminster.

Certiorari granted without Recognizance void.

III. And be it further enacted, That if the Defendant prosecuting such Writ of Certiorari be convicted of the Offence for which he was indicted, that then the said Court of King's Bench shall give reasonable Costs to the Prosecutor, if he be the Party grieved or injured, or be a Justice of the Peace, Mayor, Bailiff, Constable, Headborough, Tythingman, Churchwarden, or Overseer of the Poor, or any other Civil Officer, who shall prosecute upon the Account of any Fact committed or done, that concerned him or them, as Officer or Officers, to prosecute or present, which Costs shall be taxed according to the Course of the said Court, and that the Prosecutor, for the Recovery of such Costs, shall within ten Days after Demand made of the Defendant, and Refusal of Payment on Oath, have an Attachment granted against the Defendant by the said Court for such his Contempt; and that the said Recognizance shall not be discharged till the Costs so taxed shall be paid.

Officers prosecuting shall have double Costs.

IV. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in any of the Vacations, Writs of Certiorari may be granted by any of the Justices of their Majesties Court of King's Bench, whose Names shall be indorsed on the said Writ, and also the Name of such Person at whose Instance the same is granted, and that the Party or Parties indicted, prosecuting such Certiorari, shall, before the Allowance of such Writ or Writs of Certiorari, find such Sureties, in such Sum, and with such Conditions, as are before mentioned and specified in this present Act.

Certiorari how grantable in Vacation.

Certiorari in Cheſter, &c. how granted.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That upon every Certiorari granted or awarded within the Counties Palatine of Cheſter, Lancaſter, or Durham, to remove Indictments or Preſentments for any of the Matters aforementioned, all the Parties indicted, proſecuting ſuch Certiorari, ſhall find ſuch Sureties, to be bound in ſuch Sums, and with ſuch reſpective Conditions, and at his or their own Coſts and Charges ſhall cauſe and procure the Iſſue joined upon the ſaid Indictments or Preſentments to be tried at the next Aſſizes or general Gaol Delivery to be held for the ſaid reſpective Counties, and ſhall give like Notice to the Proſecutor, and if convicted, ſhall be liable to like Coſts, to be taxed as is by this Act provided for in Caſes where the ſame are granted or awarded out of the Court of King's Bench at Weſtminſter.

Certiorari upon repairing Highways, &c.

VI. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Indictment or Preſentment be againſt any Perſon or Perſons, for not repairing of any Highways, Cauſeways, Pavements, or Bridges, and the Right or Title to repair the ſame may come in Queſtion, upon ſuch Suggeſtion and Affidavit made of the Truth therof, a Certiorari may be granted to remove the ſame into the Court of King's Bench; any Law or Statute to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding. Provided nevertheleſs, That the Party or Parties proſecuting ſuch Certiorari ſhall find two Manucaptors to be bound in a Recognizance with Condition as aforeſaid.

This Act to continue for three Years.

VII. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That this Act ſhall continue and be in Force for three Years, and from thence to the End of the next Seſſion of Parliament, and no longer. [Made perpetual by 8 & 9 W. 3. cap. 33.]

By 13 Geo. 2. c. 18. ſ. 5. No Certiorari to be granted to remove any Conviction, unleſs moved for within ſix Calendar Months after ſuch Conviction.

CAP. XII.

An Act to take away the Proceſs for the Capiatur Fine in the ſeveral Courts at Weſtminſter.

'WHEREAS there are divers Suits and Actions of Treſpaſs, Ejectment, Aſſault, and falſe Impriſonment, brought by Party againſt Party in the reſpective Courts of Law at Weſtminſter, and upon Judgment entred againſt the Defendant or Defendants in ſuch Suits or Actions, the reſpective Courts aforeſaid do (ex officio) iſſue out Proceſs againſt ſuch Defendant and Defendants, for a Fine to the Crown, for a Breach of the Peace thereby committed, which is not aſcertained, but is uſually compounded for a ſmall Sum of Money by ſome Officer in each of the ſaid Courts, but never eſtreated into the Exchequer; which Officers, or ſome of them, do very often outlaw the Defendants for the ſame, to their very great Damage:' For Remedy whereof, Capias pro fine taken away. 5 Mod. 285.

II. Be it enacted by the King's and Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſties, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from henceforth no Writ or Writs, commonly called Capias pro Fine, in any of the ſaid Suits or Actions in any of the ſaid Courts, ſhall be ſued out or proſecuted againſt any of the ſaid Defendant or Defendants, or any further Proceſs thereupon; but the ſame Fines, and all former Fines yet unpaid, are and ſhall hereby be remitted and diſcharged for ever. Yet nevertheleſs the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs in every ſuch Action ſhall (upon ſigning Judgment therein, over and above the uſual Fees for ſigning thereof) pay to the proper Officer, who ſigneth the ſame, the Sum of ſix Shillings and eight Pence, in full Satisfaction of the ſaid Fine, and all Fees due for or concerning the ſaid Fine, to be diſtributed in ſuch Manner as Fines and Fees of this Kind have uſually been, and not otherwiſe; which ſaid Officer and Officers ſhall make an Increaſe to the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs of ſo much in their Coſts, to be taxed againſt the ſaid Defendant and Defendants.

CAP. XIII.

An Act to repeal the Statute made in the tenth Year of King Edward the Third, for finding Sureties for the good abearing, by him or her that hath a Pardon of Felony.

'WHEREAS by one Act made at the Parliament holden in the tenth Year of the Reign of King Edward the Third, it was amongst other Things enacted, That in case the King should grant any Charters of Pardon, of Manslaughter, Robbery, Felonies, and other Trespasses against the Peace, that, within three Months after the making the same, they that should have the said Charters, should come and find (before the Sheriffs and Coroners of the Counties where the Felonies were done) six good and sufficient Mainpernors, for whom the said Sheriffs and Coroners would answer, that they from thenceforth should bear themselves well and lawfully; and that the Mainprizes should be sealed with their Seals, and returned into Chancery within three Weeks after the End of the said three Months; and that if they that should have such Charters, would in Time to come aid themselves thereby, and should not find such Mainprizes, or after such Mainprize found, should bear themselves otherwise against the Peace than they ought, their Charters should be holden for none; which Statute hath been found very inconvenient, in relation to divers Persons, who have been esteemed fit objects of Mercy; and therefore the said Statute hath been seldom put in Practice, but for the most Part hath been dispensed withal in the Charters of Pardons that were granted in former Reigns: And forasmuch as by one Act made in the first Year of their now Majesties Reign, intituled, An Act for declaring the Rights and Liberties of the Subject, and settling the Succession of the Crown, it was enacted, That from and after that Session of Parliament, no Dispensation by Non obstante of or to any Statute or any Part thereof should be allowed, but that the same should be held void and of none Effect; whereby divers of their Majesties Subjects are rendred less capable of their Majesties Mercy than before, it being very difficult, if not impossible, to find six substantial Persons, who will adventure to be bound for the good Behaviour of any Person needing a Pardon during his Life:' 10 Ed. 3. stat. 1. c. 3. 14 Ed. 3. st. 1. c. 15. 1 W. & M. st. 2. c. 2.

II. Be it therefore enacted by the King's and Queen's most Excellent Majesties, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said Act made in the tenth Year of King Edward the Third, and every Article and Clause therein, shall be and are repealed and annulled, and are hereby declared to be repealed and annulled, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever. Provided nevertheless, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Charter of Pardon be pleaded by any Person, for any Felony, the Justices, before whom such Pardon shall be pleaded, may at their Discretion remand or commit such Person to Prison, there to remain until he or she shall enter into a Recognizance, with two sufficient Sureties, for his or her being of the good Behaviour for any Time not exceeding seven Years. Provided, That if any such Charter of Pardon be pleaded by a feme Covert, or Infant, such feme Covert or Infant may find two sufficient Sureties, who shall enter into a Recognizance for him or her being of the good Behaviour as is aforesaid. 10 Ed. 3. stat. 1. c. 3. repealed. Persons pardoned, even Feme Coverts and Infants, may be required to give Security for Good Behaviour for 7 Years.

How to be levied.

XI. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said several Rates, Duties, and Impositions, upon Beer, Ale, Cyder, and other Liquors aforesaid, be levied, collected, and paid unto their Majesties, their Heirs and Successors, in the same Manner and Form, and by such Rules, Ways, and Means, and under such Penalties and Forfeitures, as are mentioned in the Act made in the twelfth Year of the 12 Car. 2. c. 24. Reign of King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act for taking away the Court of Wards and Liveries, and Tenures in Capite, and by Knights Service, and Purveyance, and for settling a Revenue upon his Majesty in lieu thereof: And also in and by another Act made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of the said late King Charles 12 Car. 2. c. 23. the Second, intituled, A Grant of certain Impositions upon Beer, Ale, and other Liquors for the Increase of his Majesty's Revenue during his Life: And also in and by another Act made in the fifteenth Year of the 15 Car. 2. c. 11. Reign of the said late King Charles the Second, intituled, An additional Act for the better ordering and collecting the Duty of Excise, and preventing the Abuses therein, or by any other Law in Force relating to the said Revenue of Excise; and that the aforesaid Acts, and every Article, Rule, and Clause therein mentioned, as for and concerning only the Rates, Duties, and Impositions upon Beer, Ale, and other Liquors by this Act granted, shall be of full Force and Effect to all Intents and Purposes, in like Manner as if the same were at large and particularly recited and set down in the Body of this Act.

Commissioners of Excise and Customs to keep these Duties apart,

XII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Commissioners and Governors for Management and Receipt of the Excise, and Commissioners and other Officers of the Customs respectively, at the Head-office in London, for the Time being, shall separate and keep apart all and every the Monies arising by the several Rates and Duties by this Act granted, as the same shall from Time to Time arise, or be paid into the said Office of Excise, or unto the Receiver General of the Customs for the Time being respectively, by the Receivers or Collectors of the same, or by any other Person whatsoever; and the Comptroller of the Excise, and the Comptroller of the Customs for the Time being, or their respective Deputies, shall keep a perfect and distinct Account, in Books fairly written, of all the Rates and Duties arising by this Act, to which all Persons shall have free Access, at all seasonable Times, without Fee or Charge: And the said Commissioners and Governors of Excise, and the said Commissioners of the Customs for the Time being, are hereby required and strictly enjoined from Time to Time to pay weekly, videlicet, on Wednesday in every Week, if it be not a Holiday, and if it be, then the next Day after that is not a Holiday, all and every the Monies arising by the Rates and Duties hereby granted, into the Receipt of their Majesties Exchequer, distinct and apart from the other Monies, which the said Commissioners and Governors respectively shall receive for the Use of their Majesties, their Heirs and Successors.

and pay the Money weekly into the Exchequer, where it is to be registred.

XIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That there shall be provided and kept in their Majesties Exchequer, that is to say, in the Office of the Auditor of the Receipt, one Book, in which all the said weekly Monies, which shall be paid into the Exchequer as aforesaid, shall be entred apart and distinct from all other Monies paid and payable to their Majesties, their Heirs and Successors, upon any Account whatsoever.

Penalty upon Commissioners offending.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That if the said Commissioners and Governors respectively for the Time being, shall refuse or neglect to pay into the Exchequer all or any the said weekly Sums appointed to be paid as aforesaid, in such Manner as they are before by this Act required to do, or shall divert or misapply any Part of the same, or if such Comptroller shall neglect his Duty in keeping such Accounts as aforesaid, then he or they for any such Offence shall forfeit their respective Offices or Places, and be incapable of any Office or Place of Trust whatsoever; and such Commissioner or Commissioners in such Case offending shall be liable to pay the full Value of any Sum or Sums so diverted, or misapplied, to any Person or Persons who will sue for the same by any Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of their Majesties Courts of Record at Westminster, wherein no Essoin, Protection, Wager of Law, Privilege of Parliament, or other Privilege, or more than one Imparlance, shall be granted or allowed.

The King may order Officers Salaries, &c. out of the Duties.

XV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for their Majesties, their Heirs, and Successors, out of the said Duties arising by the Tunnage of Ships and Vessels, to cause such Sum and Sums of Money to be expended and paid from Time to Time for Salaries, or other incident Charges, as shall be necessary in and for the receiving, collecting, levying, or managing of the same Duties upon the Tunnage of Ships and Vessels, during the said Term herein by this Act granted; any Thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding. Penalty for lending Money upon Funds not having Clause of Credit.

XXX. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted, That if the Governor, Deputy Governor, the Directors, Managers, Assistants, or other Members of the said Corporation so to be established, shall upon the Account of the said Corporation, at any Time or Times purchase any Lands or Revenues belonging to the Crown, or advance or lend to their Majesties, their Heirs or Successors, any Sum or Sums of Money, by way of Loan or Anticipation, on any Part or Parts, Branch or Branches, Fund or Funds of the Revenues now granted or belonging, or hereafter to be granted or belonging to their Majesties, their Heirs or Successors, other than such Fund or Funds, Part or Parts, Branch or Branches of the said Revenues only, on which a Credit of Loan is or shall be granted by Parliament; that then the said Governor, Deputy Governor, Directors, Managers, or Assistants, or other Members of the said Corporation, who shall consent, agree to, or approve of, the advancing or lending to their Majesties, their Heirs or Successors, such Sum or Sums of Money as aforesaid, and each and every of them so agreeing, consenting, or approving, and being thereof lawfully convicted, shall for every such Offence forfeit treble the Value of every such Sum or Sums of Money so lent, whereof one fifth Part shall be to the Informer, to be recovered in any of their Majesties Courts of Record at Westminster, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, wherein no Protection, Wager of Law, Essoin, Privilege of Parliament, or other Privilege shall be allowed, nor any more than one Imparlance; and the Residue to be disposed of towards publick Uses, as shall be directed by Parliament, and not otherwise.

Fines upon the Corporation detained out of the annual Fund.

XXXI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That all Amerciaments, Fines, and Issues, against the said Corporation, and their Successors, had, charged, or estreated, in or upon Account of any Suits or Actions to be prosecuted or brought against them, shall not be pardoned, acquitted, or discharged by any Letters of Signet, Privy Seal, or Great Seal of their Majesties, their Heirs or Successors, or otherwise howsoever; and in case any such Amerciaments, Fines, or Issues, shall be estreated into their Majesties Exchequer against the said Corporation, upon any Process for Non-appearance at the Suit of any Person or Persons, that then it shall and may be lawful to and for the Officers of their Majesties Exchequer for the Time being, who are hereby directed to pay the said yearly Sum of one hundred thousand Pounds to the said Corporation, to detain so much Money as the said Amerciaments, Fines, or Issues shall amount unto, out of the said yearly Sum of one hundred thousand Pounds payable to the said Corporation.

Exchequer Officers may pay off Judgments against the Corporation.

XXXII. And be it further enacted, That if at any Time hereafter any Person or Persons shall obtain any Judgment or Judgments in any Court of Law against the said Corporation for any Debt or Sum of Money, and shall bring Execution or Executions thereupon unto the said Officers of their Majesties Exchequer, that then it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Officers of the said Exchequer, to pay, and they are hereby required to pay, the said Sum or Sums of Money, in the said Executions mentioned, to the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs therein named, or their Assigns, whose Receipt shall be a sufficient Discharge for the same; and that the said Officers of the said Exchequer shall and may detain so much of the said yearly Sum of one hundred thousand Pounds as the said Debt or Debts shall amount unto.

Members of Parliament may be concerned in the Corporation. 5 & 6 W. & M. c. 7.

' XXXIII. And whereas by an Act of this present Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for granting to their Majesties certain Rates and Duties upon Salt, and upon Beer, Ale and other Liquors, for securing certain Recompences and Advantages, in the said Act mentioned, to such Persons as shall voluntarily advance the Sum of ten hundred thousand Pounds towards carrying on the War against France, it is enacted, That no Member of the House of Commons shall at any Time be concerned in the farming, collecting, or managing any Sum or Sums of Money, Duties or other Aids by the said Act or any other Act of Parliament granted or to be granted to their Majesties, except the Persons in the said Act excepted; and whereas some Doubts may arise, whether any Member or Members of Parliament may be concerned in the Corporation to be erected in pursuance of this Act;' Be it therefore declared and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any Member or Members of the House of Commons, to be a Member or Members of the said Corporation for the Purposes in this Act mentioned; any Thing in the said recited Act contained to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

Any Persons may contribute towards the raising 300,000 l. and receive yearly Sums for 1, 2, or 3 Lives. ' Most of those Annuities were subscribed into South Sea Stock pursuant to 6 Geo. 1. c. 4.'

XXXV. And be it further enacted, That all Monies payable to any Perſon or Perſons, upon or by virtue of this Act, ſhall not be charged or chargeable with any Rates, Duties, or Impoſitions whatſoever.

Annuities on this Act not to be taxed.

XXXVI. And be it further enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful for any Guardian or Truſtee, having the Diſpoſal of the Money of any Infant under the Age of one and twenty Years, for the Uſe and Benefit of ſuch Infant, to advance and pay the Sum of one hundred Pounds of the Monies of ſuch Infant, either upon an Annuity of Inheritance, or upon Annuity for Life or Lives, upon the reſpective Terms and Recompences herein mentioned, at the Election of ſuch Guardian or Truſtee; and in caſe ſuch Guardian or Truſtee ſhall pay any ſuch Sum upon an Annuity for Life, he ſhall thereupon, within ſuch Time as is herein before appointed for the naming of Lives, name the ſaid Infant to be a Nominee, and ſuch Infant upon Payment of the Sum, ſhall become a Contributor within the Meaning of this Act, and be intitled to have and receive a Proportion as any other Contributor; and the ſaid Guardian and Truſtee, as to the ſaid Sum of one hundred Pounds ſo advanced, is hereby diſcharged.

Guardian may advance Infants Money.

Infant muſt be made Nominee.

XXXVII. And to make the Payment of the Annuities more eaſy to the ſeveral Contributors upon this Act, Be it enacted, That every Contributor upon this Act, upon the Terms of having an Annuity for one, two or three Lives, his or her Executors, Adminiſtrators or Aſſigns, upon their demanding any Payments of his, her, or their reſpective Shares of the ſaid Fund, unleſs the Nominee or Nominees, or one of them, appear in Perſon at the ſaid Receipt, ſhall produce a Certificate of the Life of his, her or their reſpective Nominee or Nominees, or one of them, ſigned by the Miniſter and Churchwardens of the Pariſh where ſuch Nominee ſhall be then living, or otherwiſe it ſhall and may be lawful to and for every Contributor, Contributor upon Receipt muſt bring Certificate of Nominee's Life from Miniſter, &c.

or from Juſtice of Peace, of Contributor's Oath.

Contributor, his or her Executors, Adminiſtrators or Aſſigns, at his, her, or their Election, to make Oath of the Truth of his, her or their reſpective Nominee's Life, or the Life of one of them, upon the Day when the ſaid Payments ſhall become due, before one or more Juſtices of the Peace of the reſpective County, Riding, City, Town or Place wherein ſuch Perſon at the Time of making the ſaid Oath ſhall reſide (which Oath he or they are hereby impowered to adminiſter) and the ſaid Juſtice or Juſtices ſhall make a Certificate thereof, for which Oath and Certificate no Fee or Reward ſhall be required, and the ſaid Certificate ſhall be filed in the ſaid Office of Receipt in the Exchequer; and if any Perſon ſhall be guilty of a falſe Oath, or forging any Certificate, touching the Premiſes, and be thereof lawfully convicted, he ſhall incur the Pains and Penalties to be inflicted upon Perſons who commit wilful Perjury or Forgery; and in caſe any Nominee ſhall at the Time of ſuch Demand be reſident in Scotland, or beyond the Seas, and any one or more of the Barons of the Exchequer for the Time being ſhall certify, that upon Proof to him or them made (which Proof he and they is and are hereby authorized and required to take in a ſummary Way) it doth ſeem probable to him or them, that the ſaid Nominee is living (which Certificate is to be given, and Examination made, without Fee or Charge) the ſaid Certificate, being filed as aforeſaid, ſhall be a ſufficient Warrant for making the ſaid Payment to the reſpective Contributors or Advancers, their Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns; and if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall receive one or more Payments upon his, her, or their Annuity or Annuities, for any Time beyond the Death of his, her, or their Nominee or Nominees, when the ſame ought to ceaſe, ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall forfeit treble the Value of the Monies ſo by him, her or them received; the one half thereof to their Majeſties, their Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other half to him or them who will ſue for the ſame by Action, Suit, Bill, or Information, in which no Eſſoin, Protection, Privilege, Wager of Law, or more than one Imparlance ſhall be allowed.

False Oath Perjury.

If Nominee in Scotland, &c. Certificate from a Baron of the Exchequer.

Puniſhment for receiving after Nominee's Death.

If the whole Sum be not ſubſcribed, the Deficiency may be ſupplied by Annuities.

XXXVIII. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in caſe the whole Sum of twelve hundred thouſand Pounds ſhall not be ſubſcribed and paid into the Exchequer, as aforeſaid, that then ſo much of the ſaid yearly Sum of one hundred thouſand Pounds, hereby intended to anſwer the Recompence for the ſame, as by ſuch Deficiency ſhall by this Act be undiſpoſed, ſhall and may be and is hereby applied and appropriated (ſo far as the ſame will amount) to pay to any Perſon and Perſons who ſhall advance and pay any Sum or Sums of Money into the Exchequer, on or before the firſt Day of February, which ſhall be in the Year of our Lord one thouſand ſix hundred ninety and four, on Account to have an Annuity or Annuities for one, two, or three Lives, ſuch reſpective Sum and Sums for ſuch reſpective Life or Lives, according to ſuch Rates and Proportions, and for ſuch Time, and under ſuch Rules and Directions, as are herein before contained, with relation to ſuch as ſhall advance and pay the ſaid three hundred thouſand Pounds.

If 1,500,000 l. be not raiſed before October, on this Act, Deficiency to be ſupplied by Loan.

XXXIX. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if the whole Sum of fifteen hundred thouſand Pounds be not advanced and paid into the Exchequer, upon this Act, before the firſt Day of October one thouſand ſix hundred ninety-four, that then it ſhall and may be lawful for their Majeſties, or their Officers in the Receipt of their Majeſties Exchequer by their Command and Appointment, to borrow and take into the ſaid Receipt for their Majeſties Uſe, by way of Loan, any Sum or Sums of Money, which together with the whole Value or Amount of all the Sums of Money, which ſhall before the ſaid firſt Day of October be contributed or advanced, as aforeſaid, ſhall not exceed the Sum or Sums of fifteen hundred thouſand Pounds, which Sum or Sums ſo taken up by way of Loan, ſhall and may be charged upon the Credit of their Majeſties Exchequer in general, and Tallies of Loan, and Orders of Repayment of the ſame, ſhall be levied and drawn accordingly, which ſaid Orders ſhall be aſſignable and transferrable from one Perſon to another.

8 per Cent. allowed upon Loans.

XL. And it is hereby enacted, That all and every Sum and Sums of Money, ſo to be borrowed, not exceeding as aforeſaid, together with Intereſt for the ſame not exceeding the Rate of eight Pounds per Centum per Annum, to be paid every three Months, until Satisfaction of the Principal, ſhall be payable and ſatisfied unto the reſpective Lender or Lenders of the ſame, his, her, or their Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns, out of the Monies which ſhall afterward ariſe and be brought into the Exchequer by or for Contributions upon this Act, ſo far as the ſame will extend; and in caſe the Money ſo ariſing by this Act ſhall not be ſufficient for the paying thereof, then the ſaid Loans, which ſhall remain unſatisfied, with the Intereſt for the ſame, ſhall be repaid out of the next Aids or Supplies to be granted to their Majeſties in Parliament, and ſhall be transferred and transferrable thereunto, as ſoon as any ſuch Aid or Supply ſhall be granted to their Majeſties; and if no ſuch Aids or Supplies ſhall be granted to their Majeſties before the ſecond Day of February one thouſand ſix hundred ninety-four, then the ſaid Sum and Sums of Money, ſo to be borrowed, not exceeding as aforeſaid, and the Intereſt thereof, ſhall be payable and be paid and ſatisfied to the Lender or Lenders, his, her, or their Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns reſpectively, by and out of any their Majeſties Treaſure, which from thenceforth ſhall come into, be, or remain in the Receipt of their Majeſties Exchequer, not being already appropriated to any particular Uſes by any Act or Acts of Parliament before this Time made.

If the Duties fall ſhort, next Subſidy given by Parliament charged. The reſt of the Revenue charged, if Parliament give no Subſidy before 2 February.

1,000,000 l. formerly appropriated to the Navy and Ordnance. 5 & 6 W. & M. c. 3.

' XLI. And whereas by an Act of this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, intituled, An Act for granting to their Majeſties an Aid of four Shillings in the Pound for one Year, for carrying on a vigorous War againſt France, the Sum of ten hundred thouſand Pounds, including therein the Sum of four hundred thouſand Pounds already borrowed for the Uſe of the Navy, is by the ſaid Act appropriated for the Services of the Navy and Ordnance, as Part of the Supplies granted this Seſſion for the Payment of Wages,

'for Services done and to be done, and for the paying for Victuals supplied and to be supplied for the said 'Navy, and for and towards the paying for other necessary Provisions and Stores supplied and to be sup-'plied, and for the Ordnance for the said Navy Royal, and for the Wages of the Yards, and other Ser-'vices of the Ordinary of the said Navy:' Now to the Intent the whole Sum, granted this present Session of Parliament for the Uses aforesaid, may be thereunto appropriated, it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That out of the Money that hath or shall be levied by virtue of this Act, or of another Act of this present Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for granting to their Majesties certain Rates and Duties upon Salt, and upon Beer, Ale, and other Liquors, for securing certain Recompences and Advantages, in the said Act mentioned, to such Persons as shall voluntarily advance the Sum of ten hundred thousand Pounds towards carrying on the War against France, or of any other Act of this present Session of Parliament, by which any Aids shall be granted to their Majesties towards the carrying on the said War, and which shall be paid into the Exchequer, as well upon Loans as otherwise (except only the Money appropriated to pay the Recompences in this and the before recited Act) the Sum of fifteen hundred thousand Pounds, over and above the said Sum of ten hundred thousand Pounds in the first recited Act appropriated, shall be and is hereby appropriated for the Services of the Navy and Ordnance, performed and to be performed; and that all other Money which shall be levied and paid by virtue of this or any other Act of this present Session of Parliament, not appropriated by this or the first recited Act to the Use of the said Navy, or to pay the Recompences in this and the other recited Act into the Receipt of the Exchequer, as well upon Loans as otherwise, shall be applied and appropriated to and for the Payment of their Majesties Land Forces and Armies, Ordnance, Ammunition, and other Charges incident to the War, and not otherwise.

1,500,000 l. more to the same Use. 5 & 6 W. & M. c. 7.

All other Money unappropriated to be applied to the Army, &c.

XLII. And for the more effectual doing thereof, Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Half of all Money that hath or shall be levied or paid into the Receipt of the Exchequer, by virtue of this Act, or any other Act of this present Session of Parliament (except the said first recited Act, and except what is appropriated by this or the other recited Act, to pay the Recompences of those who have or shall voluntarily advance Monies as aforesaid, and except also one other Act, intituled, An Act to supply the Deficiency of the Monies raised by a former Act, intituled, An Act for granting to their Majesties certain Rates and Duties of Excise upon Beer, Ale, and other Liquors, for securing certain Recompences and Advantages, in the said Act mentioned, to such Persons as shall voluntarily advance the Sum of ten hundred thousand Pounds towards the carrying on the War against France,) shall be applied to answer the said Sum of fifteen hundred thousand Pounds, hereby appropriated to the Use of the said Navy, until the same shall be paid and satisfied.

Half of this or any other Tax, except Land Tax, charged with the 1,500,000 l. 5 & 6 W. & M. c. 5.

XLIII. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That out of the Sum of fifteen hundred thousand Pounds hereby appropriated, and out of the said Sum of ten hundred thousand Pounds in the before recited Act appropriated for the Use of the Navy, the Sum of eleven hundred fifty-six thousand nine hundred ninety-four Pounds shall be applied to pay the Wages to Officers and Seamen, and other Services belonging, according to the Course of the Navy, to the Head of Wages, performed and to be performed: And also to pay the Officers and Soldiers of the two marine Regiments. And that the Sum of twelve hundred fifty-seven thousand two hundred sixty and six Pounds be applied for and towards the paying for Victuals and necessary Provisions and Stores, and other extraordinary Services of the Navy and Ordnance, supplied and performed, or to be supplied or performed; and that the Sum of eighty-five thousand seven hundred and forty Pounds be applied for and towards paying the Wages of the Yards, and other ordinary Services of the said Navy.

Particular Sums for Wages, &c.

XLIV. And that the Sums by this Act appropriated may not be diverted or applied to any other Purpose than is hereby declared and intended, Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Rules and Directions appointed and enacted in one Act made in the first Year of their Majesties Reign, intituled, An Act for a Grant to their Majesties of an Aid of two Shillings in the Pound for one Year, for the speedy Payment of Money thereby granted into the Receipt of the Exchequer, by the Collectors and Receivers, and for Distribution and Application thereof, and keeping distinct Accounts of the same, and all other Provisoes, Pains, Penalties, and Forfeitures, thereby enacted in case of Diversion of any Money thereby appropriated, are hereby revived and enacted to be in Force, and shall be practised, applied, executed, and put in ure for and concerning the Distribution and Application of the said Sums hereby appropriated, as fully, amply, and effectually, as if the same were here particularly repeated and re-enacted.

Provision for speedy Payment out of the Exchequer. 1 W. & M. ff. 2. c. 1.

'XLV. And whereas there is lately set up in this Kingdom a very profitable Manufacture of Silk Stuffs 'called Lustrings and Alamodes, never before made in this Realm, for the which great Sums of Money of 'the Nation were heretofore exported into France;' and to the Intent that no Discouragement may be given to so useful a Trade, wherein many hundreds of their Majesties Subjects are employed, by preventing all Frauds and Deceits to the Revenue of their Majesties Customs, by fraudulently importing such Silks without paying legal Duties for the same; Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Commissioners of their Majesties Customs for the Time being shall and are hereby authorized and required from Time to Time, from and after the End of this Session of Parliament, to mark and seal, or cause to be marked and sealed, all the said Lustrings and Alamodes which now are imported, and in the Hands of any Person or Persons whatsoever, and also of all the said Stuffs so called which shall be hereafter imported, and to keep an Entry and Registry thereof in the Custom-House in a Book to be for that Purpose provided; and that all which are already imported shall be so marked, sealed, and registred within twenty Days of the said Time, for which there shall be no Fee or Reward paid; and all such Lustrings and Alamodes, which shall be hereafter imported from the Time aforesaid, shall be so marked, sealed, and registred without any Fee, Alamodes, &c. to be marked and sealed by the Custom-House Officers.

5 & 6 W. & M. c. 1.

A Number of Cruiſers appointed by a former Act.

'XLVI. And whereas it is enacted in one Act of this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, intituled, An Act for granting to their Majeſties an Aid of four Shillings in the Pound for one Year, for carrying on a vigorous War againſt France, That for the better ſecuring the Trade of this Kingdom, over and above the Ships of War for the Line of Battle, and for Convoys to remote Parts, at the leaſt four Ships of the Third Rate, ſixteen Ships of the Fourth Rate, thirteen Ships of the Fifth Rate, and ten Ships of the Sixth Rate, ſhall be from Time to Time directed and appointed by the Lord High Admiral of England, or Commiſſioners for executing the ſaid Office for the Time being, to ſuch proper Stations as they ſhall deem meet, to cruiſe, for ſecuring the Merchant Ships in their going out and returning home:' Wherefore, that it may the better appear how the ſaid Service is performed, wherein the Security of Trade, and the Safety of theſe Realms, is ſo much concerned; Be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Lord High Admiral of England, or the Commiſſioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of England, for the Time being, ſhall and are hereby reſpectively required to exhibit to the Commons aſſembled in Parliament, at the next Seſſion of this or any other Parliament, which ſhall happen after the firſt Day of Auguſt one thouſand ſix hundred ninety-four, a Certificate in writing under his or their Hands reſpectively, of the Ships by him or them reſpectively ſet out in purſuance of the ſaid recited Clauſe, expreſſing therein the Names and Rates of the Ships ſet out, and the Times when by him or them reſpectively ordered, as alſo the Stations to which they were directed, and the Times how long they were continued at Sea in that Service.

Certificate to be given to the Parliament of the Stations of the Cruiſers.

One Penny per Pound allowed to the Exchequer Officers.

XLVII. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Officers of the Receipt of their Majeſties Exchequer ſhall and may receive and take, for their Fees, one Penny in the Pound, and no more, for all or any the Sum or Sums of Money to be iſſued or paid to any their Majeſties Garriſons, or other Land Forces and Armies, and other Charges incident to the ſame, out of the Money ariſing by this or any other Act and Grant of this Seſſion, or any other Seſſion of Parliament, during this preſent War; to be diſtributed in ſuch Proportion as the Lord Treaſurer, or Lords Commiſſioners of the Treaſury for the Time being, ſhall appoint.

Officers in the Exciſe not to perſuade in Choice of Members.

XLVIII. And to the End the great Duties of Exciſe, and the Powers given for the collecting and levying the ſame, may not be employed for the influencing of Elections of Members to ſerve in Parliament, which Elections, by the Conſtitution of this Government, ought to be free and uncorrupt; Be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the firſt Day of May in the Year of our Lord one thouſand ſix hundred ninety-four, no Collector, Surveyor, Gauger, or other Officer or Perſon whatſoever, concerned or employed in the charging, collecting, levying, or managing the Duties of Exciſe, or any Branch or Part thereof, ſhall by Word, Meſſage, or Writing, or in any other Manner whatſoever, endeavour to perſuade any Elector to give, or diſſuade any Elector from giving his Vote for the Choice of any Perſon to be a Knight of the Shire, Citizen, Burgeſs or Baron of any County, City, Borough or Cinque Port to ſerve in Parliament; and every Officer or other Perſon offending therein, ſhall forfeit the Sum of one hundred Pounds, one Moiety thereof to the Informer, the other Moiety to the Poor of the Pariſh where ſuch Offence ſhall be committed, to be recovered by any Perſon that ſhall ſue for the ſame, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of their Majeſties Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, in which no Eſſoin, Protection, Privilege, or Wager of Law, or more than one Imparlance, ſhall be allowed; and every Perſon convict on any ſuch Suit of the ſaid Offence ſhall thereby become diſabled and incapable ever bearing or executing any Office or Place concerning or relating to the Duty of Exciſe, or any other Office or Place of Truſt whatſoever under their Majeſties, their Heirs or Succeſſors.

Penalty.

Note of Gauge to be delivered to the Brewer, &c. upon 5 l. Penalty. Altered and explained by 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 30. §. 25.

XLIX. And it is hereby declared and enacted, That true Notes in Writing of the laſt Gauges, made or taken by the Gaugers, ſhall be left by them with all Brewers, Makers, or Retailers of Beer, Ale, or other exciſeable Liquors reſpectively, or ſome of their Servants, at the Times of taking their ſaid Gauges, containing the Quantity and Quality of the Liquors ſo gauged, upon the Penalty of five Pounds for every Offence or Neglect of the ſaid Gauger or Gaugers, to be recovered by any Perſon that ſhall ſue for the ſame by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of their Majeſties Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, in which no Eſſoin, Protection, Privilege, or Wager of Law, nor more than one Imparlance, ſhall be allowed.

CAP.

CAP. XXI.

An Act for granting to their Majesties several Duties upon Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, for four Years, towards carrying on the War against France.

Most Gracious Sovereigns,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons in Parliament assembled, having entred into a due and serious Consideration of the extraordinary Occasions which oblige your Majesties to a great and present Expence in the necessary Defence of your Realms, and being desirous to raise such Aids and Supplies as may be proportionable to these Occasions, do humbly present your Majesties with the free Gift of the Rates and Duties herein after mentioned; and do beseech your Majesties that it may be enacted,

II. And be it enacted by the King's and Queen's most Excellent Majesties, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in Parliament assembled, and by Authority of the same, That from and after the eight and twentieth Day of June which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand six hundred ninety-four, there shall be throughout their Majesties Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, raised, collected, and paid unto their Majesties, their Heirs and Successors, during the Term of four Years, and no longer, for the several and respective Things herein after mentioned, which shall be writtten or ingrossed, during the Term aforesaid, over and above the Rates, Duties, and Sums of Money, now due and payable to their Majesties, or to any Person or Persons, Bodies Politick or Corporate whatsoever, for the same, the several and respective Rates, Impositions, Duties, Charges, and Sums of Money herein after expressed, in Manner and Form following (that is to say) Duty upon Things written and ingrossed for 4 Years. For the Increase and Continuance of these Duties see 8 & 9 W. 3. c. 20. 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 25. 1 Ann. stat. 1. c. 13.

III. For every Skin or Piece of Vellum or Parchment, on which any Grants or Letters Patents under the Great Seal of England, or the Seal of the Duchy or County Palatine of Lancaster, or of any Honour, Dignity, Promotion, Franchise, Liberty, or Privilege, to any Person or Persons, Bodies Politick or Corporate, or Exemplifications of the same, shall be ingrossed or written, the Sum of forty Shillings. For every Skin or Piece of Vellum, Parchment, or Sheet of Paper, on which any Pardon of or for any Crime or Offence, or of any Sum of Money or Forfeiture whatsoever, or on which any Warrant of Reprieve or Relaxation from any Fines, corporal Punishments, or other Forfeiture, shall be ingrossed or written, the Sum of forty Shillings. For every Skin of Vellum or Parchment, or Sheet of Paper, upon which any Grant from their Majesties of any Sum of Money exceeding one hundred Pounds, which shall pass the Great Seal, or Privy Seal (not directed to the Great Seal) shall be ingrossed or written, the Sum of forty Shillings. For every Skin of Vellum or Parchment, or for every Sheet of Paper upon which any Grant of any Office or Employment, which shall be above the Value of fifty Pounds per Annum, shall be written, or ingrossed, the Sum of forty Shillings. Upon Renewal of Marks those that have Paper marked by them shall have it changed within sixty Days.

XVI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That as often as their Majesties, their Heirs or Successors, shall think fit to alter or renew the said Marks or Stamps, or any of them, it shall be lawful for all Persons who shall at that Time have in their Custody or Possession any Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, marked with the Mark or Stamp which shall be so altered or renewed, and upon which none of the Matters or Things hereby charged shall be ingrossed or written, at any Time within the Space of sixty Days after such Intention of renewing or altering shall be published by Proclamation, as aforesaid, to bring or send such Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, unto the said Commissioners, to the Head Office in London or Westminster, or to such other Officers as shall be appointed, as aforesaid. And the said Commissioners and Officers respectively are hereby required to deliver, or cause to be delivered, unto the several Persons who shall so bring and deliver any Quantity of Vellum, Paper, or Parchment, the like Quantity of Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, and as good in Quality, stamped with such new Stamp or Mark, without demanding or taking, directly or indirectly for the same, any Sum of Money, or other Consideration whatsoever, under the Penalty of forfeiting for every Offence one hundred Pounds, to be sued for, recovered, and divided in such Manner as other Penalties in this Act are directed to be sued for, recovered, and divided. And in case any Person shall neglect or refuse, within the Time aforesaid, to bring, or cause to be brought and delivered, unto the said Commissioners or Officers, as aforesaid, any such Vellum, Parchment or Paper, the same is hereby declared to be of no other Effect or Use, than if it had never been stamped, and that all Matters or Things, which shall after that Time be ingrossed or written thereon, shall be of no other Effect than if they had been ingrossed or written on Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, not marked or stamped at all; and all Persons who shall ingross or write any the Matters or Things hereby charged on such Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, after the said Time, shall forfeit and suffer as herein before is enacted for Persons writing or ingrossing on Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, not marked or stamped.

Penalty upon Officer.

Paper not brought in within that Time of no Use.

Credit of Loan for 330,000*l.* at 8*l.* per Cent.

XVII. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any Person or Persons, Natives or Foreigners, Bodies Politick or Corporate, to advance and lend to their Majesties into the Receipt of their Exchequer, upon the Credit of this Act, any Sum or Sums of Money not exceeding the Sum of three hundred and thirty thousand Pounds in the whole; and to have and receive, for the Forbearance of all such Monies as shall be lent, Interest not exceeding the Rate of eight Pounds per Centum per Annum.

Distinct Account and weekly Payment.

XVIII. And be it further enacted and ordained by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every the Officer and Officers, who shall be concerned in the levying, collecting, and receiving the Duties arising by this Act, do keep a separate and distinct Account thereof, and pay the same in specie into the Receipt of their Majesties Exchequer weekly on Wednesday in every Week, unless it be an Holiday, and then the next Day after which shall not be an Holiday, and upon Neglect or Refusal of the same, shall incur the Penalties, Forfeitures, Damages, and Costs, as other the Officers of the Exchequer, herein after mentioned shall be liable to; which Monies so paid in shall be applied to the Uses hereafter mentioned in this Act, and no otherwise.

Penalty.

Distinct Books of Receipts in the Exchequer.

XIX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That there shall be provided and kept in their Majesties Exchequer (that is to say) in the Office of the Auditor of the Receipts, one Book, in which all Monies, that shall be paid into the Exchequer by virtue of this Act, shall be entred and registred, apart and distinct from all other Monies paid or payable to their Majesties, upon any Account whatsoever; and that all and every Person and Persons, Natives or Foreigners, Bodies Politick or Corporate, who shall lend any Money to their Majesties upon the Credit of this Act, and pay the same into the Receipt of the Exchequer, shall immediately have a Talley of Loan struck for the same, and an Order for his or their Repayment, bearing the same Date with the Talley; in which Order shall be also contained a Warrant for Payment of Interest for Forbearance, not exceeding the Rates aforesaid, for his or their Consideration, to be paid every three Months, until the Repayment of his or their Principal; and that all Orders for Repayment of Money shall be registred in Course, according to the Date of the Talley respectively, without Preference of one before another; and that all and every Person and Persons shall be paid in Course, according as their Orders shall stand registred in the said Book, so as that the Person, Native or Foreigner, his, or their Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, who shall have his, her, or their Order or Orders first entred in the said Book, shall be taken and accounted as the first Person to be paid upon the Monies to come in by virtue of this Act; and he or they, who shall have his or their Order or Orders next entred shall be taken and accounted to be the second Person to be paid, and so successively and in Course; and that the Monies to come in by this Act shall be in the same Order liable to the Satisfaction of the said respective Parties, their Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, successively, without Preference of one before another, and not otherwise, and not to be divertible to any other Use, Intent, or Purpose whatsoever; and that no Fee, Reward, or Gratuity, directly or indirectly, be demanded or taken of any of their Majesties

Talley and Order to the Lender.

Orders to be registred, and Persons paid in Course.

Majeſties Subjects for providing or making any ſuch Books, Regiſters, Entries, View, or Search as aforeſaid, or in or for the Payment of Money lent, or the Intereſt as aforeſaid, by any of their Majeſties Officer or Officers, their Clerks or Deputies, on pain of Payment of treble Damages to the Party grieved by the Party offending, with Coſts of Suit; or if the Officer himſelf take or demand any ſuch Fee or Reward, then to loſe his Place alſo. And if any undue Preference of one before another ſhall be made, either in Point of Regiſtry or Payment, contrary to the true Meaning of this Act, by any ſuch Officer or Officers, then the Party offending ſhall be liable by Action of Debt, or on the Caſe, to pay the Value of the Debt, Damages, and Coſts, to the Party grieved, and ſhall be forejudged from his Place or Office; and if ſuch Preference be unduly made by any his Deputy or Clerk, without Direction or Privity of his Maſter, then ſuch Deputy or Clerk only ſhall be liable to ſuch Action, Debt, Damages, and Coſts, and ſhall be for ever after uncapable of his Place or Office: And in caſe the Auditor ſhall not direct, nor the Clerk of the Pells record, or the Teller make Payment, according to each Perſon's due Place and Order, as aforedirected, then he or they ſhall be judged to forfeit, and their reſpective Deputies and Clerks herein offending, to be liable to ſuch Action, Debt, Damages, and Coſts, in ſuch Manner as aforeſaid. All which ſaid Penalties, Forfeitures, Damages, and Coſts, to be incurred by any of the Officers aforeſaid, or any their Deputies or Clerks, ſhall and may be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of their Majeſties Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection, Privilege, Wager of Law, Injunction, or Order of Reſtraint ſhall be in any wiſe granted or allowed.

Penalties upon Officer taking Fee, or paying out of Courſe.

Penalty upon Auditor, &c. offending.

XX. Provided always, and be it hereby declared, That if it happen that ſeveral Tallies of Loan, or Orders for Payment as aforeſaid, bear Date, or be brought the ſame Day to the Auditor of the Receipt to be regiſtred, then it ſhall be interpreted no undue Preference which of thoſe he enters firſt, ſo he enters them all the ſame Day. Provided alſo, That it ſhall not be interpreted any undue Preference to incur any Penalty in Point of Payment, if the Auditor direct, and the Clerk of the Pells record, and the Teller do pay ſubſequent Orders of the Perſons that come and demand their Money, and bring their Order, before other Perſons that did not come and demand their Money, and bring their Order, in their Courſe, ſo as there may be ſo much Money reſerved as will ſatisfy precedent Orders, which ſhall not be otherwiſe diſpoſed, but kept for them; Intereſt upon Loan being to ceaſe from the Time the Money is ſo reſerved and kept in Bank for them.

What ſhall not be undue Preference.

XXI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Perſon or Perſons, to whom any Monies ſhall be due by virtue of this Act, after Order entred in the Book of Regiſter aforeſaid for Payment thereof, his Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns, by Indorſement of his Order may aſſign and transfer his Right, Title, Intereſt and Benefit of ſuch Order, or any Part thereof, to any other, which being notified in the Office of the Auditor of Receipt aforeſaid, and an Entry or Memorial thereof alſo made in the Book of Regiſter aforeſaid for Orders (which the Officer ſhall, upon Requeſt, without Fee or Charge accordingly make) ſhall intitle ſuch Aſſignee, his Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns to the Benefit thereof, and Payment thereon: And ſuch Aſſignee may in like manner aſſign again, and ſo toties quoties; and afterwards it ſhall not be in the Power of ſuch Perſon or Perſons, who have or hath made ſuch Aſſignments, to make void, releaſe, or diſcharge the ſame, or any the Monies thereby due, or any Part thereof.

Orders aſſignable.

XXII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for their Majeſties, their Heirs and Succeſſors, out of the Duties ariſing by this Act, to cauſe ſuch Sum and Sums of Money to be expended and paid, from Time to Time, for Salaries and other incident Charges, as ſhall be neceſſary in and for the receiving, collecting, levying, or managing of the ſame Duties, during the ſaid Term therein by this Act granted; any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Proviſion for Salaries.

XXIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That as often as their Majeſties, their Heirs or Succeſſors, ſhall think fit to alter the ſaid Stamps, or any of them, that the Proclamation which is hereby directed to be made, for giving to all Perſons due Notice thereof, ſhall within twenty Days after the Date thereof be ſent to the Mayor, Chief Magiſtrate, or other Head Officer of every City, Corporation, Borough and Market Town, throughout the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, which Officers reſpectively ſhall cauſe the ſame to be publiſhed to the Inhabitants of ſuch City, Corporation, or Town, either on the next Market Day, or next Sunday, in the Church immediately after the Time of divine Service, upon Pain of forfeiting the Sum of two hundred Pounds, to be ſued for by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, in any of their Majeſties Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection, Wager of Law, Privilege, or more than one Imparlance, ſhall be granted or allowed; the one Moiety of which Forfeiture to be to their Majeſties, the other Moiety to ſuch Perſon who ſhall ſue for the ſame.

Proclamation of Renewal to be publiſhed within 20 Days.

Penalty upon Officers not publiſhing it.

XXIV. And be it enacted, That the Commiſſioners, Receiver or Receivers General, or other Perſon or Perſons who are or ſhall be reſpectively employed in the directing, receiving, collecting, or paying the ſeveral Impoſitions upon Paper and Parchment, and other Duties, by this Act granted, ſhall and are hereby required, between the eight and twentieth Day of June one thouſand ſix hundred ninety-five and the nine and twentieth Day of September following, and ſo from Year to Year yearly, at thoſe Times, during the Continuance of this Act, to exhibit their reſpective Accounts thereof to their Majeſties Auditors of the Impreſt for the Time being, or one of them, who ſhall and are hereby from Time to Time reſpectively authorized to examine upon Oath the ſaid Commiſſioners, Receiver or Receivers General, or other Perſon or Perſons Accountants, who ſhall be employed in raiſing, receiving or collecting the ſaid Impoſitions.

The Auditor of the Impreſt to take the Accounts of the Commiſſioners, &c. annually upon Oath.

sitions and Duties, of what Sum or Sums of Money was or were by them, or any of them, respectively raised, collected, or received, within the Time of such their Accounts, and likewise what Part thereof was by them, or any of them, paid into their Majesties Receipt of the Exchequer, or by Virtue of any Warrant of Privy Seal, or Warrant of the Lord High Treasurer, or Commissioners of their Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, otherwise paid, and to whom, and for what Service or Services; and in making the said Accounts to and before the said Auditors, or one of them, they are to produce proper Vouchers for every Sum or Sums of Money so by them, or any of them, raised, received and paid, according to the ancient Methods of the Exchequer: And to the End that it may appear upon Record what the Sums amounted to in the Year, for which such Account or Accounts are or shall be respectively made, and what thereof was paid, and to whom and for what Use and Service, Uses and Services as aforesaid, and what remains unpaid and rests insuper upon each respective Receiver and Collector, the Account or Accounts, so to be taken by every of the said Auditors respectively, is and are to be declared before the Lord Treasurer, or Lords Commissioners of the Treasury, and Chancellor of the Exchequer, now and for the Time being, according to the Course of the Exchequer in such Cases.

(3) And in Case such Office shall not be so kept and attended in each Market-Town respectively, the Commissioners, Farmers, Sub-Commissioners, or other Person or Persons so neglecting or refusing to do the same, shall for every Market-Day forfeit ten Pounds, the one Half to the King's Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Half to him or them that will inform and sue for the same in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, wherein no Essoin, Protection or Wager of Law shall be admitted or allowed; (4) and such Person as shall come to such Market-Town to make such Entry or Payment of the Duties, and shall tender the same according to the said Acts, and be able to prove such Tender by the Oath of one or more sufficient Witnesses, shall not be liable to any Penalty or Forfeiture imposed by the said Acts, for such weekly or monthly Entries or Payments as should have been made or paid on such Market-Day; any Article, Clause or Thing in any or either of the said Acts, or this present Act, to the contrary notwithstanding. The Penalty.

XI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said first Day of September, no common Brewer of Beer or Ale, shall sell, deliver or carry out any Beer or Ale to any his Customers, either in whole Cask or by the Gallon, in any City, Town Corporate or Market-Town, before Notice given to an Officer of Excise, but between the Hours of the Day hereafter mentioned, (that is to say) from the twenty-fifth Day of March to the twenty ninth Day of September yearly, between the Hours of three of the Clock in the Morning and nine of the Clock in the Evening, and from the nine and twentieth Day of September to the five and twentieth Day of March yearly, between the Hours of five of the Clock in the Morning and seven of the Clock in the Evening; (2) upon Pain that every Brewer doing contrary hereunto, shall for every such Offence forfeit and lose the Sum of twenty Shillings for every Barrel of Beer or Ale that shall be so carried out contrary to the true Meaning of this Act, to be levied and recovered as in and by this present Act is hereafter enacted and appointed. At what Time only Brewers may carry out their Beer.

XII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any common Brewer, Innkeeper, Victualler or other Retailer of Beer or Ale, shall at any Time after the first Day of September, after an Account hath been taken by the said Gager or Gagers of the Quantity and Quality of the Beer, Ale or Worts, found in his Tun and other Brewing Vessels, convert any Part of his small Beer, or small Worts, so taken Account of, into strong Beer or Ale, by mingling, letting down, or striking over any such strong Ale or strong Worts into which or amongst any such small Beer or small Worts, and shall sell, deliver out or retail the same, or any Part thereof, without giving Notice to the same Gager or Gagers of the Quantity so mingled and converted as aforesaid; or if any such Brewer or Retailer as aforesaid shall after the said Time hide, conceal or convey any Beer, Ale or Worts not gaged, from the Sight or View of the Gager or Gagers appointed to take Account of the same, whereby the King's Majesty, or his Commissioners or Farmers shall or may be defrauded in any manner of wise of the Duties due for the same, or any Part thereof, every such common Brewer, Victualler and Retailer, for every Barrel of Beer or Ale by him or them so mingled, converted, sold, delivered, hid, concealed or conveyed away, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning hereof, shall forfeit and lose the Sum of twenty Shillings, to be levied and recovered in Manner and Form as in and by this present Act is hereafter ordained and appointed. Mingling of strong and small Worts.

XIII. And be it further declared and enacted, That all and every the Brewing Vessels and Utensils for Brewing, into whose Hands soever the same shall come, and by what Conveyance or Title soever the same be claimed, shall be liable and subject unto, and are hereby charged with, all and singular the Debts and Duties of Excise in Arrear and owing by any Person or Persons for any Beer or Ale made within the said Brew-house, and shall also be subject to all Penalties and Forfeitures incurred by such Person or Persons so using the said Brew-house for any Offence against the Laws and Statutes for Excise; (2) and that it shall be lawful in all Cases to levy Debts and Penalties, and use such Proceedings against the Utensils therein contained, as it may be lawful to do in Case the Debtor or Offender using the said Utensils had been truly and really Owner and Proprietor of the same. Brewing Vessels and Utensils subject to the Debts and Penalties of Excise.

XIV. And be it further enacted by Authority aforesaid, That after the first Day of September, no common Brewer of Beer or Ale, nor any other Person whatsoever, who hath or shall compound for the Duties of Excise for Beer or Ale by him brewed or to be brewed, shall during the Term of such Composition, brew or make, or suffer or permit any Beer or Ale to be brewed or made, within his Brewhouse, for any other common Brewer whatsoever, without first giving Notice, as well of every particular Brewing, as of the Quantity and Quality of the Beer and Ale at every such Brewing intended to be brewed and made, unto the respective Commissioners, Farmers or Sub-Commissioners of Excise, within the Districts of whose Office such common Brewer doth or shall inhabit, and forthwith paying down unto the said respective Commissioners, Farmers or Sub-Commissioners, the full Excise of all the said Beer and Ale; (2) upon Pain that as well the Brewer who shall brew the same, as the Brewer for whom the said Beer or Ale shall be brewed, shall forfeit and lose for every Barrel the Sum of five Pounds; the one Moiety to the King's Majesty, and the other Moiety to the Informer that shall sue for the same in any Court of Record. Brewers that brew for other Brewers.

XV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said first Day of September, no Person or Persons shall be permitted to sell or retail any Coffee, Chocolate, Sherbet or Tea, without Licence first obtained and had by Order of the General Sessions of the Peace in the several and respective Counties, Certificate being first shewed, that they have given good Security for the due Payment of their Dues to the King, or the Chief Magistrate of the Place in whose Jurisdiction he or they do or shall inhabit or dwell, for the Selling or Retailing of the same; (2) nor shall any Licence be granted to any Retailer, until Security first given by Recognizance, or otherwise, for which Licence, Recognizance and Security, twelve Pence shall be given, and no more, for the Payment of the Excise: And every Person or Persons selling or retailing any of the said Liquors without Licence had, and Security given as aforesaid, shall forfeit and lose the Sum of five Pounds for every Month he or they shall continue Selling or Retailing the same. Coffee, Chocolate, Sherbet, Tea.

Gaugers may take no Bribes nor Rewards to make false Returns.

XVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said first Day of September, no Brewer or other Person whatsoever shall bribe or corrupt, or give any Money, Fee, or other Reward whatsoever, to any Gauger or Gaugers, or other Officer whatsoever, to make any false Return or Report into the Office of Excise, of any Beer, Ale or other Liquors exciseable, made or brewed, or to be made or brewed, within his or their Charge, Division or Walk, or to forbear or omit the doing or executing of his or their Places or Imployments, upon Penalty of ten Pounds for every such Offence; (2) and that no sworn Gauger or Gaugers, or other Officer whatsoever, shall directly or indirectly take and receive any Bribe, Money, Fee, Gift or other Reward, of any Brewer or other Person whatsoever, for any Cause or Matter relating to the Excise; upon Penalty that every such sworn Gauger or other Officer so offending, shall for every such Offence forfeit and lose the Sum of ten Pounds: (3) All and every of which said respective Offences shall be proved by the Oaths of two lawful and credible Witnesses before two Justices of the Peace or Chief Magistrate of the Place where such Offence shall be committed; which said Justices or Magistrates respectively have hereby Power to administer the said Oaths, and also to examine, adjudge and determine the same, and to cause such Penalties by Warrant under their Hands and Seals to be levied by Distress and Sale of the Offender's Goods, rendring to the Party the Overplus; and for Want of such Distress to commit every such Offender to the common Gaol of such County or Place, there to remain by the Space of three Months without Bail or Mainprise.

Foreign Liquors imported to be duly entered. 1 Vent. 62.

XVII. And for the better Levying and Collecting the Duties of Excise upon all foreign or imported Liquors; (2) Be it enacted by Authority aforesaid, That no such foreign or imported Liquors shall be landed or put on Shore out of any Ship or Vessel from beyond the Seas, before due Entry be first made thereof with the Officer or Collector appointed for the Excise in the Port or Place where the same shall be imported, or before the Duty of Excise due and payable for the same be fully satisfied and paid; (3) and that every Warrant for the Landing or Delivering of any such foreign Liquors shall be signed by the Hand of the said Officer or Collector of the Excise in the said Port or Place respectively; (4) upon Pain that all such foreign Liquors as shall be landed, put on Shore or delivered contrary to the true Intent and Meaning hereof, or without the Presence of an Officer or Waiter for the Excise, or the Value thereof, shall be forfeited and lost, the one Moiety to the King's Majesty, and the other Moiety to him or them who shall or will seise, inform or sue for the same, to be recovered of the Importer or Proprietor thereof.

XVIII. And that no Person or Persons whatsoever bringing any exciseable Liquors (except Beer, Ale, Cyder, Perry and Metheglin) into any Part or Place of this Realm, by Coast Cockquet, Transire or Certificate, nor any Person or Persons to whom the same or any of them shall be consigned, shall land or cause any such exciseable Liquors (except before excepted) to be landed or put on Shore, without making or causing due Entry to be made of the same, with the Officer or Officers of the Excise for the Time being appointed to receive and take such Entries within the Port or Place where the same shall be landed; upon Pain in every such Case as aforesaid, to forfeit double the Value of the said Liquors landed or put on Shore contrary to the true Intent and Meaning hereof.

Appeals in Causes of Excise.

XIX. Provided also, and be it further enacted and ordained by Authority aforesaid, That no Appeal in any Cause of Excise whatsoever shall be admitted, until the Party Appellant shall have first deposited and laid down the single Duty of Excise in the Hands of the Commissioners, Farmers or Sub-Commissioners of Excise, within whose Jurisdiction or Division the said Cause was originally heard and determined, and have given Security to the Commissioners of Appeal, or Justice of the Peace respectively where such Cause is to be finally adjudged, for all such Fine, Forfeiture and Penalty as upon such Hearing and Determination was adjudged against him; (2) and that if upon the Hearing and Determining of any such Appeal, the said original Judgment shall happen to be reversed and made null, then and in every such Case, the said Commissioners, Farmers or Sub-Commissioners of Excise in whose Hands the said single Duty of Excise was deposited, shall restore and deliver back the same, or as much thereof as shall be adjudged by the Commissioners of Appeals or Justices of the Peace respectively, to the said Appellant, and the Party originally prosecuting shall pay him the double Costs: (3) But in Case the first Judgment shall be affirmed, the Party appealing shall pay the like Costs unto the Commissioner or Commissioners complained of; any Thing in this Act or in any other Act or Statute whatsoever to the contrary thereof contained in any wise notwithstanding.

Excise upon Vinegar Beer. Explained 8 Annæ, c. 7. §. 4.

XX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every Person or Persons whatsoever, Brewing or Making any Beer, whether in a common Brew-house or otherwise, for Sale, or to convert into Vinegar for Sale, shall pay for every Barrel of such Vinegar-Beer so made and brewed, the several and respective Sums already imposed and set by any the Acts of Excise above-mentioned upon Vinegar-Beer brewed by any common Brewer in any common Brew-house; any Thing in the said Acts or either of them to the contrary notwithstanding.

Colleges and Halls in the Universities.

XXI. And it is hereby further declared, That every College and Hall in either of the Universities, which before the Duty of Excise was imposed did brew their own Beer and Ale within their own Precincts, and size it out to their respective Members within their own Precincts only, are not liable to the Payment of any Duty of Excise for the same, either by this or any the fore-mentioned Acts.

Complaints to be determined in the proper Counties.

XXII. Provided also, and be it enacted, That all Differences, Appeals and Complaints, that shall happen and arise between Party and Party, in order to the Payment of the Duty of Excise, shall be heard and determined in the proper County or in the several Ridings and Divisions of Yorkshire and Lincolnshire, where they shall arise, and not elsewhere.

Commissioners or Farmers may take no Fees.

XXIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Farmer, Commissioner, Sub Commissioner or other Officer of Excise, shall directly or indirectly take or receive any Money, Fee or Reward, for or concerning the taking of any Bond, or giving any Receipt or Note in Writing, relating to the Excise, to or from any Person or Persons whatsoever; upon Pain that every such Person so offending shall forfeit every such Offence forfeit the Sum of ten Shillings.

XXIV. An

XXIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Justices of the Peace or any two or more of them, or Chief Magistrates, in the several Counties, Cities, Divisions and Places within England and Wales respectively, shall meet once in every Month in their respective Divisions, or oftner if there shall be Occasion, to hear, determine and to adjudge all Matters and Offences against this or the aforesaid Acts. Who may hear and determine Matters upon this Act.

XXV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That one third Part of all Fines, Penalties and Forfeitures not herein otherwise disposed, shall be to the King's Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, and one other third Part to the Poor of the Parish where the Offence shall be committed, and the other third Part to him that shall inform and sue for the same; (2) and that all Fines, Penalties and Forfeitures, for which no Remedy is ordained for Recovery thereof by this Act, shall be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, in any Court of Record within such County, City or Corporation, where the Offence shall be committed, or by such other Ways and Means, and in such Manner, as by the said former Acts is directed and appointed: How the Penalties upon this Act shall be disposed and recovered.

XXVI. Provided always, That after the said third Day of September, no Appeal in any Matter or Cause of Excise within the immediate Limits of the Chief Office in London nor within the Limits of the present Farm of London, during the Continuance of such Farm, shall be admitted, unless the same be brought within two Months next after the first Judgment, and Notice thereof given or left at the Dwelling-house of the Party or Parties concerned therein; (2) nor shall any Appeal in any Matter or Cause of Excise in any other County, City, Town or Place, be admitted, unless the same be brought within four Months after the first Judgment and Notice given as aforesaid; any Thing in this Act to the contrary notwithstanding. Appeals for Matters in London, and the Limits thereof.

XXVII. CAP. XV.

An Act for encouraging the Manufactures of making Linen Cloth and Tapistry.

'WHEREAS vast Quantities of Linen Cloth, and other Manufactures of Hemp and Flax, and of Tapistry-Hangings, are daily imported into this Kingdom from foreign Parts, to the great Detriment and Impoverishment thereof, the Monies and Quick-stock of this Kingdom being thereby daily greatly exhausted and diminished, and the Poor thereof unimployed, while the Materials for the making of such Hangings are here more plentiful, and better and cheaper than in those Places from whence they are imported; and Flax and Hemp might be had here in great Abundance, and very good, if by setting up the Manufactures of such Commodities as are made thereof, it would be taken off the Hands of such as sow and plant the same:' The Inconvenience by importing foreign Materials of Linen and Tapistry-Hangings. 28 H. 8. c. 4.

II. For the Encouragement therefore of those Manufactures, Be it enacted, and it is hereby enacted, by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority thereof, That from and after the first Day of October next ensuing, it shall and may be lawful for any Person or Persons whatsoever, Native or Foreigner, freely and without paying any Acknowledgment, Fee or other Gratuity for the same, in any Place of England or Wales, Privileged or Unprivileged, Corporate or not Corporate, to set up and exercise the Trade, Occupation or Mystery of breaking, hickling or dressing of Hemp or Flax; as also for making and whitening of Thread; as also of spinning, weaving, making, whitening or bleaching of any Sort of Cloth whatsoever made of Hemp or Flax only: As also the Trade, Occupation or Mystery of making Encouragement of English Manufactures. In the Occupation of dressing and using of Hemp and Flax.

Foreigners may uſe thoſe Trades, and enjoy all Privileges as natural-born Subjects.

III. And all Foreigners that ſhall really and bona fide ſet up and uſe any of the Trades and Manufactures aforeſaid, by the Space of three Years in this Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, ſhall from thenceforth, taking the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy before two Juſtices of the Peace near unto their Dwellings, who are hereby authorized to adminiſter the ſame, enjoy all Privileges whatſoever as the Natural-born Subjects of this Kingdom.

Oath of Allegiance and Supremacy.

IV. And it is hereby enacted and declared, That ſuch Foreigners as ſhall exerciſe any of the Trades aforeſaid by Virtue of this Act, ſhall not at any Time be liable to any other or greater Taxes, Payments or Impoſitions, than ſuch as are or ſhall be paid by his Majeſty's Natural-born Subjects, unleſs in Caſe they ſhall uſe and exerciſe Merchandize into and from Foreign Parts, in which Caſe they ſhall be liable to pay ſuch Cuſtoms as have uſually been paid by Aliens during the Space of five Years next enſuing, and no longer.

None may deſtroy Houſes or ſpoil Nets, &c. for fiſhing in Newfoundland.

II. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Planter or other Perſon or Perſons whatſoever ſhall burn, deſtroy or ſteal any Boat, Caſk, Salt, Nets, or other Utenſils for Fiſhing or making of Oil, or other Goods or Merchandize, left in any Harbour in Newfoundland or Greenland, by Engliſh; or burn, pull down or deſtroy any Houſe built by Engliſh in Newfoundland or Greenland, to live in during the Fiſhing-Seaſon, or Stage built by them in either of the ſaid Places for the ſaving or ordering of of Fiſh, or making of Oil; (2) upon Pain of the Loſs of double the Value of what ſhall be by them ſtolen, burnt or deſtroyed, to be recovered in any of his Majeſty's Courts in Newfoundland or Greenland reſpectively, or in any Court of Record in England, by Bill, Plaint or other Action, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection or Wager in Law ſhall be allowed. The Penalty.

'III. And whereas upon the humble Petition and Complaint of the Merchants and Salters of the City 'of London, it doth appear, That ſome Sorts of Madder very uſeful for Dying cannot be imported ſo pure 'and clean, as by one Act paſſed the laſt Seſſion of this preſent Parliament, (intituled, An Act for the Im- 'portation of Madder pure and unmixed) is directed and appointed;' (2) Be it enacted, and it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Act, and every Clauſe and Thing therein contained, be from henceforth utterly void and repealed to all Intents, Purpoſes and Conſtructions whatſoever. CAP. XVII.

An Act for ſettling the Draining of the Great Level of the Fens, called Bedford-Level.

'WHEREAS certain Moors, Marſhes, Fenny and low ſurrounded Grounds, within the Counties 'of Northampton, Norfolk, Suffolk, Lincoln, Cambridge and Huntington, and the Iſle of Ely, were 'called the Great Level of the Fens; and after ſeveral fruitleſs Undertakings for draining the ſame, were 'upon the Deſires of many Perſons of Worth, and intereſſed in the ſame, declared to be a great and noble 'Work, and of much Concernment to the whole Country, and at their earneſt Deſire undertaken to be 'drained by Francis late Earl of Bedford, according to a Law of Sewers made at Kings-Lynn in the ſixth 'Year of the Reign of the late King Charles of glorious Memory; (2) which ſaid Level is bounded, as 'followeth, (viz.) Eaſtward from the Bridge and Cawſey of Stoake unto Brandon-Bridge upon the Uplands 'of Northold, Method, Feltwell, Hockwold and Wilton in the County of Norfolk; and from Brandon-Bridge 'unto the End of Worlington-Load upon Mildenhall River, upon the Uplands of Brandon, the low Grounds 'of Wainsford, excluding the ſame; the Uplands of Lakingheath, the low Grounds of Earſewell, ex'cluding the ſame; and the Uplands of Mildenhall in the County of Suffolk: Southward from Worlington- 'Load unto Burwell-Block upon the Uplands of Freckingham, Iſlham, Fordham, Soham and Wickin, in the 'County of Cambridge, and excluding the Low Grounds of Burwell, Landward, and other Places lying 'Eaſtward from Burwell-Block aforeſaid, and from thence unto the Mill near Angliſey-Abbey upon the Up'lands of Burwell-Reach, Swaffham-Pryor, Swaffham-Bulbeck and Botſham, in the County of Cambridge; 'and from thence unto the Ferry-place of Clayhith upon the Uplands called Quyhall, the Low Ground 'called Low-Fenn, and the Uplands of Horminſey and Clayhith in the ſaid County, excluding the Low 'Grounds called Low-Fenn, and Offenne; and from the ſaid Ferry-place unto Over-Load upon the Up'lands of Water-Beach, Cottenham, Rampton, Wiſelingham and Over, in the ſaid County of Cambridge, 'and upon the Low Grounds of Swacy in the ſaid County, excluding the ſame: Weſtward from Erith 'unto the Dam lately made upon the River Neane near Strandground, upon the Uplands of Somerſham and 'the Soake thereof, Warbois, Wiſlow, Berry, Ramſey, Upwood, Ravely, Wood-Walton, Sawtrey, Conning'ton, Glatten and Holme Caldecot, Denton, Stilton, Yaxley, Faſſet and Standground in the County of Hun'tington, excluding the Low Grounds lying on the North-ſide of the River of Owſe above Erith; and from 'the ſaid Dam unto Peterborough-Bridge upon the ſaid River of Neane; and from thence unto the Ferry'place near Waldran-Hall upon the Uplands of Peterborough and the Soak thereof in the County of Nor'thampton: And Northward from the ſaid Ferry-place near Waldron-Hall unto Crowland-Bridge upon the 'River of Welland; and from thence to Dowſedale upon the Bank of Great Porſand; and from thence un'to Guyhurne upon the South-Eaſt Bank; and from thence unto Tilneburne upon the Bank of the Fenne'Ground called Walderſea; and from thence unto Elme Leame at Grangers Houſe upon the Bank of the 'Fenne-Ground called Coldham; and from thence unto the River of Neane near Thurlings in Upwell upon 'the Bank of Needham, called Biſhops Dike; and from thence unto Well-Creek, at the North-Weſt Corner 'of Weſſingham-Fenne upon the Bank of the Grounds in Upwell and Outwell called Playfield and Churchfield, 'excluding the aforeſaid Fenns and Grounds called Walderſea, Coldham, Needham, Playfield and Churchfield; 'and from thence unto Salters-Load upon the New-Podyke Bank; and from thence unto the Mouth of the 'River Wiſſey upon the River Owſe, and from thence unto Helgey-Bridge upon the River Wiſſey, and from 'thence unto the Uplands at the End of the Bank of the Grounds late of Edmond Skipwith Eſquire de'ceaſed, upon the ſaid Bank, and from thence unto Stoake-Bridge upon the Uplands of Roxham, Deerham, 'Weereham, Wretton and Stoake, in the ſaid County of Norfolk; except the Imbanked Grounds late of 'Edmond Skipwith Eſquire, lying on the North-ſide of the River Owſe: (3) And whereas the ſaid Fran'cis late Earl of Bedford was to have for his Recompence for effecting that difficult Work, only ninety'five thouſand Acres of the ſaid Grounds, with convenient Highways and Paſſages to the ſame; and the 'new River, Cutts and Drains to be made by the ſaid Earl and his Aſſigns, and the Banks of the ſame, 'and the Forelands in the inſide of the ſaid Banks not to exceed ſixty Foot in Breadth; which was a Work 'of ſo great and publick Concernment, that his ſaid late Majeſty gave great Encouragement to the ſaid 'Francis late Earl of Bedford and others whom he had taken in to be Adventurers and Participants with 'him therein, upon the Covenants, Conditions and Agreements contained and ſpecified in and by a certain 'Indenture of fourteen Parts, bearing Date the ſeven and twentieth Day of February in the ſeventh Year 'of the Reign of his ſaid late Majeſty, and his Royal Aſſurance to further it by his Concurrence to an Act 'of Parliament for eſtabliſhing thereof, and did by Letters Patents under the Great Seal of England incor'porate the ſaid late Earl, his Adventurers and Participants, to have Succeſſion for ever; (4) and in order 'to the effecting thereof, the ſaid late Earl and his Adventurers and Participants beſtowed great Sums of The great Level of the Fens, how bounded.

'Money

'Money for perfecting the ſame; and after his Death and ſome Interruptions, William now Earl of Bedford, Son and Heir to the ſaid Earl Francis, with divers of his Adventurers and Participants, by Colour of a pretended Act of Parliament of the nine and twentieth Day of May in the Year of our Lord one thouſand ſix hundred forty and nine, proceeded in the compleating and finiſhing the ſaid Works; and the Commiſſioners appointed by that pretended Act did adjudge the ſame drained; but the ſame cannot be preſerved without a perpetual conſtant Care, great Charge and orderly Government, which being repreſented to the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty that now is, He hath been graciouſly pleaſed to declare more than an ordinary Willingneſs to promote and countenance a Work of ſo publick Concernment, and many Ways advantageous to this his Kingdom: To the End therefore that a Work of this Nature may receive a publick Support and Encouragement;'

The Earl of Bedford and Adventurers made a Corporation for the Fens.

II. Be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, with the Advice and Aſſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That the ſaid William Earl of Bedford, Son and Heir of the ſaid Francis Earl of Bedford, and the Adventurers and Participants of the ſaid Earl Francis and Earl William, or either of them, their Heirs and Aſſigns, in ſuch Manner as is herein contained, ſhall be a Body Politick and Corporate in Deed and Name, and have Succeſſion for ever, by the Name of the Governor, Bailiffs and Commonalty of the Company of Conſervators of the Great Level of the Fens; (2) which Corporation ſhall conſiſt of one Governor, ſix Bailiffs, twenty Conſervators, and Commonalty, and ſhall have and uſe a Common Seal to be appointed by themſelves, and aſſemble and meet together when, where, and as oft as they pleaſe, and appoint a Regiſter, Receiver, one or more Serjeants at Mace and other Officers, and allow them Salaries, and remove them, and make new at their Pleaſure: (3) And the ſaid William Earl of Bedford is to be the firſt Governor; Richard Lord Gorges, Sir Richard Onſlow Knt. Sir William Terringham Knight of the Bath, Samuel Sandys, Thomas Chichely and Samuel Fortrey, Eſquires, the ſix firſt Bailiffs; Sir Gilbert Gerhard, junior, Knt. William Denton, William Crane, Edmond-Berry Godfrey, Arthur Evelin, Samuel Smith, Roger Jenings, Robert Caſtle, Robert Hampſon, Joſeph Ayloffe, Eſquires, Thomas Lord Culpepper, Sir John Hewett Baronet, Arthur Onſlow, Robert Philips, Anthony St. John, Eſquires, Sir Oliver St. John, Sir Charles Harbord, Knights, Francis Hoblyn, Samuel Sandys, junior, and Robert Terringham, Eſquires, the firſt Conſervators: (4) And the ſaid Governor, Bailiffs and Conſervators to continue until Wedneſday in Whitſun Week in the Year of our Lord one thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and four, and from thenceforth until new Elections by the ſaid Corporation, or the major Part which ſhall be then preſent; and ſhall be capable to ſue and be ſued, and without Licence of Mortmain to purchaſe Manors, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, not exceeding two hundred Pounds per Annum, and Goods and Chattels, and to diſpoſe thereof in the Name and to the Uſe of the ſaid Corporation; (5) and the ſaid Governor, Bailiffs and Conſervators, or any five or more of them, whereof the ſaid Governor or Bailiffs, or any of them, to be two, ſhall and may lay Taxes from Time to Time upon all the ſaid ninety-five thouſand Acres only, for Support, Maintenance and Preſervation of the ſaid Great Level, and levy the ſame, with Penalties for Nonpayment, not exceeding a third Part of the Tax, and all other Things do in Order to the Support, Maintenance and Preſervation of the ſaid Great Level, and Works made and to be made.

The Earl of Bedford Governor.

The Bailiffs.

Their Power and Authority.

'III. And whereas by the ſaid Law of Sewers, twelve thouſand Acres, Parcel of the ſaid ninety-five thouſand Acres, was deſigned and intended to his ſaid late Majeſty, and were ſet forth and allotted by Bounds in Severalty, and his ſaid late Majeſty was in Poſſeſſion thereof, and granted, aſſigned, allotted and ſet out by Bounds two thouſand Acres, Parcel of the ſaid twelve thouſand Acres, by Letters Patents unto Jerome Earl of Portland, his Heirs and Aſſigns; of which ſaid two thouſand Acres, the ſaid Earl of Portland hath ſold away about one thouſand five hundred Acres in ſeveral Parcels to ſeveral Perſons, their Heirs and Aſſigns, for valuable Conſiderations, and the Reſidue thereof being about five hundred Acres, hath granted and conveyed unto his Brother Benjamin Weſton, Eſq; and his Heirs, upon ſeveral Truſts agreed upon between the ſaid Earl of Portland and Benjamin Weſton by writing for that Purpoſe:'

Earl of Portland 2000 Acres.

IV. Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid two thouſand Acres, or ſuch other Lands of equal Value as ſhall be ſet forth in Exchange of the ſame, in Caſe the aforementioned two thouſand Acres, or any Part thereof, ſhall hereafter be adjudged to have been unduly ſet out, ſhall be and hereby are veſted, ſettled and eſtabliſhed in the ſaid ſeveral and reſpective Perſons, to whom the ſaid Earl of Portland hath ſo conveyed or mentioned to convey the ſame, their Heirs and Aſſigns reſpectively, to each Perſon, his Heirs and Aſſigns, his and their ſeveral and reſpective Share and Shares that was ſo reſpectively to each of them conveyed, or mentioned to be conveyed, by the ſaid Earl of Portland, to be held and enjoyed by them and each of them, his Heirs and Aſſigns, his and their own Share and Part only in Severalty, according to the Intent of the ſaid Conveyances thereof to them reſpectively made by the ſaid Earl of Portland, upon the ſame Truſts nevertheleſs for and concerning the ſaid five hundred Acres granted or mentioned to be granted to the ſaid Benjamin Weſton, which the ſaid Earl of Portland and Benjamin Weſton had declared and agreed upon between them as aforeſaid; which ſaid two thouſand Acres ſhall be holden of the King's Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, of the Manor of Eaſt-Greenwich by Fealty only in free and common Socage and not otherwiſe, and ſubject nevertheleſs with the Reſidue of the ninety-five thouſand Acres in equal Proportion to all Taxes and Charges neceſſary and conducing to the Preſervation of the ſaid Great Level from drowning.

The 83000 Acres ſettled and veſted in the Governor, &c.

In Truſt.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the eighty-three thouſand Acres Remainder of the ſaid ninety-five thouſand Acres, with the ſaid Ways, Paſſages, new Rivers, Cuts, Dreins, Banks and Forelands, over and above the ſaid ten thouſand Acres, Reſidue of the ſaid twelve thouſand Acres which were allotted in Severalty, and of which his ſaid late Majeſty was in Poſſeſſion, as aforeſaid, are hereby veſted and ſettled in the ſaid Governor, Bailiffs and Commonalty of the Company of Conſervators of the ſaid Great Level of the Fens, and their Succeſſors: In Truſt nevertheleſs for the ſaid William Earl of Bedford, and the Adventurers and Participants of the ſaid Earl Francis and Earl William, or either of them, them, their Heirs and Aſſigns, in ſuch Manner and Wiſe as is herein after more particularly and eſpecially limited and provided; and according to ſuch Parts and Proportions as they reſpectively now hold and enjoy, or by Virtue and Proviſion of this Act ought to hold and enjoy, ſubject and liable likewiſe to the Payment of all Taxes and Charges as aforeſaid, to be holden of the King's Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, of the Manor of Eaſt-Greenwich, by Fealty only in free and common Socage, and not otherwiſe: (2) And the ſaid ten thouſand Acres, Reſidue of the ſaid twelve thouſand Acres (whereof his ſaid late Majeſty was in Poſſeſſion as aforeſaid) are hereby veſted and ſettled in his Majeſty that now is, and his Aſſigns, ſubject and liable with the Reſidue of the ſaid ninety-five thouſand Acres to the ſame Taxes and Charges before ſpecified: '(3) And becauſe the ſaid Great Level of the Fens extends into the ſaid ſix Counties be-'ſides the Iſle of Ely, and foraſmuch as Commiſſioners of Sewers cannot legally proceed in Execution of 'their Commiſſion, but by a ſeveral Jury of every County to enquire of the Matters within their Com-'miſſion in that County, which hath heretofore inforced the ſaid Earl, his Participants and Adventurers, 'Commiſſioners and Counties, to very great Trouble, Loſs and Expence both of Money and Time: (4) 'For avoiding which Inconveniencies,' It is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Governor, Bailiffs and Conſervators of the ſaid Corporation for the Time being, or any five or more of them, whereof the ſaid Governor or Bailiffs for the Time being, or their Succeſſors, or any of them, to be two, for Maintenance and Preſervation of the ſaid Great Level by convenient Outfals to the Sea, ſhall for ever hereafter be and are hereby made and conſtituted Commiſſioners of Sewers, for and of the ſaid Great Level of the Fens: (5) And the ſaid Governor, Bailiffs and Conſervators, or any five or more of them, whereof the ſaid Governor or Bailiffs, and their Succeſſors, or any of them, to be two, are hereby enabled and impowered from henceforth to uſe and exerciſe the Power and Authority of Commiſſioners of Sewers within the ſaid Great Level of the Fens, and of the Works made or to be made without the ſaid Great Level for conveying of the Waters of the ſaid Great Level by convenient Outfals to the Sea, touching all Matters and Things whatſoever happening to be executed or done within the ſaid Great Level, or the ſaid Works without the ſaid Great Level, enquirable, puniſhable, or to be done, by Commiſſioners of Sewers, and therein to act and proceed by one or more Juries of good and lawful Men, inhabiting within any Part or Place within the Boundaries of the ſaid Great Level of the Fens, though in ſeveral Counties, as if the ſaid Great Level of the Fens lay within one of the ſaid Counties only; (6) and ſhall have Power to imploy the ſaid Serjeants, or any of them for the Time being, by Warrant or Precept from the ſaid Governor, Bailiffs and Conſervators, and their Succeſſors, or any five or more of them, whereof the ſaid Governor or Bailiffs, or any of them, to be two, under the Common Seal of the ſaid Corporation to ſummon and return Juries within the Boundaries of any Part of the ſaid Great Level, and execute all Precepts and Proceſs from them, from Time to Time, and all other Things do, as fully as any Sheriff within his reſpective County may or can do by Warrant or Precept from Commiſſioners of Sewers; (7) which Juries are to appear at the Times and Places ſet or appointed for them to appear before the ſaid Governor, Bailiffs and Conſervators, and their Succeſſors, or any five or more of them, whereof the ſaid Governor and Bailiffs, and their Succeſſors, or any of them, to be two; and are hereby impowered to enquire of, preſent and try all Matters within the ſaid Great Level, and of and concerning the ſaid Works made or to be made without the ſaid Great Level, for conveying of the Waters of the ſaid Great Level by convenient Outfals to the Sea, within the Power of Commiſſioners of Sewers, as if the ſame lay within any one of the ſaid Counties, or as if the ſaid Great Level were one diſtinct County of itſelf: (8) And the ſaid Governor, Bailiffs and Conſervators, or any five or more of them, whereof the ſaid Governor or Bailiffs, or any of them to be two, ſhall have further Power, as well for the Maintenance of the ſaid Great Level, as for laying and levying of Taxes upon the ſaid ninety-five thouſand Acres, to uſe and exerciſe within the ſaid Great Level ſuch and the like Laws and Cuſtoms, and conſtitute and appoint ſuch and the like Officers from Time to Time, as are or lawfully may be uſed in Rumny-Marſh in the County of Kent; they who exerciſe the ſaid Power of Commiſſioners of Sewers, firſt taking the Oath which Commiſſioners of Sewers are by the Law to take; the which Oath the ſaid Governor and Bailiffs, or any of them, are hereby impowered to adminiſter from Time to Time, without any further Commiſſion.

The 10000 Acres belonging to the King.

The Authority of the ſaid Corporation as Commiſſioners of Sewers.

By 20 Car. 2. c. 8. §. 2. the Aſſeſſment is to be by a gradual Acre-Tax.

'VI. And becauſe the Metes and Boundaries of the ſaid Grounds within the ſaid Great Level, as to the 'Counties and Pariſhes, are very uncertain and hard to be diſtinguiſhed,' (2) Be it therefore further enacted, That every Writ, Bill, Plaint, Count, Declaration, Information, Preſentment and Indictment, of, for or concerning the ſaid Grounds within the ſaid Great Level of the Fens, or any Part or Parcel of the ſame, or any Treſpaſs, Offence or Wrong done, acted or committed within the ſaid Great Level, and Proceedings thereupon, ſhall be good and ſufficient in Law, though the County, Pariſh, Town or Place, or any of them, in ſuch Writ, Bill, Plaint, Count, Declaration, Information, Preſentment or Indictment, be not rightly named, ſo as there be ſuch other Certainty or Deſcription of the Place whereby the ſame is or may be commonly known.

The Metes and Boundaries of Grounds.

VII. And be it further enacted, That no other Commiſſioners of Sewers ſhall intermeddle within the ſaid Great Level, or with any the Works made or to be made for Support, Maintenance or Preſervation of the ſaid Great Level, within or without the ſaid Great Level as aforeſaid, otherwiſe than hereafter in this Act ſhall be provided.

No other Commiſſioners of Sewers to meddle in the ſaid Level.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That all Conveyances by Indenture of the ſaid ninety-five thouſand Acres, or any Part thereof, entred with the ſaid Regiſter, in a Book to be kept for that Purpoſe, ſhall be of equal Force to convey the Freehold and Inheritance of the ſaid ninety-five thouſand Acres, or any Part thereof, as if the ſame Conveyances by Indenture were for valuable Conſiderations of Money, inrolled within ſix Months in one of the King's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter: (2) And no Leaſe, Grant or Conveyance of or Charge out of or upon the ſaid ninety-five thouſand Acres, or any Part thereof, except Leaſes for ſeven Years or under in Poſſeſſion, ſhall be of Force but from the Time it ſhall be entred with the ſaid Regiſter as aforeſaid; (3) the Entry whereof being indorſed by the ſaid Regiſter upon ſuch Leaſe, Conveyances by Indenture entred with the Regiſter.

Grant,

Grant, Conveyance or Charge, shall be as good and effectual in the Law, as if the Original Book of Entries were produced at any Trial at Law or otherwise.

IX. And be it further enacted, That the said Governor, Bailiffs and Commonalty, shall execute Estates according to the aforesaid Trust under their Common Seal, the Taxes and Penalties then in Arrear being first paid, which for Non-payment are by Virtue of this Act to be levied by Sale of the Lands.

Levying of Taxes and Penalties.

X. And be it further enacted, That for the Levying such Taxes and Penalties as are now in Arrear, or any Time since the thirtieth Day of September in the Year of our Lord one thousand six hundred fifty and eight (other than such as are hereby otherwise directed to be levied) or which shall be set and imposed upon the said ninety-five thousand Acres by Virtue of this Act, and shall be in Arrear upon the respective Parts and Proportions of the said ninety-five thousand Acres; (2) the said Governor, Bailiffs and Conservators of the said Corporation, and their Successors for the Time being, or any five or more of them, whereof the said Governor and Bailiffs for the Time being, and their Successors, or any of them, to be two, for levying such Taxes and Penalties which now are or shall be so in Arrear, upon the respective Parts and Proportions of the said ninety-five thousand Acres, shall on Wednesday and Thursday in Whitsun-week, or either of them, every Year at the Shire-house in Ely aforesaid, in the said Isle of Ely, have Power only to sell so much of such Parts and Proportions of the said ninety-five thousand Acres, upon which any Tax shall be in Arrear, or Penalties, in such Proportion as the said Governor, Bailiffs and Conservators of the said Corporation, or their Successors, or any five or more of them, whereof the said Governor and Bailiffs, or any of them, to be two, shall judge to be sufficient to raise such Taxes and Penalties, by any Writing under the Seal of the said Corporation; and the Person or Persons to whom such Sales shall be made shall be a lawful Purchaser and Assignee of so much as shall be sold, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

Proviso for Tenants at Will or by Leases.

XI. Provided, That by any Colour of any Sale for Nonpayment of Taxes, any Tenant or Tenants at Will, or by Lease indented, upon improved Rent of any Part of the said ninety-five thousand Acres, shall not be removed from his or their Possession, until he or they shall have taken his or their Crop from off the Premisses so sold, paying reasonable Rent proportionable to the Time that such Possession shall from and after such Sales be continued; and such Tenant or Tenants as shall hold any Part of the said ninety-five thousand Acres by Lease as aforesaid, shall and may, if he or they shall think meet, continue out their respective Terms, paying their Rent to such Purchaser in Proportion to the Quantity of Acres so purchased; any Thing herein contained to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding: (2) Provided, That the said Corporation, nor their Successors, shall not sell any Part or Proportion of the said ninety-five thousand Acres for any Tax or Penalty in Arrear, which Tax or Penalties shall not be in Arrear by the Space of four Months next before the Sale, nor any more Lands than only for the Raising of such Taxes and Penalties.

Publick Notice to be given of Lands charged with Arrears of Taxes or Penalties.

XII. Provided also, That the said Corporation shall give publick Notice from Time to Time of the Parts and Proportions of the said ninety-five thousand Acres for which any Tax or Penalties is or shall be in Arrear, by affixing openly at the Shire-house or Market-place in Ely aforesaid, a Schedule in Parchment under the Seal of the said Corporation, containing such Parts and Proportions of the said ninety-five thousand Acres for which any Tax or Penalty is or shall be in Arrear, with the Name and Names of the respective Owner or Owners, entred upon the Tax-Roll with the said Corporation, of the said Parts and Proportions of the said ninety-five thousand Acres so in Arrear.

New Works may be made.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That the said Corporation shall and may from Time to Time, erect any new Works within the said Great Level, or without the said Great Level, for conveying the Waters of the said Great Level by convenient Outfals to the Sea; so always, that if they cut any several Grounds, they give full Recompence and Satisfaction for the same, in such Manner as shall be hereafter in this Act provided:' (2) And if any Person or Persons shall cut, throw down or destroy any of the said Works, made or to be made as aforesaid, the Parties offending shall answer treble Damages to the said Corporation, and Costs of Suit, to be recovered in an Action of Trespass, to be brought by the said Corporation, in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record: (3) And if such cutting, throwing down or destroying, shall be maliciously done, the same shall be punished as for the Cutting the Powdyke in Marsh-Land.

The Penalty for throwing down any Works.

The Oath to be taken by the Governor, Bailiffs and Conservators.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That the said William Earl of Bedford, nominated to be Governor, and every other from Time to Time into that Office chosen, shall (before he take upon him or them the Exercise of that Office) take an Oath, That he will well and truly execute that Office in all Things; the which Oath shall and may be administred by the said Bailiffs, or any one of them: (2) And the said Bailiffs, Conservators, Register, Receiver or other Officer nominated as aforesaid, and every other from Time to Time into any of the respective Offices to be chosen, shall (before he or they take upon him or them the Exercise of the said respective Offices) take the like Oath for the true executing their respective Offices; the which Oath shall be administred by the said Governor, Bailiffs and Conservators, or any two or more of them, without any Commission or further Warrant.

The Governor, Bailiffs and Conservators to be elected yearly.

XV. And for the Continuance of the said Corporation in Succession for ever, Be it further enacted, That the said Governor, Bailiffs, Conservators and Commonalty, upon Wednesday in Whitsun-week yearly, shall at a publick Meeting to be holden for the said Corporation, by the greater Number then present (whereof the said Governor, or one of the Bailiffs, to be one) elect a new Governor, Bailiffs and Conservators respectively: (2) Provided, That none be capable to be or continue Governor or Bailiffs, that hath not four hundred Acres or more of the said ninety-five thousand Acres, nor to be a Conservator that hath not two hundred Acres or more of the said ninety-five thousand Acres, nor any of the Commonalty to have a Voice in Elections that hath not one hundred Acres or more of the said ninety-five thousand Acres: (3) And that the said Governor, Bailiffs and Conservators, or any of them, shall and may be removed by the said Governor, Bailiffs and Conservators, and Commonalty, or the greater Number of them present at their publick Meetings, whereof the said Governor, or one of the Bailiffs, to be one, and new chosen in the Place of him or them ſo dead or removed: (4) And the ſaid Governor, Bailiffs and Commonalty alſo ſhall have further Power to have, demand and receive an Account from all and every the Officers, Agents and Servants, their Executors and Adminiſtrators, heretofore imployed, or hereafter to be imployed, for the Receiving and Paying of Money, for or in relation to the carrying on of the Works of the Dreining of the ſaid Great Level, and ſhall and may ſue for and recover the ſame; (5) and that all Arrears of Rent already incurred upon or out of any Part of the ſaid ninety-five thouſand Acres upon any Contract or Leaſe of the ſaid Premiſſes, or any Part or Parcel thereof, ſhall be received and recovered, as if the ſaid pretended Act had been a good and effectual Act: (6) and if any Suit be commenced againſt the ſaid Corporation, or any Perſon, for any Matter or Thing done in Purſuance of this Act; then he or they ſhall or may plead the General Iſſue, and give the ſpecial Matter in Evidence upon any Trial to be had touching the ſame, which ſhall be as good and effectual in Law, as if the ſame had been ſpecially pleaded, and the Jury upon the Trial to give a Verdict accordingly.

Accounts to be made by all Officers and Agents imployed.

In Suits againſt any imployed by this Act, the Defendant may plead the General Iſſue.

XVI. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That as touching and concerning ſuch Part and Parcel of the ſaid eighty-three thouſand Acres, whereof any Perſon or Perſons attainted, or that ſhall be attainted, was or were in Poſſeſſion at any Time ſince the nine and twentieth Day of May in the Year of our Lord one thouſand ſix hundred forty and nine, under pretended Sales thereof reſpectively made by Colour of the ſaid pretended Act, or under any other Title or pretended Title whatſoever; the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, His Heirs, Succeſſors and Aſſigns, ſhall have the ſame and like Benefit, Advantage and Intereſt, in all and every the ſaid Parts and Parcels of the ſaid eighty-three thouſand Acres, and no other than as the ſaid Perſons ſo attainted, or which ſhall be attainted, could or ought to have by Virtue of this Act, in Caſe they had not been been ſo attainted, or ſhall not be attainted.

Lands of Perſons attainted, and Titles under them veſted in the King.

' (7) And whereas the Shares, Lots, Parts and Proportions of and in the ſaid ninety-five thouſand Acres, ' which in Purſuance of the ſaid Indenture of fourteen Parts, and by Virtue or Intention of the ſaid Act ' and Law of Sewers made at Lyn, do belong and appertain to the ſaid Samuel Sandys the Elder, or his ' Truſtees, Sir William Terringham, Sir Richard Onſlow, and other the Aſſignees and Truſtees of Henry ' late Earl of Arundel and Surrey deceaſed, Arthur Earl of Angleſey, Thomas Lord Culpepper, Robert Phillips, ' Robert Scawen, and to divers other Perſons the Participants of the ſaid Earl Francis, and Parties to the ' ſaid Indenture, or their reſpective Heirs, Executors, Adminiſtrators or Aſſigns, are now poſſeſſed and ' enjoyed by divers Perſons, who took, contracted for, or accepted of, or by ſuch who claim and derive ' their Intereſt and Title from and under ſuch Perſons as did take, contract for, or accept of pretended ' Eſtates or Conveyances of the ſame, made or pretended to be made by certain Perſons mentioned in and ' by the ſaid pretended Act of the nine and twentieth Day of May one thouſand ſix hundred forty-nine, ' to have Authority to ſell the Shares, Lots, Parts and Proportions of ſuch of the Adventurers and Par- ' ticipants of the ſaid Earl Francis, and of their reſpective Heirs and Aſſigns, as ſhould refuſe or make De- ' fault of Payment of ſuch Taxes as ſhould by Colour and in Purſuance of the ſaid pretended Act be ' impoſed upon them reſpectively, in reſpect of their Shares and Lots, in or out of the ſaid ninety-five ' thouſand Acres;'

XVII. Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Governor, Bailiffs and Commonalty of the ſaid Company of Conſervators of the ſaid Great Level of the Fens, and their Succeſſors, ſhall actually ſtand ſeiſed and poſſeſſed of all and every the Shares, Lots, Parts and Proportions laſt mentioned, in Truſt nevertheleſs to and for the Uſe and Behoof of the ſaid Samuel Sandys the Elder, or his Truſtees in Truſt for him, Sir William Terringham, Sir Richard Onſlow and others of the ſaid Aſſignees and Truſtees of Henry late Earl of Arundel and Surrey deceaſed, Arthur Earl of Angleſey, Thomas Lord Culpepper, Robert Philips, Robert Scawen, and of their reſpective Heirs and Aſſigns, and to and for the reſpective Uſes and Behoofs of the ſaid other Perſons, the Participants of the ſaid Earl Francis, and Parties to the ſaid Indenture of fourteen Parts, and of their reſpective Heirs and Aſſigns, now out of Poſſeſſion of their reſpective Shares, Lots, Parts and Proportions of the ſaid ninety-five thouſand Acres, as heretofore in or about the Month of October in the thirteenth Year of the Reign of the late King Charles of ever Bleſſed Memory, were reſpectively allotted, ſevered, ſet forth or divided for or as the reſpective Shares, Lots, Parts and Proportions of ſuch of the Adventurers, the Participants of the ſaid Earl Francis, and the Parties to the ſaid Indenture of fourteen Parts, their reſpective Heirs, Executors, Adminiſtrators and Aſſigns, from and under whom the ſaid Samuel Sandys the Elder or his Truſtees, Sir William Terringham, Sir Richard Onſlow and others the Aſſignees and Truſtees of Henry late Earl of Arundel and Surrey deceaſed, Arthur Earl of Angleſey, Thomas Lord Culpepper, Robert Philips, Robert Scawen, and the ſaid other Perſons the Participants of the ſaid Earl Francis, and their reſpective Heirs, Executors, Adminiſtrators and Aſſigns, now out of Poſſeſſion of their reſpective Shares, Lots, Parts and Proportions, do reſpectively claim and derive their ſaid Shares, Lots, Parts, Proportions; and the ſaid Governor, Bailiffs and Commonalty of the Company of Conſervators are hereby authorized and required to execute reſpective Eſtates of the ſaid Shares, Lots, Parts and Proportions accordingly, ſubject and liable nevertheleſs with the Reſidue of the ſaid ninety five thouſand Acres, in equal Proportion to all Taxes and Charges to be laid and impoſed by Virtue of this Act for Preſervation of the ſaid Great Level from Drowning: ' (8) And whereas the Per- ' ſons now in Poſſeſſion of the ſaid laſt mentioned Shares, Lots, Parts and Proportions of the ſaid ninety- ' five thouſand Acres, whereof pretended Eſtates and Conveyances were taken, contracted for or accepted ' of as aforeſaid, do pretend that they or thoſe under whom they do reſpectively claim and derive their ' Right, Title or Pretenſions to the ſaid Shares, Lots, Parts and Proportions reſpectively, have laid out ' and diſburſed for Taxes for and towards the Maintenance, Preſervation and Repair of the Works of the ' ſaid Great Level heretofore erected by the ſaid Earl Francis and his Participants, and for and towards their ' E ection of new and neceſſary Works for the better and more effectual Dreining of the ſaid Great Level, ' and for Building upon the ſaid Shares, Lots, Parts and Proportions, more Monies than the clear Rents, ' Iſſues and Profits of the ſaid Shares, Lots, Parts and Proportions have amounted to ſince the ſaid reſpec- ' tive pretended Eſtates and Conveyances were firſt taken, contracted for or accepted as aforeſaid:'

The Chief Justice of the King's Bench and others made a Judicature to hear and determine Differences.

XVIII. Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, and it is hereby enacted, That the Chief Justice of the Court of King's Bench, the Chief Justice of the Court of Common Pleas, the Chief Baron of the Court of Exchequer, and the Justices of the said Court of Common Pleas for the Time being, or any two or more of them, are hereby constituted, appointed and erected a Judicature or Commissioners to hear, order, judge, decree and determine upon Bills and Answers to be exhibited, or otherwise as they shall think fit, between the said Persons who are now in the Possession of the said respective Shares, Lots, Parts and Proportions, and the respective Heirs and Assigns of the said Persons now in Possession as aforesaid; and the said Sir Richard Onslow and other the said Assignees and Trustees of the said Henry late Earl of Arundel and Surrey deceased, Arthur Earl of Anglesey, Thomas Lord Culpepper, the said Samuel Sandys the Elder, or his Trustees, Sir William Terringham, Robert Philips, Robert Scawen, and the said other Persons Participants of the said Earl Francis, and their respective Heirs and Assigns, who are now out of the Possession of the said Shares, Lots, Parts and Proportions respectively, and to whom respective Estates are by Virtue of this Act to be executed of the same as aforesaid: (2) And the said Judicature or Commissioners, or any two or more of them, are hereby authorized out of the said Shares, Lots, Parts and Proportions, to order, adjudge, decree and determine to either of the said Parties respectively, such Recompence and Allowance as they the said Judicature or Commissioners, or any two or more of them shall see Cause: (3) And for the better enabling the said Judicature or Commissioners to proceed to the Hearing, Ordering, Adjudging, Decreeing and Determining, and for putting in due and speedy Execution such Order, Judgment, Decree and Determination, as they or any two or more of them shall make between the said Parties;

The Power and Authority of the said Judicature.

XIX. It is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That they the said Judicature or Commissioners, or any two or more of them, shall have such and the like Power and Authority as the High Court of Chancery hath in Cases before the said Court depending, and for putting in Execution the Decrees of the said Court: (2) And to the End that the said Judicature may be the better enabled to judge of the Rights and Pretensions of either Party;

Directions for their Decrees and Proceedings.

XX. Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in every Decree or Determination which they shall make by Virtue and in Pursuance of this Act, they shall have regard to the Sum and Sums of Money actually disbursed and expended by either Party in the Works of Dreining the said Great Level, and in the Preservation and Reparation of the same; and also to the respective Times of such Disbursements and Expence, Defalking thereout such Sum and Sums of Money as have been received by either Party, their Tenants or Assigns, for the Rents, Issues and Profits of the same, and abating out of the Interest of the Money disbursed by either Party so much as the Interest of the Money received by such Party for the Rents, Issues and Profits of the same, doth amount unto. (2) And to the Intent that the Persons who by the true Intent and Meaning of this Act are to be put into Possession of any Part of the said eighty-three thousand Acres, may not by undue Delays or by any other Means or Pretensions be kept out of the Possession of the same;

XXI. Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That at any Time or Times after the Expiration of six Months after the Passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Samuel Sandys the Elder, and his Trustees for him, Sir Richard Onslow and others the Assignees and Trustees of Henry late Ear of Arundel and Surrey deceased, Arthur Earl of Anglesey, Thomas Lord Culpepper, Sir William Terringham, Robert Philips and Robert Scawen, their and every of their respective Heirs and Assigns, and to and for the Participants of the said Earl Francis, Parties to the said Indenture of fourteen Parts, their and every of their respective Heirs and Assigns, whose Lands, Shares, Lots, Parts and Proportions of and in the said ninety-five thousand Acres, were sold or pretended to be sold for Non-payment of Taxes by Virtue of the said pretended Act of the nine and twentieth Day of May in the Year of our Lord one thousand six hundred forty and nine, to bring their respective Action or Actions of Trespass, or Trespass and Ejectment, in his Majesty's Court of King's Bench or Court of Common Pleas at Westminster, against any Person or Persons whatsoever, possessing, with-holding or occupying the same, although the said Governor, Bailiffs and Conservators, or so many and such of them as are thereunto authorized by this present Act, have not or shall not execute Estates pursuant to this present Act, to such Person or Persons hereby enabled to bring such Action or Actions; and such Person or Persons shall recover such Lands, Shares, Lots, Parts and Proportions of the said ninety-five thousand Acres, as they respectively shall make and derive Title and Claim unto, as Participants of the said Francis Earl of Bedford, Parties to the said Indenture of fourteen Parts, or as the respective Heirs or Assigns of the said respective Participants, Parties to the said Indenture of fourteen Parts, as if the said Governor, Bailiffs and Conservators had duly executed respective Estates of such respective Lands, Shares, Lots, Parts and Proportions of the said ninety-five thousand Acres, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act: And such Person or Persons, his and their respective Heirs and Assigns, shall have and hold the same Lands, Shares, Lots, Parts and Proportions, as fully and effectually as if the said Governor, Bailiffs and Conservators had executed respective Estates thereof, subject nevertheless to such Decree as the said Judicature or Commissioners before nominated and appointed shall make touching or concerning the Premisses, and also subject to the Payment of all Taxes to be laid and imposed by Virtue of this Act, and no other. ' (2) And whereas there are several Sums of Money ' amounting to four thousand Pounds or thereabouts, in arrear for Taxes laid and imposed since the nine ' and twentieth Day of September in the Year of our Lord one thousand six hundred fifty and eight, upon ' several Parts of the said ninety-five thousand Acres, subjected by this Act to the Judicature aforesaid, and ' for Penalties incurred for Non-payment of the same, by Virtue or Colour of some Act or Authority or ' pretended Act or Authority;'

4000l. in arrear for Taxes, upon whom to be laid.

XXII. Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Commissioners or Judicatory, or any two of them aforesaid, shall have Power and Authority, and are hereby required, in such Adjudication as they shall make touching the Lands subjected to their Judicature as aforesaid, to direct, order and decree, upon what Persons or Lands the said Sums of Money so in arrear for Taxes and Penalties as aforesaid, shall be charged, and the said Taxes and Penalties shall be accordingly levied upon such Persons or Lands, and in such Manner, and by such Ways and Means, as shall be directed, ordered and decreed by the Judicature aforesaid, or any two of them, and as if such Direction, Order and Decree had been particularly hereby enacted.

Complaints by particular Persons and Parishes.

'XXIII. And whereas particular Persons and Parishes do conceive and alledge, That the Dreining of one 'Place hath drowned and made worse the Lands in other Places: (2) And whereas divers Persons likewise 'do alledge and complain, That the said ninety-five thousand Acres in many Places are not indifferently 'set out or allotted according to the Law made at Lyn in the sixth Year of the late King Charles, nor ac-'cording to Agreement made with the Country; but in many Places greater Quantities have been taken 'from the Owners, Commoners and Townships than ought to have been; and that some Lands have 'been taken as belonging to one Parish and County, which in Truth did belong to another; and in many 'Places the Allotments have been taken very inconvenient for the Townships, which ought not to have 'been by the said Agreement: And whereas the Dreining aforesaid and future Maintenance of the said Great 'Level ought to be without Prejudice to Navigation: (3) And because all Complaints which have been 'made, and all Prejudices which have been or shall be done to particular Persons, Parishes and Places, 'cannot by this Act be sufficiently provided for and remedied;'

Commissioners for hearing the said Complaints and Differences.

XXIV. Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That Sir John Tracy Knight, Sir Charles Mordant, Sir Nicholas Lestrange, Baronets, Sir William Hovel, Knight, Edward Pepis, Humphry Bedingfield, Nicholas Stileman, Esquires, for the County of Norfolk; (2) Sir Nicholas Bacon Knight of the Bath, Sir Lionel Tolimach Baronet, Sir John Duncombe Knight, Sir Edmond Pooley Knight, Sir George Reeve Knight and Baronet, Sir George Weneve Knight, Thomas Waldegrave Esquire, for the County of Suffolk; (3) Sir Dudley North, Sir Thomas Wendy, Knights of the Bath, Levinus Bennet Esquire, Robert King, John Pepis, Doctors of the Law, Thomas Crouch, Francis North, Esquires, for the County of Cambridge; (4) Sir Thomas Sclater Baronet, Lestrange Colthrop, John Millecent, Thomas Hall, John Sotheby, Esquires, John Bing Esquire, and William Wrenn Esquire, for the Isle of Ely; (5) Sir Francis Compton Knight, Robert Appreece, Sutton Ashfield, Esquires, Anthony South Doctor of the Law, Robert Payne, Richard Nayler, Ferrers of Gedding, Esquires, for the County of Huntington; (6) Sir William Dudley Knight and Baronet, Maurice Tresham, Francis Kirkham, Lewis Palmer, Christopher Thursby, Francis Lane, George Tresham, Esquires, for the County of Northampton; (7) Sir Charles Hussey, Sir John Newton, Baronets, Sir Thomas Meers, Sir Anthony Ireby, Knights, Sir Anthony Oldfield Baronet, Richard Brownlow, Daniel Rhodes, Esquires, for the County of Lincoln; shall be, and are hereby made and constituted the present Commissioners for the Purposes herein mentioned.

XXV. And for the supplying the Number of the Commissioners of the said respective Counties, in Case of Death or other Avoidance or Incapacity; (2) Be it also enacted, That within three Months after such Death, or Notice of such Avoidance or Incapacity, the remaining Commissioners of each respective County, of which such Commissioners who died, or became incapable, were, or the major Part of them, shall from Time to Time nominate and appoint by Deed under their Hands and Seals to be enrolled in Chancery, some other Person or Persons residing within the said County, of which the said Commissioners who died, or became incapable were, to be Commissioners in the Place and Stead of him or them so dying or becoming incapable; (3) which said Commissioners hereby constituted, or hereafter to be constituted in Manner aforesaid, or any seven or more of them be, are and shall be hereby authorized and impowered from Time to Time to hear and determine such Complaints, Controversies, Differences and Grievances as are in this Act expressed (relating to, or concerning, or occasioned by, the Draining and Maintaining the said Great Level) of any Parish or Township, or of any Person or Persons, as well within or without the said Level, in such Manner as is herein after expressed: (4) And that the said Commissioners hereby constituted, or hereafter to be constituted in Manner aforesaid, or any seven or more of them, shall from Time to Time have Power and Authority, and are hereby required, at or before the eight and twentieth Day of September which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand six hundred sixty and six, to give or make Satisfaction out of the said ninety-five thousand Acres, to such Parish or Township, Person or Persons, whose Lands or Interest therein, either within or without the said Level, shall after the first Day of May one thousand six hundred sixty and three, be made worse in Quality or Condition by the aforesaid Dreining or Works, than they were before the Undertaking the Draining of the said Level in the sixth Year of the Reign of our late King Charles of Blessed Memory, and proportionable to the Losses the Owners of, or Persons interested in such Lands, shall hereafter receive by Reason of their Lands being made worse in Quality or Condition by any such Works and Dreining as aforesaid; (5) and shall also have Power at any Time within four Years from the four and twentieth Day of June in the Year of our Lord one thousand six hundred sixty and three, to alter, change and restore such Parts and Parcels of the said ninety-five thousand Acres, as shall upon Complaint be found and adjudged by the said Commissioners, or any seven or more of them, to be unequally, unduly or inconveniently set forth, by Reason of any Allotting, either of greater Quantities, or as belonging to other Counties, Parishes or Manors, or in more inconvenient Places, than they were formerly allotted and set out by a Law of Sewers made at Saint Ives the twelfth Day of October in the thirteenth Year of King Charles the First, notwithstanding any Vesting of the said ninety-five thousand Acres, or any Part thereof, in the King's Majesty, or in the said Governor, Bailiffs and Commonalty, or in any other Persons before mentioned, or any Estates executed by them or any of them.

The Power and Authority of the said Commissioners.

Ravely, Upwood, Sothery, Wicken, Cowfenn, Beezling.

XXVI. Provided, and be it enacted, That ninety-three Acres in Ravely and Upwood, seventy-six Acres in Sothery, forty-four Acres and one Rood in Wicken, eighty-eight Acres in Cowfenn, two hundred eigty-two Acres in Beezling, and thirty-seven Acres in Upwell, set out to be enjoyed as Part of the said ninety-five thousand Acres since the making the said Law of Saint Ives, in Lieu of like Proportions altered and restored to the Country, shall be held and enjoyed by the said Corporation, subject nevertheless to the Trust in and by this Act declared, as to the ſaid eighty-three thouſand Acres Reſidue of the ſaid ninety-five thouſand Acres; and ſhall ſet forth to the ſaid Corporation in Truſt for the Participants or Adventurers, whoſe Proportion ſhall be ſo altered or exchanged, in Lieu of ſuch Part as ſhall be ſo altered, exchanged or reſtored, ſuch other Proportions in ſuch other Places within the ſaid Level, as to the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any ſeven or more of them, ſhall ſeem juſt and reaſonable, according to the Proportions and Places which ought and might have been by Lynne and Saint Ives Law aforeſaid, to be held and enjoyed of the Manor of Eaſt Greenwich, to the End there may be no Diminution of the ſaid ninety-five thouſand Acres; (2) and where it ſhall appear upon Complaint of the ſaid Corporation before the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any ſeven or more of them, that any of the Proportions of the ſaid ninety-five thouſand Acres heretofore ſet forth to Francis Earl of Bedford, his then Participants and Aſſigns, do fall ſhort in the Quantity of Acres for which the ſame were ſet forth and allotted, according to the ſaid Laws of Lynne and St. Ives, the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any ſeven or more of them, ſhall within the ſaid Term of four Years aforeſaid appoint the ſame to be ſupplied and made up out of the Grounds where the ſame was ſo allotted to be ſet forth, to make up the ſaid Proportion of ninety-five thouſand Acres. (3) And in Caſe the ſaid Earl of Bedford, and his Participants, or the ſaid Corporation, ſhall through or by Reaſon of their Undertaking or Dreining aforeſaid, in the ſixth Year of his late Majeſty's Reign, of ever bleſſed Memory, have done or hereafter ſhall do any Act or Acts to the Prejudice of Navigation, and whereby Navigation in the ſaid Rivers of Owſe and Grant, and all other Rivers now navigable paſſing through the ſaid Level, and the River of Weſtwater, being a Branch of the River of Owſe, if it be conſiſtent with the Dreining, or in any of them, or ſuch Drove-ways or Bridges within and without the ſaid Level, as have been made or cauſed to be made by the Adventurers, and have been by them maintained, unleſs there be ſome Agreement to the contrary, be or hereafter ſhall be interrupted, obſtructed and made worſe; that then the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any ſeven or more of them, whereof the Vice-Chancellor for the Univerſity of Cambridge, the Mayor of the Town of Cambridge, and the Mayor of the Town of Kings-Lynne for the Time being, to be three, if they upon Notice left at their reſpective Habitations ſhall think fit to be preſent, from Time to Time ſhall and may decree the ſame to be made good and amended, at the proper Coſts and Charges of the ſaid Corporation, within a convenient Time, as to their Judgments ſhall ſeem meet: (4) And in Caſe it ſhall happen and ſo fall out, that the ſaid Corporation ſhall neglect or refuſe to repair and make good the ſame, according to the Order and Decree of the ſaid Commiſſioners, and within the Time limited by them; that then it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any ſeven or more of them, by Warrant under their Hands and Seals atteſted, to Tax the ſaid ninety-five thouſand Acres in ſuch Sum and Sums of Money as in their Judgments ſhall ſeem meet, for the making, preſerving and keeping the Navigation in any of the aforeſaid Rivers, as the ſame was in the ſaid ſixth Year of the ſaid King Charles the Firſt; which ſaid Sum or Sums of Money ſo to be aſſeſſed or taxed by the Commiſſioners aforeſaid, ſhall within twenty Days next after Notice thereof given to the Governor or Treaſurer of the ſaid Corporation, be paid unto ſuch Perſon or Perſons as the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall nominate and appoint to receive the ſame. (5) And in Caſe the ſaid Governor or Treaſurer of the ſaid Corporation, after Notice ſo given as aforeſaid, ſhall refuſe or neglect to pay the ſaid Sum or Sums of Money as aforeſaid, That then the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any ſeven or more of them, ſhall have full Power and Authority to impower the ſaid Perſon or Perſons to levy the ſaid Sum or Sums of Money by Diſtreſs or Diſtreſſes to be taken upon the ſaid ninety-five thouſand Acres, or any Part thereof, and to make Sale of the ſaid Diſtreſs or Diſtreſſes ſo taken, and ſell the ſame, and render the Overplus unto the ſaid Governor or Treaſurer, deducting the reaſonable Charges for their Labour and Pains therein: (6) All which ſaid Sum or Sums of Money ſo to be taxed and levied by the Authority aforeſaid, ſhall be expended and laid out in preſerving and keeping the ſaid Navigation as aforeſaid, and maintaining the ſame, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Statute, and not otherwiſe. (7) And the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any ſeven or more of them, are alſo hereby impowered and authorized within the Space of four Years from the four and twentieth Day of June in the Year of our Lord one thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and three, to aſcertain and divide the Precincts and Boundaries of ſuch Parts of the ſaid reſpective Counties, Lordſhips, Manors and Pariſhes within the ſaid Level, as have been by and ſince the Undertaking, defaced and made obſcure, or by ſome other Means remain uncertain and hard to be found out, and ſhall ſet down ſuch Bounds and Diviſions in Writing, by ſuch Marks, Boundaries and Deſcriptions as to them ſhall ſeem meet, and ſhall certify the ſame under their Hands and Seals in the High Court of Chancery; (8) according to which Diviſion of the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any ſeven or more of them, the Extent of the ſaid reſpective Counties, Lordſhips, Manors and Pariſhes in ſuch Places ſo bounded and divided, ſhall for ever after the ſaid Certificate be deemed to be, and none other: (9) And in Caſe the Quantity of eight thouſand Acres lying together or near together, or any greater Quantity of Ground lying together or near together within the ſaid Level, ſhall become drowned, and ſo continue for the Space of twelve Months together: That then it ſhall be lawful for the ſaid Commiſſioners for the Time being, or any ſeven or more of them, from Time to Time, and at all Times, to aſſeſs Taxes or Sums of Money upon the ſaid ninety-five thouſand Acres, for the raiſing the Money for Dreining the ſame again, in ſuch Proportion as they, or any ſeven or more of them, ſhall think fit, together with a Penalty for not paying the ſaid Taxes, the ſaid Penalty not exceeding a third Part of ſuch Tax.

How Lands may be ſold for Non-payment of Taxes or Penalties.

XXVII. And for Default of Payment of the ſaid Taxes or Sums of Money and Penalties, Be it enacted, That the Lot and Share of ſuch Participant or Adventurer of and within the ſaid ninety-five thouſand Acres, as ſhall be in Arrear for the ſaid Tax, Sum of Money or Penalty, and unpaid by the Space of two Months next after the Day appointed for Payment by the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any ſeven or more of them, or ſo much thereof as they ſhall think fit, ſhall be ſequeſtred by the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any ſeven or more of them, for or towards the Payment of ſuch Tax, Sum of Money, or Penalty ſo in Arrear, reſtoring the Overplus of the Money for which ſuch Lot or Share, or any Part thereof, ſhall be ſequeſtred, if any be: Which Sequeſtration ſhall be made in Writing under the Hands and Seals of the ſaid Commiſſioners for the Time being, or any ſeven or more of them.

XXVIII. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in Caſe the ſaid Governor, Bailiffs and Corporation conſtituted by this Act, ſhall neglect or refuſe to pay ſuch Tax or Taxes and Penalties, Sum or Sums of Money, as ſhall from Time to Time hereafter be taxed and impoſed by the ſaid Commiſſioners before-named, or to be named by Virtue of this Act, or any ſeven or more of them, purſuant to the Powers given them by this Act, whereupon the Goods and Chattels of any Perſon or Perſons, his or their Tenant or Tenants, of and in the ſaid ninety-five thouſand Acres, or any Part thereof, ſhall be diſtrained or ſold, or his or their Lands ſequeſtred for the Payment thereof, or that ſuch Perſon or Perſons, his or their Tenant or Tenants, ſhall thereupon pay the ſaid Tax and Taxes, and Penalties ſo aſſeſſed and impoſed as aforeſaid; that then the ſaid Governor, Bailiffs and Corporation, immediately from and after Notice to him or them given thereof, ſhall aſſeſs and tax the whole ninety-five thouſand Acres for the Satisfaction and Payment of the Tax, Taxes and Penalties, Sum and Sums of Money, and all Damages that ſuch Perſon or Perſons, his or their Tenant or Tenants, hath or have paid, born or ſuſtained, as aforeſaid.

XXIX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if the ſaid Governor, Bailiffs and Corporation ſhall not within ſix Months after Demand made by ſuch Perſon or Perſons, his and their Heirs, Executors and Adminiſtrators, whoſe own or Tenant or Tenants Goods and Chattels ſhall be diſtrained or ſold, or Lands ſequeſtred as aforeſaid, pay and ſatisfy unto him or them ſuch Sum and Sums of Money and Damages as he or they, his and their reſpective Tenant or Tenants have reſpectively paid, born and ſuſtained; That then and from thenceforth ſuch Perſon and Perſons, his and their Heirs and Aſſigns, ſhall and may bring his and their Action or Actions of Debt in any of the King's Majeſty's Courts at Weſtminſter, againſt the ſaid Governor, Bailiffs and Corporation, for the Recovery thereof, and by Virtue of this Act ſhall recover the ſame, and be allowed Coſts of Suit expended therein.

XXX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Commiſſioners ſo conſtituted or to be hereafter conſtituted as aforeſaid, or any ſeven or more of them, for the better Execution of the Powers hereby given, ſhall and may inform themſelves by examining Witneſſes upon Oath, which hereby they, or any ſeven or more of them, ſhall have Power to adminiſter, due Execution of all, every or any the Powers or Authorities hereby given them, and for the doing Juſtice therein accordingly.

XXXI. Provided always, That the ſaid Commiſſioners and every of them, before he or they take upon him or them the Execution of any the Powers or Authorities hereby given them, other than the adminiſtring the Oath following to one another, which they ſhall have Authority by this preſent Act to adminiſter to one another, ſhall take the Oath following, (viz.) The Commiſſioners to take an Oath.

'(2) I A. B. ſhall and will without Favour or Affection, Hatred or Malice, truly and impartially, according to the beſt of my Skill and Knowledge, execute and perform all and every the Powers and Authorities eſtabliſhed by this Act of Parliament.'

Which Oath any one of the ſaid Commiſſioners are hereby authorized to adminiſter.

XXXII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Judgments, Orders, Decrees, Determinations, Alterations, Changes, Reſtaurations, and other Acts done by the ſaid Commiſſioners hereby conſtituted, or hereafter to be conſtituted, as aforeſaid, or of any ſeven or more of them reſpectively, purſuant to the Powers and Authorities by this Act given, ſhall be final; and that the firſt Time and Place of their Meetings ſhall be at or before the two and twentieth Day of September in the Year of our Lord one thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and three, at Ely.

XXXIII. And that afterwards the uſual Places where the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall ſit to hear, order and determine the Matters to them referred by this Act, ſhall from the twenty-ninth Day of September to the twenty-ſixth Day of March in every Year, be at the Town of Huntington; and from the twenty-fifth Day of March till the thirtieth Day of September in every Year, be at Ely, unleſs the ſaid Commiſſioners hereby conſtituted, or hereafter to be conſtituted, as aforeſaid, or any ſeven or more of them, ſhall appoint ſome other Place or Places, being a Market-Town or Towns; (2) and the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any ſeven or more of them, ſhall by Warrant under their Hands and Seals declare the Places and Times of their After-meeting; which Warrant ſhall be publiſhed in the open Market of ſuch reſpective Places where they laſt ſat, between the Hours of Twelve and Two upon ſome Market-Day one Month at the leaſt before the ſaid Time or Times of Meeting, to the End all Perſons concerned may have ſufficient Time and Notice to make their Appearance before them upon any Cauſe of Complaint, or other Occaſion; (3) and ſhall have Power and Authority by Warrant under the Hands and Seals of any ſeven or more of them, to ſummon Parties and Witneſſes to appear before them. The Places where the Commiſſioners ſhall ſit.

XXXIV. Provided, That none of the ſaid Commiſſioners hereby conſtituted, or hereafter to be conſtituted, as aforeſaid, ſhall Vote or give his Judgment or Determination in any Matter or Thing which concerns the Diviſion and Bounds of the County of or for which he is appointed Commiſſioner.

XXXV. Provided alſo, That no Perſon who hath any Part, Share or Intereſt in Poſſeſſion or Reverſion of or in any Manors or Lands within the ſaid Level, ſhall be a Commiſſioner.

XXXVI. And in Caſe of Deſcent, Gift, Deviſe or Purchaſe of any ſuch Part, Share or Intereſt, to or by any the ſaid Commiſſioners, it is hereby declared and enacted, That immediately after ſuch Deſcent, Gift, Deviſe or Purchaſe to or by any ſuch Commiſſioner, the ſaid Deſcent, Gift, Deviſe or Purchaſe ſhall be an Avoidance of his being a Commiſſioner, and ſhall make him be incapable of being again nominated or appointed a Commiſſioner whilſt his Intereſt doth remain.

XXXVII. Provided alſo, and the ſaid Commiſſioners for the Time being, or any ſeven or more of them, ſhall from Time to Time, and at all Times have Power and Authority to give and make Satisfaction out of the the ninety-five thouſand Acres, to ſuch Perſon or Perſons whoſe Lands or Intereſt therein (by any new Works hereafter to be made by the ſaid Corporation within the ſaid Level, for conveying of the Waters of the ſaid Level by convenient Outfalls to the Sea) ſhall be made worſe in Quality, Condition or Value, than they were before the ſaid Undertaking in the ſaid ſixth Year of the ſaid late King Charles, proportionable to the Loſs and Damage the Parties ſhall receive thereby.

Owners of Waſtes and Commons may improve. 16 & 17 Car. 2. c. 11. in Part repealed by 1 Jac. 2. c. 25. §. 4.

XXXVIII. And to the End that the Owners of the Commons and Waſtes in the ſaid Level and other Towns, Pariſhes and Places, unto which the Works aforeſaid, or any of them, do extend, may improve the ſame by making Diviſions and Incloſures; (2) Be it provided and enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful for any Perſon or Perſons, Body Politick or Corporate whatſoever, their Heirs and Succeſſors, that are or ſhall be Lords of Manors, or have or ſhall have Rights of Common in the ſaid Waſte, to improve, ſet out, incloſe, divide and ſever ſuch Proportion or Proportions as to them ſhall or may ſeverally or reſpectively belong or appertain, or be adjudged and allotted out of the ſaid Commons and Waſtes within the ſaid Level, or within any Town, Pariſh or Place, into which the Works aforeſaid, or any of them, do extend, and to hold ſuch Proportion in Severalty at all Times of the Year; (3) and all Differences that ſhall ariſe concerning the Boundaries of the Waſtes, Rights of Common, Approvements, Allotments, Diviſions and Incloſures, ſhall from Time to Time, and at all Times, be determined, adjudged, and finally ended, by the ſaid Commiſſioners for the Time being, or any ſeven or more of them, upon their View, or Examination of Witneſſes upon Oath (which they are hereby authorized to adminiſter) or upon both, and hearing of the Parties concerned, by their Adjudication under their Hands and Seals in Writing, which Determination and Judgment being certified into the Petty-Bag, there to be filed, and kept on Record, ſhall be final and concluſive unto all Parties: (4) And the Allotments, Diviſions and Proportions ſo adjudged or decreed to be held by the ſaid reſpective Perſons to whom they are ſo ſet out, ſhall be held by him or them, and his and their Heirs, Executors and Aſſigns reſpectively, according to his or their Tenure or Tenures, Eſtate, Title or Intereſt they had in the Manors, Tenements and Lands, for which they claimed the ſaid Proportions of Common, as aforeſaid; paying ſuch Fines and Rents, and doing ſuch Services in Proportion for the ſame, as by Cuſtom or otherwiſe they are to pay or do, and do for the Manors, Tenements and Lands for which they claim the ſame Proportion, having ſuch Reſpect to the yearly Values of the one and the other, as ſhall (if Need ſo require) be limited by ſeven or more of the Commiſſioners.

XLII. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for every Archbiſhop, Biſhop, Dean and Chapter, and all Colleges and Halls in either Univerſity, and all Bodies Politick and Corporate, who are or ſhall be Lords of Manors, or have or ſhall have Right of Soil or Common in the Waſtes within this ſaid Level, or within ſuch other Towns, Pariſhes and Places into which the Works of the Dreining aforeſaid do or ſhall extend, and who are by this Act impowered to improve, improve, ſet out, incloſe, divide and ſever ſuch Proportion or Proportions as to them ſhall or may reſpectively belong or appertain, out of the ſaid Commons and Waſtes within the ſaid Level, to demiſe by Indenture all and every the ſaid ſuch Proportion or Proportions as to them ſhall or may reſpectively belong or appertain, out of the ſaid Commons and Waſtes within the ſaid Level, which have not by expreſs Words, and under any particular Rent, been at any Time formerly demiſed, for any Term or Number of Years, not exceeding one and twenty Years, ſo as upon every ſuch Demiſe or Leaſe be reſerved the fourth Part of the true yearly Value, to be aſcertained by the Commiſſioners aforeſaid or any ſeven of them, due and payable yearly during the ſaid Term, to him or them and his and their Succeſſors.

XLIII. Provided always, and be it declared by and with the Conſent of all Parties concerned, That neither this Act nor any Thing therein contained ſhall extend or be conſtrued to extend to alter the Poſſeſſion of Thomas Chicheley, Eſq; of or from ſix hundred ſeventy-one Acres, Parcel of the Lot now claimed to belong to the ſaid Truſtees of Henry late Earl of Arundel and Surrey, and two hundred thirty-one Acres, Parcel of the Lot now claimed to belong to the ſaid Sir William Terringham, or from any Part thereof, by him the ſaid Thomas Chicheley now enjoyed under Purchaſers by Sales for Nonpayment of Taxes upon the Diſpute between the old and new Adventurers; but that the ſaid Corporation ſhall execute Conveyances of the ſaid reſpective Proportion unto the ſaid Thomas Chicheley, his Heirs and Aſſigns; any Thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

XLIV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That all ſuch Right or Rights as any Lord or Lords of any Manor or Manors, Liberties, Hundred or Half-Hundred, have heretofore had within their reſpective Manor or Manors, Liberties, Hundred or Half-Hundred, within or without the ſaid Level, to Waifs, Strays, Felons Goods, Privileges of Arreſts, Eſcheats and all other Royalties not prejudicial to the Dreining, be hereby ſaved to them, their Heirs, Succeſſors and Aſſigns ſeverally and reſpectively; any Thing in this Act to the contrary thereof notwithſtanding.

XLV. Provided always, That this Act, or any Thing therein contained, ſhall not be interpreted to infringe or any Way to weaken an Act made the fourth Year of the Reign of King James, intituled, An Act for the Dreining of certain Fens and Low Grounds within the Iſle of Ely, ſubject to Hurt by ſurrounding, containing about ſix thouſand Acres, compaſſed about with certain Banks, commonly called and named, The Ring of Walterſea and Coldham; but the ſaid Act ſhall ſtand in full Force and Virtue; any Thing in this preſent Act to the contrary notwithſtanding. 4 Jac. 1. c. 13.

'XLVI. Provided alſo, That whereas divers Lands in and near adjoining unto the ſaid Great Level, have 'been cut through for the better Conveying of the Waters from the ſame, and for upholding or repairing 'the Banks and Works there, without making Satisfaction to the reſpective Owners of the ſaid Lands, for 'the Damage they have ſuſtained by ſuch Cutting,' (2) Be it further enacted, That the ſaid Commiſſioners for the Time being, or any ſeven or more of them, upon Complaint to them made of ſuch Damage ſuſtained as aforeſaid, without Recompence for the ſame, ſhall be and are hereby impowered to award and decree ſuch Recompence and Satisfaction to the Party and Parties grieved, according to their reſpective Damages ſuſtained by ſuch Cutting, as to the ſaid Commiſſioners for the Time being, or any ſeven or more of them, ſhall be adjudged reaſonable, the ſaid Recompence and Satisfaction to be made and given by the ſaid Corporation within ſix Months next after ſuch Award or Decree made; (3) and in Default thereof, the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any ſeven or more of them, ſhall and may, and are hereby impowered to rate and tax the ſaid ninety-five thouſand Acres, and to diſtrain thereupon for the Payment of ſuch Rate or Tax, and the Diſtreſs taken thereupon to ſell or diſpoſe as they ſhall think fit, (rendring the Overplus, if any be, to the Owners) for the Payment and Satisfaction of ſuch Monies and Damages as ſhall be ſo awarded; any Thing in this Act to the contrary thereof notwithſtanding.

XLVII. Provided nevertheleſs, That in caſe the Judicature hereby eſtabliſhed, ſhall not, within twelve Months from the firſt Day of Auguſt next, hear and determine all the Matters by this Act to them referred, concerning the ſaid ninety-five thouſand Acres, all and every ſuch Perſon and Perſons whoſe Complaint ſhall be then undetermined, may make their Applications to the Barons of his Majeſty's Court of Exchequer, who are hereby eſtabliſhed a Court of Judicature, and ſufficiently authorized to hear and determine all ſuch Controverſies and Differences between the ſaid Parties, in as large and ample Manner to all Intents and Purpoſes as the Judicature hereby eſtabliſhed might have done; and ſuch Judgment, Order or Decree of the ſaid Court of Exchequer, ſhall be in all Things obſerved, and be effectual as if the ſaid Barons had been made the only Judicature by this Act. The Barons of the Exchequer impowered to hear and determine Differences between Parties.

XLVIII. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Leſſees of the King's Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, of the ſaid ten thouſand Acres, or of any Part thereof, and the Aſſigns of ſuch Leſſees and every or any of them, ſhall be capable to be elected and choſen into the Office or Place, Offices or Places of Governor, Bailiffs and Conſervators aforeſaid, and to vote in ſuch Elections and Choice, and in all other Matters, as fully to all Intents and Purpoſes as any other Members of the Corporation, Owners of any Part of the ſaid ninety-five thouſand Acres, may be elected and choſen, vote in ſuch Election and Choice, or in any other Matter, ſo as ſuch Leſſees and their Aſſignees reſpectively, have and be Leſſees or Owners of double the Quantity or Number of Acres, Parcel of the ſaid ten thouſand Acres, as by Virtue of this Act is required to qualify any Perſon to be elected and choſen into the Office or Place of Governor, Bailiff or Conſervator reſpectively, and to vote in ſuch Elections and Choice, or in any other Matter touching the ſaid Level, and ſo as ſuch Leaſes or Aſſignments they claim by, be entred with the Regiſter; any Thing before in this Act to the contrary notwithſtanding. Leſſees of the King.

XLIX. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That this Act ſhall not extend to impeach or make void any Obligation given to David Offley, Gent. conditioned for his quiet Enjoyment of a certain Parcel of Land purchaſed by him in the ſaid Level, but that the ſaid David Offley may ſue and proſecute his ſeveral Action or Actions upon the ſaid Obligation, as if he had been evicted or removed from his Eſtate therein by due Courſe of Law.

L. And

How Breaches shall be made good.

L. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Breaches happen in any of the Banks, Sasses, Sluices, Tunnels or other Works within the said Great Level, or in any the Works made without the said Great Level for carrying the Waters of the said Great Level to their Outfal at Sea, by Reason of some inevitable Accidents, the same shall be repaired and made good in convenient Time by and at the Charges of the said Corporation and their Successors; (2) but no other Charge shall be laid upon the said Corporation or their Successors, for or in respect of such Breaches, nor for or in respect of any Breaches that have happened heretofore in any of the said Banks, Sasses, Sluices or other Works; nor shall the said Corporation be inforced to give to any other Person any Recompence for any Loss or Damage which hath or shall happen by Reason of their making necessary and sufficient Banks for the Defending of the said Level from being overflown, and for the Leading of the Waters of the said Level in their Chanels as now they run, unto their Outfal at Sea.

Proviso for Persons that have changed their Lands.

LI. Provided nevertheless, and be it enacted, That where any Participant under Francis Earl of Bedford, or the Heirs or Assigns of any such Participant, hath exchanged his or their Share or Lot of the said ninety-five thousand Acres, or any Part thereof, for any other Lands, Parcel of the said ninety-five thousand Acres, which were claimed and held under such pretended Sales, for Nonpayment of Taxes, since one thousand six hundred forty and nine, It shall and may be lawful to and for such Participant and Participants, and his and their Heirs and Assigns, to enter again upon the same Lands so given in Exchange, and to have and retain the same in his and their Possession, any Thing in this Act to the contrary notwithstanding: Subject nevertheless in all Things to such Judgment and Determination as the Judicature hereby constituted shall make concerning the same.

LII. Provided always, That no ascertaining or dividing of the said dreined or new improved Lands by the said Commissioners as aforesaid, shall conclude the King's Majesty, his Heirs, Successors or Assigns, or any other Person or Persons, as to the Bounds of Parishes, to any other Intent or Purpose, than subjecting the same to Taxes and Contributions, and Episcopal Jurisdictions, and not as to the Right of Tithes or any other Purpose whatsoever, nor shall be, or be used in, Evidence concerning the same.

Commons and Wastes in Bedford-Level inclosed.

LIII. Provided also, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons having a Right of Common in any of the Manors, Wastes, Commons or Lands within the said Great Level of the Fens, called Bedford-Level, or any other Person or Persons whatsoever, at any Time after such Division or Inclosure made, or set out as aforesaid, shall break, throw down, disturb, obstruct or by any Means hinder or lay open the said Improvements and Inclosures, at, in or after the Making thereof, or the Hedges, Ditches or Fences of the same, or any Part thereof shall destroy, and shall be thereof convicted by two credible Witnesses upon Oath before two Justices of the Peace of the County where such Disturbance or Destruction shall be made: Every such Person or Persons so convicted as aforesaid, shall forfeit for every such Offence the Sum of twenty Pounds; (2) to be levied by Distress upon the Goods and Chattels of every such Offender or Offenders, by Warrant under the Hands and Seals of the said Justices of the Peace before whom such Conviction shall be made; the one Moiety to the Informer; and the other Moiety to such Person or Persons against whom the said Offence is or shall be committed; or for Want of such sufficient Distress, the Offender shall be committed to the House of Correction or Common Gaol for three Months without Bail or Mainprize, at the said Justices Discretion.

After the Year 1668. Taxes shall not exceed 2 s. in the Pound.

LIV. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the first Day of August which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand six hundred sixty and eight, no Tax or Taxes exceeding two Shillings the Acre in any one Year, shall be assessed, laid or levied, upon the said ten thousand Acres by this Act vested in the King's Majesty, his Heirs, Successors and Assigns, or upon any Part thereof, or upon the two thousand Acres hereby vested in the Assigns of the said Earl of Portland; but in case the Taxes to be assessed upon the said eighty-three thousand Acres hereby vested in the said Corporation, shall not amount unto so much in Proportion as two Shillings an Acre, according to the Proportion for each Acre; then a proportionable Abatement shall be made out of the said two Shillings per Acre, which shall be charged yearly by an equal Rate upon every Acre of the said ten thousand Acres, and the said two thousand Acres; according to the Rate imposed upon every Acre of the said eighty-three thousand Acres, whether the same shall be assessed by an Acre-Tax or Pound-Rate, or by any other Way; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

LV. And it is further declared, That the Assessing, Laying and Levying of Taxes upon the said ten thousand Acres, or upon the said two thousand Acres or any Part thereof, after the said first Day of August which shall be in the said Year of our Lord one thousand six hundred sixty and eight, by the Way of an Acre-Tax, shall not extend nor be interpreted or construed to extend, to compel or conclude the said Corporation, to assess, lay or levy any Tax or Taxes upon the said eighty-three thousand Acres, hereby vested in the said Corporation, or upon any Part thereof by the Way of an Acre-Tax.

CAP. I.

An Act for the Aſſembling and Holding of Parliaments once in three Years at the leaſt; and for the Repeal of an Act, intituled, An Act for the preventing of Inconveniencies happening by the long Intermiſſion of Parliaments.

'WHEREAS the Act made in the Parliament begun at Weſtminſter the third Day of November in the ſixteenth Year of the Reign of our late Sovereign Lord King Charles of bleſſed Memory, intituled, An Act for the preventing of Inconveniencies happening by the long Intermiſſion of Parliaments, is in Derogation of his Majeſty's juſt Rights and Prerogative inherent to the Imperial Crown of this Realm, for the Calling and aſſembling of Parliaments, and may be an Occaſion of manifold Miſchiefs and Inconveniencies, and much endanger the Peace and Safety of his Majeſty, and all his Liege People of this Realm:' 16 Car. 1. c. 1.

II. Be it therefore enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That the ſaid Act, intituled, An Act for the preventing of Inconveniencies happening by the long Intermiſſion of Parliaments, and all and every the Articles, Clauſes and Things therein contained, is, ſhall be, and are hereby wholly repealed, annulled, and utterly made void, and are hereby declared to be null and void to all Intents and Purpoſes whatſoever, as if the ſaid Act had never been had or made; any Thing in the ſaid Act contained to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding. A Repeal of the ſaid Act.

'III. And becauſe by the ancient Laws and Statutes of this Realm, made in the Reign of King Edward the Third, Parliaments are to be held very often;' your Majeſty's humble and loyal Subjects the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, moſt humbly do beſeech your moſt Excellent Majeſty, That it may be declared and enacted; (2) And be it declared and enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That hereafter the Sitting and Holding of Parliaments ſhall not be intermitted or diſcontinued above three Years at the moſt; (3) but that within three Years from and after the Determination of this preſent Parliament, and ſo from Time to Time within three Years after the Determination of any other Parliament or Parliaments, or if there be Occaſion more often, your Majeſty, your Heirs and Succeſſors, do iſſue out your Writs for calling, aſſembling and holding of another Parliament, to the End there may be a frequent Calling, Aſſembling and Holding of Parliaments once in three Years at the leaſt. 4 Ed. 3. c. 14. 36 Ed. 3. c. 10. 6 W. & M. c. 2. 1 Geo. 1. c. 38.

CAP. II.

An Act for preventing of Abatements of Writs of Error upon Judgments in the Exchequer.

'WHEREAS by a Statute made in the one and thirtieth Year of the Reign of the late Queen Elizabeth, it is enacted, That the not coming of the Lord Chancellor and Lord Treaſurer, or either of them, at the Day of Adjournment, in any Suit of Error depending by Virtue of the Statute of the one and thirtieth Year of the Reign of King Edward the Third therein mentioned, concerning Error made in the Exchequer, ſhall not be any Diſcontinuance of any ſuch Writ of Error; (2) but if both the Chief Juſtices of either Bench, or any one of the ſaid Great Officers, the Lord Chancellor or Lord Treaſurer, ſhall come to the Exchequer-Chamber, and there be preſent at the Day of Adjournment in ſuch Suit of Error, it ſhall be no Diſcontinuance, but the Suit ſhall proceed in Law to all Intents and Purpoſes, as if both the Lord Chancellor and Lord Treaſurer had comen and been preſent at the Day and Place of Adjournment: (3) Which Statute doth not provide a Remedy, in Caſe the ſaid Lord Chancellor and Lord Treaſurer, or either of them, ſhall not be preſent at the Days and Times of the Returns of ſuch Writs of Error, although it be within the ſame Miſchief, Juſtice being delayed, and the Parties in ſuch Caſes being put to begin new Suits, to their great Charges and Prejudice, by Reaſon of the Abſence and not coming of the ſaid Great Officers:' 31 Eliz. c. 1. 31 Ed. 3. Stat. 1. c. 12. Carthew 388.

II. Be it therefore enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this Parliament aſſembled, and by Authority of the ſame, That the not coming of the Lord Chancellor and Lord Treaſurer, or either of them, at the Day of Return of any Writ of Error to be ſued forth by Virtue of the ſaid Statute made in the ſaid one and thirtieth Year of the Reign of the ſaid King Edward the Third, ſhall not cauſe any Abatement or Diſcontinuance of any ſuch Writ of Error: (2) But if both the Chief Juſtices of either Bench, or either of them, or any one of the ſaid Great Officers, the Lord Chancellor or Lord Treaſurer, ſhall come to the Exchequer-Chamber, and there be preſent at the Day of Return of any ſuch Writ of Error, it ſhall be no Abatement or Diſcontinuance, but the Suit ſhall proceed in Law to all Intents and Purpoſes, as if both the Lord Chancellor and Lord Treaſurer had comen and been preſent at the Day and Place of the Return of ſuch Writ. The not coming of the Lord Chancellor or Lord Treaſurer.

III. Provided always, That no Judgment ſhall be given in any ſuch Suit or Writ of Error, unleſs both the Lord Chancellor and the Lord Treaſurer ſhall be preſent thereat. Altered by 20 Car. 2. c. 4. And ſee further 4 Ann. c. 16. which gives Coſts on quaſhing Writ of Error.

CAP. V.

An Act to prevent Delays in extending Statutes, Judgments and Recognizances.

Security by Statute-Merchant and of the Staple.

'WHEREAS the Security by Statute-Merchant and of the Staple is now become of little Uſe and Benefit by the Fraud of the Conuſors thereof in ſundry Caſes, who, to prevent the Payment of their Debts, ſecretly aſſign ſmall Parts of their Lands to ſeveral and unknown Perſons: (2) And it having been uſed, that if the Creditor take Execution on ſuch Statute, yet if the Lands of any one or more Perſon or Perſons to whom ſuch Alienation was made, and liable to ſuch Execution, be omitted out of ſuch Extent; the ſame Execution hath been avoided by Audita Querela, and the Party extending loſt his Coſts, and was delayed of his juſt Debt; and ſo again upon any new Extent toties quoties; (3) and if any one Acre or Parcel of Land happened to deſcend to an Infant, the whole Execution was deferred till full Age of ſuch Infant; and if afterwards other Part of the Lands or Tenements liable to ſuch Debt deſcended to another Infant, then alſo a farther Delay happened during that Infancy alſo:'

Executions avoided by Audita Querela.

For what Cauſes Extents upon Judgments or Statutes ſhall not be avoided or delayed.

II. Be it therefore enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by Authority of the ſame, That when any Judgment, Statute or Recognizance ſhall be extended, the ſame ſhall not be avoided or delayed by Occaſion that any Part of the Lands or Tenements extendible are or ſhall be omitted omitted out of ſuch Extent; (2) ſaving always to the Party and Parties whoſe Lands ſhall be extended, his and their Heir, Executors and Aſſigns, his and their Remedy for Contribution againſt ſuch Perſon and Perſons, whoſe Lands are or ſhall be omitted out of ſuch Extent from Time to Time.

III. Provided always, That this Act or any Thing therein contained ſhall not be conſtrued to give any Extent or Contribution againſt any Heir within the Age of one and twenty Years, during ſuch Minority of ſuch Heir, for or in Reſpect of any Lands to ſuch Heir deſcended, farther or otherwiſe than might have been before the making of this Act. Proviſo for Heirs within Age.

IV. Provided that this Act extend only to ſuch Statutes as are or ſhall be for Payment of Monies; and to ſuch Extent as ſhall be within twenty Years after the Statute, Recognizance or Judgment had and obtained. To what Statutes and Extents only this Act ſhall extend.

V. Provided that this Act ſhall continue for the Space of three Years, and from thence to the End of the next Seſſion of Parliament, and no longer. [Made perpetual by 22 & 23 Car. 2. cap. 2.] The Continuance of this Act. 3 Rep. 12. 2 Vent. 104. 2 Inſt. 396.

CAP. VIII.

An Act to prevent Arreſts of Judgment, and ſuperſeding Executions.

'WHEREAS great Delay, Trouble and Vexation hath been and ſtill is occaſioned to the People of this Realm, as well by Arreſting and Reverſing of Judgments, as by ſtaying Executions by Writs of Error and Superſedeas:' (2) For Remedy thereof, Be it enacted by the King's moſt excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That if any Verdict of twelve Men ſhall be given in any Action, Suit, Bill or Demand, to be commenced from and after the five and twentieth Day of March, which ſhall be in the Year of our Lord one thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and five, in any of his Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, or in the Courts of Record in the Counties Palatine of Cheſter, Lancaſter or Durham, or in his Majeſty's Courts of the Great Seſſions in any of the twelve Shires of Wales; Judgment thereupon ſhall not be ſtayed or reverſed, for Default in Form or Lack of Form; (3) or by Reaſon that there are not Pledges, or but one Pledge to proſecute, returned upon the original Writ; (4) or becauſe the Name of the Sheriff is not returned upon ſuch Original Writ; (5) or for Default of entring Pledges upon any Bill or Declaration; (6) or for Default of Alledging the Bringing into Court of any Bond, Bill, Indenture, or other Deed whatſoever mentioned in the Declaration, or other Pleading; (7) or for Default of Allegation of the bringing into Court of Letters Teſtamentary or Letters of Adminiſtration; (8) or by Reaſon of the Omiſſion of Vi & Armis, or Contra pacem; (9) or for or by Reaſon of the Miſtaking of the Chriſtian Name or Surname of the Plaintiff or Defendant, Demandant or Tenant, Sum or Sums of Money, Day, Month or Year, by the Clerk, in any Bill, Declaration or Pleading, where the right Name, Surname, Sum, Day, Month or Year, in any Writ, Plaint, Roll or Record preceding, or in the ſame Roll or Record where the Miſtake is committed, is or are once truly and rightly alledged, whereunto the Plaintiff might have demurred and ſhewn the ſame for Cauſe; (10) nor for Want of the Averment of Hoc paratus eſt verificare; (11) or for Hoc paratus eſt verificare per Recordum; (12) or for not alledging Prout patet per Recordum; (13) or for that there is no right Venue, ſo as the Cauſe were tried by a Jury of the proper County or Place where the Action is laid; (14) nor any Judgment after Verdict, Confeſſion by Cognovit Actionem, or Relicta verificatione, ſhall be reverſed for Want of Miſericordia or Capiatur; (15) or by Reaſon that a Capiatur is entred for a Miſericordia, or a Miſericordia is entred where a Capiatur ought to have been entred; (16) nor for that Ideo conceſſum eſt per Curiam is entred for Ideo conſideratum eſt per Curiam; (17) nor for that the Increaſe of Coſts after a Verdict in any Action, or upon a Nonſuit in Replevin, are not entred to be at the Requeſt of the Party for whom the Judgment is given; (18) nor by Reaſon that the Coſts in any Judgment whatſoever are not entred to be by Conſent of the Plaintiff; (19) but that all ſuch Omiſſions, Variances, Defects, and all other Matters of like Nature, not being againſt the Right of the Matter of the Suit, nor whereby the Iſſue or Trial are altered, ſhall be amended by the Juſtices or other Judges of the Courts where ſuch Judgments are or ſhall be given, or whereunto the Record is or ſhall be removed by Writ of Error. This Act extended to Writs of Mandamus, &c. by 9 Annæ, c. 20. §. 7. In what Court and Caſes Judgment after Verdict ſhall not be ſtayed for Default of Form in pleading. 1 Mod. 198. 1 Salk. 37, 38. Mod. Caſes in Law 198, 356. Farther Proviſions of this Kind, 4 Annæ, c. 16. 5 Geo. 1, c. 13.

II. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That this Act, or any Thing therein contained, ſhall not extend to any Writ, Declaration or Suit of Appeal of Felony or Murder, nor to any Indictment or Preſentment of Felony, Murder, Treaſon or other Matter, nor to any Proceſs upon any of them; (2) nor to any Writ, Bill, Action or Information upon any Penal Statute, other than concerning Cuſtoms and Subſidies of Tonnage and Poundage; any Thing in this Act contained to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding. Proviſo for Appeals, Indictments, Actions upon penal Laws, other than for Cuſtoms and Subſidies.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the twentieth Day of March in the Year of our Lord one thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and four, no Execution ſhall be ſtayed in any of the aforeſaid Courts by Writ of Error or Superſedeas thereupon, after Verdict and Judgment thereupon, In what Caſes Execution ſhall not be ſtayed by Writ of Error, but upon Recognizance entred according to 3 Jac. 1. c. 8. Carthew 121.

upon, in any Action Perſonal whatſoever, unleſs a Recognizance with Condition according to the Statute made in the third Year of the Reign of our late Sovereign Lord King James, ſhall be firſt acknowledged in the Court where ſuch Judgment ſhall be given: (2) And further, That in Writs of Error to be brought upon any Judgment after Verdict in any Writ of Dower, or in any Action of Ejectione firmæ, no Execution ſhall be thereupon or thereby ſtayed, unleſs the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs in ſuch Writ of Error ſhall be bound unto the Plaintiff in ſuch Writ of Dower, or Action of Ejectione firmæ, in ſuch reaſonable Sum as the Court to which ſuch Writ of Error ſhall be directed ſhall think fit, with Condition, That if the Judgment ſhall be affirmed in the ſaid Writ of Error, or that the ſaid Writ of Error be diſcontinued in Default of the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs therein, or that the ſaid Plaintiff or Plaintiffs be nonſuit in ſuch Writs of Error, That then the ſaid Plaintiff or Plaintiffs ſhall pay ſuch Coſts, Damages, and Sum and Sums of Money, as ſhall be awarded upon or after ſuch Judgment affirmed, Diſcontinuance or Nonſuit had.

3 Lev. 275.

Proviſo touching Judgment in Dower and Ejectione firmæ.

IV. And to the End that the ſame Sum and Sums and Damages may be aſcertained, It is further enacted, That the Court wherein ſuch Execution ought to be granted upon ſuch Affirmation, Diſcontinuance or Nonſuit, ſhall iſſue a Writ to enquire as well of the mean Profits as of the Damages by any Waſte committed after the firſt Judgment in Dower or in Ejectione firmæ; and upon the Return thereof, Judgment ſhall be given, and Execution awarded for ſuch meſne Profits and Damages, and alſo for Coſts of Suit.

To what Actions this Act ſhall not extend.

V. Provided, That this Act, nor any Thing therein contained, ſhall not extend to any Writ of Error to be brought by any Executor or Adminiſtrator; (2) nor unto any Action popular, nor unto any other Action which is or hereafter ſhall be brought upon any Penal Law or Statute (except Actions of Debt for not ſetting forth of Tithes); (3) nor to any Indictment, Preſentment, Inquiſition, Information or Appeal; any Thing herein before expreſſed to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

The Continuance of this Act.

VI. Provided always, That this Act ſhall continue in Force for three Years, and to the End of the next Seſſion of Parliament after the Expiration of the ſaid three Years, and no longer. [Made perpetual by 22 & 23 Car. 2. c. 4.]

tative Church or Chapel, unto which the ſaid other Churches or Chapels or Church or Chapel ſhall be ſo united and annexed.

II. And it is hereby alſo enacted, That notwithſtanding any ſuch Union to be made by Virtue hereof, each of the Pariſhes ſo united ſhall continue diſtinct, as to all Rates, Taxes, Parochial Rites, Charges and Duties, and all other Privileges, Liberties and Reſpects whatſoever, other than what is herein before mentioned and ſpecified; and Church-wardens ſhall be elected and appointed for each Pariſh, as they were before ſuch Union made. Pariſhes ſhall remain diſtinct notwithſtanding ſuch Union of Churches. Carthew 238.

III. And it is further enacted and provided, That where one or more of the ſaid Churches or Chapels or Church and Chapel ſo united and annexed, ſhall be full at the Time of Making ſuch Union, That then the ſaid Union ſhall take Effect for every ſuch Church or Chapel, upon the firſt Avoidance after ſuch Union made: (2) And that the ſeveral Patrons of the ſaid Churches and Chapels ſo united, ſhall and may preſent by Turns to that Church only which ſhall remain and be preſentative, from Time to Time, in ſuch Order, as the ſaid Biſhop, with the Conſent of the ſaid Mayor, Aldermen and Juſtices of Peace, Bailiff or Bailiffs, or other Chief Officer or Officers within ſuch Pariſhes, or the major Part of them, and of the Patron or Patrons of ſuch Church or Churches, Chapel or Chapels, ſhall determine and decree, for the Preſervation of their reſpective Rights therein, Reſpect being therein had to the Difference of the Values of the yearly Maintenance belonging to ſuch Churches or Chapels or any of them; (3) ſaving unto the King's Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, all the Tenths and Firſt-fruits of all ſuch Churches and Chapels ſo to be united, according to the Rates and Valuations at which the ſaid Churches and Chapels are rated, and valued in the Office of Firſt-fruits and Tenths, in his Majeſty's Court of Exchequer; and alſo reſerving all Procurations and Penſions to all Perſons to whom they are now and have been formerly, or ſhall be hereafter, due and payable; any Thing herein contained notwithſtanding. IV. Provided always, That no Union of Pariſhes or Places to be made by Virtue of this Act ſhall commence or be effectual in Law, until it be regiſtred in the Regiſter-Book of the Biſhop of the Dioceſe, which the Regiſter is hereby required to do. How Unions muſt be regiſtred.

V. Provided always, That no Union made by Virtue hereof, ſhall be good and effectual, where the ſettled Maintenance belonging to the Parſons, Vicars and Incumbents of the Church or Chapel or Churches or Chapels ſo united, ſhall exceed the Sum of one hundred Pounds per Annum clear and above all Charges and Repriſes; unleſs the reſpective Pariſhioners, or the major Part of them, under their Hands deſire otherwiſe. Pariſhes having 100l. Maintenance may not be united.

VI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That every Miniſter ſettled as aforeſaid the Incumbent of any Church or Chapel, or Churches and Chapels united according to this Act, ſhall be the full and lawful Incumbent thereof to all Intents and Purpoſes, ſo as ſuch Miniſter be a Graduate in one of the Univerſities of this Kingdom. Incumbents of ſuch united Pariſhes muſt be Graduates of the Univerſity.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Owner or Proprietor, Owners or Proprietors of any Impropriation, Tithes or Portion of Tithes, in any Pariſh or Chapelry within the Kingdom of England or Dominion of Wales, is, are and ſhall be, by Virtue of this Act, inabled and impowered to give or beſtow, unite and annex the ſame, or any Part thereof, unto the Parſonage or Vicarage of the ſaid Pariſh-Church or Chapel where the ſame do lie or ariſe, or ſettle the ſame in Truſt for the Benefit of the ſaid Parſonage or Vicarage, or of the Curate and Curates there ſucceſſively, where the Parſonage is impropriate and no Vicar indowed, according to his or their reſpective Eſtates, without any Licence of Mortmain; any Law or Statute to the contrary notwithſtanding. Owners of Impropriations may beſtow and annex Maintenance to the Churches where they lie, without Licence of Mortmain.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That if the ſettled Maintenance of ſuch Parſonages, Vicarages, Churches and Chapels ſo united, or of any other Parſonage or Vicarage with Cure, in the Kingdom of England or Dominion of Wales, ſhall not amount to the full Sum of one hundred Pounds per Annum clear and above all Charges and Repriſes; That then it ſhall be lawful for the Parſon, Vicar and Incumbent of the ſame, and his Succeſſors, to take, receive and purchaſe to him and his Succeſſors, Lands, Tenements, Rents, Tithes or other Hereditaments, without any Licence of Mortmain; any Law or Statute to the contrary notwithſtanding. Parſons and Vicars not having ſettled Means of 100l. per Annum, may purchaſe and annex Lands or Rents without Licence of Mortmain.

CAP. VII.

An Act for a more ſpeedy and effectual Proceeding upon Diſtreſſes and Avowries for Rents.

32 H. 8. c. 37.

'FOraſmuch as the ordinary Remedy for Arrearages of Rents, is by Diſtreſs upon the Lands chargeable 'therewith; and yet nevertheleſs by Reaſon of the intricate and dilatory Proceedings upon Replevins, 'that Remedy is become ineffectual:'

Plaintiff in Replevin being nonſuit before Iſſue joined.

II. For Remedy thereof, It is enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, with the Advice and Aſſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by Authority of the ſame, That whenſoever any Plaintiff in Replevin ſhall be nonſuit before Iſſue joined, in any Suit of Replevin by Plaint or Writ lawfully returned, removed or depending, in any of the King's Courts at Weſtminſter, That the Defendant making a Suggeſtion in Nature of an Avowry or Cognizance for ſuch Rent, to aſcertain the Court of the Cauſe of Diſtreſs, the Court upon his Prayer ſhall award a Writ to the Sheriff of the County where the Diſtreſs was taken, to enquire by the Oaths of twelve good and lawful Men of his Bailiwick, touching the Sum in Arrear at the Time of ſuch Diſtreſs taken and the Value of the Goods or Cattle diſtrained: (2) And thereupon Notice of fifteen Days ſhall be given to the Plaintiff or his Attorney in Court, of the Sitting of ſuch Enquiry; (3) and thereupon the Sheriff ſhall inquire of of the Truth of the Matters contained in ſuch Writ, by the Oaths of twelve good and lawful Men of his County: (4) And upon the Return of ſuch Inquiſition, the Defendant ſhall have Judgment to recover againſt the Plaintiff the Arrearages of ſuch Rent, in caſe the Goods or Cattle diſtrained ſhall amount unto that Value: (5) And in caſe they ſhall not amount to that Value, then ſo much as the Value of the ſaid Goods and Cattle ſo diſtrained ſhall amount unto, together with his full Coſts of Suit; (6) and ſhall have Execution thereupon by Fieri facias or Elegit, or otherwiſe as the Law ſhall require. (7) And in caſe ſuch Plaintiff ſhall be nonſuit after Cognizance or Avowry made, and Iſſue joined, or if the Verdict ſhall be given againſt ſuch Plaintiff; then the Jurors that are impanelled or returned to inquire of ſuch Iſſue, ſhall at the Prayer of the Defendant inquire concerning the Sum of the Arrears, and the Value of the Goods or Cattle diſtrained: (8) and thereupon the Avowant, or he that makes Cognizance, ſhall have Judgment for ſuch Arrearages, or ſo much thereof as the Goods or Cattle diſtrained amount unto, together with his full Coſts, and ſhall have Execution for the ſame by Fieri facias or Elegit, or otherwiſe, as the Law ſhall require.

How the Defendant may avow.

The Plaintiff nonſuit after Avowry made, &c.

Judgment upon Demurrer for the Avowant.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if Judgment in any of the Courts aforeſaid be given upon Demurrer for the Avowant, or him that maketh Cognizance for any Rent, the Court ſhall at the Prayer of the Defendant award a Writ to inquire of the Value of ſuch Diſtreſs; (2) and upon the Return thereof Judgment ſhall be given for the Avowant, or him that makes Cognizance as aforeſaid, for the Arrears alledged to be behind in ſuch Avowry or Cognizance, if the Goods or Cattle ſo diſtrained ſhall amount to that Value; and in caſe they ſhall not amount to that Value, then for ſo much as the ſaid Goods or Cattle ſo diſtrained amount unto, together with his full Coſts of Suit, and ſhall have like Execution as aforeſaid.

Further Proviſions concerning Rents, ſee 8 Ann. c. 14. 4 Geo. 2. c. 28. and 11 Geo. 2. c. 19.

IV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That in all Caſes aforeſaid, where the Value of the Cattle diſtrained as aforeſaid, ſhall not be found to be to the full Value of the Arrears diſtrained for, that the Party to whom ſuch Arrears were due, his Executors or Adminiſtrators, may from Time to Time diſtrain again for the Reſidue of the ſaid Arears. CAP. V.

An Act for encouraging of Coinage.

Continued by 4 & 5 W. & M. c. 24.

'WHEREAS it is obvious, That the Plenty of current Coins of Gold and Silver of this Kingdom is of great Advantage to Trade and Commerce; For the Increase whereof, your Majesty in your Princely Wisdom and Care hath been graciously pleased to bear out of your Revenue Half the Charge of the Coinage of Silver Money: (2) For the preventing of which Charge to your Majesty, and the Encouragement of the bringing Gold and Silver into the Realm, to be converted into the current Money of this your Majesty's Kingdom, We your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects do give and grant unto your Majesty the Rates, Duties or Impositions following, and do beseech your Majesty that it may be enacted; (3) and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That whatsoever Person or Persons, Native or Foreigner, Alien or Stranger, shall from and after the twentieth Day of December one thousand six hundred sixty and six, bring any Foreign Coin, Plate or Bullion of Gold or Silver in Mass, Molten or Allayed, or any Sort of Manufacture of Gold or Silver, into his Majesty's Mint or Mints within the Kingdom of England, to be there melted down and coined into the current Coins of this Kingdom, shall have the same there assayed, melted down and coined with all convenient Speed, without any Defalcation, Diminution or Charge for the Assaying, Coinage or Waste in Coinage: (4) So

(4) So as that for every Pound Troy of Crown or Standard Gold that ſhall be brought in and delivered by him or them to be aſſayed, melted down and coined, as aforeſaid, there ſhall be delivered out to him or them reſpectively, a Pound Troy of the current Coins of this Kingdom, of Crown or Standard Gold: (5) And for every Pound Troy of Sterling or Standard Silver that ſhall be brought in and delivered by him or them to be aſſayed, melted down and coined, as aforeſaid, there ſhall be delivered out to him or them reſpectively, a Pound Troy of the current Coins of this Kingdom, of Sterling or Standard Silver, and ſo proportionably for a greater or leſſer Weight; (6) and for every Pound Troy of Gold or Silver that ſhall be brought in and delivered to be aſſayed, melted down and coined, as aforeſaid, that ſhall be finer upon Aſſay than Crown Gold or Standard Silver, there ſhall be delivered for the ſame ſo much more than a Pound Troy as the ſame doth in Proportion amount unto in Fineneſs and Value: (7) And for every Pound Troy of Gold or Silver that ſhall be brought in and delivered to be aſſayed, melted down and coined, as aforeſaid, that ſhall be coarſer or baſer upon Aſſay, or worſe in Value than Crown Gold or Standard Silver, there ſhall be delivered for the ſame ſo much leſs than a Pound Troy as the ſame doth fall ſhort in Fineneſs or Value, and ſo for a greater or leſſer Quantity.

II. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That there ſhall be no Preference in Point of Aſſaying or Coinage; but that all Gold and Silver brought in and delivered into the Mint, to be aſſayed and coined, ſhall be aſſayed, coined and delivered out to the reſpective Importers, according to the Order and Times of bringing in and delivering the ſame into the Mint or Mints, and not otherwiſe; ſo as he that ſhall firſt bring in and deliver any Gold or Silver to be coined, ſhall be taken and accounted the firſt Perſon to have the ſame aſſayed, coined and delivered; and he or they that ſhall bring in and deliver any Gold or Silver next, to be accounted the ſecond Perſon to have the ſame aſſayed, coined and delivered, and ſo ſucceſſively in Courſe: (2) And that the Gold and Silver brought in and coined, as aforeſaid, ſhall be in the ſame Order delivered to the reſpective Bringers in thereof, their Executors, Adminiſtrators or Aſſigns ſucceſſively, without Preference of one before the other, and not otherwiſe: (3) And if any undue Preference be made in entring of any Gold or Silver, or delivering out of any Money coined, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, by any Officer or Officers of the Mint or Mints; then the Party or Parties offending ſhall be liable by Action of Debt or on the Caſe, to pay the Value of the Gold or Silver brought in, and not entred and delivered according to the true Intent, Meaning and Direction of this Act, as aforeſaid, with Damages and Coſts to the Party or Parties grieved, and ſhall be fore-judged from his or their Place or Office: (4) And if ſuch Preference be unduly made by any his or their Deputy or Deputies, Clerk or Clerks, without Direction or Privity of his or their Maſter or Maſters, then ſuch Deputy or Deputies, Clerk or Clerks only ſhall be liable to ſuch Action, Damage and Coſts, as aforeſaid, and be for ever after incapable of ſerving or bearing Office in any Mint in the Kingdom of England.

There ſhall be no undue Preference, but Money coined ſhall be delivered out in order. See 8 W. 3. c. 1. §. 3.

Penalty.

III. Provided always, That it ſhall not be interpreted any undue Preference, to incur any Penalty, in Point of Delivery of Monies coined, if the Officer or Officers, or their Deputies or Clerks, ſhall deliver out or pay any Monies coined to any Perſon or Perſons that do come and demand the ſame upon ſubſequent Entries, before others that did not come to demand their Monies in their Order and Courſe, ſo as there be ſo much Money reſerved as will ſatisfy them, which ſhall not be otherwiſe diſpoſed of, but kept for them.

What ſhall not be an undue Preference.

IV. And for the more orderly and clear Performance thereof, be it enacted, and it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Maſter-worker of his Majeſty's Mint or Mints for the Time being, ſhall at the Time of the Delivery and Entry of any Gold or Silver in the ſaid Mint or Mints, give unto the Bringer or Bringers in thereof to be coined, a Bill under his Hand denoting the Weight, Fineneſs and Value thereof, together with the Day and Order of its Delivery into the ſaid Mint or Mints.

V. And for the further Encouragement and Aſſurance of ſuch as ſhall bring any Gold or Silver into his Majeſty's ſaid Mint or Mints to be coined; (2) Be it enacted, and it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Confiſcation, Forfeiture, Seizure, Attachment, Stop or Reſtraint whatſoever ſhall be made in the ſaid Mint or Mints, of any Gold or Silver brought in to be coined, for or by Reaſon of any Imbargo, Breach of the Peace, Letters of Mart or Repriſal, or War with any Foreign Nation, or upon any other Account or Pretence whatſoever; (3) but that all Gold and Silver brought into any of his Majeſty's Mint or Mints within the Kingdom of England to be coined, ſhall truly and with all convenient Speed be coined and delivered out to the reſpective Bringer or Bringers in thereof, their reſpective Executors, Adminiſtrators or Aſſigns, according to the Rules and Directions of this Act.

There ſhall be no Seizure or Forfeiture, &c. of any Gold or Silver brought in to be coined.

'VI. And whereas it cannot be reaſonably expected, That the Expence, Waſte and Charge in Aſſaying, Melting-down and Coinage, be born by your Majeſty;' And for the further Encouragement of Coinage; (2) Be it enacted, and it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That for every Ton of Wines, Vinegar, Cyder or Beer, that ſhall be imported or brought into the Port of London, or into any other Port, Creek or Place within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, from any Parts beyond the Seas, or Scotland, from and after the twentieth Day of December in the Year of our Lord one thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and ſix, there ſhall be levied, collected and paid the Sum of ten Shillings; (3) and for every Ton of Brandy-Wines or Strong-Waters that ſhall be imported as aboveſaid, the Sum of twenty Shillings; (4) and ſo proportionably for a greater or leſſer Quantity, to be levied, collected and paid at the reſpective Cuſtom-houſes to the Collectors and other Officers of the Cuſtoms for the Time being, at the Importation of the ſaid Commodities, over and above all other Duties charged, leviable and payable upon the ſaid Commodities, and to be by them diſtinguiſhed and kept apart from all other Monies by them collected and levied upon the ſame Commodities, or upon any other Commodities or Merchandizes whatſoever; (5) and to be by the ſaid Collector or Collectors reſpectively ſo anſwered and paid quarterly into the Receipt of the Exchequer of your Majeſty, your Heirs and Succeſſors, there alſo to be kept diſtinct and apart from all other Monies ariſing by the Cuſtoms, or by any other

VII. And be it further enacted and declared by the Authority aforeſaid, That all manner of Wines, Vinegar, Cyder, Beer, Brandy-Wines and Strong-Waters imported as aforeſaid, ſhall pay their ſeveral and reſpective Duties impoſed by this Act; and upon Non-payment thereof ſhall be liable to ſuch and the ſame Pains, Penalties and Forfeitures, as in and by the late Acts for Tonnage and Poundage, and for Frauds, are enacted and appointed, upon Non-payment of the Duties by the ſaid Acts impoſed upon Goods and Merchandizes of the ſame Nature with thoſe mentioned in this Act.

7 Geo. 1. Stat. 1. c. 21. §. 10.

VIII. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted, That for what of the aforeſaid Commodities ſhall be tranſported into any Parts beyond the Seas, within the Term and Space of one Year after the Importation thereof, that the Duty paid by this Act for the ſame ſhall be repaid by the reſpective Collectors of the Cuſtoms for the Time being.

Monies leviable upon this Act ſhall be employed only to the Uſe of the Mint.

IX. And it is hereby further enacted, That no Monies leviable and payable by this Act ſhall be applied or converted to any Uſe or Uſes whatſoever, other than to the defraying the Charge and Expence of the Mint or Mints, and of the Aſſaying, Melting-down, Waſte and Coinage of Gold and Silver, and the Encouragement of the bringing in of Gold and Silver into the ſaid Mint or Mints, there to be Coined into the current Coins of this Kingdom; (2) nor ſhall any of the ſaid Monies be iſſued out of the Exchequer, but by Order or Warrant of the Lord Treaſurer and Under Treaſurer, or Commiſſioners of the Treaſury for the Time being, to the Maſter and Worker, or Maſters and Workers of your Majeſty's Mint or Mints for the Time being, and mentioning, that they are for the Uſe and Service aforeſaid, to be kept in his Majeſty's Office of Receipt in the ſaid Mint or Mints, under the uſual Keys of the Warden, Maſter and Worker, and Comptroller for the Time being, and iſſued out thence from Time to Time, according to the Manner and Courſe of the ſaid Mint or Mints reſpectively.

Altered by 4 Ann. c. 22.

X. And it is hereby further enacted, That there ſhall not be iſſued out of the Exchequer of the ſaid Monies in any one Year for the Fees and Salaries of the Officers of the Mint or Mints, and towards the providing, maintaining and repairing of the Houſes, Offices and Buildings and other Neceſſaries for Aſſaying, Melting-down and Coining, above the Sum of three thouſand Pounds Sterling Money, and the Overplus of the ſaid Monies ſo kept or to be kept as aforeſaid, ſhall be employed for and towards the Expence, Waſte and Charge of Aſſaying, Melting-down and Coinage, and buying in of Gold and Silver to Coin, and not otherwiſe.

CAP. III.

An Act for Rebuilding the City of London.

FOraſmuch as the City of London, being the Imperial Seat of his Majeſty's Kingdoms, and renowned for Trade and Commerce throughout the World; by Reaſon of a moſt dreadful Fire lately happening therein, was for the moſt Part thereof burnt down and deſtroyed within the Compaſs of a few Days, and now lies buried in its own Ruins: For the ſpeedy Reſtauration whereof, and for the better Regulation, Uniformity and Gracefulneſs of ſuch New Buildings as ſhall be erected for Habitations in order thereunto; and to the End that great and outrageous Fires (through the Bleſſing of Almighty God) ſo far forth as human Providence (with Submiſſion to the Divine Pleaſure) can foreſee, may be reaſonably prevented or obviated for the Time to come, both by the Matter and Form of ſuch Building: And further, to the Intent that all Encouragement and Expedition may be given unto, and all Impediments and Obſtructions that may retard or protract the Undertaking or carrying on a Work ſo neceſſary, and of ſo great Honour and Importance to his Majeſty and this Kingdom, and to the Reſt of his Majeſty's Kingdoms and Dominions, may be removed:'

II. Be it therefore enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That the Rules and Directions hereafter in this Act preſcribed, be duly obſerved by all Perſons therein concerned.

Rules and Directions to be obſerved in Building.

III. And firſt, that no Building or Houſe for Habitation whatſoever be hereafter erected within the Limits of the ſaid City and Liberties thereof, but ſuch as ſhall be purſuant to ſuch Rules and Orders of Building, and with ſuch Materials, as are herein after particularly appointed, and according to ſuch Scantlings as are ſet down and preſcribed in a Table in this preſent Act hereafter ſpecified: (2) And if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall preſume to build contrary thereunto, and be convicted of the ſame by the Oaths of two or more credible Witneſſes, to be taken before the Lord Mayor for the Time being, or any two or more of the Juſtices of the Peace for the ſaid City, who are hereby impowered to adminiſter the ſame Oaths; That then and in ſuch Caſe, the ſaid Houſe ſo irregularly built as aforeſaid, ſhall be deemed as a common Nuſance; (3) and the Builder and Levier thereof ſhall enter into a Recognizance in ſuch Sum as the ſaid Mayor and Juſtices reſpectively in their Diſcretions ſhall appoint, for Abatement and Demoliſhing the ſame in convenient time, or otherwiſe to amend the ſame according to ſuch Rules and Orders as aforeſaid: And in Default of Entring into ſuch Recognizance, the Offender ſhall be committed to the common Gaol of the ſaid City, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize, till he ſhall have abated or demoliſhed, or otherwiſe amended the ſame; or elſe ſuch irregular Houſe ſhall or may be demoliſhed or abated by Order of the Court of Aldermen.

Penalty.

Prevention of irregular Buildings.

IV. And that the ſaid irregular Buildings may be the better prevented, or more effectually diſcovered; (2) Be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council of the ſaid City, ſhall and may at their Will and Pleaſure elect, nominate and appoint one or more diſcreet and intelligent Perſon or Perſons in the Art of Building, to be the Surveyors or Superviſors to ſee the ſaid Rules and Scantlings well and truly obſerved: (3) And that it ſhall be lawful for the ſaid Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council, or for the Mayor and Aldermen in their Court of Aldermen, to adminiſter to all the ſaid Surveyors or Superviſors, an Oath upon the Holy Evangeliſts, for the true and impartial Execution of their Office in that Behalf, and to appoint the ſeveral Precincts which ſhall be under their ſeveral Surveys.

There ſhall be four Sorts of Buildings only.

V. And to the End that all Builders may the better know how to provide and fit their Materials for their ſeveral Buildings; (2) Be it enacted, That there ſhall be only four Sorts of Buildings, and no more; and that all Manner of Houſes ſo to be erected, ſhall be of one of theſe four Sorts of Buildings, and no other; (that is to ſay) the firſt and leaſt Sort of Houſes fronting By-lanes; the ſecond Sort of Houſes fronting Streets and Lanes of Note; the third Sort of Houſes fronting high and principal Streets; the fourth and largeſt Sort, of Manſion-houſes, for Citizens, or other Perſons of extraordinary Quality, not fronting either of the three former Ways: And the Roofs of each of the ſaid firſt three Sorts of Houſes reſpectively, ſhall be uniform.

Powers of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council to declare Streets, Lanes, &c.

VI. And for avoiding any Uncertainty to the Builders or others herein, Be it further enacted, That the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council of the ſaid City for the Time being, ſhall on or before the firſt Day of April next enſuing, declare which and how many ſhall hereafter be accounted and taken to be By-lanes, which and how many ſhall hereafter be deemed Streets or Lanes of Note, and high and principal Streets, by Act of Common Council to be paſſed for that Purpoſe: Which Declaration being made as aforeſaid, all and ſingular the ſaid Streets and Lanes (hereby intended to be rebuilt) ſhall by Order of the ſaid Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council, or ſuch Perſons as they under the Common Seal of the ſaid City ſhall order and appoint, be marked or ſtaked out and diſtinguiſhed, to the End the Breadth, Length and Extent thereof may be the better known and obſerved. (2) And if any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever ſhall wittingly or willingly, without good Authority, pluck up or remove any of the ſaid Stakes or Mark-ſtones, thereby to obſcure or confound the Bounds of ſuch Streets or Lanes, or any of them, and ſhall be thereof legally convicted by the Oath of one Witneſs (other than of the Informer) to be taken before any one or more Juſtices of the Peace of the ſaid City; that then the ſaid Juſtice or Juſtices ſhall or may ſend ſuch Offender to the common Gaol of the ſaid City, there to remain by the Space of three Months without Bail or Mainprize, unleſs he ſhall pay or cauſe to be paid to the Uſe of the Mayor, Commonalty monalty and Citizens of the ſaid City, the Sum of ten Pounds, to be imployed in and towards the Repairing of the publick Buildings of the ſaid City. (3) Provided always, That where any ſuch Offence ſhall be committed by any Perſon or Perſons of low and mean Condition, whom the ſaid Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace ſhall in his Conſcience believe to be unable to ſatisfy the ſaid Penalties; That then and in ſuch Caſe the ſaid Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace ſhall and may, by Order and Warrant under his or their Hands and Seals, cauſe ſuch Offender to be openly whipped near unto the Place where the Offence ſhall be committed, till his Body be bloody; (4) and that it ſhall and may be lawful for the ſaid Juſtice or Juſtices of Peace to reward the ſaid Informer out of the Pecuniary Penalty to be incurred, according to his Diſcretion, not exceeding a third Part of the ſaid Penalty.

Building with Brick, Stone, Oak.

'VII. And in regard the Building with Brick is not only more comely and durable, but alſo more ſafe 'againſt future Perils of Fire;' (2) Be it further enacted by and with the Authority aforeſaid, That all the Outſides of all Buildings in and about the ſaid City be henceforth made of Brick or Stone, or of Brick and Stone together, except Door-caſes and Window-frames, the Breſt Summers, and other Parts of the firſt Story to the Front, between the Piers, which are to be left to the Diſcretion of the Builder, to uſe ſubſtantial Oaken Timber inſtead of Brick or Stone, for Conveniency of Shops; and that the ſaid Doors, Breſt Summers and Window-frames be ſufficiently diſcharged of the Burthen of the Fabrick by Arch-work of Brick or Stone, either ſtraight or circular.

The Duty of the Surveyors and Supervifors.

VIII. And be it enacted, That the ſaid Surveyors or Superviſors ſo to be appointed as aforeſaid, and every of them, within their ſeveral Precincts, ſhall take care, that in Building of all Houſes within the ſaid City and Liberties thereof, there be, and it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That there ſhall be Party-walls and Party-piers, ſet out equally on each Builder's Ground, to be built up by the firſt Beginner of ſuch Building; and that convenient Toothing be left in the Front-wall by the ſaid firſt Builder, for the better joining of the next Houſe that ſhall be built to the ſame: (2) And that no Man be permitted by the ſaid Surveyors, to build on the ſaid Party-wall, or on his own contiguous Ground, until he hath fully reimburſed the ſaid firſt Builder the full Moiety of the Charges of the ſaid Party-wall and Pier, together with Intereſt for the ſame, after the Rate of ſix Pounds per Cent. per Annum, for Forbearance thereof, to be accounted from the Beginning of the ſaid firſt Building. (3) And in Caſe any Difference ſhall ariſe between the firſt and latter Builders, concerning the true Value of the ſaid Charge, That then the ſame be referred to the Alderman of that Ward where ſuch Buildings ſhall be, and to his Deputy, to mediate an Agreement of ſuch Difference; and where the ſaid Alderman and his Deputy, or one of them, ſhall be Parties, or where they cannot compoſe ſuch Difference as aforeſaid, that the Matter be referred to the Examination of the Lord Mayor and Court of Aldermen, who ſhall hear and finally determine the ſame, without any Appeal to be had.

Who may determine Differences between firſt and later Builders.

Houſes of the firſt and leaſt Sort of Building.

IX. And be it further enacted, That the ſaid Houſes of the firſt and leaſt Sort of Building, fronting By-ſtreets or Lanes as aforeſaid, ſhall be of two Stories high, beſides Cellars and Garrets; that the Cellars thereof be ſix Foot and a Half high, if the Springs of Water hinder not; that the firſt Story be nine Foot high from the Floor to the Cieling, and the ſecond Story nine Foot high from the Floor to the Cieling; that all Walls in Front and Reer, as high as the firſt Story, be of the full Thickneſs of the Length of two Bricks, and thence upwards to the Garrets, of the Thickneſs of one Brick and an Half; and that the Thickneſs of the Garret-walls on the back Part be left to the Diſcretion of the Builder, ſo that the ſame be not leſs than the Length of one Brick; and alſo that the Thickneſs of the Party-walls between theſe Houſes of this firſt and leſſer Sort of Buildings, be one Brick and an Half, as high as the ſaid Garrets; and that the Thickneſs of the Party-walls in the Garrets be of the Thickneſs of one Brick in Length at the leaſt; and that the Scantlings of Timber and Stone to be uſed about the Building thereof, be as in the ſaid Table are ſet down and preſcribed.

Houſes of the ſecond Sort of Building.

X. And be it further enacted, That the ſaid Houſes of the ſecond Sort of Building, fronting Streets and Lanes of Note, and the River of Thames, ſhall conſiſt of three Stories high, beſides Cellars and Garrets, as aforeſaid; that the Cellars thereof be ſix Foot and an Half high (if the Springs of Water hinder not;) that the firſt Story contain full ten Foot in Height from the Floor to the Cieling; the ſecond, full ten Foot; the third, nine Foot: (2) That all the ſaid Walls in Front and Reer, as high as the firſt Story, be of the full Thickneſs of the Length of two Bricks and an Half, and from thence upwards to the Garret-floor of the Thickneſs of one Brick and an Half; and that the Thickneſs of the Garret-walls on the back Part be left to the Diſcretion of the Builder, ſo that the ſame be not leſs than the Length of one Brick; (3) and alſo that the Thickneſs of the Party-walls between every Houſe of this ſecond and larger Sort of Building, be two Bricks Length as high as the firſt Story, and thence upwards to the Garrets of the Thickneſs of one Brick and an Half: The Scantlings of Timber and Stone to be as in the ſaid Table are preſcribed.

Houſes of the third Sort of Building.

XI. Alſo that the Houſes of the third Sort of Building, fronting the high and principal Streets, ſhall conſiſt of four Stories high, beſides Cellars and Garrets, as aforeſaid; that the firſt Story contain full ten Foot in Height from the Floor to the Cieling; the ſecond, ten Foot and an Half; the third, nine Foot; the fourth, eight Foot and an Half: (2) That all the ſaid Walls in Front and Reer, as high as the firſt Story, be of the full Thickneſs of the Length of two Bricks and an Half, and from thence upwards to the Garret-floor of the Thickneſs of one Brick and Half; that the Thickneſs of the Garret-walls on the back Part be left to the Diſcretion of the Builder, ſo as the ſame be not leſs than the Length of one Brick; (3) and alſo that the Thickneſs of the Party-walls between every Houſe of this third and larger Sort of Building, be two Bricks Lengths as high as the firſt Story, and thence upwards to the Garrets, of the Thickneſs of one Brick and an Half: The Scantlings of Timber and Stone to be as in the ſaid Table are preſcribed.

Houſes of the fourth Sort of Building.

XII. And be it further enacted, That all Houſes of the fourth Sort of Building, being Manſion-houſes, and of the greateſt Bigneſs, not fronting upon any of the Streets or Lanes as aforeſaid, ſhall bear the ſame Scantlings as in the Table are ſet down for the ſame; and that the Number of Stories, and the Height thereof, be left to the Diſcretion of the Builder, ſo as he exceed not four Stories.

Fronts of Houſes in high Streets, Balconies.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That in the Front of all Houſes hereafter to be erected in any ſuch Streets as by Act of Common-Council ſhall be declared to be high Streets, Balconies four Foot broad, with Rails and Bars of Iron, of equal Diſtance from the Ground, ſhall be placed; every of which Balconies ſhall contain in Length two Parts of the Front of the Houſe on which it ſhall be placed, in three Parts to be divided, and the remaining Vacancy of the Front ſhall be ſupplied with a Pent-houſe of the Breadth of the Balcony, to be covered with Lead, Slate or Tile, and to be cieled with Plaiſtering underneath, and that the Water falling as well from the Tops of the ſaid Houſes, as from the ſaid Balconies and Pent-houſes, be conveyed into the Channels by Party-pipes on the Sides or Fronts of the ſaid Houſes; and that Pavements under every of the ſaid Balconies and Pent-houſes be made of good and ſufficient broad flat Stone, at the Charge of the Builder.

How Houſes fronting on high Streets ſhall be built.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That no Builder of any of the Houſes fronting any of the ſaid high Streets, Streets or Lanes of Note, be permitted to lay his firſt Floor over the Cellar more than eighteen Inches above the ſaid Streets, or leſs than ſix, with one circular Step to lead up thereunto, to be placed without the Building; and that no Trap-doors or open Grates be in any wiſe ſuffered to be made into any ſuch Cellar or Warehouſe without the Foundations of the Front, but that all Lights to be made into any of them, be henceforth made upright and not otherwiſe: (2) And that no Bulks, Jetties, Windows, Poſts, Seats or any Thing of like Sort ſhall be made or erected in any Streets, Lanes or By-lanes, to extend beyond the ancient Foundation of Houſes; nor that any Houſe be ſet further into the Street than the ancient Foundation; ſaving only that in the high and principal Streets it ſhall be lawful for the Inhabitants to ſuffer their Stall-boards (when their Shop-windows are ſet open) to turn over, and extend eleven Inches and no more, from the Foundation of their Houſes into the Streets, for the better Conveniency of their Shop-windows.

Within what Time all Perſons are to rebuild their Houſes.

XV. And be it further enacted, That if any Perſon or Perſons, Bodies Politick or Corporate, being ſeiſed, poſſeſſed or intereſted, of or in any Ground which was formerly builded upon, and the Houſes thereupon being now burned or pulled down at the Time of the late Fire, ſhall not within three Years next enſuing build up the ſame; That then the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council of the City of London, by Act of Common Council, may cauſe Proclamation to be publickly made between the Hours of Twelve and Two of the Clock in the Afternoon, as well at or upon the ſaid Ground, as alſo at or upon the publick Exchange of the ſaid City, thereby to give Notice to all Perſons that ſhall be or may be therein concerned, to cauſe the ſame to be rebuilded, according to the Direction of this preſent Act, within the Space of nine Months then next following: (2) And in caſe the Owners thereof or other Perſon or Perſons having Intereſt therein, ſhall refuſe or neglect to rebuild the ſame, in Manner and within ſuch Time as aforeſaid, That then in ſuch Caſe the ſaid Mayor and Court of Aldermen of the ſaid City are hereby authorized, to iſſue out Warrants to the Sheriffs of London for the Time being, requiring them to impanel and return before them a Jury of good and lawful Men of the ſaid City; which the ſaid Sheriffs are hereby authorized and required to do accordingly; (3) which Jury ſo returned ſhall upon their Oaths, to be adminiſtred to them by the ſaid Mayor and Court of Aldermen (who are likewiſe hereby authorized to adminiſter the ſame) enquire, eſtimate and aſſeſs the true and juſt Value of ſuch void Ground, according to their Judgments: And that from and after ſuch Inquiry and Valuation thereof made as aforeſaid, by Inqueſt of the ſaid Jury, It ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council of the ſaid City, to make Sale of the Fee or Inheritance thereof, by Conveyance under their Common Seal, to any Perſon or Perſons that will purchaſe the ſame, at ſuch Price at which the ſame ſhall have been ſo as aforeſaid eſtimated and valued by the ſaid Jury; and the Monies thereupon to be received of the Purchaſers thereof, ſhall be paid into the Chamber of London, and from thence to be iſſued out and paid by the Chamberlain of London for the Time being, unto ſuch Perſon or Perſons who ſhall have any Eſtate or Intereſt into or out of the ſame, according to his or their reſpective Eſtate or Eſtates, Title or Intereſt: (4) which Sale ſo made and inrolled of Record, according to the Cuſtom or Uſage of the ſaid City for Inrollment of Bargains and Sales, ſhall be final and concluſive to all other Perſons whatſoever, and ſhall bar them, their Heirs and Aſſigns, to claim any Eſtate, Right, Title or Intereſt of, in or out of the Grounds ſo ſold, precedent to the ſaid Sale; and the Purchaſer or Purchaſers thereof, his and their Heirs and Aſſigns, ſhall and may by Virtue of this Act have, hold and enjoy the ſame againſt all Perſons claiming any Eſtate, Right, Title or Intereſt into or out of the ſame, his and their Heirs, Executors, Adminiſtrators and Aſſigns, freed and diſcharged of and from all Incumbrances in Eſtate, Title, Charge or otherwiſe, precedent to the ſaid Sale.

Penalty.

Who may (in caſe of unreaſonable Exactions) ſet Rates upon Materials and Workmen.

XVI. And to the End the ſaid Builders may receive due Encouragement, by having the Materials for Building at reaſonable Prices, and getting of Workmen for moderate Wages, (2) Be it further enacted, That in caſe of Combination or unreaſonable Exaction by Brick-makers, Tile-makers and Lime-burners, It ſhall and may be lawful for the Juſtices of the Court of King's Bench, or any two or more of them, upon the Complaint of the ſaid Mayor and Court of Aldermen, to call before them ſuch a Number of Brick-makers, Tile-makers, and Lime-burners, making or burning Brick, Tile or Lime at any Place within five Miles Diſtance of the River of Thames, as they ſhall think fit; and upon Conference with them had concerning the Premiſſes, if they will be preſent or otherwiſe in their Abſence, to aſſeſs ſuch reaſonable Prices from Time to Time upon every thouſand of the ſaid Bricks and Tiles, and upon every Hundred of the ſaid Lime, and every greater or leſſer Quantity, to be delivered at the ſeveral Kilns; and alſo of all Carriages of the ſame Materials from the ſaid Kilns to the ſaid City, whether by Land or by Water, as may equally reſpect the honeſt Profit of the ſaid Brick-makers, Tile-makers, Lime-burners and Carriers, and the Neceſſity and Conveniency of the Builder.

Labourers Wages.

XVII. And to the Intent no Brick-maker, Tile-maker, Lime-burner, Carpenter, Bricklayer, Maſon Plaiſterer, Joyner, Plumber or other Artificer, Workman or Labourer, may make the common Calamity a Pretence to extort unreaſonable or exceſſive Wages, (2) Be it likewiſe enacted, That in caſe of Combination or Exaction of unreaſonable Wages by the ſaid Artificers, Workmen or Labourers, or any of them the ſaid Juſtices of the Court of King's Bench, or any two or more of them, upon the like Complaint o the ſaid Lord Mayor and Court of Aldermen, ſhall and may from Time to Time limit, rate and appoint the Wages of the ſaid Artificers, Workmen and Labourers, by the Day, Week or otherwiſe, and wha Wages every of the ſaid Workmen ſhall have by the Great, by the Foot, Yard, Rod or Perch, or for any greater Quantity; which ſaid Rates, together with the Prices of the ſaid Materials and Carriages ſo aſſeſſed, being ſet down in a Table, and Proclamation thereof made by the Lord Mayor for the Time being accordingly, the ſame ſhall effectually bind all Perſons therein concerned: (3) And if any of the ſaid Artificers refuſe to ſell the ſaid Materials for the Prices ſo aſſeſſed, or any of the ſaid Carpenters, Bricklayers, Maſons, Plaiſterers, Joyners, Plumbers, or other Workmen or Labourers, ſhall either refuſe to work for the Wages ſo aſſeſſed, or ſhall depart from his ſaid Work after he hath undertaken to do the ſame, without Licence of ſuch Perſon or Perſons as imployed him, and before it be finiſhed, unleſs it be for Nonpayment of his Hire, or other juſt Cauſe to be allowed before one Juſtice of the Peace of ſuch Place where the Offence ſhall be committed; or if any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever ſhall by any ſecret Ways or Means give, covenant, article or agree to give, directly or indirectly, by himſelf or any other for him, any other or greater Wages, Prices or other Commodities than ſhall be ſo aſſeſſed; the ſaid Offender and Offenders, being hereof legally convict by the Oaths of one or more Witneſſes, which Oath the ſaid Juſtice is hereby impowered to adminiſter, ſhall be by the ſaid Juſtice of the Peace forthwith committed to the Common Gaol, there to remain by the Space of one Month, without Bail or Mainprize, unleſs he ſhall pay or cauſe to be paid for every ſuch Offence to the ſaid Juſtice of the Peace, ſuch Fine as by the Diſcretion of the ſaid Juſtice ſhall be ſet upon any ſuch Offender, not exceeding ten Pounds: Out of which Fine the ſaid Juſtice ſhall and may award and pay unto the Party injured ſuch Satisfaction as he ſhall judge reaſonable, and the Reſidue thereof ſhall pay unto the Chamberlain of London for the Time being, to be imployed for and towards the Re-edifying of the publick Buildings of the City aforeſaid.

Foreigners may as Freemen work in London.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That all Carpenters, Bricklayers, Maſons, Plaiſterers, Joyners and other Artificers, Workmen and Labourers, to be imployed in the ſaid Buildings, who are not Freemen of the ſaid City, ſhall for the Space of ſeven Years next enſuing, and for ſo long Time after as until the ſaid Buildings ſhall be fully finiſhed, have and enjoy ſuch and the ſame Liberty of working, and being ſet to work in the ſaid Building, as the Freemen of the City of the ſame Trades and Profeſſions have and ought to enjoy; any Uſage or Cuſtom of the City to the contrary notwithſtanding. (2) And that ſuch Artificers, as aforeſaid, which for the Space of ſeven Years ſhall have wrought in the Rebuilding of the City in their reſpective Arts, ſhall from and after the ſaid ſeven Years have and enjoy the ſame Liberty to work as Freemen of the ſaid City, for and during their natural Lives. Provided always, That ſuch Artificers claiming ſuch Privileges, ſhall be liable to undergo all ſuch Offices, and to pay and perform ſuch Duties in Reference to the Service and Government of the City, as Freemen of the City of their reſpective Arts and Trades are liable to undergo, pay and perform.

Who may determine Differences between Builders about ſtopping Lights, &c.

XIX. And to remove all Obſtacles which otherwiſe may hinder ſo good and profitable a Work; (2) Be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Differences ariſing between the ſaid Builders, or any others, concerning placing and ſtopping up of Lights, Windows, Water-courſes or Gutters, which may hinder or retard the ſaid Building, ſhall and may be heard, mediated and determined (if it may be) by the Alderman of the Ward where the Cauſe of any ſuch Difference ſhall ariſe, and his Deputy; and if either the ſaid Alderman or his Deputy be concerned as Parties in the Controverſy, or that they cannot determine the ſaid Differences, that then and in every ſuch Caſe the ſame be certified by the ſaid Alderman or his Deputy unconcerned therein, to the ſaid Mayor and Court of Aldermen, who upon deliberate Hearing of all Parties, ſhall finally determine the ſame without further or other Appeal.

Common Sewers, Dreins and Vaults, &c. This Clauſe made perpetual by 22 & 23 Car. 2. c. 17. Power of Perſons appointed in Purſuance of this Act, inlarged by 7 Ann. c. 9.

XX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Numbers and Places for all Common Sewers, Dreins and Vaults, and the Order and Manner of Paving and Pitching the Streets and Lanes within the ſaid City and Liberties thereof, ſhall be deſigned and ſet out by ſuch and ſo many Perſons as the ſaid Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty in Common Council aſſembled, ſhall from Time to Time authorize and appoint under their Common Seal, or the more Part of them; (2) which ſaid Perſons ſo authorized and appointed, or any ſeven or more of them, together with the ſaid Surveyors, or ſome or one of them, within his or their Precinct reſpectively, ſhall at their Meeting have Power and Authority to order and direct the Making of any new Vaults, Dreins and Sewers, or to cut into any Drein or Sewer already made, and for the Altering, Enlarging, Amending, Cleanſing and Scouring of any old Vaults, Sinks or Common Sewers: (3) For the better Effecting whereof, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid Perſons ſo authorized and appointed, as aforeſaid, or any ſeven or more of them, at their ſaid Meeting, to impoſe any reaſonable Tax upon all Houſes within the ſaid City and Liberties thereof, in Proportion to the Benefit they ſhall receive thereby, for and towards the New-making, Cutting, Altering, Enlarging, Amending, Cleanſing and Scouring all and ſingular the ſaid Vaults, Dreins, Sewers, Pavements and Pitching aforeſaid: (4) And in Default of Payment of the ſaid Sums ſo to be charged, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid Perſons ſo authorized as aforeſaid, or any ſeven or more of them, by Order and Warrant under their Hands and Seals, to levy the ſaid Sum and Sums of Money ſo aſſeſſed, by Diſtreſs and Sale of the Goods of the Party chargeable therewith, and refuſing or neglecting to pay the ſame, rendring the Overplus (if any be.) (5) And that all other Commiſſioners whatſoever be altogether ſuſpended to intermeddle in the Premiſſes within the ſaid City and Liberties thereof, for the Space of ſeven Years next, and for ſo long after until the ſaid intended Buildings ſhall be fully finiſhed; any Law or Statute to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

XXI. And

XXI. And be it further enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council of the ſaid City from Time to Time, to prohibit ſuch Trades and Occupations as they ſhall judge noiſom or perillous in reſpect of Fire, to be uſed or exerciſed in the high or principal Streets of the ſaid City. Noiſom Trades prohibited in the high Streets.

'XXII. And foraſmuch as the Freedom and Openneſs of the Streets conduceth much to the Advancement of Trade, and Ornament of the City;' (2) Be it further enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty, by Order of Common Council in that Behalf to be made from Time to Time, and at their Will and Pleaſure, to remove out of any of the high Streets all or any of the Conduits now ſtanding or hereafter to be erected, and to ſet up and to erect the ſame in ſuch other publick Places within the ſaid City as they ſhall think fit, or to contract the ſame into any ſmaller or leſſer Compaſs in the Places where they now ſtand, or hereafter ſhall be erected, as aforeſaid, according to their Diſcretions. Removing of Conduits in high Streets.

'XXIII. And whereas many ancient Streets and Paſſages within the ſaid City and Liberties thereof, and amongſt others thoſe which are hereafter mentioned, were narrow and incommodious for Carriages and Paſſengers, and prejudicial to the Trade and Health of the Inhabitants, and are neceſſary to be inlarged, as well for the Convenience, as Ornament of the City;' (2) Be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Mayor, Aldermen and Commons of the ſaid City for the Time being, in Common Council aſſembled, ſhall and may, and are hereby impowered and required to inlarge all and every the Streets and Places hereafter mentioned, where and in ſuch Manner as there ſhall be Cauſe, by and with the Approbation of his Majeſty, and not otherwiſe: That is to ſay, the Street called Fleet-ſtreet, from the Place where the Greyhound Tavern ſtood, to Ludgate, and from thence to St. Paul's Church-yard; the Street leading from the Eaſt-end of St. Paul's Church into Cheapſide; the Street and Paſſage at the Eaſt-end of Cheapſide, leading into the Poultry; the Street and Paſſage out of the Poultry, leading into the Weſt-end of Cornhill, at or near the Place late called the Stocks; the Street called Blowbladder-ſtreet, leading from the Weſt-end of Cheapſide towards Newgate-Market; and to inlarge the Street and Paſſage from thence towards Newgate-Market, by laying the Ground where the Middle-Row in the Shambles there lately ſtood, into the ſaid Street; and in like Manner to inlarge the Paſſage from Newgate-Market towards Newgate, by laying the Ground of the late four Houſes between Warwick-lane End in Newgate-Market, and the late Bell Inn there, into the Street; and in like Manner to inlarge, as there ſhall be Cauſe, the Lane called Ave-maria-lane, leading from Pater-noſter-row to Ludgate-ſtreet; and the Street or Paſſage at the End of St. Martin's le Grand towards Blowbladder-ſtreet aforeſaid; and alſo the Paſſage from St. Magnus Church to the Conduit in Gracious-ſtreet, and the North-end of Gracious-ſtreet; and alſo Thames-ſtreet, from the Weſt Corner of St. Magnus Church aforeſaid, to the Tower-Dock; and to inlarge Old-Fiſh-ſtreet, by laying the Middle-Row there into the Street. What Streets may be opened and inlarged.

XXIV. And the ſaid Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council alſo ſhall and may by Virtue of this preſent Act, inlarge and make wider any other ſuch ſtrait and narrow Paſſages within the ſaid City, as are leſs than fourteen Foot in Breadth; ſo as Notice be given to the Owners or Parties intereſted in the Ground to be ſo taken for the Inlarging thereof, on or before the firſt Day of May next enſuing: (2) And are and ſhall be alſo further enabled by Virtue of this Act, to make or cauſe to be made a new Street leading and extending from the Guild-hall of the ſaid City into Cheapſide, the ſame to be of ſuch Breadth and Wideneſs as they ſhall judge meet and convenient.

XXV. And to the End that reaſonable Satisfaction may be given for all ſuch Ground as ſhall be taken and imployed for the Uſes aforeſaid; the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council ſhall and may treat and agree with the Owners and others intereſted therein: And if there ſhall be any Perſons, Bodies Corporate or Collegiate, that ſhall wilfully refuſe to treat and agree, as aforeſaid, or through any Diſability by Nonage, Coverture, or eſpecial Entail or other Impediment, cannot; that in ſuch Caſes, the ſaid Lord Mayor and Court of Aldermen are hereby authorized by Virtue of this Act to iſſue out a Warrant or Warrants to the Sheriffs of London, who are hereby required accordingly to impanel and return a Jury before the ſaid Lord Mayor and Court of Aldermen: (2) Which Jury upon their Oaths to be adminiſtred by the ſaid Lord Mayor and Court of Aldermen, are to inquire and aſſeſs ſuch Damage and Recompence as they ſhall judge fit to be awarded to the Owners, and others intereſted, according to their ſeveral and reſpective Intereſts and Eſtates of and in any ſuch Houſes or Ground, or any Part thereof, for their reſpective Intereſts and Eſtates in the ſame, as by the ſaid Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Commons in Common Council aſſembled, ſhall be adjudged fit to be converted for the Purpoſes aforeſaid: (3) And ſuch Verdict of the Jury, and Judgment of the ſaid Lord Mayor and Court of Aldermen thereupon, and the Payment of the Sum or Sums of Money ſo awarded or adjudged to the Owners, and others having Eſtate or Intereſt, or Tender and Refuſal thereof, ſhall be binding to all Intents and Purpoſes againſt the ſaid Parties, their Heirs, Executors, Adminiſtrators and Aſſigns, and others claiming any Title or Intereſt in the ſaid Houſes or Ground, and ſhall be a full Authority for the ſaid Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Commons, to cauſe the ſame to be converted and uſed for the Purpoſes aforeſaid. Satisfaction to be made for Ground.

'XXVI. And foraſmuch as the Houſes now remaining, and to be rebuilt, will receive more or leſs Advantage in the Value of the Rents, by the Liberty of Air, and free Recourſe for Trade, and other Conveniencies by ſuch Regulation and Inlargement;' (2) It is alſo enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in Caſe of Refuſal or Incapacity, as aforeſaid, of the Owners, or others intereſted of or in the ſaid Houſes, to agree and compound with the ſaid Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Commons for the ſame, thereupon a Jury ſhall and may be impanelled in Manner and Form aforeſaid, to judge and aſſeſs upon the Owners, and others intereſted of and in ſuch Houſes, ſuch competent Sum and Sums of Money, with reſpect to their ſeveral Intereſts, in Conſideration of ſuch Improvement and Melioration, as in Reaſon and good Conſcience they ſhall think fit: (3) And all Sums of Money that ſhall be ſo aſſeſſed and raiſed as aforeſaid, ſhall be paid to the Chamberlain of the City of London for the Time being; who is hereby enabled from Time to Houſes which ſhall be bettered in Value.

Time to receive and recover the ſame by Action at Law, and whoſe Receipt ſhall be a good Diſcharge to ſuch Owners, or others intereſted; and who is hereby appointed to receive and pay, and be accountable for the ſame, according to ſuch Directions as ſhall from Time to Time be given him by the ſaid Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Commons: (4) And the Money ſo raiſed, ſhall be wholly imployed towards Payment and Satisfaction of ſuch Houſes and Ground as ſhall be converted into Streets, Paſſages, Markets, and other publick Places aforeſaid: (5) And ſuch Satisfaction ſo given, or tendred and refuſed, as aforeſaid, ſhall diveſt the Propriety, Eſtate and Intereſt of the reſpective Owners, and others having Intereſt of and in ſuch Parcels of Ground ſo to be taken and imployed for the Uſes aforeſaid, by Virtue of this Act: Which ſhall be and are hereby actually ſettled and inveſted in the ſaid Lord Mayor, Commonalty and Citizens of the City of London, and their Succeſſors, in like Manner as other the common Streets and Highways within the ſaid City.

Who may hear and determine Differences of ſeveral Claims of Eſtates.

XXVII. And in Caſe any Controverſies or Differences ſhall happen to ariſe between ſeveral Perſons that ſhall claim ſeveral Eſtates or Intereſts into or out of any Grounds to be ſold by the ſaid Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council, or by them to be taken and diſpoſed of by Virtue and in Purſuance of this Act to and for the Uſes aforeſaid; that then the Juſtices of the Courts of King's Bench and Common Pleas, and Barons of the Coif of the Exchequer for the Time being, or any three or more of them, ſhall be and are hereby authorized to hear, and finally to order and determine the ſame in a ſummary Way of Proceeding, and without the Formalities or ordinary Courſe of Proceedings uſed in any the ſaid Courts, to order and award ſuch Diſtribution to be made of the Money thereby ariſing, for the ſatisfying of ſuch ſeveral Intereſts and Claims as to them ſhall ſeem juſt and reaſonable, according to the reſpective Eſtate or Eſtates, Title or Intereſts of the Perſon or Perſons making Claim thereunto; according to which Order and Diſtribution to be made and appointed by the ſaid Juſtices and Barons, or any three or more of them, the ſaid Purchaſe-Money ſhall be ſatisfied and paid by the ſaid Chamberlain to the ſaid ſeveral Perſons reſpectively.

The ſecond of September appointed a Day of Humiliation in the City yearly for ever.

'XXVIII. And that the ſaid Citizens and their Succeſſors for all the Time to come, may retain the Memorial of ſo ſad a Deſolation, and reflect ſeriouſly upon their manifold Iniquities, which are the unhappy Cauſes of ſuch Judgments;' (2) Be it further enacted, That the ſecond Day of September (unleſs the ſame happen to be Sunday, and if ſo, then the next Day following) be yearly for ever hereafter obſerved as a Day of publick Faſting and Humiliation within the ſaid City and Liberties thereof, to implore the Mercies of Almighty God upon the ſaid City, to make devout Prayer and Supplication unto him, to divert the like Calamity for the Time to come.

A Pillar to be ſet up in Memory of the Fire.

XXIX. And the better to preſerve the Memory of this dreadful Viſitation, Be it further enacted, That a Column or Pillar of Braſs or Stone, be erected on, or as near unto, the Place where the ſaid Fire ſo unhappily began, as conveniently may be, in perpetual Remembrance thereof, with ſuch Inſcription thereon, as hereafter by the Mayor and Court of Alermen in that Behalf be directed.

Tender of Money at the Aſſurance Office, or at the Royal Exchange.

XXX. And be it enacted, and it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Tender of Money or Payment thereof, which by any Bonds, Covenants or other Obligations or Aſſurance whatſoever ought to be made in the late Aſſurance-Office, or in any other Place on the late Royal Exchange, London, ſhall or may be made at or in the preſent Aſſurance-Office in Greſham-houſe; and ſhall be as valid and legal to all Intents and Purpoſes, and diſcharge the Obligor as fully and amply, as if they had been made in the firſt intended Place on the ſaid Royal Exchange.

Pariſh Churches to be rebuilded.

XXXI. And it is hereby further enacted, That the Pariſh Churches to be rebuilded within the ſaid City of London, in Lieu of thoſe which were demoliſhed by the late Fire, ſhall not exceed the Number of thirty-nine; which ſhall be ſet out and appointed by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lord Archbiſhop of Canterbury, and the Biſhop of London for the Time being.

Sites and Materials of Churches to be ſold, and how employed.

XXXII. Provided alſo, and be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Sites and Materials of ſuch Churches as by this Bill are not intended to be rebuilt, together with the Church-yards belonging to ſuch Churches, ſhall be and are hereby veſted in the Lord Mayor and Aldermen of the City of London for the Time being; to the End ſo much of the ſaid Ground as ſhall not upon the rebuilding of the ſaid City, be laid into the Streets, be ſold and diſpoſed of by the ſaid Lord Mayor and Aldermen, or the major Part of them for the Time being, with the Conſent of the Archbiſhop of Canterbury, and Biſhop of London for the Time being; (2) and the Money raiſed by ſuch Sale ſhall be by the ſaid Mayor and Aldermen, or the major Part of them, with the Conſent of the ſaid Archbiſhop and Biſhop, diſpoſed of and employed for and towards the rebuilding of ſuch Pariſh Churches as by this Act are intended to be rebuilt, and for no other Uſe or Purpoſe whatſoever.

St. Paul's, St. Faith's, St. Gregory's Churches.

XXXIII. Provided always, That any Thing in this Act contained, ſhall not extend or be taken to veſt or ſettle the Church of St. Paul, and St. Faiths, or any Part thereof, or the Church of St. Gregory's by St. Paul's, or any of them, or the Church-yards to any of them belonging or appertaining, in the Mayor, Aldermen and Commons of the City of London, or any of them; any Thing in this Act notwithſtanding.

Thames-ſtreet.

XXXIV. And be it enacted, That for the preventing Inundations, and for Eaſineſs of Aſcent, the Street called Thames-Street, and all the Ground between the ſaid Street and the River of Thames, ſhall be raiſed and made higher by three Foot at the leaſt above the Surface of the Ground as now it lieth.

XXXV. Provided alſo, and it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Houſe, Outhouſe or other Building whatſoever (Cranes and Sheds for preſent Uſe only excepted) ſhall be built or erected within the Diſtance of forty Foot of ſuch Part of any Wall, Key or Wharf, as bounds the River of Thames, from Tower-Wharf to London-Bridge, and from London Bridge to the Temple-Stairs; (2) nor any Houſe, Out-Houſe or other Buildings (Cranes only excepted) be built or erected within the Diſtance of threeſcore and ten Foot of the middle of any Part of the Common Sewers, commonly called or known by the Names of Bridewell-Dock, Fleet-Ditch and Turnmill-Brook, from the River of Thames to Clerkenwell, upon either Side of them; before the four and twentieth Day of March, which ſhall be in the Year of our Lord one thouſand ſix hundred ſixty-eight.

XXXVI. And for the further enabling of the ſaid Mayor and Commonalty, and Citizens of the ſaid City of London, and their Succeſſors, to perform and accompliſh the Works in this Act mentioned; (2) Be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That for all Sorts of Coals, which from and after the four and twentieth Day of June one thouſand ſix hundred ſixty-ſeven, and before the four and twentieth Day of June one thouſand ſix hundred ſeventy-ſeven, ſhall be imported and brought into the Port of the City of London, or the River of Thames within the Liberty of the ſaid City of London, upon the ſame River, to be ſold by the Chaldron or Ton, there ſhall be paid by way of Impoſition thereupon, (over and beſides all other Impoſitions and Duties due and payable for any ſort of the ſaid Coals, by Virtue of any Law or Statute now in Force) according to the Rates hereafter mentioned; that is to ſay, For ſuch ſorts of Coals as are uſually ſold by the Chaldron, for every Chaldron thereof containing thirty-ſix Buſhels Wincheſter Meaſure, the Sum of twelve Pence; and for all ſuch ſorts of Coals as are ſold by the Ton, for every Ton thereof containing twenty hundred Weight, the like Sum of twelve Pence; (3) which ſaid Impoſition of twelve Pence for every Chaldron or Ton of Coals, ſhall from Time to Time during the Term aforeſaid be anſwered and paid unto the ſaid Mayor, Commonalty and Citizens, and their Succeſſors, or to their Deputy or Deputies, Officers or Aſſigns, by the Maſter, Owner or Owners, or other Perſon or Perſons taking Charge of any Ship or Veſſel whereupon the ſame ſhall be laden, before they ſhall break Bulk, or have a Meter aſſigned for the meaſuring or weighing of any Coals aforeſaid, to be delivered from on Board any ſuch Ship or Veſſel; the ſame to be paid at ſuch Place or Places, as by the ſaid Mayor and Court of Aldermen ſhall from Time to Time be appointed for the Receipt thereof; upon Receipt whereof, the Party appointed to receive the ſame ſhall without Delay, Fee or Reward, deliver a Receipt to the Perſon or Perſons who ſhall pay the ſaid Duty, which Receipt ſhall for ſo much be a ſufficient Diſcharge. An Impoſition upon Coals.

XXXVII. And to the End that the ſaid Impoſition may be duly anſwered and paid without Fraud or Covin, and for the better Levying and Collecting thereof, and for Diſcovery of the juſt Quantities of all ſorts of Coals to be imported as aforeſaid: (2) Be it further enacted by Authority aforeſaid, That the Coal-meters for the City of London, appointed or to be appointed, and every of them, and their reſpective Deputies, in their Turn and Courſe of Attendance reſpectively, ſo ſoon as any Ship or Veſſel freight with Coals ſhall be unladen, ſhall forthwith deliver a true Certificate in Writing, unto the Deputy or Deputies, Officers or Aſſigns of the ſaid Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens, who ſhall be appointed to receive the ſaid Impoſition, of the Sorts, Quantities and Number of Chaldrons or Tons of Coals reſpectively, which ſhall be meaſured or weighed, and delivered from on Board any ſuch Ship or Veſſel, on Pain for his or their Default therein, to be ſuſpended from the Execution and Benefit of his or their Office or Imployment for one whole Year from thence next following: (3) And in Caſe it ſhall appear by ſuch Certificate or otherwiſe, That there was on Board any ſuch Ship or Veſſel, a greater Number of Chaldrons or Tons of Coals, than for which the ſaid Impoſition ſhall have been anſwered and paid as aforeſaid; That then in ſuch Caſe there ſhall be paid to the ſaid Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens, and their Succeſſors, for every Chaldron or Ton of Coals ſo concealed, over and above the Impoſition aforeſaid, the Sum of five Shillings; for which (in Caſe of Refuſal to pay the ſame) ſuch Ship or Veſſel, or any the Tackle, Furniture or Apparel thereof, may be attached and detained by Warrant from the Mayor of the ſaid City for the Time being, until Payment thereof. Coal-meters Duty for levying the ſame. Theſe Rules are applied to the Orphanage Duty by 5 & 6 W. & M. c. 10.

XXXVIII. Provided nevertheleſs, That if the Importer, upon ſuch Certificate delivered in by the Coal-meter, ſhall within four and twenty Hours give in his Poſt-Entry, and ſatisfy and pay the whole Duty for the Surpluſage of Coals appearing upon the unlading of ſuch Ship or Veſſel, That then upon ſuch Payment, the Penalty aforeſaid ſhall be diſcharged.

XXXIX. And be it further enacted, That all and every ſuch Sum and Sums of Money which ſhall be raiſed upon the Receipt of the ſaid Impoſition of twelve Pence for every Chaldron or Ton of Coals, or by ſuch additional Duty in Caſe of Concealment as aforeſaid, ſhall in the firſt Place be applied and diſpoſed unto and for the Satisfaction of ſuch Perſons whoſe Grounds ſhall by Virtue and in Purſuance of this Act be taken and employed for the inlarging of the Streets, and narrow Paſſages within the ſaid City; (2) and after Satisfaction given for the ſame, the Reſidue of the ſaid Monies ſhall be applied and diſpoſed unto and for the Satisfaction of ſuch Perſons whoſe Grounds ſhall be employed for the making of Wharfs or Keys on the North-ſide of the River of Thames, and upon each Side of the Sewer called by the Name or Names of Bridewell-Dock, Fleet Ditch and Turnmill-Brook; and alſo for the building and making ſuch Priſons within the ſaid City, as ſhall be neceſſary for the Safe Cuſtody and Impriſonment of Felons and other Malefactors. How the ſaid Impoſition ſhall be diſpoſed.

XL. And to the End the Monies to be raiſed upon the Impoſition aforeſaid, may be duly applied to the Uſes for which the ſame is by this Act appointed; (2) Be it further enacted, That there ſhall from Time to Time be provided, and kept in the Chamber of London, one or more Book or Books of Vellum or Parchment, in which all Monies thereupon to be received, ſhall from Time to Time be entred and ſet down: (3) And alſo other like Book or Books, wherein the Accounts of all Payments and Diſburſements out of the ſame ſhall be likewiſe entred, expreſſing the Time when, the Occaſion for which, and the Name of the Perſon or Perſons to whom the ſame were ſo paid or diſburſed: (4) And that it ſhall and may be lawful to and for all and every Perſon or Perſons that ſhall or may be in any wiſe concerned ſo to do, to have free Acceſs unto, and view the ſaid reſpective Books of Receipts and Diſburſements at all Times when the Chamberlain's Office is open, without any Fee or Reward to be taken or demanded for the View or Inſpection thereof: And that the Chamberlain of London for the Time being, before the End of Michaelmas Term in every Year, ſhall tranſmit, and upon his Oath deliver into the Receipt of the Exchequer, a true Copy or Duplicate of the aforeſaid Books of Accounts, containing the Receipts and Diſburſements of all Monies which ſhall be raiſed and paid by or out of the ſaid Impoſition upon Coals, in the Year preceding, and ending upon the four and twentieth Day of June next before, there to be received Gratis by the proper Officer, and kept amongſt the Records of the ſaid Court; where it ſhall alſo be lawful for any Perſon or Perſons, who And the Accounts of Receipts and Diſburſements thereof kept.

who ſhall be in any wiſe concerned ſo to do, to have Acceſs thereunto, and to view and peruſe the ſaid Books of Accounts, without any Fee or Reward to be taken or received for the ſame.

Thomas Morris his Water-houſe.

XLI. Provided always, That it ſhall and may be lawful for the Water-houſe, called Mr. Thomas Morris his Water-houſe, formerly adjoining to London-Bridge, to be rebuilt upon the Place it formerly ſtood, with Timber, for the ſupplying the South-ſide of the City with Water, as it for almoſt this hundred Years hath done; any Thing in this Act to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Water-lane. Mincing-lane.

XLII. Provided alſo, and it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Lord Mayor and Aldermen of London may and ſhall open and enlarge a Street or Paſſage called Water-lane, leading from Fleet-ſtreet to White-Friers-Dock by the River of Thames; as alſo open and enlarge one other Street or Paſſage to the ſaid River from Cheapſide through Soper-lane to Thames-ſtreet, and from the Three-Cranes to the Thames; and open and enlarge one other Street or Paſſage through Mincing-lane, by St. Dunſtans in the Eaſt, to Thames-ſtreet, near the Cuſtom-houſe; and to make the ſaid Streets or Paſſages twenty-four Foot in Breadth, for the Conveniency of Trade, and better Paſſage of Carts and other Carriages to and from the ſaid River, giving Notice of what they ſhall herein reſolve, to the Proprietors and Perſons concerned, before the laſt of May which ſhall be in the Year of our Lord one thouſand ſix hundred ſixty-ſeven, and giving them Satisfaction for their Ground, according to the Rules and Directions of this Act for the enlarging of other Streets and Places.

CAP. IV.

An Act for Relief of poor Priſoners, and ſetting them on Work.

14 Eliz. c. 5. 43 Eliz. c. 2. ſect. 14.

'WHEREAS there is not yet any ſufficient Proviſion made for the Relief and ſetting on Work of poor and needy Perſons committed to the common Gaol for Felony and other Miſdemeanors, who many Times periſh before their Trial; and the Poor there living idly and unimployed, become debauched, and come forth inſtructed in the Practice of Thievery and Lewdneſs:' (2) For Remedy whereof, be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, with Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by Authority of the ſame, That the Juſtices of the Peace of the reſpective Counties at any their General Seſſions, or the major Part of them then there aſſembled, if they ſhall find it needful ſo to do, may provide a Stock of ſuch Materials as they find convenient for the ſetting poor Priſoners on Work, in ſuch Manner and by ſuch Ways, as other County-charges by the Laws and Statutes of the Realm are and may be levied and raiſed; and to pay and provide fit Perſons to overſee and to ſet ſuch Priſoners on work; (3) and make ſuch Orders for Accounts of and concerning the Premiſſes, as ſhall by them be thought needful, and for Puniſhment of Neglects and other Abuſes, and for beſtowing of the Profit ariſing by the Labour of the Priſoners ſo ſet on work, for their Relief, which ſhall be duly obſerved; and may alter, revoke or amend ſuch their Orders from Time to Time. (4) Provided that no Pariſh be rated above ſix Pence by the Week towards the Premiſſes, having Reſpect to the reſpective Values of the ſeveral Pariſhes.

How Stocks may be provided for ſetting the Poor on work.

Sickneſs and Diſeaſes happening among Priſoners.

'II. And whereas ſometimes by Occaſion of the Plague, and other whiles by the great Number of Priſoners, great and infectious Diſeaſes have happened among the Priſoners, whereby it hath come to paſs ſometimes that the Judges, Juſtices and Jurors have, upon Occaſion of their Attendance at the Trial of Priſoners been infected, and many of them died thereof, and ſometimes ſuch Infection hath ſpread in the Country:' (2) For ſome Remedy therein, be it by the ſame Authority enacted, That any Sheriff of the reſpective Counties having the Cuſtody of the Gaol, or ſuch Perſons who have the Cuſtody of the Gaol, with the Advice and Conſent of three or more Juſtices of the Peace, whereof one to be of the Quorum, may, if they ſhall on Enquiry or Information find it needful, upon emergent Occaſions in the reſpective Counties, provide other ſafe Places for the Removal of ſick or other Perſons from and out of the ordinary and uſual Gaols; (3) the ſame Places to be uſed and imployed for the Reception and Cuſtody of the Priſoners, to be by or according to their Order or Orders kept, ordered, diſpoſed and conveyed to the Places appointed for the Gaol-delivery, in ſuch and like Manner as ſuch Priſoners ought to be kept, ordered, diſpoſed and conveyed, in and from the common Gaols by the Laws and Statutes of the Land. Provided, no ſuch Place be made Uſe of for the Purpoſes aforeſaid, againſt the Good and Free-will of the Owners thereof.

Removing of Priſoners.

III. Provided alſo, and be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Mayor, Bailiff and other Head Officer, or any other Perſon and Perſons who have and hath the Cuſtody of the common Gaol within any Corporation of this Kingdom and Dominion of Wales, ſhall by and with the Advice of three or more Juſtices of Peace within the ſaid Corporation, whereof one of them to be of the Quorum, in Time of Infection, have the like Power and Authority for Removing his and their Priſoners into ſome other convenient Place within their Juriſdiction as to them ſhall ſeem fit, during the Time of Infection; and alſo to raiſe a Stock after the ſame Rates and Proportions, as is herein before allowed to and for the ſeveral Counties of this Kingdom.

Exon.

Devon.

IV. Provided alſo, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, as followeth, (viz.) That whereas there is already provided a ſtrong and ſufficient Meſſuage in the Pariſh of Saint Thomas the Apoſtle near the City of Exon for the Purpoſe aforeſaid, and one thouſand Pounds more by certain Truſtees, upon Propoſals and Agreements made by them with certain Gentlemen, Juſtices of the Peace for the County of Devon, who have alſo provided one thouſand Pounds more, in order to purchaſe Lands of Inheritance for the good Purpoſes hereafter mentioned; (2) Be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid two thouſand Pounds be laid out in Purchaſe of Lands of Inheritance, by Order of the General Seſſions of the Peace hereafter at any Time to be held, in the Name of ſuch Perſons as by ſuch Order ſhall be appointed.

(3) Item,

(3) Item, That the ſaid Houſe, with the Grounds therewith incloſed, be had and uſed as a common Gaol and Work-houſe for the ſaid County in Manner as is after expreſſed. (4) Item, That an Overſeer be therein placed by like Order, and by like Order be removeable from Time to Time; which Overſeer ſhall have the Charge, Cuſtody and Government of the Priſoners to him committed, according to this Act, and ſhall have fifty Pounds per Annum during the Execution of his Office, and ten Pounds per Annum for his Deputy; but ſhall therefore take no Fees for Receiving, Delivering or doing any other Service relating to the Priſoners, from or of any the ſaid Priſoners. (5) Item, That the ſaid Juſtices by like Order from Time to Time ſhall and may, by Approbation of the Ordinary, provide and appoint ſome meet and diſcreet Miniſter to read Divine Service according to the Orders of the Church of England, unto the Priſoners, at leaſt four Days in the Week, That is to ſay, on the Lord's Day, each Wedneſday, and each Friday and Saturday, and oftner if the ſaid Juſtices ſhall appoint, and to take Pains in inſtructing them each Lord's Day at the leaſt, for which they may allow him thirty Pounds per Annum or after that Rate, the Reſt of the Profits to be for Repairing the Houſe, and towards finding a Stock for to ſet the Priſoners on work. (6) Item, That any Perſon charged with ſuch Offence only for which Clergy is allowable, if ſo be he be needy and indigent, and not likely to maintain himſelf in Gaol, may by Warrant of the Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace, to whom Juriſdiction in that Behalf appertaineth, be committed to the ſaid Work-houſe in order to his Trial; (7) and if any Perſon ſhall be committed to the ordinary Gaol, who ſhall be or become ſo indigent, he may by Warrant of three Juſtices of Peace, whereof one to be of the Quorum, be removed from the ordinary common Gaol to the ſaid Houſe; all which Priſoners ſo committed or removed ſhall be in the Cuſtody of the Overſeer, and be ordered and demeaned in the ſaid Houſe, and conveyed to the Seſſions or to the Gaol-delivery, by like Warrant, Way and Means, as the Priſoners in other Gaols by the Laws and Statutes of this Realm are to be ordered and demeaned.

'V. And becauſe the ſaid Work-houſe is diſtant from the ordinary common Gaol,' the Priſoners by Order from the Seſſions or Gaol-delivery may, in order to their Trials, be removed to the common Gaol, to be the more ready for their Trials. (2) Item, That the ſaid Overſeer ſhall give Security for the Stock, and be liable to ſuch Regulations and Orders for Accounts and otherwiſe, as the Seſſions ſhall from Time to Time make for ſetting the poor Priſoners on work there, which ſhall be obeyed and obſerved. That a convenient Stock be from Time to Time raiſed at the Charge of the County. (3) Item, That the ſaid Juſtices of the County in Devon may put in ure all the Powers in this Act, as other Juſtices may in any other County by Virtue thereof:

An Act to regulate the Trade of Silk-Throwing.

19 H. 7. c. 21.

Silk-Throwing obſtructed by a By Law.

'WHEREAS the Art of Working and Throwing of Silk (for many Years paſt giving Imployment to the Poor of the Kingdom) hath of late been obſtructed, by reaſon that the preſent Maſter and Wardens, and Part of the Aſſiſtants and Commonalty of the Trade, Art or Myſtery of Silk-Throwers of the City of London, have endeavoured to put in Execution a certain By-Law, by them made near forty Years ſince, reſtraining and ſtinting the Freemen of the ſaid Company, that they ſhall not work with above the Number of one hundred and ſixty Spindles at one Time, and the Aſſiſtants of the ſaid Company with above the Number of two hundred and forty Spindles: Which is an Hindrance to the Growth and Improvement of the ſaid Art, and a Reſtraint to the working of Silks in this Kingdom, which is of late much improved, and to the Subſiſtence and Livelihood of many thouſand poor Families, and puts the Traders in that Commodity upon a Neceſſity of uſing foreign Thrown-Silk.'

The ſame By-Law made void, and the Company diſabled to make any ſuch Reſtraint.

II. Be it therefore enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, aſſembled in Parliament, That the ſaid By-Law is hereby void and null, and the ſaid Company are hereby diſabled from making any By-Law for the future which ſhall reſtrain or limit the Number of Mills, Spindles or other Utenſils to be employed by any of the Freemen of the ſaid Company, in or about the ſaid Art or Myſtery.

Silk-winders or Doublers offending, to be committed to Priſon.

III. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Silk-winder or Doubler ſhall hereafter be found faulty in unjuſtly, deceitfully or falſly purloining, imbezilling, pawning, ſelling or detaining any Silk committed to his or their Truſt, That then any Juſtice of Peace, Mayor, Bailiff or Chief Officer of any County, Liberty or Corporation, ſhall immediately upon Conviction by Confeſſion of the Party, or upon the Oath of one Witneſs before any of the ſaid Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace or other Officer, commit to Priſon or to the Houſe of Correction the Offender, till Satisfaction be given to the Party wronged or Puniſhment inflicted, as by an Act of Parliament, intituled, An Act for Regulating the Trade of Silk-Throwing, made this preſent Parliament, is directed and appointed; any Thing in the ſaid Act contained to the contrary hereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

'WHEREAS by an Act of this present Parliament, intituled, An Act against Importing Cattle from Ireland and other Parts beyond the Seas, and Fish taken by Foreigners, amongst other Things, Provision was made against Importation of Cattle from Parts beyond the Seas: And it was thereby enacted, That such Importation from and after the second Day of February which was in the Year one thousand six hundred sixty-six, was a publick Nusance, and should be so adjudged, deemed and taken to all Intents and Purposes; (2) and that if any great Cattle, Sheep or Swine, or any Beef, Pork or Bacon (except for the necessary Provision of the respective Ships or Vessels in which the same should be brought, not exposing the same to Sale) should from and after the said second Day of February, by any wise whatsoever, be imported or brought from beyond the Seas into this Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, That then it should and might be lawful for any Constable, Tithingman, Headborough, Church-warden or Overseers of the Poor, or any of them, within their respective Liberties, Parishes or Places, to take and seize the same; (3) and keep the same during the Space of eight and forty Hours, in some publick or convenient Place where such Seizure should be made; within which Time, if the Owner or Owners, or any for them or him, should make it appear unto some Justice of the Peace of the same County where the same should so be seized, by the Oath of two credible Witnesses, that the same were not imported from Ireland or from any other Place beyond the Seas not therein after excepted, after the said second Day of February, Then the same, upon the Warrant of such Justice of Peace, should be delivered without Delay; but in Default of such Proof and Warrant, then the same to be forfeited, one Half thereof to be disposed to the Use of the Poor of the Parish where the same shall be so found or seized, the other to be to his or their own Use that should so seize the same. 18 Car. 2. c. 2. Importation of Cattle from beyond Sea a Nusance. 3 & 4 Ed. 6. c. 19. 2 & 3 P. & M. c. 3. 7 Jac. 1. c. 8. 18 Car. 2. c. 2.

II. Notwithstanding which Act, and the good Provision thereby, great Number of Cattle, Sheep and Swine, and great Quantities of Beef, Pork and Bacon, have since the Time limited by the said Act been Imported from Ireland and other Places beyond the Seas, as well in Foreign as English Ships and Vessels, contrary to the good Intent of the said Act, and in Continuance of the said Nusance and in high Contempt of the Authority of Parliament: (2) And divers Church-wardens, Constables, Tithingmen and Overseers of the Poor living near the Sea, for their own private Lucre, having combined with the Owners of such Cattle, Sheep, Swine, Beef, Pork and Bacon, Imported as aforesaid, or with their Agents, have colourably seized, and afterwards privately and fraudulently sold the same at very low and inconsiderable Rates, to the said Owners or their Agents: (3) And other of the said Officers who have discharged their Duties in the due Execution of the said Act, have been molested therefore, and several Actions, Suits, Plaints and Informations have been brought and prosecuted against some of them in Counties and Places far distant from their Habitations, to their great Charge and Discouragement.' (4) For the Vindication therefore of the Authority of Parliament from such bold Affronts, and the Indemnifying as well of such Officers, who have faithfully endeavoured the Execution of the said Act (although they have not strictly pursued the same in every Circumstance) as of such other Person and Persons who have acted in their Aid and Assistance, and for the better and further Suppression of the said Nusance; (5) Be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by Authority of the same, That all and every Constable, Tithingman, Headborough, Church-warden and Overseer of the Poor, and every other Person or Persons who have acted in or concerning the Seizure, Keeping, Detaining or Disposing of any Cattle, Sheep, Swine, Beef, Pork or Bacon, imported contrary to the said Act, after the said second Day of February, shall be and are hereby saved harmless and indemnified in that Behalf, against the Owner or Owners thereof at the Time of such Importation, their Executors and Administrators, and every other Person or Persons claiming from, by or under their Gift, Grant or other Disposition, and against all and every Person and Persons to whom any fraudulent Sale hath been made after such Importation as aforesaid, and their and every of their Executors and Administrators. 18 Car. 2. c. 2. All Officers who have seised any imported Cattle, saved harmless. Importation of Bacon provided for by 5 & 6 W. & M. c. 2. §. 4.

III. And it is provided, and further enacted, That not only the Constables and Officers above-named, but every or any other Inhabitant or Inhabitants of or within the Liberties, Parishes and Places, where such Importation shall be made, shall and may take and seize the Cattle and Goods so imported, and after such Seizure shall forthwith deliver or cause them to be delivered to the Constable, Tithingman, Headborough, Church-warden or Overseers of the Poor, or any of them, within the respective Liberties, Parishes and Places aforesaid, to be kept, ordered and disposed in the Manner, and to the Uses and Purposes in this Act and in the said recited Act or either of them mentioned and directed. Any Person may seise imported Cattle, and deliver them to the Officer.

IV. And it is further enacted, That if no Seizure at all shall be made by the Officers or Inhabitants, nor any of them, within the Liberty, Parish or Place where such Cattle or Goods as aforesaid shall be first imported, then such Liberty, Parish and Place, and the Inhabitants thereof, neglecting to make such Seizure, for every Default shall forfeit the Sum of one hundred Pounds, which shall be employed for the Use of the House of Correction within the County or Liberty where such Default of Seizure shall be; (2) and the Monies so to be forfeited, and other the Penalties and Forfeitures which are to accrue to the Poor by Virtue of this Act and the said recited Act, or either of them, shall be accounted for to such Persons, at such The Forfeiture of such as neglect to seise.

Times; and in such Manner, as the Overseers of the Poor are appointed to account by the Statute made in the three and fortieth Year of the Reign of Queen Elizabeth, Chapter the Second.

43 Eliz. c. 2.

Ships bringing Cattle, &c. from beyond Sea shall be forfeited, seised and sold;

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Ship or Vessel, with all her Tackle and Apparel, in which any great Cattle, Swine, Sheep, Beef, Pork or Bacon, from and after the four and twentieth Day of March in the Year of our Lord one thousand six hundred sixty and seven, shall be imported from Ireland, or any other Parts beyond the Seas, into the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, and out of which they or any of them shall be put on Shore there, shall be forfeited: (2) And that it shall and may be lawful to and for any Person or Persons, within the Space of one Year after such Importation, to take and seize the same Ship or Vessel, with all her Tackle and Apparel, and to make Sale thereof to the best Advantage; and that one Half of the Monies to be raised by such Sale shall be disposed of to the Use of the Poor of the Parish where the same shall be so seized, the other Half to be to his or their Use that shall so seize the same: (3) And also that it shall and may be lawful to and for any Justice of Peace of the County, or Chief Officer of the Port-Town in or near the Place where such Importation shall be made, or where any of the Cattle, Sheep, Swine, Beef, Pork or Bacon so imported shall be driven or brought, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of such Justice of Peace or Chief Officer, to cause to be apprehended all and every the Masters, Mariners and Seamen, having Charge of or belonging to such Ship or Vessel in which such Importation shall be made, (4) and all and every other Person and Persons acting or imployed in the Landing, Driving, Attending on, or taking Care or Charge of the said Cattle, Sheep, Swine, Beef, Pork or Bacon imported as aforesaid, and them to commit to the common Gaol of the said County, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize for the Space of three Months.

The Money raised thereby, one Half to the Poor, the other to the Informer or Seisor.

The Seamen to be apprehended, and all others concerned, and sent to the common Gaol.

If any Officer neglect to seise, another may take them and have the one Half, giving the other to the Poor.

VI. And be it further enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That whensoever and as often as it shall happen, either through any fraudulent Agreement or unfaithful Connivance of any Constable, Headborough, Tithingman, Church-warden or Overseer of the Poor, or that it shall happen any otherwise howsoever, that any great Cattle, Sheep, Swine, Beef, Pork or Bacon, after the first Seizure of them, or any of them, by Virtue of the aforesaid Act, shall be driven, brought, carried into or found in any other Parish or Place than where the same shall be first seized, as aforesaid; that then and so often, and from Time to Time, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Constable, Tithingman, Headborough, Church-warden or Overseer of the Poor of every or any such other Parish or Place where such great Cattle, Sheep, Swine, Beef, Pork or Bacon shall be brought, driven or carried into, or found, as aforesaid, to seize, take and dispose the same, and every or any of them as forfeited, the one Moiety thereof to the Use of the Poor of such other Parish or Place where such Seizure shall be made, the other to the Use of such Officer or Officers who shall seize the same, as aforesaid; any other or former Seizure or Seizures in any other Parish or Parishes, Place or Places notwithstanding.

Trial in the County where the Cause of Action arises.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Action, Bill, Plaint, Suit or Information, is or shall be commenced or prosecuted against any Person or Persons, for any Seizure or other Thing made or done, or to be made or done, by Virtue or Colour of this or the aforesaid Act; and upon the Trial of such Action, Bill, Plaint, Suit or Information, it shall not be proved to the Jury that shall try the same, that the Cause of such Action, Bill, Plaint, Suit or Information, did arise within such County where such Action, Plaint, Suit or Information is laid and tried, the Defendant and Defendants shall be found Not guilty, without having Regard to any Evidence given by or for the Plaintiff, Informer or Prosecutor.

General Issue. Defendant to have treble Costs.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Action, Bill, Plaint, Suit or Information, hath been or shall be commenced or prosecuted against any Person or Persons, for any Seizure or other Thing done or made, or to be done or made, in Pursuance or Execution of this or the aforesaid Act; such Person or Persons so sued in any Court whatsoever, may plead the General Issue, and give this and the aforesaid Act, and the special Matter, in Evidence for their Excuse or Justification: (2) And if the Plaintiff or Prosecutor shall become nonsuit, or forbear Prosecution, or suffer Discontinuance, or if a Verdict pass against him in any such Action, Bill, Plaint, Suit or Information, as aforesaid, the Defendant shall have treble Costs, for which they shall have the like Remedy as in any Case where Costs by the Law are given to the Defendant.

Proviso to import Cattle from the Isle of Man.

IX. Provided always, That nothing in this Act shall be construed to hinder the Importation of Cattle from the Isle of Man into this Kingdom of England, so as the Number of the said Cattle do not exceed six hundred Head yearly, and that they be not of any other Breed than of the Breed of the Isle of Man, and that they be landed at the Port of Chester, or some of the Members thereof, and not elsewhere.

Confederacy to elude this Act incurs a Præmunire.

X. And it is lastly enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall wilfully and fraudulently conspire, confederate or agree together, to avoid or evade the Seizures or Forfeitures upon Importation of Cattle or Goods in this present Act particularly specified, and the same shall put in Execution; then every such Person and Persons, being thereof lawfully indicted or presented within one Year next after such Offence by him or them committed, and being thereof lawfully convicted or attainted at any Time after, according to the Laws of this Realm, shall incur the Dangers, Penalties, Pains and Forfeitures, contained and provided in and by the Statute of Provision and Præmunire, made in the sixteenth Year of the Reign of King Richard the Second.

CAP. VIII.

An Act for the Taxing and Assessing of the Lands of the Adventurers within the Great Level of the Fens.

'WHEREAS by an Act made in this present Parliament, intituled, An Act for Settling the Dreining of the Great Level of the Fens called Bedford Level; it is amongst other Things enacted, That the Governor, Bailiffs and Conservators of the Corporation in the said Act mentioned, and by Virtue of the same from Time to Time to be elected and appointed, for the Time being, or any five or more of them (whereof the Governor and Bailiffs for the Time being, or any of them, to be two) should and might from thenceforth use the Power and Authority of Commissioners of Sewers within the said Great Level, and from Time to Time lay and impose Taxes upon the ninety-five thousand Acres within the said Level in the said Act mentioned, for the Maintenance and Preservation of the same, as by the said Act appeareth: (2) And whereas since the making of the said Act, the Governor, Bailiffs and Conservators of the said Corporation, in Execution of the Power and Authority thereby to them given, have laid and imposed Taxes upon the said ninety-five thousand Acres, for the Purposes by the said Act specified and appointed, wherein they have proceeded by Way of an Acre-tax, at a certain Rate by the Acre, and have inforced the Payment of the same after that Manner, to the great Damage of divers the Adventurers and Participants, for that the said ninety-five thousand Acres are not only much different in the natural Richness and Barrenness of their Soil, but likewise some Parts of the said Lands are by frequent Inundations and otherwise, exceedingly pejorated and made worse, and the Corn, Hay, Seed or Grass thereupon often destroyed; yet the same Lands are equally taxed with the best and most secure Lands in the said Level, as aforesaid; (3) the which said Way of raising Dreining-taxes upon the said ninety-five thousand Acres, by an equal Acre-rate, hath been found to be inconvenient; and for Removing the said Inconvenience, the said Governor, Bailiffs and Conservators, have of late proceeded to a more indifferent Way of Taxing of the said ninety-five thousand Acres (that is to say) by a gradual Acre-tax of five Sorts, upon eighty-three thousand Acres, Part of the said ninety-five thousand Acres, and by a Medium of the twelve thousand Acres, Residue of the said ninety-five thousand Acres:' (4) And to the Intent that Encouragement may be given for the better Improving of the said ninety-five thousand Acres, and that a constant and certain Way of Taxing may be continued and established for the future;

15 Car. 2. c. 17.

Taxes imposed at a certain Rate per Acre.

Unequal and inconvenient.

II. Be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Assent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all Taxes hereafter to be set and imposed for the Maintenance and Preservation of the said Great Level, are hereby appointed and declared to be from Time to Time assessed and taxed by the said Governor, Bailiffs and Conservators, or their Successors, or any five or more of them, whereof the said Governor and Bailiffs for the Time being, or any of them, to be two, upon the said eighty-three thousand Acres, Part and Parcel of the said ninety-five thousand Acres, by a gradual Acre-tax of different Sorts and Values of Lands; the which said gradual Acre-tax set as aforesaid, and all future gradual Acre-taxes to be set, shall be received, paid and levied, with like Penalties in the said recited Act provided for Non-payment of Taxes, by such and the like Ways and Means as by the said recited Act are provided for to be paid and levied: (2) And the said eighty-three thousand Acres, for raising Taxes for Support and Maintenance of the Great Level, are not to be rated or assessed otherwise, or in any other Manner than according to a gradual Acre-tax of different Sorts and Degrees, and according to the respective Values and Rates thereby set and rated, and to be set and rated as is hereafter appointed, upon the said eighty-three thousand Acres; any Law, Statute or other Thing to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

Taxes hereafter to be assessed by the Governor, &c. by a gradual Acre-Tax.

'III. And whereas the said twelve thousand Acres, Residue of the said ninety-five thousand Acres, are by the said gradual Acre-tax towards the raising of the Sum of six thousand one hundred and ten Pounds seven Shillings one Peny Half-peny, rated and taxed at one Shilling three Pence per Acre, being a Medium, as if the whole ninety-five thousand Acres had been rated, taxed and assessed at fifteen Pence per Acre;' (2) Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That when and so often as a Tax of the said Sum of six thousand one hundred and ten Pounds seven Shillings one Peny Half-peny, shall be taxed and assessed upon the said ninety-five thousand Acres, that then the said twelve thousand Acres shall be rated, taxed and assessed by the said Governor, Bailiffs and Conservators, and their Successors, or any five or more of them, whereof the said Governor and Bailiffs, or any of them, to be two, at fifteen Pence the Acre, and according to the Proportion, for the raising of any greater or lesser Sum than six thousand one hundred and ten Pounds seven Shillings one Peny Half-peny, to be received, paid and levied, together with Penalties, in such and the like Manner as the Taxes set and imposed, or to be set and imposed, upon the said eighty-three thousand Acres, are by this Act provided for to be received, paid and levied. (3) And be it further enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That no Taxes to be set by Virtue of this Act shall be set or imposed upon the said ninety-five thousand Acres by the said Governor, Bailiffs and Conservators, or their Successors, or any five or more of them, but upon Wednesday, Thursday and Friday next after the first Sunday in April, or some or one of them three Days yearly for ever, and not at any other Time; any Law, Custom or Usage to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

Fifteen-pence per Acre.

Wednesday, Thursday and Friday after the first Sunday in April.

'IV. And whereas by the said recited Act it is amongst other Things provided, That Sales for Non-payment of Taxes shall be made at Ely upon Wednesday and Thursday in Whitsun-week yearly, the which Season is found to be inconvenient:' (2) For Remedy whereof, be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after Whitsun-week, which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand six hundred sixty-eight, those Days for Sales shall be altered and changed unto the said Wednesday, Thursday and Friday after the said first Sunday in April in every Year; and all other Matters and Things concerning or relating to Sales for Non-payment of Taxes, by the ſaid recited Act provided, are to ſtand in Force, and to be obſerved; with this, that the Serjeant at Mace of the ſaid Great Level, ſhall from Time to Time by Precept under the Seal of the Corporation of the ſaid Great Level, in Nature of a Writ of Habere fac' poſſeſſionem at Common Law, deliver Poſſeſſion unto ſuch Perſon or Perſons as ſhall purchaſe any Part of the ſaid ninety-five thouſand Acres for Non-payment of Taxes; and the ſaid Governor, Bailiffs and Conſervators are hereby required and authorized to affix the Seal of the ſaid Corporation, from Time to Time, to ſuch Precept or Precepts, at the Charge of the Parties requiring the ſame; any Law, Statute, Uſage or Cuſtom to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Names of the Surveyors who are to digeſt the Land into ſeven Sorts.

'V. And to the End that the ſaid eighty-three thouſand Acres may be more equally rated by a gradual 'Acre-Tax, not under the Number of ſeven Sorts,' (2) Be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That Edward Partheridge Eſq; Samuel Fortrey Eſq; Richard Mariot Eſq; John Mingay, Jonas Moore, Peter Diamond, Eſquires; Anthony Hamon Eſq; Mark le Pia Gent. and John Bridgman junior, Gent. or any three or more of them, are hereby conſtituted and appointed to be Surveyors and Valuers of the ſaid eighty-three thouſand Acres, and are within twelve Months next after the paſſing of this Act to digeſt the ſaid eighty-three thouſand Acres into ſuch Number of Sorts or Degrees of Land, not under the Number of ſeven Sorts and Degrees; and to rate and tax ſuch Degrees, and digeſt the ſame into Schedules in Writing, and make Returns thereof upon their Oaths into the Fen-Office; the Form of which ſaid Oath ſhall be, (viz.)

Their Oath.

'(3) I A. B. do ſwear, That according to the beſt of my Skill and Knowledge I will faithfully diſcharge 'the Truſt of Surveying, Sorting, Dividing and Rating of eighty-three thouſand Acres, Parcel of ninety-'five thouſand Acres, within the Great Level of the Fens, known by the Name of Bedford Level, accord-'ing to ſeven Degrees or more, as I upon my Oath ſhall think moſt equal.'

Returns to be made and ſet up publickly in the Fen-Office.

VI. The which ſaid Oath the ſaid Governor, Bailiffs and Conſervators, or any three or more of them, are hereby authorized to adminiſter, and alſo to allow unto the ſaid Surveyors or Valuers ſuch reaſonable Charges for their Travel and Pains therein as they ſhall think fit; (2) and after the ſame are returned into the ſaid Fen-Office, and there publickly ſet up; which ſaid Return is hereby enacted to be made within one Month after the Survey taken, and the ſeveral Valuations by the Parties to that Purpoſe by this Act appointed and agreed upon, and all Parties aggrieved may take their Exceptions within thirty Days next after the ſame are ſet up; and within forty Days next after ſuch Exceptions taken, may appeal for Relief unto the ſaid Governor, Bailiffs and Conſervators, or any five or more of them, for altering the ſaid Schedules in the Rates and Values complained of, ſo as the Parties appealing ſhall proſecute the ſaid Appeal within the ſaid forty Days, and not at any Time after: (3) And in caſe the ſaid Governor, Bailiffs and Conſervators, ſhall not within the ſaid forty Days relieve the ſaid Parties grieved, or if the ſaid Parties ſhall not be ſatisfied with the Determination of the ſaid Governor, Bailiffs and Conſervators, That then the ſaid Parties may appeal unto Sir Henry North Bart. Sir Levinus Bennet Bart. Sir Robert Brook of Yoxford Knt. Sir Edmond Pooley Knt. Henry Williams, Robert Appreece, Richard Nayler, Humphrey Orme, Morris Treſham, Laurence Oxborough, Henry Farrer junior, Edward Barber, Matthew Wren, Thomas Marſh, Henry Hitch Doctor of Laws, Thomas Steward, Anthony Fiſher, Matthias Tayler, John Towers, Eſquires, and Burrage Martin Gent, or any three or more of them, who are hereby conſtituted and appointed Commiſſioners of Appeal to hear and determine ſuch Complaints, and to give Relief therein as they ſhall ſee Cauſe, and to award Coſts to either Parties as they ſhall ſee Cauſe; the which ſaid Coſts may be recovered by Action of Debt in any of his Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, wherein no Eſſoin or Wager of Law ſhall be allowed; which ſaid Appeals to the Commiſſioners ſhall be duly proſecuted by the ſaid Parties grieved, within two Months next after the Expiration of the forty Days, and not at any Time after: (4) The which ſaid Schedules, with all the Alterations, if any ſhall be made by the ſaid Corporation, wherewith the Parties ſhall reſt ſatisfied, or by the Determination of the ſaid Commiſſioners of Appeal, are hereby confirmed, and ſhall be a conſtant Rule and Foundation for the Rating and Taxing of the ſaid eighty-three thouſand Acres for the Future, for Maintenance and Preſervation of the Works made and to be made within or without the ſaid Great Level of the Fens; (5) And that the ſaid Governor, Bailiffs and Conſervators, nor their Succeſſors, nor any of them, ſhall tax or aſſeſs the ſaid eighty-three thouſand Acres otherwiſe than by and according to the ſaid Schedules, and to be returned or confirmed as aforeſaid. (6) And it is declared, That the ſaid twelve thouſand Acres, Reſidue of the ſaid ninety-five thouſand Acres, ſhall be rated and taxed by a Medium towards all Taxes hereafter to be laid, as by the ſaid Tax made the ſaid twentieth Day of June is provided, and not otherwiſe.

Parties grieved may appeal to Commiſſioners.

Their Power.

VII. And it is hereby further enacted, That a Tax of the ſaid Sum of ſix thouſand one hundred and ten Pounds ſeven Shillings one Peny Half-peny, ſhall and may be ſet by the ſaid Governor, Bailiffs and Conſervators, or any five or more of them, in Whitſun-week next, upon the ſaid eighty-three thouſand Acres, according to the ſaid gradual Acre-Tax of five Degrees, upon the ſaid twelve thouſand Acres, at fifteen Pence per Acre; and for Non-payment ſhall and may be levied by Sales on Wedneſday, Thurſday or Friday, after the ſaid firſt Sunday in April then next following; and that from thenceforth all future Taxes ſhall be laid and impoſed upon the ſaid eighty-three thouſand Acres by a gradual Acre-tax, not under ſeven Degrees, and twelve thouſand Acres, in ſuch Manner and Form as by this Act is provided, and not otherwiſe: '(2) 'And whereas Sir Miles Sandys the Elder, and Sir Miles Sandys the Younger, were Adventurers and Parti-'cipants with Francis late Earl of Bedford in the ſaid Level, and had an Intereſt in ſeveral Shares, Lots 'and Proportions, in the ſaid Great Level; the Right, Title and Intereſt in great Part of which ſaid Shares 'and Lots, were, as appears by Indenture bearing Date the twelfth Day of June in the firſt Year of his 'now Majeſty's Reign, made between Sir Miles Sandys the Younger, of the one Part, and Thomas Sandys 'Eſq; and Robert Sandys Clerk, Humberſtone Marſh Eſq; Samuel Spalding Gent. William Wolſon Clerk, and Sales for Non-payment, when to be made.

'John

'John Kirk, of the second Part, and Samuel Sandys of Ombersley, Esq; on the third Part, settled in several 'Trustees therein named, in Trust for the Payment of all such Taxes as should be due for or in respect of 'the said Lands mentioned in the said Indenture, and after in Trust for the Securing of the said Samuel 'Sandys Esq; from all such Debts as he the said Samuel Sandys stood engaged for the proper Debts of the 'said Sir Miles Sandys the Elder, and Sir Miles Sandys the Younger: Since which said Indenture so had and 'made, the said Samuel Sandys the Elder has paid great Sums of Money for and towards the Satisfaction of 'the said Debts of Sir Miles Sandys the Elder, and Sir Miles Sandys the Younger, and yet hath reaped no 'Benefit by Virtue of the said Deed of Trust so as aforesaid made for his Security, although by an Act made 'by this present Parliament, intituled, An Act for settling the Draining of the Great Level of the Fens, called 15 Car. 2. c. 17. 'Bedford Level, the said Samuel Sandys ought to have had a Conveyance of the Shares and Lots mentioned 'in the said Indenture: But in regard the said Samuel Sandys Esq; nor any in Trust for him could procure 'any Conveyance, which hath proved very prejudicial to the said Samuel Sandys the Elder;'

VIII. Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by Authority of the same, That all the said Lots and Shares in the said Indenture mentioned, (except only such Lands of the said Half Share as were really sold by Sir Miles Sandys the Elder, or Sir Miles Sandys the Younger, for full and valuable Considerations, and such of the said two Shares which have been sold for the Payment of Taxes or Debts, in Pursuance of the said Indenture, by the said Sir Miles Sandys and the Trustees Parties to the said Indenture) are hereby vested and settled in Samuel Sandys the Younger, Esq; and Edwin Sandys Gent. Sons of the said Samuel Sandys the Elder, their Heirs and Assigns, freed and discharged from all Manner of Taxes whatsoever to the Time of the Passing this Act: And by the Authority aforesaid, the Freehold and Inheritance of the said Lots and Shares aforesaid, except before excepted, shall be deemed and adjudged to be in the said Samuel Sandys the Younger and Edwin Sandys, their Heirs and Assigns for ever; nevertheless, the said Shares and Lots hereby vested shall be liable to the Payment of the Debts aforesaid, and to all Powers and Jurisdictions, together with the Residue of the said ninety-five thousand Acres, as the same are subject and liable by the said recited Act, for the Future, and of all such Taxes and Penalties as shall be hereafter assessed or laid for the Preservation of the said Great Level, in such Sort and Manner as the eighty-three thousand Acres, Parcel of the ninety-five thousand Acres, shall be assessed and taxed; any Law, Statute or Thing to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

Lands settled upon Samuel Sandys and Edwin Sandys free from Taxes.

IX. Provided also, and it is hereby further declared and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every of the Sale or Sales made, agreed or contracted for, for Non-payment of Taxes of any of the Lands of the said Sir Miles Sandys the Elder, or Sir Miles Sandys the Younger, or the said Samuel Sandys the Elder Esq; by the Governors, Bailiffs and Conservators, constituted and elected by Authority of an Act of this present Parliament, intituled, An Act for settling the Draining of the Great Level of the Fens called Bedford Level, to any Person or Persons whatsoever, by Virtue or Colour of the said Act, is, are and shall be null and void; and that the said Lands sold by the said Governors, Bailiffs and Conservators, (except before excepted) are and shall be vested and settled by this present Act, in the said Samuel Sandys the Younger and Edwin Sandys, their Heirs and Assigns, freed and discharged of and from all Taxes laid by the said Governors, Bailiffs and Conservators; any Thing in the said recited Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

Sales for Non-payment of Taxes in those Lands, void.

'X. And to the End the said Samuel Sandys and Edwin Sandys may have the Effect and Benefit hereby in-'tended them, and that the Occupiers and Possessors of the said Shares and Lots vested in them the said 'Samuel Sandys and Edwin Sandys as aforesaid, may not by their continuing in Possession, and Neglect of 'paying the Taxes hereafter to be imposed on the said Shares and Lots, or any Part of them, cause the 'same to be forfeited and sold for Non-payment of the respective Taxes that shall become due for the same;' (2) Be it therefore hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any Occupier or Possessor of any the said Shares or Lots, in the said Deed of Trust mentioned as aforesaid, or any Part of them, pretending to claim under the said Deed of Trust or otherwise, that shall refuse to deliver or yield up the Possession of such Part of the said Shares or Lots, to them the said Samuel Sandys and Edwin Sandys, or their Assigns, and shall not duly pay the Taxes hereafter to be imposed on the same, before our Lady-day one thousand six hundred seventy-one; That then the Serjeant at Mace for the Time being, attending the said Corporation, is hereby authorized and impowered by Precept under the Seal of the Corporation of the said Great Level (who are hereby required to grant and issue out the same) in the Nature of a Writ of Habere facias possessionem at the Common Law, to deliver unto and put them the said Samuel Sandys and Edwin Sandys, their Heirs or Assigns, in the quiet and peaceable Possession of such Shares and Lots or any Part of them; and all and every such Occupier or Occupiers, Possessor or Possessors thereof, of and from the same to eject, expel and amove; They the said Samuel Sandys and Edwin Sandys, upon reasonable Notice, first paying or tendring such Taxes as shall become due for the same, from the Time of the Passing this Act one Month before the next Day of Sale for Non-payment of such Taxes hereafter to be imposed; which said Samuel Sandys and Edwin Sandys, and their Heirs, are thereupon hereby actually vested in the same.

Serjeant at Mace to remove Occupants not paying Taxes.

'XI. And whereas the said several Shares and Lots of the said ninety-five thousand Acres, herein before 'vested and settled in the said Samuel Sandys the Younger and Edwin Sandys, and their Heirs as aforesaid, 'ought to have been conveyed unto the said Samuel Sandys the Elder, or his Trustees, by the said Governor, 'Bailiffs and Conservators of the said Corporation, by Virtue of the said before-mentioned Act, as in and 'by the same they were required and directed, which they refused to do, whereby the Rents, Issues and 'Profits thereof have not been paid to, nor could be received by the said Samuel Sandys the Elder, or his 'Trustees, or by any other by, to or for his or their Use;' (2) Be it therefore hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Samuel Sandys and Edwin Sandys shall and are hereby entitled to the said Rents, Issues and Profits of the said Shares and Lots, since the passing of the said recited Act, which have not really been paid to the said Corporation for Taxes, or to the said Samuel Sandys the Elder, and the Occupiers and Possessors thereof are hereby appointed to pay the same accordingly; and in Default of Payment thereof or of any Part thereof, they the said Samuel Sandys and Edwin Sandys are hereby authorized and impowered to sue for, and by Virtue of this Act shall recover the same, wherein no Essoin, Protection or Wager of Law shall be allowed, and shall likewise have their Costs of Suit expended therein; any Thing herein to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

XII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That after the said Edwin and Samuel Sandys shall have recovered and received Satisfaction for the mean Profits, or any Part of them, That then they, their Heirs and Assigns, shall pay so much of the said Arrears of the said gradual Acre-Tax imposed upon the said respective Lands, proportionably to what they shall receive, and no more.

Proviso for Thomas Lord Culpeper.

XIII. XI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Constable, Headborough, Tithingman, Church-warden or Overseer of the Poor, who shall know, or be credibly informed of any such Meetings or Conventicles held within his Precincts, Parish or Limits, and shall not give Information thereof to some Justice of the Peace, or the Chief Magistrate, and endeavour the Conviction of the Parties according to his Duty; but such Constable, Headborough, Tithingman, Church-warden, Overseers of the Poor, or any Person lawfully called in Aid of the Constable, Headborough or Tithingman, shall wilfully and wittingly omit the Performance of his Duty, in the Execution of this Act, and be thereof convicted in Manner aforesaid, he shall forfeit for every such Offence the Sum of five Pounds, to be levied upon his Goods and Chattels, and disposed in Manner aforesaid: (2) And that if any Justice of the Peace or Chief Magistrate shall wilfully and wittingly omit the Performance of his Duty in the Execution of this Act, he shall forfeit the Sum of one hundred Pounds; the one Moiety to the Use of his Majesty, the other Moiety to the Use of the Informer; to be recovered by Action, Suit, Bill or Plaint, in any of his Majesty's Courts at Westminster, wherein no Essoin, Protection or Wager of Law shall lie.

All Persons indemnified that put this Act in Execution.

XII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person be at any Time sued for putting in Execution any of the Powers contained in this Act, otherwise than upon Appeal allowed by this Act, such Person shall and may plead the General Issue, and give the special Matter in Evidence; (2) and if the Plaintiff be nonsuit, or a Verdict pass for the Defendant, or if the Plaintiff discontinue his Action, or if upon Demurrer Judgment be given for the Defendant, every such Defendant shall have his full treble Costs.

This Act to be interpreted most beneficially for the suppressing Conventicles.

XIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That this Act, and all Clauses therein contained, shall be construed most largely and beneficially for the suppressing of Conventicles, and for the Justification and Encouragement of all Persons to be employed in the Execution thereof; (2) and that no Record, Warrant or Mittimus to be made by Virtue of this Act or any Proceedings thereupon, shall be reversed, avoided or any way impeached by reason of any Default in Form. (3) And in Case any Person offending against this Act, shall be an Inhabitant in any other County or Corporation, or fly into any other County or Corporation after the Offence committed, the Justice of Peace or Chief Magistrate before whom he shall be convicted as aforesaid, shall certify the same under his Hand and Seal, to any Justice of Peace or Chief Magistrate of such other County or Corporation wherein the said Person or Persons are Inhabitants or are fled into; (4) which said Justice or Chief Magistrate respectively, is hereby authorized and required to levy the Penalty or Penalties in this Act mentioned, upon the Goods and Chattels of such Person or Persons, as fully as the said other Justice of Peace might have done, in Case he or they had been Inhabitants in the Place where the Offence was committed.

Offenders to be prosecuted within three Months after the Offence.

XIV. Provided also, That no Person shall be punished for any Offence against this Act, unless such Offender be prosecuted for the same within three Months after the Offence committed. (2) And that no Person who shall be punished for any Offence by Virtue of this Act, shall be punished for the same Offence by Virtue of any other Act or Law whatsoever.

Aldermen within London to have the same Power there as Justices of Peace.

XV. Provided, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Alderman of London for the Time being, within the City of London and the Liberties thereof, shall have (and they and every of them are hereby impowered and required to execute) the same Power and Authority within London and the Liberties thereof, for the examining, convicting and punishing of all Offences within this Act committed within London and the Liberties thereof, which any Justice of Peace hath by this Act in any County of England, and shall be subject to the same Penalties and Punishments, for not doing that which by this Act is directed to be done by any Justice of Peace in any County of England.

Feme Covert.

XVI. Provided, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if the Person offending and convicted as aforesaid, be a Feme Covert, cohabiting with her Husband, the Penalties of five Shillings and ten Shillings, so as aforesaid incurred, shall be levied by Warrant as aforesaid, upon the Goods and Chattels of the Husband of such Feme Covert.

Peers of the Realm.

XVII. Provided also, That no Peer of this Realm shall be attached or imprisoned by Virtue or Force of this Act; any Thing, Matter or Clause therein to the contrary notwithstanding.

Proviso for the King's Supremacy.

XVIII. Provided also, That neither this Act, nor any Thing therein contained, shall extend to invalidate or avoid his Majesty's Supremacy in Ecclesiastical Affairs; (2) but that his Majesty and his Heirs and Successors may from Time to Time, and at all Times hereafter, exercise and enjoy all Powers and Authority rity in Ecclesiastical Affairs, as fully and as amply as himself or any of his Predecessors have or might have done the same; any Thing in this Act notwithstanding.

An Act for granting unto his Majesty an Imposition upon all Wines and Vinegar, imported between the four and twentieth Day of June one thousand six hundred seventy, and the four and twentieth Day of June one thousand six hundred seventy-eight. EXP.

CAP. IV.

An Act for the settling the Imposition on Brandy.

'WHEREAS by two Acts made in the twelfth Year of his Majesty's Reign, and confirmed by this present Parliament, there was laid upon every Gallon of Spirits, made of any Kind of Wine or Cyder imported, the Rate and Duty of Four-pence, namely, by each of the said Acts Two-pence: And upon every Gallon of strong-water perfectly made, imported from beyond the Seas, the Rate and Duty of Eight-pence; (2) and whereas some Doubts have been made and raised concerning a certain Liquor imported from beyond the Seas, called Brandy, whether the same should pay the Rate and Duty laid by the said Acts upon Spirits made of any Kind of Wine or Cyder imported, or the Rate and Duty thereby laid upon Strong-water perfectly made, imported from beyond the Seas:' 12 Car. 2. c. 23. 12 Car. 2. c. 24.

II. Be it therefore declared by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by Authority of the same, That the said Liquor called Brandy was at the Time of making and confirming the said Acts, and is a Strong-water perfectly made, and being imported from beyond the Seas, was and is charged and chargeable in and by the said Acts, with the Rate and Duty of Eight-pence per Gallon, set and imposed in and by both the said Acts upon Strong-water perfectly made and imported from beyond the Seas, and was not, nor is not chargeable with the Rate and Duty of Four-pence only per Gallon by the said Acts set and imposed upon Spirits made of Wine or Cyder imported. Brandy and Strong-water chargeable by the said two Acts.

III. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted, That in regard it doth not appear that the Rate or Duty of Eight-pence per Gallon was by his Majesty's Commissioners, Farmers or other Officers in that Behalf claimed or demanded by Virtue of the said Acts before the first Day of November in the Year of our Lord one thousand six hundred sixty and six, That no Person or Persons, who have imported any Brandies before that Time, shall be charged or chargeable with any more than the Rate and Duty of Four-pence per Gallon for any of the said Liquor called Brandy, imported from beyond the Seas before the said first Day of November in the Year of our Lord one thousand six hundred sixty and six; any Thing in the said Acts, or in this present Act, to the contrary notwithstanding. Eight-pence per Gallon not demanded before the first of November 1666. No Person before that chargeable for more than Four-pence.

IV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Penalty inflicted by the two aforesaid or any other Act or Acts of Parliament, for Non-payment of the said Duties since the first Day of November one thousand six hundred sixty and six, shall be levied upon any Person now in arrear, until the said Person so in arrear shall upon Demand to be made after the passing of this Act, refuse to pay the said Duties, or to secure the same to be paid within three Months after such Demand; and upon such Payment or Security given, all former Bonds or Obligations given for the Payment of the Four-pences formerly in Controversy, shall be delivered up by the several Person or Persons in whose Custody the same or any of them are; and that no Jury shall be subject to any Attaint by reason of any Verdict heretofore by them given concerning any Matter relating to this or any of the aforesaid Acts. Penalties, how and when to be levied. Farther Provisions relating hereto, 2 W. & M. sess. 2. c. 9. 3 & 4 W. & M. c. 15. 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 30.

'II. And whereas by an Act made in the one and thirtieth Year of the Reign of the late Queen Elizabeth, it is amongst other Things enacted, That if any Person having the Charge or Custody of any Armour, Ordnance, Munition, Shot, Powder or Habiliments of War of the said Queen's, her Heirs or Successors, or of any Victuals provided for the victualling of any Soldiers, Gunners, Mariners or Pioneers, 'shall for any Lucre or Gain, or willingly, advisedly and of Purpose to hinder or impeach her Majesty's 'Service, imbezil, purloin or convey away any the same Armour, Ordnance, Munition, Shot or Powder, 'Habiliments of War, or Victuals, to the Value of twenty Shillings, at one or several Times, that then 'every such Offence shall be adjudged Felony, and the Offender therein to be proceeded on, and suffer as 'in Case of Felony; (2) unto the committing of which several Offences many Persons are the more emboldened, in Respect that in those Cases the Benefit of Clergy is allowed by Law:'

Persons stealing Cloth from the Rack, or imbezilling his Majesty's Stores to the Value of 20 s. and thereof found guilty, shall be excluded from the Benefit of Clergy. 31 Eliz. c. 4.

III. Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and the Authority thereof, That no Person or Persons who shall from and after the five and twentieth Day of May in the Year of our Lord one thousand six hundred and seventy, be indicted for felonious Cutting and Taking, Stealing or Carrying away of any Cloth or other Woollen Manufactures from the Rack or Tenter in the Night-time, or for any Offence committed against the said recited Act made in the said one and thirtieth Year of Queen Elizabeth, or shall feloniously steal or imbezil any of his Majesty's Sails, Cordage, or any other his Majesty's Naval Stores, to the Value of twenty Shillings, and thereupon found guilty by Verdict of twelve Men, or shall confess the same upon his or their Arraignment, or will not answer directly to the same according to the Laws of this Realm, or shall stand wilfully or of Malice and obstinately Mute, or challenge peremptorily above the Number of twenty, or shall be upon such Indictment outlawed, shall from and after the said five and twentieth Day of May not be admitted to have the Benefit of his or their Clergy, but utterly be excluded thereof, and shall suffer Death in such Manner and Form as they should if they were no Clerks.

Judges may reprieve and transport them.

IV. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for the Judges or Justices of the Court before whom such Offender shall be arraigned and condemned, at their Discretion to grant a Reprieve for the Staying of Execution of such Offender, and to cause such Offender to be transported to any of his Majesty's Plantations beyond the Seas, there to remain for the Space of seven Years, to be accounted from the Time of such Transportation, and during all that Time there to be kept to Labour: (2) And if such Offender shall refuse to be so transported, or after such Transportation shall return or come again into this Kingdom of England, or the Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, within the Time aforesaid, that then and in every such Case the Person so returning shall be put to Execution upon the Judgment so given and pronounced against him.

IV. Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, with the Advice and Assent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by Authority of the same, That all and every Letters Patents to be granted by his Majesty before the four and twentieth Day of June in the Year of our Lord one thousand six hundred seventy-two, under his Great Seal, or under the Seal of his Duchy of Lancaster, or under the Seal of the County Palatine of Lancaster, of all or any of the Rents aforesaid (except before excepted) shall be and are hereby declared and enacted to be good, sufficient, and effectual in the Law, for the Granting and Assuring the several Rents aforesaid, or any any of them (except before excepted) and for vesting the same in such Persons and their Heirs, as shall be therein nominated as Trustees for the Sale thereof, against his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and against the Dukes of Cornwall for the Time being, and against all Person and Persons that shall have or inherit or enjoy the Dukedom of Cornwall by Force of any Act of Parliament, or other Limitation whatsoever, according to the Tenor and Effect of the said Letters Patents; (2) and the same shall be expounded, construed, deemed and adjudged most beneficially for the Patentees and Grantees of the same, and their Heirs, Successors, Executors, Administrators and Assigns, according to the Words and Purport of the said Letters Patents, without any Confirmation, Licence, or Toleration of his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors; any Mis-naming, Mis-recital, or Non-recital of any the Honours, Manors, Castles, Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments subject and liable to, or charged with the Payment of such Rents, or any Mis-recital or Non-recital of any Estate-tail formerly made, or of the Reversion thereupon Expectant, or any Mis-naming, or not true Naming of the Towns, Hamlets, Parishes or Counties where the same Honours, Manors, Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments charged or chargeable with the said Rents do lie, or any lack of the true naming of the Corporation, or any lack of Attornment, or any Mis-naming, or not naming of any of the Tenants or Farmers of the Lands charged or chargeable with such Rents or any Part thereof, to the contrary notwithstanding;

V. And notwithstanding any other Defect or Imperfection which shall happen therein, of what Nature or Kind soever it shall be: (2) And the said Rents so to be granted, shall be afterwards conveyed and disposed by the said Patentees and Trustees, according to the Directions and Instructions herein after mentioned.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Patentees and Trustees, and the Survivor and Survivors of them, shall make and execute to all and every Person and Persons, Bodies Politick and Corporate, their Heirs, Successors and Assigns, who shall become Purchaser or Purchasers of the said Rents, or of any Part thereof, an Indenture or Indentures of Bargain and Sale which shall be inrolled in any of the four Courts at Westminster, within six Months after the Date thereof, and shall contain a Conveyance and Assurance of the Rents so purchased, and transfer the same by Words of Bargain and Sale, or by Words of Grant, Release or Confirmation, or by such other apt Words and Clauses as by the said Purchaser or Purchasers, their Heirs, Successors or Assigns, shall be reasonably devised or required, and shall be thought most suitable and convenient to and for the several Cases and Titles of such Purchaser or Purchasers respectively; (2) and such Conveyance or Assurance shall also recite the Consideration in Money paid or given, and thereof and of every Part and Parcel thereof shall exonerate, acquit and discharge the said Purchaser or Purchasers, his and their Heirs, Successors, Executors and Assigns.

The Patentees and Trustees may sell the same Rents to any Purchaser, by Indenture of Bargain and Sale inrolled. Such Rents, how to be described in Deeds and Pleadings. 10 Ann. c. 18. §. 21.

VII. And be it further declared and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every Person and Persons, Bodies Politick and Corporate, his and their Heirs, Successors and Assigns, having and taking any such Conveyance and Assurance as aforesaid, and causing the same to be inrolled as aforesaid within the Space of six Months next after the Date thereof, shall be and is hereby adjudged in actual Seisin and Possession of the Rents so purchased and conveyed; (2) and shall hold and enjoy the same in perfect Peace, freed and discharged of and from all Claims and Demands which can or may be made by his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, either in Right of his Crown, or any the Duchies aforesaid, or otherwise howsoever, or by any Dukes of Cornwall for the Time being, or by any Person or Persons that shall have, inherit or enjoy the Dukedom of Cornwall, by Force of any Act of Parliament, or other Limitation whatsoever, and also freed and discharged of and from any Breach of Trust which can or may be pretended to be committed by the said Trustees, in not strictly pursuing the Powers given by this Act, or the Instructions herein after mentioned, or any other Instructions whatsoever, or the Orders to them directed at the Time of the making and executing such Conveyance; and shall also hold and enjoy all and every the Rents so purchased, as fully, freely and amply, as his Majesty at the Time of the passing of this Act did or might have held or enjoyed the same.

Purchasers by Virtue of such Deed peaceably to enjoy against all Claims.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That all and every Person and Persons, Bodies Politick and Corporate, who shall purchase any of the said Rents, and their and every of their Heirs, Successors and Assigns respectively, shall be and are hereby enabled to have, sue for and recover the same, by such and the like lawful Ways and Means, as his Majesty or any of his Royal Progenitors could or might have recovered the same, be it by distraining in all or any of the Lands of the Tenant or Tenants for the Time being, that shall hold any Lands charged with the said Rent, or by having Power to detain or sell all such Distresses after the Space of fifteen Days after such Distress taken, in Case the said Rent shall not be then or before paid, returning the Overplus of what shall be so sold, to the Party distrained; or by having the full Benefit and Advantage of all Sums of Money reserved nomine Pœnæ, or as a Penalty for Non-payment of the said Rent, or by using the like Action or Suit as his Majesty might have used for the Recovery of the same before such Patent granted, so as the same extend not to any such Process of Extent, or other Prerogative Process out of the Court of Exchequer, as his Majesty might have had before such Patent granted. (2) 'And forasmuch as upon divers Commissions of defective Titles, Inquisitions, or Suggestions of Concealments, divers Patents have formerly passed the Great Seal of England, or under the Seal of the Duchy of Lancaster, or under the Seal of the County Palatine of Lancaster, of divers Manors, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, whereupon divers Fee-farm Rents, or other Rents have been reserved, and sometimes put in Charge, where in Truth nothing hath passed by the said Letters Patents, nor have the Manors, Lands and Tenements, Liberties or Hereditaments mentioned to have been granted, been enjoyed or held under the said Letters Patents, but under other Titles, or by Virtue of other Letters Patents whereupon other Rents are reserved:'.

And to sue for and recover the same as his Majesty might have done.

IX. Be it therefore enacted, That such Fee-farm Rents, or other Rents, which have not been usually paid by the Owners or Occupiers of the Manors, Lands or Tenements charged, or mentioned to be charged, therewith by the greater Space of forty Years now last past, shall not be inserted or mentioned in any such

Fee-Farm and other Rents not paid for 40 Years

Laſt paſſ, not to be inſerted in the Patents.

Letters Patents to be hereafter granted to Truſtees, as aforeſaid: And further, That where any Perſon or Perſons, Bodies Politick or Corporate, have held any Manors, Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments ſubject to the Payment of any Fee-farm Rent, or other Rent which hath been uſually paid or anſwered by the Owners or Occupiers of ſuch Lands ſo charged; and that by Colour or Pretence of ſome Patent of Concealment, or by Pretence of Commiſſions for defective Titles paſſed of the ſame Lands, ſome other or greater Rent hath been reſerved or put in Charge, but the ſame hath not been uſually anſwered or paid by the Owners or Occupiers of the ſaid Lands by the greater Space of forty Years before mentioned; that then and in ſuch Caſe the Tenant of the Lands ſhall hold the ſame diſcharged of the ſaid Rent ſo reſerved by Virtue of the ſaid Patent of Concealment, or by Commiſſion of defective Titles, and alſo diſcharged of all Seizures and Diſtreſſes for the ſame, until the ſame ſhall have been recovered by due Courſe and Proceedings of Law.

Letters Patents of Manors, Lands, &c. heretofore granted.

(2) And if any Letters Patents of any Manors, Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, have been heretofore granted, whereupon any Fee-farm Rents, or other Rents have been reſerved, which at any Time after the paſſing of this Act, ſhall be ſold to any Purchaſer or Purchaſers, if ſuch Letters Patents whereupon ſuch Rents ſo ſold have been reſerved, ſhall at any Time hereafter be adnulled, defeated, repealed, cancelled, avoided or otherwiſe determined, whereby the Lands ſhall return to his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors; then and in every ſuch Caſe, all and every the Purchaſer and Purchaſers of ſuch Rents, their Heirs, Succeſſors and Aſſigns, ſhall have and receive out of the ſame Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, the like Rent, and for the like Eſtate therein, with that which was by them ſo purchaſed, and ſhall enjoy ſuch like Rent during ſuch Eſtate againſt his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and againſt all Perſons, Bodies Politick and Corporate, claiming by, from or under his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, by any Grant or Conveyance made or granted by his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, ſubſequent to ſuch Purchaſe made; and ſhall have like Remedy for Recovery thereof, (any ſuch Adnulling, Defeating, Repeal, Cancelling, Avoidance or other Determination of ſuch Letters Patents to the contrary notwithſtanding.)

Fee-Farmers before the 24th of Octob. 1642. and ſince the 29th of May 1660. their Diſcharges confirmed.

(3) And whereas by certain Covenants or Agreements on the King's Part contained in the original Reſervation of ſome of the ſaid Fee-Farm Rents or by the true Intent thereof, or by ſome Decrees in the Court of Augmentation, or Exchequer, made before the three and twentieth Day of October in the Year of our Lord one thouſand ſix hundred forty and two, or ſince the nine and twentieth Day of May in the Year of our Lord one thouſand ſix hundred and ſixty, divers Fee-Farmers were to be diſcharged, and Allowances to be made of divers Penſions, Portions, Rents Reſolute or other Things of the like Nature, and the Charge thereof hath been ſince allowed by his Majeſty out of the ſaid Fee-Farm Rents, upon the Accounts of Bailiffs, Miniſters and Receivers; it is hereby provided and declared, That this Act, or any Thing herein contained, ſhall not be conſtrued to annul or void any ſuch Covenants or Decrees, but that the ſame ſhall be allowed againſt the ſaid Purchaſer or Purchaſers, as it ſhould have been againſt his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, if the Letters Patents or Grants of ſuch Fee-Farm Rents hereby intended to be confirmed, had not been made; (4) Saving unto the Queen's Majeſty, and to all and every other Perſon and Perſons, Bodies Politick and Corporate, their Heirs and Succeſſors, and every of them (other than the King's Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and other than the Dukes of Cornwall for the Time being, and other than ſuch Perſon as ſhall have, inherit or enjoy the ſaid Dukedom of Cornwall, by Force of any Act of Parliament or other Limitation whatſoever) all ſuch Right, Title and Intereſt, Poſſeſſion, Leaſes or Eſtates, as they or any of them had, or ſhould or might have, or of Right ought to have had, in or to the ſaid Rents or any of them, or any of the Lands charged or chargeable with them or any of them, as fully and amply as they ſhould or might have had before the Letters Patents thereof made, as if this Act had never been had or made; any Thing herein before contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Corporations may buy and enjoy the Rents notwithſtanding the Statute of Mortmain.

X. And be it further enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for any Bodies Politick or Corporate, to purchaſe any the Fee-Farm Rents or other Rents ſo to be conveyed as aforeſaid, and the ſame Rents ſo purchaſed to retain and keep to them and their Succeſſors; any Statutes of Mortmain to the contrary notwithſtanding.

XI. Provided always, That neither this Act, nor any Thing therein contained, ſhall extend or be conſtrued to extend to the Sale of any the Fee-Farm Rents, Tenths, Chantry-Rents, Rents-Seck, or any dry or other Rents whatſoever, due or payable to his Majeſty or the Prince of Wales for the Time being, iſſuing or ariſing within the Principality and Dominion of Wales; this Act or any Thing therein contained to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

'XII. Inſtructions enacted to be obſerved in the Sale of Fee-Farm Rents; yet ſo as the Breach or Non-'purſuance of theſe Inſtructions, ſhall not invalidate or weaken the Title of any Purchaſer.'

Contracts to be ſigned by the Lord Treaſurer.

1. ALL Contracts touching the Sale of any Fee-Farm Rents or other Rents before mentioned, ſhall be ſigned by the Lord Treaſurer, or Lords Commiſſioners of the Treaſury for the Time being or any two of them.

2. The Truſtees ſhall convey to ſuch Perſons, as by Order from the Lord Treaſurer, or Lords Commiſſioners of the Treaſury, or any two of them, they ſhall be directed.

Purchaſe-Money how to be paid.

3. Every Contracter ſhall at or before the Time of the Sealing of his Conveyance, pay down one Moiety at leaſt of his Purchaſe-Money into the Exchequer, and ſhall alſo before he ſhall receive his Deed of Conveyance, give Security, ſuch as the Lord Treaſurer or Lords Commiſſioners of the Treaſury ſhall approve, for the Payment of the ſecond Moiety at the Time appointed.

Allowance.

4. Such Contracters as will pay down their whole Purchaſe-Money, ſhall receive ſuch Allowance for their preſent Payment of their ſecond Moiety, as ſhall be thought fit, ſo as the ſame exceed not the Rate of ten per Cent.

Tenants to be preferred in Point

5. The immediate Tenant liable to the Payment of any Rent, ſhall be preferred in the Purchaſe of it before any other, ſo as ſuch immediate Tenant tender himſelf to the Lord Treaſurer or Lords Commiſſioners sioners of the Treasury, to contract, within six Months after the passing of the said Patent, and Notice thereof published by his Majesty's Proclamation, and perfect his Contract, and pay or secure his Money as aforesaid, within six Months after, at such Rate as shall be agreed, not exceeding twenty Years Purchase. of Purchase. Within what Time Contracts to be perfected.

6. If the immediate Tenant, or some on his Behalf do not tender, and perfect his Contract, as in the last precedent Article, all Benefit of Preference or Pre-emption is to be lost.

7. The Purchaser may have his Conveyance in the Names of any Person or Persons he shall desire.

8. If any Fee-Farm Rent or other Rent, be subject to or charged with any Payment or other Incumbrance, Consideration shall be had of it at the Time of the Contract, and Reprize allowed for it accordingly; and where such Reprize is allowed, the Purchaser is to covenant to take upon him such Incumbrance so reprized. Incumbrance.

9. The Trustees are to hold the Rents conveyed to them for the Benefit of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, until Sale.

10. The Trustees in all Conveyances to be made by them shall covenant with the Purchasers in usual Form, to free the Premisses, and save the Purchaser harmless, from any Act done or suffered by them, which may any way incumber the Premisses. Covenant.

XIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Fee-farmers of any Mills formerly belonging to the Crown or Parcel of his Majesty's Duchy of Lancaster, shall have the Protection and Privilege of his Majesty's Courts of Exchequer and Duchy of Lancaster, and all Suits to Mill, and Aids of the said Courts, and enjoy all other former Privileges and Advantages, notwithstanding the Sale of the said Fee-Farm Rents issuing out of the said Mills, to all Intents and Purposes, and in as large and beneficial Manner, as when the said Fee-Farm Rents, or any of them, were payable to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors. Fee-Farmers of Mills.

An Act for ascertaining the Measures of Corn and Salt.

'WHEREAS there is a great Variety of Bushels and other Measures of different Contents and Gages used in several Counties, Cities, Boroughs, Ports and other Places of this Realm, for the Measuring, Buying and Selling of all Sorts of Grain, Salt, and other Commodities usually bought and sold by the Bushel, to the great Defrauding and Oppressing of the People, contrary to the Great Charter, and sundry of the good Laws formerly made and enacted, That there shall be but one Measure to be used throughout all the Realm:' Enforced by 8 Ann. c. 18. §. 12. 9 H. 3. Stat. 1. c. 25. 14 Ed. 3. Stat. 1. c. 12. 27 Ed. 3. Stat. 2. c. 10.

II. For future Redress whereof, Be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by Authority of the same, That this ensuing Clause contained in a Statute made in the seventeenth Year of King Charles the First, intituled, An Act for the better Ordering and regulating of the Office of Clerk of the Market, allowed and confirmed by this Statute, and for the Reformation of False Weights and Measures, (by way of Proviso, viz.) That such Measure as is commonly called Water-Measure, in any Ports, Maritime Towns, or other Places, shall be still used and continued as formerly the same hath been (any Thing in this Statute contained to the contrary hereof in any wise notwithstanding) shall from and after the nine and twentieth Day of September one thousand six hundred and seventy, be and stand nulled and repealed, as as to the Measuring, Selling, or Buying of any Sort of Corn or Grain ground or unground, or Salt, within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed: (2) And that if any Person or Persons after the Time aforesaid shall sell any Sort of Corn or Grain, ground or unground, or any Kind of Salt, usually sold by the Bushel, either in open Market, or any other Place, by any other 16 Car. 1. c. 19. A Clause therein repealed.

Bushel or Measure, than that which is agreeable to the Standard, marked in his Majesty's Exchequer, commonly called the Winchester Measure, containing eight Gallons to the Bushel, and no more or less, and the said Bushel struckен even by the Wood or Brim of the same by the Seller, and sealed as this Act directs, he or they shall forfeit for every such Offence the Sum of forty Shillings; (3) to be levied in such Manner, and such other Penalties for Want of Distress to be inflicted, as in and by the said former Act is directed by the Warrant or Order of any one or more of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace within the County, City or Place, where such Offence shall be committed; which said Justices respectively are hereby required and enabled to see this Statute duly executed.

Winchester Measure only to be used. For the Bushel of Salt, see 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 31. §. 44.

Forfeiture for offending against this Act.

Penalty enlarged by 22 & 23 Car. 2. c. 12.

The Penalty of Mayors and all other Officers permitting the Use of any other Measure.

III. And be it likewise further enacted by Authority aforesaid, That if any Mayor or other Head Officer of any City, Borough or Corporation or Liberty within this Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, shall knowingly and wilfully permit or suffer any Person or Persons within their respective Limits or Jurisdictions, to sell or buy any Sort of Corn or Grain ground or unground, or Salt, by any other Bushel or Measure, or struckен in any other Manner than is hereby prescribed; (2) or shall suffer within their respective Limits or Jurisdictions any other Measure to be used, than is of the Contents aforesaid, and sealed as this Act directs; (3) or if upon Complaint of the Breach of this Statute, he or they shall not duly punish and reform the same according to the Purport thereof; (4) Then he or they so offending, for every such Offence upon due Proof and Conviction thereof by Presentment or Indictment before the Justices of the Peace of the County where such Offence shall be committed, at the General Sessions of the Peace held for the same, shall forfeit the Sum of five Pounds; (5) the one Moiety thereof to the Informer or Prosecutor, the other Moiety to the Use of the Poor of the Parish where such Offence shall be committed, to be levied by Distress and Sale of the Offender's Goods and Chattels, and for Default of such Distress, by Imprisonment of the Person or Persons so offending, till Payment thereof made, by Warrant of the said Justices.

Clerk of the Market, &c. refusing to seal or mark any Measure, his Forfeiture.

Exacting Fees, how punished.

IV. And be it further enacted, That if the Clerk of the Market of his Majesty's House within the Verge, or the Mayor, or other Head Officer, Lord of the Liberty, or other Person authorized by the Laws of the Realm, to mark or seal Measures within their respective Jurisdictions, shall neglect or refuse, being required, to seal or mark any Bushel, Half-Bushel or Peck duly gaged, as is hereby before directed and appointed, shall forfeit for the first Offence five Pounds, and for every other Offence ten Pounds, to be levied as aforesaid; (2) or if the Clerk of the Market of his Majesty's House within the Verge, shall take more than the lawful and accustomed Fees; or if any other Person or Persons shall exact or take from any Person more than one Peny for the Sealing and Marking of a Bushel, or more than one Half-peny for the Sealing or Marking of a Half-Bushel or Peck, or more than one Farthing for the Sealing or Marking of any Measure containing one Gallon, Pottle, Quart, Pint or Half-Pint; he or they shall for every such Offence, upon due Proof and Conviction thereof, incur the Penalties mentioned and contained in the aforenamed Statute for the said Offence, made in the seventeenth Year of King Charles the First.

14 E. 3. Stat. 1. c. 12.

A Measure of Brass to be chained in every publick Market-place.

V. And to the End that there may be a just and certain Measure (to determine all Controversies) gaged as this Act directs, (2) Be it further enacted, That at the Charge of such Person or Persons respectively, who shall have the Toll or Profit of the Market, where Toll is not taken within any City, Corporation or Market-Town, within this Realm in their respective Jurisdictions, there shall be before the said nine and twentieth Day of September, one Measure of Brass provided, and chained in the publick Market-place; (3) upon Pain to forfeit and lose for every Person so neglecting respectively, the Sum of five Pounds, to be recovered and levied as is by this Act directed; one Moiety to the Poor of the Parish where such Offence shall be committed; the other Moiety to him or them that shall sue for the same.

Constables to search if any Persons use other Measures.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every Constable or Constables within this Realm of England, in their respective Precincts, are hereby impowered and required to search and examine if any Person or Persons use any other Measure than according to the Proportions aforesaid, or shall strike the same in any other Manner than this Act directs, or sell or buy by a Measure unsealed: (2) And in case he or they shall find any such unsealed Measure, to seise and break the same; and for that and every other Offence against this Act, shall present such Offender at the next private or quarterly Sessions to be held for such County or Place where such Offence shall be committed.

Once punished.

VII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That no Person or Persons punished for any Offence by Virtue of this Act, shall be again questioned or punished for the same Offence, by Virtue or Colour of any other Act.

Toll.

VIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted and declared, That no Person or Persons whatsoever shall take any Toll, or any Thing in Lieu thereof, but respectively according to such Proportion as the Measures in this Act limited and appointed bear unto the Measures whereby the same have been heretofore usually taken; any Law, Custom or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

CAP. XI.

An additional Act for the Rebuilding of the City of London, Uniting of Parishes, and Rebuilding of the Cathedral and Parochial Churches within the said City.

'WHEREAS by Virtue and in Pursuance of an Act of this present Parliament, intituled, An Act for Rebuilding the City of London, several Streets in the said Act particularly mentioned and described, have been enlarged and made wider by the Mayor, Aldermen and Commons of the said City, by and with the Approbation of the King's most Excellent Majesty; and forasmuch as certain other Streets within the said City, not particularly mentioned in the aforesaid Act, did also require some Regulation and Enlargement, (that is to say) the Street called Pater-noster-row, the Lane called Warwick-lane at the North-side thereof, Watling-street, Candlewike-street, Eastcheap, St. Swithin's-lane, Little Wood-street, Milk-street, Tower-street, Water-lane, situate on the East-side of London-Bridge near the Custom-house, Rood-lane, St. Mary-hill, Thames-street from London-Bridge to Puddle-dock, Pye-corner next to Smithfield, and Threadneedle-street; and to that End and Purpose the same by Order and Direction of the Mayor, Aldermen and Commons of the said City in Common Council assembled, by and with his said Majesty's Approbation, have been surveyed, and are found necessary to be enlarged:' 19 Car. 2. c. 3. Streets requiring Enlargement and Regulation.

II. Be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said Streets and Lanes in this Act before nominated and appointed to be enlarged, and every of them, shall be enlarged and regulated in such Parts and Places thereof, and in such Manner, and according as the same are marked and staked out for that Purpose, and not otherwise. 'And to the End that fit and commodious Places within the said City and Liberties thereof may be set out and appointed for the rebuilding and keeping of Markets with more Convenience than heretofore they were, so as the principal Streets may not be pestered and obstructed thereby, as heretofore hath been accustomed: And that the Royal Exchange, Guild-hall, the Sessions-house in the Old-bailey, and the Common Gaols and Prisons within the said City, may be enlarged and made more commodious for the publick Use and Ornament of the City, and better secured from the Danger and Casualty of Fire; and that some convenient Distance, Interval and Circuit of Ground may be left between the Royal Exchange, and other Houses to be built within the said City:' They shall be enlarged as they are now staked out. Royal Exchange, Guildhall, Sessions-house in the Old-baily.

III. Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Mayor, Aldermen and Commons of the said City in Common Council assembled, shall and may, and are hereby impowered to imploy such Places and Portions of Ground within the said City and Liberties thereof, as by and with his said Majesty's Approbation now are, or before the tenth Day of March one thousand six hundred sixty-nine shall be set out and adjudged necessary and convenient, as well for the publick Market-places there, as also for the Ornament, Enlargement and Convenience of the said Royal Exchange, and other Places afore-mentioned, and every or any of them respectively; Ground to be assigned for publick Market-places.

IV. And to the Intent that reasonable Satisfaction may be given to the Owners and others, having any Estate or Interest in the Grounds and Places which have been or shall be set out to be taken and imployed for publick Market-places, or for the Ornament and Convenience of the Royal Exchange, Guild-hall, and other Places in this Act mentioned, or any of them, or for enlarging the said Streets, or any Part thereof, called Pater-noster-row, Warwick-lane, Watling-street, Candlewike-street, Eastcheap, St. Swithins-lane, Little Wood-street, Milk-street, Tower-street, Water-lane, Rood-lane, Saint Mary Hill, Thames-street, Pye-corner next unto Smithfield, and Threadneedle street before-mentioned; the said Mayor, Aldermen and Commons shall and may (by themselves or others in that Behalf to be appointed and authorized) treat and agree with the Owners, and others interested therein: (2) And in Case of wilful Refusal, or any such Disability or Impediment as in the aforesaid Act are mentioned, or other Incapacity whatsoever in the Owners thereof, or others interested therein, to treat and agree, the said Mayor and Court of Aldermen shall and are hereby authorized and required to cause a Jury to be impanelled in such Manner and Form as by the aforesaid Act is directed and appointed, so as no two of the said Jurors so to be impanelled, shall come out of one and the same Ward, to adjudge and assess what Recompence and Satisfaction in every of the Cases aforesaid ought to be awarded and given to the respective Owners, and others interested in the Grounds and Places so set out, to be taken and imployed for any the Uses or Purposes aforesaid, in Pursuance of this Act, according to such their respective Estates and Interests; (3) and the Verdict of such Jury in that Behalf to be taken, and the Judgment of the said Mayor and Court of Aldermen thereupon, and the Payment of the Money so awarded or adjudged, at or in the Office of the Chamberlain of the said City of London for the Time being, to the said Chamberlain, there to remain by the Space of six Months, for the Owners or others interested therein, as aforesaid, and after that Time to be paid unto them by the said Chamberlain upon Demand, (if that within that Time there shall not arise any Controversy touching the Payment thereof, by Reason of different Claims made thereunto as hereafter is expressed) shall be binding and conclusive to and against the Owners, and all others having or claiming or to claim any Estate, Right, Title or Interest of, in, to or out of the same, their Heirs, Executors, Administrators, Successors and Assigns, and every of them; and shall be a full Authority for the said Mayor, Aldermen and Commons, to cause the same to be converted and used to and for the respective Uses and Purposes aforesaid: (4) And in Case any Controversy shall arise between any Person or Persons, Bodies Politick or Corporate, or his or their Assigns, or Under-tenants, or other Persons, claiming any Estate, Right, Title or Interest in Law or Equity, Trust, Charge or Incumbrance, of or in the said Ground so to be purchased or converted as aforesaid, who shall find him or themselves aggrieved, for or by Reason that the said Monies so given in Satisfaction to Owners for Ground taken away. The Mayor, Aldermen and Commons, to treat and agree with Owners, and in Case of wilful Refusal, to impanel a Jury, whose Verdict and the Judgment of the Mayor and Court of Aldermen thereupon, with Payment of the Money so awarded into the Chamberlain's Office, shall be binding and conclusive. Controversies to be decided by the Judges, and in what Manner.

Satisfaction for the said Ground, is not or shall not be equally or indifferently apportioned, according to the true Value of his or their Interests in the said Grounds; That then the Justices of the Courts of King's Bench and Common Pleas, and Barons of the Coif of the Court of Exchequer for the Time being, or any three or more of them, sitting together at the same Time and Place, upon the Petition of the said Party or Parties grieved, to be preferred to any one of them within six Months after the said Verdict so had and given, and not after, are hereby authorized to hear and finally determine the same, and to order and award such Distribution of the Monies so paid unto the Chamberlain as aforesaid, to the said Person or Persons, Bodies Politick or Corporate respectively, according to his and their several and respective Interests in the same, in such Manner and Form as the said Justices and Barons, or any three of them, may determine any Differences or Demands which have arisen, or shall arise between any Landlord or Tenant, touching Repairing or Rebuilding any of the Houses burnt down, or demolished by the late Fire, by Virtue of an Act of this present Parliament, intituled, An Act for Erecting a Judicature for Determination of Differences, touching Houses burnt down or demolished by the late Fire which happened in London; according to which Order and Distribution the said Sum and Sums shall be paid by the said Chamberlain to the several Persons respectively.

19 Car. 2. c. 2.

Where several Persons having several Estates in one House or Ground, and some delay to build, to the Prejudice of others, the Rest may rebuild the Whole, if they will, and enjoy it to their own Use, till reimbursed.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in Case it shall happen that where there were two or more Copartners, Jointenants, or Tenants in Common, of any House or Houses burned or demolished by the said late Fire, or that two or more Persons, Bodies Politick or Corporate, had several Estates or Interests in several Rooms, Stories or Parts of any such House or Houses burned or demolished, and that some or one of them is desirous and willing to build the same, or such Part, Room or Story of or in the same, as to him or them doth or may appertain, according to his or their Estate or Interest, as aforesaid, and that any other of the said Copartners, Jointenants or Tenants in Common, or others having such Estate or Interest as aforesaid in any of the Rooms, Stories or Parts thereof, shall delay or refuse to join in Rebuilding of the same, or to contribute his and their reasonable Part and Proportion towards the Charge thereof; that then it shall and may be lawful to or for any one or more of such Copartners, Jointenants, Tenants in Common, or others having Estate or Interest in any the Rooms, Stories, or Parts thereof, as aforesaid, that will rebuild the said House or Houses, to cause such House or Houses to be wholly rebuilt in such Sort and Manner as the same was or were before the said late Fire, or as near thereunto as conveniently may be, (the present model of Building considered) and Respect being had to the different Interests of the Parties concerned, as aforesaid, and the same House or Houses so rebuilt, to hold and enjoy to his and their own proper Use and Benefit, until that he or they shall be fully satisfied and reimbursed all such and so much of the Charge of such Building as in a due Proportion ought to have been contributed or allowed towards the Building thereof by such Copartners, Jointenants, Tenants in Common, or others having such Estate or Interest as aforesaid, according to his or their Estate or Interest therein, as aforesaid, together with Damages for the same, after the Rate of six Pounds per Cent. per Annum, for the Forbearance thereof, to be accounted from the Covering of the said Building. (2) And in Case of Neglect or Refusal to satisfy and pay such Proportion of the Charge of Rebuilding thereof by the Space of two Years, to be accounted from the Covering as aforesaid, that then it shall and may be lawful to and for such Rebuilders, from and after the End and Expiration of the said two Years, to be accounted as aforesaid, paying to such Copartners, Jointenants, Tenants in Common, or others having such Estate or Interest as aforesaid therein, so much as such their Estate or Interest shall be reasonably worth, or upon Tender and Refusal thereof, to hold and enjoy such House or Houses so rebuilt, as aforesaid, wholly and intirely against the Parties so refusing, their Heirs, Executors, Administrators, Successors and Assigns, for and during the Continuance of such joint or other Estate or Interest aforesaid, as the Party and Parties, by whom such House or Houses shall be so rebuilt, had in the same, or in any Room, Story, or other Part thereof: (3) And in Case any Difference shall happen between such Builders, and any the Parties refusing to build as aforesaid, concerning the Charge of Rebuilding the same, or concerning the Value of the Estate or Interest of the Parties so refusing to build as aforesaid, and what Money ought to be paid or given for the same by such Rebuilder after such Time and in Manner as aforesaid, that then the same shall be referred to the Surveyors to be appointed for the said City for the Time being, who, or any two of them, shall and may upon their View adjudge, estimate and determine the same respectively: And in Case the said Parties, or either of them, shall refuse to submit to such the Judgment and Determination of the said Surveyors, that then the said Matters shall be referred to the Examination of the said Mayor and Court of Aldermen, who shall hear and finally determine the same without further Appeal.

Difference about Charge of Building to be determined by the City-Surveyors.

Party-walls.

VI. And be it further enact and declared, That where there were several Owners or others interested of or in several Rooms, Stories, or other Parts of any House or Houses, which shall or may obstruct or hinder the making of the Party-walls intire and upright, and that the Parties therein concerned cannot or will not come to an Agreement touching the same; that then it shall be referred to the said Surveyors for the Time being, or any two of them, to determine the Difference thereby arising, (if they can) who shall and may order and appoint an indifferent Exchange to be made betwixt the said Parties, by dividing their Ground, Rooms or Stories, or otherwise, as to them shall seem most meet and reasonable, for accommodating of their several Interests, or otherwise shall and may award Satisfaction to be given in Money to such of the said Parties as there shall be Cause, to the Intent the Walls may be made upright according to the Direction of the aforesaid Act for Rebuilding; (2) and in Case the Parties therein concerned, or either or any of them, shall refuse to submit to such the Order and Determination of the said Surveyors, that then the said Matter shall be referred to the said Mayor and Court of Aldermen to hear and finally determine the same without further Appeal.

Holborn-bridge Passage to be enlarged.

'VII. And whereas the Way or Passage of Holborn-bridge is now too strait and incommodious for the 'many Carriages and Passengers daily using and frequenting the same, and is therefore necessary to be en-'larged;' (2) Be it therefore likewise enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Mayor, Aldermen and Commons, so to enlarge and make wider the same, as that the said Way and Passage may run in a Bevil-Line, from a certain Timber-house on the North-side thereof, commonly called or known by the Name or Sign of the Cock, unto the Front of the Buildings of a certain Inn called the Swan Inn, situate on the North-side of Holborn-hill as aforesaid.

VIII. And to prevent any Doubts that may hereafter arise concerning Corner-piers, and with what Materials the same ought to be made; (2) Be it enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That all Corner-piers of Stone or Brick hereafter to be erected, shall be of the Dimensions of the Piers of Stone mentioned in the said Act. The Dimension of Corner-piers.

IX. And that it be left to the Liberty of all and every the Builders of Corner-houses, to use a substantial Post of Oak-Timber, to prevent the Danger that may happen by Carts and Carriages, instead of the Corner-pier of Brick or Stone, of such Dimensions and Scantlings, as the Surveyors of the said City shall direct or appoint; the said Act, or any Thing therein contained, to the contrary notwithstanding.

X. And be it enacted, That the Water from the Tops of all Houses already built since the late Fire, and hereafter to be built, and Fronting or that shall Front upon any the Streets, Lanes or Passages, within the said City and Liberties, shall be carried and conveyed into the Channels by Pipes and Party-pipes (as the Case shall require) to be brought down on the Sides or Fronts of the said Houses. Water from the Tops of the Houses to be carried down by the Sides in Pipes.

'XI. And whereas by the said Act for the Rebuilding of the City of London, it is also enacted for the 'Preventing of Inundations, and for Easiness of Ascent, That the Street called Thames-street, and all the 'Ground between the said Street and the River of Thames, should be raised and made higher by three Foot 'at the least, above the Surface of the Ground as then it lay; and also that the Lord Mayor and Aldermen 'of London should and might open and enlarge a Street or Passage to the River of Thames from Cheapside 'through Soper-lane, and thence to Thames-street, and thenceforth to the River of Thames; and from the 'Three-Cranes to the Thames aforesaid, and to make the same Streets and Passages four and twenty Foot in 'Breadth:' (2) Now for Prevention of any Doubt that may arise touching the Manner of Cutting the said Streets, and ordering the same; and to the End the said Street called Thames-street, and the Ground between the same and the River of Thames, may be raised according to the Intent of the said Act, and that other Streets and Passages leading to and from the same, may be answerable to their Levels thereunto, and that the Steepness and Difficulty of the Rising and Ascent from the said River may with the more Ease be abated; (3) Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Streets or Passages from Cheapside through Soaper-lane to Thames-street, and thenceforth to the River of Thames, and also from the Three-Cranes to the said River, shall be and remain in such Manner and Form as now they are; any Matter or Thing to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding. Thames-street to be raised three Foot at least. The enlarged Passage from Cheapside to the Thames confirmed.

XII. And all Owners, Occupiers, and all other Person and Persons, any Way interested of or in any Grounds so staked and set out for the Cutting, Opening and Enlarging of the said Streets, Lanes or Passages, or any of them, are hereby required to take Notice thereof, and to conform thereunto accordingly; (2) and also that the Levels and Marks for Raising or Sinking as well of the said Street called Thames-street, and the Ground between the same and the River of Thames, as all other Streets in and about the said City and Liberties thereof, in such Manner as the same are or shall be appointed to be done before the twenty-ninth Day of September one thousand six hundred seventy-one, by the Commissioners of Sewers and Pavements appointed by Act of Parliament, be henceforth observed in all Places within the same.

XIII. Provided nevertheless, That where any House or Houses for Habitation have been built, or were in Building, within the said City and Liberties thereof, on or before the fourteenth Day of May in the Year of our Lord one thousand six hundred sixty and eight, at which Time the said Rules and Levels, for Raising or Sinking of the said Streets, were either not published, or not generally known; that it shall and may be lawful for the said Surveyors (who are hereby authorized and required so to do) with as little Variation from the said Rule as conveniently may be, so to alter the said Levels or Marks, or any of them, as that the said Buildings so erected may receive as little Damage thereby as may be: And if the said Surveyors or either of them, upon Request and due Notice to be given by the Owner or Occupier of such House, shall refuse to do his or their Duty herein, or the said Owner or Occupier shall have any just Exceptions to their Determination in the Premisses; that then and in such Case, it shall and may be lawful for the said Owner or Occupier of such House, (so thereby grieved) to appeal by his Petition in Writing to the Lord Mayor and Court of Aldermen, who upon deliberate Hearing of both Sides shall finally determine such Controversy without further or other Appeal.

'XIV. And whereas in and by the said Act for Rebuilding of the said City, it is further provided, That 'the Surveyors by Virtue of the said Act appointed, and every of them, within their several Precincts, shall 'take Care for the equal setting out of all Party-walls and Party-piers, and that they permit no Person 'to build either on the said Party-walls, or on his own contiguous Ground, till the same be performed ac-'cordingly:'

XV. Now to the Intent that all Exaction in taking the said Surveys, and that all Differences which may hereafter arise between any the said Builders, may be prevented; (2) Be it enacted, That no Builders be permitted by the said Surveyors to lay his or their Foundations, until the said Surveyors, or one of them, according to the true Intent of the said Act, have first viewed the same, and seen the said Party-walls and Piers equally set out accordingly: For the Defraying whereof, and all incident Charges of Measuring, Staking out, taking the Level, and Surveying the said Streets and Grounds;

XVI. Be it further enacted, That all and every the said Builders, before his or their Foundation shall be laid, or such Survey taken, shall repair to the Chamberlain of London, and there enter his Name, together with the Place where the said Building is so to be set out, and pay down to the said Chamberlain the Sum of six Shillings and eight Pence for every Foundation so to be built respectively, upon Receipt whereof the said Chamberlain shall give his Acquittance; which said Acquittance being produced to the said Surveyors, or any Builders must pay to the Chamberlain of London 6s. 8d. before they lay their Foundation.

any of them, they and every of them are hereby required within three Days next after such Request, to survey and set out all and every the said Foundations accordingly.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That all and every the said Builders, who have at any Time since the making of the said Act for Rebuilding the said City, laid any Foundations to be built upon, shall forthwith pay unto the Chamberlain aforesaid, for every the Foundations severally erected to be inhabited, the Sum of six Shillings and eight Pence, unless the same hath been formerly paid; and in Default thereof, it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Chamberlain for the Time being, by Action of Debt, to be commenced in the Name of the said Chamberlain in the King's Majesty's Court, to be holden in the Chamber of the Guild-hall of the said City, before the Lord Mayor and Aldermen of the same City, to recover the same, in which Action no Essoin or Wager of Law shall be allowed.

Difference about the true Value of Party-walls to be decided by the Aldermen of the Ward, or else upon Appeal, by the Lord Mayor and Court of Aldermen.

'XVIII. And whereas it is provided in and by the said Act, That all Differences arising between any the Builders within the said City or Liberties thereof, concerning the true Value of Party-walls, and all Differences arising between the said Builders or any others, concerning the Placing or Stopping up of any Lights, Windows, Water-courses or Gutters, which may hinder or retard the said Buildings, shall and may be heard, mediated and determined (if it may be) by the Alderman of the Ward where the Cause of any such Difference shall arise, and his Deputy; (2) and where the said Alderman and his Deputy, or any of them, be concerned as Parties in the Controversies, or that they cannot determine the said Differences, That then and in every such Case the same be certified by the said Alderman or his Deputy unconcerned therein to the said Mayor and Court of Aldermen, who upon deliberate Hearing of all Parties shall finally determine the same without further Appeal. (3) Nevertheless, in the said Act there is no certain Penalty provided for such as shall obstinately refuse to obey the said Determination:'

Penalties for Disobedience.

XIX. Now to the End there may be a due Obedience yielded to such Determinations as have been or shall be made in any of the Cases last mentioned, and in all other Cases hereby left to the final Determination of the said Mayor and Court of Aldermen; (2) Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every Party and Parties any Way concerned to give Obedience to any such Determination as aforesaid, shall obey and perform the same, under such Pains and Penalties as by the said Act are or may be inflicted upon the Builder or Levier of any irregular built House, contrary to the Meaning of the same late Act.

XX. And be it further enacted, That all Differences which shall or may arise concerning the Misplacing, Straitning or Stopping up, or any Ways obstructing any common or private Entries, Allies, Ways, Stairs, Landing-places or Passages, Houses of Office, Tunnels, Draughts and other Easements, heretofore used and enjoyed within the said City of London or the Liberties thereof, shall and may by Virtue of this Act be heard, mediated and determined (if it may be) by the Alderman of the Ward where the Cause of any such Difference shall arise, and his Deputy: (2) And where the said Alderman and his Deputy, or one of them, be concerned as Parties in the said Controversy, or that they cannot determine the same Differences, That then upon Complaint of the Party or Parties concerned, to the said Mayor and Court of Aldermen, they shall hear and finally determine the same in such Manner, as by the aforesaid Act for the Rebuilding of the said City of London is appointed, in Case of Differences concerning Placing and Stopping of Lights, Windows and Watercourses; and all Parties concerned are hereby required to obey and submit to such their Determination, under such and the like Penalties, as by the aforesaid Act are or may be inflicted upon such irregular Builders as aforesaid: (3) And that all such Obstructions, as well where any Lights, Windows, Water-courses or Gutters, are or shall be hindred and stopped up, as whereby any common or private Allies, Entries, Ways, Stairs, Landing-places or Passages, are or shall be stopped up, straitned or misplaced as aforesaid, shall and may by Order of the said Mayor and Court of Aldermen be abated and removed by Virtue of this Act.

Rates for Wharfage and Cranage to be assessed by his Majesty and Privy Council.

'XXI. And forasmuch as great Exactions have been and are exercised by Wharfingers and others employed about the Wharfage and Cranage of Goods landed or shipped off, at or from the said City of London:' (2) For Remedy thereof, be it enacted, That such Rates and no other shall from Time to Time be taken for Wharfage and Cranage, as well of Timber and other Materials for Building, as of Coals and other Goods and Merchandizes, as by his said Majesty with the Advice of his Privy Council shall for that Purpose be assessed and allowed to be taken, a Table of which Rates shall be hanged up at every of the said Wharfs respectively; (3) and if any Wharfinger or other shall exact or demand, or directly or indirectly take or receive for Wharfage or Cranage, or by Colour thereof, more than according to the Rates which shall be so assessed, or shall refuse to suffer any Goods or Merchandize to be landed or shipped at, off or from any Wharf or Wharfs within the said City or the Liberties thereof at the Rates aforesaid, such Offender shall forfeit for every such Offence the Sum of ten Pounds to the Party or Parties thereby grieved, to be recovered with full Costs of Suit, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, or within the said City of London, as the Cause shall arise, wherein no Essoin, Protection or Wager of Law shall be allowed, nor any more than one Imparlance.

19 Car. 2. c. 2. revived, with an additional Authority to the Judges.

'XXII. And whereas the aforesaid Act for erecting a Judicature for Determination of Differences touching Houses burned or demolished by Reason of the late Fire which happened in London, is expired; and for that there were many Causes brought before the said Judicature which are yet undetermined, and divers other Causes proper to receive a Determination before the said Justices and Barons, which they found not to be within the Authority given them by the aforesaid Act; and that many more Differences do and may arise, which could not be heard and determined within the Time limited by the said Act;' and for a further and additional Authority to the said Justices and Barons, to hear and determine all the aforesaid Differences, and for a more easy Execution of the said Authority; (2) It is hereby further enacted and declared, That the same Act, and the Judicature thereby erected, and all and every the Powers and Authorities thereby given to the Justices of the Court of King's Bench, and Common Pleas, and Barons of the Coif of the Exchequer for the Time being, or any three or more of them, and all other Matters and Things therein contained, shall from henceforth stand and be revived, and remain in full Force until the twenty-twenty-ninth Day of September one thousand six hundred seventy-one; any Clause, Matter or Thing in the said Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That the Term of forty Years shall not be added to any Estate for Life, or Term of Years in Being so as thereby to make the whole Term exceed the Number of sixty Years, by any Decree hereafter to be made by Virtue of this or the said former Act. No Term to exceed sixty Years.

XXIV. Provided always, and it is hereby declared, That the said Judges and Barons of the respective Courts aforesaid, or any of them, shall not take Cognizance of, nor proceed to hear or determine, any Differences or Demands which have arisen, or may in any wise arise, between any Landlords, Proprietors, Tenants, Lessees, Under-Tenants, or late Occupiers of any the said Houses or Buildings, or any other Matter or Things by the aforesaid Act in that Behalf made, referred to the Determination of the said Judicature, upon any Complaint or Request, unless the same shall be exhibited, or depending before the said Judicature, at or before the twenty-ninth Day of September one thousand six hundred and seventy: (2) And that in all such Cases where no Complaint or Request shall before that Time be exhibited or depending before the said Judges and Barons, it shall and may be lawful to and for all Landlords and Proprietors, from and after the said twenty-ninth Day of September one thousand six hundred and seventy, to re-enter upon the Ground or Soil to be rebuilt upon, and to avoid the Interest and Term as well of the Tenants in Possession, as of all other Mean-Tenants, and to rebuild thereupon, whereby to preserve his or their Estate or Interest therein from being sold by the said Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council, by Virtue of the said late Act for Rebuilding the City of London. Complaints to be exhibited before the 29th Sept. 1670.

'XXV. And whereas divers Lessees for Years, having Terms to come at the Time of the said Fire, have 'omitted to Rebuild, and their Landlords for saving their Inheritances from Forfeiture have rebuilt or be-'gun to rebuild Houses thereupon, and many of them have Let the same to other Tenants, who with their 'Trades and Families are settled therein:' (2) To the End the said Rebuilders and their Assigns may not be disquieted in their Possessions, Be it enacted, That where any Termor for Years to come at the Time of the said Fire hath so omitted to rebuild, and the Landlord or his Assignee or Assignees hath rebuilt or begun to rebuild, that the Leases of such Termors who have omitted to rebuild, be from henceforth absolutely void; Nevertheless, the said Judges are hereby authorized to award such Contribution or Recompence to the said Termors as they shall think fit. Lessees omitting to build, lose their Term.

XXVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if after any Order, Judgment or Decree hath been or hereafter shall be pronounced by any three or more of the said Justices or Barons, any one or more of the said Justices or Barons so pronouncing the same are already dead, or shall die before such Order, Judgment or Decree shall be signed according to the said recited Act, the Signing thereof by the Survivor or Survivors of the said Justices and Barons shall be as good and effectual to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same were signed by three or more of the said Justices and Barons; any Thing in the said recited Act contained to the contrary thereof notwithstanding. Decrees signed by two Judges, effectual.

XXVII. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That where any Person or Persons concerned in any of the demolished Premisses, is or shall be beyond the Seas, or cannot be found, or summoned to appear in the said Court, That upon the Complaint or Petition of the Party agrieved, Filed in the said Court for the Space of three Months or more, and Oath in Writing made of the Endeavour to summon such absent Person or Persons; That then the said Court shall or may after the End of the said three Months proceed to hear and determine the said Cause: And that such Order, Judgment or Decree, as the said Justices and Barons, or any three or more of them, shall make in such Case, shall be binding to such absent Person or Persons, their Heirs, Executors, Administrators and Assigns, as if he or they were actually summoned and present at the making such Decree. Persons Absent, or beyond Sea.

XXVIII. And also be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That for the avoiding Difficulties in the Recovering of Rents, and for the Ascertaining of Covenants, Terms and Conditions, Ordered or to be Ordered or Decreed according to this or the said recited Act, all and every Person and Persons, Bodies Politick and Corporate respectively, bound by such Order or Decree, their respective Heirs, Successors and Assigns, shall and may execute Leases and Counter-parts thereof, according to the Tenor of the said Orders and Decrees, and they are thereunto required by Virtue of this present Act: All which Leases shall be binding and good in Law; any Law, Statute or Inability whatsoever to the contrary notwithstanding. (2) And that where Leases in Reversion or additional Terms are or shall be Ordered or Decreed by Force of this or the said recited Act, the respective Parties concerned shall or may at their Pleasure unite and join together both the present and additional Terms into one Lease, which shall be good and effectual against the Lessors, their Heirs, Executors, Successors and Assigns; any Law, Statute, Usage or Custom whatsoever to the contrary thereof notwithstanding. Leases to be made according to Decree of the said Judicature, good.

XXIX. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Justices and Barons, or the greater Number of them, shall or may appoint a Seal to be and remain with the Register of the said Court for the Sealing of all Warrants, and that all such Warrants which shall be sealed with the said Seal and signed by the said Register for the Summoning or Warning any Persons, Bodies Politick and Corporate, concerned in the late demolished Houses and Premisses, or Witnesses, shall oblige them to appear according to the Tenor of such Warrants; any Thing in the said former Act to the contrary thereof notwithstanding. Justices and Barons may appoint a Seal.

XXX. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That where the Inheritance or other Estate of or in any of the said Houses or Premisses are or shall be in any Infant or Infants under the Age of one and twenty Years, or in any Trustees for them or any of them; It shall be in the Power of the said Justices and Barons or any three or more of them, upon the Petition of the Father, Mother or next of Kin, or other Friend to such Infant or Infants, to Order or Decree a Lease or Leases against such Infant or Infants, and their Trustees, for any Term or Terms of Years, not exceeding fifty-one Years in the whole, to such Father, Mother or other Person that shall or will undertake the Rebuilding of such Houses, at and under such Rent or Rents, and under such Covenants, Conditions and Agreements, as they the said Justices and Barons, Infants, how Decrees may be made against them.

Barons, or any three or more of them, ſhall think fit and adjudge; which ſaid Leaſes and Terms ſo Decreed, ſhall and may be held and enjoyed accordingly, by Virtue of this preſent Act; and that ſuch Infant or Infants, upon Requeſt, after they ſhall attain to their reſpective Ages of one and twenty Years, and in Caſe of the Death of ſuch Infant or Infants, his and their Heirs, Executors or Adminiſtrators, ſhall and are hereby required to execute ſuch Leaſes accordingly, and the reſpective Tenants the Counter-parts thereof.

Terms ordered by Decrees of the Judges ſhall be accordingly enjoyed.

XXXI. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That for the Encouragement of Builders, and ſecuring their Eſtates, every Order, Judgment and Decree that hath been or ſhall hereafter be made by the ſaid Juſtices and Barons or any three or more of them, by Force of this or the ſaid recited Act, touching the Intereſts and Eſtates of Tenants in Tail, ſhall conclude and bind as well Tenants in Tail and their Iſſues, as alſo the Eſtates in Remainder and Reverſion, according to the Tenor of ſuch Order, Judgment or Decree.

'XXXII. And for better ſecuring the Eſtates of the ſaid Builders,' Be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every Perſon and Perſons, and their Executors, Adminiſtrators and Aſſigns, who are or ſhall be Decreed by the ſaid Judicature, to build any Meſſuages or Tenements, or any the ſaid demoliſhed Premiſſes, upon any Term or Eſtates, rendring an annual Rent, have or ſhall build the ſame accordingly, ſhall hold and enjoy ſuch their ſeveral and reſpective Terms and Eſtates, under the Rents and Covenants Decreed, notwithſtanding any other Eſtate, Right, Title, Intereſt in Law or Equity, Truſt, Charge or other Incumbrance whatſoever.

Actions may be brought to enforce the Performance of the Judges Decrees.

XXXIII. And for the better obliging of all Perſons to the Performance of the Orders and Decrees made or to be made by the ſaid Judicature; (2) Be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That where any Perſon or Perſons are or ſhall be ordered or decreed to pay any Rate, Contribution, Sum or Sums of Money, in Purſuance of this or the ſaid recited Act for erecting the ſaid Judicature; it ſhall be lawful for the Parties concerned, upon Non-payment thereof, to ſue for and recover the ſame by Action of Debt or upon the Caſe in any of his Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter or within the City of London, and to give ſuch Order or Decree in Evidence to prove the ſame: In which Action, no Eſſoin, Protection or Wager of Law ſhall be allowed. (3) And where any Perſon or Perſons are or ſhall be ordered, adjudged or decreed to build, ſeal a Leaſe, give Security, or do any other Act in Purſuance of this or the aforeſaid Act, it ſhall and may be lawful for the Party or Parties concerned in Default of Performance thereof, by Action upon his Caſe to be brought in any of his ſaid Majeſty's Courts of Record aforeſaid, to recover Damages for ſuch Non-Performance, or to have or bring his Bill in any Court of Equity, to enforce the actual Performance of of the ſame.

Adminiſter Oaths.

XXXIV. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful for the ſaid Juſtices and Barons or any of them, out of Court, to adminiſter Oaths and take Affidavits in Writing, concerning any Matter relating to the Proceedings in the ſaid Judicature, which Affidavits ſhall or may be made uſe of in Court, as the ſaid Juſtices and Barons or any three or more of them ſhall think fit.

'XXXV. And whereas ſome Orders and Decrees in the late Court of Judicature erected by the late Act 'of Parliament, touching the Houſes burnt in London, were made the ſame Week that the Power of the 'ſaid Court of Judicature determined, whereby the Parties concerned had not the ſame Time and Liberty 'of Exception and Appeals others had;' (2) Be it therefore provided and enacted by this preſent Parliament, and the Authority thereof, That where any ſuch Order or Decree was made by a leſſer Number of Juſtices and Barons than ſeven, if the ſaid Order or Decree were made ſince the one and twentieth Day of December in the Year of our Lord one thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and eight; It ſhall be lawful for any Perſons agrieved by ſuch Order or Decree, to preſent their Exceptions to the ſame in Writing, within ſeven Days next after the firſt Sitting of the ſaid Juſtices and Barons, by Virtue of this preſent Act; and that the ſame Examination, Proceedings, Review and Determination, ſhall be thereupon had and made, and as effectually to all Intents, as if the ſaid Exceptions had been preſented within the due Time limited and appointed by the ſaid late Act of Parliament; any Thing in this or the ſaid late Act or Parliament to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Appeals allowed, and in what Caſes.

'XXXVI. And whereas there were ſeveral Houſes in the City of London conſumed by Fire within three 'Years next before the ſaid late dreadful Fire, which by reaſon of ſome Differences and Doubts ariſing in 'Point of Title, the ſame were not nor are likely to be rebuilt, unleſs ſome Courſe be taken for the deciding 'of ſuch Differences:' (2) For Remedy whereof, Be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Judges and Barons or any three or more of them be and are hereby authorized and impowered, to hear and determine all ſuch Caſes for all ſuch Houſes and Tenements, as fully and amply, and in like Manner to all Intents and Purpoſes, as they can or may hear and determine any other Matter herein mentioned: And all Decrees and Orders in ſuch Caſes to be made, ſhall bind and be obeyed by all Parties therein concerned, and ſhall be of like Effect, as if the ſame were made for any other Matter or Thing herein mentioned.

Further Power given to the Judges.

'XXXVII. And whereas by reaſon of inlarging ſeveral Streets, and of making the new Streets called 'King-ſtreet, leading from Guild-hall into Cheapſide, and Queen-ſtreet, leading from Soaper-lane to the River 'of Thames, there are divers Slips and ſmall Parcels of Ground remaining altogether uſeleſs to the Owners 'thereof, in regard the ſame are not capable of any Houſe being built thereupon:' (2) It is therefore hereby further provided and enacted, That for the making the ſaid Streets and Buildings conformable, and for the better determining of all Controverſies concerning the ſame, that the ſaid Juſtices and Barons, or any three or more of them, be and are hereby authorized and impowered to hear and determine all Controverſies and Differences ariſing by Reaſon or Occaſion thereof, in like Manner as they can or may hear or determine any other Matter or Cauſe referred to their Judgment by Virtue of this or the aforeſaid Act for erecting the ſaid Judicature, and may make ſuch Orders and Decrees, either for the transferring the Propriety of ſuch Parcels of Ground left next the ſaid Streets to the Owners of the backward Ground, or by transferring

transferring the Propriety of a Proportion of the backward Ground to the Owners of any the said small Parcels of Ground, or by annexing it to the next adjoining and contiguous Ground, in order to the regular Building thereupon: (3) And for all such Parcels of Ground, the Propriety whereof shall be so transferred by such Order or Decree of the said Justices and Barons, or any three or more of them, as aforesaid, and for all Charges and Damages concerning the same, such Recompence and Satisfaction shall be given by the Builders to the respective Proprietors and others interested therein, as shall be awarded by a Jury for that Purpose to be impanelled by the Lord Mayor and Court of Aldermen, in like Manner as by the aforesaid Act for rebuilding the said City of London is appointed in Case of Satisfaction to be given for Grounds taken and employed for the Uses in that Act mentioned, in Case the Parties concerned will not, or by reason of Infancy or other Impediment cannot, come to Agreement touching the same: (4) Which Orders and Decrees in that Behalf to be made, shall bind all Parties therein concerned, their Heirs, Executors, Administrators, Successors and Assigns, and shall be of like Effect as other Decrees made by the said Justices and Barons, or any three or more of them, by Virtue of this or the aforesaid Act; to the Intent that the Building thereupon may extend to the said Streets in a right Line with other Houses there built, and the Owners and others interested of and in the said adjacent and contiguous Grounds, paying to the Owners and others interested of and in the said small Slips and Parcels of Ground, such Satisfaction as shall be ordered and awarded by the said Justices and Barons, or any three or more of them, upon hearing of the Parties concerned (who are hereby authorized and impowered to hear and determine the same, and therein to make such Orders and Decrees as in other Causes referred to their Judgment and Determination by this or the aforesaid Act) shall and may for ever hold and enjoy the same by Virtue of this present Act. A Jury.

'XXXVIII. And whereas for the further enabling of the said Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of 'the said City of London, and their Successors, to perform and accomplish the Works in the said Act for 'rebuilding the said City mentioned; it was thereby enacted, That for all Sorts of Coals, which from and 'after the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand six hundred sixty-seven, and before the twenty-fourth 'Day of June one thousand six hundred seventy-seven, should be brought into the Port of London, or River 'of Thames, within the Liberties of the said City, upon the said River to be sold, there should be paid by 'way of Imposition thereupon for every Chaldron or Ton of Coals, the Sum of twelve Pence, to be answered to the said Mayor and Commonalty, Citizens, and their Deputies and Assigns, and to be applied 'and disposed unto and for the Satisfaction of such Persons, whose Grounds should, by Virtue and in Pursuance of the said Act, be taken and employed for the enlarging of the Streets and narrow Passages within 'the said City, and other Uses and Purposes in the said Act mentioned: (2) But forasmuch as it doth and 'will require far greater Sums of Money to give Satisfaction for the Ground to be taken and employed for 'the enlarging of the Streets, by this and the aforesaid Act appointed to be enlarged, and for publick Market-Places, and other the publick Uses and Purposes in this Act mentioned, than at the Time of the pas'sing of the said Act was or could be foreseen: Therefore for the further enabling of the said Mayor, Commonalty and Citizens of the said City, and their Successors, to perform the Works in this and the said Act for Rebuilding mentioned; and also for the Rebuilding of the respective Parish Churches by this Act appointed to be rebuilt: (3) Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That for all Sorts of Coals which (from and after the first Day of May one thousand six hundred and seventy, and before the twenty-ninth Day of September, which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand six hundred eighty-seven) shall be imported and brought into the said Port of the City of London, or the River of Thames, within the Liberties of the said City, upon the same River, there shall be paid by way of Imposition thereupon, according to the Rates hereafter mentioned, (that is to say) for all such Coals as shall be there Imported and brought in from and after the said first Day of May one thousand six hundred seventy, and before the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand six hundred seventy-seven, there shall be paid for every Chaldron or Ton thereof two Shillings, over and beside the aforesaid Imposition of twelve Pence the Chaldron or Ton, by the said Act for the rebuilding the City of London appointed to be paid; (4) and for all such Coals which shall be there Imported and brought in from and after the said four and twentieth Day of June one thousand six hundred seventy-seven, and before the said twenty-ninth Day of September one thousand six hundred eighty-seven, there shall be paid for every Chaldron or Ton thereof three Shillings; (5) and the same shall by Virtue of this Act be collected, levied and paid in such Sort and Manner, in all and every respect, as in and by the said Act is limited and appointed for the collecting and levying the Duty of twelve Pence the Chaldron or Ton of Coals imposed by the said Act: And all and every the Powers, Authorities, Directions and Provisions, in or by the said Act mentioned or provided for the levying and collecting thereof, or for the ordering or regulating the Payments of the said Coal-meters or others in the Discharge of their respective Offices and Duties, or for the preventing of Fraud and Covin, and Discovery of the just Quantities of all Sorts of Coals to be Imported as aforesaid, and all other Things relating thereunto, shall remain and be in Force, and by Virtue of this present Act shall and may be exercised and put in ure, for the collecting and levying the several Duties aforesaid, and of either of them respectively, according to the Purport and Effect of the aforesaid Act in all and every respect, and that for and during all the Time by this Act limited and appointed for the Payment of the said Impositions or either of them respectively, as if the same were expressly mentioned in this present Act, with Reference to the said Impositions thereby imposed; (6) all which Monies so to be received upon Account of the said respective Impositions or either of them, shall from Time to Time be paid into the Receipt of the Chamber of the City of London, and from thence shall be issued and paid according to the Direction and Appointment of this present Act, and not otherwise. And the said Chamber of the City of London shall stand and be charged with all the Residue of the said Monies there paid in, which shall not be issued out and paid accordingly. An Imposition on Sea-Coals, &c. to be received by the Mayor, &c. and employed for inlarging the Streets and other publick Works, from the first of May 1670. to 29 Sep. 1687. 19 Car. 2. c. 3. §. 35. Rules and Authorities for collecting the said Impositions.

XXXIX. And be it further enacted, That all and every Sum and Sums of Money which shall be raised upon the Receipt of the several and respective Impositions aforesaid, or by such Additional Duty in case of Concealment thereof, as by the aforesaid Act is appointed, shall be imployed and disposed in Manner and How the Money received by Means of the several Impositions sions shall be disposed.

Form following, (that is to say) three fourth Parts of all the Monies which from and after the said first Day of May one thousand six hundred seventy, and before the said twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand six hundred seventy and seven, shall be raised or payable upon the Receipt of the aforesaid Imposition of two Shillings for every Chaldron or Ton of Coals, or in case of Concealment thereof as aforesaid, shall be imployed and disposed for and towards the Rebuilding, Erecting or Repairing of the said Parish Churches respectively, according to such Order and Direction as by the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, the Lord Bishop and Lord Mayor of London for the Time being, or any two of them, shall be given in that Behalf; and the same shall from Time to Time be issued out and paid accordingly, unto such Person and Persons as they or any two of them shall by Warrant under their Hands and Seals for that Purpose direct and appoint: (2) And the other fourth Part, Residue thereof, shall be imployed for and towards the giving Satisfaction for Grounds set out and imployed for inlarging of the Streets, making of Wharfs, Keys, Publick Market-Places and other Publick Uses, in this and the foresaid Act mentioned and appointed: (3) And that one Moiety of all Monies which from and after the said twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand six hundred seventy and seven shall be raised or payable upon the aforesaid Imposition of three Shillings the Chaldron or Tun of Coals, or in case of Concealment thereof as aforesaid, shall be imployed and disposed for and towards the Rebuilding, Erecting and Repairing of the said respective Parish Churches, by such Order and Direction, and to be issued and paid by such Warrant, of the said Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, Lord Bishop and Lord Mayor of London for the Time being as aforesaid; and the other Moiety thereof shall from Time to Time be imployed and disposed for the Giving of Satisfaction for Ground set out and imployed as aforesaid, and such other publick Uses and Purposes as in this and the aforesaid Act are mentioned and appointed.

Ten Shillings out of every hundred Pound to be defalked for the Mayor, &c.

XL. And be it further enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That for all Monies arising upon the Receipt of the several Impositions aforesaid, or either of them respectively, which in Pursuance of this Act shall be paid into the Chamber of the City of London, It shall and may be lawful for the Chamberlain, or such other Person or Persons who shall be appointed to issue out and pay the same, thereout to defaulk and retain for the Use of the said Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the said City and their Successors, the Sum of ten Shillings for every hundred Pounds, and so after that Rate for any greater or lesser Sum thereof, in Lieu of the Trouble, Hazard and incident Charges attending the Receipt and Payment thereof.

One fourth Part of the Whole may be imployed in the Repair of St. Paul's Church.

XLI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, the Lord Bishop of London and Lord Mayor of London for the Time being, or any two of them as aforesaid, to imploy or dispose for and towards the Building or Repairing the Cathedral Church of St. Paul, one fourth Part of the Money by this Act given and appointed for the Building, Erecting or Repairing of the Parish Churches aforesaid.

Farther Provisions relating hereto, 1 Jac. 2. c. 15.

' XLII. And forasmuch as the Monies to be raised by such Receipt of the Impositions aforesaid for ' every Chaldron or Ton of Coals, by Virtue of this and the aforesaid Act, will not at present raise such a ' Stock or Sum of Money as may be sufficient for the Effecting the Ends and Purposes in this and the afore- ' said Act mentioned and intended;'

The Profits arising from the Impositions may be ingaged to raise a present Stock of Money.

XLIII. It is hereby further enacted and declared, That the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, the Lord Bishop of London, and Lord Mayor of London for the Time being, shall be and are hereby impowered by Indenture under their Hands and Seals, to engage the Profits arising of the respective Impositions by this Act imposed, and thereby appointed to be imployed for and towards the Rebuilding and Erecting, or Repairing of the Cathedral and Parish Churches within the said City respectively, or any Part or Parts thereof, as a Security for any Sum or Sums of Money by them to be borrowed for that Purpose, to any Person or Persons that shall or will advance any Sums of Money upon that Security: All which Monies so to be borrowed shall be imployed for and towards the Rebuilding and Erecting, or Repairing of the said Cathedral and Parish Churches respectively, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act; (2) and in like Manner also are hereby further impowered, to assign such Proportion or Proportions of the Monies, to be paid in Course out of the said Impositions, to the Parishioners of any of the respective Parish Churches, or any other Person or Persons who shall and will secure the Advancement of present Monies for the Rebuilding of their respective Parish Churches, and shall be willing to accept of such Assignments for his or their Satisfaction of the Monies to be disbursed and laid out in the Rebuilding thereof; (3) and that the said Mayor, Commonalty and Citizens of the City of London and their Successors, shall be and are hereby enabled to engage the Residue of the Profits arising of the said Imposition, either by Virtue of this or the aforesaid Act respectively, as a Security for any Sum or Sums of Money by them to be borrowed and taken up for that Purpose, by Indenture under their Common Seal, to any Person or Persons that shall or will upon that Security advance any present Sum or Sums of Money: All which Sum or Sums of Money so to be borrowed, shall be imployed for and towards the Making of such Satisfaction, and other the Uses, Intents and Purposes whereunto the said respective Impositions are by this and the aforesaid Act appointed to be converted and imployed, and not otherwise; and also in like Manner shall and may assign any Sum or Sums of Money to be paid in Course out of the said Imposition, to any Person or Persons whose Grounds shall be taken as aforesaid, who are or shall be willing to accept thereof for his or their Satisfaction.

A new Key or Wharf to be made from London-bridge to the Temple forty Foot bread.

XLIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That for the better Benefit and Accommodation of Trade, and for other great Conveniences, there shall be left a continued Tract of Ground all along from London-Bridge to the Temple, of the Breadth of forty Foot of Assize from the North-side of the River of Thames, to be converted to a Key, or publick and open Wharf; and that in Order thereunto, all Buildings, Sheds, Pales, Walls, Inclosures, and other Obstructions and Impediments whatsoever, now standing or being within forty Foot Northward of the said River of Thames between the Places aforesaid, (Cranes, Stairs and Docks only excepted) shall within eight Months now next ensuing be taken down and removed, and the said Ground cleared and levelled, and that from henceforth there shall be no Building or Erection Erection whatsoever (except only Cranes, Stairs and Docks as aforesaid) placed or set within or upon the said forty Foot of Ground or any Part thereof between the Places aforesaid; (2) and that all Buildings that shall hereafter immediately border upon any Part of the said Ground, upon the North-side thereof, shall front and be placed in the Line that shall be set out for the Bounds of the Breadth of the said forty Foot of Ground Northward; and that the same Building shall be of the second or third Sort or Rate of Buildings mentioned in a former Act of this present Parliament, intituled, An Act for the Rebuilding the City of 19 Car. 2. c. 3. London, at the Election of the Rebuilder thereof; wherein such Regularity of Building shall be observed, and under such Penalties, as are contained in the said Act in that Behalf, and wherein such Uniformity also shall be had, as in other Streets of the said City, except Common Halls for Companies, and other Buildings which shall be otherwise allowed of by his Majesty.

XLV. And be it further enacted, That all the said Tract of Ground of the said Breadth of forty Foot from the said River shall lie open and at large, without any Division or Separation, and that the Bounds of each Proprietor's Ground therein shall be distinguished only by Denter-stones to be placed in the Pavement thereof; and that the Line of the whole Key or Wharf between the Places aforesaid, and also the several Cranes and Stairs within the same Places, shall be ascertained by the Direction of the Lord Mayor and Court of Aldermen, and set out by their Surveyor accordingly, with his Majesty's Approbation, on or before the four and twentieth Day of June one thousand six hundred and seventy: (2) And further, That no Lighter, Boats or other Vessels, shall lie before any the said Wharfs or Keys between the Places aforesaid, on the North-side of the said River, longer than shall be necessary for the Lading or Unlading of Goods, without the Consent and Permission of the Wharfingers or Proprietors thereof.

XLVI. And be it further enacted and declared, That it shall and may be lawful for any Person or Persons to lade or unlade any Goods or Merchandizes at any of the said Wharfs or Keys for Wharfage and Cranage, whereof every Proprietor, Wharfinger or other Person concerned, shall and may demand and receive such Rates, and no other, for the same, as shall from Time to Time be set out and appointed by his Majesty, with the Advice of his Privy Council.

The Chanel of Bridewell-Dock from the Thames to Holbourn-Bridge to be made navigable. 6 Geo. 2. c. 22.

XLVII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That for the further Convenience of Trade, the Chanel of Bridewell-Dock from the Chanel of the River of Thames to Holbourn-Bridge shall be sunk to a sufficient Level, whereby to make it navigable; and that the Ground to be set out for the Breadth of the said Chanel, and of the Wharfs on each Side thereof, shall not be less in Breadth than one hundred Foot; nor shall exceed one hundred and twenty Foot in Breadth: And that the Line of the said Chanel, and Wharfs and Levels thereof, together with the Cranes and Stairs to be placed thereon, shall be ascertained by the said Lord Mayor and Court of Aldermen, with his Majesty's Approbation, and set out by the Surveyors accordingly at or before the first Day of May next ensuing; and that all the said Wharf-Ground on each Side of the said intended River shall lie open and at large (Cranes and Stairs only excepted) without any Division or Separation, and each Person's Propriety therein to be distinguished only by Denter-stones in the Pavement thereof: (2) And that all Buildings that shall hereafter immediately border upon each Side of the said Wharfs, shall front and be placed in the Line that shall be set out for the Bounds of the Breadth of the Wharfs from the Chanel; and that the said Buildings shall be of the second Rate of Buildings mentioned in the said Act for Rebuilding, wherein such Regularity of Building shall be observed, and under such Penalties, as are contained in the said Act: (3) And that no Lighter, Boat or Vessel shall lie before any the said last mentioned Wharfs or Keys, longer than shall be necessary for the Lading or Unlading of Goods, without the Consent or Permission of the Wharfingers or Proprietors thereof: (4) And that it shall and may be lawful for any Person or Persons to land any Goods or Merchandizes at any of the said Wharfs or Keys within the intended Chanel or Cut so to be made for Wharfage or Cranage; whereof every Proprietor, Wharfinger or other Person concerned shall demand and receive such Rates, and no other, for the same, as shall from Time to Time be set and appointed by his said Majesty, with the Advice of his Privy Council as aforesaid: (5) And that certain reasonable Rates for Tolls and other Profits arising by the Navigation of the said Chanel or Cut, shall be set and appointed by the Lord Mayor and Court of Aldermen, with Approbation of the Barons of the Exchequer, or two or more of them, and the same Tolls or Profits vested in the Mayor, Commonalty and Citizens of the City of London, for Preservation of the said Navigation, Sluces, and other incident Charges thereof.

How the Charge shall be defrayed.

XLVIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted and declared, That the Sinking and Making of the said intended Chanel of Bridewell-Dock and Fleet-Ditch from the Chanel of the Thames to Holbourn-Bridge, and the Sasses and Sluces for the better Navigation thereon, and the Raising and Sinking other Wharfs or Keys on each Side of the said Bridewell-Dock and Fleet-Ditch, (whereby to bring the same to a Level) shall be born and first defrayed by the Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the said City of London, out of the said fourth Part of the Imposition to be raised upon Coals by Virtue of this Act: (2) And that the said Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens shall cause the said Chanels to be sunk, and Wharfs or Keys to be reduced to such a Level, as may be proper for the Proprietors of the Ground immediately bordering upon the said Wharfs or Keys to build upon, with convenient Access thereto, before the first of August one thousand six hundred and seventy: And in the next Place after the Charge before mentioned shall be born out of the said fourth Part, Satisfaction shall be made out of the same fourth Part to the Proprietors whose Ground hath been or shall be laid open, or from whom any Ground hath been or shall be taken for the said publick Use.

'XLIX. And whereas some Parts of the said Ground so as aforesaid designed for Publick Wharfs on the 'North-side of the said River of Thames, and on each Side of the said Chanel or Cut, will be much im-'proved, and some other Parts thereof will be much impaired in Value, by reason of converting the same 'to the Uses aforesaid:' To the End therefore, that an equal and reasonable Course may be held and used on each Hand, without Wrong to any Party therein concerned; (2) Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That as well for the giving Satisfaction to such Persons, whose Ground shall be employed as aforesaid, or thereby impaired or lessened in Value; as also for the Assessing and Raising of Monies upon those that shall by the Means aforesaid make Improvement or Melioration of any of the said Ground so imployed; the same Powers, Authorities, Form and Course of Proceedings, shall in all Things be used, exercised, put in Practice and observed, as are by the said recited Act (made for the Rebuilding of London) ordained, provided and appointed for Satisfaction to be made for Ground employed for the Enlargement of Streets and Passages, and for Assessments to be made in Consideration of Improvements and Melioration of Houses and Ground; and that the Return of the Key about White-Friers Dock shall not exceed the Breadth of twenty Foot.

White-Friers Dock.

Provision for such as shall rebuild, against secret Charges and Incumbrances.

L. And for the Security and Encouragement of such as have or shall rebuild upon the Site of any House or Houses burned or demolished by reason of the said late Fire, against secret Charges and Incumbrances, wherewith or whereunto the same shall or may be charged or liable; (2) Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no such House or Houses already built or to be rebuilt within the said City of London or Liberties thereof, nor the Owners or others interested therein, shall after the Rebuilding thereof be further liable to the Satisfaction of any Charge or Charges, Incumbrance or Incumbrances, wherewith or whereunto the same are or may be liable, by any Matter or Thing before the said late Fire, than the Value of the Ground or Soil, in Case the same had not been rebuilt upon, might or would extend to satisfy; unless such Charges or Incumbrances as were contracted thereupon by the now Owners or others interested therein, who shall themselves be and remain liable to satisfy the same, as if this present Act had never been had or made.

One and twenty Years Possession or more, shall enable the Owner to make Leases.

'LI. And whereas many Deeds, Evidences and other Writings were in the said Fire lost, burnt or imbezilled, by which Misfortune many Persons who have Land in the said City are rendred unable to make 'their Right and Title so apparent as can satisfy such as would take Leases of their said Lands, and build 'upon them;' (2) Be it enacted, That if any Person or Persons, who have been lawful Possessors and esteemed Owners of any Ground within the said City, for the Space of one and twenty Years or more, shall grant a Lease to any Person or Persons of the said Land upon a valuable Ground-Rent, so to be esteemed by the said Mayor and Aldermen or any three of them, if the said Land shall afterward be recovered from the said Person so granting, That the Lease shall be good and valid, the Builders only paying the aforesaid Ground-Rent to the Person unto whom the Ground shall rightly belong, shall be freed from all Charge and Trouble; any Law or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

Water-house at Broken-Wharf.

'LII. And whereas the Water-house at or near Broken-Wharf was wholly burnt down and consumed in 'the Time of the late dreadful Fire, which being found impossible to be rebuilt with Brick, the Owners 'thereof have at their very great Charge lately rebuilded the said House with Timber, and made the same 'useful for serving the Inhabitants of the City with Water;' (2) Be it therefore enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Owners and their Assigns are hereby and shall for ever hereafter be saved harmless and indemnified from all Trouble or Penalties, for or by Reason of their building the said House with Timber as aforesaid; any Thing in this Act or in the former Act for rebuilding the City of London to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

LIII. Provided, That no Continuance of the said Restraint from Building shall extend to the Water-house at London-Bridge, but that the same may be built according as in the former Act is provided.

LIV. Provided always, That it may be lawful for any Person or Persons, Bodies Politick or Corporate, Owners and Proprietors of any such Ground meant or contained within this Act, to leave any old Foundations of his or theirs unbuilt, to make any new Street or Passage, or to enlarge any old ones, the said Owners or Proprietors taking Care within convenient Time after their Building, sufficiently to pave and amend all such Street and Passages; any Thing in this Act or any other Act, intituled, An Act for rebuilding the City of London, to the contrary notwithstanding.

19 Car. 2. c. 3.

A Street to open fourteen Foot wide from Threadneedle-street to Loathbury.

LV. Provided also, and be it enacted, That the Lord Mayor and Court of Aldermen shall be hereby impowered to cause a Street to be opened fourteen Foot wide, if they shall so think fit, from the West-end of Threadneedle-street down to Loathbury, in case the Proprietors do not voluntarily so open it before the four and twentieth Day of June next, making such Allowances to the Owners and others interested, as by the former Act for opening of Streets is directed; which Street shall be and continue an open Street for ever.

Bury-street in Beavis-Marks.

LVI. Provided always, and be it hereby enacted, That the Remainder of Bury-street in Beavis-Marks which is not yet new-built, may be built after the Pattern and Model of the other new Building in the said Street; any Thing in this or the said former Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

'LVII. And whereas many Builders of Houses within the said City, and the Liberties thereof, have (for 'the more Regularity of Building, and making many of the Streets and Lanes more straight and beautiful 'than otherwise they would have been) by and with the Appointment and Approbation of the said Surveyors, advanced their Foundations in many Places further into the Streets and Lanes thereof, upon the 'Soil of the said Streets and Lanes, than the same formerly stood, whereby some Difference may hereafter 'possibly arise, either between our Sovereign Lord the King, his Heirs and Successors, or between the 'Mayor, Commonalty and Citizens of the said City, or other Proprietors of the Ground so built upon, 'and the said Builders, or such Person or Persons, Bodies Politick and Corporate, to whom the Inheritance 'of the said Houses so built, now doth or hereafter shall belong:' (2) For Prevention whereof, Be it further enacted, That all Ground and Soil so taken, or which hereafter shall or may be so taken out of the said Streets or Lanes or any of them, shall from henceforth for ever be united and annexed to the said Houses: And that all and every Person and Persons whatsoever, Bodies Politick and Corporate, giving such Satisfaction to his Majesty, or to the said Mayor, Commonalty and Citizens of the said City, or other the respective Owners or Proprietors of the Ground so built upon, and according to such Rates as are or ought to be given and allowed for Ground taken and employed for the Enlarging of Streets, by Virtue of the aforesaid Act for rebuilding of the said City, shall and may hold and enjoy the said respective Parcels of Ground or Soil so built upon, united and annexed to such Buildings, for and during such Terms and Estates as he and they respectively have, or hereafter shall have, of and in the said Houses and Buildings; any Matter or Thing to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

'LVIII. And whereas the Wardens and Commonalty of the Mystery of the Mercers of the City of 'London are now building, pursuant to a Design approved of by by his Majesty, a new School-house with 'Houses thereto adjoining, for the Accommodation of the Master, Sub-Master and Chaplain thereof, partly 'upon the Sites and Tofts of the late School called St. Paul's School, and the former Houses of the said 'Masters and Chaplain, and partly upon some Ground next adjoining, being Part of the Church-yard 'belonging to the Cathedral Church of St. Paul's, London: And whereas other Parts of the former Site 'of the said late School and of other Houses adjoining, have been also by his Majesty's Directions cut off 'and laid into the said Church-yard, for the Enlargement and Accommodation of the Passage at the East-'end of the said Cathedral;' (2) Be it therefore enacted, That so much of the said Ground adjoining to the Site of the said late School and former Houses, as is comprized within the Foundation of the said new School and Houses now building for the said Masters and Chaplain, be and are hereby vested and settled on the said Wardens and Commonalty and their Successors for ever, as the said late School and former Houses were before the said Fire; and that the said other Parts of the former Site of the said late School and other Houses adjoining, laid unto the Church-yard as aforesaid for the Enlargement of the late Passage, shall continue a Passage for ever, and be and are hereby vested and settled on the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of St. Paul's aforesaid, and their Successors for ever, as the Residue of the said Church-yard is and was heretofore; any Thing in this Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

Paul's School now built by the Company of Mercers upon Part of St. Paul's Church-yard, and confirmed to them.

LIX. Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be taken to vest or settle the Church of St. Paul and St. Faith, or any Part thereof, or the Church of St. Gregory by St. Paul's, or any of them, or the Church-yards to any of them belonging or appertaining, or any Part of any of them, in the Mayor, Aldermen and Commons of the City of London, or any of them, or in any other Person or Persons, Bodies Politick or Corporate, other than the Ground whereupon St. Paul's School and Houses thereunto belonging, are by this Act appointed to be rebuilt; any Thing in this Act notwithstanding.

Proviso for the Churches of St. Faith and St. Paul, and St. Gregory.

LX. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That whereas the Alley called Whites-Alley in Coleman-street, London, was not wholly burnt down in the said late Fire, but the one Half-part thereof, or near thereabouts, is yet standing; neither was the said Alley ever any through Passage, nor will the Enlarging thereof be any Ornament or Advantage to the said City; therefore it shall and may be lawful to and for the several Proprietors of and in the said Alley, to rebuild their several Houses on both Sides thereof, which were burnt or demolished by Reason of the said late Fire, upon their old Foundations respectively; This present or the said former Act for rebuilding the City of London, or any Thing therein contained, or any other Matter or Thing, to the contrary notwithstanding.

Whites-Alley in Coleman-street;

LXI. And further, be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That for ever hereafter the said Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of London, may and shall have a Market to be kept three or four Days in the Week, as to them shall seem convenient, upon the Ground now set out by the Assent of the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of St. Paul, London, for a Market-place within Newgate: (2) And that the said Dean and Chapter shall make and give one or more Lease or Leases of the said Ground, to the said Mayor, Commonalty and Citizens, and also of the Wall of the said Church-yard, abutting severally upon Pater-noster-row and the Old-Change, for the Term of forty Years, reserving the yearly Rent of four Pounds for the Ground of the said Market-place, and two Pence for every superficial Foot of the Ground or Soil of the said Wall, as it is now set out by the Surveyors of the City, and of the said Dean and Chapter; and so from forty Years to forty Years for ever, at the like yearly Rent, and one Year's Rent after the Rates aforesaid to be paid by way of Fine for each of the said Grounds respectively, upon the Making every new Lease thereof: Which said Lease and Leases shall be good and effectual in the Law, as against the said Dean and Chapter, and their Successors, and all Persons claiming by, from or under them: And that no House, Shed or other Building shall stand, or hereafter be erected and fixed upon the said Market-place, other than the Market-house already built, without the Consent of the said Dean and Chapter; any Thing in this or any other Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

Market-place within Newgate to be granted to the City by Lease or otherwise.

'LXII. And whereas by a late Act of this present Parliament, intituled, An Act for rebuilding the City of 'London, it was enacted, That the Parishes to be rebuilded within the said City of London, in Lieu of those 'which were demolished by the late dreadful Fire, should not exceed the Number of thirty-nine: But for-'asmuch as upon an exact Survey taken of the Number of Houses to be rebuilded, and of the Extent of 'the respective Parishes necessary to be settled and continued within the said City, It doth appear that the 'Parishes to be settled and continued, and the Parish Churches to be rebuilded within the said City of 'London, in Lieu of those demolished or consumed by the said late Fire, cannot conveniently, by Union or 'otherwise, be reduced to a less Number than fifty-one:' (2) Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Number of Parishes to be settled, and of Parish Churches to be rebuilded, within the said City of London, shall be fifty-one; the aforesaid Act, or any Thing therein contained, to the contrary notwithstanding.

19 Car. 2. c. 3. §. 31.

Fifty-one Parishes to be within the City of London.

LXIII. And that the fifty-one Parishes so to be continued shall be as hereafter followeth, That is to say, Alhallows Lombard-street, St. Bartholomew Exchange, St. Bridget, alias Brides, St. Bennets Fink, St. Michaels Crooked-lane, St. Christophers, St. Dionis Back-Church, St. Dunstans in the East, St. James Garlick-hithe, St. Michael Cornhill, St. Michael Bassishaw, St. Margaret Loathbury, St. Mary Aldermanbury, St. Martin Ludgate, St. Peters Cornhill, St. Stephens Coleman-street and St. Sepulchres, shall remain and continue as heretofore they were: (2) And that the respective Parish Churches to each of the said Parishes belonging shall be rebuilded and continued for the Use of the said Parishes, and that the several Parishes hereafter mentioned shall be respectively united into one Parish, in Manner hereafter following, that is to say, The Parishes of Alhallows Bread-street and Saint John Evangelist shall be united into one Parish, and the Church heretofore

The same Parish-Churches shall be rebuilt according to Models appointed by the Archbishop of Canterbury, Bishop of London, and Lord Mayor of London, with King's Approbation.

LXIV. And it is hereby further enacted and declared, That the said respective Churches to be rebuilded within the said City of London and Liberties thereof shall be built and erected according to such Models, and of such Dimensions, and in such Manner and Form in all Respects, as by the said Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, Lord Bishop of London, and Lord Mayor of London for the Time being, (with his Majesty's Approbation thereof) shall be directed and appointed. (2) And the said respective Parishes herein before mentioned and appointed to be united as aforesaid, shall for ever hereafter remain and continue so united and consolidated and annexed unto the several and respective Parish-Churches by this Act appointed to be rebuilded as aforesaid; and the respective Parishioners, and the Inhabitants of the said several Parishes so to be united as aforesaid by Force of this present Act, shall hereafter resort to the said Churches respectively, as to their proper Parish-Church: And all Tithes and other Duties heretofore due and payable to the respective Incumbents of the said Parish-Churches respectively, shall hereafter be paid and payable to the Incumbent of that Church only, which by this Act is appointed to be rebuilded and established for the Parish-Church of the Parishes so united as aforesaid.

Plate and Goods belonging to Churches not to be rebuilt, shall be enjoyed by the Church-wardens, &c. of those rebuilded.

LXV. And be it further enacted, That all Plate and Goods heretofore belonging to any of the Church-wardens of any the Parishes of those Parishes burnt down, which are not now to be rebuilded, for the Use of the said Churches, shall be enjoyed by the respective Church-wardens, and their Successors, of the respective Parishes of such Churches to be rebuilded respectively, whereunto the said other Churches burnt down are united by this Act, to the Use of the said Churches and Parishes respectively.

Church-yards to be inclosed with Walls to make Burial-places.

LXVI. Provided always, That the Sites of the Churches to be demolished, and the Church-yards belonging to the same, shall be inclosed with Brick or Stone-walls for Burial-Places for the Parishes formerly belonging to the same, and the Parishes to which they are respectively united as aforesaid, and not used or imployed for any other Purpose whatsoever; excepting such of the Sites and Church-yards, or Parts of Sites and Church-yards of the said Parish-Churches so demolished as aforesaid, as are already laid into the Streets and Market-places so set out for that Purpose, or such other as shall within two Years now next following be thought fit by the Mayor and Aldermen of the said City, with the Consent of the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury and Lord Bishop of London, and by his Majesty's Approbation, to be laid into the Streets and Markets for Inlargement and Accommodation thereof, or for publick Store-places.

LXVII. Provided always, That where any Part of the Churches or Church-yards of any of the said Parish-Churches hereby appointed to be rebuilt and continued, have been thought fit by the Mayor and Court of Aldermen of the said City, to be laid into any of the Streets within the said City for Inlargement thereof; and by Order of the said Mayor and Court of Aldermen, shall have been before the five and twentieth Day of March one thousand six hundred and seventy, staked and set out accordingly: It is hereby further enacted and declared, That the Grounds so staked out shall be made Use of for the Inlarging of the said Streets, according as the same were for that Purpose staked and set out as aforesaid; this present Act, or any Thing therein contained, to the contrary notwithstanding.

Notwithstanding the Union, the Parishes as to all Rates, Charges and Privileges, to remain distinct.

LXVIII. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted and declared, That notwithstanding such Union as aforesaid, each and every of the Parishes so united, as to all Rates, Taxes, Parochial Rights, Charges and Duties, and all other Privileges, Liberties and Respects whatsoever, other than what are herein before mentioned and specified, shall continue and remain distinct, and as heretofore they were, before the Making of this present Act: (2) And that the several and respective Patrons of the said Churches so united shall and may present by Turns to that Church only which by this Act is appointed to be rebuilded and established for the Parish-Church of the Parishes so united as aforesaid: The first Presentment to be made by the Patron of such of the said Churches, the Endowments whereof are of the greatest yearly Value.

Proviso for the present Incumbents of Churches not to be rebuilded.

LXIX. Provided always, and it is hereby declared, That this Act, or any Thing therein contained, shall not extend or be construed to deprive the present Incumbents, which at the Time of the said late Fire were or now are in Possession of any of the said Parish-Churches not to be rebuilded, or any of them, of the Tithes or other Profits heretofore belonging to their respective Churches, so long as they shall assist in serving the Cure, and other Offices belonging to their Duty in the Parish-Church whereunto their respective Parishes shall be united and annexed by Virtue of this Act, according to the Direction of the Ordinary; any Thing in this present Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding: (2) Saving to the King's Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, the Tenths and First-fruits of all such Parish-Churches as by Force of present Act shall be united and consolidated as aforesaid, according to such Rates and Valuations as the same do respectively stand rated and valued at, in his Majesty's Court of First-fruits and Tenths; any Thing in this present Act notwithstanding: (3) Saving also to all other Person and Persons, Bodies Politick and Corporate, Ecclesiastical and Civil, their Heirs and Successors, all Pensions, Annuities and Payments whatsoever, heretofore due from and payable by any of the Rectors, Vicars and Curates of any of the said Churches united or consolidated as aforesaid; any Thing in this present Act notwithstanding.

LXX. Provided always, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Warden and Minor Canons of Saint Paul's Church London, Parson and Proprietors of the Rectory of the Parish of Saint Gregories aforesaid, to receive and enjoy all Tithes, Oblations and Duties arising or growing due within the said Parish, in as large and beneficial Manner as formerly they have or lawfully might have done; any Thing herein to to the contrary notwithstanding.

LXXI. And

'LXXI. And whereas the Wardens and Commonalty of the Mystery of the Mercers of the City of 'London, at the Time of the said Fire, were seised in Fee of the Rectory and Parish-Church impropriate 'of St. Mary Cole-Church, (the said Church being an Upper-Room about ten Foot higher than the Street, 'and lying over certain Rooms and arched Vaults or Cellars of the said Wardens and Commonalty) upon 'the Site of which Church they have designed to build a Free-school, and other Buildings conformable to 'the Rules of the said former Act, and to remove the dead Bodies and Bones of such as have been buried 'upon the Arches, and to cause them to be decently reposed within the Body of their Chapel, commonly 'called Mercers-Chapel;' (2) Be it therefore hereby enacted, That the Site of the said Parish-Church, and the Materials thereof remaining upon the said Site, be and are hereby settled upon the said Wardens and Commonalty, and their Successors for ever: And that the said Wardens and Commonalty shall pay to the Lord Mayor and Aldermen of the City of London for the same, such Sum of Money towards the Rebuilding of the Church whereunto the same is by this Act appointed to be united, as shall be agreed upon between the said Lord Mayor and Aldermen, and the said Wardens and Commonalty, or be assessed by a Jury impanelled and sworn, as by the said former Act is directed in any other Case; any Thing in this Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

Saint Mary Cole-Church. A Free-school.

'LXXII. And whereas several Parish-Churches, Chancels, Parsonage and Vicarage Houses were con-'sumed in the late dismal Fire; to the End therefore the Incumbents, Parsons and Vicars may not be liable to 'the Rebuilding of their Chancels, Parsonage and Vicarage Houses, nor to be sued for Dilapidations;' (2) Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Incumbents, Parsons and Vicars of the aforesaid Churches, their Executors and Administrators, shall be and are hereby indemnified, as to the Rebuilding of their respective Chancels, Parsonage and Vicarage Houses, and shall not be liable to any Suits, Troubles or Molestations that may arise for Dilapidations aforesaid; and that no Process shall be issued out of any Court whatsoever against the Persons aforesaid, for their not Rebuilding their respective Chancels and Parsonage and Vicarage Houses; any Law or Statute to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

Provision that Parsons may not be sued for Dilapidations.

'LXXIII. And whereas First-fruits, Tenths and several Pensions are from the said Parsons and Vicars 'to be yearly paid to his Majesty, and several Duties to the Ordinary and Archdeacon,' That his Majesty will be graciously pleased, that it may be enacted; and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Parsons and Vicars be indemnified, and are hereby indemnified, from the Payment of all First-Fruits, Tenths and Pensions due and which shall be due to his Majesty, and from all Dues to the Ordinary and Archdeacon, and all other Dues whatsoever chargeable upon them respectively, until such Time as they shall receive the Profits arising from the same as formerly: (2) And that no Process shall be issued out of any Court whatsoever against the Persons aforesaid, for their Non-payment of First-fruits, Tenths, Pensions or any other the Dues aforesaid; any Law or Statute to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

Parsons and Vicars exempted from First-fruits, Tenths and Pensions.

'LXXIV. And whereas divers Ministers have been already since the Fire, and may be from Time to 'Time presented and instituted, and being so are liable to the Forfeitures of their several Livings for not 'reading the thirty-nine Articles, and for not doing other Things enjoined by Law in their several Parish-'Churches;' (2) Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all such Ministers as have been or shall be from Time to Time presented and instituted since the said Fire, be and are hereby indemnified from the several Penalties and Forfeitures incurred and to be incurred by or for not Reading of the thirty-nine Articles, or not doing other Things enjoined by Law as aforesaid, until such Time as the said several Churches be re-edified or made fit for publick Worship.

Indemnified for not reading the thirty nine Articles.

'LXXV. And whereas the said Parsons and Vicars, or some of them, are interested in several Glebe 'Lands or Grounds, the which they cannot rebuild themselves, nor let such Lease or Leases as may be an 'Encouragement for others to rebuild the same;' (2) Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Parsons and Vicars and every of them respectively, be impowered and are hereby impowered to let such Lease or Leases of their said Glebe Lands or Grounds, with the Consent and Approbation of the Patron or Patrons and Ordinary, for any Term not exceeding forty Years, and at such yearly Rents without Fine, as can be obtained for the same; (3) and that no Lapses incurred upon any Non-presentation in due Time of any of the Patrons of the said Livings since the said Fire shall any Ways prejudice or make void the Presentations that the said Patrons have since made, whereupon any Incumbent is since instituted and inducted; any Law or Statute to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

Impowered to let Leases of their Glebe-Lands.

LXXVI. Provided always, and it is hereby declared and enacted, That if the Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the said City of London shall be concerned in Estate or Title in any Controversy or Difference, whereof the Determination is by this or the aforesaid Act referred to the Hearing and Judgment of the said Mayor and Court of Aldermen; that then and in every such Case the Justices of the Courts of King's Bench and Common Pleas and the Barons of the Coif of the Exchequer for the Time being, or any three or more of them, upon Complaint to them made, shall be and are hereby authorized to hear and finally order and determine the same; any Thing in this or the aforesaid Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

LXXVII. Provided always, and be it enacted, and the Lord Mayor and Court of Aldermen are hereby authorized and required to cause to be made two Posterns, one on either Side of the Gate commonly called Ludgate, for the better Ease and Convenience of Foot-Passengers, and in order hereunto are also impowered to enlarge the said Gate as they shall find Cause.

Two Posterns at Ludgate, and the Gate to be enlarged.

'LXXVIII. And whereas by the said Act for the rebuilding the City of London, it was enacted, That 'where any Ground formerly builded upon (the Houses whereupon built were demolished at the Time of 'the said late Fire) should not within three Years then next ensuing be rebuilded upon, Then after Pro-'clamation publickly made, and Inquiry and Valuation made and taken of the Ground whereupon such 'Houses were situate, by Inquest of a Jury, in such Sort and Manner as in and by the said Act is men-'tioned and appointed, the said Mayor and Aldermen, and Common Council might make Sale thereof:'

(2) It

(2) It is hereby declared and enacted, That the said Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council shall not by Virtue of the said Act proceed to the Sale of any such Ground or Soil whereupon any such Houses were situate, for not rebuilding thereupon, before the four and twentieth Day of March which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand six hundred seventy and one; nor shall any Ground be sold by Virtue of this or the aforesaid Act, in Case any Person for the making of any Court, Yard, Garden or other Easement, shall leave some Part of the ancient Foundation unbuilt upon backwards. Salvo for not Rebuilding.

LXXIX. And be it further enacted and declared, That all Persons seised or interested of any House or Houses burned or demolished by reason of the said late Fire, in Tail, for Life or Lives, or Years determinable upon Life, with Remainder to their Heirs or Issue Male or Female, or to their first or other Son or Sons, Daughter or Daughters, in Tail, or other like Estate; That it shall and may be lawful to and for such Tenant in Tail, for Life or Years, with such Remainder as aforesaid, by Indenture under their respective Hands and Seals, to demise the Ground or Soil of such burned or demolished Houses, without any Fine or Fines, and at the most improved annual Rent, to any Person or Persons that shall or will rebuild thereupon, for any Term of Years not exceeding fifty Years: Which Leases so made shall bind and conclude as well all and every the Heirs and Issue of such Tenant in Tail as the first and every other Son and Sons, Daughter or Daughters, or other Issue of such Tenant for Life or Years, as those in Reversion or Remainder; and the Houses thereupon built shall be held and enjoyed by the respective Lessees thereof and their Assigns, (paying the said Rent to the Persons in Reversion or Remainder) during the Term, and according to the Purport of such Leases by Virtue of this present Act. Tenant in Tail, &c. may demise their Ground at the most improved Rent.

LXXX. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That as to the House called Serjeants-Inn in Fleet-street, of which the Society of Judges and Serjeants at Law were Tenants at the Time of the late Fire and many Years before; That the King's most Excellent Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and his or their Privy Council, shall be and are hereby impowered to hear and determine all Differences and Demands whatsoever touching the said House with the Appurtenances, and all Things else to do relating to the Rebuilding thereof and to make Orders and Decrees concerning the same, as fully to all Intents and Purposes as the Judges of the Courts of King's Bench and Common Pleas, and Barons of the Exchequer might, could or may do concerning any other Houses burnt down by the late Fire, by Virtue of this and the said former Act or either of them. (2) And his said Majesty and Council are hereby also impowered to Order and Decree such Satisfaction and Recompence unto Robert Mellish of the Inner Temple Esquire, as to them shall seem just and reasonable; and to Order and Decree one Lease of the Premisses, whereof the Inheritance belongeth to the Dean and Chapter of York, not exceeding in the whole sixty Years, for the Use of the said Society; and the said Dean and Chapter and their Successors are hereby enabled and enjoined to make accordingly: And what shall be so ordered or decreed by his said Majesty and Council as aforesaid, shall be good and effectual in Law to all Intents and Purposes by Virtue of this Act; and the said Judges and Barons of the Exchequer are hereby excluded from making any Order or Decree touching the said House with the Appurtenances. Serjeants-Inn in Fleet-street.

'LXXXI. And whereas a great Number of Houses heretofore erected and built upon or very near to 'the Tower-Ditch of the City of London, were at or a little Time after the said late great Fire, pulled or 'blown down for Safeguard of the said Tower, and are not thought fit to be rebuilt there: And whereas 'some Houses are yet standing which were in Lease for several Years yet to come, with other Houses pul-'led down, at and for certain intire yearly Rents; which said Rents are wholly now claimed by divers 'Landlords, as if the said Houses were yet standing; and divers Suits in Law are and will be daily brought 'against Tenants for Breach of Covenants of the said Leases incurred since that Time:' (2) Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Justices and Barons, or any three or more of them, shall have full Power and Authority to hear and determine all Differences that may arise between the said Landlords and Tenants, as if the said Houses had perished by the late dreadful Fire. The Houses pulled down near Tower-Ditch, never to be rebuilt. Differences about the same referred to the Judges.

'LXXXII. And whereas several Sheds, Shops and other Buildings have been erected (since the late 'dreadful Fire) in Smithfield, Moor-fields and other void Places within the said City and Liberties thereof, 'by Licence of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council of the said City, for the Accommoda-'tion of such Inhabitants whose Houses were then burnt or demolished, for the better carrying on of their 'respective Trades; which if they should be suffered to have longer Continuance than the present Exi-'gence of the Occupiers thereof doth require, would be an Occasion to divert the Trade of the City, and 'to discourage such as have rebuilt Houses within the said City:' (2) Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Lord Mayor and Court of Aldermen for the Time being shall be and are hereby impowered and required to cause all and every the said Sheds, Shops and other Buildings aforesaid, to be taken down and removed at or before the nine and twentieth Day of September which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand six hundred seventy-four. Shops in Smithfield, Moorfields, and other void Places, to be taken down and removed before the 29th of Sept. 1674.

LXXXIII. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Action or Suit shall be brought or prosecuted against any Person or Persons for any Matter or Thing done, committed or executed by Virtue of this or the aforesaid Act for rebuilding the said City of London, or of any Clause or Article in this or the aforesaid Act contained; That then and in every such Case the Defendant or Defendants may plead the General Issue, (Not guilty) and give this Act and the special Matter in Evidence at any Trial thereupon to be had; and if a Verdict shall pass for the Defendant, or the Plaintiff shall be nonsuit or discontinue his Action after the Defendant hath appeared, the Defendant shall recover double Costs, to be awarded for his or their wrongful Vexation in that Behalf. In any Action brought for putting this Act in Execution, the General Issue may be pleaded, and this Act, &c. given in Evidence.

LXXXIV. Provided always, That this Act or any Thing therein contained shall not extend or be construed to alter or make void any Matter or Thing done or to be done by Virtue of any Commission or Commissions given or granted or to be given or granted by his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, in Pursuance of two Acts of Parliament; viz. one in the first Year of Queen Elizabeth, and another in the fourteenth Year of his now Majesty's Reign, or of either of them, or of any other Law or Right, whereby his Majesty, 1 El. c. 11. 13 & 14 Car. 2. c. 11. §. 14.

Penalty for Neglect.

Lands given for the Maintenance of Causeys, Highways, Bridges, &c. to be farmed at the most improved yearly Value.

II. And be it further enacted, That where any Lands have been or shall be given for the Maintenance of Causeys, Pavements, Highways and Bridges, all such Persons that are or shall be enfeoffed or trusted with any such Lands shall let them to Farm at the most improved yearly Value without Fine; (2) and that the Justices of the Peace in their open Sessions shall and may enquire by such Ways and Means as they think fitting, into the Value of all such Lands so given or to be given, and order the Improvement and Employment of the Rents and Profits thereof, according to the Will and Direction of the Donor of such Lands, if they find that the Persons so intrusted have been negligent or faulty in the Performance of their Trust (except such Lands as have been given to the Uses aforesaid, to any College or Hall in either of the Universities of this Kingdom which have Visitors of their own;) any Law, Statute, Usage or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

13 & 14 Car. 2. c. 6. §. 9.

III. And it is hereby enacted, That one Clause contained in the Act of this present Parliament, intitu'ed, An Act for enlarging of Highways, concerning the Breadth of the Tyre of all Waggon and Cart-wheels, is and shall hereby stand repealed and be void; (2) and it is further enacted, That in Case any Person or Persons shall resist or make forcible Opposition against any Person or Persons employed in the due Execution of this Act or any the Acts before mentioned, or shall make any Rescue of any Cattle or other Goods distrained by Virtue of this or any of the said Acts; That every such Person being convicted thereof in Manner aforesaid, shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of forty Shillings: (3) And in Case he do not pay the said Sum within seven Days after Notice of such Conviction, Then it shall and may be lawful for any Justice of the Peace residing near the Place where such Opposition or Rescue shall be made, to commit such Person or Persons to the Common Gaol of the County where such Offence shall be committed, there to remain until the said Forfeiture shall be paid to the Surveyor or Surveyors of the Highways for that Parish where the Offence was committed, to be employed for the Amendment of the Highways of the same Parish; (4) and if any Action or Suit shall be brought against any Person or Persons for or by reason of any Matter or Thing done by Means of this Act, the same shall be laid in the proper County where the Fact was done and not elsewhere; and the Defendants may plead the General Issue and give the special Matter in Evidence: (5) And if it appear at the Trial that the Fact was done by Authority of this Act, and the Jury shall find for the Defendant, he thereupon (as also in Case the Plaintiff be nonsuit or discontinue his Action) shall recover his Treble Costs sustained by reason of such Action or Suit. (6) Provided, That in such Places where the Highways cannot be sufficiently repaired before the Feast of the Nativity of Saint John Baptist yearly, the same may and shall be sufficiently repaired before the Feast of Saint Luke yearly, without incurring any Penalty for the not doing thereof before the said Feast of the Nativity of Saint John Baptist, according to the said former Act.

Forfeiture for resisting the Officers.

Treble Costs.

Times for repairing the Highways.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Defects of Repairs of Causeys, Pavements, Highways or Bridges shall be presented in the County only where such Causeys, Pavements, Highways or Bridges do lie, and not elsewhere; (2) and that no such Presentment or Indictment shall be removed by Certiorari, or otherwise, out of the said County, till such Indictment or Presentment be traversed, and Judgment thereupon given.

Defects to be presented where the Places defective lie.

See 5 & 6 W. & M. c. 11.

V. Provided always, and be it enacted, That the several Occupiers and Inhabitants, or where there are no Inhabitants or Occupiers, the respective Owners of all and singular the Lands, Houses, Out-houses,

Lands, Houses, &c. in the Suburbs of London,

Walls and Buildings, fronting and adjoining to any of the Highways, Streets or Lanes within the Suburbs of London and the Liberties thereof, and the Borough of Southwark, and the City and Liberty of Westminster, or Precincts thereof, which are or shall be paved, shall and are hereby liable to all Rates, Assessments, Penalties and Distresses which shall be had or made towards the Scavengers Rates for the Places aforesaid, in such Manner as by an Act of this present Parliament, made and enacted in the fourteenth Year of his Majesty's Reign for repairing of the Highways and Sewers, is directed and appointed: (2) And that where any Ground shall lie at the End of any of the said Streets or Lanes, or any other Place of which there may be a Dispute who ought to pave or amend the same, that in such Case the Justices of Peace for the said Places respectively, shall have hereby full Power and Authority in their Quarter-Sessions, to order and determine the same; which Order shall be binding to all Persons whatsoever therein concerned; any Law or Statute to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

Southwark and Westminster, made liable to Assessments for the Scavengers. 13 & 14 Car. 2. c. 2.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the four and twentieth Day of June next ensuing, no Travelling Waggon, Wain, Cart or Carriage, wherein any Burthens, Goods or Wares are or shall be carried (other than such Carts and Carriages as are employed in and about Husbandry and Manuring of Lands, and in the carrying of Hay, Straw, Corn unthresht, Coal, Chalk, Timber for Shipping, Materials for Building, Stones of all Sorts, or such Ammunition or Artillery which shall be for his Majesty's Service) shall at any one Time travel, or be drawn, or go in any common or publick Highway or Road, with above five Horse-Beasts at Length; and if any shall draw with a greater Number of Horses or Oxen, they shall all draw in Pairs, that is to say, two abreast for such Number as they shall use, except one Horse; any Law, Statute or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

Travelling Waggons, Wains, &c. carrying Goods, &c. shall be drawn but with five Horses at length. See 6 Ann. c. 29. 9 Ann. c. 18. 1 Geo. 1. Stat. 2. c. 11. and 5 Geo. 1. c. 12. 14 Geo. 2. c. 42. 15 Geo. 2. c. 2. 16 Geo. 2. c. 29.

VII. And be it further enacted, That every Owner of any Waggon, Cart, Carriage, Horse-Beasts or Oxen, offending contrary to this Act, shall forfeit for every of the said Offences the Sum of forty Shillings; one third Part thereof to the Surveyors of the Highways of the Town, Village or Hamlet where any the said Offences shall be committed, to be employed in the Repairs of the said Highways; one other third Part to the Overseers of the Poor of the Parish where any of the said Offences shall be committed, to the Use of the Poor of the said Parish; and the other third Part to him that shall discover the same; to be imposed and levied in such Manner, as the Penalties in this Act imposed on every Constable or Surveyor of the Highways for refusing or neglecting to put in Execution the several Acts of Parliament yet in Force, for or touching the repairing, amending or enlarging of such Highways, are directed and appointed.

The Forfeiture for offending this Act. Altered by 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 29. §. 2.

VIII. And it is further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in such Places where there is no Use of Carts and Teams for the Amendment of Highways, but the Usage and Practice is to carry Stones, Gravel, Earth or other Materials for such Amendment, upon the Backs of Horses, or by any other Kinds of Carriages; That in all such Places the Inhabitants using any such Horses or other Carriages, shall send in such their Horses as are accustomed to that kind of Labour, and such their other Carriages, with able Persons to work with the same, in like Manner, and under the like Directions, Forfeitures and Penalties, as by any former Statute for repairing of Highways is appointed for Carts and Teams.

Mending the Highways.

IX. Provided also, and it is further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons shall fail or make Default to do their respective Days Labour in every Year for and towards the Repairing of the Highways, or neglect to send their respective Carriages, Horses and Carts, according as by Law they are respectively required; it shall and may be lawful for the Surveyor or Surveyors of every Parish, and they are hereby required, to make Complaint thereof to the next Justices of the Peace, who are hereby authorized and required, upon Proof of any such Default or Neglect made before them by the Oath of one credible Witness, (which Oath they are hereby impowered to administer) to levy by Distress and Sale of the Goods of every Person failing or neglecting as aforesaid, (and not having a reasonable Excuse to be allowed by the said Justices) the several Penalties hereafter mentioned (rendring the Overplus, reasonable Charges of Distraining being first deducted) that is to say, (2) for every Day Labourer failing or neglecting as is aforesaid, one Shilling and six Pence; and for every Man and Horse that shall make Default, three Shillings; and for every Cart with two Men, ten Shillings, for every respective Day wherein they shall make Default; which respective Penalties so levied, shall be employed for and towards the repairing of the Highways in every respective Place and Parish.

Defaulters therein, their Punishment.

X. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That where the Justices of the Peace of any County, City, or other Place, or the major Part of them, at their General Quarter-Sessions, shall be fully satisfied, that the common Highways, Causeys or Bridges within any Parish, Township or Hamlet within their respective Jurisdiction, may not or will not be sufficiently amended, repaired and supported, by Means of the Laws now in Force, without the Help of this present Act, in all such Cases one or more Assessment or Assessments upon all and every the Inhabitants, Owners and Occupiers of Lands, Houses, Tenements and Hereditaments, or any Personal Estate usually ratable to the Poor, within any such Parish, Township or Hamlet, shall be made, levied, collected and allowed by such Person and Persons, and in such Manner, as the said Justices by their Order at such Sessions shall direct and appoint in that Behalf: (2) And the Money thereby raised shall be employed and accounted for according to the Order and Directions of the said Justices, for and towards the Amending, Repairing, and Supporting such Highways, Causeys and Bridges, from Time to Time as Need shall require; (3) and the said Assessment or Assessments shall be levied by Distress and Sale of the Goods of every Person so assessed (not paying the same within ten Days after Demand) rendring the Overplus of the Value of the Goods so distrained, to the Owner and Owners thereof, the necessary Charges of making and selling such Distress being first deducted.

Assessment, when to be made for repairing the Highways.

XI. Provided nevertheless, and be it enacted, That no such Assessment or Assessments to be made in any one Year, shall exceed the Rate of six Pence in the Pound, of the yearly Value of any Lands, Houses, Tenements and Hereditaments so assessed, nor the Rate of six Pence for twenty Pounds in Personal Estate; and that no such Assessment be made or levied from and after the five and twentieth Day of March in the Year one thousand six hundred seventy and three.

Six Pence in the Pound.

Surveyors of the Highways, when to be chosen.

XII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the nine and twentieth Day of September next, in every Parish within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, the Surveyors and Orderers of the Work for Amendment of the Highways within their respective Parishes, shall be yearly chosen and nominated by such Persons as by an Act made in the second and third Years of King Philip and Queen Mary is appointed, upon some Day in the same Week that the Feast of the Birth of our Lord, commonly called Christmas-Day, shall be: (2) Which Persons so nominated and chosen, shall take upon them the said Office, and shall appoint six Days for the providing Stones, Gravel and other Materials for the Amendment of and for working in the Highways, having respect to the Season of the Year and the Weather, and giving Notice publickly some convenient Time before the several Days; at which Days all Persons liable to the said Work shall attend and work accordingly. (3) And the said Surveyors and Orderers shall make Return of the Defaulters, and every of them, within one Month after every Default made, to some neighbouring Justice of the Peace of the same County; and the said Justice shall present the same at the Quarter-Sessions of the Peace held next after such Return made unto him: (4) And the Offenders against this Act, in all Cases not particularly directed in this Act, shall respectively incur the same Forfeiture, Pains and Penalties, inflicted and appointed by the Laws and Statutes of this Kingdom now in Force, for the Amending of the Highways, as fully as if they had been particularly mentioned and imposed in and by this Act.

Bridges to be built in Cheshire and Lancashire within ten Years.

'XIII. And whereas in the Counties of Chester and Lancaster there are many and sundry great and deep 'Rivers, which run cross and through the common and publick Highways and Roads within the said Coun-'ties, which many Times cannot be passed over without Hazard and Loss of the Lives and Goods of the 'Inhabitants and Travellers within the said Counties, for want of convenient, good and sufficient Bridges 'in the said Highways and Roads; to build and erect which there is no Law now in Force:' (2) Therefore be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That for ten Years next following, and no longer, the respective Justices of Peace within the said respective Counties shall, upon the Presentment of the Grand Jury at their respective General Quarter-Sessions, have Power and Authority by Order or Warrant under the Hands and Seals of all or the major Part of the said Justices, being six at least then present, to cause to be erected and builded any new Bridge or Bridges, in such Place or Places in any of the said Highways, over any of the said Rivers within their respective Jurisdictions, as they shall judge fit and necessary, and so declare by such Order as aforesaid, and likewise to repair or rebuild such other Bridges as were demolished in the late War; (3) and by their said Order to charge, either their whole respective Counties, or any Hundred or Hundreds within their said respective Counties, with the erecting and building any such Bridge or Bridges, and from Time to Time (as Need shall require) with the repairing and amending of all or any the said Bridges; which shall be assessed, levied and gathered in such Sort, Manner and Form, as the Monies for Repairing of Bridges now in Being are used to be assessed, levied and gathered by Virtue

'II. And whereas by several Bills of Indictment found by the Grand Jury for the City and Liberty o
'Westminster where the said Facts were committed, Sir Thomas Sandys Knt. Charles Obrian Esq; Simon Par
'ry and Miles Reeves, amongst others, stand indicted of Felony and Robbery for the same, but have fle
'from Justice, not daring to abide a legal Trial:' (2) Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellen Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and of the Commons assembled in Parliament, and by the Authority of the same, That if the said Sir Thomas Sandys, Charle Obrian, Simon Parry and Miles Reeves, shall not render themselves to the Lord Chief Justice of his Majesty's Court of King's Bench, or to some other of the Justices of the said Court, on or before the tenth Day of March in the Year of our Lord one thousand six hundred and seventy, in Order to their Trials fo the Facts aforesaid; that then such of them the said Sir Thomas Sandys, Charles Obrian, Simon Parry an Miles Reeves, as shall not so render himself as aforesaid, shall and do suffer perpetual Exile, and be for ever banished this Realm and all other his Majesty's Dominions.

Sir Thomas Sandys, &c. not rendring themselves, shall be perpetually banished.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Forfeitures and Offences made and committed against this Act, or any Clause, Article or Sentence herein contained, and all Appeals, shall be heard, adjudged and determined by such Person and Persons, and in such Manner and Form, as the like Forfeitures and Offences against the former Laws of Excise are thereby appointed to be heard and determined, and not otherwise.

VI. And moreover, That all Commissioners and Sub-Commissioners of Excise, all Commissioners of Appeals, Justices of Peace, Constables and all other Officers and Ministers whatsoever, shall have, use and exercise the same Jurisdiction, Power and Authority, whether it be judicial or ministerial, for the better Ordering, Collecting, Levying and Securing the new Duties and the additional Rates and Duties hereby imposed, impoſed, as he or they could have had, uſed or exerciſed, for the better Ordering, Collecting, Levying or Securing any former Rates or Duties of Exciſe whatſoever.

Fines and Forfeitures to be divided, one Moiety to his Majeſty, and the other to him that will ſue for the ſame.

VII. And it is further declared and enacted, That all Fines, Penalties and Forfeitures, which ſhall be incurred by Reaſon of any Offence committed againſt this Act, ſhall be imployed, one Moiety thereof to the Uſe of the King's Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, another Moiety thereof to him or them that ſhall or will inform or ſue for the ſame.

The Juſtices of the Peace, Commiſſioners, &c. may mitigate the Fines, &c. where they ſee Cauſe, ſo as the ſame be not made leſs than double the Duty beſides Coſts.

VIII. Provided nevertheleſs, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Juſtices of Peace, Commiſſioners of Exciſe or any Two of them, or their Sub-Commiſſioners reſpectively, from Time to Time, where they ſhall ſee Cauſe, to mitigate, compound or leſſen any Fine, Forfeiture or Penalty, which ſhall be incurred by Reaſon of any Offence committed againſt this Act, or againſt any other Act of Exciſe now in Force, as they in their Diſcretions ſhall think fit; and that every ſuch Mitigation and Payment thereupon made, ſhall be a ſufficient Diſcharge of ſuch Penalties and Forfeitures to the Perſons ſo offending, ſo as by ſuch Mitigation the ſame be not made leſs than double the Value of the Duty of Exciſe, which ſhould or ought to have been paid, beſides the reaſonable Coſts and Charges of ſuch Officer or Officers, or others as were imployed therein, to be allowed unto them by the ſaid Juſtices or Commiſſioners; any Thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Foreign imported exciſeable Liquors not to be landed till Entry made, and the Duty paid.

IX. And for the better Levying and Collecting the Duties of Exciſe upon all ſuch foreign and imported Liquors for which Exciſe ought to be paid; (2) It is further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no ſuch foreign or imported Liquors ſhall be landed or put on Shore before due Entry be firſt made thereof with the Officer or Collector appointed for the Exciſe, in the Port or Place where the ſame ſhall be imported, or before the Duty of Exciſe due and payable for the ſame ſhall be fully ſatisfied and paid: And that every Warrant from any Officer or Officers of the Cuſtoms, for the Landing or Delivering of any ſuch foreign Liquors, ſhall be ſigned by the Hand of the ſaid Officer or Collector of the Exciſe in the ſaid Port or Place reſpectively; (3) upon Pain, that all ſuch foreign Liquors as ſhall be landed or put on ſhore, or delivered contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, or the Value thereof, ſhall be forfeited and loſt, one Moiety thereof to the King's Majeſty, the other Moiety to him or them who ſhall or will ſeize, inform or ſue for the ſame; to be recovered of the Importer or Proprietor thereof.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall in the Night-time maliciouſly, unlawfully, and willingly maim, wound, or otherwiſe hurt any Horſes, Sheep, or other Cattle, whereby the ſame ſhall not be killed or utterly deſtroyed, or ſhall deſtroy any Plantations of Trees, or throw down any Incloſures, in Manner aforeſaid; That then every ſuch Offender or Offenders ſhall loſe and forfeit unto the Party grieved treble the Damage which he or they ſhall thereby ſuſtain; the ſame to be recovered by Action of Treſpaſs, or upon the Caſe, to be taken at the Common Law.

Three or more Juſtices of the Peace have Power to enquire

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That upon the Complaint and Requeſt of the Party or Parties injured in any ſuch Manner, any three or more Juſtices of the Peace for the County, Diviſion, City, Town Corporate, or Place where ſuch Offence ſhall be committed, whereof one to be of the Quorum, Quorum, shall and may, and they are thereunto authorized and required by Virtue of this Act, to enquire, as well by the Oaths of twelve lawful Men or more of the same County, as by Examination of Witnesses upon Oath, or by any lawful Ways or Means which to them shall seem meet, of and concerning any the Offences before incurred, and Offenders therein; and in Order thereunto, to issue out Warrants, as well for the summoning of Jurors, as for the apprehending of all such Persons, as shall or may be thereof suspected, and to take their Examination touching the same; as also to cause all such other Persons as to them shall seem likely to make Discovery thereof, to appear before them, and to give Information upon Oath, of and concerning their Knowledge of the Premisses; so as no Person so to be examined by the said Justices of the Peace, shall be convicted, or in any wise proceeded against, for or by Reason of any Offence concerning which he or they shall be so examined as a Witness, and shall upon such his Examination make a true Discovery thereof: (2) And in Case any Person or Persons, who by the said Justices be thought likely to make Discovery as aforesaid, shall refuse to appear or to be examined as a Witness, being duly summoned by the said Justices in Pursuance of this Act; It shall and may be lawful for the said Justices of the Peace to commit the Party so refusing, to the Common Gaol for the said County without Bail or Mainprise, until he shall submit to be examined upon Oath, of and concerning his Knowledge touching the same Offence, or the Offenders by whom the same was committed.

of the Offence, and punish the Offenders.

A Witness refusing to appear, shall be committed to Prison.

VII. Provided, That no Person who shall be punished for any Offence by Virtue of this Act, shall be punished for the same Offence by Virtue of any other Act or Law whatsoever; nor shall be questioned for the same, unless he be proceeded against within six Months after the Offence committed.

No Person shall be twice punished for this Offence. The Prosecution must be within six Months.

CAP. VIII.

An Act for the Regulating the making of Kidderminster Stuffs.

'WHEREAS divers Abuses and Deceits have of late Years been had and used in the making of Stuffs, called Kidderminster Stuffs, within the Borough and Parish of Kidderminster, in the County of Worcester, tending to the Debasing of the said Manufacture, and to the great Prejudice of the Publick:'

II. For the preventing of which Abuses and Deceits, may it please your Majesty that it may be enacted: (2) And be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That there shall be chosen one President, four Wardens, and eight Assistants, all which shall be Master Weavers within the said Borough, the first Monday after Pentecost in the Year of our Lord one thousand six hundred seventy and one, and from thenceforth yearly and every Year on the next Monday after Pentecost, at some publick Place, by the Master Weavers of the said Borough, or the greater Part of them then present; (3) and the said President, Wardens and Assistants respectively, shall within fourteen Days after they shall be so chosen or elected, and Notice thereof given, take the Oath ensuing, to be administred by the Bailiff, or any one of the Justices of the Peace of the said Borough for the Time being, or either of them: Which Oath they and every of them are hereby required from Time to Time to administer accordingly, (viz.)

A Corporation of Weavers in Kidderminster.

'(4) I A. B. do swear, That I will well, faithfully, and honestly perform and discharge the Office of President or Warden, or Assistant, Mutatis mutandis, of the Trade of Clothiers and Stuff-Weavers within the Borough and Parish of Kidderminster, according to the best of my Skill, Power and Knowledge.'

The Oath to be taken by them.

III. And if it shall happen, That the said President, or any of the said Wardens or Assistants chosen as aforesaid, shall refuse to take the said Oath, or after his or their being sworn as aforesaid, shall die before the End of the Year; That then from Time to Time, so often as Need shall be, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Master-Weavers of the said Borough, to choose one other President, Warden or Wardens, Assistant or Assistants, in the Place of him or them so dying or refusing, who shall be sworn in such Manner as aforesaid.

IV. And for the Regulation and good Government of the said Trade and Manufacture, the said President, Wardens and Assistants, or any seven or more of them, whereof the President and three or more of the said Wardens are to be present, shall and may from Time to Time meet and consult together for the Good and Benefit of the said Trade and Manufacture, and for the due Execution of the Powers and Authority given by this Act, and to make and ordain By-Laws, Rules and Ordinances, for the better Regulating of the said Trade and Manufacture, and the Artificers of the same, and to make Seals from Time to Time for Sealing of the same Stuffs: (2) Which By-Laws, Rules and Ordinances being ratified and confirmed by the Justices of Assize for the County of Worcester for the Time being, shall be published at least twice in the Year at two publick Assemblies for the said Trade and Manufacture, and shall be obeyed and kept by the Artificers of the said Trade and Manufacture, and by the several Persons using the same within and under the said Regulation. (3) And the said President, Wardens and Assistants, or any seven or more of them, shall have and hereby have Power to impose a Fine or Penalty upon any Person or Persons using the said Trade, or that shall be under the Regulation thereof, as shall not conform to such Rules, Orders, By-Laws and Ordinances so made and to be made and confirmed as aforesaid.

A Power given them to make By-Laws.

To be confirmed by the Justices of Assize.

To be published twice a Year.

Power to impose Fines.

V. Provided, That the said Fine or Penalty upon any Person for not conforming as aforesaid, shall not exceed the Sum of forty Shillings for any one Offence.

The Fine not to exceed 40s.

VI. And if any Person or Persons duly chosen as aforesaid, to be President or Warden, or Assistant, and due Notice thereof given by the Bailiff of the said Borough for the Time being, shall refuse or neglect to execute the Place of President, Warden or Assistant, or to take the said Oath, according to the Purport of this this Act, every such Person so refusing or neglecting, shall be fined at the Discretion of the Bailiff, or any one of the Justices of the Peace of the said Borough for the Time being, so as such Fine doth not exceed the Sum of five Pounds for any one Offence: (2) Which said Fine shall be levied by Warrant under the Hands and Seals of the said Bailiff and any one Justice of the Peace for the said Borough, on the Goods and Chattels of the said Offender, by Distress and Sale, rendring the Overplus, if any shall be, and shall be employed and disposed of to the Use and Benefit of the poor Artificers of the said Trade, at the Discretion of the said Bailiff and any one Justice of the Peace of the said Borough.

How to be levied.

How the Fines shall be employed.

Linen-Yarn to be reeled on a Reel four Yards about, and sold openly in the Market.

VII. And for the better Regulation of the said Trade and Manufacture, and the avoiding of Frauds and Deceits therein; (2) Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Linen-Yarn reeled, and usually bought and sold, or estimated by the Lea, to be hereafter used by any of the said Artificers and Stuff-Weavers within the said Borough or Parish of Kidderminster or Liberties thereof, shall be made without Fraud or Deceit, and be openly bought and sold in some publick Market-Place on the Market-Day within the said Borough, to be appointed by the Bailiff of the said Borough for the Time being; and before the same be exposed to Sale, shall be reeled on a Reel four Yards about, every Lea of the said Yarn containing two hundred Threads.

The Penalty.

VIII. And in Case any Person or Persons shall hereafter sell or expose to Sale any the Yarns aforesaid, made or reeled in any other Manner than as aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful to and for the said President, Wardens and Assistants, or any two or more of them, to seize, take and carry away all such deceitful and defective Yarns; (2) which said Yarns within twenty Days after such Seizure, shall be tried by a Jury of twelve honest and able Artificers of the said Trade, who shall be from Time to Time impanelled and summoned by a Precept under the Hands and Seals of the Bailiff and any one Justice of the Peace of the said Borough, to appear at the Guild-hall of the said Borough at a Time certain in the said Precept specified, and then and there be sworn by the said Bailiff and Justice, to enquire of the Defects of all Yarns seized as aforesaid, and to try whether the said Yarns be made and reeled according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, and the By-Laws and Ordinances made by Virtue thereof: (3) And if the said Jury Impanelled and Sworn as aforesaid shall find any of the said Yarns not made and reeled according to the Intent and Meaning of this Act and the By-Laws and Ordinances made by Virtue thereof; That then the said Bailiff and Justice of the Peace of the said Borough shall impose such Fine or Fines upon the Owner or Owners of such defective Yarns, as in their Discretions shall be thought meet, not exceeding the Value of the Moiety of such defective Yarns: (4) Which said Fine or Fines, the Owners of the said defective Yarns shall pay to the said President for the Time being, (to be disposed of as to the said President, Wardens and Assistants, or the major Number of them, shall seem meet, at their next publick Meeting, within thirty Days after the said Trial) and in Default thereof, the said Yarns to be sold by the President, or any two of the said Wardens, and the Overplus of the Monies thereof coming, after the Fine or Fines deducted, to be restored to the said Owner or Owners upon Demand.

How to be tried.

X. And that all Clothes and Stuffs made or to be made under the Regulation aforesaid, before the same shall be exposed or put to Sale, shall be brought to some convenient Place within the said Borough, to be appointed by the said President and Wardens, or the greater Part of them, to be viewed and searched by the said President, and any one of the said Wardens, or by any two of the said Wardens in the Absence of the said President; and if the same shall be found to be well and sufficiently made and wrought according to the Rules and Ordinances of the said Trade and Manufacture, Then all such Clothes and Stuffs shall be by the said President and any one of the said Wardens, or by any two of the said Wardens for the Time being, sealed and allowed accordingly; (2) and if upon such Search and View, any Clothes or Stuffs shall be found or conceived not to be well and sufficiently made and wrought, according to the Rules and Ordinances of the said Trade and Manufacture, Then such Clothes and Stuffs shall be seized by the said President and Warden, or any two of the said Wardens, and be brought to Trial, and the Owner or Owners fined, in such Manner and Form, as in this present Act is before limited and appointed for the Trial of defective Linen-Yarn.

Power to enter into Houses and search.

Penalty.

XI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said President, Wardens and Assistants, or any two or more of them, shall have and hereby have Power and Authority, to enter into and search the Houses and Work-houses of any Artificer under the Regulation of the said Trade, at all Times of the Day, and usual Times of opening of Shops and working; and into the Shops, Houses and Warehouses of any common Buyer, Dealer in or Retailer of any of the said Clothes or Stuffs, and into the Houses and Work-houses of any Dyer, Sheer-man, and all other Workmens Houses and Places of Sale or Dressing of the said Clothes, Stuffs and Yarns; and may there view the said Clothes, Stuffs and Yarns respectively, whether they be made and wrought according to the Laws, Orders and Ordinances of the said Trade; and if any Cloth, Stuff or Yarns shall be found faulty or defective, to seize and carry away the same; to be tried by a Jury, as afore in this Act is appointed.

Penalty for buying of Cloth before it be sealed.

XII. And be it also enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall not be lawful for any Person or Persons to buy any Piece or Pieces of Clothes or Stuffs, made or to be made within the said Borough or Parish or Liberty thereof, before the same be sealed as aforesaid; and if any Piece or Pieces of such Cloth or Stuff shall be found in the Possession of any Person or Persons unsealed, (except in the Possession of the first Owner or Maker thereof) the Person or Persons in whose Custody the same shall be found, shall be adjudged guilty of Deceit, and shall forfeit for every such Piece of Cloth or Stuff so found in his or their Possession unsealed as aforesaid, the Sum of four Shillings, and the Maker and Seller of the same, who shall ſhall deliver the ſame out of his or their Poſſeſſion before the ſame be ſealed, ſhall likewiſe forfeit for every ſuch Piece other four Shillings, to the Uſe of the Poor of the ſaid Trade.

Penalty for counterfeiting the Seal.

XIII. And if any Perſon ſhall counterfeit any Seal of the ſaid Trade, or ſhall ſeal any Piece of Cloth or Stuff made under the Regulation of the ſaid Trade, with any counterfeit Seal, or ſhall remove a Seal off one Piece, and ſet it unto another Piece which hath not been ſealed as before in this Act is appointed to be ſealed, every Perſon ſo offending, and being thereof convicted by his own Confeſſion, or by the Oaths of two or more Witneſſes, to be taken by the Bailiff or any Juſtice of the Peace of the ſaid Borough for the Time being, who reſpectively have hereby Power to adminiſter an Oath for that Purpoſe, ſhall forfeit for every ſuch Offence the Sum of twenty Pounds.

How Journeymen ſhall be provided for.

XIV. And for the better providing that poor Journeymen who have ſerved in the ſaid Trade, and are not able to ſet up for themſelves, may be employed in Work, it is hereby enacted, That every Perſon under the Regulation of the ſaid Trade, who ſhall employ two Apprentices in the ſaid Trade, ſhall likewiſe employ and ſet on work two Journeymen in the ſaid Trade, during the Time he ſhall have or employ two Apprentices; upon Pain that every Perſon ſhall forfeit for every Month ſo offending as aforeſaid, the Sum of twenty Shillings.

To what Uſes the Fines ſhall be.

XV. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the one Moiety of all Fines, Forfeitures and Penalties before in this Act mentioned, other than ſuch as are expreſly otherwiſe appointed, ſhall be to the Uſe of the King's Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors; the other Moiety to the Uſe of the Poor of the ſaid Trade; (2) and ſhall and may be levied by Diſtreſs and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Offender or Offenders, by Warrant under the Hands and Seals of the Bailiff and one of the Juſtices of the Peace of the ſaid Borough, or be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information in any of his Majeſty's Courts of Record, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection or Wager of Law ſhall be allowed.

All Bailiffs, Juſtices, Conſtables, &c. ſhall aid and aſſiſt them.

XVI. And be it alſo enacted, That all Bailiffs, Juſtices, Sheriffs, Conſtables, and all other Officers, ſhall be aiding and aſſiſting to the ſaid Preſident, Wardens and Aſſiſtants, or any of them, as often as they ſhall be thereunto required; (2) and in all Actions and Suits that ſhall be brought againſt any Perſon or Perſons for what he or they ſhall do in Purſuance or in Execution of this Act, or any of the Authorities hereby given, the Perſon or Perſons ſo ſued or moleſted ſhall or may plead the General Iſſue of Not guilty, and give the ſpecial Matter in Evidence, and ſhall recover double Coſts in every ſuch Caſe, if the Verdict paſs for ſuch Perſon or Perſons, or that the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs be nonſuit therein, or forbear further Proſecution, or ſuffer Diſcontinuance; for which Coſts the ſaid Perſon or Perſons ſhall have the like Remedy as in any Caſe where Coſts by the Law were given to Defendants.

If ſued, plead the General Iſſue.

Double Coſts.

VIII. Provided also, and be it likewise enacted by the Authority aforesaid, To the End that a due Regard be had to Creditors, that no such Distribution of the Goods of any Person dying Intestate be made till after one Year be fully expired after the Intestate's Death; (2) and that such and every one to whom any Distribution and Share shall be allotted, shall give Bond with sufficient Sureties in the said Courts, that if any Debt or Debts truly owing by the Intestate shall be afterwards sued for and recovered, or otherwise duly made to appear; that then and in every such Case he or she shall respectively refund and pay back to the Administrator his or her rateable Part of that Debt or Debts, and of the Costs of Suit and Charges of the Administrator by reason of such Debt, out of the Part and Share so as aforesaid allotted to him or her, thereby to enable the said Administrator to pay and satisfy the said Debt or Debts so discovered after the Distribution made as aforesaid. No Distribution till after one Year. If Debts afterwards appear, then all to refund proportionably.

IX. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in all Cases where the Ordinary hath used heretofore to grant Administration cum Testamento annexo, he shall continue so to do, and the Will of the Deceased in such Testament expressed shall be performed and observed in such Manner as it should have been if this Act had never been made. This Act shall not extend to Administration cum Testamento annexo.

X. Provided also, That this Act shall continue in Force for seven Years, and from thence to the End of the next Session of Parliament and no longer. [29 Car. 2. c. 3. §. 25. 30 Car. 2. stat. 1. c. 6. made perpetual by 1 Jac. 2. c. 17. §. 5.] And see 14 Geo. 2. c. 20. §. 9.

CAP. XI. (1.)

An Act to prevent the Delivery up of Merchants Ships, and for the Increase of good and serviceable Shipping.

'WHEREAS it often happeneth that Masters and Commanders of Merchants Ships do suffer their Ships to be boarded, and their Goods to be taken out by Pirates and Sea-rovers, notwithstanding they have sufficient Force to defend themselves, whereby not only the Merchants are much prejudiced, but the Honour of the English Navigation is thereby much diminished, and Merchants discouraged from lading their Goods on Board English Ships, to the Decay of Shipping; in the Preservation of which the Wealth, Honour and Safety of this Nation is so much concerned: (2) To which the said Masters are encouraged by a Practice used towards them by the Turks and others, who after they have taken out the Goods, as an Encouragement to Masters of Ships to yield, do not only restore the Ship with such Goods as are claimed by the Masters or Seamen, but many Times pay unto the Masters all or some Part of the Freight, which hath many Times caused Suspicion of Treachery in the said Masters, to the great Dishonour of the English Nation:' 16 Car. 2. c. 5.

II. For the Prevention thereof for the future, and for the better Encouragement to Merchants, as well Foreigners as English, to freight and use English Ships, (2) Be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, assembled in Parliament, and by Authority of the same, That where any Goods or Merchandizes shall be laden on board any English Ship, which Ship shall be of the Burthen of two hundred Tons or upwards, and mounted with sixteen Guns or more, if the Master or Commander shall yield up the said Goods to any Turkish Ships or Vessels, or to any Pirates or Sea-rovers whatsoever, without fighting; That then and in such Case the Master shall, upon Proof thereof made in the High Court of Admiralty be from thenceforth incapable of taking Charge of any English Ship or Vessel as Master or Commander thereof; (3) and if he shall at any Time thereafter presume to take upon him to command any English Ship or Vessel, he shall suffer Imprisonment by Warrant from the said Court, during the Space of six Months for every such Offence: (4) And in Case the Persons so taking the said Goods, shall release, give back or let pass the said Ship, shall pay unto the said Master any Sum or Sums of Money, or any Goods in Lieu of Money for Freight, or other Reward or Gift; that in all or any such Cases, the said Goods or Money so given, or the Value thereof, as also the Master's Part of such Ship, her Tackle, Apparel and Furniture so released, given back or let pass, out of which the said Goods were taken, shall be liable to repair the Persons whose Goods were so delivered or taken, by Action in the High Court of Admiralty: (5) And in case the Commander's or Master's Part of the Ship, Tackle, Apparel and Furniture, together with such Money and Goods given as aforesaid, shall not be sufficient to repair all the Damages sustained; then the Reparations to be recovered on the Master's or Commander's Part of the Ship, to be divided pro rata amongst the Persons prosecuting and proving their Damages, and the Persons damaged to have their Action against the Master for the Remainder. No Master shall deliver up any Ship (of 200 Tons and 16 Guns) to any Pirates or others, without fighting.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Master of any such English Ship as aforesaid, being at Sea, and having discovered any Ship to be a Turkish Ship, Pirate or Sea-rover, shall depart out of his Ship upon any Pretence whatsoever, lest by his Detention on Board any such Ship, the Safety of his own Ship be hazarded. The Master not to depart out of his Ship.

IV. And be it further enacted, That if the Master of any English Ship or Vessel, though not of the Burthen of two hundred Tons, or mounted with sixteen Guns as aforesaid, shall yield his Ship unto any Turkish Ship, Pirate or Sea-rover, (not having at the least his double Number of Guns) without fighting, every such Master shall be liable to all and every the Penalties in this Act contained. The Penalty when the Ship is under 200 Tons and 16 Guns.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That upon Process made out of the High Court of Admiralty, It shall and may be lawful to and for all Commanders of his Majesty's Ships of War, To seize by Process out of the Admiralty.

War, or the Commanders of any other English Ships, to seize such Ships or Masters so offending, according to the said Process in such Case to be issued, and the same to bring or send in Custody into any Ports of his Majesty's Dominions, there to be proceeded against according to the Intent and Meaning of this Act.

VI. Provided, That none be hereby encouraged to violate the Rights of the Ports of any Foreign Prince or States in Amity with the King's Majesty.

Penalty for Mariners refusing to fight.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if the Mariners or inferior Officers of any English Ship laden with Goods and Merchandizes as aforesaid, shall decline or refuse to fight and defend the Ship, when they shall be thereunto commanded by the Master or Commander thereof, or shall utter any Words to discourage the other Mariners from defending the Ship; That every Mariner who shall be found guilty of declining or refusing as aforesaid, shall lose all his Wages due to him, together with such Goods as he hath in his Ship, and suffer Imprisonment, not exceeding the Space of six Months, and shall during such Time be kept to hard Labour for his or their Maintenance.

Where the Master is forced to yield his Ship, there he is excused.

VIII. Provided always, That if any Ship shall have been yielded as aforesaid, contrary to the Will and Endeavour of the Master or Commander, by the Disobedience of the Mariners, testified by their having laid violent Hands on him; that in such Case the Master or Commander shall not be liable to the Sentence of Incapacity as aforesaid, nor to any Action for the Losses sustained by the Merchants, unless he shall have received back from the Takers thereof, his Ship, or some Recompence, Gift or Reward as aforesaid.

Penalty for the Mariners to force him to yield his Ship, Felony.

IX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Mariner who shall have laid violent Hands on his Commander, whereby to hinder him from fighting in Defence of his Ship and Goods committed to his Trust, shall suffer Death as a Felon.

When any Officers or Seamen are wounded in Defence of their Ship, Provision is made for their Maintenance.

Seamen maimed in Fighting against Pirates, provided for by 8 Geo. 1. c. 24. §. 5.

X. And for the better Encouragement to Captains, Masters, Officers and Seamen, to defend their Ship; (2) Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That when any English Ship shall have been defended by Fight, and brought to her designed Port, in which Fight any of the Officers or Seamen shall have been wounded, It shall and may be lawful to and for the Judge of his Majesty's High Court of Admiralty, or his Surrogate, or the Judge of the Vice-Admiralty within which the Ship shall arrive at her Return, upon Petition of the Master or Seamen of such Ship so defended as aforesaid, to call unto him such and so many as he shall be informed to be Adventurers or Owners of the Ship and Goods so defended, and by Advice with them to raise and levy upon the respective Owners and Adventurers, by Process out of the said Court, such Sum or Sums of Money, as himself with the major Part of the Adventurers or Owners then present shall judge reasonable, not exceeding the Value of two per Cent. of the Ship and Goods so defended, according to the first Cost of the Goods, to be made appear by the Invoice (which the Owner, or his Factor or Correspondent, is hereby required to produce) or by the Oath of the said Owner, Factor or Correspondent, if thereunto required; (3) which Money so raised shall be paid unto the Register of the said Court, who shall receive for the same, three Pence in each Pound, and no more, thence to be distributed amongst the Captain, Master, Officers and Seamen of the said Ship, or Widows and Children of the Slain, according to the Direction of the Judge of the said Court, with the Approbation of three or more of the Owners or Adventurers aforesaid, who shall Proportion the same according to their best Judgments, unto the Ship's Company as aforesaid, having special Regard unto the Widows and Children of such as shall have been slain in that Service, and to such as shall have been wounded or maimed.

The Benefit they are to receive by taking a Ship that shall assault them.

XI. And in Case the Company belongeth unto any English Merchant-Ship shall happen to take any Ship, which Ship shall first have assaulted them, the respective Officers and Mariners belonging to the same shall after Condemnation of such Ship and Goods, have and receive to their own proper Use and Benefit such Part and Share thereof, as is usually practised in private Men of War.

Felony for any Officer or other Person wilfully to destroy any Ship.

'XII. And whereas it often happeneth that Masters and Mariners of Ships having ensured or taken upon 'Bottomary, greater Sums of Money than the Value of their Adventure, do wilfully cast away, burn, or 'otherwise destroy the Ships under their Charge, to the Merchants and Owners great Loss;' (2) for the Prevention thereof for the future, Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Captain, Master, Mariner, or other Officer belonging to any Ship, shall wilfully cast away, burn, or otherwise destroy the Ship unto which he belongeth, or procure the same to be done, he shall suffer Death as a Felon.

Encouragement given for Building good Ships.

XIII. And for the better Encouragement of Building good and defensible Ships, Be it enacted, That all and every Person or Persons, that shall within the Space of seven Years from and after the first of May next ensuing build or cause to be built, within any of his Majesty's Dominions, any Ship or Vessel of three Decks, with a Forecastle, and five Foot between each Deck, mounted with thirty Pieces of Ordnance at least, and other Ammunition proportionable, shall for the first two Voyages which the said Ship or Ships make from his Majesty's Dominions to any foreign Part, have and receive to his and their own proper Use and Benefit, one tenth Part:

XIV. And all Persons that shall build any Ships of two Decks, above three hundred Tons, and thirty Guns, shall have one twentieth Part of the Customs that shall be paid to his Majesty for all such Goods or Merchandizes as shall be exported or imported on the said Ship or Ships, to and from this Kingdom: And the Commissioners and Officers of his Majesty's Customs are hereby impowered and required to pay the same to the Owner or Owners of the said Ship or Ships accordingly.

CAP. XII. (2.)

An Additional Act for Ascertaining the Measures of Corn and Salt.

Enforced by 8 Ann. c. 18. §. 12.

'WHEREAS notwithstanding there hath been great Care taken in a late Act, intituled, An Act for the Ascertaining the Measures of Corn and Salt throughout the Realm; yet the same is in a great 'Measure avoided, by Selling in private Places, as well as in publick Markets, by the Bag, or without 'Measuring, by the Buyers shaking of the Bushel before it be struck, so that those Places who have 'given Obedience to the said Act, are greatly prejudiced, and their Markets likely to be lost by such un-'due Practices:' 22 Car. 2. c. 8.

II. For Prevention whereof, Be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by Authority of the same, That every Person or Persons, who shall from and after the five and twentieth Day of March next sell or buy any Corn ground or unground, or Salt, by the Bag, or without Measuring, being thereunto required, or in any other Manner than as is by the said Act directed, and that without shaking the said Bushel or Measure by the Buyer, shall forfeit and lose, beside the Penalty of the former Act appointed, all Corn, Grain or Salt, bought or sold contrary to this Act, or the Value thereof, to the Person or Persons complaining. No Corn or Salt shall be bought by the Bag, without measuring. Forfeiture.

'III. And whereas a great Cause of the Mischief hereby intended to be prevented, doth arise by the Sel-'ling in private Places, and so avoiding, not only the Intention of the said Act, but to the great Damage of 'publick Markets;' (2) Be it further enacted, That upon Complaint made to any one or more Justices of the Peace, That any Kind of Corn ground or unground, or Salt, hath been sold or bought, or delivered, contrary to this Act, the Proof shall lie upon the Defendant, to make it appear by the Oaths of one or more credible Witnesses, That he or they did sell or buy the same in every Respect according to this and the said former Act, wherein if such Person complained of shall fail, he or they shall forfeit and lose as is by this Act before directed, to be levied by Distress and Sale of his or their Goods or Chattels, restoring the Overplus, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of one or more Justices, before whom he or they shall be so convicted: Which Penalties by this Act appointed to be levied, shall by the said Justice or Justices be distributed, one Half to the Poor of the Parish where such Offence was committed, and the other Half to the Informer or Prosecutor. The Proof to lie upon the Defendant when he bought the Corn. Forfeiture. How to be disposed of.

'IV. And whereas in all Places where Markets are holden, there is not a Clerk of the Market to Seal 'all Measures as by the former Act is directed:' Be it therefore further enacted, That in every such Case it shall and may be lawful for the Mayor, Bailiffs or Head Officer, or other Person or Persons who hath the Benefit of such Market, and they and every of them are hereby authorized and required, to seal or cause to be sealed all Measures duly gauged, that shall be brought unto them for that Purpose; which Sealing shall be as effectual in the Law to all Intents and Purposes, as if such Measure had been sealed by any Clerk of the Market, every such Mayor, Bailiff or Head Officer, taking no more for so doing than is by the said Act appointed. Where there is no Clerk of the Market, then what Persons are appointed to seal the Measures.

V. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for every Person or Persons, Bodies Politick or Corporate, or any of them, to whom any Salt, Rent-Corn or Tithe-Corn is reserved or due by any Lease, Grant, Contract, Custom or Usage, to receive and take all such Rent or other Duties of Salt and Corn as is or shall be so reserved or due, or the just and full Value thereof in ready Money, according to the Proportion and Quantity, and by the like Measures, and in such Manner, as the same were due and paid before the Beginning of this Parliament; any thing herein or in any other Law or Statute to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding. This Act shall not extend to Rent-Corn or Tithe-Corn.

CAP. XIII. (3.)

An Act for exporting of Beer, Ale and Mum. Strong Ale, Strong Beer and Mum, may be exported, paying Custom. The Rates of the Custom. The Penalty for unlading the same in any Places but beyond the Seas. To be in Force for six Years, &c. EXP. 29 Car. 2. c. 2.

CAP. XIV. (4.)

An Act for Determination of Differences touching Houses burnt or demolished within four Years since the late dreadful Fire in London. All Differences about any Houses within the Bills of Mortality, demolished by Fire, shall be determined by the Judges, for the Judicature of Houses demolished by Fire within London. Longer Time given to the Judicature. The Time limited for receiving of Complaints. Lord Mayor when to dispose of Ground unbuilt. Authority given to grant long Leases of the Savoy Ground. EXP. 19 Car. 2. c. 2. 22 Car. 2. c. 11.

CAP. XV. (11.)

An Act for the better Settlement of the Maintenance of the Parsons, Vicars and Curates, in the Parishes of the City of London burnt by the late dreadful Fire there.

'WHEREAS the Tithes in the City of London were levied and paid with great Inequality, and are 'since the late dreadful Fire there, in the rebuilding of the same, by taking away of some Houses 'altering the Foundations of many, and the new erecting of others, so disordered, that in case they should 'not for the Time to come be reduced to a Certainty, many Controversies and Suits of Law might thence 'arise;'

'arise;' (2) Be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the annual certain Tithes of all and every Parish and Parishes within the said City of London and the Liberties thereof, whose Churches have been demolished, or in Part consumed, by

The Rate-Tithes shall be paid, besides Glebes, Perquisites and Bequests.

III. Which respective Sums of Money to be paid in Lieu of Tithes within the said respective Parishes, and assessed as herein after is directed, shall be and continue to be esteemed, deemed, and taken to all Intents and Purposes, to be the respective certain annual Maintenance (over and above Glebes and Perquisites, Gifts and Bequests to the respective Parson, Vicar and Curate of any Parish for the Time being, or to his or their respective Successors, or to other Persons for his or their Use) of the said respective Parsons, Vicars and Curates, who shall be legally instituted, inducted and admitted into the respective Parishes aforesaid.

IV. And

IV. And that the said several Sums of Money for Tithes may be more equally assessed upon the several Houses, Buildings, and all other Hereditaments whatsoever, within all the said respective Parishes; (2) Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Aldermen of such respective Ward or Wards, within the said City, wherein any of the said Parishes respectively lie, and his or their Deputy or Deputies, and the Common-Council-Men of such respective Ward or Wards, with the Church-wardens, and one or more of the Parishioners of such respective Parish, wherein the Maintenance aforesaid is respectively to be assessed, to be nominated by such respective Alderman, Deputy, Common-Council-Men and Church-wardens, or any five of them, whereof the Alderman or his Deputy to be one, shall at some convenient and seasonable Time before the twentieth Day of May in the Year of our Lord God one thousand six hundred and seventy-one, assemble and meet together in some convenient Place within every of the respective Parishes, in such respective Ward wherein the Maintenance aforesaid is to be assessed; (3) and they or the major Part of them, so assembled, shall proportionably assess upon all Houses, Shops, Ware-houses and Cellars, Wharfs, Keys, Cranes, Water-houses, (which Water-houses shall pay in their respective Parishes where they stand, and not elsewhere) and Tofts of Ground, remaining unbuilt) and all other Hereditaments whatsoever, (except Parsonage and Vicarage-houses) the whole respective Sum by this Act appointed, or so much of it as is more than what each Impropriator is by this Act enjoined respectively to allow, in the most equal Way that the said Assessors according to the best of their Judgments can make it; which said Assessments shall be made and finished before the four and twentieth Day of July then next ensuing.

Who to make the Assessments, and when.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Variance or Doubt shall happen to arise about any Sum so assessed as aforesaid, or that any Parishioner or Parishioners, or Owner or Owners of any House, Shop, Ware-house or Cellar, Wharf, Key, Crane, Water-house, Toft of Ground or other Hereditament within any of the said Parishes, shall find himself or themselves aggrieved by the assessing of any Sum or Sums of Money in Manner and Form aforesaid; That then upon Complaint made by the Party or Parties aggrieved to the Lord Mayor and Court of Aldermen of the said City, within fourteen Days after Notice given to the Party or Parties assessed of such Assessment made, the said Lord Mayor and Court of Aldermen, summoning as well the Party or Parties aggrieved, as the Alderman and such others as made the said Assessment, shall hear and determine the same in a summary Way, and the Judgment by them given shall be final and without Appeal.

If any Variance arise upon the Assessments, who to determine it.

VI. Provided always, and be is enacted, That any Assessment or Rate to be made or laid by Virtue of this Act, shall or may in all or any the Parishes aforesaid, in like Manner be reviewed or altered or laid again within three Months after the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand six hundred and seventy-four, according to the aforesaid Rules, and any such Assessment or Rate shall or may be again reviewed or re-assessed within three Months after the twenty-fourth Day of June in the Year of our Lord one thousand six hundred eighty-one; and that all and every such new Assessment and Rate shall be liable to the like Appeals as aforesaid, and shall be collected, levied and paid as any other Assessment or Rate mentioned in this Act, may or ought to be.

A Review, if Occasion be, of any Assessment.

VII. And if the said Alderman, Deputy, Common-Council-Men and Parishioner or Parishioners so appointed as aforesaid, shall after Summons and Request made in that Behalf unto them by the Lord Mayor and Court of Aldermen, or the Incumbent or Incumbents of any of the said respective Parish or Parishes, refuse and neglect to meet and make such Assessments as aforesaid; then it shall and may be lawful to and for such Person or Persons as shall be thereunto authorized and required by the said Lord Mayor and Court of Aldermen, to make such Assessment as by the said Aldermen, Deputy, Common-Council-Men, Church-wardens, Parishioner or Parishioners aforesaid, should or ought to have been made.

If the Persons appointed by this Act refuse to act, then others to be chosen by the Lord Mayor, &c.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Assessors within ten Days after such Assessments made, and the respective Appeals (if any be) determined, shall make three Transcripts thereof in Parchment, containing the respective Sums to be payable or appointed to be paid out of all and every the Premisses within such respective Parish, and subscribe the same under their Hands, and within twenty Days after such Subscription as aforesaid; one of the said Transcripts shall be returned to the Lord Mayor of the City of London to be kept and preserved by the said Lord Mayor, in and among the Records of the said City, for a perpetual Memorial thereof; and another of the said Transcripts shall be returned into the Registry of the Lord Bishop of London, to be kept and preserved as aforesaid; and the other of the said Transcripts shall remain and be kept in the Vestry of such respective Parish for a perpetual Memorial as aforesaid.

Three Transcripts thereof to be made by the Assessors.

One to be returned to the Lord Mayor. Another to the Bishop of London's Registry. The other to remain in the Vestry.

IX. And for the surer and better Payment of the said respective Sums of Money so to be assessed and taxed towards the Raising of the said Maintenance of the respective Parsons, Vicars and Curates of the said respective Parishes as aforesaid; (2) Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every such respective Sum and Sums of Money so to be assessed and taxed as aforesaid, towards the Raising of the said Maintenance of the said respective Parsons, Vicars and Curates of the said respective Parishes, shall be paid to the said respective Parsons, Vicars and Curates and their Successors respectively, at the four most usual Feasts, (that is to say) at the Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin Mary, the Nativity of Saint John Baptist, the Feast of Saint Michael the Archangel and the Nativity of our Blessed Saviour, or within fourteen Days after each of the Feasts aforesaid, by equal Payments; the respective Payments thereof to begin and commence only from such Time and Times as the Incumbent or Incumbents of such respective Parish shall begin to officiate or preach as Incumbent or Parson in the respective Church belonging to such respective Parish, or in some other convenient Place or Places in such respective Parish or Parishes to be nominated or appointed by the Lord Bishop of London for the Time being, or by the Archbishop of Canterbury in any Place within his Peculiars.

When the same Money shall be paid, and to whom.

X. And in any Parish or Parishes where any Impropriations be, Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every the Impropriator or Impropriators of any of the said Parishes shall pay and allow what really and bona fide they have used and ought to pay and satisfy to the respective Incumbent of such respective respective Parish at any Time before the said late Fire, and the same shall be esteemed and computed a Part of the Maintenance of such Incumbent; notwithstanding this Act or any Clause or Matter or Thing therein contained.

Upon Refusal of Payment, how to levy it.

XI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any the Inhabitants in any the respective Parish or Parishes as aforesaid shall or do refuse or neglect to pay to the respective Incumbents aforesaid of any of the said respective Parishes, any Sum or Sums of Money to him respectively payable or appointed to be by this Act or any Part thereof, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, (being lawfully demanded at the House or Houses, Wharf, Key, Crane, Cellar or other Premisses whereout the same is payable) That then it shall and may be lawful to and for the Lord Mayor of the City of London for the Time being, upon Oath to be made before him of such Refusal or Neglect, to give and grant out Warrants for the Officer or Person appointed to collect the same, with the Assistance of a Constable in the Day-time, to levy the same Tithes or Sums of Money so due and in arrear and unpaid, by Distress and Sale of the Goods of the Party or Parties so refusing or neglecting to pay, restoring to the Owner or Owners the Overplus of such Goods, over and above the said Arrears of the said Monies so due and unpaid, and the reasonable Charges of making such Distress, which he is to deduct out of the Monies raised by Sale of such Goods.

If the Lord Mayor refuse to execute this Act, then who are appointed to execute it.

XII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That in Case the Lord Mayor or Court of Aldermen shall refuse or neglect to execute any of the respective Powers to them by this Act granted, or to perform all and every such Thing relating either to the Assessing or Levying of the respective Sums aforesaid, as they are by this Act authorized and required to perform, That then it shall and may be lawful for the Lord Chancellor or Lord Keeper of the Great Seal of England for the Time being, or any two or more of the Barons of his Majesty's Court of Exchequer, by Warrant or Warrants under his or their respective Hands and Seals, to do and perform what the said Lord Mayor and Court of Aldermen, according to the true Intent or Meaning of this present Act, might or ought to have done, and by such Warrant, either to impower any Person or Persons to make the respective Assessments, as aforesaid, or to authorize the respective Officers or Persons appointed to collect the Sums aforesaid, to levy the same by Distress and Sale of the Goods of any Person or Persons that shall refuse or neglect to pay the same in Manner and Form aforesaid.

XIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That where any of the Parishes within the said City have since the late Fire, by Death or otherwise, become vacant, the surviving or remaining Incumbent of the other Parish thereto united, or therewith consolidated, shall have and enjoy, and have like Remedy to recover the Tithes hereby settled to be paid, as if he had been actually presented, admitted, instituted and inducted into both the said Parishes, since the Union and Consolidation thereof.

No Court whatsoever shall hold Plea for any Duty arising upon this Act.

XIV. Provided always, That no Court or Judge Ecclesiastical or Temporal shall hold Plea of or for any the Sum or Sums of Money due and owing, or to be paid by Virtue of this Act, or any Part thereof, other than the Persons hereby authorized to have Cognizance thereof: Nor shall it be lawful to or for any Parson, Vicar, Curate, or Incumbent, to convent or sue any Person or Persons assessed as aforesaid, and refusing or neglecting to pay the same, in any Court or Courts, or before any Judge or Judges, other than what are authorized and appointed by this Act, for the Hearing and Determining of the same, in Manner aforesaid.

An Exception for St. Gregory's Church out of this Act.

XV. Provided always, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Warden and Minor Canons of St. Paul's Church, London, Parson and Proprietors of the Rectory of St. Gregory aforesaid, to receive and enjoy all Tithes, Oblations, and Duties arising or growing due within the said Parish, in as large and beneficial Manner as formerly they have or lawfully might have done; any Thing herein to the contrary notwithstanding.

'within the said City and Liberties thereof, shall be designed and set out by such and so many Persons as the said Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty in Common Council assembled, shall from Time to Time authorize and appoint under their Common Seal, or the more Part of them: (2) Which said Persons so authorized and appointed, or any seven or more of them, together with the said Surveyors, or some or one of them, within his or their Precincts respectively, shall at their Meeting have Power and Authority to order and direct the Making of any new Vaults, Dreins and Sewers, or to cut into any Drain or Sewer already made, and for the Altering, Enlarging, Amending, Cleansing, and Scowering of any old Vaults, Sinks, or Common Sewers.' Streets, shall be set out by so many Persons as the Lord Mayor and Common Council shall appoint. 19 Car. 2. c. 3. §. 20.

'II. For the better effecting whereof, it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Persons so authorized and appointed as aforesaid, or any seven or more of them, at their said Meeting, to impose any reasonable Tax upon all Houses within the said City and Liberties thereof, in Proportion to the Benefit they shall receive thereby, for and towards the new Making, Cutting, Altering, Enlarging, Amending, Cleansing and Scowring all and singular the said Vaults, Dreins, Sewers, Pavements and Pitching aforesaid; and in Default of Payment of the said Sums so to be charged, it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Persons so authorized as aforesaid, or any seven or more of them, by Order and Warrant under their Hands and Seals, to levy the said Sum and Sums of Money so assessed, by Distress and Sale of the Goods of the Party chargeable therewith, and refusing or neglecting to pay the same, rendring the Overplus (if any be;) (2) and that all other Commissioners whatsoever be altogether suspended to intermeddle in the Premisses within the said City and Liberties thereof, for the Space of seven Years next, and for so long after until the said intended Building shall be fully finished; any Law or Statute to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.' A Power to impose a Tax. To levy by Distress.

III. Be it enacted and declared by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by Authority of the same, That the said Clause or Branch of the said Act herein before recited shall remain and continue in Force, and be made perpetual, and the Powers and Authorities thereby given and appointed to be executed by such Persons as shall in that Behalf be authorized and appointed by the said Mayor, Aldermen and Commons in Common Council assembled, according to the Tenor thereof, under their Common Seal, or any seven or more of them, shall and may from Time to Time, for ever hereafter, be put in Execution according to the Purport and Effect of the aforesaid Act; (2) and that no other Commissioners, or any other Persons whatsoever, shall at any Time hereafter intermeddle in the Premisses within the said City or Liberties thereof; any Law or Statute to the contrary notwithstanding. The Lord Mayor and Common Council to order the Cleansing and Paving of the Streets.

IV. And to the End that for the future all Irregularities in Paving and Pitching of the Streets, Lanes and Passages, within the said City and Liberties thereof, and the frequent Defaults of cleansing the same may be prevented and remedied; (2) Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from henceforth the sole Power and Authority of ordering, designing and regulating, as well the Cleansing and Keeping clean all the Streets, Lanes, and Passages whatsoever within the said City and Liberties, and the Pitching and Paving, with the Order and Manner thereof, and for making and cleansing Dreins and Sewers, shall be and remain in the Mayor, Commonalty and Citizens of the said City, to be managed, executed and done by such Persons, as by the said Mayor, Aldermen and Commons in Common Council assembled, shall be thereunto authorized and appointed, or by any seven or more of them, (being all Members of the said Court) and no other Persons whatsoever, and in such Sort and Manner as from Time to Time shall by them be found most convenient for the publick Benefit of the Inhabitants of the said City in general.

V. And all Paviers, Scavengers, Carters, Labourers and Lightermen, and all other Persons that have been heretofore, or that may hereafter be imployed in any of the Works belonging to the Dreins or Sewers, Pitching, Paving or Cleansing of the Streets, Lanes or Passages within the said City or Liberties thereof, are hereby enjoined and required, duly and constantly to obey, observe and execute all such Orders, Rules and Directions, as shall be from Time to Time appointed or prescribed by the Persons in that Behalf to be authorized, or any seven or more of them. All Paviers and Scavengers required to observe their Directions.

VI. And that the Parties therein offending, contrary to this present Act, shall and may be proceeded against, and thereof convicted by Indictment at the next Sessions of the Peace to be held for the said City and Liberties thereof, according to his or their several Offences, unless they shall submit to the Judgment and Censure of the Persons so to be authorized and appointed as aforesaid, or any seven or more of them, and shall satisfy and pay such Mulct or Penalty as by them shall be set and imposed for such Offence, into the Chamber of the City of London, to be imployed for and towards the Works in this Act mentioned; any Law, Statute, Usage or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding. The Punishment of the Offenders.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That for the better enabling the said Mayor, Commonalty and Citizens to effect and perform all and singular the Works in and by this present Act mentioned and appointed to be done, and for the defraying the Charge thereof, it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Persons so to be authorized and appointed as aforesaid, or any seven or more of them, at their publick Meetings, from Time to Time, as oft as Need shall be or require, to impose any reasonable Tax or Assessment upon the several Wards and Precincts thereof, within the said City and Liberties, and to direct Precepts or Warrants under their Hands and Seals, or of any seven or more of them, unto the respective Deputies and Common-Council-Men of the said several Wards, thereby requiring them to rate and assess the said Taxes and Assessments, in Manner hereafter following: (2) and also to direct like Precepts or Warrants to such and so many of the Scavengers within the respective Wards as they shall think fit, thereby requiring them to collect and levy the Monies so assessed, upon Receipt whereof the said Deputies and Common-Council-Men thereunto appointed, are hereby required to make an Assessment and Distribution of the Proportion charged upon their respective Wards and Precincts thereof as aforesaid, as well upon the Tenants and Occupiers of Houses, Shops, or other Tenements or Hereditaments, as upon Power to impose a reasonable Tax.

CAP. XVIII. (12.)

An Act for the better Regulating of Workhouses for setting the Poor on Work.

13 & 14 Car. 2. c. 12.

FOR the more effectual putting in Execution of an Act of Parliament made in the fourteenth Year of your Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the better Relief of the Poor of this Kingdom; and to the End that the Poor of the several Parishes within the City and Liberties of Westminster, and other Parishes within the County of Middlesex, mentioned within the Weekly Bill of Mortality, may for the future be duly provided for, according to the Intent and Meaning of the said Act, May it please your most Excellent Majesty that it may be enacted; (2) And be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all Monies assessed, or ordered to be assessed, upon any Person, in Pursuance of the said Act, since the first Day of March in the Year of our Lord one thousand six hundred sixty and five, shall be collected and paid in to the Treasurers of the respective Corporations, by or before the nine and twentieth Day of September in the Year of our Lord one thousand six hundred seventy and one; and all Monies already collected by Authority of the said Act, shall be paid in to the said Treasurers, by or before the first Day of June in the Year of our Lord one thousand six hundred seventy and one: (3) And that the Officers of the said Corporations erected and constituted in Pursuance of the said Act, and their Treasurers, shall make and give Quarterly Accounts to the Justices of Peace, who are hereby required to demand and call for the said Accounts, and are not to raise any more Monies upon any new Certificates whatsoever, until there be a just Account given to, and allowed by, the Justices of the Peace aforesaid, according to the true Intent and Meaning of the said former and this present Act.

43 El. c. 2. To whom the Money, when collected, shall be paid.

To whom to Account.

'II. And whereas some Accounts have been made by the former Governors, of Part of the Monies raised 'by the Act aforesaid, and some of them stand engaged for Payment of certain Sums of Money, which were 'borrowed and expended in Pursuance of the said former Act:' Be it further enacted, That all such Accounts which shall appear to the said Justices (not having been Governors of the said Corporations) to have been made according to the Act aforesaid, shall be and are hereby ratified and confirmed; and that such Monies as have not been accounted for as aforesaid, shall be accounted for according as in the said Act is provided.

III. And that all Monies lent, and all such Debts as any of them, or any of the Members of the said Corporations aforesaid, stand engaged for, and have been contracted for the Uses expressed in the said Act, shall upon Order from the Justices aforesaid (ascertaining the same) be discharged and satisfied by the respective Treasurer or Treasurers for the Time being, and shall from Time to Time be allowed in their respective Accounts.

Monies lent shall be paid.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Sum or Sums of Money to be levied upon the Inhabitants of any of the said respective Parishes, according to the said former or this present Act, shall in any one Year exceed one-fourth Part of the Assessment to the Poor for that Year, laid on any of the Parishes and Liberties aforesaid: Which said Sum shall be paid by the respective Inhabitants of the said Parishes, at two several Payments, to the Treasurer or Treasurers for the said Corporations (that is to say) at the Feast of St. Michael the Archangel, and the Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin Mary, or within fourteen Days after either of the said Feasts as aforesaid.

The Tax not to exceed one Fourth of the Poors Assessment.

When to be paid.

V. And be it also enacted, That no Assessment shall be laid or made on any of the Parishes aforesaid, after the nine and twentieth Day of September which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand six hundred seventy and five; any Thing in the said former or this present Act to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

When the Assessments to be laid.

VI. Provided always, That nothing herein contained shall in any Sort extend to the Superseding, Altering or Vacating any of the Powers given by the said former Act, to the Lord Mayor and Governors for the Corporation within the City of London, or the Parish of St. Margaret's Westminster, but that the same and all the other Clauses and Articles in the said former Act shall to all Intents and Purposes be fully executed and observed within the City of London, and Parish of St. Margaret's Westminster, as if this Act had not been made; any Thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

An Act for the Relief and Release of poor distressed Prisoners for Debt.

13 El. c. 5. 43 El. c. 2. Intr. 14. Inforced by 2 Geo. 2. c. 22.

'FOrasmuch as very many Persons now detained in Prison, are miserably impoverished, either by reason 'of the late unhappy Times, the sad and dreadful Fire, their own Misfortunes, or otherwise, so as 'they are totally disabled to give any Satisfaction to their Creditors, and so become, without Advantage to 'any, a Charge and Burden to the Kingdom, and by Noisomness (inseparably incident to extream Poverty) 'may become the Occasion of Pestilence and contagious Diseases, to the great Prejudice of the Kingdom;

"Justice of the Peace shall command the Body of any Prisoner to be brought before him. The Form of "the Oath. The Prisoner to be remanded. Notice to be left with the Plaintiff to appear at the Sessions. "When the Prisoner to be discharged. 30 Car. 2. Stat. 1. c. 4. §. 4. Wilfulness in the Creditor. The "Sheriff, &c. discharged from all Escapes. 30 Car. 2. Stat. 1. c. 4. §. 8. Double Costs. The Judgments "shall stand good notwithstanding the Discharge. The Prisoner taking a false Oath, shall be indicted of "Perjury. A new Execution to be awarded against him. No Officer shall delay to bring any Prisoner be-"fore a Justice of the Peace. The Penalty. 30 Car. 2. Stat. 1. c. 4. §. 7."

No Sheriff, Bailiff or other Officer, shall carry any Person to any Tavern, Alehouse, &c. or call for any Wine or Ale, without his free Consent;

'IX. And whereas it is found by common Experience, That such Person or Persons that are under Ar-'rests, or committed to the Custody of Sheriffs, Bailiffs, Gaolers, Keepers of Prisons or Gaols, are much 'abused and wronged by Extorting of great Fees, Rewards and other Exactions, and put to great Expen-'ces under Pretences of Favour or otherwise, whereby they are greatly oppressed, and many Times ruined 'in their Estates:' (2) For Remedy thereof, Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Under-Sheriff, Bailiff, Sergeant at Mace or other Officer or Minister whatsoever, shall at any Time or Times hereafter have in his or their Custody any Person or Persons by Virtue or Colour of any Writ; Process or other Warrant whatsoever, it shall not be lawful for such Officer or Officers to convey or carry, or cause to be conveyed or carried, the said Person or Persons to any Tavern, Alehouse or other publick Victualling or Drinking House, without the free and voluntary Consent of the said Person or Persons, so as to charge such Prisoner with any Sum of Money for any Wine, Beer, Ale, Victuals, Tobacco or any other Things whatsoever, but what the said Person or Persons shall call for of his, her or their own Accord; (3) and shall not demand, take or receive, or cause to be demanded, taken or received, directly or indirectly, any other or greater Sum or Sums than what by Law ought to be taken or demanded for such Arrest, Taking or Waiting; (until such Person or Persons shall have procured an Appearance, found Bail, agreed with his or their Adversaries, or be sent to the proper Gaol belonging to the County, City, Town or Place, where such Arrest or Taking shall be) (4) nor take and exact any other Reward or Gratuity for so Keeping the said Person or Persons out of the Gaol or Prison, than what he, she or they shall or will of his, her or their own Accord voluntarily and freely give; (5) nor take nor receive any other or greater Sum or Sums for each Night's Lodging or other Expences, than what is reasonable and fitting in such Cases, or shall be so adjudged by the next Justice of the Peace or at the next Quarter-Sessions; (6) and shall not cause or procure the said Person or Persons to pay for any other Wine, Beer, Ale, Victuals, Tobacco or other Things, than what the said Person or Persons shall voluntarily, particularly and freely call for.

Nor demand or receive greater Sum than what by Law ought to be taken for waiting.

That all Sheriffs, Gaolers, &c. shall permit their Prisoners to send for necessary Food where they please;

Nor demand any greater Fee for their Commitment or Discharge than what is allowable.

X. And that every Under-Sheriff, Gaoler, Keeper of Prison or Gaol, and every Person or Persons whatsoever, to whose Custody any Person or Persons shall be delivered or committed, by Virtue of any Writ or Process, or any Pretence whatsoever, shall permit and suffer the said Person or Persons at his and their Will and Pleasure, to send for and have any Beer, Ale, Victuals and other necessary Food, where and from whence they please; as also to have and use such Bedding, Linen and other Things, as the said Person or Persons shall think fit, without any Purloining, Detaining or Paying for the same or any Part thereof; nor shall demand, take or receive of the said Person or Persons any other or greater Fee or Fees whatsoever, for his, her or their Commitment, Release or Discharge, or for his, her or their Chamber-rent, than what is allowable by Law, until the same shall be settled by three Justices of the Peace, whereof one to be of the Quorum, of each particular County, City and Town Corporate in their several Precincts; and for the City of London and Counties of Middlesex and Surrey, the two Lord Chief Justices of the King's Bench and Common Pleas, and the Lord Chief Baron, or any two of them, and the Justices of the Peace of the same in their several Jurisdictions.

That Inquiry be made into all Charities given for the Benefit of poor Prisoners.

XI. And likewise that the said Lord Chief Justices, Lord Chief Baron, and Justices of the Peace in their several Jurisdictions, and all Commissioners for Charitable Uses, do use their best Endeavours and Diligence to examine and find out the several Legacies, Gifts and Bequests bestowed and given for the Benefit and Advantage of the poor Prisoners for Debt, in the several Gaols and Prisons in this Kingdom, and to send for any Deeds, Wills, Writings and Books of Accounts whatsoever, and any Person or Persons concerned therein, and to examine them upon Oath, to make true Discovery thereof (which they have full Power and Authority hereby to do) and the same so found out and ascertained, to order and settle in some Manner and Way, that the Prisoners hereafter may not be defrauded, but receive the full Benefit thereof, according to the true Intent of the Donors.

That the Rates of Fees, and Government of Prisons be signed by the Lord Chief Justices, &c. and hung up in every Gaol, fairly written.

XII. And that these Accounts of the several Legacies, Gifts and Bequests given and bestowed upon the several Prisoners for Debt within this Kingdom, and the several Rates of Fees and the future Government of Prisons, be signed and confirmed by the Lord Chief Justices and Lord Chief Baron, or any two of them for the Time being, and the Justices of the Peace in London, Middlesex and Surrey, and by the Judges for the several Circuits, and Justices of the Peace for the Time being in their several Precincts, and fairly written and hung up in a Table in every Gaol and Prison, before the first Day of November one thousand six hundred seventy and one, and likewise be registred by each and every Clerk of the Peace within his or their particular particular Jurisdiction: And after such Establishment no other or greater Fee or Fees than shall be so established, shall be demanded or received.

Felons and Prisoners for Debt, not to be lodged together.

' XIII. And whereas it is become the common Practice of the Gaolers and Keepers of Newgate, the ' Gate-house at Westminster and sundry other Gaols and Prisons, to lodge together in one Room or Chamber ' and Bed, Prisoners for Debt and Felons, whereby many Times honest Gentlemen, Tradesmen and others, ' Prisoners for Debt, are disturbed and hindred in the Night-time from their natural Rest, by Reason of ' their Fetters and Irons, and otherwise much offended and troubled by their lewd and prophane Language ' and Discourses, with most horrid Cursing and Swearing, (much accustomed to such Persons);' (2) be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall not be lawful hereafter for any Sheriff, Gaoler or Keeper of any Gaol or Prison, to put, keep or lodge Prisoners for Debt and Felons together in one Room or Chamber; but that they shall be put, kept and lodged separate and apart one from another in distinct Rooms; (3) upon Pain that he, she or they which shall offend against this Act, or the true Intent and Meaning thereof or any Part thereof, shall forfeit and lose his or her Office, Place or Imployment, and shall forfeit treble Damages to the Party grieved, to be recovered by Virtue of this Act; any Law, Statute, Usage or Custom to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding. 30 Car. 2.

An Act for Taking the Accounts of sixty thousand Pounds, and other Monies given to the loyal and indigent Officers.

CAP. XXII. (18.)

An Act for the better and more certain Recovery of Fines and Forfeitures due to his Majesty.

' WHEREAS by divers Statutes in old Time made, it was provided, That the Estreats of Fines, Is- ' sues, Amerciaments and other Forfeitures should be certified and delivered into the Exchequer year- ' ly, and that from thence the Estreats of the Summons should go forth through all Shires for the Levying ' thereof: (2) Since the Making of which Laws many are the Abuses and Mischiefs arisen and practised, ' not only by the not timely certifying and estreating the said Fines and Forfeitures, but also by the sinister ' Practice amongst Officers, in sparing, discharging and not certifying at all, or if they do certify, yet by ' Mis-certifying and Estreating the said Fines and Forfeitures in and into the said Court of Exchequer:'

All Fines, Post-Fines, Issues, Amerciaments, Recognizances, and other Forfeitures forfeited in the King's Bench, or Common Bench, to be certified twice every Year into the Exchequer. Hillary Term. Trinity Term.

II. For Remedy whereof, and Mischiefs of the like Kind, Be it enacted and ordained by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from henceforth all Fines, Post-Fines, Issues, Amerciaments forfeited, Recognizances, Sum and Sums of Money paid or to be paid in Lieu or Satisfaction of them or any of them, and all other Forfeitures whatsoever, which already are or hereafter shall be set, imposed, lost or forfeited, in his Majesty's Courts of King's Bench, Common Bench or Exchequer, shall be certified and estreated in and into the said Court of Exchequer, twice in every Year yearly (that is to say) All Fines, Post-Fines, Issues, Amerciaments forfeited, Recognizances, Sum and Sums of Money paid or to be paid in Lieu or Satisfaction of them or any of them, and all other Forfeitures whatsoever arising in any of the said Courts, from the Beginning of every Hillary Term in every Year to the Beginning of every Trinity Term in every Year, shall be and are hereby ordained to be certified and estreated in and into the said Court of Exchequer, the last Day of every Trinity Term in every Year.

The Penalty.

III. And all Fines, Post-Fines, Issues, Amerciaments forfeited, Recognizances, Sum and Sums of Money paid and to be paid in Lieu or Satisfaction of them or any of them, and all other Forfeitures whatsoever arising in any of the said Courts, from the Beginning of every Trinity Term in every Year to the Beginning of every Hillary Term in every Year, shall be in like Manner certified and estreated in and into the said Court of Exchequer, the said last Day of every Hillary Term in every Year; (2) on Pain that every Officer and Minister of or belonging to the said Courts or any of them, to whom it doth, ought or shall belong or appertain, to make Certificate or Estreat of any of the said Fines or Forfeitures, making Default or offending therein, to forfeit and pay fifty Pounds for every such Default or Failure that shall be made in Certifying and Estreating as aforesaid; the one Moiety to the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to such Person or Persons that shall or will sue for the same in any Court of Record by Action of Debt, Bill or Information, wherein no Wager of Law, Essoin or Protection shall be allowed.

A Saving out of this Act.

IV. Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained shall alter or change the Course now used in the Certifying and Estreating of Issues from the said Court of Common Bench, nor of Fines Pro licentia concordandi, commonly called Post-Fines, being Termly certified and estreated into the said Court of Exchequer, nor the termly estreating of Issues certified out of the Office of Pleas belonging to the said Court of Exchequer, to the Clerk of the Estreats there.

All Fines and Forfeitures, &c. before Judges of Assize, Clerks of the Market, or Commissioners of Sewers, to be in like Manner certified.

V. And be it further enacted and ordained by the Authority aforesaid, That all Fines, Issues, Amerciaments forfeited, Recognizances, Sum and Sums of Money paid or to be paid in Lieu or Satisfaction of them or any of them, and all other Forfeitures whatsoever, which already are or hereafter shall be set, imposed, lost or forfeited, by or before any Judge or Judges of Assize, Clerk of the Market or Commissioners of Sewers throughout the Kingdom of England, shall be and are hereby ordained to be certified and estreated into the said Court of Exchequer twice in every Year yearly, (that is to say) All Fines, Issues, Amerciaments

The Time when.

VI. And all Fines, Issues, Amerciaments forfeited, Recognizances, Sum and Sums of Money paid or to be paid in Lieu or Satisfaction of them or any of them, arising or happening in any of the said Courts last mentioned, from the said Feast of Easter in every Year to the said Feast of St. Michael the Archangel in every Year, shall be certified and estreated into the said Court of Exchequer before the first Day of Hilary Term in every Year; (2) on Pain that every such Person and Persons to whom it doth, ought or shall belong or appertain to make Certificate or Estreats of the said Fines or Forfeitures, making Default herein, to forfeit and pay fifty Pounds for every such Default or Failure that shall be made in Certifying and Estreating as aforesaid; the one Moiety to the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to such Person or Persons that shall or will sue for the same in any Court of Record by Action of Debt, Bill or Information, wherein no Wager of Law, Essoin or Protection shall be allowed.

Forfeiture.

All Clerks of the Peace, and Town-Clerks, to deliver to the Sheriff a Schedule of all Fines, &c.

VII. And be it further enacted and ordained by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every the Clerk and Clerks of the Peace, and all Town-Clerks and every of them within the Kingdom of England, do and shall make and deliver to the Sheriff or Sheriffs of the County, City or Town Corporate, where the Sessions of the Peace is or shall be kept, within twenty Days after the nine and twentieth Day of September in every Year yearly, a true or perfect Estreat or Schedule of all Fines, Issues, Amerciaments forfeited, Recognizances, Sum and Sums of Money and other Forfeitures whatsoever, that are or shall happen to be imposed, set, lost or forfeited in any of the said Sessions of the Peace respectiyely, which shall be held before Michaelmas, by or upon any Person or Persons whatsoever, due to his Majesty;

And Return a Duplicate into the Exchequer.

VIII. And also do and shall yearly and every Year, on or before the second Monday after the Morrow of All Souls, make and deliver into the said Court of Exchequer, a true and perfect Duplicate, Certificate and Estreat of all such Estreats and Schedules so delivered to the respective Sheriffs as aforesaid, That so the respective Sheriffs on their Appofals in the said Court of Exchequer, may be charged with the Monies levied and received by him or them respectively, upon such Schedules delivered as aforesaid; (2) on Pain that every such Person and Persons offending herein, for every such Default or Failure made, to forfeit and pay fifty Pounds; the one Moiety to the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to such Person or Persons that shall or will sue for the same, to be recovered in any Court of Record, by Action of Debt, Bill or Information, wherein no Essoin, Protection or Wager of Law shall be allowed.

The Penalty.

All Persons whatsoever shall not withhold, but estreat all Fines, &c. into the Exchequer.

IX. And be it further enacted and ordained by the Authority aforesaid, That no Officer or Minister of or belonging to any of his Majesty's Courts of King's Bench, Common Bench or Exchequer, nor any Clerk of Assize, Clerk of the Peace, Town-Clerk, nor any Officer or Minister under them, or any of them, nor other Person or Persons whatsoever, do or shall spare, take off, discharge, or wittingly or willingly conceal any Indictment, Fine, Post-Fine, Issue, Amerciament forfeited, Recognizance or other Forfeiture whatsoever, exhibited, set, imposed, lost or forfeited, or to be exhibited, set, imposed, lost or forfeited in any of the said Courts before-mentioned, or before any Judge or Judges of or belonging to the same, or any Sum or Sums of Money paid or to be paid to any Officer or Officers in Lieu or Satisfaction of any Fine or Forfeiture, unless it be by Rule or Order in Court where such Indictment, Fine, Post-Fine, Issue, Amerciament forfeited, Recognizance or other Forfeiture, is or shall be exhibited, set, imposed, lost or forfeited; (2) nor shall any of the said Officers or Ministers aforesaid, or any of them, or any other, wittingly or willingly miscertify or estreat in or into the said Court of Exchequer, any Fine, Post-Fine, Issue, Amerciament forfeited, Recognizance or other Forfeiture whatsoever, whereby the Process of the said Court of Exchequer for the levying of the same may be made invalid and of none Effect; (3) but every such Officer and Officers, and all and every other Person and Persons offending herein, shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay treble the Value of such Fine, Post-Fine, Issue, Amerciament forfeited, Recognizance, Sum and Sums of Money, and other Forfeiture so spared, taken off, discharged, concealed, not certified, or estreated, or miscertified or estreated as aforesaid; the one Moiety thereof to the Use and Behoof of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to such Person or Persons as shall or will sue for the same in any Court of Record, by Action of Debt, Bill or Information, wherein no Wager of Law, Essoin or Protection shall be allowed; and also shall lose his and their Office and Place, and be for ever incapable to be imployed in any Office or Place where any Part of his Majesty's Revenue is to be managed or paid.

Penalty enlarged by 3 Geo. 1. c. 15. §. 12.

Upon all Certificates and Estreats, the Green-wax shall go forth for the Levying of the same.

X. And lastly, Be it enacted and ordained by the Authority aforesaid, That where any Fine or Fines, Sum or Sums of Money, or other Forfeitures due to his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, shall from henceforth at any Time or Times be paid to any Sheriff, Clerk of Assize, Clerk of the Peace, or other Officer or Minister whatsoever belonging to any Court or Courts, and be according to the Intent and Directions of this Act certified and estreated in or into the said Court of Exchequer; there and in such Case the Summons or Process of the Green-Wax shall go forth and be awarded to the respective Sheriffs against such Officer and Officers, and other Persons to whom such Fine or Fines, Sum or Sums of Money, or other Forfeiture is or shall be so paid, for the levying and receiving of the same, that so it may appear when, to whom, and how such Monies are received, answered and paid to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors; any Custom or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

A Saving of all Rights and Liberties.

XI. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That nothing in this Act contained shall in any Sort extend, or be construed to extend, to the prejudicing of the Rights and Privileges of any Bodies Politick or Corporate or their Successors, or of any Lord or Lords of any Manor, Liberty, or Franchise whatsoever; any Thing herein to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

XII. Pro-

XII. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend to or be any ways prejudicial to the Rights, Customs, Privileges, Liberties, Charter or Charters of the City of London; but that the said City may enjoy the same accordingly, as they formerly have enjoyed the same, in all Respects, and to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, in the same Manner and Form as they before this Act had enjoyed the same; any Thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding. Saving to the City of London.

XIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That this Act shall continue for three Years, and from thence until the End of the next Session of Parliament, and no longer. [Made perpetual by 4 & 5 W. & M. c. 24. §. 4.] How long to continue.

CAP. XXIV. (16.)

An Act for vesting certain Fee-Farm Rents, and other small Rents in Trustees.

'WHEREAS his Majesty, in Pursuance of a late Act, intituled, An Act for advancing the Sale of Fee-farm Rents, and other Rents, hath by several Letters Patents (one bearing Date the thirteenth Day of June in the two and twentieth Year of his Reign, and the other bearing Date the eleventh Day of November in the two and twentieth Year of his Reign) granted and conveyed divers Fee-farm Rents, and other Rents, unto Francis Lord Hawley, Sir Charles Harbord Knt. Sir William Haward Knt. Sir John Talbot Knt. Sir Robert Steward Knt. and William Harbord Esq; and their Heirs, as Trustees for Sale thereof, most of which Rents are of the yearly Value of forty Shillings per Annum, and upwards; 22 Car. 2. c. 6.

'II. And whereas there are yet remaining very many small Rents left out of the said Letters Patents, which were intended by the said Act to be sold and conveyed away, the Collection of which small Rents is very chargeable to his Majesty, and very troublesome to the Subject, by Means of Under-Sheriffs, Bailiffs and Messengers necessarily imployed therein; (2) and yet if the said small Rents should be conveyed by Letters Patents to Trustees for Sale thereof, the said Letters Patents would be of extraordinary Length, and require a Multitude of Recitals of many Small Sums, which besides the Charge in Writing, would also be an Occasion of great Hindrance and Delay to his Majesty's Service:' (3) Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by Authority thereof, That all Fee-farm Rents, Rents-service, Rents-seck or Dry-rents, Chauntry-rents, Guild-rents, Castle-guard Rents, and other Rents, within the Survey of the Exchequer, or Duchy of Lancaster, due and payable to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, in Possession, Reversion or Remainder (other than such Rents and Sums of Money as are specially saved and excepted out of the said Act) be and are hereby vested and settled in the said Francis Lord Hawley, Sir Charles Harbord, Sir William Haward, Sir John Talbot, Sir Robert Stewart, and William Harbord, and their Heirs, as fully and absolutely to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, as if the same had been particularly granted unto them by Letters Patents by Virtue of the said Act, and in such Manner as is hereby directed in that Behalf; (4) and the said Rents hereby vested in the said Trustees, shall be by them conveyed and disposed according to the Directions and Instructions mentioned in the said Act, to any Person or Persons, Bodies Politick or Corporate, who shall desire to purchase the same Rents, or any of them, upon a Particular or Certificate thereof made by the Auditor or other Officer of Record, before whom the same do or shall stand in Charge respectively, which Conveyance of the said Trustees, and the Survivors and Survivor of them, shall be as good and effectual in Law to all Intents and Purposes, as if the Rents so conveyed had been particularly, immediately, and well and sufficiently granted by his Majesty under the Great Seal of England, or the Seal of the Duchy or County Palatine of Lancaster.

III. And for the better Security and Satisfaction of the Purchasers of any the said Rents; (2) Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every Person or Persons, Bodies Politick and Corporate, their Heirs, Successors and Assigns, who have already been, or hereafter shall become, Purchaser or Purchasers of any of the said Rents granted by the said recited Letters Patents, or mentioned or intended to be vested in or conveyed by these Presents to the said Trustees, shall quietly hold and enjoy the same, according to their several and respective Purchases, and shall be and are hereby saved and indemnified, and kept harmless of and from all and all Manner of Incumbrances whatsoever heretofore had, made or done, or hereafter to be had, made or done, by the said Trustees or any of them, to charge or incumber the said Rents with any Incumbrances whatsoever. All Purchasers of Fee-Farm Rents to be kept harmless from all Incumbrances made by the Trustees. Such Rents, how to be described in Deeds and Pleadings, 10 Ann. c. 18. §. 4.

The Receivers General may receive them till Sale made.

IV. Provided always, and it is the true Intent and Meaning of these Presents, That until Sale shall be made of the said several Rents by the Trustees afore-mentioned, or the Survivors or Survivor of them, their Heirs, Executors or Administrators, That the Receiver or Receivers General of his Majesty's Revenue shall and may receive, collect and gather the same and every Part thereof, as fully to all Intents and Purposes as if the said Letters Patents or this present Act had not been made.

Advantages allowed to Purchasers. 22 Car. 2. c. 6.

V. And lastly, be it enacted, That all such Persons as shall purchase any of the said Rents by Virtue of this Act, shall have and enjoy all the Benefits and Advantages given or allowed to Purchasers by the said former Act; and the shewing of the printed Copies of this and the said former Act, and of the Conveyance made by the said Trustees, and Enrolled according to the Direction of the said former Act, shall be sufficient Evidence in any Court of Justice, to entitle the Purchaser and Purchasers, their Heirs and Assigns, to any Rent by him, her or them purchased, and contained in such Conveyance, without any further Proof or Evidence in that Behalf.

The shewing of this Act and Deed shall be a good Evidence in any Court of Justice.

VI. Provided, That no Tenant in Tail of any the said Rents shall be enabled by this Act to suffer any Recovery or do any other Act or Deed to bar the Remainder, hereby vested in the said Trustees and their Heirs, nor shall such Tenant in Tail have any other or greater Power over the said Rent than he had before the passing of this Act; any Thing herein before contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

No Tenant in Tail of any of the said Rents, shall suffer any Recovery to bar the Remainder.

VII. And be it further enacted, That the said Trustees and the Survivors and Survivor of them, conveying and disposing of the said Rents according to such Contracts and Agreements as shall be signed by the Lord Treasurer of England and Chancellor of the Exchequer, or the Lords Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, pursuant to the said former or this present Act, and the Heirs, Executors or Administrators of the said Trustees, shall be for so doing and are hereby freed and discharged against his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors for ever.

The Trustees duly executing their Authority, shall be discharged against his Majesty, &c.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Purchaser of any of the Rents and Premisses by the Intent of this or any former Act sold or appointed to be sold, their Heirs and Assigns, and all Person and Persons, their Heirs, Executors, Administrators and Assigns, claiming by, from or under such Purchaser or Purchasers, may sue for, make Avowry, Justification or Conuzance, as the Case shall require, for such Rent or Rents, and Premisses, and Arrears thereof, without setting forth how his Majesty or his Progenitors became entitled to such Rents or other the Premisses, or setting forth or producing in Court any Letters Patents or other Matter, whereby such Rents or Premisses had Commencement, or the said Letters Patents whereby the Premisses were granted or intended to be granted to the said Francis Lord Hawley, Sir Charles Harbord, Sir William Haward, Sir John Talbot, Sir Robert Stewart and William Harbord; (2) but it shall be sufficient in every such Suit, Avowry, Conuzance or Justification, where Occasion shall be to set forth the Title of such Purchaser, to declare or alledge, that the said Francis Lord Hawley, Sir Charles Harbord, Sir William Haward, Sir John Talbot, Sir Robert Stewart and William Harbord, were seised in Fee, or in Demesne as of Fee, of such Rent or Premisses, in Possession or Reversion, as the Case requires, and so seised granted the same.

All Purchasers may make a general Justification, by saying that the Trustees were seised in Fee, and so granted to them.

Liberty given to Purchase by the Words expressed in the Letters Patents, the Auditors Certificates, or Grants from the Crown.

'IX. Whereas many of the Rents vested in the said Trustees by the two Patents herein before mentioned, are either misrecited, or not so fully and particularly expressed, as may be reasonably desired by some Purchasers:' (2) Be it therefore further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Trustees, and the Survivor and Survivors of them, and the Heirs of such Survivors, shall and may convey the said Rents or any of them to the respective Purchasers, either by the Words expressed in the said Letters Patents, or by Particulars to be made out by the respective Auditors, or by the original Grants from the Crown, wherein those Rents are reserved, as the said Trustees shall find most convenient for the Satisfaction of the said Purchasers; (3) Saving unto the Queen's Majesty all such Right, Title, Interest, Possession or Estate, as her Majesty had, should or might have, or of Right ought to have had, in or unto the Rents hereby vested, or any of them, as fully and amply as her Majesty should or might have had before this present Act, and as if this Act had never been had or made; any Thing herein before contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

A Saving to the Queen's Majesty of all her Rights, &c.

CAP. XXV. (17.)

An Act for the better Preservation of the Game, and for securing Warrens not inclosed, and the several Fishings of this Realm.

13 R. 2. Stat. 1. c. 13. 1 H. 7. c. 17. 19 H. 7. c. 11. 12 H. 8. c. 8. 3 El. c. 21. 5 & 6 El. c. 10. 1 Jac. 1. c. 27. 3 Jac. 1. c. 13. 13 Car. 2. Stat. 1. c. 10.

'WHEREAS divers disorderly Persons, laying aside their lawful Trades and Employments, do betake themselves to the stealing, taking and killing of Conies, Hares, Pheasants, Partridges and other Game intended to be preserved by former Laws, with Guns, Dogs, Tramels, Lowbels, Hays and other Nets, Snares, Hare-pipes and other Engines, to the great Damage of this Realm, and Prejudice of Noblemen, Gentlemen and Lords of Manors and others, Owners of Warrens:'

Who may appoint Game-keepers.

II. For Remedy thereof, be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all Lords of Manors, or other Royalties, not under the Degree of an Esquire, may from henceforth by Writing under their Hands and Seals authorize one or more Game-keeper or Game-keepers within their respective Manors or Royalties, who being thereunto so authorized, may take and seize all such Guns, Bows, Grey-hounds, Setting-dogs, Lurchers, or other Dogs to kill Hares or Conies, Ferrets, Tramels, Lowbels, Hays or other Nets, Hare-pipes, Snares or other Engines, for the taking and killing of Conies, Hares, Pheasants, Partridges or other Game, as within the Precincts of such respective Manors shall be used by any Person or Persons who by this Act are prohibited to keep or use the same: (2) And moreover, That the said Game-keeper or Game-keepers, or any other

What such Game-keepers may seize.

Perſon or Perſons being thereunto authorized by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of any Juſtice of the Peace of the ſame County, Diviſion or Place, may in the Day-time ſearch the Houſes, Out-houſes or other Places of any ſuch Perſon or Perſons by this Act prohibited to keep or uſe the ſame, as upon good Ground ſhall be ſuſpected to have or keep in his or their Cuſtody any Guns, Bows, Greyhounds, Setting-dogs, Ferrets, Cony-dogs, or other Dogs to deſtroy Hares or Conies, Hays, Tramels or other Nets, Lowbels, Hare-pipes, Snares or other Engines aforeſaid, and the ſame and every or any of them to ſeize, detain and keep, to and for the Uſe of the Lord of the Manor or Royalty where the ſame ſhall be ſo found or taken, or otherwiſe to cut in Pieces or deſtroy, as Things by this Act prohibited to be kept by Perſons of their Degree. Power to ſearch Houſes.

III. And it is hereby enacted and declared, That all and every Perſon and Perſons not having Lands and Tenements, or ſome other Eſtate of Inheritance, in his own or his Wife's Right, of the clear yearly Value of one hundred Pounds per Annum, or for Term of Life, or having Leaſe or Leaſes of ninety-nine Years, or for any longer Term, of the clear yearly Value of one hundred and fifty Pounds, other than the Son and Heir apparent of an Eſquire, or other Perſon of higher Degree, and the Owners and Keepers of Foreſts, Parks, Chaſes or Warrens, being ſtocked with Deer or Conies for their neceſſary Uſe, in reſpect of the ſaid Foreſts, Parks, Chaſes or Warrens, are hereby declared to be Perſons by the Laws of this Realm not allowed to have or keep for themſelves, or any other Perſon or Perſons, any Guns, Bows, Greyhounds, Setting-dogs, Ferrets, Coney-dogs, Lurchers, Hays, Nets, Lowbels, Hare-pipes, Gins, Snares, or other Engines aforeſaid; but ſhall be and are hereby prohibited to have, keep or uſe the ſame. What Perſons are prohibited the keeping of Guns, Bows, Dogs, &c. 5 Mod. 307. 1 Salk. 212.

'IV. And foraſmuch as divers Warrens and Grounds not incloſed, are uſed for the breeding and keeping of Conies in ſeveral Parts of this Kingdom, and that ſundry diſſolute and diſorderly Perſons have been much encouraged to kill and deſtroy the Conies in ſuch Warrens and Grounds not incloſed in the Night-time, for that the ſame is not prohibited or puniſhable by the Statutes in that Behalf made and provided, which extend only to the ſtealing and killing of Conies in Warrens or Grounds incloſed:' (2) For Remedy thereof, Be it enacted and declared, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall at any Time enter wrongfully into any Warren or Ground lawfully uſed or kept for the breeding or keeping of Conies (although the ſame be not incloſed) and there ſhall chaſe, take or kill any Conies againſt the Will of the Owner or Occupier thereof, not having lawful Title or Authority ſo to do, and ſhall be thereof lawfully convicted in Manner hereafter following, the Parties ſo offending ſhall yield to the Party grieved treble Damages and Coſts, and ſuffer Impriſonment by the Space of three Months and after, till they ſhall find Sureties for their good Abearing. No Perſon ſhall kill Conies in a Warren not incloſed. Burn, V. 1. 487. Forfeiture.

'V. And foraſmuch as divers idle and diſorderly Perſons living near unto Warrens, have of late Time uſed to take and kill the Conies upon the Borders of the ſame, and under Colour thereof do oft-time enter into the ſaid Warrens, and there take and kill Conies in the Night-time, when they cannot eaſily be diſcovered:' (2) It is further provided and enacted, That no Perſon or Perſons ſhall at any Time hereafter kill or take in the Night-time, any Conies upon the Borders of any Warrens, or other Grounds lawfully uſed for the breeding or keeping of Conies; excepting only ſuch Perſon or Perſons as ſhall be Owner of the Soil, or lawful Occupier or Poſſeſſor of the Ground, or any Perſon or Perſons employed by him, her or them, whereupon ſuch Conies ſhall be ſo killed or taken; (3) upon Pain that every Perſon ſo offending and being thereof lawfully convicted in Manner hereafter following, ſhall give the Party or Parties injured ſuch Recompence or Satisfaction for his or their Damages, and within ſuch Time, as ſhall be appointed by the Juſtice before whom ſuch Offender ſhall be convicted, and over and above pay down preſently unto the Overſeers for the Uſe of the Poor of the Pariſh where ſuch Offence ſhall be committed, ſuch Sum of Money not exceeding ten Shillings, as the ſaid Juſtice ſhall think meet: (4) And if ſuch Offender or Offenders do not make Recompence or Satisfaction to the ſaid Party or Parties injured, and alſo pay the ſaid Sum to the Poor in Manner and Form aforeſaid, then the ſaid Juſtice ſhall commit the ſaid Offender or Offenders to the Houſe of Correction for ſuch Time as the ſaid Juſtice ſhall think fit, not exceeding one Month. No Perſon ſhall in the Night kill any Conies on the Borders of any Warren, except the Owner of the Ground. The Penalty. Impriſonment.

'VI. And whereas divers idle and diſorderly Perſons have of late Time taken up a Practice to take and kill Hares and Conies with Snares, Hare-pipes and other Engines, in or near Woods, Warrens or other Places;' (2) It is hereby further enacted and declared by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon or Perſons from and after the firſt Day of May which ſhall be in the Year of our Lord God one thouſand ſix hundred ſeventy and one, ſhall be found or apprehended ſetting or uſing any Snares, Hare-pipes or other like Engines, and ſhall be thereof convicted in Manner following; the Perſon or Perſons ſo offending ſhall be liable to the Penalties in the immediate foregoing Clauſe of this Act in Manner as aforeſaid. No Perſon ſhall kill, or ſet Snares for Hares, &c. The Penalty.

'VII. And whereas divers idle, diſorderly and mean Perſons do from Time to Time betake themſelves to the ſtealing, taking and killing of Fiſh out of Ponds, Pools, Motes, Stews and other ſeveral Waters and Rivers, to the great Damage of the Owners thereof:' (2) Be it therefore further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon or Perſons from and after the firſt Day of May which ſhall be in the Year of our Lord God one thouſand ſix hundred ſeventy and one, ſhall at any Time uſe any Caſting-net, Thief-net, Drag-net, Tramel, Shove-net or other Net whatſoever, or any Angle, Hair, Nooſe, Troll or Spear, or ſhall lay any Wears, Pots, Nets, Fiſh-hooks or other Engines, or ſhall take any Fiſh by any Means or Device whatſoever, in any River, Stew, Pond, Mote or other Water as aforeſaid, or ſhall be aiding or aſſiſting thereunto, without the Licence or Conſent of the Lord or Owner of the ſaid Water, and be thereof, or of any other the Offence or Offences mentioned in this Act, convict by Confeſſion of the Offender or by Oath of one ſufficient Witneſs within one Month after the Offence committed, before any Juſtice of the Peace of ſuch County, Riding, Diviſion or Place wherein ſuch Offence as aforeſaid ſhall be committed, which Oath the ſaid Juſtice of Peace is hereby impowered to adminiſter: Every ſuch Offender or Offenders in ſtealing, taking or killing Fiſh, ſhall for every ſuch Offence give to the Party or Parties injured, ſuch Recompence or Satisfaction for his or their Damages, and within ſuch Time, as the ſaid Juſtice No Perſon ſhall fiſh in the Pond of any Perſon without his Conſent, with Nets or other Engines. Burn, V. 1. 495.

The Penalty. tice shall appoint, not exceeding treble Damages; (3) and over and above, pay down presently unto the Overseers for the Use of the Poor where the said Offence shall be committed, such Sum of Money not exceeding ten Shillings, as the said Justice shall think meet: (4) And in Default of Payment as aforesaid, the same to be levied by Distress and Sale of the Offender's Goods, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of such Justice before whom the Offender shall be convicted, rendring the Overplus if any be; (5) and for want of Distress the Offender or Offenders shall be committed to the House of Correction for such Time as the Justice shall think fit, not exceeding one Month; unless the Party offending shall enter into Bond with one competent Surety or Sureties to the Party injured, not exceeding the Sum of ten Pounds, never to offend in like Manner.

To be levied by Distress.

Justice of the Peace may cut the Nets, &c. VIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for every Justice of Peace before whom such Offender as aforesaid shall be convict, to take, cut in Pieces and destroy all and every such Angles, Spears, Hairs, Nooses, Trolls, Wears, Pots, Fish-hooks, Nets or other Engines whatsoever, wherewith such Offender as aforesaid shall be taken or apprehended.

The Party grieved may appeal to the Quarter-Sessions. IX. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons shall find him or themselves aggrieved by any Judgment which shall happen to be given by any Justice of the Peace by Virtue of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for such Person or Persons so aggrieved, to appeal unto the Justices of Peace in their General Quarter-Sessions which shall happen to be held next after such Judgment given: Who or the greater Number of them are hereby authorized and impowered to give such Relief and make such Order therein, as shall be agreeable to the Tenor of this Act; (2) and such Judgment, Order or Determination, as by the said Justices shall be made upon the said Appeal, shall be final to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, if no Title to any Land, Royalty or Fishery be therein concerned.

A Saving of all Royalties and Prerogatives to his Majesty. And Forest Laws. X. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That neither this Act nor any Thing therein contained shall extend or be construed to extend to the taking away or abridging of any Royalty or Prerogative Royal of his Majesty, nor to abridge, change or alter any Part of the Forest Laws of this Realm, but all and every such Laws, Rights, Powers, Royalties and Prerogatives Royal, shall remain and be in as full and ample Force and Virtue, as the same ought to have been in, if this Act had not been made; any Thing herein before contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

CAP. XXVI. (18.)

An Act to prevent the Planting of Tobacco in England, and for Regulating the Plantation Trade.

Husbandry. 'WHEREAS the Sowing, Setting, Planting and Curing of Tobacco within divers Parts of the 'Kingdom of England doth continue and increase, to the apparent Loss of his Majesty's Customs, 'and the Discouragement of his Majesty's Plantations in America, and great Prejudice of the Trade and 'Navigation of this Realm, and the Vent of its Commodities thither, notwithstanding an Act of Parlia- 'ment made in the twelfth Year of his Majesty's Reign that now is, for the Prevention thereof, intituled
12 Car. 2. c. 34. 'An Act for prohibiting the Planting, Setting or Sowing of Tobacco in England and Ireland; and also one 15 Car. 2. c. 7. 'other Act of this present Parliament made in the fifteenth Year of his Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act 'for the Encouragement of Trade:

Justices of the Peace are to command all Constables, &c. to make a Return to them of what Tobacco is planted, and upon whose Land. 'II. And forasmuch as the Remedies and Provisions by those Laws are found not large enough to obviate 'and prevent the Planting thereof;' (2) Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the first Day of May which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand six hundred seventy and one, all Justices of the Peace within their several Limits and Jurisdictions shall and do, a Month before every General Quarter-Sessions to be holden for their respective Counties, issue forth their Warrants to all High Constables, Petty Constables and Tithingmen within their several Limits, thereby requiring the said High Constables, Petty Constables and Tithingmen and every of them to make diligent Search and Inquisition, what Tobacco is then sown, set, planted, growing, curing, cured or made, within their several and respective Limits and Jurisdictions, and by whom; and to make a true and lawful Presentment in Writing upon Oath, at the next General Quarter-Sessions to be holden for such County, of the Names of all such Persons as have sown, set, planted, cured or made any Tobacco, and what the full Quantity of Land is or was sown, set or planted therewith, and who are the immediate Tenant or Tenants, or present Occupiers of the Land so sown, set or planted, who are and shall be deemed Planters thereof to all Intents and Purposes.

Which Presentment, being filed, shall be a sufficient Conviction. Except upon Notice it shall be traversed. III. Which said Presentment upon Oath shall be received and filed by the Clerk of the Peace of the said County in open Sessions, and after such Receipt and Filing shall be a sufficient Conviction in Law to all Intents and Purposes, of all such Persons as shall be so presented for the sowing, setting, planting, improving to grow, making or curing Tobacco, either in Seed, Plant, Leaf or otherwise, contrary to the said recited Acts or either of them; unless such Person or Persons so presented (having Notice given to him or them of such Presentment made, by the Delivery of a Copy of such Presentment to him or them, or by leaving a Copy of such Presentment at his or their Dwelling-house or Houses, or usual Place of Abode, in the Presence of one or more credible Witnesses, ten Days at the least before the next Quarter-Sessions) shall at the Quarter-Sessions next after such Notice shall be given to him or them traverse such Presentment, and find sufficient Sureties for the prosecuting and trying such Traverse, at the Quarter-Sessions to be holden for the said County next after such Traverse shall be entred or made.

IV. And

IV. And it is hereby further enacted, That all Constables, Tithingmen, Bailiffs and other publick Officers, shall and do within their respective Jurisdictions, from Time to Time, as often as Occasion shall require, within fourteen Days after Warrant from two or more of the Justices of the Peace within such County, Town, City or Place, to them, calling to their Assistance such Person or Persons as they and every one of them shall find convenient and necessary, pluck up, burn, consume, tear in Pieces, and utterly destroy all Tobacco-Seed, Plant, Leaf, planted, sowed or growing in any Field, Earth or Ground. Power given to all Officers, &c. to pull up and destroy all the Plants, &c.

V. And if any such Tobacco shall be suffered or permitted to grow, or be consumed in Seed, Plant or Leaf, in any Townships, Tithing, Parish, Hamlet or Place, by the Space of fourteen Days after the Receipt of such Warrant or Warrants, by the said Constables, Tithingmen, Bailiffs, or other publick Officers of the respective Townships, Tithings, Parishes or Hamlets as aforesaid; That then such Constables, Tithingmen, Bailiffs, or other publick Officers respectively, shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay the Sum of five Shillings for every Rod, Perch or Pole of Ground so set, planted or sowed with Tobacco, and so proportionably for a greater or lesser Quantity of Ground; the one Moiety thereof to the King's Majesty, and the other Moiety to him or them that shall sue for the same, to be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster. The Penalty of Officers not doing their Duty in destroying of it.

VI. And it is hereby further enacted, That in case any Person or Persons shall refuse or neglect to aid or assist (being thereunto required) any Constable, Bailiff or other publick Officer, in the due Execution of this Act, That every such Person or Persons for every such Offence, upon Conviction thereof made before two Justices of the Peace of the said County where such Offence shall be committed, shall forfeit and pay the Sum of five Shillings, to be levied by Warrant from the said Justices, by Distress and Sale of the Offender's Goods; and in case no Distress can be found, then every such Offender shall be committed to the Common Gaol of the said County, there to remain for the Space of one Week, without Bail or Mainprise. The Penalty for refusing to assist the Officers.

VII. And if any Person or Persons whatsoever shall forcibly resist any Constable, Bailiff, or other publick Officer, or other Person or Persons whatsoever, in the due Execution of this Act, That then every such Person for every such Offence, upon Conviction thereof made before two Justices of the Peace of the said County where such Offence shall be committed, shall forfeit and pay the Sum of five Pounds, to be levied by Warrant from the said Justices, by Distress and Sale of the Offender's Goods; and in Case no Distress can be found, then every such Offender shall be committed to the Common Gaol of the said County, there to remain for the Space of three Months, without Bail or Mainprize. The Forfeiture for resisting the Officers.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Action, Plaint, Suit or Information, shall be commenced or prosecuted against any Person or Persons, for what he or they shall do in Pursuance or Execution of this Act, or either of the recited Acts, such Person or Persons so sued in any Court whatsoever, shall or may plead the General Issue, Not guilty, and upon any Issue joined, may give this Act, or the said recited Acts, or either of them, and the special Matter, in Evidence: (2) And if the Plaintiff or Prosecutor shall become nonsuit, or forbear further Prosecution, or suffer Discontinuance, or if a Verdict shall pass against him, the Defendant or Defendants shall recover their Costs, for which they shall have the like Remedy, as in case where Costs are given by Law to the Defendants. The Officer, to any Action brought against him, may plead Not Guilty. If Judgment pass for him, he shall recover double Costs.

IX. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted, That this Act, nor any Thing therein contained, shall extend to the Hindring of the Planting of Tobocco in any Physick Garden of either University, or in any other private Garden for Physick or Chirurgery only, so as the Quantity so planted exceed not one Half of one Pole, in any one Place or Garden. A Saving for Tobacco planted in the Physick Gardens.

'X. And whereas by one Act of Parliament in the fifteenth Year of his Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the Encouragement of Trade, It is declared, That inasmuch as his Majesty's Plantations beyond the Seas are inhabited with his Subjects of England, for the Maintaining a better Correspondency betwixt them, and keeping them in a firmer Dependance upon it, and rendring them yet more beneficial and advantagious unto it, in the further Imployment and Encrease of English Shipping and Seamen, Vent of Woollen and other Manufactures, rendring the Navigation to and from the same more safe and cheap, and making this Kingdom a Staple, not only of the Commodities of those Plantations, but also of the Commodities of other Countries, for the Supplying them (it being the Usage of other Nations to keep their Plantation-Trades to themselves); (2) It was therefore enacted, That no Goods or Commodities of Europe shall be carried into any the Plantations of Asia, Africa or America, but what shall bona fide be laden and shipped in England, and in English-built Ships, or Ships made free, and navigated with English, according to an Act of Parliament on that Behalf: (3) And that no Officer of the Customs in England or Wales shall give any Warrant, or suffer any Sugar, Tobacco, and other Plantation Goods therein particularly named, to be carried into any other Country or Place whatsoever, until they have been first bona fide unladen in England, as by the said Act doth more at large appear. 15 Car. 2. c. 7.

'XI. Notwithstanding which, some Persons taking Advantage of the not mentioning the Repealing of the Word Ireland, in one Clause in an Act of Parliament made in the twelfth Year of his Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the Encouraging and Encrease of Shipping and Navigation; where Bonds are directed to be taken for all Ships that shall lade any Sugar, or other Commodities therein particularly mentioned, in any of the said Plantations, That the same Commodities shall be by the said Ship brought to some Port of England, Ireland, Wales, or Town or Port of Berwick, and shall there unlode, and put the same on Shore, the said Persons having either refused to give Bond for the Return of their Ships in such case to England, Wales, or Town or Port of Berwick only, or having given such Bonds, have nevertheless gone with their Ships to Ireland; by which Means (although this Kingdom hath, and doth daily suffer a great Prejudice by the Transporting great Number of the People thereof to the said Plantations, for the Peopling of them) yet that the Trade of them would thereby in a great Measure be diverted from hence, and carried elsewhere, his Majesty's Customs and other Revenues much lessened, and this Kingdom not continue a Staple of the said Commodities of the said Plantations, nor that Vent for the Future of the Victual and other native Commodities of this Kingdom;' (2) Be it therefore enacted, and it is hereby 12 Car. 2. c. 18. §. 19.

The Word Ireland ſhall be left out of all Bonds that ſhall be taken for any Ship that ſhall ſet ſail out of or from England, Ireland, Wales, &c. for any Engliſh Plantation in America, &c.

hereby enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Word Ireland, ſhall from and after the twenty-fourth Day of May in the Year of our Lord one thouſand ſix hundred and ſeventy-one, be left out of all ſuch Bonds which ſhall be taken for any Ship or Veſſel which ſhall ſet ſail out of or from England, Ireland, Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, for any Engliſh Plantation in America, Aſia and Africa; (3) and that in Caſe the ſaid Ship or Veſſel ſhall lode any of the ſaid Commodities at any of the ſaid Engliſh Plantations, That the ſaid Commodities ſhall be by the ſaid Ship or Veſſel brought to ſome Port of England or Wales, or to the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, and ſhall there unlode and put on Shore the ſame (the Danger of the Seas only excepted) and in like Manner for all Ships coming from any other Port or Place to any of the aforeſaid Plantations, who by the aforeſaid Act for Encouraging and Encreaſe of Shipping are permitted to trade there: (4) That from and after the nine and twentieth Day of September in the Year of our Lord one thouſand ſix hundred ſeventy and one, the Governor of ſuch Engliſh Plantations ſhall, before ſuch Ship or Veſſel be permitted to lode on Board any of the ſaid Commodities, take Bond in Manner and to the Value mentioned and directed in the above-mentioned Act for the Encouraging and Encreaſe of Shipping and Navigation, for each reſpective Ship or Veſſel, That ſuch Ship or Veſſel ſhall carry all the aforeſaid Goods that be laden on Board in the ſaid Ship, to ſome other of his Majeſty's Engliſh Plantations, or to England, Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed: (5) And that every ſuch Ship or Veſſel which from and after the ſaid nine and twentieth Day of September in the Year of our Lord one thouſand ſix hundred ſeventy and one, ſhall lode or take on Board any of the ſaid Commodities, until ſuch Bond given to ſuch Governor, or Certificate produced from the Officers of ſome Cuſtom-houſe of England, Wales, or of the Town of Berwick, that ſuch Bond hath been there duly given, or which contrary to the Tenor of ſuch Bond ſhall carry the ſaid Goods to any Land, Iſland, Territory, Dominion, Port or Place whatſoever, other than to ſuch other Engliſh Plantations, as do belong to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, or to the Kingdom of England, Principality of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, and there lay the ſame on Shore; that every ſuch Ship or Veſſel ſhall be forfeited, with all her Guns, Tackle, Apparel, Ammunition, Furniture and Lading; the one Moiety to the King's Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other Moiety to him or them that ſhall ſeize and ſue for the ſame in any of the ſaid Plantations, in the Court of the High Admiral of England, or of any of his Vice-Admirals, or in any Court of Record in England, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection or Wager of Law ſhall be allowed.

What Bonds the Governors of the Engliſh Plantations are directed to take.

Forfeiture.

The Governors of the American Plantations to return yearly to the Cuſtom-houſe, a Liſt of all Ships loading therein.

'XII. And whereas many Complaints have been made of Shipping and Veſſels belonging to ſome of his 'Majeſty's Colonies in America, that contrary to the Intent and Meaning of this and other afore-men-'tioned Laws, they have brought and tranſported the ſaid Commodities to divers Parts of Europe, and there 'unloded the ſame:' (2) Be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Governors, or their Commanders in Chief, of his Majeſty's reſpective Plantations, do once a Year at leaſt make a Return to his Majeſty's Officers of his Cuſtoms in the Port of London, or to ſuch other Perſon or Perſons as his Majeſty ſhall appoint to receive the ſame, a Liſt of all ſuch Ships or Veſſels as ſhall lade any of the ſaid Commodities in ſuch Plantations reſpectively, as alſo a Liſt of all the Bonds taken by them: (3) And in caſe any Ship or Veſſel belonging to any of his Majeſty's Plantations, which ſhall have on Board her any Sugars, Tobacco, Cotton-Wool, Indicoes, Ginger, Fuſtick or other Dying-Wood, ſhall be found to have unladed in any Port or Place of Europe, other than England, Wales, or the Town of Berwick upon Tweed: That ſuch Ship or Veſſel ſhall be forfeited, with all her Guns, Tackle, Apparel, Ammunition, Furniture and Lading, to be recovered and divided as aforeſaid.

If they ſhall unlade any Sugars, &c. other than in England, &c. The Forfeiture.

Where to be proſecuted.

XIII. And that it ſhall and may be lawful for any Perſon or Perſons, to proſecute ſuch Ship or Veſſel in any Court of Admiralty in England; the one Moiety of the Forfeiture in caſe of Condemnation, to be to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other Moiety to ſuch Proſecutor or Proſecutors thereof.

Tangier ſhall not be taken to be a Plantation within this Act.

XIV. And laſtly it is hereby enacted, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That Tangier ſhall not be deemed or taken to be a Plantation to his Majeſty belonging in Aſia, Africa or America, within the Intent and Meaning of this Act, or any of the afore mentioned Acts, ſo as to enjoy any Right, Privilege or Benefit of Trading, to or from the ſaid Plantations, or any of them; any Law, Act, Uſage or Declaration to the contrary notwithſtanding.

How long to continue. 11 & 12 W. 3. c. 13.

XV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That this Act ſhall continue in Force for nine Years, and from thence to the End of the next Seſſion of Parliament, and no longer. [Continued by 5 Geo. 1. c. 11. §. 19. ſo long as the 12 Car. 2. c. 4. ſhall continue.]

Or to make void any Pension granted to any Person instrumental in preserving the King at Worcester.

XI. Provided always, That neither this Act, nor any Thing therein contained, shall extend, be judged or interpreted any ways to hurt or prejudice the Peerage of any Peer of this Realm, or to take away any Right, Power, Privilege or Profit, which any Person (being a Peer of this Realm) hath or ought to enjoy by Reason of his Peerage, either in Time of Parliament or otherwise; (2) or to take away Creation-money or Bills of Impost, nor to take away or make void any Pension or Salary granted by his Majesty to any Person for valuable and sufficient Consideration for Life, Lives or Years, other than such as relate to any Office, or to any Place of Trust under his Majesty, and other than Pensions of Bounty or voluntary Pensions; (3) nor to take away or make void any Estate of Inheritance granted by his Majesty, or any his Predecessors, to any Person or Persons of or in any Lands, Rents, Tithes or Hereditaments, not being Offices; (4) nor to take away or make void any Pension or Salary already granted by his Majesty to any Person who was instrumental in the happy Preservation of his sacred Majesty after the Battle at Worcester in the Year one thousand six hundred fifty-one, until his Majesty's Arrival beyond the Seas; (5) nor to take away or make void the Grant of any Office or Offices of Inheritance, or any Fee, Salary or Reward for executing such Office or Offices, or thereto any Way belonging, granted by his Majesty or any his Predecessors, to, or enjoyed, or which hereafter shall be enjoyed by, any Person or Persons who shall refuse or neglect to take the said Oaths, or either of them, or to receive the Sacrament, or to subscribe the Declaration mentioned in this Act, in Manner therein expressed: (6) Nevertheless so as such Person or Persons having or enjoying any such Office or Offices of Inheritance, do or shall substitute and appoint his or their sufficient Deputy or Deputies (which such Officer or Officers respectively are hereby impowered from Time to Time to make or change, any former Law or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding) to exercise the said Office or Offices, until such Time as the Person or Persons having such Office or Offices shall voluntarily in the Popish Officers who have Offices of Inheritance, must appoint Deputies who must take the Oaths, &c.

Court of Chancery, before the Lord Chancellor or Lord Keeper for the Time being, or in the Court of King's Bench, take the said Oaths, and receive the Sacrament according to Law, and subscribe the said Declaration, and so as all and every the Deputy and Deputies so as aforesaid to be appointed, take the said Oaths, receive the Sacrament, and subscribe the said Declaration from Time to Time, as they shall happen to be so appointed, in Manner as by this Act such Officers whose Deputies they be, are appointed to do; and so as such Deputies be from Time to Time approved of by the King's Majesty under his Privy Signet: (7) But that all and every the Peers of this Realm shall have, hold and enjoy what is provided for as aforesaid, and all and every other Person or Persons before-mentioned, denoted or intended within this Proviso, shall have, hold and enjoy what is provided for as aforesaid, notwithstanding any Incapacity or Disability mentioned in this Act. And subscribe.

XII. Provided also, That the said Peers and every of them may take the said Oaths, and make the said Subscription, and deliver the said Certificates, before the Peers sitting in Parliament, if the Parliament be sitting within the Time limited for doing thereof, and in the Intervals of Parliament in the High Court of Chancery, in which respective Courts all the said Proceedings are to be recorded in Manner aforesaid. The Peers may take the Oaths, &c. in Parliament.

XIII. Provided always, That no married Woman, or Person under the Age of eighteen Years, or being beyond or upon the Seas, or found by the lawful Oaths of twelve Men to be Non compos mentis, and so being and remaining at the End of Trinity Term in the Year of our Lord one thousand six hundred seventy-three, having any Office, shall by Virtue of this Act lose or forfeit any such his or her Office (other than such married Woman during the Life of her Husband only) for any Neglect or Refusal of taking the Oaths, and doing the other Things required by this Act to be done by Persons having Offices, so as such respective Persons within four Months after the Death of the Husband, coming to the Age of eighteen Years, returning into this Kingdom, and becoming of sound Mind, shall respectively take the said Oaths, and perform all other Things in Manner as by this Act is appointed for Persons to do, who shall happen to have any Office or Offices to them given or fallen after the End of the said Trinity Term. A Saving for married Women, &c.

XIV. Provided also, That any Person who by his or her Neglect or Refusal, according to this Act, shall lose or forfeit any Office, may be capable by a new Grant of the said Office, or of any other, and to have and hold the same again, such Person taking the said Oaths, and doing all other Things required by this Act, so as such Office be not granted to, and actually enjoyed by, some other Person at the Time of the Regranting thereof. Any Person forfeiting his Office by Virtue hereof, may upon Taking of the Oaths, &c. be capable of a new Grant thereof.

XV. Provided also, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend to make any Forfeiture, Disability, or Incapacity in, by, or upon any Non-Commission Officer or Officers in his Majesty's Navy, if such Officer or Officers shall only subscribe the Declaration therein required, in Manner as the same is directed. Not to extend to Non-Commission Officers in the Navy, if they subscribe the Declaration.

XVI. Provided also, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend to prejudice George Earl of Bristol, or Anne Countess of Bristol his Wife, in the Pension or Pensions granted to them by Patent under the Great Seal of England, bearing Date the sixteenth Day of July in the Year of our Lord one thousand six hundred sixty and nine, being in Lieu of a just Debt due to the said Earl from his Majesty, particularly expressed in the said Patent. A Saving for the Pensions granted to the Earl of Bristol and his Lady.

XVII. Provided also, That this Act, or any Thing therein contained, shall not extend to the Office of any High Constable, Petty Constable, Tithingman, Headborough, Overseer of the Poor, Church-wardens, Surveyor of the Highways, or any like inferior Civil Office, or to any Office of Forester, or Keeper of any Park, Chace, Warren, or Game, or of Bailiff of any Manor or Lands, or to any like private Offices, or to any Person or Persons having only any the before-mentioned, or any the like Offices. CAP. VII.

An Act for the Encouragement of the Greenland and Eastland Trades, and for the better Securing the Plantation-Trade.

12 Car. 2. c. 18. 15 Car. 2. c. 7. 22 & 23 Car. 2. c. 26.

'FOrasmuch as the Whale-fishing is a very considerable and profitable Trade, giving Imployments to great Numbers of Seamen and Shipping: And whereas Neighbouring Nations do yearly make great Advantage thereby; not only supplying themselves with that Sort of Oil and Fins, but vending into other Parts great Quantities thereof, and particularly into this Kingdom, where the said Trade is in a Manner quite decayed and lost: For Remedy thereof and Encouragement of such as shall be willing to employ themselves and their Estates in this Trade;' (2) Be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for all his Majesty's Subjects of this his Realm of England, and Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, and for every other Person or Persons of what Nation soever residing and inhabiting here, during the Time of such their Residence, freely to Trade into and from Greenland and those Seas, and there to take Whales and all other Sorts of Fish, and to import into this Kingdom all Sorts of Oil, Blubber and Fins thereof, and to use and exercise all other Trade to and from Greenland and those Parts. (3) And for the further Encouraging of the said Trade, Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall be lawful for any Person or Persons, Native or Foreigner, to import Train-Oil or Blubber of Greenland and Parts adjacent, and those Seas, or of Newfoundland, or of any other his Majesty's Colonies and Plantations, made of Fish or of any other Creature living in the Seas, and Whale-fins caught in any Ships or Vessels truly and properly belonging to England or Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, and imported in such Ships, without paying any Custom or other Duty for the same; (4) and for the Ton of such Oil taken by any Shipping belonging to any of his Majesty's Colonies and Plantations, and imported in such Shipping, there shall be paid the Sum of six Shillings; (5) and for every Ton of Whale-fins taken and imported in such Shipping, the Sum of fifty Shillings; (6) and for the Ton of such Oil taken by the said Shipping but imported in Shipping belonging to England, Wales or the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, the Sum of three Shillings; (7) and for every Ton of Whale-fins taken and imported in such Shipping, the Sum of five and twenty Shillings; (8) and for the Ton of all such Oil and Blubber of Foreign Fishing, the Sum of nine Pounds; (9) and for every Ton of Whale-fins of Foreign Fishing, the Sum of eighteen Pounds, and no more. (10) And in regard there are at present great want of Harpiniers and Seamen skilled and exercised in the Trade of Whale-fishing; (11) Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for any Ship or Vessel truly belonging to England, Wales or the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, and whereof the Master shall be an Englishman and inhabiting within the Places aforesaid, from and after the first Day of May which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand six hundred seventy and three, and until the five and twentieth Day of March which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand six hundred eighty and three, employed for the Catching of Whales, during such Voyage to be Navigated with one Moiety of the Harpiniers and one Moiety of the rest of the Mariners only English, and yet to pay no further or other Custom for the Oil, Blubber or Fins, caught and imported in such Ship or Vessel, than if such Ship or Vessel had been Navigated with three Fourths of the Mariners English; any Law, Statute or Usage to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

Liberty given to all Persons to Trade into Greenland, and to import all sorts of Oil, &c.

Without paying any Custom or Duty for such Goods brought in by any English or Welsh Vessel.

If by any Shipping of the King's Colonies or Plantations, then the several Rates mentioned in this Act.

Liberty given to have one Moiety of Harpiniers, and one Moiety of English Mariners in an English Vessel, with the same Privilege as before.

By 4 & 5 W. & M. c. 17. §. 27. one third English is sufficient.

II. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no English built Ship or other Ship or Vessel belonging to England, Wales or the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, importing Whale, Oil or Blubber, or other Fish, Oil or Whale-fins of Greenland or those Seas, shall enjoy any Benefit or Privilege by this Act, unless such Ship or Vessel did proceed on her Voyage to Greenland and those Seas, from England or Wales, or the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, and was Victualled for the said Voyage in some of those Places, to be attested by the Collector of the Port where the said Ship or Vessel was Victualled; (2) 'And whereas by one Act passed in this present Parliament in the twelfth Year of your Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for Encouragement of Shipping and Navigation, and by several other Laws passed since that Time, it is permitted to ship, carry, convey and transport Sugar, Tobacco, Cotton-Wool, Indico, Ginger, Fustick and all other Dying-Wood of the Growth, Production and Manufacture of any of your Majesty's Plantations in America, Asia or Africa, from the Places of their Growth, Production and Manufacture, to any other of your Majesty's Plantations in those Parts, (Tangier only excepted) and that without paying of Custom for the same, either at the Lading or Unlading of the said Commodities, by Means whereof the Trade and Navigation in those Commodities, from one Plantation to another is greatly increased; (3) and the Inhabitants of divers of those Colonies, not contenting themselves with being supplied with those Commodities for their own Use, free from all Customs, (while the Subjects of this your Kingdom of England have paid great Customs and Impositions for what of them hath been spent here) but contrary to the express Letter of the aforesaid Laws, have brought into divers Parts of Europe great Quantities thereof, and do also daily Vend great Quantities thereof, to the Shipping of other Nations who bring them into divers Parts of Europe, to the great Hurt and Diminution of your Majesty's Customs, and of the Trade and Navigation of this your Kingdom;' (4) For the Prevention thereof, We your Majesty's Commons in Parliament assembled, do pray that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by Authority of the same, That from and after the first Day of September which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand six hundred seventy and three, If any Ship or Vessel which by Law may Trade in any of your Majesty's Plantations, shall come to any of them to Ship and take on Board any of the aforesaid Commodities, and that Bond shall not be first given with one sufficient Surety to bring the same to England or Wales, or the Town of Berwick

The English built Ship, which is to have the Benefit of this Act, must proceed from England to Greenland. 12 Car. 2. c. 18.

The Duty to be levied by the Commissioners of the Customs in England. By 1 Geo. 1. Stat. 2. c. 12. §. 4. Money arising by this Act to be paid into the Exchequer, &c.

III. And for the better Collection of the several Rates and Duties aforesaid imposed by this Act, Be it enacted, and it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That this whole Business shall be ordered and managed, and the several Duties hereby imposed shall be caused to be levied by the Commissioners of the Customs in England now and for the Time being, by and under the Authority and Directions of the Lord Treasurer of England or Commissioners of the Treasury for the Time being.

If the Party shall not have ready Money, then the Commissioners to take a Proportion of the Commodities.

IV. And in case any Person or Persons liable by this Law to pay any of the Duties aforementioned, shall not have Monies wherewith to answer and pay the same, Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Officers appointed to collect the same, shall accept instead of such Monies such a Proportion of the Commodities to be shipped, as shall amount to the Value thereof, according to the current Rate of the said Commodities in such Plantation respectively.

It shall be free for all Persons to trade to Sweden, Denmark and Norway.

V. And for Encouragement of the Eastland Trade, Be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful to and for every Person and Persons, Native or Foreigner, from and after the first Day of May which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand six hundred seventy and three, at all Times to have free Liberty to Trade into and from Sweden, Denmark and Norway; any Thing in the Charter of the Governor, Assistants and Fellowship of Merchants of Eastland, or any other Charter, Grant, Act, or any Thing else heretofore made or done, or hereafter to be done, to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

Any Person Subject of this Realm shall be admitted into the Eastland Company, paying for his Admittance 40s.

VI. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That whatsoever Person or Persons, Subjects of this Realm, shall desire to be admitted into the said Fellowship of Merchants of Eastland, That every such Person shall be admitted into the said Fellowship, paying for his Admission the Sum of forty Shillings, and no more. CAP. VIII.

An Act for continuing a former Act concerning Coinage.

18 Car. 2. c. 5.

'FOrasmuch as great Advantage hath accrued to this Kingdom, by one Act of this present Parliament, passed in the eighteenth Year of your Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the Encouragement of Coinage, for that very great Quantities of Gold and Silver have been brought into this Realm, and converted into the current Coins thereof, by reason of the Encouragement given thereto by the said Act; (2) and whereas the said Act was to continue until the twentieth of December in the Year of our Lord one thousand six hundred seventy and one, and until the End of the first Session of Parliament then next following and no longer, so as that unless the said Act be now renewed, the Encouragement given thereby to Coinage will cease, and this Kingdom be deprived for the future of so great a good as it hath thereby for these Years last past enjoyed:' We therefore your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, do humbly pray that it may be enacted; (3) and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, now in Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said Act shall continue and be in Force for the Space of seven Years, to commence from and after the Determination of this present Session of this Parliament, and until the End of the first Session of Parliament then next following, and no longer. [Continued for seven Years from the first of March one thousand seven hundred forty-five, and to the End of the first Session of Parliament, by 19 Geo. 2. c. 14.]

How long to continue.

Where the Monies collected upon the Act 18 Car. 2. c. 5. were to be paid.

II. Provided always, That whereas by the said Act it is enacted, That the Monies levied, collected and paid by Virtue thereof, should be levied, collected and paid at the respective Custom-houses, to the Collectors and other Officers of the Customs for the Time being, and be by them respectively paid into the Receipt of the Exchequer, whereby each of the said Collectors are obliged to pass a distinct Account in the Exchequer, for the Monies received by them by Virtue of the said Acts, although the Sums received by many of them are very small and inconsiderable, and yet no Allowance to be made unto them for the doing thereof:

An Act for Prevention of Frauds and Perjuries.

'FOR Prevention of many fraudulent Practices, which are commonly endeavoured to be upheld by Perjury and Subornation of Perjury;' (2) Be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the four and twentieth Day of June, which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand six hundred seventy and seven, all Leases, Estates, Interests of Freehold, or Terms of Years, or any uncertain Interest of, in, to or out of any Messuages, Manors, Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, made or created by Livery and Seisin only, or by Parol, and not put in Writing, and signed by the Parties so making or creating the same, or their Agents thereunto lawfully authorized by Writing, shall have the Force and Effect of Leases or Estates at Will only, and shall not either in Law or Equity be deemed or taken to have any other or greater Force or Effect; any Consideration for making any such Parol Leases or Estates, or any former Law or Usage, to the contrary notwithstanding.

1 Roll Abr. 24.

2 Lev. 227.

Parol Leases and Interest of Freehold shall have the Force of Estates at Will only.

II. Except nevertheless all Leases not exceeding the Term of three Years from the making thereof, whereupon the Rent reserved to the Landlord, during such Term, shall amount unto two third Parts at the least of the full improved Value of the Thing demised.

Except Leases not exceeding three Years, &c.

III. And moreover, That no Leases, Estates or Interests, either of Freehold, or Terms of Years, or any uncertain Interest, not being Copyhold or customary Interest, of, in, to or out of any Messuages, Manors, Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, shall at any Time after the said four and twentieth Day of June be assigned, granted or surrendred, unless it be by Deed or Note in Writing, signed by the Party so assigning, granting or surrendring the same, or their Agents thereunto lawfully authorized by Writing, or by Act and Operation of Law.

No Leases or Estates of Freehold shall be granted or surrendred by Word.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said four and twentieth Day of June no Action shall be brought whereby to charge any Executor or Administrator upon any special Promise, to answer Damages out of his own Estate; (2) or whereby to charge the Defendant upon any special Promise to answer for the Debt, Default or Miscarriages of another Person; (3) or to charge any Person upon any Agreement made upon Consideration of Marriage; (4) or upon any Contract or Sale of Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, or any Interest in or concerning them; (5) or upon any Agreement that is not to be performed within the Space of one Year from the making thereof; (6) unless the Agreement upon which such Action shall be brought, or some Memorandum or Note thereof, shall be in Writing, and signed by the Party to be charged therewith, or some other Person thereunto by him lawfully authorized.

Promises and Agreements by Parol.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said four and twentieth Day of June all Devises and Bequests of any Lands or Tenements, devisable either by Force of the Statute of Wills, or by this Statute, or by Force of the Custom of Kent, or the Custom of any Borough, or any other particular Custom, shall be in Writing, and signed by the Party so devising the same, or by some other Person in his Presence and by his express Directions, and shall be attested and subscribed in the Presence of the said Devisor by three or four credible Witnesses, or else they shall be utterly void and of none Effect.

Devises of Lands shall be in Writing and attested by three or four Witnesses.

3 Lev. 86. Carthew 35, 514. 3 Mod. 218, 362.

VI. And moreover, No Devise in Writing of Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, nor any Clause thereof, shall at any Time after the said four and twentieth Day of June be revocable, otherwise than by some other Will or Codicil in Writing, or other Writing declaring the same, or by Burning, Cancelling, Tearing or Obliterating the same by the Testator himself, or in his Presence and by his Directions and Consent; (2) but all Devises and Bequests of Lands and Tenements shall remain and continue in Force, until the same be Burnt, Cancelled, Torn or Obliterated by the Testator, or his Directions, in Manner aforesaid, or unless the same be altered by some other Will or Codicil in Writing, or other Writing of the Devisor signed in the Presence of three or four Witnesses, declaring the same; any former Law or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

How the same shall be revocable.

3 Mod. 260.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said four and twentieth Day of June all Declarations or Creations of Trusts or Confidences of any Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, shall be manifested and proved by some Writing signed by the Party who is by Law enabled to declare such Trust, or by his last Will in Writing, or else they shall be utterly void and of none Effect.

All Declarations or Creations of Trusts shall be in Writing.

Explained by 4 Ann. c. 16. §. 15.

VIII. Provided always, That where any Conveyance shall be made of any Lands or Tenements by which a Trust or Confidence shall or may arise or result by the Implication or Construction of Law, or be transferred or extinguished by an Act or Operation of Law, then and in every such Case such Trust or Confidence shall be of the like Force and Effect as the same would have been if this Statute had not been made; any Thing herein before contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Trusts arising, transferred or extinguished by Implication of Law, are excepted.

IX. And be it further enacted, That all Grants and Assignments of any Trust or Confidence shall likewise be in Writing, signed by the Party granting or assigning the same, or by such Last Will or Devise, or else shall likewise be utterly void and of none Effect.

Assignments of Trusts shall be in Writing.

* Read 2 Vent.

Lands, &c. shall be liable to the Judgments, &c. of Cestuy que Trust.

X. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said four and twentieth Day of June it shall and may be lawful for every Sheriff or other Officer to whom any Writ or Precept is or shall be directed, at the Suit of any Person or Persons, of, for and upon any Judgment, Statute or Recognizance hereafter to be made or had, to do, make and deliver Execution unto the Party in that Behalf suing, of all such Lands, Tenements, Rectories, Tithes, Rents and Hereditaments, as any other Person or Persons be in any Manner of wise seised or possessed, or hereafter shall be seised or possessed, in Trust for him against whom Execution is so sued, like as the Sheriff or other Officer might or ought to have done, if the said Party against whom Execution hereafter shall be so sued, had been seised of such Lands, Tenements, Rectories, Tithes, Rents or other Hereditaments of such Estate as they be seised of in Trust for him at the Time of the said Execution sued; (2) which Lands, Tenements, Rectories, Tithes, Rents and other Hereditaments, by Force and Virtue of such Execution, shall accordingly be held and enjoyed freed and discharged from all Incumbrances of such Person or Persons as shall be so seised or possessed in Trust for the Person against whom such Execution shall be sued; (3) and if any Cestuy que Trust hereafter shall die, leaving a Trust in Fee-simple to descend to his Heir, there and in every such Case such Trust shall be deemed and taken, and is hereby declared to be, Assets by Descent, and the Heir shall be liable to and chargeable with the Obligation of his Ancestors for and by reason of such Assets, as fully and amply as he might or ought to have been, if the Estate in Law had descended to him in Possession in like Manner as the Trust descended; any Law, Custom or Usage to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

And held free from the Incumbrances of the Persons seised in Trust. Trust shall be Assets in the Hands of Heirs. 2 Vern. 248. c. 232.

No Heir shall by Reason thereof become chargeable of his own Estate.

XI. Provided always, That no Heir that shall become chargeable by reason of any Estate or Trust made Assets in his Hands by this Law, shall by reason of any kind of Plea or Confession of the Action, or suffering Judgment by Nient dedire, or any other Matter, be chargeable to pay the Condemnation out of his own Estate; (2) but Execution shall be sued of the whole Estate so made Assets in his Hands by Descent, in whose Hands soever it shall come after the Writ purchased, in the same Manner as it is to be at and by the Common Law, where the Heir at Law pleading a true Plea, Judgment is prayed against him thereupon; any Thing in this present Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Estates pur auter vie shall be deviseable. 14 Geo. 2. c. 20. §. 9.

XII. And for the Amendment of the Law in the Particulars following; (2) Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from henceforth any Estate pur auter vie shall be devisable by a Will in Writing, signed by the Party so devising the same, or by some other Person in his Presence and by his express Directions, attested and subscribed in the Presence of the Devisor by three or more Witnesses; (3) and if no such Devise thereof be made, the same shall be chargeable in the Hands of the Heir, if it shall come to him by reason of a special Occupancy, as Assets by Descent, as in Case of Lands in Fee-simple; (4) and in Case there be no special Occupant thereof, it shall go to the Executors or Administrators of the Party that had the Estate thereof by Virtue of the Grant, and shall be Assets in their Hands.

And shall be Assets in the Heir's Hand.

And where there is no special Occupant, shall go to the Executors. Carthew 376. 2 Salk. 464. 2 Vern. 719. c. 307.

'XIII. And whereas it hath been found mischievous, that Judgments in the King's Courts at Westminster 'do many Times relate to the first Day of the Term whereof they are entred, or to the Day of the Return 'of the Original, or Filing the Bail, and bind the Defendants Lands from that Time, although in Truth 'they were acknowledged or suffered and signed in the Vacation-time after the said Term, whereby many 'Times Purchasers find themselves aggrieved:'

The Day of Signing any Judgment shall be entred on the Margent of the Roll.

XIV. Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said four and twentieth Day of June any Judge or Officer of any of his Majesty's Courts of Westminster, that shall sign any Judgments, shall at the signing of the same, without Fee for doing the same, set down the Day of the Month and Year of his so doing, upon the Paper Book, Docket or Record which he shall sign; which Day of the Month and Year shall be also entred upon the Margent of the Roll of the Record where the said Judgment shall be entred.

This Clause extends to Counties Palatine by 8 Geo. 1. c. 25. §. 6.

And such Judgments as against Purchasers shall relate to such Time only.

XV. And be it enacted, That such Judgments as against Purchasers bona fide for valuable Consideration of Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments to be charged thereby, shall in Consideration of Law be Judgments only from such Time as they shall be so signed, and shall not relate to the first Day of the Term whereof they are entred, or the Day of the Return of the Original or Filing the Bail; any Law, Usage or Course of any Court to the contrary notwithstanding.

Writs of Execution shall bind the Property of Goods but from the Time of their Delivery to the Officer. 1 Salk. 320. Carthew 419. 1 Mod. 188. 2 Keb. 257.

XVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said four and twentieth Day of June no Writ of Fieri facias or other Writ of Execution shall bind the Property of the Goods against whom such Writ of Execution is sued forth, but from the Time that such Writ shall be delivered to the Sheriff, Under-Sheriff or Coroners, to be executed: And for the better Manifestation of the said Time, the Sheriff, Under-Sheriff and Coroners, their Deputies and Agents, shall upon the Receipt of any such Writ, (without Fee for doing the same) endorse upon the Back thereof the Day of the Month or Year whereon he or they received the same.

Contracts for Sales of Goods for ten Pounds or more. Thuan. Hist. lib. 39. § 25.

XVII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said four and twentieth Day of June no Contract for the Sale of any Goods, Wares and Merchandizes, for the Price of ten Pounds Sterling or upwards, shall be allowed to be good, except the Buyer shall accept Part of the Goods so sold, and actually receive the same, or give something in earnest to bind the Bargain, or in Part of Payment, or that some Note or Memorandum in Writing of the said Bargain be made and signed by the Parties to be charged by such Contract, or their Agents thereunto lawfully authorized.

The Day of the Enrolment of Recognizances shall be set down, and Lands in the Hands of Purchasers bound from that Time only.

XVIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Day of the Month and Year of the Enrolment of the Recognizances shall be set down in the Margent of the Roll where the said Recognizances are enrolled; (2) and that from and after the said four and twentieth Day of June no Recognizance shall bind any Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments in the Hands of any Purchaser bona fide and for Valuable Consideration, but from the Time of such Enrolment; any Law, Usage or Course of any Court to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

'XIX. And for Prevention of fraudulent Practices in setting up Nuncupative Wills, which have been 'the Occasion of much Perjury;' (2) Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the aforesaid four and twentieth Day of June no Nuncupative Will shall be good, where the Estate thereby bequeathed shall exceed the Value of thirty Pounds, that is not proved by the Oaths of three Witnesses (at the least) that were present at the Making thereof; (3) nor unless it be proved that the Testator at the Time of pronouncing the same, did bid the Persons present, or some of them, bear Witness, that such was his Will, or to that Effect; (4) nor unless such Nuncupative Will were made in the Time of the last Sickness of the Deceased, and in the House of his or her Habitation or Dwelling, or where he or she hath been Resident for the Space of ten Days or more next before the making of such Will, except where such Person was surprized or taken sick, being from his own Home, and died before he returned to the Place of his or her Dwelling. Nuncupative Wills. Explained by 4 Ann. c. 16. § 14.

XX. And be it further enacted, That after six Months passed after the speaking of the pretended Testamentary Words, no Testimony shall be received to prove any Will Nuncupative, except the said Testimony, or the Substance thereof, were committed to Writing within six Days after the making of the said Will.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That no Letters Testamentary or Probate of any Nuncupative Will shall pass the Seal of any Court, till fourteen Days at the least after the Decease of the Testator be fully expired; (2) nor shall any Nuncupative Will be at any Time received to be proved, unless Process have first issued to call in the Widow, or next of Kindred to the Deceased, to the End they may contest the same, if they please. Probates of Nuncupative Wills.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That no Will in Writing concerning any Goods or Chattels, or Personal Estate, shall be repealed, nor shall any Clause, Devise or Bequest therein, be altered or changed by any Words, or Will by Word of Mouth only, except the same be in the Life of the Testator committed to Writing, and after the Writing thereof read unto the Testator, and allowed by him, and proved to be so done by three Witnesses at the least. Raymond 334.

XXIII. Provided always, That notwithstanding this Act, any Soldier being in actual Military Service, or any Mariner or Seaman being at Sea, may dispose of his Moveables, Wages and Personal Estate, as he or they might have done before the making of this Act. Soldiers and Mariners Wills excepted.

XXIV. And it is hereby declared, That nothing in this Act shall extend to alter or change the Jurisdiction or Right of Probate of Wills concerning Personal Estates, but that the Prerogative Court of the Archbishop of Canterbury, and other Ecclesiastical Courts, and other Courts having Right to the Probate of such Wills, shall retain the same Right and Power as they had before, in every respect; subject nevertheless to the Rules and Directions of this Act. The Jurisdiction of Courts saved.

XXV. And for the explaining one Act of this present Parliament, intituled, An Act for the better settling of Intestates Estates; (2) Be it declared by the Authority aforesaid, That neither the said Act, nor any Thing therein contained, shall be construed to extend to the Estates of Feme Coverts that shall die Intestate, but that their Husbands may demand and have Administration of their Rights, Credits, and other Personal Estates, and recover and enjoy the same, as they might have done before the making of the said Act. [Made perpetual by 1 Jac. 2. c. 17. §. 5.] 22 & 23 Car. 2. c. 10. Husbands not compellable to make Distribution of the Personal Estates of their Wives. 1 Mod. 231.

CAP. IV.
